I looked over to my dad again and saw he was now looking at me. I winked at him and nodded slightly at Mike who was still in an animated conversation with his wife. My dad grinned and shook his head as if he couldn't believe it. I knew what he was thinking, that his daughter had taken less than fifteen minutes to find her first fuck of the night!

I left the ballroom and once in the hallway I looked up and down. The coast was clear so I slipped into the empty conference room and shut the door behind me. It wasn't completely dark as a few of the lights were on dim but it was dark enough to make it hard to see if anyone else was in there.. I waited by the door and a few minutes later Mike came in. He didn't see me at first but then as his eyes adjusted to the low light he saw me standing there and grinned.

"Wow, you really came," he said with what was either a sigh of relief or perhaps he had not really believed I would do it.

He stepped up to me and reached around me with one hand to grab my ass again. The guy seemed to have a one-track mind! To his surprise, I pulled away and said to him a business like tone, "Before we do anything there's a couple of things I want to know. One - do you always cheat on your wife this easily? Two - when was the last time? And three - what made you think I'd be so easy?"

Mike rolled his eyes at this. I think he was somehow expecting to just burst in and start fucking me like some whore. Instead here I was I was giving him the third degree. The guy was no dummy and he pick up quickly that I was serious. He explained that while he had cheated on his wife a number of time, it had been over three years since he'd last done it.

He gave me the typical married guy speech - how his wife no longer seemed to want to have sex, how she had grown so obese she no longer even turned him on. I'd heard this all before from other married guys and I couldn't help but feel that it took two to tango but who was I to criticize him? What interested me most though was what he said next.

"As for knowing you would be easy, you DO know you are the talk of the office don't you?" he asked.

I looked at him quizzically and he continued, "You really didn't expect all those guys to not brag about what they did to you, did you? I mean come on Kelly, they fucked the boss's daughter for god's sake! Best of all, you asked for it! How could you expect them NOT to brag about it?"

He stood back and looked me over saying, "So tonight you show up in a slutty Christmas costume. Well, what did you expect someone like me to think? You may as well be wearing a sign that says 'Fuck me!' for crying out loud!"

Always the lawyer, Mike had made his case and so the prosecution rested. What could I say - I was guilty as charged! Well, this was obviously not the time for subtlety so I decided to just go for it. I moved up close to him and put my hand on his crotch. He was already hard as a rock! "Mmmmmmm, I think you have something naughty on your mind for me."

Mike chuckled at me, "You really ARE a slutty little one, aren't you. I bet you can't wait to get my cock in your pussy, can you? When was the last time you got fucked good?"

I didn't dare tell him I'd been fucked pretty good by my dad just this morning but he really wasn't looking for me to answer anyway. Mike unzipped his pants and reached in for his cock which he pulled out of his pants for me. "Here you go, a nice hard cock for you to suck. Now let's see if you're really as good as they say you are."

Well, I was up for that challenge! Dropping to my knees, I took his cock in my hand and felt the smooth warmth of his shaft. It was still growing and I could feel the throbbing of his heartbeat as the blood engorged it further. I took the big head in my mouth and licked the tip with my tongue. Mmmmmmm, he tasted good!

I held the base of his cock between a circle formed by my thumb and first finger such that it stuck straight out towards my face. My tongue ran up and down the length of him starting from the cock tip to my hand and then back up again, covering his cock with spit which then allowed me to stroke him with my hand. I ran my hand enclosed around his dick up and down while twisting it at the same time. Mike was groaning softly so I took him back in my mouth again, this time taking all of him in my mouth.

Normally I would go until I felt his pubic hair brushing my face but in this case he still had his pants on so just his shaft was exposed. Since I couldn't get to his balls with my free hand I took advantage of the opportunity and put my hand down my tights and started playing with myself. Mike held my head and started forcing me to stroke his cock in and out of my mouth. He was pushing his cock so hard into my mouth I would have fallen over backwards if he hadn't been holding me steady with my head!

"That's it Kelly, suck it. Ahhhhhh, that's it!" Mike groaned again, "Damn you ARE good! Shit, if your dad could only knew what a sleazy slut his daughter really was!"

Well, wouldn't he be surprised if he knew that my dad DID know his daughter was a slut! If Mike was turned on now, imagine if he knew I had blown my dad just a few hours earlier! For whatever reason most guys I chat with find it hot that I fuck my dad and it's too bad that I can't tell the guys who DO fuck me that my dad has sex with me.

I was feeling pretty wet and then I realized that all I had on were the tights. Damn! If I got them wet in the crotch it would look like I peed on myself and I didn't have anything else to wear. Suggestive as I liked to be, running around the party bare-ass in a miniskirt was not exactly on the menu of things that I could do.

Well, in any case it was time to get Mike to fuck me before he came from my blowjob anyway so I let his cock flop from my mouth and I grabbed my tights such that when I stood up my tights dropped down. I pushed them down to my ankles but left them on and then turned around to face a table in the room. I turned my head around and looked at him over my shoulder, watching him as he stroked his wet cock while he looked at my bare ass poking out from under my short skirt. I smacked drops of sperm as I sucked his cock dry. Finally I stood up and he started to pull up his pants.

"Got a handkerchief?" I asked him.

He looked at me quizzically but gave me one from his suit pockets. I wiped my pussy clean with it and handed it back to him saying, "Thanks! Now you have something to remember me by all night!" Mike held it to his noise and smiled. "Damn you are one hot fucking little whore!"

"Hey!" I shot back at him, "That's twice now. I may be a slut but I'm not a whore!"

Mike laughed at my indignant response. "True, you didn't charge me."

I had pulled up my tights by now and straightened out my outfit. His erection had subsided and there was no noticeable bulge. We were ready to head back and I started to leave for the door.

"Hey Kelly," he called to me, "All teasing aside, you ARE one hell of a good fuck. Can we do this again sometime?"

I gave him a teasing little laugh and just smiled at him as I walked out the door. Leave them always wanting more!

6. Meeting Sandy and Candice

I headed back to the party room where my dad was helping the DJ set up the sound system.

"Where the hell have you been?" he asked.

Then he noticed Mike coming in through the same door as I had and shook his head in amazement.

"Damn girl, already?" he exclaimed. I winked at him and gave him a naughty smile. He gave me a pat on the butt saying, "You know, sometimes I just don't know what I'm going to do with you." I gave him a wink and a smile and went over to help out my mom.

It was about time to get started and the room was getting pretty full. I noticed that virtually everyone was looking at my outfit and I loved all the attention. The next hour or so was pretty boring. My dad gave the mandatory welcome speech, telling everyone what a great year it had been and recognizing some of the people who had done especially well. Dinner was a buffet and I just grabbed a few bites. No way was I going to gain five pounds over break! Finally the DJ got started and people hit the dance floor. It was finally party time!

I soon noticed two teenage girls that were dancing and so I went over to join them. They loved my outfit and a they were dressed to kill in their own way. We all knew that every guy was watching us so we played it up to the hilt - dancing close and suggestive for a while and then each doing her own thing depending on the music.

It's always been funny to me how everyone seems to love seeing girls dancing together but you NEVER see a group of guys dancing. After a few songs we took a break and went to an empty table. I had not seen them around at other events so I was curious about them. They turned out to be sisters, sixteen and eighteen years old. Their dad was new to the firm and they had just moved to Pittsburgh from Boston.

I started pointing out the various guys and filled them in on who was cheating on their wives and all the other gossip. There were a few cute guys there as well and we laughed as they made a few suggestive comments about them. It was just girl talk as they didn't seem the type to fool around like that. A lot of girls are like that - they enjoy teasing and flirting but other than that it's strictly hands off! They asked about my costume and I told them that my dad had bought it for me and their eyes widened.

"Your DAD bought THAT for you?" said Sandy, the sixteen year-old. "Wow, our dad wouldn't even let us OWN something like that let alone buy it for us."

Candice, the older sister, nodded in agreement, "Dad about had a fit when we got these outfits, I can just imagine what he's going to say about yours on the way home!"

We all laughed at that and it made a nice break point for us to hit the dance floor again. I noticed Mike had gotten his wife out on the dance floor but I think it was just so he could get near me again. As the floor got more crowded they brushed up against me and I felt a quick pinch on my ass. Mike's eyes met mine for just a moment and there was a naughty twinkle in his so I knew who had just felt me up. I saw his wife look at me and her lips pursed noticeable in disapproval. Well, if she had any idea what her husband had done to me not too long ago she would have done more than that!

A few of the single guys started hitting on us. I doubt they knew how young Sandy was. In her slinky dress she looked a few years older than she was but she was still jailbait! I danced with a few guys as well. It was fun and I enjoyed the evening as it wore on. People were drinking heavily and things got louder and more obnoxious. It was a good thing they all had rooms for the evening!

I was beginning to think that the night was going to end this without anything else happening when one of the interns asked me to dance. It was a slow song and so we danced holding on to each other. I never have learned to properly dance but he was even worse than me but it really didn't matter. His hand started on my back but as the song wore on it slowly worked its way down until it was at the top of my ass. He was looking down but most of the time it was past my face and more trying to look down my dress to see my boobs which were pressed against him. Finally he worked up the nerve to ask me what I knew he had been wanting to ask from the start.

"I don't know about you Kelly, but I'm getting tired of all this. Want to get away for a bit?" He asked.

I looked up at him and answered, "What do you mean by "get away"?

He looked a little tentative but I didn't say a word. Finally he answered, "I mean up to my room. A few of us were about to head up there and we were wondering if you'd like to join us?"

Now THIS finally sounded like something interesting finally. I didn't want to seem TOO anxious to leave with him though so I pretended to be hesitant and unsure of myself. I suddenly realized I didn't even know his name for crying out loud and here I was thinking about going up to his room with him. Not only that, lord knows who else was going to be up there. I had no illusions we were going to play Monopoly!

"C'mon Kelly, it'll be fun," he said, a sly smile on his face betraying exactly what kind of fun he was talking about.

Then an idea came to my mind, "Can I ask my friends?"

He looked uncertain but I didn't give him a chance to respond. I hurried over to where Candice and Sandy were sitting and quickly explained to them the situation. They looked at each other and then back at me.

"I don't know," Candice said, "What do they expect us to do?"

Sandy poked her older sister. "Oh you're always such a stick in the mud Candice. Sounds like fun to me."

The two of them were definitely sisters! They argued back and forth in that way it seems only siblings can get away with as I listened. I sometimes wished I had a sister to share things with. Even a brother would have been nice. There were a lot of advantages to being an only child but at the same time whenever I was with another girl and her sister or brother, there was just something between them that I realized I was missing out on.

Finally it looked like Sandy won the battle and the two of them got up to come with me. We all went out to the hallway where the guys were waiting for us. There four more of them in addition to the guy who invited us - so much for "a few of us". Oh well, the more the merrier I guess. They all looked to be in their early twenties and I had to admit that they were a hot looking bunch.

"Well, what are we waiting for?" I asked.

Big smiles appeared on each of their faces and we headed for the elevators. Once on I finally asked him what his name was. He laughed and told me it was Nathan. He rattled off his friends' names as well but they just went in one ear and out the other. Candice and Sandy introduced themselves and then one of the guys asked Sandy how old she was. "Eighteen and three months," she said and I was impressed at how well she lied through her teeth!

A couple of the guys smiled knowingly as I don't think they bought it for a minute but who was going to argue with her?

7. Christmas Party Gangbang

We got to the room and I realized immediately that it was going to be a bit cramped with eight people. The sisters and I hopped on the one bed while the guys sat on the chairs, dresser, and on the edge of the second bed. Nobody spoke at first and since Nathan seemed to be the ringleader everyone looked to him to get things started.

"Well, what do you girls want to do?" he asked lamely.

Candice and Sandy looked to me since I was the one that got them into this. I just rolled my eyes at the question and said, "Well, since YOU asked US to come up here, I would have thought you already had that figured out." Actually, I had a good idea that Nathan never really expected me to say yes let alone bring along two other girls. I'm sure he had played out this fantasy in his mind while masturbating many a time but like most guys, now that the opportunity was actually in front of him he was panicking.

"Hey, how about some strip poker?" one of the guys called out.

He looked to be a bit drunk and his inhibitions were lower than the others apparently. I looked at my new friends and their eyes had widened at first but Sandy just shrugged her shoulder and even Candice seemed OK with the idea after she thought about it so we all got around one of the beds and a pack of cards appeared from nowhere. My parents didn't gamble and I had only watched poker on TV and that wasn't the kind we were playing. The game was called five card draw and I had no idea how to play. They quickly told us the rules and the game started.

I soon realized I was at a distinct disadvantage as I had virtually nothing to take off that didn't expose something whereas the guys had underwear, socks, ties and all sorts of things. Sandy and Candice weren't in much better shape than me but they at least had bras and panties.

The guys lost the first few hands but it was no big deal. Then I lost one hand and gave up one of my shoes. It wasn't long before all three of us girls were shoeless and the guys were missing shoes and socks but the next loss meant something big for me. Finally it happened and I was stuck. I stood up and took a big breath. Every eye was on me and the room was suddenly quiet as I slowly lowered my tights.

I turned away and they got a great view of my ass as I bent down to slip the tights off my legs. I sat back on the edge of the bed and I could see the guys trying to get a peek at my pussy under the edge of my short skirt. Fortunately the guys went on a losing streak and most of them were down to their pants or underwear before a girl lost again. Then it didn't take but a few hand before Candice was down to her bra and panties and then Sandy was as well. I was hanging in there but the luck finally left me and I lost a hand. Everyone knew what that meant and this time the room wasn't nearly so quiet.

"C'mon, take it off!" one guy yelled. I turned to Nathan and asked, "Isn't there something I can do instead?" I pleaded. Nathan looked at the guys and they seemed uncertain until Nathan raised his finger as if a brilliant idea had struck him.

"Ok Kelly, you can leave on your dress if you do this," he said. He looked at me and then Candice and Sandy before he continued. "You have to kiss one of them. I don't mean some little girl peck on the cheek, I want to see some tongue action!"

Well, I was up for that but Candice looked like she had been jolted with a shock. Sandy on the other hand got this mysterious look on her face. I leaned over to her and she closed her eyes and leaned forward to me. Our lips met and then we scooted together and held each other. Our lips parted and our tongues touched as the guys hooted and hollered for us to "do it".

"Just do what I do," I said to her and she looked a little less tense. She became my mirror at that point, mimicking my every move. Fortunately the guy she was sucking had a somewhat smaller dick so it was easy for her to suck and even take completely in her mouth.

As it turned out, the girl was a natural! I doubted her technique with her tongue was anywhere near mine and some of the lip action I used was hard to demonstrate but the guy certainly didn't seem to care. Soon Nathan was about ready and I tapped on Sandy's arm to watch.

I held Nathan's cock so the head was barely in my mouth and stroked his dick as fast as I could. My tongue played around the head when he suddenly groaned and his hips rose up from the bed. I felt the first burst of cum squirt from his cock and it hit my tongue. Leaving my mouth loose on his cock, this allowed his cum to drip from my mouth and down my chin. With each load I had more in my mouth but even more dripping from me onto him. Sandy was watching me with her guy's cock in her mouth but she was motionless as she watched me take his cum in my mouth, her eyes as wide as saucers. I kept stroking his cock which was now covered in cum, getting it all over my hand.

The rest of the guys cheered and then started chanting for the other guy to cum too. Sandy again mimicked me and held his head in her mouth as she stroked his shaft. It wasn't long before he shot his first load but Sandy quickly took her mouth off of him after the first load hit her mouth. She grimaced as she spit it out and then he hit her face and hair with the rest of his cum. After he finished we both sat up and she looked at me with a mixture of defiance and disgust on her face.

"How do you take that in your mouth?" she asked, spitting the rest out, "Ewwwww, it's disgusting."

Based on my own personal survey, about one quarter or less of girls really like cum and maybe another quarter tolerate it enough to let their guy cum in their mouth but then they spit it out as fast as possible. It didn't surprise me therefore that Sandy hated it. I guess it's like anything else, some people loved it and others don't. I happen to be one of the 25% or so that LOVE cum which certainly helps when it comes time for a guy to blow his wad. I used my finger to wipe some of the cum from her cheek and then I licked it off and smiled at her.

"Well, I happen to love it but don't worry, you don't have to take it in your mouth, most guys love to shoot it all over you anyway."

please another one. The main difference is of course you don't get the feedback you get when you touch yourself so you still have to learn the little idiosyncrasies that every person has (just like sucking cocks - every guy needs something a little different).

Sandy was obviously well experienced in pussy touching, even if it was just her own, and I felt a tingle though me as her fingertip toyed with my clit. Just like when we gave the blowjobs, she seemed to follow my lead. I worked my way into her pussy and she did the same with mine. When my finger was wet with her pussy juice I took it out and put it on her lips. She pulled back just a little but I pushed it into her mouth and she instinctively sucked it, I had no doubt she had tasted herself at least once but this was the first time it was served this way to her! She did the same and I loved the taste of my cunt on her finger.

I rolled her on her back and softly said to her, "Just relax now... enjoy this."

I turned and put my hands on each side of her hips. My boobs were rubbing against her stomach as I lowered my face between her legs. She spread them apart in submission to me as my tongue began to work on her cute little pussy. God she tasted good! I looked around and every guy was stroking himself like crazy. As the makers of porn films know, every guy dreams of seeing two girls get it on and here we were doing just that right in front of them! I worked my hands under Sandy's ass and grabbed her butt with them. Damn she had a firm little ass! My tongue raced around her clit and I could hear her moaning even above the groans of the guys around us.

Out of the corner of my eye Candice was watching but I could see she wasn't looking as horrified anymore and her hand was actually between her legs! It wasn't moving much - yet, but it was a good sign. As I licked Sandy I lifted my leg and draped it over her so I was straddling her face. I felt her hands on my hips, pulling me down to her so I dropped myself down to her until I felt her face and tongue against my ass.

The thought of this little virgin licking my pussy, the first one she had ever smelled and tasted other than her own, was the final straw for me. I felt a surge from my crotch and then my entire body went rigid as every pore seemed to electrify and tingle. I groaned in ecstasy as her tongue pushed into me as I came, drenching her with my pussy cum. Unlike the sperm, she lapped up my cum from me like a dog with a fresh plate of food.

I looked over at Candice and sighed, making sure she understood her sister had just made me cum. That seemed to set something off in her and Candice reached in her panties and started playing with herself. I wanted Sandy to cum too so I moved around until I was between her legs facing her, just as I had been when I was sucking Nathan. I look up at her and her eyes were fixated on me. As I licked her pretty pussy my ass was up in the air again. God it felt hot after my orgasm, not to mention unnaturally empty. I lifted my head up from Sandy's cunt and looked around at the guys.

"I can't believe my soaking wet cunt is still empty with all these hard cocks around," I said to them all, "Are you all gay or what? So who is going to fuck me dammit?"

They all looked at each other and as if on signal went racing to the end of the bed. I went back to Sandy's pussy, figuring they would work it out for themselves. Sure enough, after the sounds of a scuffle and a few harsh words I felt the head of a cock pressing against me. His hands spread my ass apart to expose my swollen cunt and then came that wonderful sensation I get when a cock first forces it way into my tight cunt. It always seems like it won't go in but it always does (thank God!).

I was in heaven, a cute little pussy in my face and a hard cock in my own pussy. What more could a girl ask for? He wasn't interested in much technique, just stroking himself in and out of me, driving my face against Sandy's pussy when he pushed and pulling it away as he pulled back. Sandy was getting into it now herself, humping her hips up and down like she was fucking my tongue in her. She had been quiet up until now but as her orgasm started she let loose.

"Oh my god that feels soooooo good," she cried out, almost scaring a coupe guys next to her who were masturbating as they watched us. "Oh fuck, I'm cumming, god I'm cumming so hard."

She certainly did. Sandy was what guys call a "squirter". Her pussy cum shot from her into my mouth and I swallowed every drop of her delicious nectar. My tongue went back to work on her clit as I drove her higher and higher into her orgasm. The bed was drenched under her ass as she flowed out a stream of pussy cum. Damn, I had never cum that much myself and I thought I was a gusher!

Just then the guy fucking me came. "Oh yea, cum in me," I cried, letting everyone know what he was doing to me.

"Fuck me!" I yelled at him.

I was up on my hands now, rocking against his cock as he filled my pussy with cum. Sandy started touching herself, keeping her pussy hot after her orgasm. One of the guys reached for her pussy and was acting like he wanted to fuck her but she shook her head vigorously. She got off the bed and went back over to Candice where they held each other tight as they watched me being fucked. Both of them were touching themselves and I would have loved to see them doing it to each other but that was going a bit too far for one night. As it was this was quite the evening for them!

After the first guy fucked me I laid on my back and grabbed a pillow which I put under my butt to elevate my pussy to be more accessible. I was so damn horny with all these hard cocks around me I couldn't wait for the next one. Looking around, they were all still stroking themselves so I challenged them saying, "Well, doesn't anyone else want a piece of this?"

One by one they fucked me, even Nathan and the guy Sandy blew. It was heaven! I must have cum another three or four times as my pussy filled with cum to the point it was overflowing. Sandy and Candice watched everything and I saw them whispering to one another at times. I would have given anything to know what they were saying!

Finally I had done them all and I just laid back in the bed with my legs apart, cum dripping from my pussy. Every one of them had cum in me which surprised me as a lot of guys prefer to see themselves cum on my outer pussy, stomach, boobs or even my face. I certainly wasn't complaining. It was a lot less mess this way plus loved the feeling when a man fills my pussy with sperm.

The guys all looked exhausted so I figured it was time to make an exit. I got up and went over to Sandy and Candice.

"Well girls, had enough?" I said with a grin.

Sandy looked at me like a groupie at a rock concert. "Oh my god Kelly, I can't believe you did all that. You really ARE slut just like they said, aren't you."

That last was more a statement than a question. I imagine in her thoughts she was close to calling me a whore but was trying not to be disrespectful.

I leaned over to kiss Sandy and then looked at Candice saying, "You know, you have a wonderful sister. If I had one like her I would be all over her!"

Candice just blushed but Sandy gave her a look such that I wondered if maybe I hadn't sparked something there. We went in the bathroom and washed off enough to be respectable. Getting dressed, I realized I was so full of cum to was still draining from me as I stood up and the crotch of my tights was wet almost instantly when I pulled them up. Oh well, I was planning on going straight to my room anyway since I was sure the party was over by now.

We said goodnight to the guys and they begged us to stay but we left anyway. Out in the hallway I said goodnight to Candice and Sandy we agreed to get together again which I certainly hope will happen soon. I got to my parents room and realized I didn't have a key. So much for a quiet entry. I knocked softly and my mom answered.

"Kelly! Jesus, where have you been girl?" she whispered. Your dad's asleep but I've been worried about you. Someone said you and those new girls went off with a bunch of guys, is that true?"

I stepped into the room and she sniffed a bit at me. "God you stink like sex girl! Well, I guess I know the answer to that one. So how many guys did you do?"

I grinned at her and held up five fingers. She just clucked at me and said, "Well, you dad told me about Mike so I guess you've had quite a night for yourself. You'll have to tell me about it in the morning though, god I'm tired!"

I grabbed a quick shower, dried my hair quickly and then slipped in bed between my parents. I was facing my mom so our boobs were touching while my ass was snuggled in tight to my dad's crotch and I could feel his soft cock against my butt. What a perfect night, fucked a married guy, made two new girl friends with some interesting possibilities, got fucked by five horny guys, and now was ending the night between two of the most wonderful parents in the whole world.

I fell asleep convinced I was the luckiest girl in the whole world!

wake up in the middle of the night and see me sleeping nude in my bed (which I have been doing since I was twelve).

My parents have always slept nude but growing up I wore silly little pajamas and then little girl nighties until one day when I saw my parents undressing for bed I wondered what it would be like to sleep without any clothes on so I took off my nightie and slipped between the sheets nude. It felt strange at first but at the same time I liked the feel of the sheets against my bare skin and besides, what girl doesn't like to be like her mom?

One morning my dad was up to get ready for work and he noticed I was nude as my covers had been thrown off during the night. I must have subconsciously realized he was looking at me because I woke up to see him standing in my door. He was nude himself but then he usually was this time of the morning. I noticed his cock was getting hard but again, it was not unusual to see my dad that way after leaving their bedroom so I didn't think anything odd about it. I smiled at him and he grinned back at me.

"So I see our little girl is growing up," he said to me. "So what's wrong, outgrow outgrown your pajamas?"

"Oh daddy!" I responded, blushing just a little bit.

My dad just smiled at winked at me and went on to the bathroom. From that time on he never mentioned anything again to me about sleeping nude but looking back now I realize that he started tucking me in bed again, something he had stopped doing years ago.

While I liked to sleep nude, I rarely went about the house nude. I typically wore a long t-shirt in the evenings and then as I got older I learned how soft my dad's dress shirts felt to wear – not to mention how accessible they were! I normally didn't strip down until I was ready to hit the hay.

2. Christmas Morning Gift Opening

So this Christmas I had to make a choice, wear something to bed or close the door. Rather than put up with a nightshirt just so I could leave my door open, I decided to close the door. It was weird, my room seemed so much smaller with it shut! As usual, I woke up horny as hell so my hand seemed to have a mind of its own as it moved between my legs and started to rub my already wet pussy. I found myself wishing my dad could come in and greet me as he usually did in the mornings but instead I could hear my grandfather out in the hall wishing my dad good morning.

My grandparents, at least those on my dad's side, had no idea what their son's family did in the privacy of their home. I masturbated as I imagined what he would say if he were to walk to the bathroom and see my bedroom door open allowing him a view of his son fucking his granddaughter! It made me cum thinking about it even though I knew it would never happen. Some things just can't be understood by people and I knew my grandparents would never be able to comprehend my true relationship with my parents.

I know I had to get up soon so I picked out a light blue dress shirt of my dad's I kept hidden in my closet so my mom wouldn't take it, and put it on to serve as my pajamas for Christmas. In what I guess you could call a small act of defiance, I decided not to wear anything else under it, not even a thong. The shirt tails hung down just almost to my knees so as long as I didn't get too carried away there should not be any danger of flashing my grandparents but it felt incredibly erotic anyway when I stepped out into the hallway to see my grandparents and parents there.

My mom looked at me and I think she could tell from the twinkle in my eye what I was wearing (or rather, NOT wearing) and she shot me a look of disapproval. I just grinned and rolled my eyes for her. After all, it's not like she could say anything to me at the time!

"So Kelly," my grandma said, "You all ready to open Santa's presents?"

"Sure!" I exclaimed and I bounded down the stairs ahead of them.

I was barefoot and almost slipped about halfway down but I just laughed it off and continued down the next flight into the basement where the family room was. The tree was surrounded by presents just as it had been the night before. My parents had long since given up on hiding anything so it wasn't like Santa had arrived during the night or anything. The difference was that now I finally got to open them!

My parents and grandparents soon arrived and I served as the gift presenter, handing out the various packages to each recipient. Needless to say almost everything I got was some form of clothing with a few gift cards mixed in. They were outfits I needed for school and as such were all fairly conservative.

As the morning went on and the last of the gifts were opened, I looked out of the corner of my eye to my dad. He caught my eye and I knew he understood what I was silently questioning him. He silently mouthed a "later" to me and I grinned, wondering just what he had gotten me this year but even more, how he was going to give it to me with his parents here. Grandma and Grandpa were certainly not going to enjoy seeing me in my new outfit – at last I hoped not! My worries were soon answered when my grandma stood up and pulled my grandpa up off the couch next to me.

"C'mon old man," she teased him, "let's get cleaned up and dressed so these folks can have their bathroom.

My grandpa pretended to be put off by her statement and replied, "Now who are you calling an old man anyway – old woman!"

We all laughed and they headed up the stairs. No sooner were they out of sight then my dad reached behind his chair and pulled out what I had been awaiting for – his secret present!

"You didn't think I'd forget about this I hope Kelly," my dad said with that sly grin I loved to see on his face.

I knew whenever I saw that expression that he was getting horny and so whatever was in that box must be pretty good to get him going without me even opening it. I grabbed the box from him like a spoiled child and quickly tore off the paper. The box was just plain white without a hint of where it came from or what was inside. I slipped off the top and saw tissue paper inside. Reaching through the paper I finally saw what it was and I looked up at him with a huge grin on my face.

"Oh daddy!" I exclaimed, "It's perfect."

I pulled out the outfit – it was a classic "little black dress". It was obviously low cut and from the length of it I knew it certainly wasn't going to cover much more than my ass- if that! There was just something sexy about the dress – even more so than a skimpy bikini, sheer nightie, or naughty cheerleader outfit. I stood up and held it up against me. It was practically weightless and I couldn't wait to try it on. I kissed him and twirled around and ran right to my room.

My grandparents were in their room so I closed the door and quickly stripped off the shirt and pulled the dress down over my head. There was no way a bra was going to fit under it, even if I wanted such a thing. My dad hadn't included any panties so I stayed bottomless. If I ever wore this out in public though I knew I would need something under it – probably a nice black thong.

Looking in the mirror, I saw it took only the slightest bending over to make it slip up my ass! I loved the way it clung to my body, like it was painted on me. My boobs looked great and as excited as I was my nipples were clearly visible thought the thin material. I opened the door to head back downstairs and was caught by surprise – my grandfather was just coming out of the bathroom. He looked at me and my outfit and a strange look came over his face, as if he just didn't know quite what to say. Then he just looked away and went back to their bedroom as if he didn't want to know anything more.

Oh well, I figured, may as well go for it now so I went back down to the family room where my mom and dad were waiting for me. My dad let out a wolf whistle while my mom snapped a few pics of me.

"Damn John," my mom exclaimed, "that has to be the sexiest outfit you've bought her yet. Good work dad!"

My dad was clearly proud of himself. I twirled around in front of him while my mom snapped off a few more shots.

"Oh daddy, I love it!" I exclaimed and I jumped in his lap and gave him a big hug and a kiss.

He put his big arms around me and held me tightly against him as we kissed long and hard. I loved it when he held me this way. It reminded me of when I was a little girl scared at night and he would come into my room and hold me until I felt safe again. Nothing made me feel as secure and safe as being in my dad's arms. It was the once place in the world where I knew nothing would happen to me, that he would never do anything to hurt me in anyway nor would he let anything else hurt me.

3. Thanking My Mom While My Dad Watches

"Hey girl," my mom called out to me, "Doesn't Mom get something for everything you've gotten this year?

I grinned at her. She must have been pretty turned on seeing me kissing my dad as usually when we were together she just liked to sit back and watch us. I gave my dad a peck in the cheek and moved over to my mom. Sitting next to her we leaned towards one another and I felt her lips meet mine as we entered into a sensuous and loving kiss.

"Slip that dress off," she murmured to me softly.

As I did she opened her robe and I saw she was naked underneath. My mom may be in her forties now but you would never know it looking at her body which looked at least ten years younger. Granted she worked hard to keep it that way with her diet and exercise but there were some things that only good genes could take

Well, I loved licking her just as much as she enjoyed me doing it! My tongue worked its way down her pussy slit until it was running circles around the wet opening to her pussy. I loved the taste of my mom's pussy. It was so much stronger than the younger girls I had oral sex with like my cousin Kristi or my roomie Jen.

That seemed to be true in general of older woman since my Aunt Linda and my mom's friend Tammy were more like my mom. I think part of it was just the fact it was my mother's pussy that I had my face buried in. This was the same pussy from which I emerged over twenty years ago and now here I was pushing my tongue back inside of it. Could she have dreamed when she gave birth to me so long ago that someday the same girl who was giving her so much pain then would be able to give her so much pleasure in return?

My mom's pussy was the first one I had ever tasted other than my own and no matter who I am with in the future I know it will always be my favorite one!

As I swirled my tongue around her clit I poked one finger inside her pussy, penetrating her as far as I could reach and then followed it with another and then yet another one. I fucked her with my fingers while my lips grabbed her clit, tugging gently on it while my tongue ran over the hard tip. My mom's ass clenched in my hands and her hips lifted up against me. I felt her hands on the top of my head, driving me down into her crotch, forcing me into her pussy. Suddenly a gush of pussy cum emerged, drenching me and flooding my face with her fluids.

"Oh fuck!!!!" she cried out, "God I'm cumming... make me cum Kelly, make me cum harder!"

Her hips bucked like a bronco under me as she fucked my face which was now covered in her pussy cum. I could hear her gasping as she struggled for breath. Then she lifted her hips up and held them there as the last great wave of pleasure coursed through her body. I never stopped licking her as I wanted her to have a great orgasm, to make her feel wonderful, to be a good daughter for my mother. As she finally collapsed onto the couch I slowly played my tongue around her pussy slit and crotch. God I loved the way she tasted!

4. My Dad Gives Me Another Gift

Then to my surprise I felt something pushing against my pussy from behind. It could only be one thing of course – my dad's stiff cock. Mmmmmmm, yes! He was going to fuck me! Sure enough without a word he pushed his cock harder against my cunt and I felt myself spreading apart as the head forced its way inside of me.

My mom could see him from where she was laying and encouraged him saying, "Oh yea John, fuck her... fuck your daughter good, god she deserves it after what she just did to me!"

I kept my mouth firmly on my mom's crotch so I didn't say anything. There really was no need to as my dad was going to do it regardless of what I said anyway. After all, he knew he was welcome to fuck me any time he wanted to so he didn't have to ask. One of my favorite things he did was to sneak in my room while I was sleeping and see how far he could get into me without waking me. God, what could be more erotic than to wake up with your father's cock already inside of you and wonder what he had been doing while I was asleep?!

"Merry fucking Christmas, Kelly," my dad said cheerfully as he shoved his cock with one hard push deep inside of me.

He started stroking himself in and out of me, slamming himself into my ass with a slapping sound each time. When his body met mine it would drive me forward and press my face hard into my mom's pussy which had the effect of pushing it against her clit making her gasp as well. She was still playing with her boobs and moaned each time my wet face slide in tight against her clit.

My dad was holding my hips with his hands, pulling me into him as he fucked me and then pushing me away as he withdrew. He liked to slowly pull out until his cock was barely in me, the head almost ready to plop out of my cunt and then quickly drive it in to the hilt in one smooth movement. I was so wet his cock made a sloppy sound as it disappeared inside of me and I could feel my own orgasm beginning to rise in me.

It had been ages since I had been in the middle of my parents this way and I wanted to enjoy it as much as possible so it certainly didn't take much to bring me to a climax. I moaned against my mom's pussy and she knew what that meant.

"Get ready John, she's cumming!" my mom exclaimed.

"You don't have to tell me, honey," my dad groaned, "God she can squeeze with that pussy!"

Guys have always told me that when I cum my pussy squeezes their cocks really hard – sometimes to the point they say it hurts. All I knew was that at a moment like this it felt like it was on fire, pulsing with pleasure that passed throughout my entire body. Nothing else came close to making me feel this, like I was in some dream world where nothing else existed except the tingling in my body and the sheer ecstasy that overwhelmed me.

It was only natural for my pussy to try to hold onto the wonderful cock in it that was responsible for making it feel so good! I never wanted it to end but eventually the surges running through me died down and I felt myself returning back to the world once again. If this is how it feels to be on drugs then I can understand why people are addicted! Fortunately I was able to summon it without a needle!

Looking up from my mom's crotch I could see her lifting her head to see me past her boobs. She was smiling and I smiled back at her. My dad pulled out of me and twisted my hips. I understood what he wanted and as I got up my mom sat up on the couch. I laid on my back with my head in her lap, one leg lifted up on the back of the couch and the other hanging over the edge giving my dad a clear view of my open pussy. My mom stroked my hair with one hand and reached down to play with my pussy with the other. She twiddled my clit while my dad lined up for another shot at fucking me.

I lifted my hips so he could put a pillow under my ass and then he kneeled on one knee with his other foot on the floor. Holding his cock he scooted in until it was pushing up against my pussy where my mom grabbed it and used it like a dildo to rub my clit. It felt wonderful to have my parents working together to make me feel this good and at that moment I felt so much love for them! Who could ask for better parents?! I looked up at my mom and our eyes met.

"Oh mom," I sighed, "I love you both soooooo much!"

"We love you too Kelly," my mom replied, "now hold still so your dad can fuck you again. I think it's his turn to cum now!"

I realized that I must have been wiggling my hips as my clit was stimulated with his cock head so I tried as best I could to relax and lay still while my mom directed my dad's cock to my pussy hole.

"There you go John," she said to my dad, "fuck your little girl. I want to see you cum in her."

My dad was only too happy to do what she asked and I felt him entering me again. After his last fucking my pussy was stretched out a bit so it didn't feel quite as tight as he entered me but I still reveled in the feeling as his cock filled my hungry pussy. "Ohhhhhh daddy," I whispered, "I love you in me."

My dad was going for it now, driving himself hard in and out of me, working himself to his own climax. Faster and faster he fucked me, slamming himself against my cunt, grunting with each thrust. I could feel his cock swelling and his head went back as his cock prepared to burst inside of me.

"Cum in me daddy," I begged, "Give me your love, show me how much you love me."

I knew my dad loved me unconditionally. He didn't have to fuck me to prove it but I still loved it when he did. Everyone loves to be shown they are loved and this was the ultimate act my dad could do for me. When he came inside of me it made me feel so secure and loved.

When other guys cum in me it is simply something that feels good but I don't get any emotional fulfillment from it, just physical pleasure. With my dad, while it still felt good to feel the pulses of heat in me that signified his sperm being released inside of me, it was more emotional. Having my own father fuck me was so intimate, so personal, that the final stage where he gave me the most personal gift he could was the final act of fulfillment for me.

"Ohhhhhhhhh," I moaned as I felt the first load of cum shooting into me.

My dad pushed himself tight against my pussy and held himself there as one load after another of his sperm emptied into me. When the last shot was released he pulled out slightly and thrust himself again into me, holding himself tightly against me as if to drive his sperm even deeper inside of me.

"Let me taste it," my mom said to my dad, "bring that cock over here."

My dad pulled out of me and got up in the couch next to my mom so his cock was in her face. I looked up and could see it was covered with our cum. My mom took him in her mouth and licked every drop from it. I would have loved to have a taste of it myself but it was nice to see my mom enjoying it this time.

My mom must have seen the hunger in my eyes because she looked down at me with his cock in her mouth and smiled as best she could. Then she took it out and lifted my head up to her. I twisted around on the couch and we kissed. Mmmmmmm, I could taste my dad's cum and my pussy juices on her mouth as we kissed for my dad to watch.

"Now that's what I like to see," my dad said, "my two favorite women sharing!"

We both turned to him and smiled. It was one of those moments you would like to be able to capture and replay over and over again. Here I was with my loving parents, basking in the afterglow of an incredible orgasm with a load of my dad's cum in me, kissing my mom and feeling my dad running his hands over my nude body.

We probably could have gone on like that for the rest of the morning except my mother, as always the practical one, remembered my grandparents were upstairs. They were notorious late sleepers so we hadn't worried about them interrupting us (god, what a scandal THAT would have been!) but they were due to get up any time now.

Reluctantly my parents dressed and I grabbed my mom's robe and put it on instead of getting my new dress soiled with the cum and sweat that covered my body. I headed upstairs to take a shower while my parents stayed in the family room.

Just as I was about to enter the bathroom my grandfather came out of their room, rubbing the sleep from his eyes. He looked at me and I imagine he had to wonder why my hair was such a mess and perhaps he could even smell the sex that permeated my body. I didn't give him any more time to figure it out though and quickly ducked into the bathroom and cleaned up.

As I showered and ran my hands over myself I recalled how it felt to lay on the couch with my dad fucking me while my mom played with my clit. I started masturbating and my last thoughts as my next orgasm hit me was that THIS is what I call a wonderful Christmas morning!

"Hey Kelly, what are you doing here?" Kate asked. She had no reason to suspect anything so far as I knew so I thought up an excuse as quickly as I could.

"Your mom left her dish over at our house on Christmas and so I returned it," I replied. It was the first thing to pop in my head and then I realized I had not brought anything with me! Fortunately Kate and I didn't really get along to well so she just shrugged and went by me.

"Oh well, I'll tell mom. See ya, gotta get to the mall," she said and went out the door. THAT was lucky at least. I breathed a bit if a sigh of relief although I hoped she forgot about my excuse the next time she saw her mom! I went past the living room and down to the basement where the family room was. Rick was down there playing with his new toy - an X-Box 360 that somehow his dad had managed to get for him for Christmas. He was intent on it and didn't even notice I was there so I watched it for a moment - it WAS pretty cool! I snuck up behind him where he was sitting on the floor. When he hit a point where I wouldn't be breaking into anything I put my hands over his eyes and giggled.

"Dammit leave me alone Tammy!" he said pulling my hands from his face, "I told you not to..."

He turned as he was saying that and saw it was me and stopped in mid-sentence. A mischievous grin broke out on his face. "Well, well... if it's not my favorite slutty cousin Kelly!" He turned around and grabbed my ass with both hands, pulling me to himself such that my crotch was in his face "So let me guess, you came over to play with my new X-Box?"

I put my hands on his head and pulled him into my crotch. "Well...," I whispered huskily, "I thought maybe there was something else you might be interested in playing with my horny little cousin."

Rick pressed his nose against the crotch of my pants and took in a deep breath. "God you smell so hot. I wanted to fuck you soooooo bad the other day!"

I felt my pussy warming up and the sensation I get when my pussy gets wet was coming on string! God I was so horny for him! I stepped back from hi and started to undress saying, "Well, what are you waiting for? Get those clothes off and fuck me!"

Rick stood up opposite me and the two of quickly stripped off our clothes and threw them to the floor. He took me in his arms and our naked bodies pressed tightly against each other. His cock was already stiff as a board and I could feel it pressing against my stomach as he instinctively humped himself against me making his cock rub up and down my stomach. God it felt to so warm and hard against me. I wanted it soooooo badly!

We didn't waste any time kissing or cuddling. Both of us were just looking for some sex, it wasn't like we loved one another or anything. I knelt down in front of him and gazed at his incredible cock. God was he hard! It stuck almost straight up, emerging from his thick thatch of dark pubic hair like a palm tree. I could smell him, the musky odor of sweat and sex that was so distinctively male.

Reaching out, I took his cock in my hand and just held it for a moment, relishing the smooth warm feel of him. I could feel his heart pounding as it throbbed in my hand. It was there waiting for me and I wasn't going to make it wait any longer as I extended my tongue and just licked the tip of his cock. He shuddered as my mouth encircled just the head and my tongue played around in circles around it inside my mouth. Mmmmmmm, he tasted wonderful! Slowly I took more of him in my mouth and in one long drawn-out motion I took him completely in until my face was pressed against his hairy crotch. His pubic hair tickled my cheeks and I could feel his cock against the back of my throat as I twisted my head around him.

Rick lay down on the floor slowly so I didn't have to release him from my mouth in the process. I lay on my side to the side of him with my head facing his feet. My pussy pressed up against his shoulder as I sucked his cock. He brushed my hair away so he could watch.

"Oh god Kelly," he moaned, "You do that so damn good! God I love you to suck me!"

I slipped my leg over him and got into a 69 with Rick. His tongue was instantly on my wet pussy and I felt goose pimples rise all over me as it brushed my clit. I pushed my pussy down into his face, grinding my bare pussy into his mouth and nose. With one hand I cupped his balls gently and played with them as my other hand was around the base of his cock, holding it in place to make it easier for me to suck it.

hard as ever and I lifted myself over his cock and held it with one hand to direct it to my wet pussy.

"Do you want to fuck me now Rick?" I teased him, lowering myself just enough for his cock to touch my pussy but not go in.

Rick had his hands on my legs and I could feel them squeezing me as he tried to lift his hips up to push himself in me. He looked up at me and grinned saying, "Stop teasing me you little slut, you know you want it just as bad!"

Well, he was absolutely right and so I didn't waste any more time and lowered myself down until his head was pushing up against my pussy hole. I looked over at Tammy who was covering her mouth with her hand to keep from saying anything. I smiled and winked again at her as I wiggled my hips and pressed downward. His cock split me open and I felt that wonderful sensation that only comes when a cock first enters my pussy. That first moment is like I am being violated, as if my pussy is trying to keep him out but staying so tight he can't enter. Then it forces its way into me, splitting my crotch apart and driving itself inside. Then my pussy seems to accept the invader, welcoming it by gripping it and holding it.

My cunt juices flowed to lubricate him and he pressed further and further into me until finally the base of his crotch met mine and we were joined together as one. I sat down on his lap and ground my pussy against his crotch, feeling his pubic hair rubbing against my bare skin like a soft brush. Looking down it seemed impossible that he was actually INSIDE of me, that if I could see through my belly I would see his cock deep in my vagina, caressed by my swollen lips.

Tammy was still watching and I noticed her hand was now pressing between her legs. Mmmmmmm, so she was turned on seeing her brother fucking her cousin! I was so consumed with lust and pleasure my promise to my mother was long forgotten. I had to have her join us! I started humping Rick's cock, rising up and then dropping back down on him again. I loved being on top where I could control how he fucked me. This way I could set the pace and determine how far he came in and out of me. Later on I liked to have him on top when he came because at that time I felt I was submitting myself to him and it was more appropriate for him to being the dominating position. But now, at the beginning, I liked to be in control.

4. Tammy Wants to Learn

As I rode Rick's cock like a cowgirl on a pony, I motioned for Tammy to come over to us. At first she seemed shocked and shook her head vigorously. I started humping Rick faster and cried out, "I love your cock in me Rick. Yea fuck me!"

I motioned again for Tammy to cum and she slowly started moving over to us. When she got to the side of us I stopped humping Rick and he opened his eyes and looked up and me.

"What's wrong?" Rick gasped. I turned his head to the side and he saw Tammy standing there, watching us with a sly grin on her face. "Oh my god!" Rick cried and he just froze, as if now knowing what to do next.

"Oh silly," I said, slapping him softly as I resumed my humping his cock slowly, "she's been watching the whole time."

Rick's eyes widened as he turned back to Tammy who just smiled and shook her head in acknowledgement. Then she couldn't keep a serious face anymore and giggled saying, "Wow brother, I never knew you were so hot! So how long have you been fucking my cousin? Somehow I doubt this was the first time."

Rick just stammered so I decided to turn the conversation to something more productive. "So do you like watching us Tammy?" Tammy actually blushed a little at that but recovered and replied, "I guess so. I never really thought about watching my brother fucking someone before though."

"Well, why don't you just watch but if you do, you have to take your clothes off too," I told her.

Tammy AND Rick's eyes widened at that one. I don't think either had seen the other naked before but with all three of us as turned on as we were the inhibitions dropped quickly. Tammy shrugged and quickly stripped of her clothes and sat on the floor next to us. She looked so incredibly hot! Her pussy was just starting to get a good covering of fuzzy brown hair and her boobs were definitely beginning to make a statement.

At first she covered herself wither hands but then as she saw Rick looking at her with more than the usual brotherly look she allowed him to see her. I felt his cock twitch in me as he sucked in a breath at the sight of her young nude body ad I knew he was turned on in a way he had probably thought he would be. Tammy looked a little flushed herself and her eyes were fixated on her brother's crotch where she could see his cock sliding in and out of me as I humped him.

"Does it turn you on to see your brother fucking me Tammy?" I asked.

Tammy hesitated and seemed a bit embarrassed to be caught but I noticed she kept watching! "I don't know what to say," she whispered, "I have never seen anyone fucking before and to see my brother..."

I grinned as I stared playing with myself, "Well, you should feel what it's like to have him fuck you! Go ahead, touch yourself like I am."

Tammy didn't need any more encouragement. Her hand slipped between her legs and I saw her flinch as her fingers found their mark. He mouth opened slightly as she breathed more heavily as she began to masturbate. Rick was watching her too and he saw his little sister masturbating for the first time. I could only imagine what must have been running through his head at that moment as his cousin was riding his cock while his youngest sister was masturbating as she watched!

I took my time fucking Rick, I wasn't ready for him to cum yet as I had more plans for his cock than he knew! I lifted myself up and off of him, letting his wet cock flop noisily against his stomach. I moved to the side opposite of him from Tammy and kneeled so I was over his cock. Once again I took him I my mouth and I could taste my pussy on him. I loved that mixture of pussy and cock! Tammy was rubbing herself harder now and I could see she as breathing much more heavily. I held Rick's cock in my head and looked at Tammy.

"Here Tammy, taste your brother's cock," I encouraged her. Tammy looked at me uncertainly while I saw out of the corner of my eye Rick looking at her intently, afraid to say anything that might break the spell. "Come on, just taste it... Mmmmmmm, you know you really want to."

Tammy drew in a breath and kneeled to his other side as I was. She reached out gingerly and took her hand and placed it on his cock. At first she let it rest there, as if afraid to do anything more..

"Hold it your hand," I told her. She gripped it and I smiled at her saying, "There, doesn't it feel good?"

Tammy looked at her hand as it held her brother's cock for the first time. "It's soooooo... hard!" she exclaimed. "I can feel it move a little too."

I grinned and looked at Rick and then back at her. "Well, you know why it's so hard right now don't you?" Tammy looked at me inquisitively so I continued, "I think someone likes having his sister hold his cock."

Tammy opened her eyes and looked at Rick as his hand ran up and down her inner thighs, making her squirm just a little. "Well brother, I guess I won't mind being left alone with you at hoe so much anymore!" she said with a mischievous giggle. The she looked up at the ceiling and let out a deep breath, saying, "Oh God, imagine if Mom had walked in on us while I was sucking your cock!!"

We all laughed at that and it would have been funnier if we didn't hear the garage door going up! Speaking of the devil, my aunt was returning! We all quickly dressed as there wasn't time to clean up. Tammy pointed to her chin as she looked at me and I realized I still has some cum on my face. Now THAT would have been hard to explain! We all quickly sat on the floor around the XBOX and it want a minute later that my Aunt Shari came down the stairs.

"There you all are!" she exclaimed. "Didn't you hear me calling for you? Rick, I need help bringing on the stuff from the trunk." Then she noticed I was there and she smiled at me saying, "Why hi Kelly, I didn't know you liked these games?"

Well, I explained to her how I had heard so much about it and wanted to see one for myself. Truth was, I enjoyed the game we HAD been playing a lot except she just didn't realize it wasn't quite what she thought it was! Tammy and I looked at each other, hoping she would attribute the flushness in our faces as excitement over the game. It didn't really matter, she went back up to put her stuff away leaving Tammy and I alone in the family room.

"Thank you Kelly," Tammy said to me softly, "I would never have done that to him without you."

She leaned over to me and we kissed. I still had the taste of her brother's cum in my mouth and her tongue eagerly sought it out. I hugged her and felt a chill run through me as it began to sink in what we had just done. Oh well, no closing the barn doors now - the horses were out and it would be interesting to see where they went from here!

(Jan 15) Chapter 108: Another Football Party

Ed (35)

Ed was the father of two sons who used to be in the church youth group I help to lead. They are older now but Ed still keeps an eye on me. When his kids invited their friends over for a football party, Ed asked if I wanted to join. It didn't take long to find out why!

1. Girls and Dildos

It was not quite a couple weeks after I'd returned to school from Christmas Break when it really hit me. This was always the hardest time for me - the first two weeks at school after leaving home. At times I would lay in my bed awake at night so damn horny my pussy felt like it was going to burst! Sometimes I'd wake in the morning and forget where I was. In the fog of my morning mind, for just a moment I would feel the excitement build in me as I waited for my dad to come in my room and give me one of his special "wakeup calls" before leaving for work. Then my mind would clear and I'd remember that I wasn't home and my legs would tighten together as I missed the wonderful feeling of being fucked by my father first thing in the morning.

The only way I can describe how I feel during this time away from home is to say it must be similar to a smoker or drug addict having to go cold turkey. I mean, one day a girl's having sex sometimes two or three times a day, then suddenly nothing but her own fingers. Even fooling around with my roomie wasn't enough to become a bit desensitized to this type of attention and just ignore them most of the time. Sometimes, though, it seems to go a bit farther than others.

Last fall was the first time I noticed anything especially different or unusual about how Ed was looking at me. One of the parents had sponsored a pool party for the youth group and so I was hanging around in my swim suit. I called this one my "virgin suit" as in order to meet church dress code standards, it had to be one piece and could not expose your bare ass. Even so, like any swimsuit I bought, it fit me tightly and I liked the way it showed off my curves and boobs, even if they WERE concealed from direct viewing. Needless to say, most of the boys seemed to want to talk to me more than usual, not to mention their dads!

Ed and his wife were there with CJ and Dianna. They were in swim suits as well and I felt a twinge when I got a good look at Ed's physique. Mmmmmmm, it looked like he was still working out pretty regular. Nadine was looking hot as well in an all-white suit which I noticed she never got wet. With as hot a wife as Ed had in Nadine, I was surprised when I noticed him turning his head away quickly at times when I would see him, as if he didn't want me to know he was looking at me.

Out of curiosity, as a sort of "test", I tried flirting a little with Ed during the party. He was pretty cool about the whole thing, letting me do what I wanted yet at the same time maintaining just enough distance to allow for "plausible deniability" should someone catch us. I was left with the feeling it was just a game for him and while he like the attention just as much as I did, he would most likely never cheat on his wife. Somehow she didn't look to be the type that would tolerate her man dallying with another woman!

For the rest of the fall I would see Ed around the church as they dropped off their kids and attended services. We would sometimes talk but it was always about church-related or community activities. To be perfectly honest, my interest in Ed tended to be in direct proportion to my level of horniness. If I'd been recently fucked, it was just a passing interest no different than I would give to any handsome man. At times like now, when my pussy was dying for a dick, it elevated to a totally different level of interest entirely.

At times like this, when I was looking for "relief", Ed was everything a horny girl could ask for. First, he was handsome and wealthy - a great start for any guy. Next, he was married and not just to any girl but a beautiful wife who could have passed for a lingerie model, even after bearing two kids. Face it, when a guy has a wife like her, it means all the more when he pays attention to you.

Then there was the kids. There was just something about going after a married guy with a daughter that was already turning the heads of the other fathers. So overall, Ed was exactly the type of guy I was looking for when it came to a one-time thing. The question was, was he really interested in me or just flirting shamelessly? So far, it looked like I was just a game for him to play to build up his ego. After all, what guys doesn't like to have the attention of a girl young enough to be his daughter?

So here I was, horny as hell and nothing in sight to relieve me. Then I was surprised when Dianna handed me a card at the Wednesday night service which turned out to be an invitation to a party at her house. There was some football game on Sunday and they had a huge TV with all the fancy channels and sound equipment. Apparently the entire Jr. High youth group was invited over to watch the game, play games and eat food. I had a feeling most of them would be far more interested in the games and food while the dads would be watching the game on the big screen. None of it, to be honest, sounded appealing to me but then I DID have an obligation as a youth leader to attend.

I thanked Dianna and promised her I'd be there after church on Sunday. That night when I returned to my apartment on campus, I started to dream about the upcoming event. All sorts of nasty thoughts went through my mind as I started to touch myself and run my fingers over my pussy. Mmmmmmm, imagine if CJ took me to his room and I blew him for his first time just as Dianna walked in and caught us, and then wanted to join in! What if the dads all wanted a piece of me and one by one they would sneak up to the guest bedroom where I was waiting like a whore for each to fuck me?

Then I imagined Ed's hands on me as he and Nadine shared me in their bed, surrounded by photos of their family. These and maybe a dozen more scenarios went through my head as fast as I could think of them while my hand worked my warm and wet pussy. Of course, none of them would ever happen but it was still fun to imagine what might happen if they did!

3. Sunday Morning Masturbation

Sunday started out like every Sunday with church in the morning. Actually, that's not exactly true as it's not like I wake up in a pew just as the service starts. Indeed, when I first woke up this morning the first thing I thought about was the party later in the afternoon. My pussy felt like someone attached an electric cord to it as I crossed my legs with both hands between my thighs as I tried to contain the sensations running though me. God, talk about waking up horny!

Most mornings I wake up wet and horny, sort of like guys I know that wake up with erections (not that I mind when they do!). This morning, however, was bordering on the ridiculous as all I could think about was this intense desire to be fucked. It consumed my every thought as I turned on my side in a fetal position, my hand clamped tight to my bare pussy.

"Oh god!" I gasped as my finger touched my already swollen clit.

It was barely audible, not even close to be enough to wake my snoring roomie. Jen had one of the loudest alarm clocks I had ever heard and even THAT wasn't always enough to do the job in the mornings. I could have probably moaned loud enough to be heard outside without waking her.

It was probably good to get this out of my system now as the odds of anything like what I was dreaming about actually happening that afternoon were about zero to none. Still, as my finger worked its way into my soaking wet pussy all I could think about was how it would feel if it was Ed's cock instead. I'd never been to their house but I imagined him doing me in their bed, my imagination conjuring up a king size canopy with lace bedding that smelled of his wife's perfume as he fucked me where she would later lay that night. Then he did me in Dianna's bed, telling me how much he wanted her as he drilled me with his daughter's favorite pillow under my ass, soaking up our cum as he screwed me.

I guess it goes without saying that I have quite an imagination, especially when I'm masturbating. Now if only I was as good at writing school papers as I was dreaming up sexual encounters with a variety of men and boys! I would have no problem carrying a 4.0 average, that's for sure!

Although I don't know for sure how much time passed, it seemed like less than ten minutes before my pussy moved to the next stage and I felt my orgasm beginning to arise within me, like a smoldering volcano about to erupt. The analogy actually isn't all that bad when I think about it. At first it was just little shocks as my finger would touch my clit in just the right way, sending a pulse of pleasure rocketing through me like a fireworks that was lit in my pussy and then exploded in a blazing light all through me. My body would shudder and shake, like the beginning tremors of an earthquake, small at first and then increasing in intensity.

Then the show would begin as a small eruption would occur; not the main event but stronger than just the small fireworks variety. My pussy seemed to be teasing me, faking me into thinking my orgasm was about to blow the lid off my volcano between my legs and then die down again only to rise again a minute or two later.

There were times when I would actually try to extend the range and number of these "preliminary" eruptions, letting each one get just a little bit bigger but not too much to where I couldn't pull back from the edge and start over again. This morning I wasn't in the mood to tease myself, I just wanted to cum and I wanted to cum as soon as possible!

"Oh fuck!" I moaned, louder this time as I felt my pussy contract and squeeze down on my fingers that were paying inside of it.

My other hand was massaging my pussy lips and clit when suddenly it hit. Like a volcano erupting without warning, it was like my entire body lifted off the bed as my back arched and then my hips flew up and I bounced like I was being fucked my some sort of maniac. Oh yeah, it had arrived; my orgasm was in full swing now.

"Fuck me Ed," I groaned, my eyes shut tight as imagined his strong arms holding me tight against his chest as he drilled his dick deeper and deeper into my pussy.

It seemed to go on forever and I never wanted it to end. This is what I lived for, what got me through the tough days. This was why I masturbated, why I loved to be fucked. There was nothing else in the world that could make me feel this way, nothing that even came close. My body seemed to freeze in place, quivering like a guitar string that had just been plucked as the waves of pleasure coursed through me the way the sound waves emerged from the guitar string, except it felt more like a chord had been played than a single note.

How long it went on I'll never know for sure as afterwards I just collapsed in bed and closed my eyes with my arms and legs outstretched. It felt like my entire body was glowing, so full of pleasure and sexual satisfaction that anyone looking at me should have been able to see it shining from my every pore.

I must have fallen asleep as the next thing I knew it was Jen shaking me by the shoulder.

"Hey Kelly, wake up! We have to be at church in thirty minutes!"

My eyes popped wide open and I looked up and saw her grinning at me. I was laid out nude on my back and must have smelled like pussy to high heaven but she had learned long ago to ignore my morning "sessions".

"So tell me, who is Ed?" she asked.

THAT woke me up and I looked up at her with an inquisitive expression.

"I just mean, you kept calling out to him while you were masturbating before so I thought maybe you had a new boyfriend or something."

I relaxed a bit at that and smiled at her. If she only knew! Jen wasn't directly involved in the youth at church, preferring to work with the music ministry team instead. Odds were she'd never even met most of the kids, let alone their parents. Well, I wasn't about to tell my roomie I'd been fantasizing about being fucked by the father of one of my young teen girls!

"Ohhhhhh, just someone I use to know," I fibbed, "I guess I must've been a little homesick."

Jen went back to doing her hair and nodded. "Yeah, I know how you feel. I really miss my guy too."

Indeed she did but then she had one advantage over me. Rather than having to dream up an imaginary lover, she just called her guy in the phone and the two of them would have phone sex for an hour or so. I would get so jealous sometimes of her as she laid in her bed and played with herself while she told her boyfriend the nastiest things over the phone. I'm not sure who I was more jealous of though, her boyfriend or her!

4. Sunday Preparations

Fortunately I'm a quick dresser so we both made it to church with minutes to spare - not even close by my standards! As we took our place in the pews where most of the colleges students sat, I looked around to see if I could spot Ed and the family. They may have been there but I didn't see them anywhere. Maybe they'd gone to the earlier service so they could get home and prepare for the party? All I knew was that during the prayer time I prayed fervently that everything was OK at home and they wouldn't have to cancel the party. Hey, is it really wrong to ask God for good sex? I don't think so.

The service ended right on time as usual. One thing you could say for our pastor, he was punctual. It was also well known that he was a Browns fan and he wanted to be home in time for the kickoff! As we streamed out of the church, I looked for their car but nothing was in sight. Well, all I could do was hope for the best.

Back at our apartment, I got out of my Sunday church clothes and debated what to wear to the party. It WAS supposed to be a Youth sponsored gig so I had to dress appropriately which meant nothing too risque, or actually nothing risque at all if I wanted to follow the rules. That didn't mean my jeans couldn't be form fitted to my ass and my blouse had to be the right size. It's amazing what just one size too small can do for your bust line when you're trying to make do with what God has given you - even when you think God could have been a little more generous.

"So what do you have going this afternoon anyway, Kelly?" Jen asked, seeing me put on a little makeup which was unusual for me on a Sunday afternoon.

I explained to her about the birthday party and football game and she just nodded.

"Sorta pushing the line, aren't you?" she said softly, as if she was afraid of offending me but felt it was necessary to say.

I knew what she was referring to. Although I was actually wearing a bra under my blouse, if anything that just made the outfit all the more sexier as the dark outline of it was clearly visible under the light beige blouse. It probably would have actually been more conservative for me NOT to have worn a bra than to wear this combination, especially when you have boobs as small as mine at the time.

"It's not being held at church," I rationalized to her, "Besides, I thought you'd be proud of me for wearing a bra for once!"

Jen rolled her eyes at my lame excuse. She knew full well what kind of appearance I was going for and it wasn't to be conservative, that's for sure.

"Well, I have to admit you surprised me there, sometimes I wonder if you even OWN one," she giggled.

Jen was one of those girls that ALWAYS wore a bra, even though she had some of the most perfectly perky breasts a girl could ask for. She certainly didn't NEED one but she was one of those girls raised by her mom to always wear panties and a bra.

I looked over at the clock and my eyes widened. I hadn't realized it was so late already and here I was letting my roomie tease me about a silly bra. I grabbed a jacket and blew her a goodbye kiss as I hustled out to the cold parking lot and jumped in my car. I was pretty sure how to get to the house but it was in a part of town I hadn't been in before. I wasn't worried as the town wasn't anything like the hills and curves that made up Pittsburgh back home. Indeed, it took me less than ten minutes to get there.

5. Ed makes His Move

Their driveway was full so I parked on the street and walked up to the front door. CJ answered the door and when he saw it was me, a smile came to his face and he motioned for me to come in.

"Hey Kelly, I was hoping you'd make it," he greeted me.

CJ took my coat and from the way he was looking at me as he hung it up, I knew why he was glad I'd made it - and it wasn't for my prayer ministry skills! I followed him to the family room where people were \crowded in front of a gigantic large screen TV. There must have been some serious audio system as the sound level was off the charts and it was almost like you were at the game.

Most of the kids didn't pay any attention to my arrival but Nadine made sure to thank me for coming and asked me if there was anything I wanted. Boy, was THAT a question she didn't want to hear the answer to. "Oh yes Nadine, I'd like to suck you're husbands hard cock and then have him fuck my brains out later on your bed." Oh yeah, THAT would go over just swell!

Instead, I asked for a Diet Coke which she had one of the kids get me and I took a seat on the floor along with everyone else. The other youth leaders were there, a young couple that had married just a few months ago and the youth pastor and his wife as well. The youth pastor looked at me as I sat down and for a brief moment our eyes met and I felt a shiver go through me. I recalled the last time I had been home alone back home with my youth pastor at my home church and a familiar rage suddenly filled me. Well, someday he would pay for what he had done to me! Unlike that jerk, this youth pastor was a saint and he was great with kids so just as quickly, the moment passed and I worked to calm myself and lower my pulse rate which had suddenly skyrocketed. His wife was lovely as well and we got along great.

I checked out the crowd as I really wasn't all that interested in the game. When you're raised by a fanatical Pittsburgh Steelers fan, it feels almost like you're being a heretic to watch the Browns playing with a crowd of people actually rooting for them! I spotted Ed sitting in a large arm chair next to several other dads, all of them convinced they could solve all the problems their favorite team was having if only the coach would listen to them.

The whole scene eventually became too much for me so I got up and went into the kitchen where most of the wives were hanging out, fixing snacks and gossiping. Well, since this WAS a so-called church affair, they weren't "gossiping", they were "sharing". Some of the older girls were in there as well, as bored already with the football game as I was.

After a while the guys started wandering in and out, like cattle grazing for better food. They would get a plate filled with wings and other heart-choking fare and then return to the game, which apparently was going poorly as usual for the local team based on the groans hat kept rising from the family room. Eventually Ed made his way in and when he saw me, his eyes widened momentarily but the expression on his face was there just long enough that I knew what his first thoughts must have been. I glanced over at Nadine but she was busy pouring drinks so she hadn't caught her husband's momentary indiscretion. I discreetly made my way to the other side of the kitchen next to where he was taking his pick of the food spread out there.

"Hi Ed," I greeted him. Most of the parents preferred I called them by their first names so it wasn't unusual for me to address him that way. "Hey Kelly, I didn't think you'd made it."

"Oh, did that disappoint you?"

Ed looked at me closely after I asked that. It was probably as forward as I'd ever been directly with him and I think he wanted to be sure he'd caught my tone of voice correctly before doing anything stupid.

"Well, of course, we were hoping everyone would make it," he responded, keeping his voice neutral.

It wasn't like we were alone or anything and if we talked much more it would probably draw attention so I decided to try a little harder and nothing happened, then that was the way it was meant to be.

"Well, I was hoping you were especially hoping I would make it. I mean, that's really why I decided to come."

Ed looked at me again. This time he didn't say a word and I wondered if maybe I'd made an error in my assessment of him. It wouldn't be the first time I'd misjudged a guy but I still didn't want to be embarrassed. He turned to leave for the living room and just when I thought the worst, suddenly I felt a hand on my ass and then a solid squeeze. This was no teenage "feel" boys liked to try and steal to impress their friends. No, there was no doubt as to what this hand was trying to communicate!

At first I didn't move, not wanting to scare him aware but once the hand release me, I turned to see who it was. Ed was already heading out of the kitchen but I was sure it had been him. I watched him leave and then, just before rounding the corner, he turned back and looked at me. If I hadn't been watching for it I would have missed it so I was the only one in the kitchen that saw him wink at me. Hmmmmmm, now WHAT did all this mean?

For the moment there wasn't much I could do and I looked around to be sure nobody had spotted the little scene that had just played out. The place was a zoo and no doubt the very idea that the married host would be grabbing a college girl's ass right in the middle of everything was about the last thing anyone would have imagined. Even I was having a hard time believing it had really happened.

Now the question was whether he was just teasing or was that a signal – although I had no idea what the signal was for. I knew what I HOPED it was for, but that could just be my overactive sex imagination at work. My rational side told me he was just flirting harmlessly with me in response to my teasing and that to think it was anything more was just a delusion.

By now I noticed a lot of the kids had disappeared and when I asked about it, I learned that the basement was filled with various games and computers so I headed down to investigate. My eyes widened as I saw several pinball machines and various arcade video games along with a number of computers with a virtual store full of various video games attached. Naturally the boys were all attacking the video games while the girls were playing Ms. Pac Man and Donkey Kong. I'd never actually seen the arcade versions and it was fascinating to see the games my parents use to reminisce about.

The basement was huge, much larger than just the games area, and I got a little nosy. There was a workshop back in the far corner, filled with tools and other pieces of equipment that I had no idea what they did.

A laundry room was next door and I noticed it had a dumb waiter elevator system. God, my mom would have died for that in our house. She was always complaining about having to carry the clothes from the drier in the basement up to our second floor bedrooms. There was a chute to drop out clothes down but it was mule train time when it came to bringing them back up again!

Yet another room was filled with clothes, apparently where they kept the out-of- season stuff. It was cedar lined and I loved the smell that emerged when I opened the door. The last room had the furnace and some other pumps and stuff that apparently did something but what, I hadn't a clue.

I turned to head back over to where the kids were playing and when I did, I almost bumped straight into Ed. I couldn't help but gasp involuntarily as my heart jumped into my throat at the unknown presence that suddenly appeared.

"Hey, don't go fainting on me; I didn't mean to scare you!" Ed consoled me, holding me by the shoulders.

"That's OK," I replied, "You just surprised me, that's all."

"Well, not nearly as much as your little banter did back up in the kitchen earlier surprised me."

Hmmmmmm, now THAT was an interesting remark. Nothing like getting straight to the point. I decided to play along and see where this led.

"Oh yeah? Well, I wasn't the one playing grab ass!" I teased him.

"And you didn't seem to mind either, did you?" he countered. Well, he had me there...

"So tell me Ed, how did my ass feel?" I whispered seductively.

Ed glanced over at where the kids were playing on the other side of the room. "Ummmmm, not here. Why don't we go into the workshop and I'll tell you."

Talk about being forward! I wondered what gave him the confidence to move so quickly. A LOT of girls I knew loved to tease guys and had gone further than just wiggling their ass in the process so what made him think I wasn't just another cock tease? Oh well, did it really matter? Whatever the reason, I decided to follow him and find out.

6. Ed Commits Adultery – With Me!

Once we were in the room he closed the door and for a moment it was dark until he flipped on the light switch. I realized then he hadn't wanted to turn it on until the door was shut so as not to draw the attention of the kids across the basement. We faced each other and I leaned back against one of the benches, still several feet away from him and waited for him to make his next move.

"Well, I told you I would tell you so let me say this, your ass felt magnificent!"

We both laughed together at that one but so far, it was just silly banter. What next?

"You know, it's amazing what you can find out about someone with just a little digging," he said softly, looking at me for my reaction. "You've got everyone around here thinking you're some innocent church girl but that's not true back home, is it Kelly?

"What do you mean?" I asked him, partially to stall for time to figure out how to answer and partially to learn more about what he thought he knew.

"You were the class slut back in high school, weren't you?" he said, more of a statement than a question though. He obviously knew the answer so I didn't respond. Besides, I'd worked hard for that reputation and was proud of it, even if I couldn't talk about it while I was at school.

"So how did a girl with your reputation manage to get admitted to a school like yours? I would think they frown on such things."

I coughed to clear my throat and managed to reply saying, "I guess I just behave myself when I'm here, that's all."

Ed laughed but it didn't sound funny. "That has to be pretty hard for someone like you, doesn't it? Don't you ever get horny and want to do something about it?"

Wow, this certainly wasn't the conversation I had imagined in any of my dreams about being with him. I had never imagined that anyone away from home would ever know about my "activities" at home. Thank god he hadn't found out about me and my dad although I don't know how he could have possible done that. Even so, these days you never know.

"Of course I do," I admitted, digging my toe into the concrete floor like I was going to actually drill a hole in it, afraid to look him in the eyes or I would betray just how horny I really was. So far he had just accused me things but he hadn't really made a move towards me so I wasn't ready to go all-in yet, as much as I WANTED to.

"I bet you're really horny now, aren't you?"

I hesitating a few seconds before answering. "Yesssssss," I whispered, barely loud enough for him to hear even in the stillness of the closed room.

"You want to suck my dick, don't you?"

"Yesssssss," I whispered again, feeling like a little girl again confessing something I had done wrong to my parents.

"And I bet you want me to fuck you, don't you?"

"Yesssssss," I responded again in an emotionless voice.

It was almost surreal. Here we were in corner of a basement, nothing between us and a dozen young teens but a closed wooden door. The beeps and sounds effects of their games clearly were audible while the footsteps of the people above us resonated through the ceiling. It was about as unlikely a scenario as I would have ever thought of for a man almost twice my age to be interrogating me on my sexual needs, let alone me admitting to his accusations. It wasn't all that BAD either; after all, hadn't I come to the party with some vague hopes of at least getting his attention?

"Well, what are you waiting for then?" he demanded, interrupting my thoughts. I looked at him, knowing what he probably wanted but still not 100% sure this wasn't some form of entrapment.

"Good grief, quite being coy with me and get down on your knees," he huffed.

The frustration in his voice told me he wasn't kidding. Wow, he actually wanted me to suck his cock! God, how many times had I played with myself dreaming of doing just that and now here I was hesitating for who knows what reason. I guess maybe it was because in all my dreams and fantasies, I was the one seducing him and he was the one to fall under my spell and finally give in to his lust and desire for me. Never had I envisioned being the one to be ordered about, as if it was simply expected that I would suck his dick, no questions asked. It wasn't that he was being mean or overbearing, just not what I was ready for and it caught be a bit flat-footed.

Now knowing what else to do, I dutifully dropped to the floor. There was a soft rubber matt by the workbench which cushioned the hard concrete floor and I sat back on my heels with my hands on my thighs, looking up at him as I waited for his next move.

"That's better, now take out my dick and start sucking it. It's not like you haven't done it before."

He stepped forward until he was right in front of me, standing there looking down at me with his hands on his hips, like some Apollo looking down at his dominion except in this case he was dominating me instead of the world. I easily undid his belt and unsnapped his jeans before pulling down the zipper. He was wearing boxers and I reached through the opening in the front and the first thing I felt was his thick pubic hair. Then I had his warm dick in my hand and I worked it through the opening. He was already beginning to get thick so I had to work at it a little to free him but then he flopped out and his cock poked out at me through his underwear like a giant worm sticking out from an apple. At first I just stroked him but he was in too much of a hurry for that.

"C'mon, we don't have all day, suck it."

He had a nice looking dick, average overall I would say, so he really didn't need to encourage me much to take it in my mouth. Actually, I would have done that right off to start with but some men like to see a girl play with their cock a little before she starts blowing him.

"Oh yeah, that feels good," he moaned as I sucked on the head of his cock and worked my way down his shaft with my lips and tongue. "You really ARE a slut, aren't you?"

I didn't take his dick out of my mouth to answer since I figured he really was making a point rather than asking me a question. He smelled strongly of sex and sweat, so much so that I wondered if he hadn't fucked Nadine after church without showering afterwards. In a way, I hoped that he had because that meant that the cock I was sucking had just been in his wife a few hours ago and now it was being sucked by me behind her back.

"Deeper," he whispered huskily as he put his hands on each side of my head and pulled me into his crotch while at the same time he thrust his hips forward to drive his dick into my mouth further.

As I said, Ed had an average cock which by no means is meant to be an insult. Indeed, the best cocks, so far as I am concerned, are the "average" ones. Smaller ones feel like a finger inside of my pussy and while still satisfying, don't present much of a challenge. The really huge ones are great if you're shooting a porno but for "normal" sex, they are a pain - literally and figuratively. First, they really stretch out my pussy and sometimes leave me sore afterwards, not to mention making me feel like a virgin when they all but rip me open when they first entered me.

BJs, though, are where big cocks are REALLY a problem. Again, it may look hot in a porno to see a girl try to take in some monstrous dick that looks like it belongs more on a horse than a man. All I can say is that you should try being on the receiving end someday. I like to deep throat and when the guy's on the long end of the "average" scale, it's not all that hard once you learn to control the gag reflex and besides, guys love it. Big dicks, though are really hard to force down your throat and no amount of self-discipline can keep you from wanting to puke at times. Sure there are a few porn stars who can do it but then, isn't that that's why they're porn stars?.

With Ed, his dick was just long enough that when I got down to about the last inch or so of his shaft and my nose was already being tickled by his pubic hair, THAT was when I felt the tip of his dick against the back of my throat. I looked up at him and our eyes met as I used the moment to try to relax my throat as much as possible until finally I took the plunge and pushed my head down onto him until my face was firmly against his hairy crotch. I felt his dick push down into my throat and for just an instant my chest contracted and I almost gagged despite my best efforts. Then the sensation passed and I rotated my head around his dick, letting my lips and tongue run around his shaft as the head was squeezed by my throat.

"Oh fuck, that's it, take it all," he groaned as he pulled my head into his crotch to keep his dick down my throat.

One thing about deep-throating, it's like seeing how long you can hold your breath underwater and sooner or later you have to come up for air or bad things happen. Finally I had to yank my head back sharply to overcome the pressure on the back of my head. I let his dick drop from my mouth as I gasped for air and looked up at him.

"You know, I've never had anyone do that to me before," he said, shaking his head.

"What's the matter, doesn't Nadine take all your dick? She look like she would give good head." I managed to get out between gasps as I regained my breath and prepared for another onslaught on his dick.

"Shit, Nadine doesn't even blow me," he grumbled, "She says it's 'dirty' and 'gross', can you believe it?"

Actually, I could if only because I know a lot of girls who agree with her. Men get conditioned from sex magazines and movies to think that every girl can't wait to put her head between their legs and suck their dicks, regardless of how revolting or dirty they may be. While many girls, me included, DO enjoy doing just that, there are just as many that flatly refuse to suck dick. In the middle are those that do it but only to satisfy their man more than because they get any enjoyment from it.

Personally, I get my thrills from feeling a guy growing in my mouth, knowing that his reaction is being caused by his sexual desire for ME. It makes me feel good to hear him moan and tell me how good it feels while I suck him. Then, when he cums in my mouth, I take it as a validation of my sexuality, of my desirableness as a woman, even of my skill at giving head.

"Well then, I suppose you want more, don't you?" I teased him.

"You know something... why don't you just quit yakking and suck my dick," he grunted as he grabbed my head again and pulled me back into his crotch roughly.

Indeed, I sucked his cock for a while, at times deep throating him again, most of the time just stroking his shaft with my hand while I sucked and licked the head of his dick. As much as I enjoyed it, I knew we had a limited time period to get things done before someone wondered where he was and started looking. The last thing I wanted was to have to quit before I'd gotten what I wanted - his dick cumming in me.

"I want you to fuck me now," I whispered to him as I stroked his hard, wet cock in my hand.

I stood up, holding his dick in my hand. We were both essentially dressed with just his pants undone and his dick sticking out through his boxers. Even if someone were to knock on the door now, he could probably turn away quick enough to hide his dick. It would have been awkward to explain why we were alone in the back room with the door closed but at least it wasn't like we were both nude and fucking on the work bench. Perhaps that was what he was thinking as well as he seemed to hesitate now after being so forceful just a little while ago.

"C'mon Ed, I've seen the way you look at me in church. You know you want to fuck me so now here's your chance." Ed looked at the door with this stricken expression on his face. We could hear the kids and the door didn't have a lock so it wasn't like we could be 100% sure nobody would interrupt us. The odds were heavily in our favor as the kids had no reason to want to investigate a closed door in the back corner of the basement. Still, it WAS a risk and as much as I knew Ed was weighing that against his desire to fuck me.

To help things along, I undid my jeans and worked them down off my hips to my knees, exposing my bare ass and pussy to him. He just stared at my pussy, like a young teenage boy who hadn't seen one before. I put one hand down between my legs and rubbed myself while I held his cock with the other.

"You just said I suck your cock better than Nadine. I bet my pussy's a lot tighter than hers too, don't you think?" I taunted him softly. "When was the last time you got to fuck a college girl Ed?"

"Nadine was the last," he said absentmindedly, almost without thinking it seemed.

I took his hand and pulled it towards my breasts. I placed his hand on one and held it there with my hand on top. He didn't squeeze but then he didn't try pulling away either. Early on he was so confident, so demanding. Back then he was evidently just thinking he would get a BJ, something most people, including me for that matter, don't even consider "sex" when it comes to establishing whether adultery was committed. He must not have thought things would go this far and now it was his turn to be the hesitant one while I was the one pushing him to go further

I let go of his cock and turned towards the work bench and bent over with my legs about two feet apart, exposing myself to him as he stood behind me.

"See my wet pussy Ed, don't you want it? You know you do."

"Fuck, I just can't do this," he groaned as he started backing away and for a moment I thought maybe I was going to lose this one. I turned my head and looked sternly back at him.

"Well, you'd BETTER fuck me Ed," I warned him, "Besides, even if you don't I'll tell Nadine that you did anyway."

Ed's eye's flashed and he looked like he was about to punch me or something.

"You fucking bitch, you wouldn't dare," he said angrily.

"Oh I wouldn't? I'll tell her that you raped me, that you lured me down here and then forced yourself on me," I threatened him with a nasty grin on my face. "So why not just do what you know you want to do anyway and get on with it?"

"You dirty whore, I'll show you," he growled, grabbing his dick and stepping in behind me.

I DID notice that despite his supposed protests, his cock hadn't dwindled by any noticeable amount since I'd let go of it. I knew he really wanted to fuck me. Like most "faithful" married guys, he just needed some help so later he could rationalize his behavior. Whether he used this as an excuse to blame me later for "forcing" him to fuck me, well I really didn't care. He may not have known it but I knew he would never do me again anyway so if that's what it took to get him to fuck me, then so be it.

"That's it Ed, fuck me!"

He stopped talking as he concentrated on getting his dick in position. Holding his cock in his hand, he rubbed the head up against my pussy, working it in between my wet pussy lips and running it up and down from my pussy hole to my clit. I gasped as his head touched my clit, sending a jolt through me and making my legs feel weaker.

"Yeah, you want it, don't; you," he said, his voice regaining the confident tone of earlier, "You want my big dick in your pussy, don't you... don't you?"

Actually, Ed was turning out to be rather predictable. Everything from his "demands" to suck him to my supposed threats to expose him if he didn't fuck me were straight from the Kelly playbook of seduction. This was just one more element that so many men seemed to want, perhaps even needed, when they fucked me. He wanted me to beg for him to fuck him. Well, once again, if that's what it took to get him in me, then why not?

"Oh yes Ed, please fuck me!" I begged as loudly as I dared without my voice carrying outside the room. "My pussy wants your dick so bad, put it in me now... PLEASE!"

Evidently that was all it took to satisfy him, along with more moans and panting as he worked his head until lit was poised at the entrance to my pussy and he grabbed my hips to help him to thrust his dick into me. I felt the pressure against my pussy build as he pushed himself forward, trying to shove his dick in my waiting pussy.

"Damn you're really tight!" he grunted as he repositioned his dick and got himself ready for another try at violating me.

Well, since all he'd been fucking was Nadine's loose pussy for the past umpteen years, I suppose mine felt like a virgin's compared to hers after pushing two kids through it. This time I felt him push even harder until suddenly, like a rubber band snapping, my pussy opened up and his cock dipped into me. For a brief moment I wondered if he realized at that instant he became guilty of adultery, that he was now cheating on his wife and breaking a vow he had made before God. Well, if nothing else it would hit later, of that I was sure.

"Deeper Ed," I encouraged him, "Fuck me deeper, put all of that big cock in me."

Ed didn't need the encouragement as while I spoke I felt him pulling back on my hips as he shoved himself into me further. I felt his pubic hair brushing against my bare ass as his crotch met my butt with a slight slapping sound. We fucked like this for a few minutes, neither of us saying anything but him grunting while I kept up an almost constant low moan as his cock slid in and out of me with the rhythm of a locomotive piston.

Suddenly he pulled out of me and spun me around. He steered me backwards to one of the benches. We both had our jeans around our ankles so it was more of a shuffle but his hands helped me keep my balance until he lifted me up and set me down on the edge of the bench.

"Lean back, show me that pretty cunt," he grunted as he held his wet hard cock in his hand, waiting impatiently for me to respond to his demands.

I put my hands behind me and leaned back, trying to spread my knees apart as best I could with my jeans acting like shackles around my ankles. I would've had to remove my shoes to let them drop off but that was out of the question at the moment.

"Damn, look at that little bare cunt, I bet it likes to be fucked, doesn't it?"

I balanced myself with one hand so I could touch my pussy with the other. I rubbed it and then used my fingers to spread my lips open so he could see my pussy hole exposed.

"Right now it wants YOU to fuck it," I said seductively, "You've no idea how long I've waited."

Now THAT was probably one of the most honest things I had said to him yet. Indeed, I HAD been waiting a long time for this moment. I watched as he lined his dick up once again with my pussy. Looking down my flat stomach, I stared at his dick as the head nestled in against my wet pussy hole and then I felt him entering me as at the same time I could see the head disappearing from sight as it drilled into me.

"Oh Ed, that feels SO good... I love you fucking me!"

I let go of my pussy so I could use both hands to balance myself with as Ed reached under my knees and lifted my legs up in the air higher to let him penetrate me more easily. My bare butt rocked on the bench top as he pushed himself in and out of me. It fascinated me to watch his dick as it moved in and out of him. It never ceased to amaze me, no matter how many times I'd been fucked, that a man's dick could actually enter me this way and feel so incredibly good. It was hard to picture six or seven inches of dick up inside of me, surrounded by my wet and warm pussy, caressing his cock and welcoming it like a long lost lover that had finally returned to the home where it belonged.

"I want you to cum in me," I whispered, looking directly into his eyes, "I want you to fill my pussy with your sperm."

Ed didn't miss a stroke but from the look on his face he was apparently surprised at that one. First, he wasn't wearing a condom but that didn't bother me as nothing is safer than a married man who doesn't cheat on his wife (at least, until me that is).

"It's OK, I'm protected," I quickly said, "Just cum in me, that's what I want."

Ed was about there and whether it was just that time or my words drove him over the line, but in either case he groaned and then drove his dick deep into me and then held it in place. I knew what was coming - or more correctly, cumming!

"Oh my god," he groaned as I felt the pressure against my crotch as he jerked against me each time his dick shot out a load of adulterous sperm into me.

Each time he came in me I felt a joy inside of me, maybe even a sense of accomplishment. He was cumming in me, mating me at least figuratively if not literally. Each load of cum was another nail in the coffin that contained his now broken wedding vows. Each load was an affirmation of how much he desired me, an indicator of how much he wanted me such that he was willing to betray his wife's love and devotion for these few minutes with me. As much as I was enjoying the feel of his lust in me, I couldn't help but think about his wife who was right upstairs without a clue as to what her cheating husband was doing literally right under her.

Finally he was finished, his load exhausted and he was left panting over me, beads of sweat forming on his chin and dripping down onto my blouse which I was still wearing without so much as having undone a single button.

"Now tell me Ed, wasn't it so much better to fuck me than Nadine?" I said, knowing I was being naughty but not able to resist the temptation.

What is it with men after they cum, especially the older ones? It's like when they cum, their horniness and lust shoots out along with their cum and they're left totally drained. With Ed, not only had he let loose a hell of a load in me, but now I was reminding him of just what he had done and perhaps for the first time since leading me into the room, the consequences of his actions hit home.

7. Ed Feels Guilty

"Oh god, what have I done?" he mumbled as he pulled out of me unceremoniously and started to get his clothes back together.

"What's the matter Ed, you know you liked fucking me more than her. C'mon, do me again."

I scooting back a bit on the bench so I could get my feet up on top of it and let me knees flop apart so he could see my pussy. I squeezed down and forced some of his cum to drip from my pussy for him to see.

"See your cum in me Ed? See what you did to me? I want more of it. Fuck me again."

I was just being a terrible tease as I knew full well that there was no way, no matter what I said or did, that he would ever do me again today, if ever. Heck, even he wanted to now it wouldn't be right away as his cock was rapidly dwindling down. Some of that was undoubtedly due to the waves of remorse and regret that were sweeping over him but it was probably also due to his age as well. Once a guy hits his thirties, it seems those days of non-stop fucking are over. "I can't believe I let you talk me into this," he continued to mumble. Yeah, like I was the one that dragged HIM into the room!

I'd seen this same response in other married men after they fucked me. It was like they had to build up a case rationalizing their behavior so they wouldn't feel so guilty about what they had just done. It didn't bother me, I had gotten what I wanted so how they felt about it later wasn't really a big concern of mine. Does a fisherman worry about the fish he worked so hard to catch once it's been caught and in the boat?

Actually, if anything this made it even better for me. The only reason I enjoy fucking married men is the thrill it gives me knowing they have to convince themselves to cheat on their wives to satisfy their lust for me. Couples don't do it for me nearly as well since where's the fun if the wife says it's OK? Seeing Ed struggling with his guilt just made it all the more special for me knowing how much he must have wanted me to be able to overcome his apparent deep love for his wife. Mmmmmmm, talk about feeling sexy, I felt like Cleopatra!

Ed had his pants back on and in order by now while I was still sitting on his work bench with my bottom exposed. He looked at me and for just a second, I saw that look again in his eyes, that look of lust and desire for me that had once driven him to do what he would now probably regret for the rest of his life. Oh sure, he would probably jerk off forever when he got horny and thought about fucking me, but when he was with his wife in bed, or with his family, there would be times memories of me sitting her like this, freshly fucked and ready to give him more of it, would intrude and he would have to deal with them. Oh well, that was his problem, not like I raped him or anything!

"For god's sake, get dressed before someone comes in and sees you like that," he hissed at me as he put his hand on the door knob. "Don't come out for a few minutes; I don't want anyone realizing we were in here together."

He cracked the door open to see if anyone was around. Apparently satisfied, he slipped out and quickly shut it behind him, leaving me all alone. I looked down at my throbbing pussy and saw more of his cum had drained from me. I couldn't help but chuckle to myself as the first thought that came to my mind was, "Damn what a mess!"

Looking around, I saw a pile of rags at the end of the bench and I leaned over to grab one and used it to wipe the cum from my pussy. There were some spots left on my blouse where his sweat had dripped but there nothing I could do about those, I just had to hope that they would dry quickly. Hopping off the table, I pulled my jeans back up and buttoned them shut.

I could only imagine how I must look, not to mention smell. While none of the guys would notice, it wouldn't surprise me if the women, especially Nadine, caught a whiff of the musky scent that I was carrying after being freshly fucked. My purse was upstairs and his work shop obviously didn't have any toiletries. Heck, it didn't even have a mirror so I just did the best I could with my hair and straightened myself out.

After waiting for what seemed to be an appropriate period, I turned off the light and emerged silently from the room. The kids were immersed in their games so I headed straight for the stairs. If anyone even noticed me, they didn't make any indication of it. Back in the kitchen, Nadine saw me enter and called to me from across the table.

"Hey Kelly, where you been?"

It was more an innocent question than an accusation so I told her I'd been down with the kids and she just nodded. After all, wasn't that my role in all this? It's not like I was invited to fuck her husband, at least I'm sure that wasn't her intention.

Having met her hostess's obligation to pay attention to me, she turned back to the other women and whatever they were discussing.

I couldn't help but stand there for a moment and look at her. She really was a great looking woman for her age which made it the more special for me to know her husband had just cheated on her to have me. Some guys showed me pictures of their wives who had gained tons of weight since marriage or otherwise just let themselves go and I could understand why they might give in finally and want to fuck a girl like me.

Actually, the number one rationalization men gave me when they cheat is that their wife has lost interest in sex and so they need an outlet. Frankly, in most of those cases I couldn't help but look at the guy and sympathize with the wife. No wonder she had lost interest! Letting him do me once for the experience and notch on my belt was one thing; but in many cases I couldn't imagine what it must be like to be married to the slob and have him constantly groping me after drinking a case of beer and eating two bags of chips while he watched the football game.

With Nadine, neither scenario seemed to fit. Both Ed and Nadine had kept themselves in great shape so it wasn't like either of them was repulsed by the other. In fact, Ed had even admitted they had sex often and he enjoyed it. Looking at Nadine one last time, I couldn't help but smile to myself as I felt a glow in me as more than a little pride and self-confidence built up in me. To think Ed had risked it all, this wonderful home, a beautiful and sexy wife, two great kids, just for one quick opportunity to fuck me.

Well, on that note, all I can say is that if anyone still doesn't understand why I love fucking married men, I give up trying to explain!

(Feb 04) Chapter 109: Dad's Business Partner

Me (20)
John - my dad (41)
Andreas (48)

Last year my dad asked my cousin Kristen and me to pretend to be whores and entertain a few of his clients. Apparently it turned him on as much as me so when he asked me to do the same for one of his out-of-town business associates I didn't hesitate!

Note: This falls sort of in between another diary entry of mine, Super Bowl Sunday. It's just that it was so different from everything else that happened this weekend I decided to write it up on its own.

1. Offering Help to My Dad

It was an incredible weekend - one I never expected to happen. The Steelers were going to the Super Bowl! It wasn't that I was personally overexcited about it all but when you grow up with a father who is a fanatical Steelers fan a little bit can't help but rub off.

When I left home after Christmas Break just over a month ago I'd assumed that I wouldn't be back home in Pittsburgh until Easter. Then a small miracle happened and somehow my dad's favorite team was back in the big game for the first time in ten years. I was only ten years old the last time the team had played in the Super Bowl but I can still remember his disappointment when they lost. I was praying for them to win this time and so I decided to go home and help him cheer them on.

It was a three hour drive so after classes were over on Friday I quickly jumped in my car and headed home. My dad was shocked to see me when he walked in the door late that night from a meeting at work, but not TOO shocked to take me right there in the hallway! It was a great way to start off the weekend and I was so glad to be home again.

The next morning at breakfast my dad explained why he had been out so late. Apparently one of his cases involved another law firm in Chicago. One of their top lawyers was in town for the weekend so he had agreed to arrange for some "entertainment" for the guy tonight. Until now all he planned on was to take him out to some of the strip clubs and such. Of course my dad had no idea I'd be home for the weekend. He winked at me and casually mentioned that since I was home maybe it was something I might want to help out with.

I immediately understood what he meant and I felt a twinge between my legs as I recalled last spring when he had asked my cousin Kristen and me to "help him out" back then. As it turned out, he had some clients in town who wanted to meet some girls in Pittsburgh - and I mean meet in the most personal way! They expected my dad to join in which put him in a bit of a predicament since he had never cheated on my mom and wasn't about to then.

Well, Kristen and I were both thrilled to provide the entertainment. I still have fond memories of how hot it was to have my dad fuck me in a hotel room right in front of two guys who never dreamed that the "whore" my dad was fucking was actually his own daughter. Of course, the same applied when they were fucking me I front of him. I've always wondered what they would have said had they known they were fucking my dad's little girl! It was the only time we had ever done anything that crazy but my mom confided in me a few months later that he had been incredibly turned on and it was all he talked about afterwards.

"Hmmmmmm, well I don't know daddy," I teased him, "Are you sure you want your daughter whoring for you again?"

My mom just rolled her eyes while my dad just burst out laughing. "Oh yeah," he said between chuckles, "Like you didn't get off from it too, you silly slut!"

Well, what could I really say, my dad was right and he knew it. Although I would never really be a whore, pretending to be one was fun. I'd tried doing some escorting about a year before but had to quit when things got out of hand on one of my "appointments". I wasn't doing it for the money though. Although I was "tipped" when I performed at bachelor parties or met guys as part of the escort business, for me it was just for the thrill of it.

In reality I would have done it all, the bachelor parties and escorting, for free but there was something about them paying me that made it seem even more "naughty". I use to took offense when people tried to call me a prostitute when I was escorting. If I'd been doing it just for the money they would have been right and I realized that so far as the guys were concerned that I was just that. In my heart, though, I knew I'd never been a prostitute or a whore.

That said, I don't mind being called a slut - if anything I take it as a compliment. That tells me that person thinks I am sexy compared to when someone calls me a whore as that implies I have sex just for money - something I have NEVER done.

As usual, my mom was the one to bring a sense of reality to the situation. She has always been the moral compass of the family, steering us in the right direction to make sure nothing got out of hand. There were times when we were out that my dad would get horny and my mom would have to step in and put things on hold before he and I did something that might cause problems later.

In this case she looked at my dad with a serious, "I'm not joking this time" look and asked, "Are you sure this guy's OK John? I don't want Kelly getting in trouble or anything. You WILL be there the whole time - right?"

My dad let out a deep breath like he always does when he gets a bit exasperated. "Don't worry Mary, you know damn well I would never let anything happen to her. Besides, do you honestly think I would miss out on this?"

Well, how could my mom argue with that logic? If there was one thing my dad took seriously more than anything else, and I loved him for it, it was the safety of his daughter. When I was a teenager he would always want to know who I was with and where we were going. He actually encouraged me to bring my boyfriends home as he figured I was safer having them fuck them in my bedroom than hiding in the back seat of some car on a deserted road. Of course, it also had the added benefit of letting him peek in on us.

So it was all set - my dad would take the guy out for dinner and then they would go back to his hotel room where I would show up. I had the perfect outfit to wear - the "little black dress" my dad had given me for this past Christmas. I hadn't worn it in public yet as it was bordering on indecent by most standards but in this case it seemed entirely appropriate!

2. My Cousin Kristen is Jealous

For the rest of the morning all I could think about was what would be happening that evening. I went over to visit my cousin Kristen at her house. My Aunt Linda was out showing homes so the two of us sat on the floor in the living room catching up on things. It was her first year in college and it was interesting to compare the differences between her public school and my private religious one.

My school was ultra-conservative - bordering on the ridiculous at times. While we didn't have to wear uniforms, the dress code was strict and nothing sexy or suggestive in any way was allowed. Skirts couldn't be more than a couple of inches above the knee (and even THAT was frowned on), swim suits for school events had to be one-piece and no thongs were allowed - period. Supposedly we had to wear bras and panties although I tended to break that rule whenever I thought I could get away with it.

Our dorms and apartments were segregated by sex for everyone unless you were married, no matter how old you were. Male visitors in our apartment were absolutely forbidden and grounds for immediate expulsion on the first offense - for both parties involved. We were supposed to follow the rules off campus as well but naturally that was not followed by most of the students although peer pressure was high at times. The one rule that stood out among all others was simple - no sex. Nothing even remotely sensual or provocative. The list was extensive!

By contrast by cousin went to the University of Pittsburgh which sounded like a non-stop party from the way my cousin described it. Her dorm was coed and guys were allowed in rooms although the doors were supposed to be kept open when they visited. She could wear just about anything (and knowing her, I imagined she pushed even THOSE limits). As for sex, all they cared about was that nothing was done that was illegal.

Kristen was two years younger than me but last year she'd already had sex with more guys than I had and while my sex life went ice cold at school, hers was wilder than ever. I had no doubt she was quite popular - with the boys AND the girls. She described things that I could only dream about while I was at school.

Although she had not had sex with any of her professors, she said she did have a good time teasing them and most of them were more than willing to go along with the game even if they didn't actually do anything outside the classroom. If I even batted an eyelash at one of my professors I would've been hauled before the ethics review committee and put on probation! Oh well, overall I loved my school and besides, I was there for an education, not sex.

After we had chatted for a while I described my plans for the evening to Kristen. She put on a big pout and folded her arms to show her disappointment.

"Aw Kelly," she pouted, "Why didn't your dad ask ME to join in? Remember what an incredible time we had before?"

"Yeah, like you haven't been getting enough cock lately," I laughed.

"That's not the point Kelly," she replied, "The whole thing, posing as whores and letting your dad fuck us in front of them, like, it was one of the wildest things we have done!"

I had to agree with her on that one. We had certainly done some crazy things together but that night had been absolutely surreal. As I said before, it's not that I ever wanted to actually BE a whore, but to have those guys THINK we were was erotic to say the least. The more we talked the more horny I got thinking about what I'd be doing in just a matter of hours.

"Well... you're going to have to tell me EVERYTHING about it tomorrow," she said. "And be sure to tell your dad he owes me one!"

I laughed at that one - as if she didn't get fucked enough by my dad as it was. I was so horny I was ready to jump her right then and there but I knew I had to get home to get ready for the evening and if I let my lust get the better of me now it might be hours before I broke free. I got up to leave and just then my aunt came in from the garage carrying some groceries.

"Mommmmmm!" Kristen whined, "Kelly's dad's letting her pretend to be a whore again tonight and he didn't invite me!"

My aunt just laughed, "Yeah, I already know. Mary called me to tell me about it. Sorry girl, looks like Kelly gets all the fun tonight!"

Kristen was still pretending to be put out and she probably actually WAS to some degree. After all, I think she probably would BE a whore if given the opportunity. My aunt came over and put her arms around her.

"Awwwwww, don't worry baby," she cooed, "The two of us can have our own fun tonight."

I smiled and waved goodbye, leaving them to whatever was going to happen next. My aunt had divorced when Kristen was young and she never knew her dad. The two of them grew up extremely close, even sharing the same bed all her life. I

All the time I was thinking of these things my fingers had worked their way between my legs and my fingers were playing with my clit as the water ran down along them. I heard the bathroom door open and my dad walked in just as I was getting close. He must have heard me panting because the door cracked open and he peeked inside.

"Need some help in there?" he asked with a sly grin on his face.

"Daddy, I'm busy!" I said, pretending to be shocked that he would interrupt me while I was masturbating, "Besides, you'll be getting me later if you're a good boy."

He flashed a grin at me and left me to finish myself off which only took a few minutes more. Satisfied and clean, I spent a while drying off and fixing my hair before returning to my room. Normally not a big one for a lot of makeup, I decided to use just the minimal amount although I picked out some sexy lipstick that accentuated my lips and smile.

I left my hair loose - a ponytail just didn't seem appropriate with a slutty dress. Looking in the mirror I debated whether or not to try to put some curl in. My hair has always been a source of frustration for me. It's always straight and I've tried every combination of conditioner to get anybody to it. Technically I'm a brunette but that covers a broad spectrum of color and over the years I've tried various hair colorings. Probably the worst thing I experimented with was going blond for a summer. Looking back at those pics I cringe!

Eventually I had myself ready and I slipped on the thong. I would have loved to meet the sadist who invented the damn things. Guys love them but I tell them they don't have to wear one! Basically I walk around all night feeling like I have a wedgie! Oh the things girls do to satisfy men!

I dropped the dress down over my head and worked it downward, pulling it to get it to at least cover my ass at least a little bit. This dress should have been advertised as being good for your posture because unless I stood up perfectly straight it pulled up and revealed my butt! Sitting down and bending over to put on my heels it lifted up and I found myself basically sitting on my chair bare-ass as the thong didn't provide any coverage in the rear. Oh well, it's not like I was going to be wearing it to the mall or anything.

One last look in the mirror and I smiled. Yep, I definitely looked like a streetwalker tonight! If only my roomies could see me now! Of course, Jen wouldn't mind but my other roomies had no idea what Jen and I did behind our door. I'm sure they would have been totally shocked at my current appearance considering they usually saw me as the mousy school girl. I giggled as I tried to estimate how many milliseconds it would take for me to get kicked out of chapel if I showed up in his outfit!

I grabbed a small purse that was just big enough for a tube of lipstick and headed downstairs where my parents were waiting. My dad was dressed up in a suit – men have it soooooo easy, they can wear a suit to anything. My mom was drinking some coffee at the dinner table and when I arrived she looked up and smiled approvingly at me. My dad saw her eyes look up and turned to see me and a huge grin broke out on his face.

"Mmmmmmm, now THAT is what I call an outfit," he said with a tinge of pride in his voice. Looking at my mom he boasted, "See, I CAN pick out clothes despite your lack of confidence in me."

My dad had bought me this outfit for Christmas and although it didn't stay on me very long when I modeled it for him, he never failed to remind my mom that HE had picked it out all by himself. I hated to burst his bubble but in all honesty it didn't take a tremendous amount of fashion taste to pick out a simple black dress. It was the fact it was so short and cut so low that is what made it sexy.

My dad looked at his watch and said, "Well, time for me to get going and pick up Andreas."

I looked over at him with a questioning look. "Andreas"? Instantly visions of some exotic Frenchman came to mind and I started to ask him to tell me more about him. Actually until then he had not said a word about the guy so I was curious. My dad just grinned and shook his head.

"Nope," he said defiantly, "You'll just have to see for yourself."

My mom grinned and I had a suspicion she was in on something which made me all the more curious. Just what was going on here that had her looking like the cat who just caught the mouse?

"Don't look at me girl," she said, "my lips are sealed. Don't worry, I think you're going to find tonight a bit interesting."

Damn, now just what did THAT mean? Both of my parents looked entirely too pleased with themselves so I knew something was going on that my dad had not told me about. Oh well, I trusted him that he would never do anything that would be bad for me so I guess I would just have to find out for myself.

My dad gave my mom and me a kiss and off he went. My mom and I sat down (or at least I tried to without splitting the dress apart) and tried to talk about school and church as if it was just a typical evening.

4. The Hotel

I kept on eye on the clock and finally the time came for me to leave as well. My dad had arranged for a taxi to pick me up so I wouldn't have to ride the T downtown and he was right on time. My mom loaned me her evening coat which was long and black and she helped me slip it on before I went out to the taxi.

I gave the driver the address of the hotel and he gave me a look as if wondering just what was going on but he remained discreet and didn't say a word to me the entire trip. I crossed my legs in the back seat and felt my clit tingle just a little as the motion caused it to rub against the tight thong just a little. God was I so horny! I couldn't wait to get there and have some fun.

My taxi dropped me off at the hotel entrance and the doorman held the door open as I entered. I noticed he gave me the once over as I passed through and I flashed a smile at him as I went in. I was sure he was thinking that someone was getting lucky tonight and he was right!

Once in the hotel lobby I couldn't resist myself and I took off the coat and draped it over my arm. There were several guys checking in at the time and it was all I could do from smiling a huge grin when I noticed every eye turned towards me. I could feel the edge of my skirt just under my ass and I knew every one of them was hoping I would bend over just a bit and reveal what I was wearing underneath - or not wearing if that be the case. It was more fun to tease them though and I slowly walked through the lobby leaving them to wonder.

Stepping into the elevator, I kept my aloof look on until the doors closed and then let out a deep breath. It was about to happen now and this was really my last chance to back out. In reality, there was no way I would even consider such a thing though and as I went higher my pussy just got hotter with anticipation.

Finally the door opened and I stepped into the hallway. Although not a suite, my dad had told me they were going to be in an "executive" room which had more space than the typical room. There was nobody else to be seen and I walked down to where the room was.

Just as I was about to knock the door opposite opened and what looked like a businessman stepped out. He closed the door behind him and then saw me standing there. I smiled at him but his eyes never went above my chest. He quickly walked down the hall, shaking his head. No doubt he assumed I was NOT there for a restful night's sleep.

Alone once again I straightened out my dress and took in a deep breath and let it out slowly. I knocked lightly on the door just twice and waited. Within a few seconds the door opened and there was my dear old dad.

"Hi, you must be Kelly?" he said with a wink at me. "C'mon in, we've been waiting for you."

I stepped in and quickly took inventory of the room. There was a huge bathroom just as you walked in with a large king size bed, a couch, and a glass-top desk with the usual phone and lamp. A TV set was hidden away in a tall wooden structure with an ice bucket chilling what looked to be some sort of white wine in it. Of course what grabbed my attention was the person waiting for me. Sitting in the stuffed chair next to the couch was older-looking man who must have been in his forties or early fifties. His head was shaved although it looked like he would have been partially bald anyways. His suit was definitely NOT off the rack and I would have guessed probably cost well over a thousand dollars judging by the tailored fit and material.

The guy stood up and I guessed him at about six feet tall with a build that suggested an athletic past if not present. The one thing though that stood out the most though was perhaps the thing I had least expected - he was black! Not brown or light tan but a deep, dark black you rarely saw. His skin was almost shiny the color was so deep. He smiled and his pearly white teeth were in sharp contrast to his face and made his grin almost seem to glow. I'd had sex with a black man before but not as BLACK as this guy was.

My dad introduced me saying, "Kelly, this is Andreas... Andreas, this is Kelly, the girl I told you about."

Andreas held out his hand and lightly shook mine in a polite manner. "Good evening Kelly, I must say you come highly recommended."

I blushed slightly and looked down before looking him in the eyes again. "Thank you sir, I hope to live up to your expectations."

God, it was like some Victorian novel! Everyone was being so polite and acting as if this were just some typical business meeting. I wondered just how to get things moving along when my dad broke the ice.

"Why don't you tell Kelly a bit about yourself Andreas," he said, "You've had quite an interesting career.

I sat on the couch and crossed my legs. In doing so my skirt slid up and basically revealed my ass. With my legs crossed he couldn't see my thong and I suppose he had to wonder if I was wearing anything underneath my dress. Andreas' eyes were locked on my legs and butt as I put my hands in my lap and listened as if there was nothing at all unusual going on.

For the next ten minutes or so he described how he had come to the USA as a child with his parents, worked his way through school and various law firms. My ears really perked up though when he casually mentioned getting married when he was young. He described his four kids - two girls and two boys all in their twenties now and living on their own, as if he was talking to just anyone. He mentioned that he was still married and he must have picked up on my eyes widening just a bit.

"Sorry, does it bother you that I'm married? he asked. "I must say I usually don't do this sort of thing but lately our sex life has cooled off a bit so when you dad made me this offer I decided it was time to finally look out for myself."

God, if he only knew how many times I'd heard THAT line before! Practically every married guy who hit on me claimed his wife was the problem and wasn't giving him enough sex. Of course, it was never THEIR problem!

That said, of course it didn't bother me that he was married and I looked over at my dad briefly who just smiled. I could have reached over and kissed him right then and there. He knew how much I loved fucking married men and someone I had a feeling that setting me up with Andreas was partly driven by the fact he knew I would be turned on because he had a wife back home.

"It doesn't matter to me one way or the other Andreas," I said softly, "After all, tonight is about YOU, not your wife."

I stood up at that point and didn't bother pulling my skirt down so as I faced him he could see my thong as it barely hid my pussy. I slowly swayed my hips as then asked him in a seductive voice, "So tell me Andreas, can your wife fit into a dress like this?"

I slowly turned in front of him as if dancing to a slow soft song. Meanwhile my dad turned on the television set and set it to one of the porn channels. A couple was fucking and he turned down the volume so it was just their images on the screen.

"Just something to help set the mood," my dad explained with a grin.

I turned so I was facing away from Andreas and leaned over so my dress pulled up completely over my ass. The thong pulled in tight between my butt cheeks essentially giving him a bare-ass view of me. I slowly dropped the thong and spread my legs apart just enough so he could see my glistening pussy, wet from the anticipation of being fucked by his hard black cock. Reaching between my smooth legs, I traced one finger from my ass, over my pussy hole and through my pussy lips until it glided over my sensitive clit.

"Damn Andreas, what do you think of that pussy?" my dad exclaimed.

"Mmmmmmm," Andreas replied, "I thought you were exaggerating about her but now I see you were actually not doing her justice! That's the sweetest looking cunt I've seen in a long time!"

"Go on," my dad encouraged him, "she's all yours - at least she damn well better be for what she charges!"

We all laughed except Andreas who really did not understand just how much this WAS costing my dad.

5. Andreas Fucks Me in Front of My Dad

Feeling incredibly horny and hot, I leaned over the bed to support myself, keeping my legs straight and spread apart. This was one of the few times my dad's porn magazines come in handy - they can teach you all sorts of sexy poses!

Andreas's hand gingerly reached between my legs and gently cupped my damp crotch. His middle finger began to explore my pussy, pushing it into my pussy and then wiggling it inside of me.

"Nice pussy - good and tight," he said approvingly to my dad. "God my wife hasn't felt this tight in twenty years." With his finger now wetted, he pulled his hand upward and ran little circles around my asshole. Then I felt his finger began to push against my asshole and I turned my head around to him to say, "Sorry, that's not for play."

Andreas kept pushing his finger into my asshole though, as if he never heard a word I said. I looked over to my dad for some support. He knew I hated anal sex and

I was hoping he would step in and defend me - or least my asshole! I was surprised then when he didn't say a word and instead he just watched as Andreas slipped his finger into my ass.

I had played with my asshole in the tub and shower before but never much more than that. During my last escorting gig I had been forced to do anal which was a big reason for why I quit the escorting business after that night. I might put up with his finger but he had better not try anything bigger than that.

"God her ass is tight!" he exclaimed. I didn't know what to say - should I protest and piss him off or just him go? This wasn't exactly the way I had figured the night would start out, that was for sure. The amazingly he stopped and went back to playing with my pussy.

"Don't worry, I'm not in anal myself. I was just curious how tight your asshole was."

Whew! I was relieved to hear that. I have never figured out the fascination some people have for assholes. I guess when I think about it all I imagine is my crap coming out and for the life of me I could never lick a guy's asshole. I didn't mind if a guy licks me - that's his business although I don't let him kiss me or coming near my face again afterwards.

The one time I'd been fucked in the ass it hurt like hell and I never wanted to try it again. I've had guys try to tell me I just needed more lubricant, etc. but the bottom line (pun intended) is that I have a perfectly good mouth and pussy that can handle a cock quite well, thank you, so why mess around with my asshole?

In the meantime Andreas was doing a nice job of fingering my pussy and as his fingertips toyed with my clit all thoughts of my near anal disaster disappeared. Andreas pulled his finger out of me and put it up to my lips. I opened my mouth and he slipped his finger in and I sucked it like a binky, savoring the flavor of my wet pussy on his finger.

"Ahhhhhh, you like the taste of your pussy don't you?" he said, "Well I can't blame you for that one."

He slapped my playfully on the butt saying, "OK, time to get down to some business. See that girl sucking cock in the screen? Well, I bet you can do better than that."

I stood up and glanced over at the TV. Some porn whore was sucking a huge cock but all she was doing was just going up and down on it - no imagination whatsoever! To think this girl was supposed to be a "pro". Hell, I could suck a cock twice as good as she ever dreamed. This was also a classic example of why I hate porn. It not only objectifies women, it leads men to think that it represents what women want from sex and what men expect from them. It was just like what Andreas had asked for - do it "like her".

Andreas was still standing with his suit coat off now, draped over the chair behind the desk. He stood there with his hands on his hips, obviously waiting for me to "service" him. Well, what could I really say as that's what a whore does so I went to "work". Standing in front of him, my eyes level with his chest, I reached out and undid his belt and pants. Kneeling down, my dress creeping up practically to my waist, I pulled his pants downwards to his ankles followed quickly his boxer shorts. His dress shoes were still on which kept his clothes bunched around his ankles. His white dress shirt had long tails which came down past his crotch and hid his cock from my sight.

I could already smell his manhood as nothing tweaks my nose like the strong scent of a male crotch. Pulling his shirt aside, I got my first clear view of his cock and my first thought was, "God, they're right!".

OK, I hate to admit to stereotyping people, but everyone jokes about black men having big cocks. In my own limited experience, I would say skin color doesn't matter but in the case of Andreas, the stereotype certainly fit. Damn, he was hung like a horse! His cock was still relatively soft but it hung down and looked to be over six inches long already. Not only that, he wasn't circumcised so his cock head was hiding behind the covering of his foreskin. His cock was as jet black as the rest of him and surrounded by an incredibly thick thatch of stiff curly pubic hair which, from the length of it, he apparently never shaved or trimmed.

All in all, his dick looked absolutely delicious!

I took his cock in one hand and held it so it faced me. Looking up at him first and then back at his cock, I leaned forward and slipped the end of his cock into my mouth. His musky odor filled my nose as my tongue ran over the end. My hand pulled back on his foreskin and the head popped into my mouth which I promptly started to lick with my tongue. It wasn't long before I was rewarded with the feeling of his cock twitching and the pulse in it veins promised that it would soon be hard as a steel pipe.

Andreas put his hands on my head and pulled my face tightly into his crotch. He ran his hands through my hair, pulling on it just slightly, just enough to make it tingle and drive me crazy. My had bobbed on his cock while my tongue ran over it.

While I stroked it with my one hand, feeling it growing inch by inch in my mouth, my other hand cupped his balls and massaging them, rolling them gently between my fingers.

"Oh yeah, John," Andreas called over to my dad, "This little whore certainly knows how to suck a cock!

I turned my head to look over at my dad and saw he was sitting on the couch with his pants unzipped and his own cock sticking out while he masturbated, watching his daughter sucking this guy's growing cock. I loved watching my father masturbate, especially when I knew he was thinking about me. It gave me this incredibly sexy feeling knowing my dad thought about me that way. If my own father could masturbate thinking about me, I could only imagine what other men thought about me!

Andreas grabbed me by the shoulders saying, "Shit, I need to taste that pussy. Lay back on the bed and spread those gorgeous legs.

I got up and backed into the bed. Keeping my dress on, if you could call it that considering it was now riding around my waist allowing him a clear view of my bare pussy, I let myself fall onto the bed on my back. I put my feet up on the bed and let my knees fall to the sides so my pussy was spread open for him. Andreas stood over me and just looked down at me with his cock in his hand as he slowly stroked himself.

"Damn, that is one sweet looking cunt," he said to me. I smiled as I used both hands to spread my pussy lips apart for him. He kneeled at the edge of the bed and put one hand on each of my inner thighs, pushing my legs even farther apart as his face lowered itself down between my legs. I gasped as his tongue lightly touched my swollen clit.

"Mmmmmmm, I think she likes that," my dad said. I looked over and saw he had risen from the couch to stand at the end of the bed not far from my head. "Well, let's see if she can handle another cock while you're taking care of her pussy."

My dad dropped his off and got up on the bed. He kneeled above my head and leaned forward over my face. I looked up and saw his balls hanging above my face and then he pushed his cock down into my mouth so while I was sucking his cock his hairy balls were rubbing against my cheeks and nose. As much as my pussy was enjoying Andreas' efforts, taking my dad's dick in my mouth right in front of this guy was turning me on even faster.

In the meantime my pussy was indeed getting quite the workout from Andreas. He had a long tongue and when he pushed it in my pussy he could stick it in a ways which felt incredibly good. Speaking of long, he could hold his breath a long time as well which meant he would smash his mouth firmly against my pussy and push his tongue into me as deep as he could. It was like being fucked by a tongue!

All the while I was squirming from my pussy being licked by Andreas, I was also trying to suck my dad's cock as well. It was difficult to concentrate on both ends but my dad helped by stroking himself in and out of my mouth.

"Shit Andreas, you must be doing one hell of a job eating her pussy," my dad said, "she's having a hard time concentrating on my cock!"

Andreas looked up and although I couldn't see him I imagined he had a big grin on his wet face. He was good - and he knew it!

"Well, your cock looks pretty good in her mouth right now," he said, "Hmmmmmm, I think she's ready now. Mmmmmmm, what do you say John, time to fuck this whore?"

My dad pulled out of my mouth and I lifted my head up and looked first at him and then at Andreas with a smile. "I say go for it, Andreas!" he said, "Fuck her."

How can I describe how it felt to hear those words from my father. My own dad had just told a guy I had never met before to, "Fuck her". My own father was encouraging this guy to screw his only daughter, to stick his dick in her, to maybe even cum in her and leave his seed.

What kind of father would ever do such a thing to his daughter? Well, the kind of father my dad is - a loving, wonderful man who knows what his daughter enjoys and what turns her on. The kind of father that is concerned about what his daughter wants more than he does. It made me feel so wonderful at that moment, realizing how much he must love me to do this for me.

Andreas stripped off his shirt, motioning for me to do the same with my dress. I sat up on the bed and started to lift it over my head. My dad was still behind me and he helped me take it off, leaving me naked then except for my heels which I decided to leave on. Once again, it was the influence of the porn industry at work. Why in the world would a real woman want to wear heels while she was being fucked? Well, guys see the whores wearing them in porn licks so they think girls like me should do it too.

Andreas sat on the couch, stroking his massive cock which was now hard as pole. I walked slowly up to him with my hands on my hips and watched him masturbate. Damn I wanted that monster in me! It was hard not to just jump on his lap and drop my pussy down onto it. Well, that would happen soon but first I owed them a show for what they "spent" to get me for the night.

Licking my lips seductively, I turned around and rubbed my ass with both hands. My hips gyrated my hands wandered over my ass and in front to my pussy. Leaning over with my legs straight and spread apart, I ran my fingers over my pussy slit, letting one finger slide between the wet lips and dip into my pussy.

"Alright, enough teasing. Get over her and sit on my cock," Andreas demanded.

He didn't have to ask me twice. I backed into him, straddling his legs which were tight together. Then I slowly lowered myself down onto his waiting dick. My dad who was still on the bed and I winked at him as I felt Andreas' cock press against my pussy. As usual, my pussy resisted the intruder at first. Then finally, almost begrudgingly, it split apart to allow him entrance.

The weight of my body forced my pussy to accept more his thick cock and I could feel my thighs split open as his big cock disappeared inside of me. It kept going deeper until I started to wonder if it was ever going to never stop moving further into me when finally my ass was on his lap. I lifted my legs off the floor, holding myself steady with my hands on this legs to cause my full weight to press his dick into me as far as it would go. I wiggled and squirmed, making his cock move around inside of me.

Andreas put his hands on my hips to steady me. Once again my feet were planted on the floor and I started to slowly rise and fall on his cock. First I would lift myself up slowly and then, after teasing him with just the head of his cock still in me, I would drop as fast as I could back down on his lap. Each time the sudden drive of his fat cock into my pussy would make me gasp as it felt like my pussy was going to explode from the huge thing that was in me.

Faster and faster I went, fucking his hard black cock. Looking down between my legs I could see his dick moving in and out of me, the darkness of his cock contrasting sharply with the light skin of my thighs and crotch. When I was down on him his thick pubic hair covered my pussy, hiding everything from view until I rose up again when I could see his shaft as it entered my pussy and then was out of sight.

Meanwhile my dad had stripped off his clothes and was laying back on the bed, stroking himself slowly as he watched his daughter being fucked by this huge black cock. Looking at his nude body, I was proud of him for the way he kept himself in shape. He looked so sexy laying there on the couch - no beer gut or flab like the fathers of most of my friends.

"Turn around," Andreas said in a firm voice.

Dutifully I lifted myself off his cock reversed my position. It was a little tricky keeping my balance with the heels but he held my legs and kept me from falling over backwards as I kneeled down and once again allowed Andreas to fuck me. He leaned forward and sucked on my boobs as I ground my ass into his crotch, the coarse pubic hair of his cock rubbing against my bald pussy like a thick hairbrush.

A moan escaped as my hands tightened their grip on the back of the couch. I was leaning over him, hands on both sides of his head as he used his own hands to lift me and then let me drop back down on his cock. His mouth sucked one nipple and then moved to the other, making my boobs feel like a furnace was raging inside of them. Mmmmmmm, I loved my boobs to being sucked when someone is fucking me!

Once again I looked back and saw that my dad was still in the same position, still slowly stroking himself. He really wasn't masturbating per se, it was more like when I get horny driving or something and I rub myself through my clothes. At those times it's more like scratching an itch then an overt effort to cum. It was the same with him, just as I have seen him absentmindedly fondling his dick when we watch TV and there's hot actress on the screen (his favorite being Amanda Tapping of StarGate fame). He was just enjoying seeing his daughter being fucked, no different than any proud father at his daughter's recital or school play.

"Alright, get up and kneel on the couch," Andreas commanded me.

He was being a little bossy but I sort of like it when a man tries to be in control. It's not that I want to be submissive in a master-slave sort of way, I just like it when a man takes charge. Andreas was certainly fitting the bill for me today in that regard. He knew what he wanted and he was taking it. Of course, ultimately it was ME that was always in control but it didn't hurt to let them think they were.

Following his "orders", I kneeled on the couch with my feet hanging over the edge and leaned forward so my folded arms were on the top edge of the couch. Andreas pushed my legs apart and with one hand he spread my wet pussy open and with the other he guided his stiff cock back into my empty pussy once again. It felt so good to have him back in me again. Andreas immediately went to work, slamming his cock into me and banging up against my ass like a pile driver. He fucked me for what seemed like an hour but was certainly a lot less time. Hey, my pussy didn't care; it was loving it.

"Shit I'm getting close," Andreas gasped. He suddenly pulled out of me and didn't say anything but just grabbed me by the waist and literally flipped me over on my back. My legs hung over the side of the couch and my head rested up against the back. I watched intently as he quickly stuffed his cock back in me again and started banging me again.

"Damn Andreas," my dad said, walking up beside us with his hard cock standing out from his crotch, "How long you going to fuck that bitch?"

"Don't worry John," Andreas laughed as he kept fucking me without missing a beat, "You'll get your chance soon... Watch now, I'm going to COVER this slut with cum!"

He pulled out of me yet again and started stroking his cock furiously. It only took a few seconds before a gigantic load of cum erupted, leaving a trail from the top of my head, down my face and over my boobs all the way down to my stomach! Damn he could shoot some cum! The first shot was followed by another almost as big, this time some of it falling into my open mouth and the rest over my torso. He still had several more loads in reserve and he leaned over me to shoot them on one boob and then the other.

"Hey, now how's that?" Andreas said triumphantly to my dad, "God, just look at the little cum slut. You know, I love seeing a girl with cum all over her."

He turned back to me and put one knee up on the couch next to me and then took his cock in his hand and used it to spread his cum all over my boobs and stomach until I was literally coating with cum. The cum in my mouth tasted bitter, more so than most, but I still managed to smile and pushed it forward to my lips so he could see it bubbling from my mouth. I used a couple of fingers to wipe the rest of it from my face into my mouth and then swallowed it all in one big gulp.

"Wow Andreas," my dad exclaimed, "Looks she likes your cum! Look at her swallow it down like candy."

I looked at my dad and grinned saying, "So what about you. Are you going to just stand there or fuck me?"

Andreas laughed and sat on the end of the couch. "Yeah, she's a genuine cum slut all right. I can spot 'em a mile away. Look at the way she's eying your dick. Yeah, she wants more."

My dad took control and smiled at me. It was sort of weird being in this situation as you might expect. Suddenly it was like he was just another guy, not my father. The look in his eyes was the same I've seen in dozens of other men as they approached me with the intent to fuck me. It was almost animal- like, his male instinct and lust combined to create this intense desire to have sex with the female in front of him as his, to take her as his mate.

"Lay down girl and suck my cock while John fucks you," Andreas cut in, breaking my concentration. "Damn bitch, I would have thought that little pussy would've had enough by now!"

I looked at Andreas and then smiled at my dad saying. "Well, I think it can handle a little more," I responded with a bit of a smirk.

I laid on my side and put my head in Andreas' lap where I started to suck his cock slowly. The scent of my pussy was on him, mixed in with the bitter flavor of his sperm. It was an intoxicating mixture and I loved the taste of it in my mouth.

As I sucked Andreas, my dad lifted one of my legs onto the top of the couch and pushed the other off the side, revealing my pussy to him like some pole dancer on stage. He straddled my lower leg and guided his cock into me. It was like being in heaven as I felt his hard dick slide into me, joining father and daughter once again. Yes indeed, my dad was finally fucking me - and with this guy watching who didn't have a clue that I was his daughter.

"Looking good John!" Andreas called out to him, "Shit, that reminds me. Isn't she about your daughter's age?"

"Yeah but my daughter's not a whore," he replied with a grin.

Andreas laughed and then patted me on the head like I was a good puppy or something. "Well, can you imagine what her daddy would say if he saw his little girl now?"

"Probably be pretty proud of her for being such a good fuck!"

Andreas laughed even harder at that one responding with, "Oh yeah, right."

Andreas was in a chatty mood it appeared. He laughed some more and then asked my dad, "So you think she fucks her daddy this good? You know, it wouldn't surprise me if this cute little whore was a daddyfucker. She has that look or whatever. What do you say girl, do you fuck your daddy? Probably your brother too."

It was all I could do to keep from braking out in laughter. I didn't dare look at my dad as I am sure we would have never been able to keep from giving ourselves away. Instead I let go of Andreas' cock and looked up at him with a grin on my face.

"Of course my daddy fucks me," I said in teasing tone, "Besides, who else would my mommy use to teach me to suck dick so good?"

My dad nearly choked trying to keep his composure but Andreas totally misread his reaction.

"Ha! I knew it. Shit, don't be such a fucking conservative lawyer John, he taunted my dad. "Don't try to tell me you never dreamed of fucking your daughter. Hell, I have two of them and I can't tell you how many nights I've spent masturbating about them."

He pushed my head down deeper into his crotch as he continued.

"Of course, my girls aren't in the same league as our little whore here and God knows, I would never touch them for all the world." From the way his cock was quivering, Andreas seemed to be getting off on all this talk about me being fucked by my dad and so he just kept going on and on about it.

"So tell me daddyfucker, what would he say if he saw you now? I bet daddy would be pretty pissed off knowing his personal piece of ass was out hitting the streets - or does he pimp for you? Yea, I bet that's it, daddy gets off from it doesn't he, sending you out to fuck other men and then coming home to satisfy him with their cum in you."

My dad was still fucking me slowly but I could tell from the tense grip of his hands on me that he wasn't exactly thrilled with where this was all going.

"C'mon Andreas, you don't have to humiliate her."

Andreas chuckled and replied, "Sorry John, didn't mean to hit a sore spot. Someday you'll have to let me meet your daughter though. You know, I've heard guys talk in the office about her and she has quite the reputation for being the hottest daughter in the firm! What was all this about her costume at the last Christmas party, anyway?"

My dad just shook his head and kept fucking me, "Yea, she's pretty hot Andreas. Although after hearing you now, I wouldn't let her get within a hundred yards of you!"

Andreas laughed and held his cock under my mouth. "Well, I'll say one thing, whoever's daughter she is certainly did one hell of job teaching her to suck cock. God look at her, she can take the whole thing - my wife could never even get half it down before she gagged."

Deep-throating was my specialty and I had held it in reserve until now but it worked to get him to change the subject. I didn't mind talking about being fucked by my dad but it was too surreal to be fucked by my dad at the same time he was pretending to talk about his daughter at home. Andreas groaned as his cock went down my throat. I could only hold it there for a few seconds and once I almost did gag but I managed to hold it all in despite it all.

"You ready to cum yet John? Andreas asked, "Looks like she needs another coat of cum if you ask me."

My dad normally never came on me, almost always either doing it in my mouth or pussy. The few times he came on my face or boobs was when he would masturbate while I was sleeping. Then he would cum in my hair, face or boobs so when I woke up later I knew he had been there right next to me as I was asleep, masturbating as he dreamed of fucking me and then spraying me as I slept.

I think tonight he had been planning to cum in my pussy but Andreas was expecting him to spray me and it would have been hard to explain how I preferred to have my dad leave his sperm inside of me. My dad groaned and I could feel his cock in me getting ready to explode.

At the last second he pulled his dick out of me. Actually it was a fraction of a second late as it was spraying as it came out of my pussy, leaving a little cum in me as it left a trail in the reverse order of Andreas' first shot – starting from my pussy and working its way to my boobs. He let the rest of it cover my tits and I used my hands to spreads it over me like lotion, licking the rest from my hands when I was finished. My dad's cum tasted so much better than Andreas' did but I was going to say anything about it.

"NOW she looks like a good whore," Andreas crowed, "Yes sir, nothing like a nice covering of cum to complete the look."

Both cocks were now in front of my face and I alternated between the two of them. Andreas was back to being hard again – not a bad feat for a guy his age. I had not expected him to go on but he was apparently ready to get his money's worth although technically it was my dad who had "paid" for me tonight.

"What do you say John?" he asked, "Let's take this party outside."

"Outside?" my dad questioned. "I meant outside of the room," Andreas said. "I always wanted to fuck a girl in an elevator and she's the perfect one."

My dad looked at me and I just shrugged. It really didn't bother me and after all, I'd never been fucked in an elevator before either so why not?

I grabbed my dress and thong and was going to head for the bathroom but Andreas grabbed me by the arm and stopped me.

"Hang on there slut. Now just where do you think you're going?" he asked, "Forget the dress, just throw on a coat and leave the cum on you. I want a dirty whore to fuck in the elevator."

Once again I looked at my dad who just shrugged his shoulders. The cum had pretty much dried on me already and frankly it was itching just a bit so I would have preferred to have washed it off but I could live with it. I put on my mom's coat and the guys dressed quickly although I noticed Andreas didn't bother with his boxer shorts.

When they were ready we headed to the elevators. There weren't that many people using them at the time and one came almost immediately when we pushed the buttons. As soon as we got in my dad hit the button for the top floor and off we went.

Andreas didn't waste a second as he turned me to face the wall and pulled my feet back and spread my legs apart. He lifted the coat sand I heard his pants unzip. For an old guy he sure could maintain an erection! Within five second of the door closing he was fucking me again! I can't say I was getting all that much from the fucking itself but there was something about doing it in such as public place that was a turn-on.

The elevator soon reached its destination and my dad stood in front of us as the door opened. Nobody seemed to be there so my dad checked and saw nobody was on their way either so he held the "door open" button and kept watch while Andreas kept on fucking me in the back of the elevator.

Whether it was the location or what but unlike most men who take much longer to cum the second time, Andreas was surprisingly fast this time. It was only a few minutes and he was ready to go! My dad was having a fit with the door as it kept wanting to close, but he managed to keep it open and fortunately not a soul had tried using the elevator on that floor.

"Mmmmmmm, take my cum whore," Andreas panted, "tell me you want it."

I actually did so it wasn't hard to respond. "Oh yea, cum in me... God I want you to cum inside of me!"

Well, cum in me he did although his load was noticeably smaller than his first. As big as he was I could feel his cum emerging from his cock much deeper in me than when I was with most guys.

"Oh yea," Andreas moaned, "take my cum baby!"

He emptied himself in me and then pulled out and let my coat drop back down. My dad let go of the door button and pressed the button for our floor. Back on our floor the door opened and several people were waiting there. Although they had no idea what had just happened in the elevator I'm sure they had to wonder what a girl my age was doing heading for a hotel room with two older guys in tow. Oh well, who really cared?

Back in the room Andreas plopped down in the chair and let out a big breath. "Damn, that was hot! It's been a long time since I came twice in one evening!"

He laid his head back and suddenly it was like someone had turned off a light switch and he was asleep! Now I had a lot of guys want to just roll over and go to sleep after cumming but this had to be the world record. I walked over to him and look at him - he was passed out and I had a feeling wouldn't be conscious again for the rest of the evening.

6. My Dad Gets His Turn

Turning to my dad, I hugged him and looked up at his eyes with a grin on my face. "So I'm some sort of daddyfucker, eh?" I teased him.

"You know it baby. Damn you were hot tonight by the way." he said with a soft voice. "Why don't you head home and when I get back you can fuck your daddy again tonight?

I dropped my coat and put my hands on my hips, "Why not fuck me now?" I asked, "After all, you DO know I haven't cum yet tonight?"

My dad's mouth opened and he looked a bit surprised at my revelation.

"Damn baby, I'm sorry. I guess I was more worried about what he was doing to you and didn't think about you that way." He kissed me and then pulled back laughing a bit. "You know, you really DO need a shower. What do you say we share one?"

I smiled at that and slipped off the heels - damn THAT felt good! My dad quickly undressed and we headed for the bathroom, leaving Sleeping Beauty behind. The shower was smaller than ours at home and had a curtain instead of doors which were a pain but I wasn't worried about technicalities. I adjusted the water temperature and stepped inside with my dad close behind - literally!

I stood up straight as my dad soaped me down, scrubbing the crusty cum that covered my boobs and face. In return, I stroked his wet and slippery cock with my him as anything else but I knew only one person could ever make me feel this way when we were joined and that was going to be my husband.

Slowly my dad began to slide in and out of me. We stayed holding each other while his hips swung in and out, forcing himself into me and then out again. It was so gentle, so loving, so much better than what Andreas' had done to me earlier. Oh sure I liked him fucking me but my dad was making me feel loved - something Andreas certainly didn't do. It took a while but my dad eventually came in me that way - slow and soft. I welcomed his cum inside of me, a symbol of his love for me. After he came we held each other again, still in each other's arms, just holding on to the moment. I think I will always remember that moment, when after an evening of pure sex and fucking my dad showed me how simple it was to demonstrate his love and respect for me.

We dressed and my dad left a note for Andreas saying he would meet him Monday morning at the office. There was no need for me to take a taxi home with my dad there. I rode next to him and massaged his cock gently though his pants the entire trip home. I wasn't trying to get him off, I just wanted to feel him and remember how wonderful he had made me feel tonight.

I love my Dad!

My dad was thrilled when his Steelers finally won "one for the thumb" but I was having my own Super Sunday with his brother and son - Uncle Jim and cousin Rick!

1. Masturbating While Driving

It was an incredible weekend - one I never expected to happen. I mean, who would have guess even a few weeks before that the Pittsburgh Steelers would be playing in the Super Bowl! It wasn't that I was personally overexcited about it all but when you grow up with a father who is a fanatical Steelers fan... well a little bit can't help but rub off.

When I left home after Christmas Break just over a month ago I'd assumed I wouldn't be back until Spring Break, sometime in mid-March. Then a small miracle happened and somehow my dad's favorite team was back in the Big Game for the first time in ten years. Even though I was only ten the last time they had played in the Super Bowl, I'll never how disappointed he was when they lost.

I'd been praying for them to win the championship this year and when they did I decided I simply HAD to endure the trip and go home for the weekend to help cheer them on. It was more than three hour drive so after classes were over on Friday I hurriedly jumped in my car and headed home.

Once on the interstate I put the car on cruise control and settled in for the long boring trip home. My family has never been big on road trips so three hours in the car was NOT something I was accustomed to. As I drove I couldn't help but think about what else might happen this weekend besides the game and as I did, that familiar itch began to grow between my legs.

Once an itch like that starts, you can't ignore it and there's only one way to take care of it so I spread my legs apart and started rubbing myself through my jeans. Mmmmmmm, I could feel the wetness growing but the denim was in the way of really getting down to anything good.

Keeping just one hand on the steering wheel, I undid my belt and jeans and managed to work them down off my hips to my knees. Realizing that if something were to happen there was no way I could handle the car, I slipped them off entirely and tossed them on the passenger seat. Needless to say I wasn't wearing any panties so I squirmed a little from the feeling of the cool leather seat against my bare bottom. All I was left wearing was my favorite school sweatshirt which I bunched up at my waist so even if someone was to look in my window they wouldn't get a clear view of anything other than my bare legs, not that I would have cared.

Now that those pesky jeans were out of the way I had at least an hour before I had to do anything but keep my car pointed in the right direction and on the road. I'm not the fastest driver on the highway and I set the cruise control for about 60 MPH using the buttons on my Avalon's steering wheel. It was a hand-me-down from my mother but even with over 120,000 miles it was still was in pretty good shape and I loved driving it.

Finally I was ready to go and so my free hand slipped between my bare thighs, making me shiver as my fingers ran up and down my bare pussy. At first I just rubbed it lightly, almost absentmindedly the way I catch myself doing in class sometimes when I start daydreaming. A few cars passed me by and I smiled at them as my pussy tingled a little more from the thought of what they would've said had they any idea what I was doing to myself.

My thoughts began to drift to the upcoming weekend and what I might be doing. I took in a deep breath as I imagined waking up Saturday morning and I wondered how my father would choose to wake me up. His "wakeup calls" were one of the things I missed most about being away from home.

Working my finger between my pussy lips I imagined his hard cock sliding between then as I laid on my bed sound asleep. When I thought about it pushing its way inside of me I pushed my finger in as well, drawing out the wetness and spreading it over my pussy and clit. The tip of my finger traced little circles around my swelling clit and I gasped as it suddenly responded with a sharp jolt of pleasure that made my hips and waist tingle.

My finger alternated between toying with my clit and exploring the interior of my pussy as I traveled down the highway. I reached my finger to my mouth and tasted the sweet juices of my pussy. God I loved the smell and taste of my own pussy! Some girls have told me they think their pussies taste gross but not mine - it's delicious!

A few more miles down the road and I could feel my orgasm rising in me as I fucked myself with my finger. It was all I could do to concentrate on the road as a low moan escaped from me. At the moment I was alone out in the middle of nowhere and so I just let loose a load cry and moan almost at the top of my lungs as I came - and came hard. By the time I was finished my hand was covered with my pussy cum which I licked it off, savoring every taste and scent.

When I reached a rest area in Pennsylvania I pulled into an empty parking space and put my jeans back on. They were way too tight to try and pull up with the car moving! I used the opportunity to use the restroom and straighten myself out in the mirror. Getting back in my car, I realized I was almost home! Well, nothing like a little masturbation to make a long boring trip go by quickly!

2. Back Home Again

When I did finally arrive at home it was about 6:00 in the evening and saw my dad's SUV wasn't in the garage. Actually I would have been surprised if it had been there as he usually didn't get home from work for another couple of hours at least - sometimes a lot later. My dad may bring home a lot of money but he certainly works hard for it. Hoping to surprise him, I pulled my car into the garage so he wouldn't see it until he opened the garage door. While I had told my mom about coming home for the weekend, we had both agreed that it would be a great surprise for my dad.

I went in the house carrying my purse and bag where I found my mom in the kitchen getting dinner ready. She was still in her nurse's uniform and had evidently just gotten home herself. Even though she worked as a supervisor, she still had to wear a uniform. What was incredible was that she was still wearing almost the same size as she had when she earned her degree. When I opened the door from the basement she turned and a big smile came to her face.

"Ahhhhhh, I thought heard you pull in dear," she greeted me, "Oh Kelly, I'm SO glad you were able to get home this weekend!"

She reached out and we gave each other huge hugs and kissed for a few minutes. Then she held me out from her and looked at me in the eyes asking, "And so tell me, how was your trip home sweetie?"

I grinned a little sheepishly and replied, "Well, it started out pretty boring but I made do."

My mom laughed at me and said, "Sure - did you make do or did you do you?"

I pretended to be a bit shy about it and then couldn't hold it an any longer and burst out in a smile. Holding my pussy finger to her nose I asked, "Well, does this tell you anything?"

My mom sniffed my finger and grinned, "Now that's my little girl! Well, I hope you at least made a few trucker's day on the way home."

We both laughed and then we reached out for each other and kissed once again, only this time deeper and with more passion. Mmmmmmm, I missed the feel of her soft lips against mine! I could feel her large breasts pressing through her uniform against mine and once again my pussy began to crave attention. I imagined her pussy hiding beneath her uniform, surrounded by thick black hair, smelling strong with her sex. Mmmmmmm, I bet it would taste so good right about now!

My mom must have sensed my growing lust and she leaned her head back, taking a deep breath before she said anything.

"Ok my dear, I think we'd better get upstairs and cleaned up before your father gets home."

Seeing the disappointment on my face she smiled and gave me another peck on the cheek saying, "I know Kelly, I want you that way too but you need to be ready for your dad when he gets home. God... he is going to be soooooo surprised to see you!"

As always, my mom was pragmatic and correct. If we allowed ourselves to go any further we would probably have just stripped, gotten in her bed and odds were would've still been there when my dad walked in! Now to be sure I had no doubt that he would not have minded in the least but still, I wanted to be all fresh and ready for my daddy when he came home.

I practically skipped up the stairs leading to our bedrooms and went in my bedroom. Looking around I felt secure as it was just as I had left it, not a thing noticeably out of place. I looked out the back window to check out the view. Our deck was a floor below, on top of our garage which, in typically Pittsburgh fashion where most homes are built on the side of a hill, was level with our basement.

came must have been louder than I thought because when I opened the door and stepped out my mom was looking at me with a big grin on her face.

"Damn girl, was it THAT good?" she asked. "Surprised the neighbors haven't called to see if someone was hurt!"

I gave her a devilish grin and said, "Well, I had a few dreams about this weekend myself. Besides, your new shower head is really cool!"

She smacked me playfully on the butt and got in the shower herself. I went back to my room to dry my hair and get fixed up - no sense even trying in our small bathroom when the shower was going. The pitifully weak vent fan couldn't keep up and the humidity had a way of counteracting anything I tried to do with my hair - which was stubborn enough by itself.

Once I was done I stood naked in the middle of my room and debated on what to wear. God, how many times over the years have I been in this same situation? If there was one image I had to give to tell people what I did the most in my room besides sleep, it would have to be me standing in the middle of the room naked while I stared at my closet.

On the one hand it was tempting to just greet him at the door nude and get it over with. That plan had the advantage that I was certain I wouldn't get any objections from him! Instead I decided to just wear my universal outfit that I wore almost every evening I was home so I went in my parents' bedroom and straight into my dad's closet. Searching through his dress shirts, I picked out a pure white long-sleeved one that looked new. It felt so soft and the material was light, almost translucent. I bet it was expensive and that he would pretend to be upset I was wearing it but I knew he loved seeing me in his shirts. - especially if that was the only thing I was wearing.

As usual, his shirt was huge on me and so I rolled up the sleeves as best I could. The shirt tails came down almost to my knees and I buttoned it up about half way up, leaving it loose at the top so if I leaned over or twisted my boobs were easy to see. As I stood looking at the full-length mirror in my room the bed stand light was on behind me. I loved the way my naked body was outlined through the material almost as if it was sheer. By this time my mom had finished in the shower. She passed by my door and whistled as she saw me standing there.

"Wow, we're certainly not going for the subtle look, are we?" she said with a smile. "You should know that's his new shirt you picked out."

I smiled and twirled in a circle for her to see me. "Well, I don't think he'll mind, do you Mom?"

The answer was obvious so my mom just shook her head and went to her bedroom to get dressed herself. I smiled when I saw what she had picked out for herself to wear - almost the exact same thing except she chose a light blue version. I quickly put my hand behind her and lifted the shirt tail up. I was surprised to see her bare butt so I quickly dropped her shirt.

"Well, what were you expecting to see?" she said with a laugh.

My face reddened just a bit. To be honest, my mom usually wore panties even if I didn't so it actually HAD been a bit of a surprise to see her bare bottom. Fortunately mom worked out several times a week and watched what she ate so her ass was more like that on a 25 year old rather than a forty-something mother. My dad loved it, he always seemed to have a hand on her bottom. Fortunately I think I inherited it from her as I have always liked my ass - even when I was younger and crying over my lack of breasts.

3. Surprising My Dad

She was about to say something back when we both heard the garage door opening and we went over to look out the window. Sure enough, my dad was home. Now that the door was up he must have seen my car by now. Hmmm, I wonder how fast his dick got hard when he realized who was waiting for him inside the house?

I bounded down the stairs to greet him and as he opened the garage door with his briefcase in one hand, I ran to him crying out, "Daddy!" and jumped into his arms. He dropped the briefcase to grab hold of me. I hate to admit it but this maneuver worked a lot better when I was fourteen or so. Now at almost twenty- one I was getting a bit big for him to have to hold up unexpectedly but he did a hell of job rising to the occasion (no pun intended).

We kissed and then he set me down. Looking at his pants, I saw that him holding me up was not the only thing rising to the occasion! I reached down and pressed the palm of my hand against the bugle that had magically appeared there.

"Hmmm, is someone happy that I'm home?" I asked seductively.

My dad reached around me and grabbed my ass with both hands, pulling me into his crotch as be bent his knees to match up with me. I could feel the hardness of his cock pressing against me and my pussy instantly became wet as if someone had tossed a glass of water on it. God I wanted him to fuck me so bad!

Fortunately, I think the same line of thought was running through his head as he picked me up and carried me over to the couch and laid me on my back. Slowly he began to unbutton my shirt (or should I say, HIS shirt!) until it was completely undone. He gently spread it apart until my entire naked torso was exposed. He stood up straight and gazed lovingly at me.

"Damn you look better every time I see you Kelly," he said in a low but husky voice, "Now THIS was certainly an expected treat tonight!"

I looked up at him standing over me, his cock trying to burst through his strained pants. Our eyes met and there was only one thing I wanted more than anything else in the world at that moment. I smiled, feeling like a little girl again as I said in a soft voice to him, "Fuck me daddy."

My dad looked so pleased and happy after I said it that my heart wanted to burst with joy. He took a deep breath and I repeated it again, this time with a little more urgency to my voice, "Fuck me daddy... please!"

I said it because I knew he loved hearing those words from me. What father honestly wouldn't want to hear his daughter asking him to take her in a way that only he could. He started to undress and as he did he whispered back to me in a voice husky with lust, "Oh god yes Kelly, I will. Whatever you want. Oh I love you so very much... I really want to fuck you soooooo bad right now."

At that moment I can honestly say that there was nothing in the world I wanted more than to feel my dad's cock entering me. More than anything I wanted to share myself with my father and give myself totally to him in the most intimate way possible. What more could a daughter want than to be joined together with her own father, to be coupled together as only a father and daughter can be? I not only wanted to give literally everything I had to my loving father, it was my duty as a daughter to submit myself completely to him.

We are commanded to "Honor your father and mother." Well, what more could I do to honor my father than to show my dad just how much I was willing to give to him? Of course there was more than just a sense of duty involved, he was a man and I as a woman so there were physical needs to be met as well as emotional. I wanted to feel my father dick in me, to feel him cum inside of me, to have him give me his most intimate essence, to show me that he was willing to do anything for his loving daughter.

a young college girl? Sure I was his daughter but I was young and tight, my pussy gripping him in a way my mother's and aunt's simply couldn't anymore. I was fulfilling the fantasies he otherwise could only masturbate thinking about, satisfying his deepest and most basic needs.

God I loved the way he was fucking me! My hands gripped his ass and I could feel it clench as he pressed against me harder, driving himself deeper and deeper inside of me until his cock was buried as completely as possible in me. When his hairy crotch met my bare pussy it tickled me as it pressed against me. I looked at my lower stomach and tried to visualize him deep inside of me, trying to imagine my father's cock surrounded by my welcoming wet pussy as it caressed and loved him.

"Damn your cunt is so fucking tight," he groaned, "All I can think about when you're gone is fucking your hot little pussy. You're really such a fucking slut... and I love it!"

As far as I'm concerned, I love it when my dad calls me a slut because I know he doesn't mean anything bad about it. It's really a compliment as the only reason he calls me that is because he enjoys himself with me so much.

He continued to stroke himself in and out of me, slowly pulling himself out until just the tip of his cock was left in me and then just as slowly driving himself back into me. Once he went too far and slipped out of me. I mewed like a kitten crying for its mommy as he quickly worked to slip his dick back inside of me again saying, "Don't worry baby, daddy's cock will be right back in you!"

"Mmmmmmm, that's it... fuck her John," I heard my mother say.

I hadn't even realized she was watching but there she was, sitting on the arm of the couch above my head, watching our every move.

"C'mon John, show me how you like to fuck our daughter."

She had unbuttoned her shirt and I could see her massaging her hairy pussy with one hand while she squeezed her large breasts with the other. From the very start she had always loved seeing me get my dad off. I sometimes wondered what turned her on more - seeing how hot it made her husband as he fucked her daughter or the joy it gave me as I gave myself to him. I had tried asking her once but she just gave me a sly smile and never answered.

My attention was soon drawn from my mom as my dad began to literally pound me, fucking me harder with each stroke, trying to somehow push himself into me a little farther with each stroke. He lifted my legs up and over his shoulders so he could drive himself directly into me and I felt the couch shudder as he banged me into it with each inward stroke.

"That's it. Oh my God, you two look so fucking hot," my mom purred as she stoked herself faster and faster.

My father was panting and the sweat was literally dripping off of him onto me. I used my legs to pull myself up to him when he would push himself into me, lifting my hips up off the couch only to have him pound me back into the cushion again.

"Oh yeah Mary, I'm cumming," he groaned, looking up at my mother.

"Cum in her, leave your cum deep inside of her," my mother insisted.

His cock was swelling and I knew he was going to unload in me any second now. God I wanted him to cum in me so bad right then! It just seemed so natural, so inevitable, so perfect. This was how my father showed both me and my mom how much he loved me, how much he wanted and desired me. He was about to give me the ultimate gift, the greatest thing any father could give his daughter. My pussy squeezed down on his cock as if it was trying milk his cum from his dick.

"Yeah daddy, cum in me," I begged, "Oh please... cum inside of me! Show me how much you love me!"

My mom was rubbing her pussy furiously now and I could tell she was ready to cum herself. She never took her eyes off of us though, staying focused on his cock as it continued to relentlessly drive itself in and out of me.

"Give it to her John," she moaned as her orgasm started. As she gave herself over to the feelings welling up inside of her, she let her real emotions out saying, "Cum in her for me... Oh god fuck your daughter John! Fuck the little whore!"

My dad groaned and lifted his head back as his back arched. He pushed his cock into me as far as he could and held himself there for just a second when suddenly I heard him grunt and felt his hips swing to drive him even harder into me. A feeling of warmth suddenly bloomed deep inside of me followed by another and yet another.

"Oh mom, I can feel him cumming in me," I moaned as my dad mated me, performing the most sacred act a father can do with his daughter.

I was thinking to myself how much he must truly love me to give me this, to allow me to be coupled with his body in this moment of passion and lust. It was just our two bodies, naked and unadorned, sharing each other as only sex allowed us to. As the last of my dad's incestual cum burst from his stiff cock and filled my pussy, he collapsed onto his elbows and then slightly to the side of me, his cock still in me though, pulsating and throbbing in my sensitive pussy. My eyes closed as I just lay there still, soaking in the moment and absorbing the love that permeated the entire room.

"Move over John," my mom whispered. I felt my dad get off of me and then I felt something between my legs again. I opened my eyes and sure enough, there was my mom's smiling face looking up at me from between my thighs. She put her hands under my butt and lifted me up slightly.

"Mmmmmmm, your little pussy looks so delicious with your father's cum dripping from it," she murmured.

As she lowered her head she kept her eyes locked on mine and then her tongue reached out to me. My boy twitched as the tip of her tongue met my pussy and then she was lapping it like a puppy, licking up the cum that was draining from my cunt. .I wasn't sure what felt better just then - my freshly fucked pussy or her tongue licking up his sperm from my cunt. For me it was a tossup - I loved them both!

After she had licked up her husband's sperm, my mom moved up and laid next to me on the couch. She kissed me and as our mouths met she allowed his cum to drip from her mouth into mine. Mmmmmmm, I wasn't expecting to get a taste of his cum right then - at least not this much! To get it delivered from my mom's mouth made it even extra special! It was actually a mix of flavors between his cum and my pussy juices. It would be so wonderful if someone could figure out how to bottle this!

Needless to say I didn't sleep in my bed that night. Actually I rarely sleep with my parents - they snore to be brutally honest, but tonight I wanted to be with them. After another, and this time longer, round of incest we feel asleep with me nestled in between them like I use to when I was a little girl. My dad's cock was pressed against my butt while his arms surrounded me. My boobs were pressed against my mom's back and my hands rested against her warm body. It was a very intimate and loving way to fall asleep. When I was little I would lay between them much the same way. I can remember feeling my dad's hard cock against me back then too but it meant so much more to me now!

4. Morning Sex With My Dad

I must have been exhausted because the next morning when I woke up I felt something nice between my legs - my dad was slowly fucking me! It wasn't like he didn't try often to fuck me when I was sleeping but 99% of the time I woke up before he got very far. I guess I hadn't been this tired in a long time as he had actually had gotten himself totally in me without waking me- something he hadn't been able to do in ages!

I just laid there motionless, as if I was still asleep, curious to see what he would do to me if he thought I was still sleeping. God it felt good to wake up with his cock already inside of me! He had his hand between my legs, lifting my upper leg up just enough to open my pussy further for his hard cock. He had it all the way in me now and I could feel the thick pubic hair that surrounded his crotch against my bare butt as he pressed his crotch against me.

After a little while more he lifted my leg up higher until his knee pushed between my thighs and I could feel him shift in the bed to press up closer to me. It must have helped as I could feel his shaft slide a little more into my pussy as his balls pressed against my inner thigh. He slowly pulled it out of me about half way and then pushed it back in ever so slowly.

With his hand now free, he put it around me and cupped my perky breast with it, squeezing it gently. It felt so good I couldn't take it silently anymore. I moaned softly as he stroked himself in and out of me.

"Mmmmmmm, good morning daddy," I whispered in a voice still husky with sleep.

"Morning sweetie," he replied, "How do you like your wakeup call?"

I squirmed as my pussy tingled from the soft fucking he was giving it. I held his hand tightly to my boob as I squeezed down on his hard cock with my cunt. My mom was laying on her side away from me and I could see her naked form just in front of me. Instinctively I reached out for her and I played my fingers along her nice ass. It felt so warm and smooth! I worked my fingers in between her legs to where her hairy pussy was hiding. I gingerly pushed my finger into her as far as I could.

"She has a great pussy, doesn't she?" my dad said proudly, "It's so beautiful watching you touch your mom like that."

Suddenly an urge hit me and I turned my head over my shoulder to look at him whispering, "Let me suck you daddy, I want you to fuck my mouth."

For some reason I had this sudden craving for his cum. I love most men's cum and it seems very man has his own flavor. I think I could have picked my dad out of a lineup blindfolded just by having each of them cum in my mouth and letting me taste them! My dad pulled his cock out of me and laid back. I turned over and smiled as I saw his cock glistening in the morning light with my pussy juices, erect and hard as a rock as it waited for me.

I laid to the side of him and put my upper leg over his so my wet pussy was pressed against his thigh. My body was actually half on his leg and hip as I reached for his cock and held it in my hand. I could feel his heartbeat it was so hard!

My head leaned over and I took him in my mouth, tasting my pussy on his cock head. I started to stroke him in and out, each time dropping a little lower down on his shaft until finally I was taking him all the way in on the bottom of the stroke. I twisted my head so I could see his face. He pushed my hair out of the way so he could get a good view and then he smiled so lovingly at me.

"You're so beautiful," he whispered to me, "such a wonderful daughter to me." He moaned as I took him all the way in until his cock was pushing down my throat. "Oh god I love it when you do that!"

As I sucked his cock I worked my hips to rub my cunt against his leg. Although I wanted him inside of me, at this moment it seemed more appropriate to just suck him. It didn't take terribly long before I was rewarded with his cum streaming into my mouth. I held him just a little bit away from my open mouth so he could watch his cum shoot into my mouth. It pooled on my tongue and tried to escape past my lips and the little bit that was successful dripped down my chin.

"That's it baby, take it all in your mouth," my dad instructed me, "Take your daddy's cum in your mouth."

When he was finished I opened my mouth so he could see the cum filling it and then I closed it so I could swallow it all down. I then lowered my head back to his cock and took the now softened dick in my mouth again, suckling it like a baby with a pacifier. A little cum would drip from it as it shrank and I just laid my head on his hairy crotch as I held his dick in my mouth.

Unfortunately my dad had to work that day so our little time together had to some to a premature end. It turned out to be quite an interesting day though as he had another lawyer in town and that night we played the hooker game again where I pretended to be a street girl that my dad had picked up for him to fuck. My cousin and I had played this game almost a year ago and it was one of the most erotic times in my life. This night it was just me, though, but my dad joined in again and I loved it when he fucked me right in front of this guy who had no idea who I really was!

Sunday morning arrived bright and early - too damn early for me! When I'd gone to bed the night before I had wondered if my dad might skip our usual morning ritual given the intense night of sex we'd had at the hotel the night before.

Well, that was certainly a silly concern! It may have been a little more subdued than usual but my dad still woke me bright and early with his hard cock against my lips, rubbing himself all over my face and neck. I kept my eyes shut and opened my mouth as a silent invitation which he quickly accepted by slipping his cock in. he slowly fucked my mouth while I laid there almost motionless.

Even though on the one hand we weren't hardly doing anything, I found it to be extremely erotic to just lay there so still as he stroked his cock in and out of my mouth without any help from me. It was almost like he was masturbating except he was using my mouth instead of his hand. Despite all the sex not more than a few hours earlier, he was still my dear old horny dad and it didn't take long for him to bring himself to a climax and I felt his cum pouring once again into my mouth from his cock.

When he had spewed his last load I finally opened my eyes and looked up at him. He looked so happy and I felt so good knowing I had pleased him. It goes without saying that I would do ANYTHING for my dad and it was extra special at times like this when he just took me the way he wanted such that I simply submitted myself to him. What more could a daughter do for her father than that!?

His lust satisfied, my dad left without another word as I laid back and savored the taste of his morning cum in my mouth. The surprise came when my mom entered and smiled at me. She bent over and kissed me, allowing me to spit some of his cum into her mouth. She gladly took it and we swapped it back and forth a few times before each of us swallowed our share. She kissed me again and finally broke the silence.

"Sorry to disturb you honey but I just HAD to have a taste of that!" she said softly. With that she left me as quickly as she had come, leaving me to wonder again what had gotten her so horny this weekend? She hadn't done anything like this in ages! Not that I minded. In fact. I wished she would be this way more often!

5. Fun With Kristen Before the Party

Super Bowl Sunday has been a tradition at our house for as long as I can remember. It's like a second Christmas except there were no presents. My dad always threw a big party and the whole family typically showed up including his brothers and their families along with my Aunt Linda and her daughter Kristen. I guess we hosted it every year because we had the biggest TV and my dad just liked throwing the party - especially since me and my mom did most of the work!

I'd been at college during the last two Super Bowls so I'd escaped the annual ritual but this year I simply HAD to be home since my dad's favorite team was playing. My mom had so much to do we even skipped church - something we normally never did no matter what the circumstances. Today though there was housecleaning to get done and food to be prepared. Fortunately my aunt and cousin showed up just after noon to help out. My cousin hates housework almost as much as I do so you can just imagine how thrilled she looked to be tagging along!

"Hey cuz!" Kristen called out as she saw me in the kitchen, "Wow, too bad all those guys you tease on-line can't see you now!"

I just grinned back at her. I knew what she meant and it wasn't that I was looking super sexy or anything. My hair was tied back in a ragged ponytail, no makeup, and I was wearing just a pair of sweatpants with a baggy t-shirt that smelled of cooking and sweat. Certainly not the sexy "girl-next-door" image most guys likely had when they chatted with me!

My mom must have also heard Kristen teasing me because she took a good look at me and shook her head before saying to me, "You know dear, your aunt and I can finish up here, why don't you get upstairs and clean up before everyone arrives?"

She didn't have to tell me twice. Give me an out from cooking and I'm out of there!

"C'mon Kristen," I said tugging at her hand.

The two of us headed upstairs to my room where she slipped off her shoes and jumped up on my bed where she sat cross-legged smack in the center of it. She was dressed up in a yellow cami together with a semi-pleated white skirt which, when she was standing up, barely covered her ass, and now when she was sitting in this way she was giving me a great view of her pure white thong underneath. As thin and tight as it was I could easily make out the outline of her bare pussy lips underneath. Of course she wasn't wearing a bra - I doubted that she owned one even except for a couple of special ones she used to tease guys with, and her nipples were poking through like little bullets underneath.

Kristen grinned at me and started yakking about school and some of the guys there. I envied her in some ways. Going to a public school with coed dorms and no "Lifestyle Guidelines" to follow certainly made life easier for her. Whereas I had never even so much as kissed a guy from my school, Kristen sounded like she was well on her way to establishing the same reputation in college she had worked so hard for in high school - class slut.

My cousin had always been more interested in parties than me and I wondered how she ever got any studying done with all the time she spent fooling instead. Looking at her on the bed it was obvious why the guys all wanted her so bad. She looked more like a freshman in high school than a freshman in college and if I didn't know better I would have said she was fifteen at most instead of eighteen going on nineteen in a few months. Stripping off my clothes, I saw she was watching me as she continued her non-stop patter about her last sex party.

"Damn girl," I said with a laugh, "give it a rest! So tell me, how do I look these days? I can't believe I'm going to be 21 in a few weeks."

Kristen shifted her weight to get more comfortable and in doing her so her skirt lifted up more such that essentially she was sitting on her bare ass with nothing more than the thin strip of her thong between her ass and my bed.

"Well...," she let it drag out slowly, "I guess being a late bloomer runs in the family but you have definitely blossomed out finally. Hey, are your boobs still growing or is it just me?"

"34C now," I replied with emphasis on the "C".

God, it didn't seem that long ago I was barely a B and now I was a solid C, finally. I cupped my boobs in my hands and lifted them up and let them drop. I was proud of their firmness and didn't mind showing off a bit for her. Most of my teen years I had depended on my ass when it came to flirting and showing off my body so it felt good to have guys staring at my chest now in addition to my ass.

I leaned towards her with my hands on my knees and my bare boobs hanging right in front of her. I whispered in her ear, "You know Kristen, I'm horny as hell now and having you sitting like that certainly isn't helping matters any!"

Kristen tossed her hair back and a wicked grin came to her face. "What's the matter cuz, didn't your horny daddy fuck you this morning?"

Rolling my eyes as if I couldn't believe she would even think such a thing I replied, "You know better than THAT silly." I paused for a second as I thought more about it and then said, "So are you going to try to do him today with everyone here or what?"

Kristen giggled saying, "Well, it HAS been a couple of weeks now so I you can't blame me for hoping. Besides, I think it would be soooooo hot for him to do me with everyone here, don't you? God, Aunt Shari would have a cow if she knew!"

I laughed and then quickly decided it was time to spring something on her. I was tired of hearing about her college exploits and I wanted to go one up on her for once. I smiled wickedly at her and said. "Well, not nearly as much if she knew what I was planning on doing with her son today!"

Kristen's eyes widened and she put her hand to her mouth. "No!" she said unbelievingly, "You've been fucking Rick?... Wow!" The she looked at me accusingly with her eyes narrowed, "Hmmmmmm, and so how long has THIS been going on... and why wasn't I part of it?

I explained how it had begun last summer and then I was pleased to see her mouth drop open when I told her how my seventeen year-old hunk of a cousin was fucking my mom as well.

"Why you little sneaky bitch!" Kristen exclaimed, "You know damn well how much I've been wanting his cock since I was old enough to know what it was. Mom always said we weren't supposed to do anything with them!"

I sat down next to her and quickly filled her in on the events of the past six months or so including how I fucked my Uncle Jim as well. Kristen subconsciously started to rub herself as she listen to it all. Finally came the ultimate confession - I told her about how I had licked our cousin Tammy and how she was sucking off her brother and his friends these days.

"Damn! You're really something else Kelly!" Kristen exclaimed, "I still want to know why the hell you guys kept this from me for so long?"

I tried to explain how my parents didn't want to take any chances yet given that my Aunt Shari was such a prude about such things. They were worried if things got too out of hand then someday someone might make a mistake and expose everything to here. THAT would be a disaster of course. I think Kristen understood but I would've bet anything she was already plotting how she was going to get her uncle and cousin to fuck her - and soon!

"So my secretive and naughty cousin, I suppose you want to do it with them today while your dad does me?" she asked, but from the tone of her voice it was obvious she already knew the answer.

"Well, look at it this way, while you're doing my dad you can just think about them doing me," I replied in a sultry voice.

Kristen had pulled her thong aside and was rubbing her pussy which I could see was now glistening with its wetness.

"God I'm already SO horny now just thinking about it," she moaned. "This is just too much."

Kristen put her hands around me and reached for bare ass with her hand and squeezed. She put her face up close to mine and I could feel her hot breath against my cheeks. "It's YOUR fault I'm like this so what are YOU going to do about it?" she said in a lustful whisper.

Well, I knew what I wanted – that's for sure! I leaned to her and we kissed as I reached around her and pulled her tight against me so our breasts rubbed up against each other's and I could feel her hips against mine.

"God I want to lick your cunt," I whispered to her between kisses. "I can smell your pussy scent even now."

"Well, if that's the case then what the hell are you waiting for?" she responded.

Kristen got up on her knees and I reached under her skirt, grabbing her thong on each side and pulling it down. She unzipped her skirt on the side and dropped it on top of her thong before standing up so she could step out of them entirely. Her shaved pussy was now right in front of my face and I could smell her pussy odor even stronger. God I wanted her cunt so badly!

Holding her cute little bare butt in my hands, I pulled her towards my face as I leaned forward and reached for her pussy with my tongue. She gasped as I touched her lightly with just the tip of my tongue, then running it softly up and down her wet pussy slit. Mmmmmmm she tasted so damn good!

Kristen reached down with her hands and spread her pussy lips apart for me. I could see her clit was swollen already and her pussy glistened with her juices. My tongue ran over her pussy and a soft cry came from her as I felt her ass tighten as my tongue ran circles around her sensitive clit. I grabbed her clit between my teeth gently and pulled on it just enough to make her cry out again and then sucked it like a nipple. Her ass felt so good in my hands, soft and smooth like a baby's bottom. My tongue pushed its way into her pussy as far as I could and again she gasped.

"Oh my god!" she whispered to me, "That feels so damn good... Oh yea Kelly, fuck me with your tongue."

Her pussy was soaking wet now as I alternated between pushing my tongue in and out of her and licking and sucking on her clit. She leaned back against the wall to the side of my bed and pushed her hips out to me to make it easier for my tongue to enter her. My face was covered in her pussy juices and I could hear her breathing getting deeper and faster.

"Don't stop... oh please don't stop Kelly," she begged me, "Oh god, I'm cumming!"

Kristen was always able to cum fast. Even as young girls when we would masturbate together she always "won" - cumming much faster than I could and I thought I was quick! She grabbed my held and pulled me tightly into her soaking wet crotch as she came. Her pussy gushed cum into my mouth and I licked it up and reveled in the wonderful flavor it had. I ran my hands up and down her gorgeous legs, feeling the softness of her thighs and the firmness of her legs. She was gasping for air as her orgasm stretched on and finally he hips bucked hard into my face and she took in a final deep breath.

"Oh god that felt so good," she sighed, "Oh Kelly, I love it when you do that."

If it was possible I was even more horny now and I wanted something in return. I sat down on the bed and leaned back on my hands behind me. My legs were spread wide open and I wiggled my hips for her. Kristen didn't need any more encouragement as it was her turn to kneel in front of her cousin. As she kneeled between my legs she put a hand on each of my thighs and spread them apart, looking at my older pussy with pure hunger in her eyes.

"God, I've always loved your sweet little pussy," she sighed.

She lowered her head to my crotch and I felt the most incredible sensation run from my pussy to the outer reaches of my body as her tongue worked its magic on me. Other than my mom, Kristen was the best when it came to licking me. I suppose it didn't hurt that she and her own mom had been doing it to each other since she was a little girl. With her parents divorced and her father leaving them and never even contacting them again, over the years they had developed a beautiful and intimate relationship that was even closer than mine was with my mom (almost a little kinky even?).

In any case, it wasn't long before her talented tongue had me ready to burst. I pushed her head down into my pussy with one hand while I massaged my boob and nipple with the other. I looked down and all I could see was her blonde head bobbing between my thighs, her little hands on my hips for balance. She still had her cami top on but other than that she was nude and her bare ass looked so cute up in the air as it wiggled while she licked me.

Suddenly without warning my orgasm hit me like a truck speeding down the expressway as I felt my pussy cum instantly gush onto her face. She didn't moved back an inch, taking it on her face and lapping it up like a dog being served a special meal. Her long tongue never stopped, driving me higher and higher into the magical world I entered when my orgasm gets really going

It felt like every pore of my body tingled as if I was plugged into an electrical outlet while at the same time I felt almost on fire the way my pussy felt so hot. It was like ocean waves pounding a beach except in this case it was pleasure pounding my body - over and over and over the waves of pleasure hit me as Kristen never let up on my clit. She was so good at licking me it was mind-blowing!

Kristen had this marvelous ability to sense just when I was peaking and she would hold off just enough to let me stay there as long as possible and then hit me again just as I began the descent which brought me back to the summit once again. It was like one continuous orgasm instead of a series of them like I usually had.

God I never wanted it to end, I wanted to feel this way forever! I love sex so much because only sex can make me feel this way, so utterly complete and so magically fulfilled. Some people might say I was even addicted as I needed this more than food, more than anything else in the world. All I wanted at this moment was to cum and cum and cum!

Well, I had no idea how long this went on as it was like I was just in another world but finally my body just couldn't take it anymore and I collapsed back on the bed, exhausted from the incredible orgasm my cousin had just given me. The only thing missing was the feeling of warm cum dripping from my cunt but she couldn't do anything about that which is why despite the intense pleasure I got from a woman, I could never be a lesbian! Kristen looked up from my crotch with a huge smile on her wet and shiny face.

"Well, I guess you really WERE horny today," she said with a hint of a laughter. "God I thought I was going to drown in your cum!"

Kristen laid next to me on the bed and we hugged and kissed. I loved the taste of my pussy on her as I licked it from her face. I held her warm pussy in the palm of my hand as she did the same to mine. We probably would have started all over again except I knew I really had to get going before everyone arrived. Kristen ran to the bathroom first to wipe herself off quickly and then returned to put back on her thong and skirt. As I left for the bathroom to shower she smacked my on the ass.

"Well, what do you say let's see who gets it first today?" she teased me. I just nodded because I knew I would win this one easily since there was no way Rick would be able to stay in our house for fifteen minutes before he would be dying to fuck me. What he lacked in style he certainly made up for in effort!

6. Kristen Wins the Bet

Kristen ran back downstairs to help out while I showered. When I washed my pussy the soap bar rubbed against my clit and I almost jumped out of the shower - damn it was still so incredible sensitive! If I wasn't running so late I would have masturbated for a while but sometimes duty calls so I quickly dried off and blew my hair dry. Nothing fancy today, just a ponytail so I wasn't worried too much about how it looked.

Back in my room I put on a little makeup but nothing too noticeable really. Actually the less makeup the better for a day like I had planned - less to have to fix afterwards! Unlike Kristen, I decided to go with a more subtle look today so I picked out a pair of baggy sweat pants from school and threw on a large white Steelers jersey. A pair of short white socks finished it off. It was the perfect outfit for a day like today - easily accessible but wouldn't draw too much attention from my other relatives. Looking in the mirror one last time I smiled at what I saw. With my hair pulled back I looked more like the girl next door than the neighborhood slut which was exactly the look I wanted.

When I returned downstairs I saw my mom and aunt were in the kitchen but Kristen was nowhere to be found. I asked where she was and both women just shook their head together and my mom tilted her head to the basement door. I opened the door and started down the stairs and as I descended I could hear my cousin crying out. That little slut! Damn if she wasn't fucking my dad!

While it wasn't such a huge surprise she would try for it, I was shocked that my dad let her talk him into doing it with everyone due to arrive any minute now! I turned the corner at the bottom of the stairs and looked over to the couch in the family room. Sure enough, my cousin was on her knees straddling my dad who was sitting on the couch. She was riding his cock and bouncing up and down as he tried his best to suck her boobs. His hands had each of her butt cheeks cupped in them and he was squeezing her ass as she fucked his cock.

"Kristen!" I exclaimed. "Dad!"

Kristen turned her head and grinned when she saw me. "Sorry Kelly, no way was I going to let you beat me!" she managed to gasp between her efforts.

My dad turned his head and when he saw me his eyebrows raised and he shrugged his shoulders as if to say, "Hey, what can I say?" I didn't blame home, I knew it was all my cousin's fault. Damn her, I was so sure I was going to win this one today! I just left them alone and went back upstairs to help my mom and aunt.

My mom gave me a hug saying, "Sorry girl, she told us about your bet and as for your dad... well you know your dad!"

I laughed and shrugged. Kristen always seemed to win our bets as she was always willing to go one step more than me - or two or three for that matter. It didn't really matter and so I dived into the food preparations and tried to ignore what was going on below us.

7. The Relatives Arrive

My dad came up the stairs bucking his pants just as a car drove into our driveway.

"Your brother just pulled in - cutting it a little close, eh John?" my mom teased him. She looked over at Aunt Linda and then back at my dad with a sly grin, "So, did you enjoy your little fun with your niece?"

My dad rolled his eyes and his cheeks puffed out as he took a deep breath and straightened out his pants and shirt one last time. "Well, I didn't hear anything from you or Linda when she dragged me down there!" he said back to her, "and yes, I DID enjoy myself. Damn Linda, I can't even imagine what your slutty daughter does at school!"

We all laughed and my Aunt Linda went over and kissed him saying, "Well, let's just say I'm proud of her."

Kristen was never one to get the best grades and athletics was something just to get close to the boys in skimpy uniforms. I guess my aunt figured if she couldn't excel in the usual things most parents bragged about then why not be proud of her for being the best slut in school? Besides, I knew my aunt enjoyed sharing her

My dad would have loved to be her first, probably even more so than Rick, but of course the odds were that would never happen. Well, he could at least dream and masturbate about it I guess! I loved it because whenever she was over it made him so horny I knew I was going to get good fucking later!

Bringing up the rear carrying a basket of food was my dear old Aunt Shari - prude extraordinaire. Sometimes I wondered how they had ever managed to have three kids! Well, it was no wonder my Uncle Rick enjoyed fucking me and my mom so much. Not only did she espouse sex for anything but procreation, she had gained a considerable amount of weight over the years as well. Somehow I just envisioned her as a beached whale while he tried to mount her to fuck her.

8. Rick Can't Wait to Fuck Me

The general noise level grew as everyone was talking at once and Rick quickly whispered something in my ear.

"Hey Kelly, I've been jerking off all week thinking about you," he bragged.

"Rick!" I hissed back under my breath, "not here!" Then I nodded to the basement stairs saying, "Hurry up before everyone gets settled and wonders what happened to us."

We both slipped away and headed for the basement. In addition to the family room which dominated the basement there was a big cedar-lined closet we used for storing out-of-season clothing and another room with a work shop where my dad kept his tools. I grabbed his hand and pulled him into the cedar closet and closed the door quietly behind us.

"Hurry up and get undressed!" I said to him, "Not everything stupid, just drop your pants!"

I was wearing nothing under my sweatpants so it was easy to just drop them and be instantly bottomless. As for Rick, not only did he have a belt and jeans, he also had to deal with his jockey shorts as well. He was still wearing his shoes so he couldn't get his pants and underwear all the way off so he started to reach for his shoes but I stopped him saying, "Don't worry about it, just stand up."

I pulled my jersey over my head leaving me wearing nothing but my socks. Rick's seventeen year old eyes stared at my naked body, glancing back and forth between my 34C boobs and my bald pussy. Normally I would have teased him more but there wasn't time for anything else so I quickly kneeled in front of him and held his already hard cock in my hand. Damn he felt so warm! I took it in my mouth and began sucking him without much fanfare.

Typically I like older guys because they tend to take more time with me and do a better job of fucking me. It was in situations like this, though, that younger guys had the advantage. Rick was already rock hard and he didn't care if I did anything fancy - he just wanted his cock sucked and any old way was fine with him! I didn't want him to cum yet though - he needed to cum fast but not THIS fast, so after just a few minutes of Basic Cock Sucking 101 I stood up and kept a hand holding his cock.

"Well, you ready to fuck me?" I asked in a slutty tone. I could hear everyone still talking upstairs but I knew we had to hurry if we were going to finish before someone came hunting for us.

"Why don't you just bend over and let me show you," he replied, trying to act like he was in charge.

Despite his attitude I was more than happy to comply so I leaned over with my hands on my knees. I shifted my weight back and forth to spread my legs apart and I felt his hand reach between my legs and cup my pussy. I was still wet from watching my dad fuck Kristen so his finger easily slid into my pussy.

"Mmmmmmm," he groaned, "somebody wants to be fucked bad I think!"

He was right! I knew from the start that this was going to be just a good old fashioned fucking - a slam-bam with no emotion, no foreplay, nothing but just a cock filling my pussy that had just one purpose in mind - to cum in me. Actually this was all most boys his age wanted anyway so he wasn't missing anything. For me... well let's just say it was better than masturbating!

Rick pressed his hard dick against my pussy and I could feel my pussy being forced to open wide to accept him. He slipped the first time and his cock rode up over my ass but then he tried again and this time he got it right. I moaned as my cunt stretched and his cock pushed deeper and deeper into me. His crotch finally met with my ass and if it wasn't for his hands on my hips I would have probably fallen over forwards as he pushed it into me.

"God you have such a tight pussy!" he exclaimed - louder than he should have. I hissed back at him to keep his voice down and he fucked me even harder after that but he did keep his voice lower at least.

"That's it Rick, fuck me... fuck me hard," I whispered over my shoulder to him, "fuck my little pussy!"

then a feeling of warmth filled my pussy and his cum spewed from the end of his cock deep inside of me.

I tried to imagine how it must be inside of me, his cock head buried up deep inside of me and the cum emerging from it one shot after another. His sperm was being released in me and I imagined it as it sought its way to try and fertilize me, trying to mate me and create a new life. It had no idea that it was going to be a futile journey but it was in me all the same and I loved it. It was like a small fireworks show as one bloom of heat after another suddenly was created and then would fade away.

Rick was gasping and his hold on my hips loosened so I leaned forward to let his cock slip from me and I turned around quickly to suck his cock. It was covered with his cum as well as my pussy juices and the flavor was like nothing else I can describe. Definitely NOT a Baskin-Robbins flavor of the day - that's for sure although I think if someone could come up with it girls would be buying it like crazy (and who knows - maybe a few guys as well!).

As I sucked him a few more drops of cum emerged and I could feel the hardness of his cock begin to soften in my mouth. I reached down between my legs and wiped some of the cum that was draining from my pussy onto my fingers and then wiped it on his cock. While he watched I then licked it off his cock and swallowed it. Mmmmmmm, I LOVED that taste and as my mom always said about any meal, presentation is everything. What better way to serve cum than to lick it off a nice cock?

I stood up in front of him and gave him a sly grin saying, "Well, how did it feel to fuck your cousin again?"

Rick took a deep breath as he tried to regain his composure. "Wow... I mean wow Kelly, you are one incredible fuck!"

"Better than my mom?" I asked him. It was an unfair question, sort of like comparing him to his dad when it came to fucking me, but I couldn't resist teasing him a bit.

"Oh Kelly...," he said, hesitating as he tried to answer a no-win question. "That's not fair!"

"Yeah, I understand Rick," I said as we pulled out clothes back on. "By the way, I was talking to Kristen about you today."

Rick's eyes opened wide as he looked at me. "What do you mean?" he asked in a voice mixed with trepidation but lust as well.

"You know she would love you to fuck her, don't you?" I said with a nasty grin.

"Really?" he asked as if just being told he had won the lottery.

"Sure, next time you see her just ask her!" I said and then left him with that thought as I opened the door and checked to be sure nobody was around.

Rick called out to me, "Kelly! Are you serious? Does she really want that?"

I just looked back and winked at him. I had a feeling he wasn't going to waste any time checking out what I had told him. Who knows, my Aunt Linda might want a piece of him for herself. She wasn't afraid to share Kristen's other boyfriends so why not Rick?

9. The Rest of the Family Arrives

Back in the kitchen it was all hustle and bustle as the food was getting set out. My Aunt Shari looked at me and narrowed her eyes with concern.

"Are you OK dear?" she asked, "You look a bit flushed."

I just smiled and replied, "I'm fine, just too much running around I guess." What I really wanted to tell her was, "I'm fine, your son just fucked me and I can still feel his cum in me!"

She seemed to accept that - after all she would have never dreamed in her worst nightmares what the truth was so we all went downstairs to watch the pre-game shows.

My Uncle Paul and Aunt Julie showed up soon afterwards. My older cousins Laura and Ginny were both married and wouldn't be making it today which meant everyone was here now that was going to show up. My dad was kicked back in his recliner while his older brother Paul staked claim to my mom's chair leaving the rest of us to find a seat on the rest of the furniture or just lay on the rug in the middle of the floor.

Kristen, Tammy and Kate all laid out together on the floor with their legs behind them. Kristen's skirt wasn't hiding very much and I could see both my Aunt Shari and Aunt Julie whispering to each other as they glanced at her apparently thinking nobody knew what they were doing. My mom certainly did and she in turn whispered something to my Aunt Linda who just put her hand over her face to cover her smile.

It was funny how different the two pairs of women were. My mom and Aunt Linda were sisters whereas Shari and Julie were not related other than by their husbands so it was natural for them to pair off the way they did. But it was far more than just bloodlines that differentiated the two pairs of women. If my Aunts Shari and Julie had even an inkling of what went on in the rest of the family I don't doubt they would have either gotten a divorce (in Shari's case) or at least never met with us again.

It was too bad really. I looked at how close Kristen and I were with our mothers and although my cousins seemed to get along OK with their parents, it was obvious they wouldn't claim that they were "best friends" like I can with my mine.

Rick was sitting on the couch with his dad leaving me to decide where to find my place - with them on the couch or with my cousins on the floor. I figured since I was the oldest I would sit on the couch so I plopped down in a narrow opening between Rick and Uncle Jim, pushing them aside as I wiggled my way between them.

"Kelly, that was rude," my mother chastised me from across the room where she and Aunt Linda shared the love seat.

"Oh don't worry Mary," my uncle laughed, "there's plenty of room here for the three of us."

I glanced over at my Aunt Shari who was sitting on a chair next to Aunt Julie. Her lips were pursed slightly and I could tell she didn't approve of me but then she never did anyway. My mom had told me before that Aunt Shari was always lecturing her about the way she let me dress and hang around with guys all the time. She even had the nerve to call me a slut to my mom's face. This wasn't the teasing kind of "slut" that my parents liked to call me but rather the hurtful kind as if I was being bad or something.

My mom hadn't talked much to her for a while after that but since then things had relaxed to a truce between them. Fortunately, no matter how slutty she thought I was, she never even considered that her son might actually be fucking me - let alone fucking my mom! She was the type that would condemn all sex except between a husband and wife (and even then only to make babies) so I doubt she would have been very understanding of her husband's activities either!

Sometimes I have to admit that I question whether it is right for Rick and Uncle Jim to fuck me without her permission. I've always felt incest was only successful and proper when BOTH parents at least KNEW about it, even if both didn't actively participate. Take my mom's life when she was growing up with her parents. Her dad had fucked her and her sister without them ever doing anything with her mom, but at least she knew about it and approved, if somewhat reluctantly. I worried sometimes what might happen if my aunt ever learned by accident what we did. Well, if it's OK with my parents then I guess it's OK with me.

For the next hour or so things went as they probably were in households around the country. We watched TV, ate junk food, and gabbed. In some ways it was almost like Christmas again without the presents and decorations.

10. Uncle Jims Takes His Turn With Me

Uncle Jim was drinking beer as were the other brothers and as they say, you only rent it. After about four bottles he was getting up to use the restroom. Although we had a small bathroom in the basement, it wasn't exactly soundproofed so most people avoided it when there were others around. Everyone was aware of the echo qualities of our little bathroom so nobody was surprised when he headed upstairs to use the one by the bedrooms.

Soon afterwards my cell phone went off. It was laying up on the coffee table so I had to get up off the couch to get it. I picked it up and didn't recognize the number so I answered it and was surprised to hear my uncle's voice on the other end.

"Try to just act natural Kelly," my uncle said, "Why don't you come upstairs and see what I've got for you?"

I tried my best to keep a straight face as I told my mom it was my friend Beth on the phone and I needed to talk to her privately. My mom looked at me sort of strange but she just nodded so I headed upstairs. She was the only one in the room that knew Beth was away for the weekend but her name was the first to pop in my mind

I looked back and Kristen had a smirk on her face. Now that she knew about me and Uncle Jim it didn't take much for her devious mind to figure out what was going on! As for Rick, the dear boy didn't know I had been fucking his dad and he was too dense to figure it out on his own so he didn't even bat an eye. My cell phone was always going off anyway so it wasn't like this was anything unusual.

As soon as I reached the top of the stairs by our bedrooms on the second floor, a hand reached out and grabbed my arm and pulled me to the spare bedroom at the end of the hall. Needless to say, it belonged to my Uncle Jim!

"I just couldn't take it anymore," he whispered loudly as he closed the door behind us. "All I could think about was your sexy little body as you pressed against Suddenly I felt a flood of my cum wet my pussy as goose bumps raised over my entire body. Oh my god I was cumming!

Actually, even though he was the third guy to fuck me today, this was my first orgasm other than what I had with Kristen earlier. What can I say to describe something that has no words to describe it? How would you describe the color red to a man blind from birth? Women know what I am talking about but how can I make a man understand how it feels to cum any more than I can ever understand what it feels like to have a hard-on and cum? I love it though, as much as I love any physical pleasure in the world. Nothing a man can do to me can make me feel better than what my Uncle Jim was going right now - making me cum!

As I gushed pussy cum I watched my Uncle lapping it up from my cunt like it was liquid candy. His fingers kept fucking me as he got up and leaned over me. He kissed me then and I tasted myself on his lips and face. Mmmmmmm, I loved the taste of my pussy! Finally I was finished and I collapsed, every muscle seeming to be loose as I tried to catch my breath. He pulled his fingers out of my pussy and put them in my mouth so I could suck off the pussy cum from them.

"Damn girl, you can really cum!" he exclaimed.

He undid his belt then and pulled down his pants and boxer shorts. Grabbing my hands, he pulled me up to a sitting position where I was face to face with his wonderfully hard cock. I didn't need to be told what to do at this point as I reached my hand out for it. He pushed my hand away though and leaned forward until his cock was touching my cheek.

"No hands girl," he instructed me, "I want you to suck me with no hands, just your head."

I opened my mouth and bobbed my head around until I managed to get his cock in my mouth. Without my hands it was hard to lick it and so I just moved my head in and out to stroke his cock in my mouth. Uncle Jim groaned as I took him all the way in, his cock pressing against the back of my throat as my face was buried in his thick musky pubic hair.

One thing that definitely ran in the family was a thick growth of dark pubic hair. He smelled very strong, much more so than Rick had, and I breathed it in deeply to enjoy it like the bouquet of a fine wine. Uncle Jim grabbed my head with both hands and started pushing and pulling me away to stroke his cock in my mouth to his own rhythm. It was as if he was fucking my mouth like he would my pussy - swinging his hips in and out, driving his cock in and out of my mouth. I really didn't have to do much of anything except keep my mouth open and not let my teeth scratch against his shaft.

"Look up at me," he demanded. My eyes went upwards until they met his and he smiled down at me as he kept fucking my mouth.

"God you're SUCH a fucking slut," he said with a big grin on his face. "You love this, don't you - you love being fucked like a little whore."

Unlike when Aunt Shari called me a slut, I considered what Uncle Jim was saying to be a compliment and I felt good inside knowing I was obviously pleasing him. Men seemed to really get off on some sort of power trip when I sucked their cock, as if they were dominating me in some way. I didn't mind letting them have their little fantasy. The reality was with one bite I could cripple them so tell me - who was dominating who? LOL

"Shit, I have to fuck you," he gasped as he pulled his cock from my mouth.

Well, I was as ready as he was so I got back on the bed and laid lengthwise on it. Uncle Jim climbed aboard in good old-fashioned missionary style, rubbing his cock against my pussy, teasing me with it as my pussy screamed to have it.

"Tell me you want it," he said in a voice filled with lust, "tell me how bad you want it you dirty little slut."

It wasn't play-acting when I replied. I DID want him to fuck me and I DID want it bad. "Oh Uncle Jim, I want you to fuck me... Oh my god I NEED you to fuck me!" Then I looked straight into his eyes and said in a soft but firm voice, "I'm serious Uncle Jim, fuck me and fuck me now."

There must have been a tone in my last statement that made him realize playtime was over and I was indeed serious because he didn't say another word but instead reached between his legs to grab his cock which I could see was as hard as it had ever been with me. Holding himself off of me with one arm, he rubbed the head of his cock against my sopping wet pussy until it was in line with my pussy hole. When I felt it was in the right place I lifted my hips up and he actually penetrated me slightly without even doing anything himself.

"Alright girl!" he said, "Damn, if you want my cock that bad, well here it is!" With that he shoved himself into me until his cock was in me to the hilt. I felt the base of his cock press against my cunt and the thick hair was like a fine hairbrush pressed against me.

"Oh yea Uncle Jim," I moaned as I felt his cock filling me, "that's what I wanted."

He held himself up with both arms now as his hips swung back and forth in rhythm with my own to drive himself in and out of me like a pile driver.

"Deeper!" I moaned as he fucked me.

He pushed harder into me, pushing me down into the bed with his weight concentrated on my crotch. After the blowjob I had given him he was evidently ready for this as it didn't take long for him to utter the words I had been waiting for.

"I'm cumming... Oh yeah... Here it cums Kelly," he moaned and groaned as he reached his climax. With one strong move he pushed himself even deeper into me as suddenly his cock erupted and the sperm was ejaculated deep into my pussy.

"That's it Kelly, take my cum," he moaned, his eyes shut tight as he squeezed off one last shot of cum into me.

He fell down to his elbows, barely keeping his weight off of me which would have probably suffocated me if he hadn't. I could feel his cock throbbing inside of me as he laid there motionless above me. A little jerk came as one last shot of sperm emerged from him and it was over. It felt so good to lay there under him, feeling his cock slowly dwindle inside of me leaving his cum behind.

Uncle Jim looked at his watch and let out a deep breath saying, "Damn, we better get back before someone comes hunting for us!" he exclaimed. He stood up and started to dress as I just laid there exhausted from him fucking me. he dressed quickly and then went to the door. Before opening it he looked back at me and his eyes swept my nude body from head to toe.

"All I can say is that your dad is one lucky guy to be your father!" he said, "I'd give anything to be able to fuck you every day!"

I wanted so bad to tell him his daughter would probably let him if he only asked but now wasn't the time for that. Maybe another day I could introduce him to Tammy and then they could both have what my dad and I shared. As it was I just smiled at him and gave a little wave goodbye.

When he left I got up and grabbed my stuff and quickly made my way to the bathroom. Uncle Jim had gone downstairs with everyone else and I was alone. I looked in the mirror and smiled as I saw how flushed I still was from my orgasm. If I went down there now not even Aunt Shari could be so obtuse not to realize that something had been going on.

I decided that since I had told everyone that Beth was on the phone I may as well give her a call so I went to my room and dialed her phone. Fortunately she answered and we both just traded gossip for about another half hour until I finally felt ready to go back with my family.

When I eventually went back downstairs my mom looked at me with exasperation. "Well that took you long enough, don't you know we have guests here as well today young lady?"

"Mommmmmm," I pouted. She gave me a quick wink and I knew she was telling me that she knew what had really been going on. My Uncle Jim was back on the couch acting as if nothing had ever happened although I couldn't help but give him a quick smile as I sat back down between him and my cousin.

The big game was starting and we watched it as my dad went nuts watching his favorite team finally win a Super Bowl after so many years. Unfortunately I had to leave right afterwards to get back to school. It was going to be well past midnight before I arrived as it was so I was anxious to get back for that reason although I would have loved to have stayed home longer. I hugged everybody and said goodbye. My dad volunteered to walk me out to the street where my car was parked to be sure it was clear when everyone arrived.

"Well, you've had quite a day today, haven't you?" he said as he kissed me goodbye. "I haven't seen Jim look so full of himself in ages!"

"Oh daddy, you know I love you," I said as I hugged him tightly. Right then I didn't care what the neighbors saw and it was late anyways.

"I love you too Kelly," my dad said and then let me go.

As I drove back to school all I could think about was what a fantastic weekend I had, especially today. I wondered if I would ever have a day again when I fucked all three of them again? It wasn't long before my hand as between my legs and I spent the rest of the trip back to school masturbating as I dreamed of fucking all three of them together.

Jen - junior roomie (20)
Mark (36)

After three weeks of nothing but my finger, I was horny as hell. Sometimes it doesn't matter who he so much as what he has between his legs. It's amazing how easy it is to find someone willing to help a girl out!

1. Horny Roommates

Another Saturday morning - another morning for me to wake up feeling horny with nobody to help me, at least not in the way I really needed. It was now almost three weeks since I'd last been fucked and my pussy literally ached as I lay in bed wiping the sleep from my eyes. God I couldn't believe how damn horny I was!

So how did I get this way? I guess before I go on a little explanation is in order. I was a twenty-one year-old college junior majoring in Elementary Education at a wonderful Christian university. Overall I loved school - the professors were great, I had lots of close friends, my roomies were the best, and I was getting a great education second to none in a loving, Christian environment. There WERE a couple of problems I have to deal with though.

First and foremost, school was over three hours away from home meaning I didn't get back often and I missed my family terribly. An "only" child, I grew up extremely close to my parents and relatives and it was hard to be away from them for any extended period. My mom was my best friend in the whole world. As for my dad, let's just say I was definitely "daddy's girl".

My biggest issue had to do with why I was in this predicament today - no sex. My school had an extremely strict set of "Lifestyle Guidelines" which explicitly forbade ANY sexual activity along with most other "fun" activities that I'd grown accustomed to. I gave up my virginity at fourteen and in the course of my high twirled it around slowly, imagining his hips moving in circles as he teased me with just the head of his cock inside of me. I groaned as I drew my legs up into a fetal position and then I shoved my finger deeper inside of me. My pussy felt so hot and wet, eager to embrace his invading dick.

Needing more, I pushed a second finger into me which made me moan again - quite loud this time. I glanced over at my roomie and saw she was awake as well. We didn't have a terrible lot in common but one thing we shared was we both had a tendency to wake up horny! When it comes to sex some people are night people and some are day people. Jen and I were both definitely morning girls as we each loved to have sex when we first woke up.

Jen was on her back with both hands between her short but lithe legs. She had her feet on the bed with her knees up and spread wide apart so I knew without a shred of doubt who she was dreaming of - her boyfriend. I mean, he was ALL she ever talked about and it seemed she spent more hours on the phone with him at night than she did with her homework! Personally, I didn't mind since it usually included some of the hottest phone sex you can imagine. I loved to lay in my bed and play with myself while I watched her getting off telling her boyfriend the myriad of ways that she wanted him to fuck her. She glanced over at me, smiled dreamily, and then closed her eyes again as she fantasized about him fucking her.

Jen was no prude but she was still pretty conservative. She had lost her virginity when she was sixteen but had only been fucked by one other guy before she met her current boyfriend. The first two were only one-timers and so her boyfriend was the only guy to have done her more than once. She was in love with him and sometimes I feared she had sex with him just to keep him but she certainly seemed to enjoy it so what was the harm?

At first she was shy about discussing sex which I understood since the peer pressure at school kept most girls here from even admitting they have had sex. Over time she opened up as she learned to trust me and I tried to broaden her horizons a bit. First I taught her that sleeping nude wasn't something necessarily sexual but rather just more comfortable.

It took a while but eventually she opened up with me about how she enjoyed masturbating. I felt a bit sorry for her actually. The poor girl had been raised by a strict mother who thought masturbation was a sin so she had been forced to hide her "activities". Of course it didn't help that at our school, masturbation was certainly not an "acceptable behavior." She said that I was the first person to ever discuss it seemed to be a personal preference. Most girls would play with their boobs although even that varied quite a bit. Some just massaged them, others concentrated on their nipples. Some were rough and pulled on the nipples, other were more gentle and just toyed with their hands lightly running over their breasts. There were the moaners and the silent types. Some would cum and make a fuss and a lot of noise while others seemed to simmer more when they came and kept it more to themselves.

Jen obviously loved her clit. Sometimes she would use two hands on it, one spreading her pussy apart and the other toying with her clit. Interestingly, I rarely saw her fingers in her, usually if she did it was right before she came. Her boobs were smaller than mine (she was also a year younger than me) but her nipples would poke out nice and hard a she toyed with them. She liked to hump her hips as she imagined being fucked, imaging her response to the thrusts of her boyfriend. It was so hot to watch her masturbate! She seemed so cute, perky and innocent running around the campus that I can't imagine people picturing her as I saw her now - this the naked little girl (she was only 5'1") laying on her bed moaning like a whore as she brought herself to a ripping orgasm.

We both came hard this morning and my sheets were soaked beneath me by the time I was done. I quickly headed to the bathroom and when I returned the strong odor of our sexual activities hit me like a wall as I entered the room. I guess when you are in the process of making the smell isn't as noticeable but after being in "fresh" air it was quite obvious what had been going on.

I sprayed some air freshener around as you never knew when one of our other roomies might wander in. It wasn't like we lived in a nunnery and I was sure most of the girls masturbated even if they didn't talk about it, at the same time I didn't want to be quite so blatant about what Jen and I did in the mornings.

Jen was still stretched out in her bed, flushed from her exertions. She looked sexy as hell spread out on the bed with her legs still apart and her pussy glistening with her wetness. Her perky boobs didn't sag an inch. Too bad she wouldn't let me take nude pictures of her - her boyfriend would have probably been jerking off for a week solid if he could see her now! She rolled over to face me and smiled that dreamy smile she got whenever she had an especially good orgasm.

"Gee Kelly, from the way you were going at it you seemed even more horny than usual this morning. What's up?" she asked with that cute grin she flashes whenever she thinks she's being clever.

I went over to her bed and reached down to kiss her on the forehead. "Well, apparently the same thing as you judging from the way you came this morning!"

Jen giggled and gave me a hug. Our nude bodies met and I felt my boobs press against hers and for just a moment I wondered if maybe she would want to have some fun this morning. Granted she didn't have a cock for me but then she was better than nothing, that's for sure!

My heart sank a bit when she kissed me and then ran off to the bathroom to get ready for her day. I didn't know what she had planned but as for me, it was a totally blank schedule. I had planned to go out and see a movie with some friends but the flu bug was going around and a couple of them weren't up to par so that got cancelled.

2. Horny and Alone

Throwing on a baggy T-shirt I pulled out my laptop and logged in to Yahoo. As always I had a ton of e-mails and a number of off-line messages left by guys (mostly men, a few girls sometimes too) that had been trying to chat with me during the night.

I don't think people realize just how hard it is for me to respond to everyone. On Instant Messenger if I show myself as "available" my screen fills up quickly with chat windows. Sometimes I try to handle three or four at once but that is all I can deal with at any one time and even then I find myself neglecting one or more of them. Usually I just stay invisible and chat with whatever random person checks to see if I'm around. Other than responding to the off-line messages, I NEVER initiate a chat. Frankly I don't trust everyone that chats with me and even though I make it a point to ask new people how old they are, I fear someday I could end up chatting with some fourteen year old and get in trouble so I always let people contact me first. When it gets to the point where there are too many people asking for me I just leave some of the windows minimized and when I am finished with one person I check to see if the next one is still available.

Being as horny as I was this morning I was hoping that someone would be on that would masturbate on their cam for me. I rarely get into cybersex although I have faked it a few times but just an open discussion about sex would be welcome right now. I never get tired of watching a guy masturbate though. It feels so much sexier thrown on earlier it was easy for me to play with myself while I watched. I came again just as he finished pushing his cum around on my pic with his naughty dick!

By now it was well past lunch so I showered and threw on some jeans and a baggy sweatshirt. I grabbed a bite at the cafeteria and returned to my room, bored and still horny as hell - a bitch of a combination! Jen was long gone and so was everyone else it appeared so I was left alone in our room.

Jen had left her computer on so I sneaked a peak at her picture files. She didn't have any naughty ones but there were plenty of her and her boyfriend. A lot of the pics of her were from back in her high school cheerleading days. I copied some off for use later on my web site. Jen had no idea about my site and I wondered what she would have said if she saw some of the tributes that guys had sent me where they came on her. No doubt her first reaction would have been to be offended but I would bet that once she thought about it some more she would realize what a compliment to her they were. It was the rest of my web site that would have probably caused her to gasp! Just imagine if she read my diary!

Looking at her and her boyfriend together I imagined what it must look like when he is fucking her. He is quite good looking and she is so petite that it must be really hot! I would've given most anything for a nude photo of him. The way she described him fucking her, he apparently had a lot more experience than she had and she certainly loved his cock! She and I have discussed blowjobs in the past and she knew I had a lot more experience at it than she had so she would ask me for advice on how to please her boyfriend more. What she didn't know what just how much MORE experience I had, not to mention that I would have loved to have showed her using her boyfriend as a teaching aid!

The more I looked at her pictures of her and her boyfriend the more I dreamed of what it would be like to have a threesome with them. Usually I prefer 1-1 sex but in this case it would be better to have her join us for no other reason than I would have loved to have seen her being fucked after all the times she has masturbated with me.

I love the taste of Jen's pussy but it would be extra sweet to lick his sperm from it after he came in her pussy (something she said that he never did since she was not on the pill but hey, it was my fantasy!). It didn't take long to lose the jeans and sweatshirt as I slouched in my desk chair to better reach my pussy. Damn it seemed I just couldn't satisfy the poor thing today!

I played with myself as I imagined laying on a bed with Jen standing at the edge, leaning over to lick my bare pussy while her boyfriend fucked her from behind. I have to admit I think it's so cool that my pussy is the only one she's ever tasted and I love kissing her with her face covered by my pussy cum.

I put my feet up on the desk as I leaned back against the chair even further and used one hand to massage my clit while the other squeezed my boobs. As I rubbed myself I remembered how good it felt to have Jen lick me that first time we shared a bed together. Her tongue was so tentative at first and yet I could tell she wanted to explore me more with it. I felt my pussy grab my finger as I stroked it in and out of me like I wished her boyfriend would do at that moment. I wanted to see her face as he fucked me, see her as she realized how good I could fuck him compared to her and how much more he loved fucking me than her.

I felt my orgasm rising yet again as I dreamed of him ramming his cock deep in me, feeling him releasing his cum deep inside me – something which she would not let him do. My pussy gushed cum on my fingers as I imagined his cum filling me, exploding inside of me as groaned and told me how good he felt cumming in me. After that he would tell her to lick his cum from my pussy and I felt my orgasm grow as I imagined her cute face looking up at me as her tongue lapped up his cum from my cunt.

When my orgasm withered I flopped onto my bed and just cupped my crotch with my hand, feeling the heat and wetness against my palm. I felt a bit guilty about my fantasy. I never wanted to hurt Jen and I would have never done anything to make her jealous or upset.

Sometimes when I get going, though, I find myself wanting to be the girl that guys lust for more than anyone else – more than their wives or girlfriends. That is probably what drives my desire to fuck older married guys more than anything else. Of course I like the way they fuck me but it is more than just that. What turns me on the most about married guys is that I love knowing they want me so badly they are willing to betray the most sacred vow a man can take – his wedding vows. For him to risk everything – his family, his marriage, maybe even his job just for the opportunity to fuck me once makes it so incredibly hot for me.

Warning

I will slice off my future husband's cock if he commits adultery but at the same time because I feel so strongly about the issue it's probably what makes it so hot for me when another man commits it just to be with me.

Well, it was now mid-afternoon and STILL nothing to do. I decided to work some more on my diary stories. If I was going to be horny I may as well write about some past times I had enjoyed! For the next few hours I worked on a couple of different ones. Although I never really got really into another full scale masturbation session, I did find myself playing with myself now and then as I recalled some of those times and the feeling that I had back then.

Finally it was getting past supper time and I looked at the clock and shook my head. What a day so far. I had really not done anything but masturbate and dream about sex the entire day! The problem was that despite everything I had done so far, I was actually more horny now than I had been all day!

There was only one way to deal with this - I needed to be fucked and I needed to be fucked TODAY. Needed is exactly the right word. This wasn't just something I WANTED; no, I NEEDED it. In some ways I can empathize with a drug addict. I've never done drugs, not even once, but if an addict needs drugs the way I need sex then I can understand why they will do most anything to feed their addiction.

Am I really "addicted" to sex? That may be a bit of an exaggeration to be honest. I especially don't consider myself a nymphomaniac since under most circumstances I can control my needs. There were a FEW times in my life, like today, when the need for sex, just any sex, just any cock in my pussy, has driven me to do things I might never have done otherwise. Well, I could tell that this was one of those times...

I am sure that most people would think that it would be easy for a girl like me to get fucked anytime she wanted and I guess technically they'd be correct. I've no doubt that if I really wanted to I could get laid in less than an hour no matter where and when. That's no reflection on me though as it's true for any girl. It's easy for a girl to have sex, all you had to do was let the guys know you were available and they will pounce on you like a cat to a mouse.

The difficulty comes in how to get laid without getting into trouble. By "trouble" I mean both with my school and my own personal health and safety.

Fucking a guy on campus is out - too risky with only a year left to go. Getting caught would mean automatic expulsion and I don't trust guys in general not to go off bragging about their "conquest" which could eventually lead to the wrong people knowing what I had done.

Doing someone in town is hard because if someone saw us then it was back to the rumor mill problem again. I had no desire to just walk into a bar as it seemed too much like being a whore. Being a slut was OK with me, in fact I consider the label a compliment. But as for whore - well I wasn't ready for that label (or in being one), not to mention I was only twenty and the last thing I needed was to get in trouble over being in a bar while I was underage - especially when your school forbids alcohol consumption!

Granted, if I was home this situation would have been a LOT easier to resolve but I was three hours or more away so that left an emergency trip to Pittsburgh out as a viable option. Besides, if I was home I wouldn't be in this position in the first place!

Finally I decided on a course of action to take and so I went to my closet to find just the right outfit. For what I had in mind I didn't need to look like a slut, nor did I want to. In fact, the more "girl-next-door" the better for the plan I had in mind. I selected a pleated denim skirt that came about half-way down to my knees and a white cotton blouse that buttoned down the front. I opened a package of new white cotton panties, grabbed a pair of short white socks, added my pink sneakers and I was dressed for action!

I normally never wear a bra but the more I thought about it the more it seemed to go with the outfit so I found a cute white one with lace edges that I had stuffed in the back of my drawer. God, it had been ages since I had worn a one of these things!! I liked this particular one because it clasped in front between the cups so it was easy to put on - and take off. I adjusted the straps and realized my boobs had grown a bit since the last time I had worn this one as they felt constricted when I stood up and checked myself out in the mirror. I was just putting on my blouse when Jen walked in.

"Hey! Looking cute tonight girl," she said with an appreciative glance. The she noticed the bra under my blouse and laughed, "Wow! News alert! Kelly's wearing a bra! Someone better check Hell, I think it just froze over!"

I rolled my eyes and we both laughed. She got more serious then saying, "Really Kelly, I didn't even know you owned one. So what's the story?"

I just shrugged my shoulders and pretended to look hurt. "Gee, can't a girl wear a bra without people making a big deal over it?" I pouted.

"Well, whatever it is, I probably don't want to know about it!" Jen said laughing as she changed clothes.

She then explained she was going over to one of her girlfriend's tonight that lived with her parents. They were just going to have pizza and watch a few DVDs. She invited me over with her but I declined gracefully, explaining I had "other plans". She just shrugged and left it at that. One thing I could always say about Jen, she never pried and I could trust her with anything. Maybe she really didn't WANT to know! Whatever the reason I appreciated her friendship at times like this. The last thing I needed was a nosey roomie!

I grabbed a small black purse, threw on a winter jacket and I was off with a wave goodbye to Jen. I got to my car and sat still in the driver's seat for a second before starting it. Was I really ready for this? Did I really need to be fucked THAT badly? As if on cue my pussy made itself known as I almost gasped from the sudden ache I felt between my legs. It was almost like a menstrual cramp it hurt so bad! Obviously no finger was going to take care of this! I needed a cock and I needed one bad!

I turned the key with firm resolution and left campus, heading for a town about thirty miles away where I could be more anonymous. Usually I went there for shopping or a movie. Well, tonight I was going to be shopping for something they didn't sell at the mall!

On the way I debated where to go. It needed to be a place where horny guys would be hanging out but not necessarily a joint where they expected to pick up just any girl. I preferred an older guy in lieu of some young stud who just wanted to get himself off and the hell with my needs. Why is it that until a guy reaches thirty all he cares about is himself when it comes to sex?

Well, tonight was going to be all about satisfying ME for once! It would be even better if he was married but that was hard to find on the spur of the moment. The advantage with a married guy was that in addition to the "naughty" act of fucking someone's husband, married guys tend to be more discreet usually are not looking for any type of "relationship". Most seem to have reconciled that they are stuck in their marriage and that getting out of it would be even worse than what they have now so all they want is to have me satisfy them in ways their wife won't.

3. Trolling for Men

The joint I finally pulled into was a sports bar that specialized in chicken wings. Yea, I realize that chicken wings are terrible for the figure but I've always LOVED the hot ones. Not even my dad can stand the heat when I order them.

Inside there was a bar with a number of television sets showing various sporting events and then there was an open seating area for the rest of the customers. It was a Saturday night so the place was packed with families and groups of men and women out for the night. From the looks of things I was going to be the only single person in the joint which would make me stand out if nothing else.

I placed my order and took a seat on a bench to wait. I still had my jacket on and although my skirt showed off my legs, it wasn't like I was some slut trolling for guys. Even so I was conscious of a number of eyes directed my way and I couldn't help but crack a smile when I saw one girlfriend poke her guy in the ribs when she caught him looking at me!

I had been waiting just a few minutes when another family came in through the door. It was your traditional Midwest WASP family - mom, dad, son and daughter. The son looked to be about twelve and the girl was probably fourteen or fifteen although it was hard to from the way she dressed. Mom and dad looked like the career professional type and must have worked on those careers for a while before having the kids because they looked to be in their late thirties at least.

I smiled as I watched - they were so stereotypical it was almost funny. The boy was an absolute brat - nonstop mayhem running around touching everything while his harried mother trying to keep him in tow. The girl looked like a spoiled little princess with that, "I can't believe I'm here with them" look so typical for a girl her age! Her jeans were so tight they looked ready to split and she had enough makeup on to join the circus.

Meanwhile the poor dad was trying to get everyone's orders and looked more than a bit flustered by the time it was over. He glanced at me briefly as he waited for their order and I noticed his eyes returned and stayed focused on my bare legs. They lingered a lot longer than what would have been considered appropriate, no doubt partly because I made of point of uncrossing them and then crossing them again. I risked a look at him and smiled but he quickly glanced away, apparently a bit embarrassed at having been caught staring at me.

Just then my order number was called and I stood up to get it. Family guy was standing near the counter and I "accidentally" bumped into him as I made my way. I looked up at him (he must have been over six feet tall!) and smiled, excusing myself as I stepped aside. He just mumbled something about it being not a problem and I was soon off to the seating area with my basket of wings and celery.

Once at a table I took off my heavy jacket and had a seat. One thing every girl learns from the onset of puberty is how to sense when she is being looked at. In this case I felt that tingle as several sets of eyes looked my way. I crossed my legs but didn't bother pulling my skirt down which left most of my upper thigh exposed. I pretended not to notice and started on my wings. Mmmmmmm, they were delicious!

Just then the family I had seen earlier sat down at the table next to mine. I noticed that the dad took a seat that gave him a nice view of me without having to turn or look obvious about it. Just coincidence? I didn't think so. Once again I caught him staring at my legs and this time his eyes wandered up a bit farther up to my boobs. I had the blouse unbuttoned as far as I could which just barely exposed my bra. Now I was glad I was wearing one as it seemed there was something more erotic about exposing a bit of bra than just more cleavage - not that I had the most cleavage to expose in the first place.

The wife and daughter were seated facing away from me so only the father and his son could see me. The boy was a typical twelve year-old and all he cared about was himself and food. I could have probably stripped and he wouldn't have noticed - but his father certainly would have! He didn't take his eyes off of me for the longest time. I would lean over to eat a wing and I knew he was straining to see further down my blouse. My hands got messy so I would suck the wing sauce off my fingers. I looked over at him while I did and deliberately did it as slowly and seductively as I could. Our eyes met and this time he didn't look away. I don't know if anyone else in the place was watching me but I didn't care, this was getting to be fun!

I took a swallow from my Diet Coke and picked up my purse to head off to the bathroom. I turned to look at him and gave him a "come hither" look that should have clearly signaled my intentions - I wanted him to follow. To be honest, I never expected him to follow me. It was just a game for girls to tease guys like that, one that I had played many times in the past and never grew tired of. Nobody in this situation ever followed me but I liked to fantasize later about what might happen if they had.

Well, so much for Family Guy and as I made my way to the girl's room I glanced at the bar to see if there were any interesting prospects for the evening. I was still unbelievably horny and I needed to get something going here instead of wasting my time teasing poor Family Guy - especially when his family was there with him. His wife was thin, almost too thin in fact, and had her hair tied back sharply. She was wearing a medium-length skirt and actually wasn't too bad looking in it but I sensed she "wore the pants" in the family from the way she was bossing everyone around, including her husband. Her voice was sort of whiney and I had a feeling she could be a real bitch!

I made it to the restroom just in time - the diet coke must have gone straight thru me!. I washed my hands and checked myself out in the mirror. I adjusted my blouse to be a bit more revealing and pushed the door open to leave. Imagine my surprise when I practically knocked over someone outside the door!. I was even more surprised when I looked up and saw who it was - Family Guy! I started to excuse myself and walk away but he grabbed me by the upper arm and held me back. Alarmed at first, I wondered what was happening. He looked around and saw we were alone in the hallway before saying...

"Sorry, I didn't mean to scare you," he said reassuringly, "Look, I couldn't help but notice you were flirting with me back there and I was just curious - just flirting or something more?"

Wow! Now THAT was certainly straight out of the blue, for sure! He looked a bit embarrassed when I didn't respond instantly and started to apologize saying, "I'm so sorry, I should have never said that... I just thought that the way you were acting that..."

It was like time froze as thousand thoughts raced through my mind. I make a quick decision and went for it! You can already guess what it was...

"Well, just what did you have in mind?" I asked softly, trying to give him my best "little girl" look and tone.

He looked flustered and I wondered if I had gone too far. "Ummmmm, you have to understand, I've never said anything like that to a girl before... I don't know what came over me... I'm so sorry." He started to walk away but I called to him.

"Well, if you change your mind let me know!" I said as loud as I dared. He kept walking and didn't even turn around to acknowledge me so I figured that it was over - whatever "it" was!

Back at the tables we each finished our meals. At first he wouldn't look at me but it didn't take long for his male lust to exert itself again. Men are so predictable! I dropped something on the floor and as I leaned over he got a great view down my blouse. My bra kept him from seeing my boobs but that probably just made it all the more seductive for him. Sure it was a corny thing to do but hey, it always worked. I chastised myself anyway. I mean, what next, was I going to lean over to pick up something and flash him my ass?

I smiled at him as I brought my head up and I could see him take a deep breath as he tried to answer something his wife was asking him while at the same time stare at me without her knowing it. The more I listened the more bitchy she sounded. He just seemed to sit there and take it, almost like a whipped dog.

Well, as much fun as it might have been to tease him on another day, it was not going to provide me tonight with what I was looking for so I needed to get my act in gear if I was going to find me a guy to fuck me! I was about to finish up and move closer to the bar area when Family Guy excused himself to go to the restroom again. He winked at me as he went by and I took that as a signal to follow and meet him wherever he was going. I figured what the heck, who knows? So once again I found myself alone with him in the hallway by the restrooms.

As soon as I got close to him he whispered to me saying, "Look, I've never done anything like this before but I can't keep my eyes off of you. So what's to going to cost me?"

"Hey! I'm not a whore!" I said in an annoyed tone of voice.

"Oh God, I didn't mean that! Really I didn't!" he said with a look of panic on his face.

I looked down the hallway to the dining area and responded in a more slutty tone, "But even if I was 'available', what about your wonderful little family?"

"I'm dropping off at a movie in a few minutes and then I'm supposed to stop by my office for a while before picking them back up again," he answered. "I thought that instead just maybe we could... well, you know."

I toyed with the topmost button that was still fastened and squirmed a bit as if I was a little girl listening to her father. He seemed to find that more comforting and he continued quickly.

"Look, here's my card, it has my home address on the back - it's just down the road from the new theaters. The key is under the mat so just let yourself in. I'll be there as soon as I can. If you're interested, be there. If you're not there I'll understand."

It was going so fast my head was spinning. As much as I had played along, I couldn't really believe this was happening. I mean, was this guy SERIOUS? If so, was he just a crackpot or what? Like, who in their right mind would make such an offer to a complete stranger, a girl he doesn't even know what her name is?

He must have seen the hesitation on my face so he said, "My cell phone number is on there, call me in fifteen minutes it you want to talk."

Well, what did I have to lose? So far he knew nothing about me so if I changed my mind there was no way he could stalk me or anything. Besides, the more I thought about it the more surreal it all seemed and anyone who knows me knows that I can't resist something new and naughty. Yep, if there was one thing tonight was shaping up to be - it was new and naughty!

4. A Married Man's Issues

I left first and sat in my car out in the parking lot waiting for them to leave. They soon appeared and piled in a minivan which then sped off in the direction of the theaters. So far so good. I followed them until they turned off into the road to the theater complex and I continued down the road. The address was on the same road I was on which made it easy.

It wasn't too far before I saw the right house number on a mailbox and turned into the concrete driveway. It was a large two-story colonial type of house, typical upper-middle class. The guy wasn't a millionaire but he apparently was doing well. I parked off to the side next to a basketball hoop. I debated going inside but there was no way I was going to go THAT far. Who knows what trouble I could get into? I left the engine running as it was a bit cold outside and I took out his card and dialed him up on my cell phone.

"Hello?" a male voice answered.

"I'm here," was all I said.

"Cool! I'll be there in a couple of minutes," he said, "Look I'm not some pervert or anything... really."

Well, THAT remained to be seen. I just said OK and hung up. About two minutes later headlights lit up my car as he pulled in and the garage door opened.

There was the usual junk, bikes, riding mower, etc. He got out of the van and I decided to go for it so I turned off the engine and got out of my car as well.

"Hurry up!" he said motioning for me to get in the garage "The neighbors might be watching."

That didn't seem too likely given the distance between houses but then you never knew I guess. As soon as I was in the garage he closed the door behind me. Well, now what? In a way I felt trapped as from this point onward there was no quick escape. The thought crossed my mind that nobody I knew had even the slightest idea where I was! This had all the makings of a cheap TV horror movie and we all know what happens to the slutty girls. Then again, it might turn out to be something to make my diary!

It didn't really matter as I was committed from this point. He opened the door to the house and we entered the kitchen through a laundry room. I had to give his bitchy wife credit, the home was quite neat, if not immaculate, and presented a general air of reasonable wealth without being rich. He turned on the lights and we faced each other in the kitchen.

"I really can't believe I'm doing this," he started out with a bit of a stammer. "You've got to understand, I've never done ANYTHING like this before."

"Oh yeah, and the check's in the mail," I thought to myself.

Then again, he seemed genuinely sincere about it so who knows, maybe he was telling the truth. I wasn't ready to believe it yet although I had to admit he was putting on a great act if he was lying. I just stood there silently, waiting for him to go on and he soon did.

"Look, my job's a hassle, the wife hates sex, my son's a brat - as you've seen, and my daughter... well I think the little princess tolerates me but only barely."

He paused as if to gauge my reaction. I've heard the same sob story a hundred times so I just shifted my weight to my other foot with my arms crossed and waited for him to continue which he did.

"I've considered having an affair but I've always been afraid of getting caught. I can't afford to leave my wife and I love my kids - despite everything, but a guy has needs!"

After this long rant he paused as if to see if I was going to just walk out but instead I uncrossed my arms, stepped up closer to him and took his hand in mine.

"It's OK," I said softly in a caring tone, "You can tell me everything."

He appeared almost desperate as he looked me in the eyes and continued in a voice that shook with emotion. Geeze, was he going to cry?

"Well, I saw you there tonight and you looked incredible. You're dressed like a prim and proper girl but yet somehow you just seem to radiate sensuality. At first I thought you were just a hooker or something but you seemed too nice for that. When you left to use the restroom I was planning just to follow you so I could see you closer. Then you surprised me by coming out so fast and well... I just found myself saying things I have always fantasized saying but never had the guts to say."

"So tell me Mark, why did you ask me here?" I asked.

"How did you know my... Oh yeah, my card," he said, looking a little stricken at first. "So what's your name by the way?"

"Kelly," I told him. He started to ask for more information but I smiled and held up my hand saying, "just Kelly - OK?"

"Well, thank you Kelly. So anyway, I don't really know I guess. I still can't believe I asked you and to be honest, I never really figured you would say yes to begin with."

"So... have you ever cheated on Linda?" I asked him.

He again looked at me in surprise as if I was a psychic or something. I grinned and nodded towards the refrigerator where there was a Valentine's Day card held in place with a little heart magnet. It hung open and I could see the inscription, "To my darling wife Linda, I will always love you, Mark."

He looked a bit sheepish as if the incongruence between the writing on the card and what he was doing now seemed to hit home. "Never," he said, "In fact, she's the only woman I've ever made love to."

His voice started to crack as he looked at the card and I had this bad feeling that this was going to lead to where he was going to get feeling all guilty and chicken out so I decided to take control. I took his hands and put them around me and I wrapped my arms around his neck.

"So tell me Mark, would you like to fuck me?" I whispered up to his ear.

I noticed that he had used the phrase "making love" when he mentioned sex with his wife so I deliberately emphasized the word "fuck" when I asked him the question. It just seemed so much naughtier - more like he was cheating on his wife rather than replacing her.

His body seemed to droop and he took a deep breath before answering. "God help me but I do. I want so bad to... well as you said, fuck you Kelly."

5. Mark Gets His First Blowjob

We reached his daughter's room which was easy to identify by the sign on the door declaring "Laura's Room" with a hand-printed addition to the bottom, "Keep out - this means you Brian!" I laughed at it and he just shrugged his shoulders saying, "Warned you - that's my little princess."

We went inside and it was a typical teenage girl room. Posters of guys lined the walls. Photo albums and school books were on the floor and I could imagine the pile of clothes under the bed - my favorite laundry basket growing up. Of course a computer was on her desk along with her IPod. She had a twin-size day bed with a pretty floral comforter and matching bed skirt. Stuffed animals lined the edges and a hat filled with pins hung on one post.

A quick glance and I saw she must have been pretty active in some dance club as they were similar to the pins my cousin Tammy collected at various shows and competitions. I turned to him and put my hands on his hips to guide him backwards towards her bed where I pushed him downward. He got the hint and sat on her bed while I backed up a few feet.

"So tell me Mark... when was the last time you watched a twenty year-old girl strip for you?" I teased him as I started to slowly unbutton my blouse. The answer was obvious but I wanted to get him talking and loosened up.

"Honestly?" he said, "Never. Linda's always undressed in the dark and face it, girls in strip clubs are just whores."

His hands were flat on the bed next to his side and I saw him lick his lips quickly as he watched me without hardly blinking. I soon had my blouse undone and gradually let it slide down my back and off my arms to the floor where I left it. I unzipped the side of my skirt and like my blouse, let it slide to the floor as well where I stepped out of it leaving me standing there in my underwear and sneakers. For someone who rarely wore panties and a bra, it felt sort of sexy showing off my body to him while still partially hidden by the thin fabric.

"Well?... What do you think?" I asked as I slowly turned in front of him. I brushed my hair back and flicked it from one shoulder to the next, my eyes never leaving his.

"Please... take off your bra and panties," he asked softly.

It was encouraging to see his lust taking over, breaking down his inhibitions. I unclasped my bra and let it open up to barely reveal my boobs as I left it on my shoulders. I turned so my back was facing him and I slowly dropped my panties, keeping my legs straight but bending over more and more as I slid them down to my ankles. As I got all the way down I knew he had a great view of my bald pussy from the rear. Staying bent over, I looked behind to see him staring at me and I smiled.

"Like what you see Mark?" I asked him.

"Oh my god! You look even better than I imagined," he said breathlessly.

I straightened up and turned back to him and ran my hands over myself, rubbing my crotch with my hand and then lifting my boobs with both hands and dropping them so he could see how firm they were. I took off my bra and handed it to him which he accepted like I was giving him the crown jewels.

"I bet that bitch Linda never looked like this, did she?" I said seductively.

He didn't need to answer, the way he was shifting his weight to make room for his expanding cock in his pants told me all I needed to know. I spread his legs apart and kneeled on the floor in front of him. Undoing his belt and pants, I unzipped him and then grabbed the sides to pull them down. He lifted himself up enough with his hands to let me get them off his ass along with his boxer shorts and I pulled them down to his feet. I yanked off his shoes and socks and then took his pants off the rest of the way leaving him sitting on the bed in just his dress shirt with his bare ass on his daughter's comforter. The shirt tails gathered at his waist but his cock was already poking its way out.

I reached out and held it in my hand and started to gently stroke it. Mmmmmmm, if he only had an idea of how good it felt for me to hold a real cock again! I could feel it growing in my hand and I drew in a deep breath as I knew it wouldn't be long before it would be buried deep in my pussy!

"Do you want me to suck your cock Mark?" I asked him. He just nodded but that wasn't enough for me. "I want you to tell me what you want Mark - now tell me!"

"I want you to suck my cock Kelly," he said with a more firm voice this time.

I looked at his growing dick, feeling it throbbing in my hand. Mmmmmmm, I'd been dreaming all day for a cock like this! I put my head in his lap and licked him starting at the base of his hairy crotch to the tip of his swelled cock head. I had one hand caressing his balls while the other was around him, grabbing his ass with my hand. Up and down his shaft I went, running my tongue around his shaft until finally I took his cock head in my mouth instead of running my tongue back down again.

Mmmmmmm, he tasted so damn good! His crotch smelled of male musk and sweat, a thick and heavy odor but not unpleasant at all. His crotch was hairy as was the rest of his body for that matter. His stomach was even covered with thick dark hair and I loved the feel of his hairy legs against the side of my nude body as I knelt between them. Slowly I took him into my mouth until my face was at the base of his cock and I had to close my eyes as his curly pubic hair mashed against my face. My head twisted around his cock as my tongue ran along it inside of my mouth.

"Oh my god, that feels so good," he groaned. "I've always dreamed of getting my cock sucked."

I looked up at him with questioning eyes as I stroked his cock in and out of my mouth. Finally my curiosity got the better of me and I let him out of my mouth but kept stroking it with my hand.

"What do you mean by that?" I asked, "Doesn't Linda blow you?"

"God no," he moaned as my mouth went back to work on him, "She says oral sex is disgusting. I asked her once when we were dating and she looked so revolted by even the idea that we've never even talked about it since."

That was almost unbelievable. I can't imagine being married to a guy and not sucking his dick in almost twenty years! Well, he would remember this blowjob, that's for sure!

As I sucked his cock he took off his shirt leaving him naked now as he sat on his daughter's bed. His hands held my head on his cock as I alternated between sucking it and licking it. My one hand gently caressed his hairy balls while I held his cock in the space between my thumb and forefinger with my other hand flat in his crotch. Judging from his moans and groaning, he seemed to really like it when I had him completely in my mouth so I tried to do that as much as possible.

"Oh shit that feels incredible!" he gasped once when I went down on him especially hard. "I love the way it looks when you take it all in your mouth."

I jerked him off with my hand while I gathered my breathe for the finale. I grinned as I looked up at him, his slippery cock sliding inside my hand.

"I want you to cum in my mouth," I said slowly. "But is that what YOU want, Mark?"

His eyes rolled up as he responded to my hand jerking him off. "Oh yes, I've always dreamed of doing that."

He was breathing faster now and his cock was feeling even bigger in my hand so I took him in my mouth and stroked him some more. The precum emerged from his cock, salty and strong and I knew it was time for him to cum. I opened my mouth and held out my tongue while my hand stroked his cock. His head rested on my tongue while his shaft was aimed at my mouth like a cannon ready to fire.

"Oh god... I'm cumming!" he cried out.

Cum shot from his cock and flew directly into my open mouth. I could feel the first load hit the back of my throat and then the next one pooled on my tongue along with the following loads. Some of it dripped off the side of my tongue and down my chin while the rest either stayed on my tongue or slid off into my mouth. As the last shudder finished, I looked up at him with my tongue still out so he could see his cum on it. Then I brought in my tongue and swallowed it down with a couple of gulps, reopening my mouth to show him it was all gone. I used his cock like a squeegee to scrape the cum on my chin up into my mouth and then I sucked him as he shrank, drawing the last of his cum in from his cock.

"That is just soooooo sexy," he managed to say as he gasped to catch his breath. "You like it, don't you?... You love it when a man cums in your mouth - I can tell."

Well, at least he was a good judge of what people liked! His cum left a strong aftertaste and so I sucked his cock some more which helped to clear my mouth. Men are always so sensitive after they cum and Mark was no exception, Even though his cock was only half the size it was, he still quivered when I sucked him. I stood up then and wiped my chin with my hand, licking off whatever I could.

6. A Cheating Husband and Naughty Dad

"Your turn," I said as I pushed him backwards onto the bed. "Eat my pussy."

He laid back with his legs hanging over the edge of the bed. I crawled up in bed and swung my leg over him so I was straddling his upper chest. Grabbing the rail of the daybed behind his head for balance, I moved forward until my pussy was directly over his face. Looking down at him, I could see he was staring at my pussy as this was probably the closest he had ever had his face to one before! I slowly lowered myself down to him and he stuck out his tongue to meet me. I gently pressed my pussy into his face, burying his nose and mouth with my bare pussy.

His tongue went to work on me and I groaned whenever he touched me where I liked it to give him some idea of where to do it. I assumed he'd seen enough porn flicks to know basically what to do and sure enough, he wasn't too bad for a rookie! I ground my crotch into his face as his tongue worked its way along my pussy slit. Eventually he was trying to press it up into me but his tongue wasn't long to penetrate very far. It still felt wonderful - better even than my finger did earlier today.

"That's it Mark," I moaned, "Fuck my pussy with your tongue... oh yea, make me cum Mark!"

As horny as I had been all day it wasn't going to take much to get me to cum tonight. Sure enough after only about five minutes or so I felt my pussy clamp down and grow even wetter as my cum gushed out onto his face. My back arched as my head went back and my eyes were clenched shut.

"Don't stop Mark..." I begged, "Make me cum harder!... Oh god yes, make me cum harder!"

It felt so good after a day of nothing but fantasy and masturbation to finally cum at the hands (or should say mouth) of someone else. I circled my hips around his face, grinding my pussy into him. I don't know how he could breathe but I didn't care at the moment - I just wanted to keep cumming! Once my orgasm dwindled I moved back until I was straddling his waist again. His cock was pressing against my ass as it began to shown signs of life again.

Looking down at him I smiled saying, "So tell me Mark, do you like oral sex?"

Mark just groaned and managed a short reply, "That was SO incredible."

"Well then Mark, do you want to fuck me?" I asked.

Again, I knew the answer but I wanted to hear him say it. I wanted this husband and father of two tell me he wanted me in the most intimate way, that he wanted to cheat on not just his wife, but his family as well.

For just a while I wanted to steal him away from them, take him as mine and then throw him back to them like a fish after it's been caught being returned to the pond. Yep, catch and release was the only way to go!

"Oh god, yes!" he said in an instant.

"Then tell me Mark, tell me you want to fuck me... tell me you want me more than Linda... Tell me you want to fuck me in Laura's bed. Tell me you want to fuck me like you wish you could fuck your daughter."

This was what made it so hot for me, when a husband confesses that he wants me more than his wife, when he confesses for the first time that he wants his daughter in a way he knows he shouldn't. I love hearing a man tell me that I turn him on more than the woman he has pledged his life to. I wanted him to fuck me in his daughter's bed, to use me to symbolically fuck his daughter. He may not realize it now but I knew that after tonight, every time he sees his daughter in her bed he will remember fucking me where she is - and then despite his good intentions he will think about what it would be like to fuck her as well.

He was panting now with anticipation. "Yes, I want to fuck you more than my wife," he confessed to me. "God you are so much sexier than she is... hell, more than she ever was. You're everything I have ever dreamed of."

"And what about Laura," I pushed him, "Tell me why you want to fuck me in her bed."

"Oh fuck it," he said, caving in to me, "I would love to fuck that little bitch, pay her back for all the teasing the little slut does to everyone... Damn you Kelly, you make me want to fuck her so bad!"

He was definitely thinking with the little head now. I knew that all he wanted right now was to fuck me and he was willing to tell me anything, to confess any dirty secret he had, just for the once chance in his lifetime to fuck a girl like me. I loved it when a man reached this point, when he lusted for me this much, wanted me so badly he would do anything to have me. Well, I may not have told him but I wanted Mark to fuck me just as bad!

With him still on his back I moved backwards a little more until his cock was directly underneath me. I reached between my legs and grabbed it, pleased to see he was well on the way to recovery. It was more than ready to fuck me so I positioned myself over it and held it in place underneath me as I lowered myself down onto it. I felt myself parting as his head split me open and then worked its way inside of me. I wanted to scream out, "YES!" as my pussy was finally getting what it had been begging me for all day.

"Feel that?" I whispered to him, "Can you feel your cock coming inside of me?"

Mark moaned loudly again as I lowered myself down onto him until my pussy bottomed out on his crotch. His pubic hair felt like a coarse hair brush against my smooth ass as I wiggled it and ground myself down onto him. "Damn you're so tight!" he gasped as I began to rock slowly on my knees forward and back, pulling him out of me and then pushing him back in. Sometime I would stop just as he was about to come out of me, his head barely between my pussy lips. Then I would quickly rock back, driving him in one swift motion deep inside of me again. It was a hot poker penetrating me, filling me inside as my cunt alternately gripped him and released him as if it was milking him. I leaned forward and he reached out to caress my boobs and then lifted his head so he could suck on my nipples.

"That's it Mark, suck them... run your tongue around the nipples" I said softly as I felt his cock sliding in and out of me. His tongue played on my nipples and his large hands held my boobs.

"Damn I love your tits," he moaned, "So firm and perfect."

"I bet Linda has never fucked you like this before, has she?" I asked him seductively.

The resulting groan told me as well as anything he could say. I got off my knees and with him still inside me I started to literally bounce on his cock, lifting myself up and then dropping down on him hard enough to make him grunt and using the rebound to lift back up again. His cock was like a jack hammer drilling into me, pounding my pussy as I gasped for air. His hands were holding my waist as he helped me to fuck him. My hands were on my knees to help maintain my balance as my boobs bounced while I fucked his cock. I was sweating now and I could feel the beads of sweat on my brow from the exertion. Man, talk about a workout!

Finally I was too exhausted to keep it up so I slid off his hard shaft and told him to get up. I took his daughter's pillow and placed it in the center of the bed and laid down on it so it supported my hips and gave him a clear view of my freshly fucked pussy. He quickly got the hint and climbed back in bed between my legs and used one hand to spread my ass apart while his other hand guided his cock back to my open pussy.

"Fuck me Mark," I begged him, "Put your cock in me... Oh my god, I need to be fucked soooooo bad!"

I looked in front of me and there was a cute little stuffed bear which I assumed was his daughter's favorite since it was at the head of the bed. I grabbed it and hugged it as he fucked me from behind. He drove his cock hard into me, moving me up slightly towards the head of the bed with each thrust as his crotch met my ass and shoved me forward as he tried to drive himself deeper inside of me each time.

I held onto Laura's bear as her father fucked me on her bed. God it felt so good to finally be fucked today! My pussy felt so much better, so much more satisfied as Mark's cock gave it what it had been craving all day. As much as I love to masturbate there are simply times when only the real thing will do!

Mark wasn't saying much now, just a lot of grunts and groans as he worked hard to fuck me. Then without a word he pulled his cock out of me and before I could say anything he grabbed my hips and twisted me such that I was literally flipped like a pancake over onto my back. He pushed Laura's pillow back under my ass so my pussy was pointing upwards at him. Grabbing my left leg under the knee, he lifted it up and then straddled my right leg. His cock looked all wet and hard and I smiled knowing where the wetness had come from. He aimed his cock at my now gaping pussy hole and easily pushed it in no-handed.

By now I had been fucked enough it was open wide for him and soaking wet, making it the perfect target for his cock. He pushed himself in and pulled out of me before once again he drove it in me without using his hands. He repeated this a few times and then stayed in me, holding my leg up in the air and pinning down my other one as he fucked me almost sideways.

"You love this, don't you?" he said in a husky voice, "You just love being fucked and you don't care whose cock it is you dirty little slut."

"Yea I do - so what? Just keep fucking me!" I replied to him, squeezing down on his cock with my cunt.

"Oh you bitch! What are you doing - trying to flatten my dick?" he said in a teasing voice. "God you have a grip with that thing!"

He dropped my leg down and slipped between my legs as I wrapped myself around him and dug my heels into his back, pulling him tightly into me. "I'm going to cum again!" he cried out and I could feel him starting to pull back as he prepared to pull out of me.

"Don't you dare pull out you son of a bitch!" I snarled at him. "Cum in my pussy - I worked for it and I want it!"

Mark just smiled at me and pushed himself deep into me saying, "OK, here it comes then - take it all, take my cum you nasty slut."

His cock was buried deep in me and he groaned as it swelled even more and then like a cannon released its first shot of sperm into me. It exploded like a heat wave in me and I felt myself cumming as well. Each release of his sperm drove my orgasm higher like a series of steps until I moaned with the ecstasy of my orgasm. My pussy grabbed his cock instinctively as if to try and keep it in me while he mated me.

"That's it baby, cum for daddy," he murmured in my ear as he lowered himself down on his elbows, barely keeping his weight from crushing me as his cock throbbed inside of me and my orgasm slowly ebbed way. I wondered who he was talking to in his moment of passion - me his wife or maybe even his daughter?

that if Mark got through the night with his marriage intact he was going to have to be one lucky guy. Well so far he had been pretty lucky this evening and for his sake and his family's I sincerely hoped he made it through OK.

I love to fuck married guys but I really never want to hurt their marriages – heck if anything I like to think I have helped!. After all, Mark will probably be a much happier man at home. for at least a little while, with the knowledge of what we did that night in his mind as he masturbates in the bathroom.

I got back to my room and Jen was still up, talking to her boyfriend as usual. She gave me a quick glance when I came in, smiled and then laid back again in bed with the phone to her ear. It was pretty easy to figure out what they were talking about since she was nude and masturbating with the other hand! It worked out for me though as she didn't notice as I undressed that my bra and panties were already off and that I smelled of aftershave or whatever it was Mark was wearing.

A quick shower and I was freshened back up again for bed. I dropped the towel and climbed between the sheets. What a day it had turned out to be, certainly nothing what I would have expected at the beginning.

I ended the day the way it started – my hand between my legs and my mind dreaming of me being fucked. The only difference was now my pussy wasn't aching from a LACK of being fucked, now it ached from having just BEEN fucked! I fell asleep finally satisfied as Jen went on with her boyfriend. Damn, that girl could go on for hours! Oh well, I had been fucked today and she hadn't so I think I got the better end of the deal!

(Mar 11) Chapter 112: Shopping For Sex

Jen - junior roomie (21)

You know how sometimes it seems that something you dream of but deep down you know will never happen - happens? Well, that was the case in this situation. We met at church where he was a Deacon. I was young and single while he was married with children. I was offered a day of shopping and dinner in exchange for fulfillment of a fantasy. Sounded like a pretty good deal to me!

1. Little Annie's Dad

For the past three years I've worked at my local church as youth group helper. During that time I've got to see my "kids" grow up and mature. At the same time I've also gotten to know their parents and in a few cases, become quite close.

Despite her mature looks, Annie was learning to cope with her new hormones and body features the same as any girl her age. There were more than a few times when we shared some intimate moments when she would confide in me her new feelings and insecurities. Now don't read anything into that last statement. When I say "intimate" I don't mean we did anything sexual – there was never ANYTHING even remotely like that between us. What I am referring to is discussing things that normally would be said between a mother and daughter. The problem was, in Annie's case talking with her mom was out of the question.

Annie's parents were outwardly great people but the more I learned about them, especially her mother, the more I realized it was not the same at home with their kids. I felt sorry for Annie since I knew how important it had been for me growing up to have someone I could trust implicitly with ANYTHING. Of course, for me that person was my mom which just made it extra special for me.

Since Annie didn't have that sort of relationship with her own mom, I tried the best I could to help out. My biggest concern was that if Annie didn't have someone to mentor and guide her through these critical development years, with her looks and natural sexual magnetism, she would fall prey to the pervs and jerks who I could already see eying her around town. She may look seventeen but I knew she was barely fourteen inside.

As the relationship between Annie and I grew closer, I couldn't help but come in contact more with her parents. Her mom just gave me a cold shoulder but I didn't take it personal as she treated everyone that way. Even though she was past her prime, she was still pretty good looking for her age – and knew it. I imagined that she was one of the girls back in school that looked down on everyone else. I had her pegged as a damn cheerleader long before I visited their house and saw one of her high school pictures on the table – in a cheerleader outfit of course.

What was disturbing to me about Annie's mom was that she still tried to dress like she was a teenager. To be honest, she came close to carrying it off but she was starting to show the inevitable signs of age here and there. It must have been maddening to a woman like her to look in the mirror and see her once perky boobs lose their battle with gravity and start to sag. Her legs looked great, again for a woman her age, but I was sure she hated the "for her age" modifier. She looked at girls like me with jealous eyes but I didn't never took it personally since all the girls got the same treatment from her.

Annie's dad was a different story. From the first time I introduced myself to her parents back at the start of my freshman year, Annie's dad had given me "the look". Every girl knows what I mean when I say that but for sake of the guys, "the look" is when a man looks at you but you know he's really mentally undressing you and imaging the things he would like to do with you once those clothes were out of the way.

Annie's dad was a Deacon in the church and a "pillar of the community" as someone once introduced him at a church function, so of course he never actually DID anything. He just looked at me whenever he got the chance and more than a few times found some excuse to pass close by me in a crowded hallway such that he "accidentally" bumped in me.

To be fair, Ian wasn't any different from what had to be a least a dozen or more father's I met at church so I didn't pay any special attention to his antics. The only time he pushed things was once at a pool party for the youth group. I was wearing a two piece swim suit which was quite tame by my standards but still pushed the line when it came to the church dress code.

I noticed that Annie's dad was watching me even more closely than usual and then towards the end of the party I found out what his real motive was for keeping such an eye on me. It was only for a brief moment but I saw a camera hidden in his hand as I exited the pool. I pretended not to notice that I'd seen it and I smiled as I walked away knowing that he had undoubtedly captured a picture down my bikini top when I was bent over the pool ladder as I pulled myself out of the water. I wondered how many other pics he had managed to sneak of me and then I smiled again to myself as I thought about what he was going to be doing to them when he got home!

Annie never mentioned anything about her father doing anything to her. We even discussed the topic of fathers and daughters once after a TV show came out on child abuse. I tried to question her without being TOO obvious about my true intentions. It was enough to know that so far as she was concerned, he had never looked at her "that" way or even tried to sneak a peek at her so I either he wasn't the type to want to have his own daughter, or he was pretty good at hiding it.

I my junior year with my boobs finally were capable of filling a C cup, putting me on par with Annie who was seven years younger than me! At church I noticed that her dad was paying more attention to me than ever before. Hmmmmmm, must be a boob guy! Actually it made me feel pretty good since in the past I had depended on a guy being interested in either my ass or legs since my boobs were nothing to write home about.

As the school year wore on, I saw Annie and her parents almost every week as they were regular attendees and hardly ever missed church or Wednesday night services. As such, Annie was one of the more reliable members of her youth group and I could always depend on her to be there to help out.

I also noticed that her parents didn't seem to be as close to each other as they had been in the previous years I'd known them. It was subtle, not something most people would have noticed most likely, but I like to think of myself as sort of a "connoisseur" when it comes to interpreting people and their moods. It was just the little things - the way they sat just a little further apart from each other in church, the missing arm around her as they walked down the aisle, the rolling of her eyes when he seemed to be trying to talk to her.

It was probably no coincidence that the more distant her parents became with one another, the more interested her father seemed to be in me. Whereas for the first couple of years he never even spoke to me, now he never failed to greet me and we even engaged in some small talk now and then. He protested when I addressed him as "Mister", insisting that his father was called that and his name was Ian. I was raised to be respectful to older people so it took a few reminders from him before I felt comfortable with it although his bitchy wife gave me the evil eye when I used his first name.

2. Flirting With Annie's Dad

All through the fall and Christmas, my "relationship" with Ian was purely innocent. Sure we flirted but it was more of a tease than anything else. He began to talk to me more and even complimented me a few times on my appearance or what I was wearing. He seemed to be less embarrassed if I caught him looking at me - something he seemed to be doing more and more of as time went by. Finally one Wednesday night I was sitting in the youth room reading a lesson plan I was getting ready to give when Ian walked by. Seeing me sitting there all alone, he came in the room and greeted me.

"Hey Kelly, how are you doing tonight?" he said in a chipper tone of voice.

"Fine Mr. ...oops I mean Ian," I replied.

Ian passed by and then paused to look down at me in my seat. I was sitting in one of those ridiculously small child seats so he got a pretty good view down my blouse which was unbuttoned down to my cleavage. I knew he had to be getting an eyeful, especially since I wasn't wearing a bra. I pretended not to notice and waited for him to continue.

"Ya know, I just can't comprehend how you girls fit into those jeans!" he said with a disarming laugh. "Do you just paint them on or what?"

It was probably the most direct question of this type he had ever asked me. Usually it was just "looking good!" or something like that. I sensed there was more to it than that so I stood up in front of him and twisted around for him to see me.

"Nothing between me and my Calvins!" I said with a sly smile.

Ok, they weren't Calvin, but that didn't really matter. Ian just shook his head ruefully at me and turned back to go about his business. There was something in the look he gave me as he walked away that caught my attention. I doubt that even had anyone else been watching that they would have noticed it but it was look I'd seen before - one that signaled an interest, even a hunger. Whenever I saw it I knew how an antelope feels when a hungry tiger is watching it. It was also the same look my dad gives me when he's REALLY horny.

Until now, whenever I'd caught Ian looking at me I assumed it was no different than what he probably gave any girl that attracted his interest. It was just an empty glance preprogrammed in his genes as a response to seeing an attractive female.

This time it was different, though. This was the first time I felt the weight of the a more focused version of "the look". It wasn't anything major and certainly didn't motivate me to start throwing myself at him shamelessly, but it stuck in my mind for the rest of the evening. It stayed there that night as I lay in my bed rubbing myself. Every girl likes to know guys find her attractive but when she sees THAT look, she knows it's more than just appreciation of beauty!

After that night I started to make myself "available" to Ian more and more. I was curious to find out if there was really anything to this or if it was just a one-time sign that I may have even just imagined. It was my turn now to "accidentally" bump into him in crowded hallways,. I would press my boobs into his chest - actually more his stomach since he was much taller than me. Then when I had his attention, I would look into his eyes with my best "doe eyes" and smile at him before apologizing and stepping back. There were time that I could almost feel his stare boring into my ass as I walked away from him.

In the meantime, Annie and I had been talking more in private. She confessed that she was worried about her parents. Her mom was yelling at her dad more and she was worried about a divorce as her dad had started sleeping in the guest bedroom lately. She didn't seem to know what the source of the problem was for sure except that her mother had said something about "canceling the damn internet service" once under breath after she had stormed out of their study.

Well, I wouldn't have been surprised if Ian hadn't been caught doing something naughty on the internet. An amazing number of guys I chat with claim to be married and unhappy with their sex life. Who knows, maybe Ian was one of those guys! The odds were astronomical but that night when I went back to my room and logged on I couldn't help but wonder if Ian wasn't lurking behind any of the profiles.

On the one hand it excited me while on the other hand I felt a bit of nervousness. In doing what I do on-line, I had always counted on the fact that the internet was huge and that the odds were almost zilch that anyone would know who I really was. Sometimes I've thought that maybe I should pretend to be going to school in a more distant state or list my home town as somewhere else, just to maintain a bit more privacy.

Although I can't be 100% honest when chatting (there ARE privacy issues to watch out for), I DO try to keep things as close to reality as possible. The main reason is so I don't get into a situation where someone I chatted with a long time ago contacts me and next thing you know I'm saying something different than I did the time before. I guess that shouldn't matter as who really cares if someone thinks I am lying? At the same time I feel bad when people are upset with me for any reason, even on the internet.

The more I thought about Ian sitting alone at home jerking off in the soft glow of his computer screen, the more my imagination began to run wild. One night while counseling Annie I told her how to check her dad's computer to see what he was doing. She wasn't too sure about it as apparently her dad was quite strict about anyone using his study, especially his computer. Her mom never used it - she didn't think her mom even knew how to turn it on, so if anything was disturbed then her dad would know that she was the one responsible.

I laughed and told her to blame anything on Kevin. After all, isn't always the boys that get blamed for computer problems? She still didn't seem too sure but I had high hopes for her. The following Sunday she pulled me over to the side and whispered that she needed to talk to me right away. We ducked into an unused Sunday school room and her face was flushed as she looked at me.

"I did what you told me," she said in a conspiratorial tone, "and you were right!"

She went on to describe to me the contents of her father's history files and the X-rated web sites he had been visiting. She looked more embarrassed than turned-on as she told me she couldn't believe the filthy stuff he'd been looking at. Like most girls, including me, porn was more a curiosity than anything. What gets guys so turned on to look at pictures of air-brushed women with fake boobs pretending to enjoy having sex?

My interest grew when she mentioned that she had found a link to his Instant Messenger program. As I suspected, he didn't keep a desktop icon but had hidden away it in his Start Menu. Well, apparently not well enough! Evidently the dummy never suspected anyone would find it as he had the options set to save his name and password so it would automatically log. Annie had signed on as I had instructed her to and was shocked at what she found.

"Kelly... he has all these sexy girls in his contact list!" she burst out, almost in tears by now. "Does that mean my daddy's cheating on my mom?"

I hugged her and held her close as I consoled her. I tried to explain to her that he was probably just letting some of his frustrations out and that she shouldn't worry about him. We talked some more and it seemed to help her to just get everything off her chest. I wanted so badly to ask if she had noticed if one of the girls was called "pghpa_girl" but I didn't dare go that far.

Annie wiped her face and tried to perk up. She was such a little doll! We hugged again and she left me to consider what, if anything, my next move should be. I knew for sure now that her dad was into internet porn but heck, wasn't 99% of the male population? That in itself didn't mean anything.

The fact he chatted with girls didn't mean that he cheated, just that he liked to talk to girls BUT it DID tell me he might be open to it - under the right circumstances. It's easy to say you would never do something but it's not until the opportunity presents itself that you really know for sure.

Knowing that he might be thinking along those lines, I didn't think it would hurt to offer him an "opportunity". After all, he could always just say no, couldn't he? I couldn't help but smirk to myself at that thought. I mean, no guy has EVER said no to me when I offered him the opportunity and I saw no reason why Ian would be the first. It didn't make me feel guilty as odds were if it wasn't me then it would be someone else someday so why not take advantage of the situation? It wasn't like I would be going up to him and forcing him to do anything!

So began my new "project" - seducing Annie's dad. I had to be careful though, after all he might be just truly flirting and not really interested in anything more. If I went too far too fast he could even turn it against me and get me into trouble. It was a fine line but I'd had enough experience in the past to make me feel confident of success.

After I returned from Christmas break I started to be a bit more forward with him, talking to him more, basically just flirting but with more of an edge to it. It's easy to do and I enjoy it as a hobby actually. Guys respond to the least amount of attention from me and all I have to do is flick my hair back and smile to get their attention in return. The male ego is so easy to manipulate; every guy wants to think he's Don Juan and that even though they're married and not in their teenage bodies anymore, somehow if a girl just stares at them a little bit longer than normal they assume that she wants to have sex with him.

One Sunday I wore a skirt and pantyhose to church. When I got dressed Jen took one look at the pantyhose and gave me a stare as if I'd lost my mind or something. As usual she kept her thoughts to herself. She must have dying to ask me where I'd kept the pantyhose hidden way all this past year! Actually, I wore it to church more than she typically saw me as we went to different churches with different schedules.

What Jen DIDN'T know was WHY I was wearing them. Sure it was still cold out but not THAT cold. I would have loved to tell her but some things you can't share, not even with your cute roomie.

I'd noticed that when Ian got coffee that instead of leaving his empty cup on the table like most people, he went to the kitchen to rinse it out. Usually the kitchen was empty in the mornings and had it not been for the extra attention I'd been paying him lately I would've never noticed his little quirk.

Like a poker player using a "tell" to her advantage, I went into the kitchen as I saw him finishing his coffee before he had a chance to finish his cup. I put my leg up on a chair and started to pull up on my pantyhose as if it had slipped down a bit. In doing so I let my skirt ride up enough to expose my entire leg and half my ass. Someone walked in just then and thank God it was Ian! It might have been hard to explain otherwise! He must have noticed me out of the corner of his eye and he turned to look at me. I froze as if he had surprised me and then smiled meekly at him, all the while not doing a single thing to cover myself up.

"Sorry Kelly! I didn't realize you were in here," he said as he started to turn away.

"That's OK Ian," I replied, "Excuse me but this damn hose is killing me!"

I stood up and straightened out my skirt saying, "There! Does it look OK now?"

Any doubt that Ian was not interested disappeared as he turned back to me and gazed at my legs. "I would say everything looks GREAT now Kelly," he said and then he winked at me.

I walked up closer to him and smiled as I said, "Thanks Ian, I really hate wearing pantyhose but it was cold today and with this skirt my legs get so cold you know."

Ian laughed and shook his head at me saying, "Well, if you wore more of a skirt they might not get so cold!"

I gave him a pout and then said in return, "Oh? Don't you like my skirts, Ian?"

A broad smile came to his face. "Trust me Kelly, every guy in church likes your skirts not to mention what they cover - and don't cover. I must say though, my wife has a much different opinion of them!"

I moved up close to him so we were only inches apart. "Who cares what she thinks," I whispered, "You know something... I like it when you look at me like that."

He was about to say something when the bell rang signaling the start of the service. He excused himself saying he needed to get going before his wife started looking for him. As he left me there I put my finger to my lips and nasty thoughts went through my mind of what his wife might have said had she caught us alone and so close. I left wondering what he would have said to me had we not been interrupted.

After service he and his family went straight to their car so I didn't get a chance to "accidentally" bump into him again but as I walked back to my on- campus apartment I felt pretty good about myself. He certainly hadn't rejected my first overture. True, it was still all pretty harmless flirting but a good husband shouldn't be doing even THAT so I viewed the entire mission as a success.

3. Some Serious Flirting With Annie's Dad

It took another week and a half before I had an opportunity to talk to him again privately. In the meantime I made it a point to rub against him in the halls at church and once I even put my hand on his ass for just a moment. I think THAT surprised the hell out of him! Guys always want to feel up a girl but they seem shocked when a girl touches their butt!

The important thing for me was that he didn't pull away or even move after an initial flinch and he realized who it was that was touching him. Even though he was looking at me more all the time, he wasn't making any overt moves towards me so I decided it was time to find out whether or not he was REALLY interested in going further or just playing a silly game. That Wednesday night the kids were watching a video and I was standing in the doorway, leaning against the side of the door with my arms crossed. Suddenly I felt a hand on my butt! Turning my head I saw it was Ian!

"Hmmmmmm, just thought I'd return the favor," he whispered with a touch of a leer in his tone. I turned and just nodded to another room down the hall. Amazingly he followed me there and I quickly checked to see that nobody had seen us before ducking back into the room.

"So Ian... what's on your mind?" I asked innocently

Ian chuckled. "So we're little miss innocent now, are we? It's just I've never had a girl grab-ass me before. Got to admit, I was a bit surprised to say the least."

Ian hesitated as he looked me over a bit closer. I was wearing a pair of tight jeans with a school sweatshirt. Not exactly the most sexy outfit in my wardrobe but the jeans were tight enough to show off my ass without being totally slutty. Dressing for church was always about walking a fine line between being conservative enough not to get in trouble yet still be just a little bit naughty enough to draw attention to myself.

I could tell he wanted to say something but at the same time was obviously struggling with his conscious. Finally he broke the silence.

"You know, I really liked the skirt outfit last week better though," he said looking at my ass shamelessly, "You have great legs and you should show them off more often."

He chuckled then and added, "If you only could have heard what Nancy had to say about it! Did you know she thinks you're a slut?"

I looked down as if I were a bit embarrassed and then replied, "Thanks, Ian. You know... I'm going shopping this weekend - anything special you think I should buy?"

I giggled a bit and added, "Maybe I could find something your wife wouldn't approve of... after all, she already thinks I'm a slut."

Ian chuckled softly, "Well, that wouldn't be too hard but anything I can think of buying you wouldn't be allowed in church," he said with a hint of daring to his voice.

Hmmmmmm... was THIS finally the opening I'd been waiting for? I debated it quickly - no sense in hanging back now. It was time to go for it so I reached out and took his hand in mine which he then grasped in his large hand.

"You know, YOU could take me shopping and help me pick something out," I said softly, not wanting to be TOO aggressive and scare him off, "At least then you'd get to see it on me!"

Ian's eyes widened and I felt my heartbeat pick up as I worried that despite my efforts, maybe I had still been TOO forward. Until now we could have left and just chalked it up to some innocent flirting but with what I had just said such a possibility was no longer on the table. He looked me in the eyes as if to determine if I was just toying with him or was really serious. I gave him my most seductive smile and looked him straight in the eyes until he finally turned his head away. He let go of my hand and took a step back before turning and facing me.

"Are you serious?" he asked, "I mean, REALLY serious?"

"Sure!" I exclaimed in my little girl voice. "I think it would be fun although I must warn you - I have expensive tastes."

"No doubt," he said, almost more to himself than me. "I can pick you up Saturday after lunch in front of your apartment if that's OK."

"Sure," I answered, "but what about your wife and Annie?"

"Well, I won't tell them if you don't," he said with a hint of conspiracy in his voice.

We'd been in the room far longer than we should have and I could see him glancing back at the door. He said he would pick me up at 1:00 on Saturday and then quickly left the room without looking back.

I stood there for a moment as a tingle started to develop between my legs as I thought about what had just happened. Technically all he had agreed to was to take me shopping but I knew that was just a pretense for what could be a lot more!

I returned to my kids whose movie had just ended and were looking for something else to do. I did the bible study I had prepared during there week prior but it was hard to keep my mind on the material as all I could think of was Ian – especially one part of his anatomy!

I looked up from my bible at all the kids seated on the floor around me and wondered what they would say if suddenly I were to reach between my legs and start rubbing myself. No doubt the boys would love it and I suspected at least a few girls would have as well. After everything was over I went to get my coat and leave. Annie went running to her parents and hugged then as I watched from across the way. Ian looked back at him and barely cracked a smile – probably the most he would do with his wife there standing guard over him.

That night – and the next couple to follow, my regular masturbation sessions were dominated by thoughts of Ian. Admittedly some of them included Annie but that was just the naughty side of me coming out in my fantasy world. I caught myself more than once daydreaming in class where my hand would subconsciously drift between my legs and I would suddenly jolt myself back to the living world and look around, wondering if anyone had seen my indiscretion.

4. Horny Roommate

Saturday morning finally arrived and I woke up to the sounds of my roomie playing with herself. Jen masturbated almost as much as me – sometimes even more. It wasn't hard to figure out what was driving her though – the same old thing, her boyfriend. Jen had never even mentioned another guy the entire time she had been my roomie – at least not in any sexual way. All she ever talked about was her boyfriend and when she came back from a break it became almost insufferable as it seemed all she would so in her spare time was play with herself and call out to him. Judging by the way her face and chest were flushed, she had been at it for a while and the urgency of her movements signaled she was getting close to her orgasm.

I threw back my covers and laid on my back with my knees up and legs spread wide open. My hands gently started to caress my pussy and boobs. Jen must have noted the movement as she turned her head and when she saw me playing a big grin came to her face.

"Morning roomie!" she called to me but she never broke the rhythm of her stroking her pussy. Her social obligations fulfilled, she closed her eyes and laid back on the pillow again. She had two fingers deep in her pussy now and her breathing had become ragged and fast.

"Fuck me Alex!" she cried out softly, "Oh that's it, fuck me good! Oh my god I love your dick in me!"

I was getting off just listening to her but my hand still stroked myself as I watched her back arch when her orgasm erupted. Mmmmmmm, it was incredible to watch this little petite girl climaxing as she talked dirty to her imaginary boyfriend. Many a night I got to watch her do the same while talking to her boyfriend on the phone which was even more fun as I imagined him jerking off hundreds of miles away as his girlfriend described how she was masturbating while she dreamed about him fucking her.

After Jen had finished she got up from her bed and walked over to mine where I was still working on my own orgasm. Her face was beet red and her chest was mottled between her boobs up to her neck. She smiled at me and put her hand over mine as I rubbed my clit. He fingers slipped down further until they touched my wet pussy hole.

"Hey roomie, did you like watching me get off this morning?" she murmured, "Mmmmmmm, feels like someone is pretty horny this morning!"

She brought her fingers up to her mouth and licked my wetness from the tips. God, for a girl who typically looked like the typical naive girl-next-door she could certainly look sexy when she wanted to. I could just imagine what the little minx did to her poor boyfriend at home. He must have been exhausted by the time she returned to school!

Jen threw on a robe and headed to the bathroom, leaving me my own ministrations as my pussy cried for her touch. Such a little tease! We hadn't played together for some time now and it killed me when she did thinks like she did just now.

After a brief period of experimentation between the two of us, she had gone home for break and apparently came back satisfied enough to want sex only with her boyfriend. Sure we still masturbated a lot together but it certainly wasn't quite the same as when she would lick me until I came so hard I thought I would cry out loud enough for our other roomies to hear!

I was finishing up just as she was returning. She tossed off her robe and stood naked in front of her closet as she picked out some clothes to wear. I wanted to reach out and just grab that hot little ass she wiggled so seductively, not even realizing what she as doing to me.

"You cum?" she asked, as if asking me the time of day.

Her attitude was pretty casual but after living with her for so long it was just natural for us to discuss our "personal" sex lives like any other subject. The smile on my face told her all she needed to know and she turned back to her stuff.

After I cleaned up and did my hair I faced the same dilemma myself - what to wear? I didn't really want to be too slutty as I thought it might be more erotic for Ian to see me as the innocent church girl type rather than some slut throwing herself at him. I was more than willing to be the latter but it just didn't seem quite right. At the same time I knew I would be trying on clothes so I didn't want to wear anything that was a real pain to get in and out of.

The weather looked to be pretty good so there was no need to dress too warmly but shorts were still out of season to say the least. After much debate I picked out a pink pair of sweat pants that sometimes doubled for pajama bottoms when I was visiting friends or relatives. They were just tight enough to show off my butt a bit but comfy and easy to get on and off. I added an Old Navy white and pink t-shirt which was about a size too small for me so it form fitted to my boobs and revealed about an inch or two of my stomach - more if I stretched up or sat down. I had a pair of pink sneakers which completed my "pink outfit".

I decided to tie my hair back in a ponytail which always made me look a few years younger. Needless to say a bra and panties never made it out of my drawer! The soft material of the sweatpants felt good rubbing against my bare butt and the t-shirt was so tight against my boobs it stimulated my nipples which made them poke out even more than ever through the thin material.

"Whoa! ...Nice!" Jen said, giving me the once-over. "So where you going dressed like THAT?" she asked, the curiosity plain on her face.

"Oh, just shopping," I replied innocently.

Jen looked at me as if she wanted to ask more but once again my roomie proved her weight in gold as she kept her questions to herself. She had to sense there was more to my plans than just shopping but she didn't push the issue.

I didn't think it would look good to be picked up in front of the apartment by some older guy so I put on my coat and started walking down the sidewalks toward the front gate to the campus. The gatehouse was empty as usual so I stood around waiting impatiently. It was a nice day but still a bit chilly. God, I couldn't wait until summer came again! I much preferred hot summer days where I could just wear shorts or a swim suit.

5. Sucking Ian in the Mall Parking Lot

To be fair, Ian picked me up five minutes early. He wasn't expecting to see me so close to the road and almost drove past me but I recognized him and waved him down. He stopped the car and I ran up to the passenger door and hopped in. He did an illegal U-turn and went out back to the main road and turned right to go back into town. Turning to me finally, he looked me up and down and grinned.

"Well Kelly, nice to see you today," he started out as if he was picking me up to take me to church. Of course we were heading the wrong way for that - in more ways than one!

I said hello back and he let out a big breath as if he had been holding it for the last few minutes. Looking at me again he raised his eyebrows and said, "You know, I wasn't sure you would be there for real. This all seems a bit surreal... you know?"

I asked him what he meant by that and he replied, "Well, you've got to admit, a guy like me picking a girl like you to go shopping... it's not something I've ever done before - or anyone else I know either!"

We both laughed and the conversation stayed at the small-talk stage for the trip to the mall. It took almost forty five minutes to get there and the tension built in the car as we each pretended like this was just some ordinary shopping trip. It reminded me of when guys would take me home from babysitting and I knew they were dying to fulfill their fantasies about doing the babysitter but were too scared to do anything about it.

Although the car had bench front seats, the center section had a fold-down console for use as an arm-rest and cup holder. I noticed that it was down when I got in the car and I wondered when the last time his wife had lifted it up to sit next to him. Probably not in quite a while was my guess.

Although I had known Ian for almost three years now, we really didn't know that much about each other. He didn't even know that I was from Pittsburgh! We talked about our families and personal history - all the sort of stuff you would discuss with just about anyone. I could tell he was extremely proud of his kids but there was always this cloud that seemed to hang over the conversation anytime it went near his wife. As we approached the exit to the mall he finally let out a piece of information that helped fill in the blanks.

"Kelly, you go to a pretty strict school and I've heard about all the rules regarding celibacy and waiting for marriage and stuff. I was wondering how do you really feel about all that?" he asked.

I looked at him with a quizzical eye and he elaborated saying, "Well, Nancy and I had never done it with anyone else when we met. I admit we didn't wait until we got married but still, neither of us has ever been with anyone else - before or after we got married."

My face must have betrayed my surprise because he leaned his head back and smiled saying, "Yeah, I know that to your generation that must seem sort of quaint and backwards but I wondered if someone with your background would understand better."

Ha! If only he knew what my background REALLY was! I turned in my seat and faced him with my legs folded underneath me. "You know Ian, just because I go to a religious school doesn't mean I'm a virgin."

Ian looked at me quickly as he turned off the expressway. "Oh really? Do you mind if I ask when you first did it?"

"I was fourteen," I replied. Well, THAT certainly gathered a reaction from him!

"FOURTEEN?" he repeated back to me and then held up his hand, "Sorry, I didn't mean to react that way. I just assumed... well you know. Yeah you may flirt a bit and you've earned a bit of a reputation with the church leadership for pushing the dress code a bit but I just figured you were just another tease."

By now we were almost to the parking lot and I lifted the console up and out of the way so I could move over closer to him. He kept both hands on the steering wheel as he maneuvered the car through the lot to find an open spot. I put my hand on his thigh and gently rubbed it. "Is that what you think today's going to be?" I asked softly, "Just a tease?"

He pulled into a slot and stopped the car. He twisted slightly in the driver seat and put his arm on the back of the seat behind me.

"Well, to be honest I'm not sure what we're doing here today. I've been asking myself that question ever since Wednesday night."

Boldly, I moved my hand over to his crotch. I could feel the bulge of his cock and it was definitely responding to the situation! He shifted in his seat as if he wasn't quite sure how to react to my touching him. I reached between his legs and cupped him in my hand, squeezing him gently through his jeans.

"Well, Ian," I purred gently, "What were you HOPING would happen today?"

He licked his lips which suddenly had gone dry. He started to say something and then hesitated. All the same, he wasn't stopping me so I continued touching him and moved to undo his belt and then unsnap his jeans.

I looked up at him and smiled seductively saying, "Is this anything like you were hoping for?"

Ian looked flustered. Sometimes it's one thing to wish for something and fantasize about it but then quite something else when your wish is granted. I would've been willing to bet a lot that Ian had been jerking off all week thinking of me doing exactly what I was doing but now that it was happening. the reality of it was starting sink in. Was he having second thoughts?

He didn't say a word in response and so I took his silence as his way of saying "yes" and unzipped his jeans slowly. The sound of the zipper seemed unnaturally loud in the silence of his expensive car.

Still no response from him so I moved up close to him with my feet still up on the seat and then I reached down inside of his boxer shorts. My fingers encountered the fringe of his pubic hair and I could feel the stiffness of it as I ran my fingers through it. Reaching down further my fingers touched the tip of the head of his cock and then I held the shaft in my hand. I couldn't see anything since my hand was buried down in his underwear but the stiffening of his body told me he could certainly feel what I was doing.

His breathing quickened as he whispered to me, "I don't know Kelly... I don't know if I can really do this."

I gently stroked his cock in my hand the best as I could with the constricting underwear around it. I shushed him softly and licked my lips for him.

"It's OK," I said gently to him, "Just close your eyes and let me do everything."

I pushed his underwear down and let his cock flop out into the open. It wasn't all that bad. I would have to classify it as "average". It was pretty hard now and maybe six inches in length and my hand easily wrapped around the stiff shaft. He was circumcised and the head was swollen and large. Thick black hair surrounded it and I could smell the thick muskiness of his crotch.

Ian put his hand on mine and gave a lackluster attempt to pull my hand away.

"You shouldn't be doing that," he whispered.

As big as he was compared to me, he could have easily stopped me if that was what he really wanted. It was typical of most married men at this stage and I knew the best way to deal with it was to just ignore him and continue on as if he had said nothing.

I lowered my head to his lap and took him into my mouth, quickly taking all of him in until my face was covered with that thick matt of pubic hair. He fit rather easily in my mouth and I twisted my head around him while my tongue played along the fleshy shaft that was in my mouth. Ian groaned as I sucked hard on him and I raised my head up until just the head was in my mouth. I held him there with my lips and let my tongue do the work on his cock head, running around the hole in the tip of it and then around the lower ridge. Finally I let him loose and stroked his wet shaft with my hand as I looked up at him with a naughty grin on my face.

"That feel good?" I asked as my hand slid slowly up and down his wet cock.

Ian looked around as if afraid someone was going to see us. It was a reasonable concern for him since we WERE in the middle of a public parking lot surrounded by cars. Personally I didn't care! There were cars on both sides of us though and unless those particular shoppers happened to return the odds of anyone slipping between the cars were pretty low - as I knew from past experience! He looked down at me and his cheeks bulged as he let out a big breath.

"Oh god, I can't believe we're doing this!" he blustered. "What if someone sees us?"

He was sounding more flustered so before he could stop me I went back down on him and took his cock in my mouth again. Once I had him like that he couldn't do anything to stop me without hurting himself so now he was mine! Despite his outward protests he must have been enjoying it because he reached down and pulled his jeans and boxer shorts down enough to give me full access to his cock and balls.

I gently gathered his hairy balls in my right hand as my mouth continued to play his cock like a concert flute. If there is one thing in my life I think I am as good as anyone, it is sucking cock and Ian was getting one of my best efforts. I'd lost count a long time ago as to how many I have actually sucked but it had to be over two hundred or more. It was far easier for me to count the number of guys I had dated that I had NOT sucked as I could probably do that on one hand!

People have asked me why I love to suck cock so much. I don't know how to explain it other than I just love doing it. Feeling a cock grow and harden in my mouth is something I will never tire of, no matter how many times I'm lucky enough to have it happen. Perhaps part of it has to do with the feeling of having complete control over a man. After all, I had the most tender part of his body in my mouth, able to inflict pain or pleasure as I desired at any moment. It was addicting to say the least.

I love looking at a guy's faces as I suck him, our eyes meeting as he sees his cock between my lips. I know guys love to watch when a girl sucks them and it gets me so wet knowing how much they desire me when they watch me suck them. That just makes it all the hotter for me as most of them never get to fuck me and all they will have for a memory is the look of my mouth moving up and down their hard shaft.

Ian put his right hand on my back and his left on my head as I sucked his cock faster and faster. I still had my jacket on so he moved down until he was holding my ass in his hands through the material of my sweat pants. His fingers on his other hand stoked my hair and I wiggled my butt to let him know I liked it when he touched it. His fingers slipped in between the elastic waist band and I could eel them work their way in until his hand cupped my bare butt. He squeezed my ass gently while small moans began to emerge from his mouth as I felt his cock swelling in preparation for his orgasm.

"Oh god, I'm cumming!" he groaned as I plunged my head down into his crotch, drawing in the heavy odor of his sex and sweat.

His hand pushed my head roughly onto him, keeping his cock buried deep in my mouth as the first eruption of sperm entered my mouth and hit the back of my throat. Again and again he came as he humped his hips upward to drive his cock as deep as he could into my mouth. Some of his cum leaked past my lips and dripped down into his crotch as I tried to swallow it as best as I could.

I kept him in my mouth even after he had finished, softly sucking him as his cock quickly softened and shrank. I could taste the little bits of sperm that would emerge from it as it dwindled and he shuddered sometimes as my tongue ran along the length of it. Finally I let it slip from my lips and I sat up to look at him. I could feel the cum on my chin but I didn't do anything about it for the moment. I grinned at him and licked my lips like I had just had an excellent meal – which for me it was!

Ian looked at me, still breathing hard from his exertions. "That was incredible!" was all he could muster at first. Then after a pause he started to pull his pants back on and said, "Damn, I never dreamed it could feel so good."

I looked at him with a questioning glance. "Doesn't your wife suck you?" I asked.

Ian rolled his eyes as he replied, "Oh, she has a couple of times over the years but only when I have really pushed her and it was obvious she didn't like doing it. She never made me cum and she certainly NEVER made me feel like you just did!"

I smiled at him for the compliment and teased him, "Well, practice makes perfect."

"Well, obviously it wasn't YOUR first time," he said back to me. "Do I dare ask just how much practice you HAVE had?"

I shook my head and let my ponytail fly back and forth like a schoolgirl. "Good girls never tell," I responded in a teasing voice. "And I'm a VERY good girl."

He finished dressing as he buckled his pants and laughed, "Oh you're good alright. It's just that somehow I don't think you're as 'good' of a girl as most people think you are."

I sat back in the seat and pretended to pout before I replied saying, "Well, I guess it depends what you say I'm good at. Now after that are you going to take me shopping or what?"

We both got out of the car on our respective sides. I met him behind the car and hugged him. He didn't hug me back, probably worried about who might be watching. He looked at me and smiled saying, "Ummmmm, you'd better wipe off your face - people might get the wrong idea."

We both laughed as I pulled out a tissue from my purse and wiped off the cum that was drying on my face. I didn't say this to Ian but I was thinking that actually people would've been getting the RIGHT idea!

For the next couple of hours I had a blast. It was every girl's dream come true - open season on the mall. We went from store to store where I would try on clothes and model them for Ian. The spring and summer fashions were out so I tried on all sorts of shorts outfits, camisoles, tank tops, and more than a few bikinis - some of the QUITE revealing. We even hit the VS store and I tried on some sexy lingerie for him.

The store clerks usually thought at first that I was his daughter but after seeing the wolfish look in his eyes as he stared at me in the various outfits I figured they either thought he was a naughty dad or some perverted older guy with a young slut or maybe even an escort. Since most fathers would not be sporting hard-ons when they saw their daughter in a new thong bikini, I assumed that the clerks most likely thought they knew exactly what was going on. Even so, I bet they wouldn't have believed what I had just done to him before in the parking lot - or planned to do later.

We stopped off at the food court for a snack. By then he was carrying a load of shopping bags and I wondered how close to his credit limit he was getting. We weren't exactly shopping at Wal-Mart or Target stores, that was for sure. No clearance racks for me!

The weird thing was that for the entire afternoon he had never touched me although he certainly LOOKED at me a lot - and I did my best to give him as much to look at as possible. Even so I had not bared my boobs or even flashed him a pussy shot. It was the ultimate tease and I wondered when we would get to the next level.

We sat across from each other as I ate my salad and he munched on a burger. If you ignored the age difference, and the fact he was married, we'd were like two teenagers on a first date, neither of us saying directly what was on our minds and sort of dancing around the subject we both were interested in. It was been fun but the memory of how good his cock tasted had been on my mind all day. He must have been thinking along the same lines at times judging from the bulge in his pants when I was trying on some lingerie or a sexy outfit.

"How's your salad?" he asked me, "Sure you don't want something more than that to eat?"

That was the finals straw - I couldn't let THAT opportunity go by so I smiled at him between bites and whispered in a conspiratorial tone, "You know, I would love something more to eat. How about a second helping of cock? I'm starving for some more cum."

Well, it was out there now. Even though I'd sucked his dick back in the car, we hadn't said anything explicit all afternoon. He looked just a bit surprised but yet pleased at the same time. Ian looked around as if afraid someone might had overheard me but there was nobody within ten feet of us. He looked back at me and grinned. "Hmmmmmm, is that ALL you want?"

He was married and I knew that with married men usually needed to be reassured that what they were doing was OK. It wasn't like back when they were single and all that could happen was to be turned down. Ian was considering committing adultery, betraying his wife in the worst way possible. Who could blame him for feeling the need to know that I really DID want to do it with him before he committed himself?

The ball was in my court now, or balls in this case. I leaned forward across the table towards him and looked him straight in the eyes. In a soft voice I slowly said, "That's not all I want Ian." I paused for effect and then continued, "Ian... I want you to fuck me."

The hunger in Ian's eyes betrayed the casualness which he tried to maintain. His cheeks involuntarily flushed and his eyes blinked rapidly as he took in a deep breath. I knew full well the incredible power those words could have over a guy. Nothing else I could have said to a him would have had even half the impact of those simple words, "fuck me". Ian proved to be no exception. I reached forward and took his hand in mine and said in a low voice, "C'mon, let's go somewhere a little more private."

Silently we walked back to his car. Ian put my shopping bags in the trunk and unlocked the doors. At first I was disappointed when he didn't hold the door open for me but then I figured that he had too much on his mind to think of being courteous. When he got in I slid over next to him and leaned against him with my feet tucked up under me on the seat. Once again my hand moved to his crotch and my heart beat raced as I felt the hardness beneath his pants. Ian took my hand and pushed it over to his leg.

"Noooooo, not here Kelly," he said, almost like a father addressing his daughter, "Sorry, I just can't do that again in the middle of a parking lot. That was insane!"

I put my hand back on his crotch again and this time he didn't protest quite as much. "Isn't this what you really want Ian? You weren't expecting to take me on some expensive shopping trip and get just a blowjob, were you?."

Ian's cheeks puffed out as he let out a deep breath. "To be honest Kelly, I never REALLY thought for a moment we would ever have done even THAT!."

He looked a bit confused as I gave him a questioning look myself. "Really," he continued, "I assumed you were just a big tease and we would go out and flirt and stuff like that today. It was just supposed to be some naughty fling, like some R-rate movie - NOT a porn one!"

"So you don't want to fuck me?" I asked, confused now and not certain at all what was happening.

"God Kelly, who wouldn't?" he sighed. "I never dared to even DREAM you would actually want to have sex with someone like me."

He laughed a bit at that and corrected himself, "Well, I have to admit I DID dream of it but I never thought it would come true."

I cuddled up next to him but kept my hand planted firmly on his crotch. I rubbed it gently and looked up at him. He wanted me, I knew it deep down. He wouldn't even be discussing it with me if he didn't. If I let it go now, Ian would probably regret it for the rest of his life, Every time he was frustrated by his wife's lack of sex drive he would remember how he had the chance to fuck a slutty college girl and turned her down.

It may sound a bit like twisted logic but bear me out and listen. Ian's marriage as obviously in deep trouble so fucking me or not wasn't going to make it any worse than it already was. However, maybe if he DID fuck me, maybe if he had the chance to love out his fantasy, maybe then it would give him something to feel good about. Maybe it would be something for him to remember fondly while he masturbated when his wife went to bed without having sex. If I dropped this now and they split up later, would I be partly to blame for not helping him now when I had the chance?

"Tell me Ian, don't you desire me more than your wife? Wouldn't you rather fuck me instead of her?"

He didn't answer right away but I could see he was thinking hard about something!

"It's OK Ian, you can tell me," I whispered to him in a soothing tone, "It's only natural for you to want me more than her. After all, she can't please you the way I can. She would never do the things that I'll let you do to me. She would never say the things I'll say to you."

Ian was breathing heavy now. "Damn you Kelly, you're a piece of work. Just tell me one thing. What turns you on more - me fucking you or Nancy's husband fucking you?"

I had to say one thing for Ian, he was sharp! Most men were so caught up with themselves and their own desires they never understood why I would want an older guy no longer in the best of shape to fuck me when I could have literally any man I wanted. Ian had me pegged. He was right - I DID want to fuck Nancy's husband. I wanted him to desire me so badly that he would break his sacred wedding vows - vows he had kept for so many years.

I knew full well that almost any man would fuck me given the chance, that's just nature and hormones at work. For Ian to do me meant a lot more as he had so much to lose. I wouldn't just be another notch on his belt - instead he would be one on MINE! It was even better than taking a guy's virginity as instead I was taking his vows from him. Never again would he be able to look his wife in the eyes and say he loved her and never cheated on her without knowing he was lying. Never again would he make love to his wife without thoughts of fucking me always being there in the background.

I loved being fucked by men like Ian because I knew that they were willing to give up a lifetime of faithfulness and fidelity just for the opportunity to be alone with ME for a few hours. Now if that's not enough to make a girl feel good about herself, to make her feel as sexy as possible, then I don't know what can.

So anyway... I couldn't tell Ian all this so I just smiled and said what I knew he wanted to hear, even if it wasn't 100% true.

"Oh Ian, how can you say that?" I pouted although I didn't deny what he had said. "It's you I want. It's you I want to take me and do whatever you want with."

Ian was silent for a while, thinking hard about something. I stayed quiet, letting him sort things out for himself. Finally he started the car with a purpose - maybe some sort of plan?

"Don't worry Kelly, you'll get what you want," he said as he backed out of the slot. Before he put it in drive he looked at me and shook his head with a smile finally back on his face. "Just not in a damn parking lot!"

6. Adultery in a Hotel Room

Without another word Ian drove out of the mall lot and down the road where I saw there was a hotel. Hmmmmmm, it had been quite a while since I was fucked alone in a hotel room. Without another word he parked outside the entrance and motioned for me to stay in the car while he checked in.

I sat there in the front seat all alone, waiting for him. My pussy tingled with anticipation and I had to put my hand inside my sweatpants to touch it. My finger touched my clit and I almost jumped out of the seat. God I was horny! It seemed like it had been days since I had given him that blowjob and all the teasing I had been doing for the past few hours had made me as hot and horny as it did him. I closed my eyes and my head leaned back as I rubbed my clit faster. I was using two fingers, each sliding long one side of my wet clit.

I was starting to really get into it when suddenly the driver door opened and Ian quickly sat down behind the steering wheel. He looked at me and then down to my lap where my hand had disappeared inside my sweatpants.

"Damn it Kelly! There are people all over the place," he exclaimed, "What if someone had seen you?"

I didn't stop but instead looked up at him and smiled saying, "Mmmmmmm, a girl's got to do what a girl's got to do."

He waved a room card at me and chuckled, "Well try to hang in there a few more minutes miss horny."

Ian pulled into a parking space and started to lead me back into the hotel when I held back and pointed to the trunk of his car. He looked at me with questioning eyes.

I grinned and said, "Well, you bought me all these outfits, I thought you might want to see me wearing one of them."

Ian's eyebrows rose and then he nodded and opened the trunk. I dug through the bags and found what I was looking for. After he closed the trunk, we headed back to the hotel entrance. We passed by the front desk where a middle-aged woman was working. Seeing me with him I bet she was wondered why he didn't book two rooms - one for him and another for his daughter. The disapproving look on her face told everything - she had quickly sized up the situation and knew what was going on! I looked at her and gave her a smile which just made the frown in her face even harder. Oh well, who cares about the old bitch?

We got in the elevator and Ian punched the floor number. It was only one floor up so there was no time for fooling around. The room was directly across from the elevator so next thing I knew we were inside. Ian turned on the entry light but left the rest of the room darkened although the overhead light was bright enough to light up the rest of the room well enough to see clearly.

Looking around, I turned on the bathroom light and turned back to him as I closed the door and said, "Have a seat while I change."

Ian smiled and I closed the door behind me. Standing alone in the bathroom I looked in the mirror and took in a deep breath, releasing it slowly. I quickly slipped out of my clothes, folding them and placing them in a stack on the sink counter top.

Looking again in the mirror, I turned and checked out my nude body. Without being too egotistical, I thought I looked pretty hot and I could imagine Ian sitting out in the room wishing he could see me like this. I smiled to myself as I thought about just how many guys would like to as well. I couldn't begin to count the number of guys at the mall today who were mentally undressing me as I walked by.

Reaching into the bag I pulled out the outfit I'd selected. It was the perfect "little black dress" that every girl wants except it was white. It was made of the lightest sheer material and I could barely feel the weight of it. It was simple - no frills or anything, just solid white with spaghetti straps and so low cut it barely covered my nipples. It fit snugly to my body, clinging to me like a magnet to steel. It was just long enough to cover my ass but not much more and fit tightly around the upper part of my legs to hold it tight and down.

There was no way I could wear a bra or panties with it without spoiling the lines and besides, why would I want to? I looked again into the mirror and was amazed at how much a simple piece of fabric could transform a person! As I checked myself out my eyes narrowed on my hair - a ponytail just didn't cut it with a dress like this. I pulled out the elastic band holding it in place and let my hair fall down over my shoulders. I leaned forward and let my hair fall in front of me and then threw my head back to fluff up my hair. I didn't have much to work with other than a small brush in my purse but I didn't think he would care a whole lot about my hair styling.

Unfortunately, I realized I had forgotten an essential part of my outfit. I didn't have any heels that would have finished off the outfit - they were still outside in the trunk. My sneakers clashed horribly so I decided to just stay barefoot. I put my hand on the door handle and took in a deep breath. "Well, here goes nothing!" I thought to myself.

I stepped out into the room. Looking around I saw Ian was sitting on the edge of the bed., his hands in his lap. Hearing me leave the bathroom, his head turned and I saw a smile grow on his face as he took in the sight of me. I stood a few feet away from him and twirled around to show off the dress.

"Mmmmmmm," he murmured his approval, "that is one sexy dress!" Then he chuckled saying, "Damn, I still can't believe a dress so small could cost so much!?"

I moved up closer to him and pressed my way between his legs which he spread apart for me. Taking his hands, I pulled them behind me and place them on my ass. There was just the light dress material between his hands and my bare butt.

I put my arms around his neck and leaned forward to whisper in his ear, "It's up to you now Ian... I'm yours... whatever you want you can have... ANYTHING."

Fortunately he took the hint and went back to rubbing my butt. Then he reached down further and pushed a finger from his other hand into my pussy along with the one from his first. Mmmmmmm, it felt good to feel the two fingers working their way around inside of me. The palm of his hand was pressed up against my clit and he rubbed it around as he played with my pussy. God it felt so good!

I reached up to my shoulders and pushed the thin straps aside and then pulled down the top of my dress to expose my breasts to him. I leaned forward until they were up to his face. My hands went behind his head and I pulled his face into me until my boobs were on each side of his nose.

"Suck my tits," I told him, "Make my nipples hard."

Well, my nipples were already pretty well stimulated just by the action of his fingers in my pussy but a little sucking never hurt! Ian took my right breast in his mouth, pulling as much of it as he could inside and then releasing it. His tongue played over my nipple, running circles around it and then licking my breast all over. I cupped my boobs with my hands and gently massaged them as he went from one to the other, licking and sucking each.

I loved the feel of his fingers in me but I wanted the real thing by now so I pushed him back onto the bed until he was lying flat on top of it. Still standing between his legs, I undid his belt and jeans and unzipped them all the way down. He helped me pull them down along with his boxer shorts and I pulled them off along with his shoes and socks, placing them on the bed beside us.

I stood up and gazed at him. Ian was now naked from the waist down with just a shirt on. His cock was stiff and curved such that instead of standing up straight in the air it was actually pointed directly at his face! I kneeled on the floor which put my face right in the center of his legs, his cock just inches from me.

I could smell the musky odor of his crotch as I reached out to hold him in my hand. I pulled it back to un upright position and lowered my mouth down over it, taking it in inch by inch until finally I had all of him I my mouth. His cock was pressing against the back of my throat as my face was covered with his thick coarse pubic hair. Mmmmmmm, I loved the odor of him, the strong male aroma generated by his lust combined with sweat.

Having already blown him once today, my objective now was to make sure he was good and hard and a bit slippery with my saliva to make it easier for him to fuck me. Mission accomplished, I stood up and lifted my dress up so I could climb up on the bed and straddle his waist. I held my dress up with one hand while I reached between my legs to grab his swollen cock with the other. Positioning myself directly over it, I lowered myself down until the head was just lightly pressing against my pussy.

"You ready?" I said with a slutty smile on my face.

Ian had pulled a pillow down from the top of the bed and was using it to raise his head so he could watch me suck him and now he could see his cock under me, just waiting for me to lower myself onto it.

"Do it!" was all he said.

Well, I wasn't going to wait for him to compose a speech so I held his shaft while my wet pussy pressed down on him. I felt my pussy lips part as his head penetrated me. I was soaking wet from him playing with me and he slid easily up inside of me as I lowered myself further until my butt was resting on his crutch. Mmmmmmm, he was in me now, fucking me.

It felt so good knowing I finally had it in me. Yes, he was MINE now! Never again would he be just his wife's lover, never again could he claim to be pure and loyal to his wife. Instead, I would always have a piece of him she could never get back. Whenever he was in bed with her, he would remember this moment, the first moment he fucked a woman other than his wife.

I leaned forward and he raised his head to suck my breasts again. As I did his cock slipped from me slightly and so I started to rock back and forth, slowly at first so he could suck my boobs. I could feel his thick shaft moving in and out of me as I set the rhythm. I like to start out on top at the beginning so I can control the depth and rate of his cock stroking in and out of my pussy. I sat back up and put my full weight on him as I ground my ass into his hairy crotch. His pubic hair felt like a stiff hair brush against my bare bottom.

I wanted him to fuck me harder so I got up on my feet instead of my knees and started to literally bounce up and down on his cock! I could see he was watching his cock as it appeared and then disappeared from view as he first pulled out and then penetrated me again, forcing him to move deep inside of me until it felt like he was up in my stomach.

Evidently Ian must have felt it was time for him to become the aggressor and so he grabbed my legs and said, "Alright," he commanded me, "get on all fours in the middle of the bed."

I lifted myself off of him and did as he ordered. He then pulled off his shirt and moved in behind me. Kneeling down he spread my ass apart with his hands and I felt his face against my butt as he licked me. Although I don't like my ass penetrated, I LOVE it to be licked and I was pleased to feel his tongue running circles around my asshole and then playfully push into it just a bit. My ass is really tight though and without being able to use his finger all he could really do was play around at the opening with his tongue.

I moaned as chills ran through me when his tongue went lower and lapped up the wetness of my pussy. His tongue pushed aside my swollen pussy lips and penetrated me. I could only imagine how good I tasted to him. Of all the pussies I've licked, I like the taste of mine the best. Of course I might be a little biased but I'm sure anyone would forgive me!

After eating my cunt for a while I was close to my first "O" and so it was a bit disconcerting when he stopped licking me but he quickly made up for it. I could feel his cock on top of my ass, then running down though my ass crack, flirting briefly with my asshole and then nestling in between my wet pussy lips. He rubbed it up and down, getting it nice and wet and making me feel intense at the same time. God I wanted him back inside of me so bad!

Obviously he had the same thoughts because it was then that I felt his cock breach my pussy once again. He quickly thrust himself into me from behind and I felt his crotch slap up against my bare ass. Ian almost knocked me off my hands and feet he was banging me so hard! Just as he was getting me going again and I was about to cum the craziest thing happened - a cell phone started to ring! It was in his pants right next to us and I saw the look on his face.

"Damn!" he said, "I HAVE to take that. It's the ring for home and if I don't answer they'll wonder where I am!"

He reached over but I was glad that he somehow managed to remain inside of me. He answered the damn phone and it must have been Annie from the way he was talking to her. Evidently Nancy wanted him to pick something up at the store and she had been delegated to call him.

This wasn't the first time a husband had been on his cell phone while he fucked me. When I was escorting, I had a guy cum in me while he was telling his clueless wife how much he loved her. God I came SO hard that time!

This time was unique in that he was talking to his daughter instead of his wife. If little Annie could only see me and her father now! If she thought a few innocent instant messages were bad, what would she say if she saw dear old dad screwing the church girl?

Ian finally ended the conversation with a goodbye, telling Annie that he loved her. That was all I needed to hear as he started to stroke his cock in and out of me again. My pussy exploded as my first orgasm struck and the initial wave of intense pleasure made me drop to my elbows and gasp for air. My eye rolled back in my head as my pussy felt like it was on fire - a fire that quickly spread up and down me until I was consumed from my toes to the outermost strand of hair

A loud moan escaped from me as my vision narrowed and everything seemed somehow less real, more remote. The room seemed to move in front of me as wave after wave of powerful feelings flooded me, emanating from my pussy as if his cock was filling me with each thrust.

Each time his cock pulled out it was like he was reloading and then when he rammed it back into me to the hilt it was as if it pumped another load of sheer bliss into my cunt which then broadcast it to the rest of me. My breasts tingled and I could feel my nipples stiffen even more as I fought to breath. Ian could obviously tell I was cumming and if anything he just pumped me harder with his wonderful cock.

"That's it Kelly, cum for me," he said in a halting manner between thrusts.

Just as it seemed my orgasm had peaked and was starting to decline he reached around and touched my clit, rubbing it between two fingers. I moaned again as like a roller coaster that had made its first dive and then was slowing up for the next hill, my orgasm took off down the hill again and my pussy clamped down tight on his cock, squeezing him as it tried to hold him inside of me.

"God damn Kelly!" he cried out, "What the hell are you doing, trying to flatten my dick?"

He moaned as he tried to move his cock in me but my pussy had a hard grip on him. The peak only lasted a short while though and soon my pussy released his cock and he resumed fucking me with it. My face felt like it was flushed beet red and I would have sworn that there were goose pimples on every square inch of me.

I rested my head on the pillow in front of me as I regained my breath while my pussy just throbbed. Ian pulled out of me and literally flipped me over like a pancake on a griddle. He grabbed one of the pillows and pushed it under my ass so my pussy was better exposed and elevated a few inches up off the bed.

I looked up at him, kneeling in between my wide-spread legs, gently stroking his own cock while he gazed at my open pussy. I imagined it looked pretty wet and swollen by now, probably a nice open pussy hole just waiting for his cock to fill it back up again.

"God... you're so fucking beautiful," he said hoarsely, staring at me and taking me in from my breasts to my crotch.

"Don't stop, keep fucking me Ian," I said to him gently, "I want you to fuck me and cum in me."

A strange look suddenly came to his face and I wondered what I'd said that was so wrong.

"God I want to," he moaned, "Can you believe it - I don't have a condom."

I smiled and just shook my head at him. "Doesn't matter to me," I replied, "I wouldn't let you use it anyway. Last thing I want is something stopping me from feeling your cum in me!"

Ian didn't seem to sure so I added in, "Beside, I've been on the pill for years - and I'm faithful about it!"

Ian shrugged his shoulders - as horny as he was he didn't need much to convince him I guess! He leaned over me and I guided his cock back into me. It slid easily into me like it was buttered after all the fucking and cumming so far. He put his hands on each side of me and leaned over me as he pumped his cock in and out of me.

"Oh Ian, I love the way you fuck me," I moaned, "Tell me how much more you like to fuck me than Nancy... Tell me you want me more than her."

"Oh god, you're so bad!" he cried out, "Fuck it though - I DO love fucking you more than her. Lord help me for saying this but yes, I want you so much more than her - God, she was NEVER like this."

"Cum in me Ian," I said softly but firmly, "I want your sperm in me... mate me Ian, make me your slut."

"Oh yea, you're a slut alright," he panted, "dirty little nasty church girl slut... so prim and proper... so nasty and naughty for real."

He was pumping even faster now and from the gasping and speed of his strokes I knew he had to be close.

"Here it is slut... take my cum."

Ian slammed into me and then held himself still, his cock as deep into me as he could drive it. I felt it swelling as then it exploded, a hot stream of cum shooting into me."

"Oh yeah," I cried out, "More... more... cum in me more."

Ian didn't need me to say anything, he was pumping me full of hot sperm like he hadn't cum n ages. It was only a few hours since I sucked him off so it was remarkable a guy his age could have built up such a load so quickly! He must have pumped six or more solid shots into me and then he held himself in me again, his cock throbbing and then pulsing to shoot a small round into me. His load spent, Ian fell down to his elbows but kept most of his weight off of me as I relaxed my legs and let them fall flat to the bed. We were both exhausted and I would've loved to have fallen sleep just this way, with him inside of me and maybe even waking me later by fucking me in my sleep.

That wasn't to be though, we had to be getting back before his wife and family started getting suspicious. I don't know if it was five minutes or thirty as I lay there in a sexual stupor but eventually he pulled out of me and got up and off the bed. I could feel his cum mixed with mine as it drained out of my pussy and down my ass crack until it soaked the pillow under my butt. I reached down between my legs and scooped sum up with my fingers and then licked it off. Ian was starting to get dressed but he stopped to watch me as I licked every drop from my fingers.

"You are so incredibly sexy," he said, shaking his heads in amazement at me. "Nancy would NEVER do anything like that."

"Mmmmmmm, tastes good," I said with a sultry voice, "You should try some!"

He laughed at that saying, "Naaaa, I think I'll take a pass on that one."

We both cracked up at that but still I wondered why most guys acted like they were allergic to their own cum. I loved tasting my pussy so why don't guys like their own cum? Another mystery of the universe I guess! Oh well, at least I liked mine!

Ian looked nervously at the clock by the bed. "C'mon Kelly," he urged, "We've been out a lot longer than I said I would be and I have to be getting home before someone starts asking questions."

I huffed but got out of bed. I threw back on my sweat pants and top and tried to fold my dress up nicely to get it back home in one piece. I checked it over for cum though - no Monicas here! I would have liked to take a shower but Ian was in a hurry. Hell, if anyone needed one he did. If Nancy was like most women she would smell my pussy on him from a mile away! Oh well, that was his problem to deal with I guess.

Ian left the door key card in the room and used the express checkout on the TV so all we had to do was go straight past the desk and out to his car. He held my door open for me and then got it behind the wheel. He started to put the key in but then paused and looked over at me.

"You know, looking at you as you are now I would never have guessed such a slut lived underneath that polished veneer," he said with a disarming smile. I just grinned at him and gave him a "who me?" kind of look.

"Sorry girl, that look will never fool me again!" he said with a laugh. "I KNOW what you are now."

We both laughed and made the trip back home with relatively little more to say. I think we were both thinking about the events of the past few hours. My pussy was still sensitive from the great fucking he had given me and now then it sort of tingled and a little jolt would run up and down my back when he hit a bump and my outfit rubbed against it just right.

Ian was pretty quiet the trip back, I would have given anything to know what he was thinking. Was he happy, feeling guilty, or what? It didn't really matter to me, he would never fuck me again as that would break one of my cardinal rules - never fuck a married man twice.

I had no doubt Ian would ask me. They all did. It would be enough for me to just say hi to his wife and Annie, knowing what their husband and father had done to me. They wouldn't have any idea why I was smiling but it still thrilled me to imagine that maybe she suspected but wasn't quite sure enough to say anything.

Needless to say, my inquisitive roomie was more than a little curious about my shipping trip. She looked at all my expensive bags and then her eyes bugged out when she saw the price tags. I don't think she bought my "daddy sent me money" excuse for even a second but as always, she was discreet and left it up to me to ever tell her the truth.

In the meantime, I got a great new wardrobe and to make it even better, it was all free - AND I'd gotten myself fucked wonderfully to boot! Now THAT is what I call shopping for sex!

(Mar 26) Chapter 113: Spring Break Finale

Story codes: MF oral inc father daughter
Greg - boyfriend (24)

It was the last day of a great Spring Break. Although it was hard to leave home, I got a great sendoff - definitely a day for the diary! It started with a great wakeup call and then off to church where I was reunited with an old friend - in more ways than one!

1. Good Morning Daddy!

When I finally went to bed Saturday night I was exhausted. What a week! After arriving home the previous Friday night for Spring break I spent the weekend with my family making up for some lost time. Then I decided to take my cousin up on her offer to join her and some friends for a few days at Nags Head at the OBX. My cousin has always had a wilder streak in her than me and her friends fit right in with her. They may have all be a couple years younger than me but I was the one who learned a few things!

Returning home late Friday night I was greeted by my horny father. I have never refused my father and this was not going to be a first time so despite being tired from the long trip home I took care of his needs before finally getting to bed. Then on Saturday instead of sleeping in my friends dragged me off shopping and that afternoon my cousin Rick stopped by. He had told his mom he needed to "help around the house" and I wonder what she would have said if he said the truth - that he was going over to fuck the daylights out of his older cousin! My dad had to work all day but when he got home the bulge in his pants was a clear sign of what he wanted so you can imagine how the evening went from there!

Well, after all that you can see why I was sleeping so soundly the next Sunday morning. My alarm was set so I could get to church on time but in the meantime I was practically unconscious! I remember having some vague dreams but have no idea what they were. I can only remember waking up feeling something warm and Unlike some girls, I have always found it easy to reach an orgasm. I think it's more your state of mind than anything and as I was totally comfortable with my body and sexuality I think it definitely made it easier for me to achieve a climax. Even so, when I was with my dad it seemed almost effortless. He could make me cum just by playing with my hair and running his hand between my legs.

This morning was no exception as not long after he started rubbing my hardened clit I could feel my pussy surging. I groaned more loudly as I felt the feeling grow and expand, spreading outwards through the rest of my body. Goose bumps rose as every inch of my skin tingled and then felt like it was on fire as my orgasm suddenly ignited. My pussy felt like it was gushing a stream of cum as I stiffened and reached down to hold his hand tightly against me.

"Oh my god daddy!" I cried, "Oh yea, that's it, you know how to make me cum soooooo good."

He was relentless, driving me to a peak and holding me there. He knew me so well, how my body reacted when I came and he knew how to interpret my movements and sounds. If he pushed too hard I was orgasm so hard it was like an explosion - fast and furious but quickly over. Too slow and it would fade before its time. My dad's fingers played my pussy like a fine violin, like a concert musician rising and falling with the score, keeping me on that knife edge of pleasure that blocked out everything except the feelings he was creating in me.

Finally I felt it slowly dying and he allowed me to collapse, dropping my leg and shuddering each time he would tease my throbbing cunt by letting his finger lightly rub against it. I was breathing heavily as if I had just run a race and he turned my over on my back and leaned over me. I finally opened my eyes for the first time and looked at his face. He was smiling at me and then he lowered his head to kiss me. I felt my boobs press against his chest as his tongue reached out into my mouth, running along my gums and toying with my tongue. We kissed passionately for the longest time as he put one leg over mine and pressed his crotch against my leg. His cock felt so hard against me!

Finally our lips parted and he stroked my hair softly as he gazed lovingly at me and said. "Oh Kelly, you're such a wonderful daughter. How could I ever deserve a girl like you?"

I smiled back at him, the warmth of my orgasm still running throughout me. I reached down between us and held his cock in my hand. I could feel the blood

Finally he had delivered all he could and he moved my legs down to the bed and fell forward onto his elbows just over me. His cock was still in me and I could feel it pulsing and twitching.

"Stay in me daddy," I whispered softly to him, my voice thick with sex. "Stay inside of me... I love being joined together with you like this."

My dad kissed my neck softly and murmured, "Yes Kelly, anything you want."

We laid like that for what seemed like an hour but was probably only ten to fifteen minutes. We kissed and nuzzled each other, sharing a bond that can only exist between a father and daughter. Our bodies were joined together as intimately as a man and woman can be and I felt so secure with my father inside of me.

Unfortunately my alarm clock was still set and the buzzing broke the moment. Looking at the time we both realized we need to get going if we were going to make it to church on time. My dad kissed me and slipped his now softened cock from my pussy. For an instant I felt an incredible loss, as if something was missing from me and now I was incomplete. My hand reached down to cover my now lonely pussy and I looked hungrily at my dad.

"That's my Kelly," he laughed softly, "Never satisfied. God help your husband someday because I don't know how the poor guy is going to survive with your needs."

2. An Old Boyfriend Reappears

With that he left and I took the opportunity to head into the bathroom. I suddenly had to piss like crazy and although my mom was in there doing her hair I sat down and quickly relieved myself. My mom looked down from holding her hairbrush and curling iron to smile at me.

"Well, did you two have a good time this morning?" she asked with a foxy smile.

"Oh mom!" I sighed. My dad did me every morning when I was home and every morning she asked the same silly question as if she didn't already know the answer.

"Well, when he woke up this morning he was horny as hell so I figured you would be getting it good this morning," she chuckled.

She finished up and left me to shower and clean up. I passed my dad as I left the bathroom and I grabbed his cock playfully as we tuned to let each other by in the doorway.

"Hey now," he laughed, "Get your hot little ass ready for church."

I giggled and ran into my room. The weather has sucked lately and as much as I wanted to wear something sexy and short I really didn't feel like freezing either so I compromised. I picked out one of my favorite "peasant girl" dresses - this kind with shoulders you can either wear up or let them slide down with a pleated bosom and long flowing skirt. At church I wore it with the shoulders up but outside of there I loved to wear them on my upper arms which made my boobs look better. As long as it was I would just wear some knee-high hose and heels.

That was it. I would be damned if I was going to wear a bra and panties to church today as horny as I was. I always felt a little thrill whenever I was walking into church with nothing underneath. Most people probably didn't have a clue but I knew there were more than a few boys- and men, that knew me well enough to know I was naked underneath. I guess it would be appropriate since I was in church to say I also knew them biblically!

I left my hair loose and flowing over my shoulders and put on just a touch of makeup to hide a few minor blemishes. I got on-line to check my mail. My computer is set up to log into yahoo automatically and as usual I had a host of messages waiting for me. I almost always stay invisible since the moment I go "available" my screen is covered with IM windows of people wanting to chat with me. Normally I look at who left me a message and I try to respond to as many as I can. As usual, I ended up chatting with a few guys but with church coming up I had to end the conversations pretty quickly.

My mom called for me from the first floor where I headed down to find my parents with coats on, waiting impatiently for me.

"How come the only time we are late to church is when you are home Kelly?" my mom teased me.

I looked at my dad and gave him a wink before replied, "Maybe it has something to do with Dad?" I said with a smirk.

They both laughed and my dad kissed my mom. We started to go downstairs when my dad turned around and moved behind me.

"Pre-church inspection," he announced as he lifted my skirt. "Hmmmmmm, just as I suspected. Now just what does my little slut of a daughter have in mind for church this morning?"

"Daddy!!!" I protested as I pulled my skirt back down. "It never hurts to be prepared," I said with a pout.

Both my parents just shook their heads as we got in my dad's SUV and headed to church. Upon arriving we said hello to the usual folks and headed for the basement where they served coffee and donuts before the service. I hung my coat up and felt a twinge in my pussy as I noticed a number of the guys taking an extra look at me. I pretended not to notice but I had sucked more than a few of them and fucked a couple so I could imagine what was going through their heads at the moment.

As we waited in line I heard a voice from behind me.

"Kelly?!" someone called to me, "Is that you?"

I turned and there was Greg, one of the guys I use to date in high school. I hadn't seen him in ages and apparently he was now going to our church as this was the first time I had seen him there. Greg came up to me and smiled saying, "Wow, you have really changed since high school!"

Well, a couple of bra cup sizes didn't hurt and my face and figure had become more, well, womanized than teenager so I guess he was right. I could imagine what else he as wondering had changed as well. Greg and I had gone out a few times when we were in high school but other than the usual blowjob I gave every guy I dated back then, I never had let him touch me, let alone fuck me. He got to see my pussy when I masturbated while I sucked him but I didn't let him touch it. That was true actually with most of the guys I dated.

Greg had been OK back then but nothing to write home about. He was a bit nerdy and although he had a nice cock, I wasn't interested in letting him have more of me. Well, I wasn't the only one to have changed! Mr. Geek was now Mr. Hunk. The glasses were gone and he had a fine ass that his trousers couldn't hide. He was a lot taller now and hovered high over me. He had a pretty nice cock back then and my eyes involuntarily drifted to his crotch where I wondered what he was now packing under those pants. I felt just a brief moment of embarrassment when he apparently realized where my attention had wandered to.

"Well, I see you haven't changed completely," he laughed. "Still teasing all the boys? Oh wait, that's right, I heard you're going to some straight religious college. Wow, that must have been a change for you!"

If nothing else, he was a lot more forward than the shy kid I had dated four years before! If he hadn't been so gorgeous I probably would have slapped him! As horny as I was this morning though all I could think about was how his cock would taste now. I always had a feeling that given a chance I wouldn't be turning him down this time either! I picked up some orange juice and we drifted away from the crowds.

"So you're pretty bold these days," I said to him to open the conversation.

"Yea, I'm not the shy geek anymore I guess you could say," he replied with a smile. "Besides, from what I remember you never seemed to mind a guy talking to you like that."

He was right of course. I have always loved it when guys were open and direct with me. Even when I chat on-line I love hearing guys tell me how much they want to fuck me. I hated playing silly games - why not just tell one another what you wanted? As that thought crossed my mind I realized I wasn't listening to my own advice. I knew what I wanted yet here I was playing footsie with this guy like two little teenagers. Well, the hell with that!

I gave Greg a patented Kelly slutty grin and said, "So tell me Rick, has your cock grown up as much as the rest of you?"

Greg actually blushed a bit at that one which I thought was rather cute. I guess he wasn't accustomed to a girl being quite so direct with him. Well, we didn't have much time so either it was get to the point or head upstairs for the service. Greg looked around nervously and hesitated so I pushed up the ante a little more.

"Well, am I going to find out or not?" I said with a sly grin. "Besides, I believe you didn't get everything you wanted our last time together and I want to make that up to you."

Well, I didn't exactly come right out and say I wanted him to fuck me but how much more blatant could I get? If he didn't take the ball now and run with it I would just say the hell with it and get up to join my parents. I wasn't worried about them as they had seen me move away with Greg and I knew that if I didn't show up they would understand why.

"Here?" Greg asked with his voice just a little bit higher than it had been. "I mean, in church?"

"Why not?" I said with a little laugh, "beats listening to a boring sermon."

"Oh?" he asked with a smile, "and I guess you know that from past experience?"

I just smiled at him flirtatiously and waited for him to make the next move. He took a deep breath and I knew his little head was now doing all the thinking!

"Well, since you're the expert, where?" he asked.

3. Greg Fucks Me in Church

I took Greg by the hand and led him out of the room. Out in the hallway there was a door that led to the maintenance room which I knew from past experience would be empty during the service. As we entered the room I smiled - a lot of memories in here! He closed the door and locked it behind us. Better to have someone question why it was locked than catch us!

The custodian kept a little living area there for him to relax in with an old couch, chair and even a TV set. It wasn't much but it was clean and what more could I ask for? We moved over to the couch ad he stood close to me. He started to reach out and I knew he wanted to kiss me but I wasn't here for romance - I wanted him to fuck me!

I pulled my head back without being too mean about it and smiled at him. My hand moved between his legs and I pulled it upwards to grasp his crotch. I could feel his balls and cock under the loose thin fabric of his pants and was pleased to see he was already well on his way to a nice erection.

"THIS is what I want," I said firmly, "Strip for me - now."

Greg's eyes widened but the little head was still in charge and he did what I asked. He unbuttoned his shirt and removed it, placing it over the chair back. Mmmmmmm, he had indeed grown up! His chest was well built and there wasn't an ounce of fat on that stomach. The belt was unbuckled next and he quickly removed his pants along with his shoe and socks at the same time. He stood there in front of my in his jockey shorts and I just shook my head at him.

"ALL of it!" I commanded him. I grinned and slipped his underwear off. He had to pull the waistband out a bit to clear his cock which was now in full raging hard-on mode. And when he pulled them off his cock flipped out and pointed to the sky like a dagger. God it looked even better than I had remembered!

"Sit down on the couch," I told him and he dropped down as I stood between his legs and kneeled in front of him. I reached forward and grabbed his stiff member. My hand barely fit around it! He wasn't the longest cock I had had by any means but it was nice and thick which I prefer over length any day. He was circumcised and the head looked positively delicious. I slowly stroked him in my hand and looked up at his eyes.

"Do you want me to suck your cock, Greg?" I asked in a slutty voice.

Greg was breathing pretty heavy already and his cock was so hard I thought it might burst. He licked his lips before he answered and took in a deep breath.

"Oh god yes, Kelly," he said softly, "I have jerked off a thousand times dreaming of the last time you blew me."

Now THAT was a nice compliment! I was quite proud of my oral skills and many a guy who claimed he had never cum from a girl sucking him found out just how good I was. Every cock I sucked was different and I loved trying new ones whenever I could. Greg's was going to be treat, I could tell that already.

I looked at his cock and licked my lips in anticipation. With one hand I gently stroked it while with the other first I just ran my fingers through the thick bush of pubic hair that surrounded it. Considering he was almost hairless over the rest of his body he had an incredible mass of hair in his crotch. It was if the hair from everywhere else had been transplanted between his legs!

I loved the coarse feeling of the curly hair between my gingers and the way it ran through them. I moved my hand down to gently hold his balls, rolling them gently against one another. They were covered with thick hair as well and hung low from his body.

I looked up at him one more time and then at his cock as I leaned forward and gently ran my tongue from the base up the back of it to the very tip of his swollen head. I repeated this several times, wetting his cock and making it easier to stroke with my hand. My lips softly kissed the tip of his cock and then I took just enough into my mouth to be able to hold it and run my tongue along it.

God he smelled so good! I love the musky smell of a man's crotch, especially when he is getting horny and the sex seems to ooze like from his pores like strong perfume. My tongue ran around the base of his head, under the lip that surrounded it and then ticking it where it forms a little "V".

Then slowly, oh so slowly, I started to take him in my mouth more and more in one complete motion. It was so thick I had to open my mouth wide to take him but fortunately he wasn't too long to make it impossible to take him all in. Finally just as his cock was pushing against the back of my throat I met the base and felt his thatch of hair tickle my cheeks and nose.

"Oh... my... God!" Greg groaned as I twisted my head around his cock which was now completely engulfed by my mouth. "Damn Kelly, how do you DO that?"

It was a rhetorical question but if I could have answered him I would have smiled and just said, "practice", which was the truth actually. I have been fucked by over a hundred cocks but have sucked a hell of a lot more. I guess it's only natural when you combine experience with something you love doing that you should get pretty good at it after a while! Besides, I had two of the best teachers a girl could ask for - my mom and dad!

I needed to breath so I pulled my head up until he was barely in my mouth. I like to think of sucking a cock as almost a reverse fucking. I just imagine my mouth as a vagina and do to his cock what my pussy does when he fucks me. My theory is a pussy is the natural home for a cock so anything it does has to be good so if I can mimic that with my mouth then the results should be a great blowjob.

Well, all I can say is so far nobody has disputed my theory! There is also the fact that I can do things with my mouth my pussy can only dream of plus my tongue plays a major role as well. Sucking cock is one of my favorite things to do. It's really not like having sex - Clinton was just being more honest than most people will admit. Sex involves a cock and a pussy. If either is missing you can't really call it sex. Sucking a guy's cock is more like him playing with my hair than fucking me. If nothing else, it's FUN!

I also have to admit there is a little bit of power in that when I blow a guy I feel totally in control of him. A lot of guys seem to think that when they tell a girl to suck their cock they are being dominant. Well, if it makes them feel good to think that then I won't burst their bubble but face it, who is dominant when I have it between my teeth? If you have any doubt over the dominance factor, just ask yourself why is it that a guy will do almost anything for me if he thinks there is even the most remote chance I'll suck him?

I rest my case!

I alternated between stroking his cock in and out of my mouth with running my lips and tongue up and down the sides of it along with just sucking on it like a popsicle. Finally I could tell he was getting ready to cum - his breath was coming faster and faster and the groans were getting louder. I put my hands around him and held his ass as I stroked his cock in and out no-handed. I looked up at him as I did and he was staring at me, his face looking like he was almost in pain with the pleasure I was giving him.

"I want to cum in your mouth," he whispered hoarsely.

I didn't answer because my mouth was full of cock but he got the message as I stroked his cock even faster with my mouth. I didn't take my eyes off of him as I wanted to see his face when he came. It wasn't much longer before he did as suddenly I felt his cock swell just a fraction more and his hips lifted involuntarily upward. A long moan escaped from his mouth as his eyes rolled back and his cock erupted with cum. I only had an inch or so in my mouth so it squirted against the back of my mouth and collected on my tongue.

Mmmmmmm, he tasted so damn good. Some girls don't like the bitterness of cum but I found the salty mixture to be quite tasty. The gooiness is another turnoff for a lot of my friends but I also like the feeling of it as it covers my tongue and the inside of my mouth like a slimy film. Even after I swallow the film stays behind and I can taste it for a long time afterwards so long as I don't eat or drink too much over it.

Greg's cock kept jerking in my mouth but he reached out to hold my head firmly on it. I could feel a little leaking past my lips and dripping down my chin but I was able to keep the vast majority of it in my mouth. When he had finished I let him slide from my mouth and I kneeled upright, smiling at him and then opening my mouth to show him his load of cum inside of my mouth. I even stuck out my tongue so he could see the pool of cum that had collected on it.

"God you are a sexy little slut," he said with a grin. "I've never known another girl that likes cum as much as you do."

I swallowed it all down then and stood up in front of him. His cock was still as rigid as ever which was fine with me because I was far from being finished with it. For the moment though I had other needs that required attention. I lifted my skirt and his eyes widened when he saw I wasn't wearing any panties. I ran my hand over my bare pussy as I held my skirt up with the other one.

"So, do you like my pussy Greg?" I asked seductively.

Greg's eyes were riveted on my crotch as he leaned forward to get a better view. I reached out for his hand and pulled don him saying, "C'mon, trade places - it's your turn now to satisfy me."

As Greg stood up I lifted the dress up over my head and took it off. I reached down and turned down the knee-highs until they were bunched up at my ankles with my heels still on. The heels had these horrible straps that were a pain to get on and off so I left them on. Besides, guys seem to like a girl with nothing on but high heels. Now for the first time Greg was seeing me nude and I felt a little thrill at the way he was looking at me. I could tell that he wanted me - badly.

I love it when a man looks at me that way, even if he isn't going to fuck me but in this case I knew Greg was going to be doing that to me soon which made it all the more hotter. I sat down in his place and felt the warmth on the chair where his bare ass had been. I put one leg over the arm of the chair and spread the other out to the side, giving him a wide open view of my wet pussy. He was standing in front of me, his still hard cock as hard as ever and knew he wanted to fuck me but he had to earn it first.

"Lick my pussy," I told him.

To be perfectly honest, most guys just don't seem to get it when it comes to licking pussy. Girls are by far my favorites when it comes to having my pussy licked but I know guys like it and besides - it DOES feel good so why not? Greg didn't waste any time in getting down on his knees and putting his face in my crotch. He didn't even bother touching me first or doing anything before he went right at sucking on my clit (note to guys - foreplay IS important!).

Well, simply put he licked me for a while like any other guy his age done - in a way that seems to say "Hey, if I have to do this I will so long as I get to fuck her". Most guys claim to like licking pussy but I think subconsciously the little head is saying it wants to get fucking which, of course, overrides all over commands. Finally I figured it was time to get to it so lifted his head up and looked into his face as it glistened with my pussy juices.

"Fuck me," I said softly.

It doesn't take long for every girl to learn the power of those two words. Guys just seem to melt when they hear them and their eyes just sparkle when a girl asked them to fuck her. For just a moment I thought about what a difference circumstances can make though. When I told Greg to fuck me, it was completely different than a few hours earlier when I asked my dad to fuck me. At this time it was a command, an order telling him to get his cock into my pussy. There was no emotion involved unless you call lust an emotion. It was simple a demand to satisfy me, to do something to me I needed and wanted right then. It really didn't matter if it was Greg, Dick or Harry - I wanted a cock in my pussy and I wanted his at the moment.

With my dad, it was not only a request, it was an offer. When I said those words to my father it was an act of submission as I giving myself over to him for his satisfaction more than taking care of my own needs. There was no emotion when I said them to Greg but when I told them to my dad they were words of love and respect - love for my dad and the firm knowledge that he respected me as his daughter. Yes, it amazing how the same two words can have completely opposite meanings!

Greg didn't care though about the nuances of my command to him. From the moment he first saw me I knew he wanted to fuck me and now suddenly he found himself nude with that same girl and she was asking him to do it! God how that must have turned him on. I dropped my leg from the chair arm and he put his arms under my knees and raised my legs upward. I was slouched in the chair so my pussy was raised up making it easier for him to see and then to put his cock inside of me.

There was nothing too subtle to it, he just pointed his cock at my pussy and shoved it in to the hilt. I gasped as even though I was soaking wet from his licking the thickness of his cock stretched me out more than normal. Damn it was like having a baby at first! He was even fatter than most of my mom's dildos but after the initial shock it felt like heaven on earth - an appropriate analogy I guess given the circumstances!

Greg started fucking me - again the way most guys his age did, however it made him feel good. I guess I can blame the porn flicks which seem to focus on the guy and the girls may as well be blow-up dolls. Slam-Bam-Thank You Ma'am! Oh well, I love being fucked and while some times it can be better than others, I can't say I have every NOT liked being fucked! As Greg fucked me he seed to gain more confidence and soon he was taking more control. He pulled out of me suddenly and grabbed me and lifted me from the chair.

"Now we do it my way," he said as he flipped me around and then pushed me down on all fours.

The floor was cold but clean but I was still glad that glad I wasn't wearing my dress. I realized immediately that he wanted to do me doggie style which was fine with me. I spread my legs a bit to open my pussy wider more for him and soon he was on one knee positioning his cock in me. His hands held my hips at the waist as he pulled me and pushed me in time with the thrusts of his cock in and out of me. When he banged into me our bodies made a slapping sound which at first seemed terribly loud but then I realized it wasn't as bad as I thought. He grunted like a pig in heat as he fucked pussy from behind.

"I'm going to cum in you Kelly," he said suddenly.

I noted the subtle change in tone from before. When I was sucking him he had asked me to cum in my mouth. Now that he was fucking me he was telling me what he was going to do. That's fine with me as I actually prefer a guy to be in charge! I like to say I enjoy being submissive so long as people don't misinterpret it. I am not talking the master-slave kinky kind of submission. I just like it when men take control of a situation - at least outwardly. Most men have no idea how often they are maneuvered by women into thinking they are in control but that is our special gift and I will use it! It doesn't hurt than men are handicapped by having a body part that takes control and a makes stupid decisions anytime a woman smiles at hem either!

"That's OK Greg, you can cum in me," I replied even though he had not really asked for permission. "I want to feel your sperm deep inside of me."

There was something almost animal-like when a man came in me. When his sperm fills me it is almost as if he is mating me, like a male animal subduing the female and impregnating her. I have been on the pill religiously since I first started having sex back when I was fourteen so I wasn't worried about getting pregnant but it still gave me a feeling I can't quite describe to know a man's seed is in me, struggling to achieve its purpose in life.

Another couple of stroked and Greg fulfilled his end of the bargain. Coming so close to his previous orgasm the amount of cum didn't seem to be quite so much this time but in this case it was more just the fact the he came in me at all than how much. He rammed his cock as deep into me as he could, grinding his hairy crotch against my smooth ass. It felt like a soft hairbrush caressing my butt.

After he stopped cumming I moved forward until he was out of me and quickly grabbed his cock and took it in my mouth. Mmmmmmm, nothing quite like the combination of my pussy and his cum! Greg shuddered when I sucked his sensitive cock and as he shrank a few drops of cum would leak from his cock into my mouth.

Finally we were finished. There was no need of any "afterglow" such as kissing or hugging. We both had come into that room with one goal in mind - to fuck each other. I reached between my legs and wiped some of the cum that was leaking from my cunt and licked it from my fingers while he watched.

"God you look so sexy and slutty when you do that," he said admiringly.

I reached for my dress and dropped it over my head. One nice thing about not wearing underwear - easy to get dressed fast. I was still in a bit of a cloud from having been fucked but I knew I had to get going. The service was about to be finished and before long the hallway outside would be filled with people. It would be a bit hard to explain why I looked so flushed coming out of the maintenance room with a sexy guy like Greg. I waved goodbye to him as he was buttoning his shirt and cracked open the door. The coast was clear and I stepped out quickly. I walked down and never looked back. Sure enough the service was letting out and so I grabbed my coat and met my parents out in the parking lot.

"So what got into you?" my mom asked.

"Greg," I replied after which both she and my dad laughed.

"We figured you weren't going to let him get away unscathed," my dad said as we pulled away. "It was hard sitting there during the sermon thinking about the two of you fucking downstairs - I assume you used the maintenance room again?" I nodded and then he continued, "So spill it girl - was he as good as your dear old dad?"

"Oh daddy!" I said with a bit of a pout, "You know better than to ask that."

My mom chimed in then saying, "Well, he must have been pretty good to get you so worked up you forgot to pull up your hose afterwards."

I looked down and realized in horror that she was correct! God, I wonder if anyone else had noticed. It wasn't that I was ashamed or anything it was just unlike my cousin Kristen I didn't like to be so blatant about it.

She seemed to enjoy her reputation as school slut but I wanted to teach in this community someday so a little discretion was advised.

We all ended up laughing at my silly mistake as my dad drove off to wherever he had planned to take us to lunch. I knew afterwards I would be having to drive back to school so I just sat there in the back seat, my pussy still throbbing and remembered how good it felt to fuck Greg. All in all it had been the best summer break ever and I hated to see it come to an end but at least it ended with a bang - literally!!!

(Apr 15) Chapter 114: Easter at Brenda's

Me (21)
Brenda - Freshman roomie (21)
David - Brenda's brother (28)

It had been ages since I spent the night at my old freshman roomie's house and even longer since we shared her married older brother.

1. My Roomie Brenda and Her Brother

Brenda was my freshman roomie at college. She was also my real first lesbian experience, unless you count my mom but your parents don't really count. Brenda and I had a fantastic freshman year together. At times we would tease each other with fantasies about incest but needless to say I never told her that mine were a bit more than just fantasies. Sure, Brenda was pretty open-minded and I knew that she harbored a few secretive ideas of her own about her brother but I was afraid she would freak out on me if she learned that I actually enjoyed sex with my parents.

Brenda's parents only loved about ten miles away from the campus but they still allowed her spend her freshman year in the dorm to help her acclimate to college life. One nice thing about them being so close was that she as able to spend most weekends at home and sometimes she invited me along. During one of my stays her twenty-six year-old brother David and his bitchy wife and two brats stayed overnight as well. David seemed more than just a little interested in me so I hinted to him that I was "available". Cutting a long story to the bone, before the night was over he was fucking me in Brenda's bedroom.

Well, as hot as it was to be fucked by a guy with his wife sound asleep just down the hall, that was NOTHING compared to what happened next. Brenda joined us and the two of them were together for the first time. They each learned that while they both had always wanted to be together like this, neither of them was brave enough to make the first move. It made me feel pretty good to know I was responsible for finally bridging the gap between them.

I do have to say that it was incredible to watch Brenda being fucked by her brother for the first time. I'd teased her about it mercilessly in the past and she had always pleaded for me to stop because she claimed that she could never go through with it. Well, here she was doing it and right in front of me at that!

The one strange thing about it all was that while both of them wanted to be together, neither of them felt comfortable doing it with just the two of them. It was almost like that would be going too far but with me there it wasn't all about just the two of them which somehow made it OK for them. I've never quite figured this out but hey, whatever works for ya...

One result of that night was that I was invited over a few more times during my freshman and sophomore years - you can guess why! Now I was nearing the end of my junior year and Brenda was still one of my closest friends. I mean, you don't live together for an entire school year, especially the way we did, and then just drift apart. She had since hooked up with a great guy who also saw to her physical needs and they spent almost all their free time with each other. We still said hello and chatted on the phone now and then but I hadn't visited her home in quite a while.

With Easter coming so late this year, our spring break had come and gone so other than extending the weekend for Good Friday it didn't mean a lot of time off. My youth group kids at church had been practicing their Easter play for months which was going to be presented over the weekend. I wanted to be there to support them so with the short holiday I wasn't planning on going home. As much as it killed me not to take advantage of an opportunity to get back to Pittsburgh, my kids were also important to me.

During the week I ran across Brenda between classes and she asked if I was going home for the weekend. I explained to her my plans and to my surprise she asked if I wanted to spend the Easter weekend at her house. Of course I accepted and for the rest of the week it was all I could think about - especially when I would masturbate in the morning with my horny roomie Jen!

Brenda already had a date with her boyfriend on Thursday night and I had to work with my kids on Friday for a few hours to get in some last minute rehearsals. I wanted to attend the Good Friday evening service so we agreed that I would drive over Friday night immediately after church.

So there I was Friday afternoon, plans in place and just waiting in my on-campus apartment for the evening service to begin. Jen had flown back to her home in Wisconsin for the long weekend and so I was left all alone making the room seem strangely empty without her bubbly personality filling it.

I had thrown a few clothes together in an overnight bag and was ready to hit the road straight from church. Brenda's family lived out of town near a small lake and her parents were pretty laid back so I didn't bother bringing anything too fancy along with me. From past experience the two of us just wore as little as possible anyway around the house although I wasn't sure if the weather was going to hold out for us or not.

I looked at my new bikini I had recently bought with a wry smile. Brenda had a pool but it would be a couple more months before it would be ready to use. I doubted it was going to be warm enough to do any sunbathing so I shrugged and put it back in the drawer with hopes it would come in handy another time.

2. Waiting Around

I paced around the room like a tiger in a cage at the zoo. Finally I logged in to Yahoo to check my e-mail. I noticed not many people in my list were on-line and since I didn't have much else to do I changed my status to "Available". The results were predictable and I sighed as my screen suddenly filled with about a dozen windows as guys tried to contact me. It was overwhelming so I went back to being invisible and looked over the ones who were on my screen.

A couple of guys were inviting me to watch them on their cams so I closed the other windows and responded just to them. I was incredibly horny after thinking about Brenda all week and so I figured seeing as guy masturbate for me was better than nothing!

People have asked me why I like watching some strange guy jerking off and the answer is really pretty simple. First, you need to understand that I don't like porn because it has no personal connection to me. Watching some actor masturbating for a camera, knowing a production crew is watching and the whole thing is being faked, does nothing for me. Instead, I get turned on a thousand times more when a husband sends me a pic of his wife or daughter that he took at the last family reunion.

It may be hard to understand but when a guy sends me his family photos it's like he is sharing something personal with me that he knows he shouldn't. It's not that the pics themselves are naughty but it is the INTENT that makes me wet. Know his wife wouldn't appreciate him sending her pics to a girl that he discussed his desire to commit adultery with turns me on.

Guys camming is similar except it's even hotter. I've watched cams on adult web sites where they broadcast it out to anyone and everyone and found it doesn't really do much for me. It's like porn - cold and impersonal. They don't even know I am there so how can it mean anything to me?

On the other hand, when a guy talks to ME on his cam and I can actually watch him stroking himself, getting all nice and hard because he wants ME and desires ME, well THAT'S meaningful to me. I often get wet and usually masturbate myself as I see them get hard and stroke themselves as they chat with me and tell me how bad they want to fuck me.

I also love it when guys cum on a picture for me. Sometimes I like it to be on me or someone else in my family that turns them on from reading about them in my diary. It's even hotter when they use one of their wife or daughter, maybe a picture in a frame that has been sitting around the house. I think one of the most erotic sights for me was watching a guy cum on a photo of his own mother that was on the shelf next to his computer desk. Imagine how he must have felt next time his mom was over and saw it!

I started chatting with one of the guys and he quickly invited me to watch him. He was still dressed when his cam came on so I asked him to strip for me which he quickly did. His cock was already erect and so I asked him what made him hard. I smiled as he replied that he had been looking at some of my pictures and was dreaming about fucking me while his wife slept in the room down the hall. We chatted some more and I licked my lips as I saw his hand stroking his nice hard cock just for me to see. Mmmmmmm, he was nice and thick and getting bigger by the minute.

I put my finger in my mouth and imagined it was his cock I was sucking while I started to rub my pussy through my jeans. It became quickly obvious as I watched him jerking off that my situation wasn't going to work so I stood up and pulled my jeans down and off, leaving them in a pile by the chair. It left me with just my blouse on which I didn't bother to remove since nobody could see me anyway. I sat back down bare-bottom on my desk chair and spread my legs apart as I tried to type words of encouragement to him as best I could while playing with myself.

Unfortunately he started asking for nude pics of me which sort of took the wind out of my sail. Sending pics of me is such a pain as it is and guys always want nudes and sexual photos. Well, for one I simply do NOT send out sex shots - period. In addition, I don't send out nudes of anyone else in my family and those of me are quite limited and at least a year or more old.

I sighed and sent out a few nudes from a couple of years ago which seemed to satisfy him. He printed out one of me and my cousin sitting by a fireplace and asked me whether I wanted him to cum on me or Kristen. I smiled as I read his note while I watched him holding my photo by his cock with the head between the two of us. My cousin and I were "close" in many ways so it made me hot when guys would cum on her or me and her in a photo.

For the next five minutes or so I mostly played with myself watching him jerk off. I had to take a break now and then to send him an IM but he didn't seem to mind that I didn't keep up a constant flow of patter which I liked as it let me get myself off better as I watched him.

For once, I was faster than the guy and my first orgasm hit me as he was still stroking his cock with one hand while rubbing his balls with the other. I had to stop typing as I felt the wetness of my pussy growing and my thighs tingled as I rubbed my clit faster. I couldn't tear my eyes from his cock as I dreamed of it deep inside of me, stroking in and out of me like he was doing now to his hand.

I could almost taste it as my pussy suddenly exploded and I gasped as goose bumps erupted on every square inch of me. In my imagination he was cumming inside of me, his big cock head erupting with cum and shooting deep inside of my womb. Of course his poor sperm was doomed from the start thanks to modern pharmaceuticals!

I slumped in the chair with my hand between my legs cupping my crotch as I tried to catch my breath. He was about to cum and as my orgasm slowly dwindled I watched as he put the pic of me and my cousin under him and sprayed his cum all over it. God it was so hot to think he could get that horny just looking at a simple photo of us - and fully clothed at that. You've got to admit - that's quite the ego booster!

I looked over at the alarm clock and jumped up as I saw I only had twenty minutes to get to church! I quickly thanked him and logged off before pulling up my jeans and running to the bathroom to rinse off my face. I was quite flushed from my orgasm but there was nothing I could do about it so I just brushed out my hair and straightened out my blouse.

I stood back and took stock of myself in the mirror. My cheeks puffed out as I exhaled and took in another deep breath. Between my legs my pussy was reminding me it wasn't finished yet - I can't just turn off like a faucet the way men seem to after they've had sex. For a brief moment I was tempted to go for another quickie but common sense got the better of me and I grabbed my purse and bag and hustled out to my car.

Normally I would have walked as the church as it wasn't that far away but today I wanted to get to Brenda's as soon as possible after the service so I parked in the church parking lot and ran inside. My first stop was the girl's room to check myself out. The flush in my face was about gone, thank goodness, and overall I thought I looked OK. I wasn't that dressed up but nobody did other than Sunday mornings.

I met with my kids along with the other leaders and for the next hour or so sat in the middle of the front pew helping to direct them. They were brilliant and I was soooooo proud of them! After the service I gave every one of them a big hug. I smiled to myself as a couple of the older boys used the opportunity to press a little tighter than they might have a few years before but my mind wasn't on them tonight so I just let it go without reacting to it.

3. Intimate With Brenda Again

When the service was over, I drove myself to Brenda's house. This was actually the first time I'd ever driven there by myself as I didn't have a car during my first two years of school and so she or her parents would have to come into town and pick me up. Provided I didn't get lost it should only took about twenty minutes or so with most of it on rural roads. Besides, it gave me some time to think about the upcoming weekend and I wondered what Brenda had in mind. It had been almost a year since the last time we'd been intimate and I missed her - a LOT.

Brenda seemed to have a knack from the first time we were together to know just where I liked to be touched and I had many fond memories of our nights together. The more I thought of her the more I felt a warmth begin to build again between my legs and so I pressed my fingers against myself through my jeans as I drove. There wasn't enough time to get serious about anything but I felt a rush go through me like a wind as I gasped from the sensations between my legs. Arriving at Brenda's house she must have been watching for me as she ran out of the house and greeted me as I stepped out of my car.

"Kelly!" she shrieked like an eight year-old and she hugged me tightly to her.

Brenda's dad was in the garage which was open in front of us so we didn't get too carried away but from the way she looked at me I had no doubt we were in sync as to our plans for the evening. We went in through the garage entrance to the kitchen and I waved hello to her dad.

Brenda's parents were quite a bit older than mine and VERY conservative. They were sweet though and had always treated me wonderfully. I wasn't so sure how they would have reacted had they known just how "close" their daughter was with me though One thing I WAS sure of and that was how they would respond if they had a clue what Brenda and I enjoyed doing with her brother!

Inside her mom had supper about ready so we worked to set the table and get everything ready. At one point Brenda mentioned I should take my stuff back to her room and her mom just nodded her OK to us. Brenda grabbed my bag and led me down the hall to her room.

Once inside she shut the door behind us and without a word threw her arms around my neck and kissed me. This wasn't some peck on the cheek between friends. No, it was two people passionate in their feelings for the other, back together after a long separation. Brenda and I were never "lovers" and I never viewed her as anything more than a friend, albeit one I was very intimate with. We just enjoyed being together, feeling each other's body against our own, enjoying ourselves the way two people can only through sex.

Her hand palmed my boob and I could feel her pushing me towards the bed. I pulled back from our kiss and smiled at her.

"Now girl, don't go starting something you can't finish," I whispered to her with a big grin on my face.

Brenda just rolled her eyes at me saying, "That's my Kelly - always the practical one. When are you going to loosen up girl?"

It was all I could do to not laugh aloud at that. As "close" as we were, Brenda, like everyone else at school, didn't have a clue about my "real" life. Even though we played around, as far as she knew I was pretty much the naive church girl everyone saw when I was at school. Seeing how easily I fucked her brother should have made her think that maybe I wasn't quite THAT conservative but it didn't seem to register. After a bit of a pause we just giggled and headed for the door.

"All right then," she said just before she opened the door, "But just so you know I can't wait for later!"

We got back to the kitchen where her mother scolded us for taking so long but we just looked at each other and giggled. Her mom rolled her eyes and mumbled something about "silly girls" which just made us giggle all the more!

Supper was rather uneventful. It had been almost a year since my last visit and so much had happened since then it wasn't hard to keep the conversation going. Brenda was obviously infatuated with her boyfriend as it seemed every story she told me involved him in one way or another.

Personally, I would've been interested in hearing what she DIDN'T tell her parents about him since I knew they had quite an active sexual relationship as well Brenda had not been with that many guys before she met Tom and I was a little concerned she might be just a little doe-eyed over him and maybe not realizing if he was taking advantage of her eagerness to get laid. I would have loved to have him fuck me just to better judge him so I could advise her better but I doubted Brenda was going to offer me THAT chance!

After supper it was getting already into the evening thanks to my late arrival so after clearing off the table we went to their family room to watch TV and talk some more. Brenda and I sat next to each other on the couch while her parents watched from their own chairs. It struck me how similar the arrangement was to my own family back in Pittsburgh - must be a generation thing or something. There were some specials on about the Easter story and afterwards Brenda announced she and I were heading to her room for the night. Brenda's mom asked what we were going to do.

"Oh mom!" Brenda sighed, "Just girl stuff - you know."

Her mom smiled but I knew she was clueless as to what "girl stuff" Brenda was really referring to! She may have been thinking about what she did with her friends when she was our age in which case unless I was totally off base about her probably consisted of giggling about boys, painting toe nails and trying on clothes. Well, we had a little bit more in mind than that! Back in her room Brenda shut the door and locked it behind us. It wouldn't do for her mom to walk in unexpectedly! Brenda turned to me and put her hands on my hips.

"Now...," she whispered softly, "Where were we?"

We fell on the bed and immediately our bodies pressed up tight and we kissed long and hard. Our lips parted as we gasped for air and she started fumbling at my clothes. I took her arms in my hands to stop her and looked her in the eye.

"Let's quite wasting time. Why don't we each just get undressed and get it over with?" I said seductively.

We each stripped as fast as we could and in seconds I was looking at a sight I'd not seen in quite a while - my dear old red-headed, freckled roomie standing stark naked in front of me! Her boobs had always been bigger than mine and now they looked even more spectacular than I remembered. A full D-cup, there no sag to them at all and if I had not known better I would have said she had some "help" with them but I knew they were 100% real. I would have given anything to have them for a day just to see what it was like to have such a great pair of boobs. I noticed she wasn't shaving her pussy completely anymore and instead her thick red pubic hair was trimmed into a small "V" above her pussy lips.

"God... you really look incredible," I sighed.

"Well, you're not too bad yourself, you know," she replied, her eyes roaming up and down my naked body.

I leaned back as she moved towards me and then laid on top of me in her bed. Brenda had always been the more dominate one although it was nothing like a dominatrix/slave thing at all. She just liked to be in charge and make the first move which I was happy to allow her to do. After all, if she hadn't made the first move back when we were new roomies who knows how things would have turned out?

I had masturbated a lot with my friends in high school but Brenda was the first girl I'd been with sexually other than my mom or aunt. I doubt if she had not approached me that day in her room while she was taking pictures of me that I would've ever had the nerve to initiate anything. Mmmmmmm, was I ever glad she had!

We kissed for what seemed forever as our hands lightly fondling each other but not seeking out any of our more "sensitive" spots. After our freshman year she knew ALL the places that made me feel good. I felt goose bumps raise as her fingertips traced along my side and down my hips and legs. Her tiny fingers ran slowly through my hair and I felt like I was in heaven.

"God I soooooo missed this Brenda," I whispered to her softly, looking straight into her eyes that were directly over me.

Brenda didn't say anything in response but instead started to kiss me from my neck and working her way slowly down my nude body. I just closed my eyes and enjoyed it as her tongue and lips caressed me all over. My nipples were hard but they somehow seemed to grow even larger and harder as her teeth gently tugged on them while her tongue flicked over them. My stomach tingled as her tongue lightly touched and caressed it, running in little circles around my belly button.

I moaned softly and put my hands on her head, pushing her downward to where I wanted her so badly to be. Brenda put her hands around me and cupped my ass in them. She wiggled down the bed until her head was between my thighs and gazed at my pussy which was open and wet, just waiting for her.

"Mmmmmmm, looks like somebody's pussy needs some attention," she said softly as her eyes met mine with a smile on her face. She kissed me right over my clit and I almost jumped out of bed. Brenda giggled at my response.

"Yep, definitely needs attention," she murmured, almost to herself more than me.

I tensed as her tongue started at the top of my clit and ran slowly down my pussy until it flickered over the opening to my pussy. Her face pressed against my crotch as she pressed her tongue into me and wiggled it just inside of me. I was so wet already the wetness of her mouth wasn't needed to make it easy for her to slide her tongue into me Her mouth returned to my clit and she gently sucked on it while her tongue played over it. Then I felt her finger pressing against me and working its way into my cunt until she had it in as far as it would reach. She kept sucking on my clit while her finger fucked me like a small cock. Damn it felt incredible to have her back between my legs again!

Feeling me tense and listening to my breathing, Brenda knew from experience what was about to happen. She lifted her head off my clit for a moment and without stopping her finger she smiled and said, "Cum for me Kelly... I want you to cum all over me."

Resuming her unbelievably attention to my clit, she soon got her wish. I couldn't help but let out a loud moan as my back arched and I pressed my crotch up tight into my mouth. My hands held her head firmly against my pussy as it exploded into an incredible orgasm. Every inch of me cried out in pleasure as Brenda relentlessly sucked on my clit. I wrapped my legs around her thin body and pulled her tightly into me as my pussy gushed all over her hand.

Feeling me cumming, her mouth moved down and she took out her finger so she could lap up my pussy cum. Finally I was able to breathe again and I sucked in a deep breath before moaning softly as my orgasm settled into more of a glowing feeling. Feeling her trying to get up, I unwrapped my legs and she moved to the side of me with one leg and arm over me, pressing her crotch tightly up against me. Without a word we kissed and I smelled and tasted myself on her lips and face. I just laid there, totally overwhelmed as her hands gently caressed my boobs and we kissed softly. Brenda, though, wasn't finished by a long shot.

"My turn," she purred in my ear as she got up and next thing I knew she was straddling me.

Her pussy was directly in front of me and looked terribly inviting. I didn't have to wait long as she moved forward and pressed her crotch to my face. God she smelled so sexy! I reached forward with my head and pulled the pillow behind me under my neck to support me. Brenda slowly ground her crotch into my face as my tongue danced over her clit and between her pussy lips. My hands cupped her ass and pulled her into my face as I lapped her cunt like a cat with a fresh bowl of milk – except in this case the milk was Brenda's sweet pussy juices.

Mmmmmmm, I loved the taste of a horny pussy. I had first tasted mine when I was barely eleven and had loved it from the very beginning. Brenda's bare ass was rubbing against my boobs and massaging my nipples in the process which was making me feel pretty good as well! Brenda was playing with her boobs as she swiveled her hips to rub her cunt into my face when I heard her panting and I knew I was about to finally get her to cum. I didn't stop, though, but instead tried to reach even further into her pussy with my outstretched tongue.

"Oh god Kelly, don't stop whatever you do," she gasped, "Oh fuck, I love it when you lick me."

She started shaking and then it was like she suddenly froze in place. My eyes looked upward to her face and I saw her eyes were closed and her mouth was wide open when suddenly she drew in a huge breath of air and then let it out just as quick.

"Oh god... oh god... oh god," was all she kept saying as I felt her pussy contract and then my face was flooded with her cum.

Her butt clenched and her hips thrust forward into my wet face as her orgasm racked her body. Every girl I've been with has had her own unique orgasm and Brenda was no different. With her, the harder she came the more frozen she would become, almost like a statue as the pleasure of her orgasm ran through her. It was like she was afraid that if she moved that something would cause it to lessen and so she just held herself in place, absorbing every sensation she could.

When she finally began to move again I knew it was beginning to ebb and sure enough I soon heard her moaning softly. I leaned my head back so I could look at her.

"Well girl, do I know how to eat pussy or what?" I said with a nasty smile on my face.

Brenda was still trying to catch her breath but she looked down at me and held my head in her hands.

"Oh yeah," she said with a sly grin, "you're still the best ever Kelly... god I love you! You're such a slut!"

I knew she meant that in a complimentary way, much the same as when my dad called me his "little slut", so I wasn't offended or anything. In fact, I didn't mind it even when people meant to call me that. I always figure if people thought I was sexy enough to be a slut then I must be pretty damn sexy!

We spent the next hour or so lying in bed together, catching up on old times and new gossip while at the same time our hands roamed over the other. Sometimes we just kissed for a while and as her warm body pressed against mine I remembered how many nights we had squeezed together to fit on our dorm beds so we could spend the night together.

I never considered Brenda to be my "lover" or had any emotional attachment to her in that way, but we were still something a bit more than just good friends, As we talked the subject of her boyfriend inevitably came up. Brenda giggled as I pressed her for some of the more graphic details of her guy.

"Oh Kelly, do you really expect me to tell you THAT?" she exclaimed after I pushed for her to tell me how she sucked his cock.

It was sort of funny to me that Brenda felt embarrassed to discussed something like that with me. Of course, she had no idea that I had sucked hundreds cocks in my sexual "career". Sometimes I wondered what she would have said had she known the true extent of my activities outside of school. I would've thought that after fucking her brother she might have wondered a bit more about me but the subject had never come up between us.

"Well then," I replied with a mock tone of exasperation, "at least tell me about the last time you sucked David."

At the mention of her brother, Brenda suddenly became quite serious and I wondered if maybe I had pushed her too far. Then she kissed me briefly and softly said, "You know Kelly, I haven't fucked my brother since the last time your stayed here."

I was more than a little astonished. Given the way they both seemed to enjoy it the last time we did it, I figured the two of them would have been doing it every chance they could, especially since he lived in town just a few minutes away. My expression was enough to betray my thoughts to Brenda who then continued on.

"I don't know, I guess it would just be weird to have sex alone with him. When you were with us it doesn't seem so... well, you know... wrong? I wouldn't feel right fucking him just by myself - he IS my brother after all and he IS married."

She paused as if to let me respond but I just laid there next to her, listening to her and waiting for her to continue which she did eventually.

"When you are watching it was more than just being fucked by my brother. I felt so hot because I knew it was turning you on so much to see my brother fucking me. Well... I don't blame you for not understanding, you don't even have a brother so I don't know how you could have any idea how I feel."

To be honest, I didn't understand at all but I wasn't going to say that to her! Sometimes Brenda seems a little weird to me and this was definitely one of those times! Hell, if I had a brother I would have been fucking him every day, especially if he was a hunk like Brenda's! I reached forward and kissed her lightly on the lips. She was actually trembling in my arms and I whispered in her ear that is was OK, that she could tell me anything.

"Oh Kelly," she said as she started to cry softly, "I get so confused sometimes. I loved being fucked by my brother and I have wanted it so badly every time since then when I see him but I just can't do it. I even think of David sometimes when my boyfriend fucks me - now is that messed up or what?"

I assured her what she was feeling was perfectly normal. I came SOOOO close to telling her about the relationship between my father and me but I wasn't sure if she was ready for that yet. If she was having an anxiety attack over her brother doing her, I could only imagine what she would say if she knew my father was fucking me!

We talked some more about it and we began to recall the times the two of us had fooled around with her brother. David was married to a bitch of a wife who seemed to hate Brenda and me with a passion. She was undoubtedly a major influence on her two bratty kids based on their anti-social behavior. I hated her so badly that when he had fucked me I actually enjoyed the thought of her sitting at home not knowing her wonderful husband was banging the daylights out of his sister and best friend as much as I loved actually being fucked. Brenda laughed when I mentioned how much I disliked her and confirmed she was as bitchy as ever.

I looked at Brenda and smiled saying, "So what do you say then girl... are we going to fuck David tomorrow or what?"

Brenda let out a long breath and rolled her eyes at me. "Well, I have to admit that I figured that you would want to do something like that."

Then her eyes narrowed and she looked at me more seriously saying, "You know Kelly, sometimes I wonder what's the real story with you. Hmmmmmm... why is it that somehow I don't think you're quite as innocent and naive as you try so hard to make yourself appear to be in school?"

I giggled and again flirted with the idea of coming clean with her but years of family discipline won out and in the end I just gave her a smile and look that hopefully told her she was correct but at the same time I wasn't going to tell her a thing.

"Well, be that way then," she huffed but then couldn't hold back a laugh. "Maybe I should call David and tell him we can't make it tomorrow!"

"What!" I exclaimed.

Usually I could read Brenda like a book but there times when she could surprise me and this was one of those times. She looked so pleased with herself that she had managed to pull this one over me.

"Yep!" she said, "I called David earlier today and told him you were coming over. I didn't have to say anything else - he knew what I wanted. So anyway... we're on for noon tomorrow at his house."

"His house?" I said in an incredulous tone. What in the world was she thinking?

"Yea, his wife has a hair appointment in Columbus and so she's leaving the boys with him. It's the best opportunity he will have this weekend. Don't worry - the boys will be playing video games in the basement all afternoon."

I felt myself getting horny again as I considered the possibilities. At the same time I felt exhausted after a long week and then our "activities" of the evening. We finally fell asleep together in her bed, our nude bodies pressed tightly together with me spooning her from behind and my arms wrapped tightly around her. My breasts were pressed against her smooth back and my hands caressed her breasts gently as I drifted to sleep.

I woke in the middle of the night for whatever reason and it felt so good to lay there in the darkness, feeling her smooth warm ass pressed against my stomach. My hand cupped her breast and I loved the way it felt in my hand as I squeezed it gently. I reached down and cupped her pussy I my hand. For a moment I was tempted to 'explore" her a little further but I was so tired that I fell asleep once again.

4. Sex With Brenda and Her Brother

We slept soundly until we were abruptly awakened Saturday morning by the sharp sound of her mom knocking on the door.

"Brenda?" she called through the door, "Are you girls awake? I'll be starting breakfast soon!"

We both looked at each other with our eyes wide open when the door handle shook as she tried to come in.

"Brenda?" she called out again, "Honey, why is your door locked?"

We both quickly threw on a nightshirt as Brenda hustled over to the door. When she cracked it open her mom pushed it open all the way and came into the room.

"So how are you two doing this morning?" she said smiling at me innocently.

I was tempted to say what a great night we had licking each other's pussy but somehow I didn't think that was what she was expecting me to say. We both chimed in, assuring her we had a lovely night (which was 100% true) and she left but not before warning us that breakfast would be ready in twenty or thirty minutes.

After the fuss over our door being close I was surprised when Brenda's mom shut the door behind her but then I realized she probably didn't want her husband seeing us getting dressed as their bedroom was just across the hall. Once she was gone Brenda looked at me with her patented naughty-girl look I used to love so much.

"So tell me," she said with a sly grin, "Do you still wake up all horny in the morning?"

I just nodded and rubbed myself between my legs causing her to laugh and say, "You know, I've never met another girl who masturbated even half as much as you do. God Kelly, don't you EVER get enough?"

I still didn't say anything as I was curious where she was going with this and I didn't have to wait long.

"Well, for your information you were a terrible influence on me when we roomed together. I mean, sure I had masturbated now and then in high school but I had never known a girl that did it nearly as often as you do. God, it seemed every time I came in the room you were playing with yourself."

Brenda's face grew more serious and she said in a more conspiratorial tone, "You know what? I don't think you even realize that you're doing it half the time. Like, there were time when I would try to talk with you and I would see your hand between your legs as you talked to me like nothing was going on."

She paused and then pointed at me and giggled, "Look... you're doing it now!"

I looked down and sure enough, I WAS playing with myself. It wasn't all that much, but my finger was indeed pressing against my pussy. I withdrew my hand quickly and blushed.

"Now there's a sight you don't see every day... Kelly blushing," Brenda laughed at me, "Wow! I didn't think ANYTHING could embarrass you."

I rolled my eyes at that but then in morbid curiosity I couldn't help but ask, "So honestly, do I REALLY do that a lot?"

Brenda nodded her head and replied, "Sorry, I really thought you did it to be a tease or even just to be naughty. Yes... you do it a LOT girl! You're good at hiding it though so I know there have been a lot of times when I was the only one who knew what you were doing. You DO need to watch it though, there have been a few times in church when I almost felt I needed to say something to you!"

We had thrown on some panties by now and so we went out to join her parents for breakfast. Much as I hated underwear there was a time and place for everything. Going bare-bottom at Brenda's wasn't sexy or fun, in fact it would've been downright rude.

Brenda's parents were older and definitely had not maintained themselves the way mine had. They were great people, don't get me wrong, but I couldn't imagine myself doing anything sexual with them and teasing her father was NOT something that turned me on in the least to even contemplate. Our t-shirts hung halfway to our knees anyways so even if we hadn't worn panties we wouldn't have been showing off anything but I was sure her mom would have noticed so what was the point in doing so and offending her?

After breakfast, which was more like brunch given it was already past 10:00 AM by the time we had finished, Brenda and I went back to her room to change. The weather was decent but not summer yet so we each decided on some tight jeans and a shirt. She had a nice white long-sleeved shirt that was rather traditional looking with pockets and all, almost like a man-shirt but fitted a whole lot better. I had brought with me a thin flannel shirt that was also long-sleeved that I liked wearing for comfort more than anything. A pair of socks and sneakers and we were ready to go. Needless to say, this time the panties stayed in her room!

We went back out to the kitchen where her parents were still chatting over coffee. We sat down and just talked for the next hour or so until finally Brenda announced that it was time for us to get going. Her mom asked where we were going and was a bit surprised to find we were heading over to her brother's house. Brenda somehow "forgot" to mention that his wife was going to be out and made it sound like we were just going over to say hi. I found myself wondering what her mom would have said if she had ANY idea what we were planning to REALLY do!

We decided to take my car because nobody would recognize it in town and possibly say something to his wife later about Brenda being at his house. I parked on the street in front of the house next to theirs and we went in through the side door. David was in the kitchen with the two boys. He saw us coming in and motioned for us to stay out of sight. He herded the boys and led them downstairs where we could hear him telling them to play with the video games and NOT to even think of coming upstairs until he came down again. In a few minutes he was back upstairs and heaved a huge sigh.

"God Brenda, how about some warning girl! Damn, all I need is for them to tell their mom you two were over here today. You know how she feels about you - especially Kelly!"

I was about to say something when the phone rang. God, the place was a madhouse! How were we ever going to get down to some serious sex the way things were going so far? Then I heard him talking and next thing I knew I was REALLY wondering if anything was going to happen.

"Oh really honey? Don't you have anything else to shop for?" he said into the phone.

My heart skipped a beat as I had a bad feeling about where the conversation was going.

"So when do you think you'll be home then?" He just nodded to himself as he listened to the answer. He said he loved her, then hung up and turned back to us.

"Shit. She'll be home in an hour or so," he said. "Sorry girls, looks like a no-go."

Well, I wasn't going to let THAT stop things. I was horny as hell by now and the last thing I wanted was to have to go back to Brenda's and masturbate to relieve the tension in me when right in front of me was a handsome guy with a cock I KNEW was just waiting to fuck me. I walked up to him and kneeled in front of him as I started to undo his belt and jeans. David didn't try to stop me but I could hear him chuckling.

"Damn, I take it somebody's hungry for something," he said in a low voice.

Brenda, not about to be undone, kneeled beside me and unzipped his jeans and the two of us pulled his pants down to his ankles.

"Well brother, Kelly's not the only one hungry for something," she said as she looked up at him with a sly grin on her face.

David let out a loud breath and put his hands on the top of our heads as we pulled his boxers down to join his jeans at his ankles. "God damn it," he exclaimed, "I can't believe you girls are doing this. She's going to be home in an hour and what if the boys come up here?"

Well, seeing the way his cock was reacting I knew that he wasn't all THAT concerned! I licked my lips in anticipation as Brenda grabbed his cock at the base and held it to my waiting mouth. I wasn't about to turn down the offer and my tongue reached out to lick the head and then I took him in my mouth and went down on his cock until the entire thing was in my mouth. He was only about half erect so it easily fit and I could feel the pulsing of his heart as the blood filled his shaft.

As I lifted my head up I sucked hard on his cock, pulling it out from his crotch as I let all but the head out of my mouth before going down on him again. Brenda had his balls in one hand as she stroked whatever part of his cock wasn't in my mouth at the time as I sucked his cock like I hadn't had one in ages.

"Oh fuck! God you sure know how to suck cock," he whispered loudly he quickly hardened in my mouth.

"OK girlfriend, I want some of my brother's cock now," Brenda said as she pulled his cock away from me and brought it to her own mouth.

I watched hungrily as she took her brother into her mouth and sucked him. I could tell she must have been getting a lot of practice with new boyfriends as she was obviously much more confident sucking him than I had remembered her being before. David was obviously noticing the difference as well.

"Damn sis," he said, pushing her head down onto his cock, "I guess you've been making somebody pretty happy since the last time... Shit girl, that feels great!"

I noticed Brenda was using her tongue on his shaft as she sucked him and smiled. So many girls just seemed to think that if they let the guys cock slide in and out of their mouth's enough that they were doing a good job but I learned long ago that the secret to a good blow job wasn't how far you took him in or how fast. Nope – it was ALL in the tongue action.

Sure I knew it turned a guy on to see his cock disappear completely into my mouth, especially when he could feel it actually pushing its way down my throat. But when it came to making him cum, I knew that nothing made a cock squirt faster than using my tongue on him in just the right way. Usually it took me a few minutes to figure out what a particular guy liked best.

It was no different than licking a girl – everyone has their own personal erotic zones and technique that made them cum the best. Some guys wanted their head to get the attention, especially around and under the ridge. Others preferred their shaft to be stroked up and down with my tongue and some even liked me to swirl along the shaft as I sucked them. With guys it wasn't hard to figure them out. I just tried a few different things to start out and waited for the reaction. With most guys it was pretty obvious when I struck gold!

I had told Brenda about this in the past and obviously she'd taken my advice to heart because I saw her doing exactly to her brother what I'd told her to do to other guys. With David, like most guys, it was the head that reacted the most. I noticed as her tongue swirled around it that he would tense up and moan involuntarily and then when she took her tongue off of it he would relax slightly. Sure enough, Brenda picked up on her brother's signals and went to town on the head of his cock while she sucked on his shaft as well. David was loving it but we didn't have forever and I still hadn't been fucked!

As Brenda went to work on her brother I stood up and as David watched I stripped off my clothes. Brenda was still blowing him so I undressed her as well. God she looked so hot kneeling nude in front of him! It made me just a little bit jealous actually since I never had a brother to fuck me.

David had removed his shirt in the meantime so he was standing their essentially naked with his pants and underwear at his ankles. He still had his shoes on so taking them off the rest of the way would just be wasting time - and there was no time to waste! I put my butt up against the kitchen table and slide up on my ass so I was sitting on it with my legs handing over the edge. I spread my legs wide apart to give him a nice view of my pussy and started playing with myself for him to watch. Damn I was so wet and horny, if he didn't fuck me soon I was going to go nuts!

"C'mon David," I invited him as I held out my hand and motioned to him to come to me with my finger. "Get over here and fuck me."

Sometimes it was the simpler statements that said it the best and in this case, those last two words said everything. David grinned and looked down at his sister.

"Hmmmmmm, I guess it's time to fuck your friend," he said to her as she lifted her head off of his swollen cock.

Brenda looked so disappointed that he leaned down to kiss her on the forehead. Moving over to me with his cock in his hand, he looked back and reassured her saying, "Don't worry sis, we're not through yet!"

I bit my lower lip and licked my lips as he moved between my welcoming thighs. His hand reached forward and rubbed along the slit of my pussy and then he pushed his finger up into me. I moaned at the feel of his finger exploring inside of me.

"Fuck, you ARE horny, aren't you?" he said with a smile. "Now THIS is what I call a wet and ready pussy."

I looked him in the eyes with as seductive a stare as I could make. "So... are you going to just stand there fingering me or are you going to screw me?

David chuckled at my obvious need and bluntness. He looked back at Brenda as he held his cock up to the entrance to my starving cunt. "Hey Brenda, have I ever told you your friend was a genuine slut?" he asked jokingly.

Brenda just laughed and tossed her hair back as she stood up to get a better view as he started to push his cock against me. My pussy resisted at first and so he pressed harder and then he suddenly slipped an inch or so into me. Damn it always felt so good when a cock first split me open!

Of course, nothing would ever compare to my first time, but no matter how many guys fucked me the first time one entered me it was like my pussy had shrunk since the last time and had to be stretched out all over again. Guys have told me that they like the tightness of my cunt and more than a few have been shocked to find out they weren't number two or three!

I looked over at Brenda as he pushed himself further into me and then back down to my pussy again. There was something special about feeling a cock push its way into me while I watched it disappear at the same time. It almost seemed like two different events as it was hard for my mind to connect the feeling of fullness I was experiencing inside of me was being created by the same cock I was seeing slip inside of me.

I lifted my legs and wrapped them around him as I leaned back with my hands on the top of the table. Brenda moved up alongside of David, intently watching her brother fuck her friend. Our eyes met and we both grinned as he held my legs up around him. He was just stroking in and out of me, nothing fancy or original, just good old fashioned fucking. He kept looking over at Brenda and I knew what was really on his mind. Ordinarily if I was being fucked by a guy and he was paying attention to another girl I would have been furious but in this case it actually made me feel hornier.

It was sort of weird, this incestuous relationship between them. They hadn't fucked since the last time I'd been with them and even now, for whatever reason, he seemed to think that he had to fuck me first before he could screw his sister. I imagine some psychiatrist would have some lengthy explanation but for me it was just strange! The next time he looked at her I released my legs and smiled as I looked at him.

"It's OK David, you can fuck her," I said as I gazed at her again and saw the glow in her face.

David was just grunting now. It was if his lust had become so animal like he couldn't even speak words anymore. His eyes rolled up into the top of his head as his hips jerked uncontrollably beneath Brenda's beautiful ass. I recalled just how nice that cute ass had felt when we slept together as roomies. I would never have dreamed when we first started playing together that someday I would be watching that same smooth ass pressing into her own brother's crotch and definitely NEVER would have thought that the same brother would be fucking her - or me for that matter!

Brenda lifted herself off of him and turned to face me. She leaned forward and put one hand on each side of my ass, spreading her legs to give her brother a juicy target. He stood up and quickly hit the mark and the next thing I knew she was being fucked again by him as she looked up at me with her face just inches away from mine. I could feel her hot breath against my boobs as she panted from the exertion of being fucked. She lowered her head and I heard her talking to him.

"God that feels so good... don't stop... make me cum David," she begged.

I realized she had moved one hand down between her legs and was toying with her clit as he fucked her. She had confided in me before that unlike me, she could not cum from vaginal stimulation alone but needed her clit to be touched in order to orgasm. It must have worked because before long her head lifted up and eyes were tightly shut as she moaned and gasped for air.

"Do it Brenda," I told her, "Cum for me... C'mon and cum."

"Ohhhhhh," she groaned as David relentlessly fucked her.

She was trembling as her orgasm surged through her. I could only imagine how it must feel to cum with your brother fucking you. God sometimes I wished I had a brother!

"Fuck me harder... that's it - oh yea fuck me!" she whispered to him.

His motions were getting faster now and his breath was labored and quick. I knew he was about to cum and Brenda did as well.

"I want you to cum inside of my pussy," she begged him. "Please David... cum in me... cum in me now!"

Much as I would have loved to have him cum in ME, I could think of anything hotter now than to see him filling his own sister with his sperm. I was amazed once again at how incest between a brother and sister was so different from what I did with my father. With my dad, sex was about showing him my love for him, my total submission to him as his daughter. We enjoy it, of course, but sexual gratification in and of itself is not the reason I give myself to him. Feeling him cum inside of me is not so much sexually rewarding as it gives me a sense of security and especially the feeling from knowing that my own father wanted me enough to express his love for me by giving me such a precious gift.

Watching Brenda and David I could see that incest between a brother and sister was almost just the opposite. There was no love or submission between them. Instead, it was all about lust and self-gratification. It was not really that much different from sex between any two people except that it was so much hotter than just two strangers fucking. Their sexual lust and desire was enhanced by their sibling relationship in a way two ordinary people could never experience. I guess it must have been something like how I felt when I fucked my cousin Rick or his father except in this case the closeness of a brother-sister relationship seemed to make it even more intense.

"Cum in me David," Brenda panted. "Fuck me you bastard."

David leaned forward over her and pressed himself tightly against her ass, ramming his cock deep into her pussy. "Here is comes sis," he hissed into her ear as I saw his hips jerk and I could only imagine how she felt as his cum was shooting from his cock and depositing itself inside of her.

"Oh fuck yeah!" she growled, "Give it all to me."

His hips lunged into her time after time until finally he was spent and he pulled out of her and dropped back into the chair exhausted. His cock looked so good all hard still and wet, covered with a mixture of his cum and her pussy juices. He just leaned back in the chair and breathed heavily with a look of satisfaction on his face. Brenda looked at me and smiled but I wasn't quite finished - not yet!

"Let me lick you," I whispered to her.

She stood up and I slipped off the table and kneeled under her. I leaned down and put my head between her legs as she put one knee up on the table to open herself for me. Mmmmmmm she tasted heavenly! Some if his cum began to drain out of her and I took it in my mouth but didn't swallow it, just collecting it like a rain barrel until I had a nice mouthful of sperm and pussy cum.

I stood up and kissed Brenda, spitting the slimy mix into her open mouth. I heard her murmur her appreciation as we swapped it back and forth until both of us has some in our mouths. We seemed to each have the same idea simultaneously as we turned and opened our mouths and stuck out our cum-covered tongues for David to see. He just grinned and we each swallowed our respective share and then kissed some more while he watched.

Unfortunately, or fortunately as it turned out, our bliss was interrupted by the sound of fighting from the basement below. I guess it was a small miracle that the two brats had gone this long before going at it and actually I'd forgotten all about them. God! It would have been interesting to say the least should one or both of them pop their heads in the kitchen about now! David looked at his watch and gasped.

"Damn! It's almost time for her to be home," he said as he frantically started to dress. "Hurry up you too, she'll kill us all if she finds you like that."

Personally, I think it would've been fun to have her walk in and see him fucking us but practically I knew that was out of the question. Fortunately Brenda and I didn't have much to put on and in less than a minute we were back to a "decent" state of dress. Only one problem - the room smelled of sex and I knew our faces were all flushed and probably had some cum on them.

"You girls have GOT to get out of here," David said in a worried tone. We both kissed him and I patted his crotch one last time.

"It was SO nice seeing you again David," I purred.

David just slapped me playfully on the butt. He looked at Brenda who was standing there looking back at him with an interesting look on her face I wasn't quite sure how to read. Something non-verbal was communicated between them at that moment, something only a brother and sister could share. Suddenly the spell was broken and we both waved goodbye and headed back to my car. Once inside Brenda started to fasten her seatbelt but I stopped her.

"I want to see her come home," I told her.

Suddenly I felt this morbid curiosity to see the wife of the man we had both just been fucking. It was only another minute before her car pulled up and it dawned on me how close we had been to actually being discovered by her! She got out of the car and opened the trunk to get a bag out and went into the house. I felt a tingle as I imagined her kissing him and talking about her day, not knowing that she was standing right where her loving husband had just betrayed her.

"It turns you on, doesn't it? Brenda asked.

"What do you mean?" I replied innocently.

"You know, seeing her after fucking her husband... I think you get off more from the betrayal, the act of adultery, than the actual sex, don't you?"

I didn't reply but just started the car and began to drive back to her house. Brenda twisted to face me in her seat and kept up her questioning.

"Remember earlier I said I thought there was more to you than you let on to me? Seeing you fucking my brother I couldn't help but feel that you enjoyed it much too much to not have done something like that before."

Brenda looked at me for a while as I silently drove on. "Ok, so don't tell me then but someday I'm going to find out the truth about you Kelly!"

I looked over at her and just winked. She burst out laughing and during the remainder of the short drive back to her house we exchanged notes about how it was to be fucked by her brother. She ordinarily didn't like to discuss the subject much so I took advantage of the moment to listen to her perceptions of how it was to be fucked by her own brother.

In the end, though, I still was left with this feeling that as much as she loved it, there was still something in her that told her it was wrong. I guess a lifetime of brainwashing can be all but impossible to completely overcome. In any case, we were soon back at her house and in her living room talking to her parents again. Needless to say we didn't mention anything more than we had to about our little excursion. She certainly didn't need her parents mentioning anything about our visit when his wife was around later on!

I had to head back to town to help with a rehearsal at church. Brenda stayed behind to help her mom with preparations for Easter dinner the next day. I guess I don't have to say how we spent our night together other than to say while it wasn't quite as passionate as the previous night when we both had been apart for so long, it was a great way to spend a night with a close friend!

Sunday morning I had to wake up early as I would be spending the morning and much if the afternoon at church. I said goodbye to her parents and thanked them for a great weekend. Brenda and I hugged as closely as we dared with her parents with us and I winked at her as we split apart.

"Catch ya later roomie," I said as I went to my car. Yes, I would always think of her as that for the rest of my life. She was the first girl I shared a room with, the first girl outside my family that I had sex with, and the first girl I watched having sex with her brother (actually still the ONLY girl for that experience!).

As I drove back to school I thought about how I loved Brenda as a close friend and confidante. Mmmmmmm, what a great Easter weekend it had been!

(Jun 06) Chapter 115: First Time On-Line

Story codes: FF first oral inc mother daughter
Mary - my mom (40)
Charlene (35)

Guys from on-line have been trying to get me to meet them for years and so far, none of them have. Who would have thought that the first person I met from on-line would be a woman - and a married mother with three kids at that?

1. An On-Line Relationship With Charlene

I guess most people would say my sex life is not what you would call boring, to put it mildly. I usually masturbate at least twice day, try to have sex at least daily, have fucked well over a hundred guys - including my dad and his brother although most were at parties, tried out the escort scene, entertained at bachelor parties, and in general just have had some fun times. The one thing, though, that I have never done is meet with anyone I have chatted with on-line. There are a number of reasons why which I have tried to explain a thousand times but the basic reason is simple - why should I? When I chat I have no idea who is really out there talking to me and at the risk of sounding narcissistic, it's not like I have any problems finding someone to fuck me or anything so why risk it? Indeed, I have had some incredible offers - trips, flights, vacations, you name it. There have been times when I was sorely tempted but the risks of getting on a plane to meet a total stranger are just too high for me.

While I realize that this may be frustrating to the people I chat with, it's been fine for me. Things changed a few weeks ago when I was chatting with a woman on line who was telling me about her husband and kids. Charlene was 35 years old and had gotten married right out of high school when she was only eighteen. She had very little experience with men other than her husband and he was actually the only one she had ever gone all the way with sexually. Charlene said that loved her husband dearly and during their seventeen years of marriage she had always been faithful to him with no desire to ever be with another man. She claimed to have never kissed another girl, not even for fun at a party or anything, although sometimes she couldn't help but wonder what it would be like to be intimate with another woman.

One evening she asked me if I had ever been with an older woman other than my mom and her sister. Her question started me thinking because if you take away my mom and aunt, the only older woman I have ever been with was my mom's best friend Tammy and that was only once, and years ago at that. Charlene and I chatted along those lines for a while and later that night when I masturbated I started to dream about what it would be like to be with someone like her. I had been with a couple of girls my age and younger for their first times but never anyone even close to Charlene's age.

The more I thought about it over the next few days the more I got turned on by the idea. The only thing was, was Charlene really interested or was she just chatting to have some fun and appease her sexual curiosity though me on-line? Until recently I thought I had a pretty good idea of who she was. We have been chatting off and on for months and traded photos of ourselves and our families. She had a sixteen year old daughter and two sons at ages fifteen and six (yes, she admitted the six year old was a "surprise").

Her daughter looked very sexy and she often expressed her concerns about how the boys were drawn to her like bees to honey except in this case it was more like hungry wolves to an innocent lamb. The older son was just getting into girls while the youngest one obviously had no interest whatsoever in the opposite sex. Charlene knew all about my family history and while she didn't judge me for it, she made it clear that she was not interested in her kids in that way in the slightest and I respected her for saying so from the start. She knew her husband sometimes gave her daughter the once-over but she was confident it was just his male hormones at work and not a sign of any real interest in her. Charlene didn't even like to discuss incest but she WAS interested in what I had done with my mom's best friend Tammy. Tammy had been about Charlene's age when I was with her so I think in some way Charlene related to that story in my diary more than the others.

As we chatted about Tammy I used the opportunity to try to figure out where Charlene's real interests were without being TOO obvious about it. I enjoyed chatting with her and I didn't want to lose her as an on-line friend given how few "real" girls I get the chance to talk to other than my friends. At the same time I was questioning myself as well. Was I really interested in doing anything with her or just teasing myself as much as anyone? I had sworn to my parents that I would never meet anyone from on-line so what was I doing even thinking about her in that way?

The difference for me in her case seemed to be that she was unique in so many ways such that all the things that had scared me away from other people were not a factor. She lived close by - actually only a few miles south of me in an upscale community. She and her husband weren't "players" where I would be just another notch on their belt. She didn't want her husband involved; in fact she couldn't even bring herself to discuss having a threesome with me let alone seriously even consider it. Charlene wasn't looking for a "relationship", she just wanted to experiment with something she had never done before she got too old and then wished she had done it. Her kids were completely out of the picture. Although we talked about my sexual interests and experiences, I always had this feeling she really didn't approve of a lot of what I did but at the same time it seemed to excite her.

So here was the dilemma I faced: should I meet a local married mom from on-line who had only had sex with one man (and never with a woman) who was looking to meet a younger girl for a one-time rendezvous just to satisfy her curiosity? I wondered if such an opportunity would ever make itself available to me again.

2. Seeking My Mom's Advice

Finally I did the smart thing and decided to discuss it with the one person I trusted explicitly and whose opinion I valued more than anyone else's - my mom. The next morning after my dad was done with me, instead of going back to sleep in my own bed I hopped in bed with my mom. She had been sound asleep so needless to say she was pleasantly surprised.

"Morning honey," she yawned as her eyes barely opened.

I slipped under the covers and rubbed up close to her. My pussy was still sensitive and wet from the fucking my dad had just given me so when I pressed my crotch against her thigh I felt a surge run through me. Mmmmmmm her naked body felt so smooth and warm under her comforter. It could be the middle of August and my mom still slept under a pile of blankets! She was laying on her stomach so I draped one leg over her and pressed my wet pussy against her hip. My arm went over her and my boobs were tight against her side. I couldn't help but move my hips slightly against her to rub my clit against her.

"What's the matter dear?" my mom asked in a groggy voice, "Didn't your dad take care of you this morning?"

"Oh mom!" I pretended to pout, "You know better than that!" I lightly traced the tips of my fingers up and down her spine from her ass to the top of her neck. She stirred slightly which didn't surprise me as I knew from past experience she loved being touched like this.

"Mom... can I ask you a question?"

"Of course honey. What do you want?

I started to explain to her about Charlene, how we had chatted for months and now what I was thinking about doing. When I mentioned the possibility of actually meeting her my mom's eyes opened wide and suddenly she wasn't so sleepy anymore!

"Kelly!" she said, turning on her side to face me, "We've talked a lot about that and you know how I feel."

She stroked her fingers through my hair, making goose bumps rise on me as I shivered. There was just something about the feeling I got when anyone played with my hair and my mom knew it. "You promised you would never meet anyone like that so what's so special about this woman?"

Well, at least she was curious which was better than I had feared things might go at the beginning. I explained to her all the ways Charlene was different from other people I had chatted with. My mom wasn't buying it though.

"You know better Kelly. How can you be certain who she is?" my mom asked. "She could be anyone, maybe not even a woman! Just because she sends photos doesn't mean they are of her!"

"Well mom, if you would let me have a cam then she would turn hers on and I could see her."

As soon as I said that I realized I had crossed the line. If there was one thing that was not negotiable it was a web cam. After the little "incident" in our neighborhood a few years ago my parents made me swear I would never get one. I could have kicked myself for even mentioning one because I knew better than to bring it up. If there was one thing that got my mom mad, this was it.

"I thought that subject was settled, Kelly," she said slowly in a stern voice usually reserved for when I was really bad.

Realizing I was digging myself a deeper hole by the second, I immediately looked to change the subject. Suddenly an idea burst into my mind that just seemed brilliant at the time - as do most of my really stupid ideas when they hatch.

"What if you met her with me?" I asked, "Then you could be sure who she was before I did anything with her."

I said it as soon as the idea hit me so I hadn't had time to think over the ramifications. Would Charlene even meet me under those conditions? I guess it didn't matter because unless my mom was on-board with the idea nothing was going to happen anyway! An expression of deep thought came over her face and finally she smiled and reached forward to kiss me. Our tongues met and I knew from the passion in her kiss that she had reached a decision and it was almost certain that she was going to go along with me. Now I just had to convince Charlene! We laid in each other's arms as we both fell back asleep again. As I drifted off I wondered how Charlene would feel against me as compared to my mom……

That evening I chatted with Charlene and finally got the courage to ask her about meeting. I was thrilled when she immediately accepted and told me she had been hoping I would want to do that. Then I took a deep breath and typed in my next question - would she be willing to let my mom join us for lunch? I struck the Enter key sharply and then sat at my desk as I nervously waited for her response. It seemed like forever but was probably only a couple of minutes before she responded. My heart skipped a beat when I read her response - she said YES!! We chatted for hours after that and finally settled on a time and place. I went to bed that night and masturbated for what must have been more than an hour before I came so hard I almost screamed. My parents were already asleep so I waited until morning before I told my mom.

"Are you SURE you want to do this honey?" she asked from the opposite side of our kitchen table where we were having breakfast. There was something in the tone of her voice that made me think she had not expected anything to really happen and now that it was she wasn't quite sure about her earlier decision. I assured her that I did and she just shook her head. I held my breath as I worried that she was going to change her mind now that I had called her bluff.

"Breath baby!" she exclaimed with a laugh, "I promised you it would be OK so long as I met her and I'm not going to break my word so stop worrying!"

Then I broke the last bit of news - we were going to meet that afternoon for lunch! It was my mom's day off - she worked a strange schedule at the hospital and I always had to look at the calendar in the kitchen to know when she would be home or at work. Although I knew she had the day off, I hadn't checked to see if she had other plans but fortunately she had nothing already scheduled.

"Well, if I'm going to meet some soccer mom who wants to have a fling with my daughter I guess I'd better get going and straighten up!" she said with a hint of a smile on her face. She started to walk out of the kitchen to the stairs when she turned around and looked at me with a look of exasperation on her face.

"You know girl, sometimes I really can't believe the things you get me into!" she said, waving her finger at me. "Just wait until your father gets home and hears about this one!"

She retreated up the stairs while I finished my cereal. It struck me then that I hadn't mentioned a word of this to my dad. Well, I guess that shouldn't have come as a big surprise since I had my mind on other things this morning when he was in my room. He was at work now so unless one of us called him he wouldn't know anything about it until he got home this evening. Somehow this wasn't the sort of thing I wanted to tell him about over the phone so I figured I would just let my mom break the news when he got home tonight. I could just imagine the look on his face!

3. Getting Ready

By the time I had finished breakfast and washed the dishes my mom was already in the shower so I laid back on my bed and thought about what might happen later in the afternoon. I unbuttoned the shirt I was wearing (one of my dad's long- sleeved dress shirts) and let it hang down to my sides to expose my boobs. The cool air blowing from the air conditioner in my room made my nipples harden immediately and as I squeezed them with each hand I felt a tingle run through my chest. Sometime boobs can just get in the way but at times like this I loved having them! Just a gentle massage was usually enough to get my pussy wet and make me feel good from head to toe!

It never ceased to amaze me how such simple things could cause such reactions in men but who was I to complain! As my left hand continued toying with my nipple my right hand worked its way down between my legs and my hips rose up to meet it. I cupped my warm pussy in my hand and pulled upwards to put pressure on my clit. I was rewarded with a warm feeling deep in my pussy and my clit sent out a wave of pleasure like a stone causing waves to ripple outward when tossed in a pond. My hand rubbed my pussy and my fingers worked their way between my outer pussy lips to wet the tips in my pussy hole. I pulled the wetness up to my swollen clit and rubbed it between my fingers as it hardened and became more sensitive by the second.

As horny as I was it didn't take long as soon I began to feel that incredible sensation in my pussy that signaled the arrival of my orgasm. God I loved this feeling! It would begin somewhere deep inside my pussy, like something was swelling up inside of me. The my clit would begin to tingle like my elbow felt when I hit my funny bone and then it radiated sharp sensations of pleasure that pulsed through me like beams of light from one of those silly balls that hung from the ceiling at discos.

Sometime the pleasure was more like a rumbling of a heavy train, deep and powerful, while at others it was sharp and almost painful in its intensity. This time was somewhere in between with a steady flow of bliss surging through me punctuated by almost random shots of intense pleasure that made me gasp for air as my lungs felt frozen as if an electric shock was running through me. My pussy gushed as my cum drenched my hand and I could feel it running down my ass down to soak into my sheets.

"Hmmmmmm, thinking about your new playmate?" I heard from the door.

I was panting as I opened my eyes to see my mom standing there naked, drying her hair off with a towel. She must have had the water set to super-hot as her body was flushed red all over. I smiled at her as I rubbed my pussy slowly to allow the remnants of my orgasm to linger for as long as possible.

"Damn girl, judging from that 'O' you must be REALLY horny!"

I was having a hard time catching my breath so I just smiled at her and winked. She laughed at me and returned to the bathroom to finish drying her hair. I let my head fall back into my pillow as my legs straightened out and laid limp on my bed. It was nice to just relax and reveled in the afterglow of what was indeed was one a hell of an 'O' as my mom put it.

I must have nodded off because the next thing I knew my mom was standing next to my bed shaking me. I looked up to see her D cup breasts hanging down over my face and for a brief moment a thought ran through my head about what they would taste like now that they were all clean and powdered. My mom straightened up though before anything could happen and walked out saying, "Bathroom's yours - you better get going if we're going to make your lunch date!"

I grinned a bit at that. I wasn't so sure I would call it a "date". After all, I was going to be with a woman almost as old as my mom! Oh well, it didn't really matter what she called it so long as the end results were the same! I showered and washed my hair quickly and then dried off. After blowing my hair dry I pulled it back into a single ponytail. Looking in the mirror, I decided against any heavy makeup and so I put on a little base and eye shadow with a light touch of lip gloss. My reasoning behind the hair and makeup was that something told me Charlene was looking for an innocent young girl to be with, not some experienced slut, and I didn't want to disappoint her fantasy!

Back in my room, I picked out a pair of tight jeans that clung to my ass like Saran Wrap. They were actually more accurate than the bathroom scale when it came to measuring my weight as all it took was just one pound to make them all but impossible to get on! I probably should have worn panties in keeping with the spirit of being "innocent and naļve" but anything more than a thong made the jeans damn near impossible to get on without bunching them up and a thong definitely didn't work with this outfit so I decided just to go without anything underneath.

With my bottoms in place it was time to take care of the upper half of me. I searched through my closet and selected a pure white camisole with a lace fringe along the top and bottom. It fit me tightly and I loved the way it outlined my boobs when I didn't wear a bra. The more I looked at myself, though, the more it just didn't seem right so I changed my mind and pulled it back off. Back in my lingerie drawer I selected a jet black bra. I snapped it together in front and the spun it around me until I could slip my arms through the straps and pull it up into place.

Pulling the cami back over, I smiled as I saw the effect in the mirror. The black bra was visible through the white cami material and I loved the erotic look it gave, almost naughty in appearance. Only thing was, it also totally destroyed the "innocent" image so reluctantly I took it back off and this time I picked out a simple plain white bra. There was one thing I liked about this bra and that was how it clasped together in the front making it much easier for the trip to second base! The cami still showed the bra underneath except now it looked more "decent" than provocative.

I looked longingly at my four-inch heels but settled for my standard pink sneakers but I decided not to wear any socks with them. I stood up and took stock of the finished outfit in the mirror.

"Ah yes... the innocent teenage girl-next-door look," my mom said with a grin as she walked in the room. "I'd figured you would go for the "teenage hooker" look myself."

"Oh mom!" I responded, rolling my eyes a bit. She moved in behind me and slapped her flat palm against my bottom. It actually stung a bit and she laughed as I jumped.

"Ok, just checking to see if you had something on under there. Wasn't too sure from the view back here!" she said quickly.

I turned to look at here and almost laughed despite myself. Wow, talk about dressing out of character! My mom is a professional nurse and usually dresses sharp and, depending on the occasion, a bit sexy as well. Fortunately she still had the body for it unlike so many older women who tried to dress like their daughters and ended up just looked ridiculous.

Today though, my mom looked more the part of a your standard plain grade school teacher. She had her hair pulled back and was wearing a plain print skirt outfit with a light colored blouse. The skirt went down about half way between her knees and ankle and the blouse covered her boobs completely without a hint of cleavage. Other than her formal dresses, I couldn't remember the last time she wore a skirt within inches of her knees, let alone far below them! In a way, the outfit made her look older than usual in a mature sort of way.

"Wow mom!" I said as looked at her in amazement. I hadn't seen her look this conservative since... well I couldn't remember when! "Are you trying to be my grandmother or what?"

My mom just laughed saying, "Well, someone has to be the grownup today. Remember, I'm just going to make sure you're OK, not to pick anyone up!"

4. My Mom Checks Out Charlene

By now it was past 11:30 so we headed down to my mom's car in the garage. The jeans pulled deep into my crotch as I sat in the seat and there was a distinct outline in my crotch where it pulled into my pussy slit. My mom stopped at the top of driveway and looked over at me with a questioning look.

"Well, you gonna tell me where we are going or do I have to guess which place we are having lunch?" she asked in a teasing tone of voice. I realized then that I never had told her so when I told her Eat'N Park by the mall she turned her head and stared at me.

"Are you kidding?" she said incredulously, "Not exactly the most private place in town you know."

Well, subtlety was never one of my strong suits so I guess the thought had never crossed my mind as to whether it was appropriate to meet someone like Charlene at a family restaurant considering what we would probably be talking about. Oh well, it would just have to do! I just grinned at my mom and AGAIN she rolled her eyes at me and took off down the road.

It took about fifteen minutes to get there and she found a parking spot near the entrance. I had an idea of what Charlene looked like from the photos she sent me but obviously she knew what I looked like even better because as soon as we entered the restaurant a woman approached us.

"Kelly?" she asked in a cautious tone. I smiled and she continued, "Great, I'm Charlene!"

In front of me stood a woman who looked like most any other housewife in the place. Charlene wasn't bad looking but no knockout either. She was brunette with her hair at shoulder length and a hint of a wave to it. She was wearing a pant outfit with dark blue pants and a light blue blouse with a thin white belt studded with silver. The pants were loose but still revealed a hint of a nice figure. Like her pants, the blouse was loose as well but even so I estimated her at least a D or maybe even DD bra size.

Charlene was wearing a hint of perfume and just the right amount of makeup to accentuate her facial features. If I had to guess I would say she was maybe twenty pounds overweight but it was nicely distributed and not just in her ass like so many women tended to be when they gained weight. The part I liked the most though was her smile. It practically beamed light at us as she waited for a response.

I greeted her as well and introduced her to my mother. There was a brief moment of awkwardness as they shook hands and then my mom reached forward to hug her. I could have kissed her!! The moment broke as the waitress asked us to follow her to our table and set us in a booth. I sat on one side with my mom while Charlene centered herself on the opposite side. I ordered just the salad bar while they each chose the soup and sandwich special. After the waitress left we sat there in silence until finally as if on cue we all broke out into light laughter.

"Well Kelly, I have to admit I was a bit surprised when you asked if your mom could join us," Charlene said to break the ice.

I started to speak but my mom put her hand on mine to signal me to shut up and answered saying, "Well Charlene, it was not Kelly's idea, believe me! You've got a girl so I'm sure you know how it feels when they want to do something you didn't approve of initially."

Charlene blushed at that so my mom quickly continued, "Oh no, nothing like that. I just meant we always had an agreement that she wouldn't meet people she chatted so it sort of took me by surprise I guess."

Charlene seemed to be relieved at that and nodded, "Yes Mary, I understand. Trust me, if this was Mindy I would be the same as you!"

I excused myself to get my salad and as I gathered some stuff I looked back to see them chatting away like two long lost friends. I would have loved to have known what it was that they were talking about because as soon as I returned they both quieted down. Before I could sit down my mom got out of the booth and motioned for me to sit down.

"You know Kelly, I'm just going to cancel my order and let you two be alone."

I looked at her in surprise. Wow! What had they said to each other in the two minutes I was gone? My mom laughed and kissed me on the cheek.

"Don't worry, Charlene said she'll drive you home. I love you!" Then she put her mouth to my ear and whispered, "Have fun!"

With that she left and I was left sitting there speechless. My mom never ceased to amaze me! I was practically bursting with curiosity but Charlene wasn't offering anything so I guess I would have to wait until I got home to see if my mom would fill me in.

"So Kelly, that's quite the outfit you have on there," Charlene said softly. "You know, I would never allow Mindy to wear that!"

I wasn't sure where she was going with this so I just smiled and answered saying, "Really? I thought it was fairly conservative myself to be honest.?"

"Oh yeah!" she responded quickly, "Don't take this wrong, it looks perfect on you with that cute butt and all. I just don't want Mindy flaunting herself like that is all I meant."

It was all I could do from letting my jaw drop to the table. God, I thought I was being super conservative and here she was saying I was "flaunting" myself! I couldn't help but wonder what kind of clothes poor Mindy had to wear. In a way, Charlene was starting to sound like my Aunt Shari, one of my dad's ultra- conservative sister-in-laws. Aunt Shari was that way with my cousins in that she wouldn't let them wear anything provocative. If she had any idea at all what her son and husband did to me and my mom I think she would have fallen over dead on the spot! The difference between Charlene and Aunt Shari was that I could never picture my aunt chatting with a girl on-line and then agreeing to meet her for sex!

Charlene's soup and sandwich quickly arrived and for the rest of the lunch we just traded small talk as if we were just any two friends out for lunch. After we were finished and the waitress had left the check, Charlene looked at me and I could tell from the expression on her face the time for small talk was over. She licked her lips quickly and took in a deep breath. Looking around to be sure nobody could hear, she said softly, "So tell me Kelly, do you still want to come home with me?"

It was my lips now that suddenly felt dry and so I licked them quickly before I replied in the same soft voice she had used saying, "Ohhhhhh... I would love to Charlene!"

The truth was I wanted to go home with her more now than ever. In the past when I had fantasized about meeting someone like this it was always some wild sexy meeting with both of us dressed like whores, flaunting ourselves (and in this case I mean "flaunting" the way I would define it which is a LOT more erotic than Charlene's definition!) and then maybe doing it just out of sight. Somehow this seemed so much better.

There was just something about her - straight, conservative, good looking but not gorgeous, honest, love for her family, and so forth that made Charlene so appealing. I think the phrase "MILF" was coined when someone wanted a mother like her.

Actually, I felt really comfortable with her instead of intimidated. Unless she was the world's greatest actress I had no fears whatsoever regarding my safety as she seemed in every way to be exactly what she appeared to be with one little exception - she wanted to play with a girl just once! Well, I was more than willing to give her those memories!

We went to the counter near the entrance where she paid the bill. I noticed she at first took out a credit card from her wallet and seemed to think about it and put it back and paid for the meal with cash. I guess she didn't want her husband to ask why she was buying lunch for two today although I couldn't imagine that any husband would watch his wife's credit card that close. As we stood there I noticed a couple of teenage boys were with their father. I wasn't sure who was staring at my ass more - the boys or their dad! Naturally I acted as if I didn't notice but I bent down to look at some of the cookies in the display rack by the checkout counter. I could feel the already tight denim stretch almost to the breaking point and the seam pulled up into my pussy to where it was starting to feel pretty good actually!

I didn't look back but I could only imagine the wide eyes as they shamelessly stared at my butt. I stood up after Charlene pocketed her change and we walked out together. Once we were outside she broke out in giggles.

"I can't believe you did that!" she snickered, "Have you no shame?"

I reached over and hugged her which was actually the first time we had touched so far this afternoon.

"Well, you've read most of my diary, are you really surprised?" I said with a sly grin.

Charlene shook her head as we walked across the lot. "Well, it's one thing to read them but quite another thing to see you in action! To be perfectly honest, I sometimes questioned whether or not you were exaggerating in some of them but I guess you weren't. God, I was never so forward when I was your age!" We both laughed at that and soon we reached her car, or more properly, her minivan. Wow! She really was a soccer mom! She pressed the remote a couple of times and we both got in and buckled up. We looked across at each other and when I smiled at her she actually blushed!

"You really are very pretty Kelly," she said softly as she paused before starting the van.

I just smiled back at her all the more and sat still in my seat as she pulled out of the parking lot and headed up the road.

5. Charlene Learns What It's Like to Be Licked by a Girl

I didn't know exactly where Charlene lived but I knew in what township and it seemed we were heading in the wrong direction. I started to speak up but she had already anticipated my question.

"Oh, I forgot to tell you that I have to pick up Ryan. He's at soccer practice and I have to bring him home." She was watching the road as she drove but still managed to see the questioning look on my face. "Don't worry, he will be leaving right away to visit some friend's house, I made sure of that!"

"What about...," I started to ask. Charlene again anticipated my question.

"Mindy is heading out to the movies, she is probably pacing like a caged up tiger waiting for Ryan to get home so he can drop her off, and Joey is staying with his grandparents this week - they live up in Butler. Ron's at work and never gets home before 7:00 so don't worry - we'll have the house all to ourselves!"

Well, it seemed she had it all worked out. We were soon at practice field where waiting for us impatiently was her fifteen year old son Ryan. He started to get in the front door but then saw me and hopping in back instead. I would have loved to have seen the look on his face! He was probably wondering who I was and why I was in the van.

"Hey Ryan, how was practice?" Charlene asked.

God, it was like I was an episode of "Leave it to Beaver" or something! Minivan, mom in her pant suit, son in his sweats and now probably heading to some typical home in the suburbs with a dog! Ryan just grunted something unintelligible but Charlene just brushed it off.

"Ryan, this is Kelly," Charlene said.

She seemed to have a knack for knowing what people were about to ask and I was sure Ryan was curious about me even if he couldn't see much of me as he was directly behind my seat. "She's going to start doing some tutoring this summer and was going to see if any of my old books and stuff might be helpful."

I wasn't quite sure what she was talking about but evidently Ryan did because he didn't say a word the rest of the way home. Charlene had never mentioned anything about teaching before, she just said she was a housewife. We pulled up to a beautiful two story brick home set back in the trees. A cobblestone driveway wound its way through the trees to the open door in the three-car garage. The place looked immaculate and obviously somebody in the household was pulling in some big money!

Charlene had never talked much about her husband, only that he was away a lot on business which is what led her to start chatting on the Internet. Hmmm, I wondered what business he was in! In the garage was what looked to be a brand new black Mercedes and the other spot was empty - probably where her husband parked. Ryan hopped out as soon as the van stopped and ran into the house through a door at the end of the garage. Charlene and I got out more slowly and again she seemed to be reading my mind.

"I hope you didn't mind the van," she said, "I would have drove the Mercedes but I had to pick up Ryan and sometimes he is so dirty after practice!"

Well, so much for "Leave it to Beaver"! These folks were loaded! The doorway through which Ryan had disappeared led into a mudroom where had had dumped his bag and shoes and was now out of sight.

"Come on in," she invited me, "The place is a wreck so please excuse the mess."

Well, if this is what the place looked like when it was a "mess", I couldn't imagine it when it was "clean"! Just as we came in I heard a huff from what must have been Mindy. She was still around the corner in the kitchen and so she didn't see me but I could just see her. She was your typical sixteen year old and despite her mother's claims to the contrary, was dressed to the hilt complete with full makeup and an attitude to match. Her outfit was more "Britney Spears" than anything. My mom wouldn't have batted an eye if I had worn it at her age but if Charlene thought my tight jeans were sinful than I could only imagine what she thought of Mindy in her short skirt and cami!

"God Mom, could you have possibly been ANY later?" I heard her whine.

"Mindy, you know better than to talk like that. Good lord - you're not going out like THAT are you?" Charlene exclaimed. I grinned at the irony when I considered what she was planning to do herself today but at the same time it seemed almost surreal to listen to this mother-daughter exchange when in a few minutes I could very well be in bed with the mom!

Ryan was back now and like a typical guy he must not have bothered to shower before changing into his ripped jeans and shirt. He actually looked grungier now than he did coming home from practice!

"It's about time Ryan!" Mindy bitched at him. God was she ever the little princess! I heard her march off in a huff to the garage with Ryan right behind. In their rush they apparently never even saw me standing off in the corner. The garage door slammed shut and I heard the minivan start up and roar out of the garage. Charlene came up to me looking a little sheepish.

"Sorry about all that," she said ruefully, "They are at that age it seems."

We both laughed and she gave me a tour of the house. The place was huge, even bigger than it appeared from the outside. The kitchen looked like something from a professional chef's home, the great room had a gigantic fire place with a ceiling that rose to the top of the house. Every room, from the smallest bedroom to the huge family room, was something out of the Martha Stewart magazine.

Then she led me out to the back where they had a magnificent deck and incredible curved pool with a diving board and slide. It was surrounded by trees and fencing making it totally private as well. I couldn't help but imagine what I would be doing if I had a pool like that in my back yard!

"Well, what do you think of our little abode?" she asked as she turned to face me.

I let loose a deep breath and replied, "Wow! It's incredible. I can't imagine living in a house like this."

Charlene grinned at that. "I can't say it's not nice. The kids really are pretty good most of the time - you just caught them at a bad moment I'm afraid. My husband is just wonderful and he like to take good care of me as you can see. I use to teach but now I don't have to work anymore and so I just spend my time taking care of Joey and spending his money!"

Damn, not a bad gig if you can get it! Well, the tour was great and all but I was beginning to wonder whether or not Charlene was really going to go through with this. It was almost like she was stalling, using the tour to avoid having to do anything. So far the only time we had even touched each other was when I hugged her outside the restaurant. Most boys were at second base by now with me - or farther! I guessed it was going to take some initiative on my part.

"You haven't shown me your bedroom yet Charlene," I said with a seductive tone.

Charlene blushed again and for a moment I wondered if she was going to not show it to me. Then a look of resolve came to her face and she led the way back into the house. I followed her up the spiraling stairs and into what at first I thought was another living room except this one had a bed in it.

Talk about a master bedroom! This one was HUGE. A giant king-size bed with a canopy dominated the center of the room with matching furniture skillfully laid out to fill the rest of the room. An open doorway led to the bathroom which again was bigger than my parents family room. Everything was marble or granite with gold fixtures and I even wondered if they weren't real gold!

A portrait of her and her husband hung in the room. He was incredibly handsome and the two of them made a terrific looking pair. I looked back at the bed and then at the portrait again and then at Charlene.

"When was the last..." I started to say and Mrs. Clairvoyant once again finished my sentence.

"The last time we made love?" she asked. "Sunday afternoon after church."

Damn! How did she do that? It was like she was reading my mind. Well, if she could then she should know what to do next. This was definitely not anything like I had fantasized for my first time meeting someone on-line! Charlene seemed to be the perfect mother and housewife. She was faithful to her husband, loved her kids, active in church (based on the literature and bulletins I saw on the counters) and besides all that, just a very sweet and loving soul.

Then there was me, standing in the middle of her bedroom like some whore about to do a trick. Suddenly my stomach felt funny, almost ill as I felt totally out of place, almost as if I was somehow defiling something sacred. For the first time I started questioning whether or not this was the right thing to do. Fortunately Charlene finally took the initiative.

"Kelly, I have always wondered what it would be like to be with another woman. I just don't know what to do, what is expected of me. Can you help me please?"

My mind snapped out of the trance I was falling into and suddenly as I looked at her I realized how much I wanted her. She was by no means the woman she had been twenty years before but the innocence and virtue that seemed to flow from her overwhelmed me. I wanted to feel her exploring me as she touched a woman with lust for the first time in her life. I moved up close to her and put my arms around her. She was about an inch taller than me so we matched up well and our eyes met.

"Kiss me," I said to her gently.

Without another word she closed her eyes and her lips parted slightly as we moved closer until I felt her mouth against mine. Her lips were warm and soft and once committed, she didn't hold back. It was like she had finally let down her guard and released her pent up desires all at once. God it was so passionate! She put her arms around me and pulled me in tight to her, our tongues touching and playing. Finally we parted and she gasped, a look of bewilderment on her face.

"Oh god I kissed a girl!" she exclaimed softly, more to herself than to me.

It wasn't an expression of regret but rather one of amazement and wonder. She leaned forward and again we kissed, this time with even more passion if that were possible. I felt her hand move down my back and then she gingerly cupped my butt in her hands. My own hand felt their way to the front of her and I struggled to undo her belt and finally I was able to get it open. My hands worked their way into the elastic back of the pants and down inside her panties until I had her bare ass in my hands. Even though it was bigger than any I had ever held before, it wasn't gross or anything like that. Charlene was a little overweight but I wouldn't classify her as fat by any means.

"I can't believe I'm holding your ass," she whispered to me in my ear.

"Mmmmmmm, I want you to hold a lot more than that," I responded softly as I grabbed onto her ass and pulled it towards me. "Undress me," I whispered to her.

Charlene let go of me and stepped back just enough to be able to see my front. I noticed her hands were shaking just a little as she lifted my cami over my head. Then she unsnapped my jeans and unzipped them. She tried to lower them down but they were so tight she struggled to get them over my hips. I finally had to help her and once they cleared my butt she lowered them down and I tried to step out of them but forgot about my sneakers.

We giggled like little girls as she kneeled down to untie them and slip them off my feet so she could pull my jeans completely off of me. I was left standing there bottomless in just my bra which felt sort of funny since I didn't have anything else on. Charlene gazed at me, looking me up and down as if she hadn't seen a girl before!

"All of it," I whispered huskily, "Take my bra off."

Charlene expertly unsnapped my bra and lowered it down over my arms. God it felt so good to let my boobs be free again as I hate wearing bras! I stood there completely nude in front of this older woman who was still fully dressed but I loved every second of it as she licked her dry lips as she gazed at my nude body.

"Oh Kelly, you're so beautiful," she said in a voice filled with emotion. For a moment I thought she would cry! "How could anyone as pretty as you ever want me?" she said, a tear starting to form in her eye.

I didn't say a word as frankly, I had absolutely no idea what to say at the time! So instead of saying something stupid I started to undress her, slowly, one piece at a time. She just stood there as I did, seemingly uncertain as to how to react to me. Finally she was just in her white bra and pink nylon panties (yep, soccer mom!). I started to pull her panties down but she grabbed me by the shoulders. I looked up at her and she struggled to speak.

"I wasn't lying to you when I said I have never been with a girl like this," she said in a shaky voice. "I really I don't know if I can go through with this."

"It's ok Charlene," I said in soothing voice, "you're a beautiful woman and I want you."

I resumed pulling down her panties and this time she didn't resist. As her panties moved down they revealed her pussy and I smiled as I saw how bushy she was. She probably had never trimmed it in her entire life! I know some girls are so self-conscious about their pussies and even trimming them is too "naughty" for them. I wondered if she and her husband enjoyed oral sex? Well, I would find out soon enough hopefully! Her panties cleared her full ass and I pulled them down to her bare feet and she gingerly stepped out of them. I stood up, holding her panties and then I put them to my face and drew in a deep breath.

"Mmmmmmm, you smell so strong," I whispered.

For just a moment she looked at me like I was some sort of alien but didn't say a word. I guess she had never seen a girl sniff her panties before - maybe not even a guy for that matter!

I dropped her soiled panties to the floor and moved behind her. Her bra had more than twice as many snaps as mine and it was just plain easier if I could see what I was doing! I quickly unsnapped her and then moved back around to the front where she dropped her arms and the bra slid off them and down to the floor, releasing her ample boobs.

"They're not nearly as firm as yours are Kelly," she said.

I just smiled and cupped them in my hand. They were definitely the largest boobs I had ever held! They were a little bit on the saggy side but that was as much to do with their DD size as anything else. Heck, it would have taken some radical surgery to keep boobs like hers from sagging! They felt hefty in my hands but soft and warm as any natural boob feels.

I leaned down and took her right nipple in my mouth, pulling on it gently and then running my tongue in circles around it. I was pleased to hear her moaning softly as she responding to me. I used both hands to caress the boob I was sucking and massaged it gently as my mouth did most of the work.

"Oh Kelly, that feels so good!" she said, a little louder and more firmly now. Her nipple swelled and hardened and I took it gently between my teeth and tugged softly on it while my tongue licked the tip. After a while I switched to her other breast and repeated the same sequence there such that both of her nipples were rock hard, wet and sensitive.

I stood up and took her by the hand and pulled her gently but firmly to the bed. She threw back the covers and we laid on the soft sheets in the center of the bed. She was on her back and so I laid to the side of her and slightly on top so I could continue my work on her huge boobs. I looked down her body as I did and admired her. She was a little overweight but somehow manage to keep it distributed such that she wasn't overly plump on any one area. There were no mounds of fat anywhere, just a little extra meat in most places. All in all she was a very sexy looking mom! Looking down her smooth stomach I could see the hairy mound of pubic hair rising between her legs and I couldn't wait to bury my face in it!

I traced my fingers slowly down Charlene's stomach, running them sideways back and forth such that with each pass I moved a little further down towards my goal. Once when my fingertips lightly touched her side just below her belly button she jump and giggled.

"Sorry," she said rather sheepishly, "I'm VERY ticklish right there."

I just looked up at her as I kept her nipple in my mouth and smiled as I continued my teasingly slow explorations. Finally I brushed against the start of her pubic line and I could feel the coarse hair as my hand passed by. My hand stopped in the center and I pushed downwards until my fingers were intertwined with her long pussy hair. I had always loved the feel of pubic hair between my fingers - male or female. It had such a different texture and feel and the stiff curls in it pulled through my fingers as I stroked it. I was just barely above her clit when her hand suddenly clasped mine and held it in place.

"I've never been touched there by a girl before" she whispered in a quivering voice.

I looked up at her and smiled, "Don't worry Charlene... trust me."

Her legs were together as I pushed my fingers between her thighs. As I pressed harder I felt them part as she spread her legs to allow me to reach between them more easy access to her pussy. My hand cupped her pussy, my palm on top of her clit with my fingers extended downward over her pussy lips. I pressed my entire hand against her to apply an even pressure over her entire crotch, pulling upward and gently moving my hand to massage her.

Ever so slowly I let my fingers begin to work their way between her pussy lips, my hand still moving between her thighs. Mmmmmmm, they were already wet and my fingers easily slid between them and I could feel my fingertips run over her pussy

From the look on her face I could tell that she knew what I was about to do and my heart skipped a beat as I realized she was doing nothing to discourage me.

I kept my eyes locked on hers as my head moved slowly downward until it was between her legs. Even this far away I could smell the musky odor of her pussy and I glanced down as smiled as I saw it glistening in the dim light of the bedroom. I turned my head to the side and kissed the inner part of her thigh, letting my tongue run up and down it as my lips would kiss her every couple of inches. Her skin was so smooth and she softly moaned, her hands flat on the bed to her sides as she lifted her hips and rotated them slowly for me.

Looking her in the eyes again, I moved forward until my face felt the outer fringes of her hairy cunt and I reached out with my tongue until it just touched her pussy. She was VERY hairy and I started to use my hand to spread it apart when her hands reached down and pushed her hair out of the way, spreading her pussy open in the process. I looked down then and saw her pussy lips pulled apart, exposing her swollen clit which was pushing out of its hiding place for me to see like a hard little dick. I took it in my mouth, pulling on it gently between my lips as I had done to her nipples earlier.

"Oh my god!" she gasped as I felt her body stiffen.

As I sucked on her clit I pushed my finger back inside of her and slowly stroked it in and out of her like she was being fucked. She released her pussy and took her boobs in her hands, massaging them as she watched me licking her pussy. The more I licked her the loader her moans became. She was definitely what I heard guys refer to as "a moaner"!

As I fucked her first with one and then two fingers she started to hump like she was actually being fucked to the point where it was hard for me to keep my mouth on her clit. Then she put both of her hands on my head and pushed me down tight onto her pussy while at the same time arching her back and driving her hips up into my face.

"Don't stop... Oh fuck, don't stop now... Make me cum!" she cried out as she grabbed my head like it was a melon and pressed me into her.

I kept going, running my tongue on her clit and licking her pussy. Suddenly she froze and I didn't even hear her breathing. A few second later her pussy gushed out at me and she let out a huge breath as she cried out. She held her hips up, then quickly bounced down and then pushed them up again to hold them against my face, repeating this several times as her orgasm racked her body. Her legs squeezed my head as she held me tightly to her pussy and for a moment I actually wondered if I was going to be able to breathe!

Finally she literally collapsed on the bed, her arms and legs flat and her chest heaving as she gasped for air. I moved to her side and crawled up to be alongside of her and then laid next to her so our bodies pressed against each other along their full lengths. She felt like she was on fire and her skin was slick with a thin film of sweat that covered her. Her eyes were closed and her face was flushed beet red and she breathed heavily. I leaned over and kissed her softly on the lips and her eyes opened. I leaned back and smiled at her as she grinned up at me.

"Well?...," I whispered to her.

"God, that was incredible Kelly," she said in a raspy voice, "I've never cum like that before... never!"

I gave her a wink and a peck on the cheek. "Like they say, nobody can lick pussy like another girl!" I said with a sly grin.

"Damn, you can say that again!" she replied as her cheeks puffed out and she released another long breath.

We kissed again and her tongue ran over my lips and touched mine as we played like little girls exploring each other for the first time. Then I reminded myself that in a way that is what is actually was for her as she had never kissed a girl before!

She turned on her side and we took each other in our arms and just kissed for the longest time. Her large breasts pressed against mine and I felt a tingle in mine as her hard nipples brushed my own. Her hands wandered over me like a boy in a drive-in theater groping a girl for the first time, running through my hair, down my back and then cupping my ass in her hand. Then finally she pulled me tight against her and just hugged me before she whispered in my ear.

"Let me try now Kelly," she said in a voice so low I could barely hear her even though she was so close I could feel her breath against the side of my face as she spoke. " I want to make you cum the way you did for me."

Well, I wasn't going to argue with that! I had a different idea though for her first pussy tasting. I pushed her onto her back again and she looked at me questioningly.

"Don't worry... trust me," I said reassuringly to her.

6. Charlene Licks Her First Pussy

Once Charlene was on her back again I got up on my knees and then grabbed the headboard behind her and used it to balance me as I swung one leg over her until I was straddling her chest. She looked at me with a bit of surprise but I just put my finger to my mouth, hushing her to keep quiet and have patience.

I could feel her boobs under my ass and I gyrated my hips slowly to let them rub against my exposed pussy. I was wet from anticipation my pussy slid over her nipples. She smiled up at me and her hands held my ass gently, squeezing my buttocks and then releasing them.

I raised myself up on her until my crotch was a couple of inches above her face and look down at her in the eyes. She alternated looking at me and then at my pussy. This was probably the closest her face had ever been to another woman's crotch and I could see her licking her lips subconsciously.

"Ready?" I asked her. It wasn't necessary to say anything more, she knew exactly what I was asking her about.

She didn't actually answer but instead just smiled and nodded her head just enough for me to understand. She had this look of determination on her, as if she was approaching some new challenge and was about to give it her all. I slowly lowered myself down to her face, leaning over and holding onto the top of the headboard to keep myself from dropping down on her too fast. She stuck out her tongue and reached out to me as my wet pussy approached.

Unlike her, my pussy was smoothly shaven and so there was no preliminary touching of hair like I had felt with her. I felt a tingle run through me as I felt the tip of her tongue touch me for the first time and I lowered myself down more until I felt myself lightly touching her face. Her hands gripped my ass tightly and her tongue run up and down my pussy. I didn't say a word but let her natural instincts take over. Unlike a guy, she knew what was what down there and where it felt good.

Most guys had no clue how to lick a pussy, especially the younger ones. Heck, half of them didn't even know where my clit was let alone what to do with it. Most boys figured a girl's inner pussy was where all the action was, a mistake I guess which was only natural considering that's where their cock fit in. Even older guys would push their fingers up into me and play around with their fingertips, wrongfully assuming the deeper they touched me the better I liked it.

I was just as amazed at how many girls were too embarrassed to tell a guy what he was doing wrong and just let them fumble about thinking they were the greatest pussy eaters in history. It wouldn't be so bad except sometimes I was the next girl and had to set them right without crushing their egos too badly.

From Charlene's actions, I would have known she was a girl even if I had been blindfolded. Her tongue focused on my clit and she didn't try to smash it but instead played the tip of her tongue around it, teasing it, caressing it. She would then lick my pussy slit, working her way to my pussy hole and pushing her tongue just inside of me.

Guys always seemed to think they had to get in deep and so although they might try for a while with their tongue, they would always want to use their finger instead so they could reach in me deeper. Idiots! Most tongues were plenty long enough to reach into me where I was the most sensitive other than my clit. The first half inch or so of my pussy was the most erotic and sensitive part of my cunt and to feel a tongue playing it was far better than any finger!

The only good thing a finger in my pussy did was to stroke in and out of me and act like a cock was fucking me. Not that that was bad! The key is that a tongue just inside of me beat a finger deep in me every day of the week! Believe it or not, what I have found actually works best with guys is to show them how I masturbate. Not just laying back and closing my eyes and pretending he is not there just to put on a show. No, the best thing was to explain to him what I was doing, show him where I liked to touch myself, explain to him where I was sensitive and where I wasn't quite so much.

Charlene was, as I expected, a natural pussy eater. I gasped and moaned as she would loft her head up and push her face into my crotch. I could feel her nose pressing against my clit as her mouth and tongue played with my pussy. Her hot breath felt wonderful against me as it gently passed over my clit which was about as sensitive as it could possibly be at this point.

"That's it Charlene," I told her, "That's just what I want... Almost there... Almost there!"

Indeed I was! I could feel that odd sensation in me that I always had when an orgasm was about to strike me. It was like the calm just before a thunderstorm struck except in this case it was as if the sun was shining brightly, warming me inside as my body seemed to withdraw from reality, ready to concentrate on nothing more than the storm about to surge in me. Her tongue flicked against my clit again and the storm came crashing in. Mt back arched and my head fell back as Charlene's tongue pressed again against my clit.

"Yesssssssssss!" I cried out, loud enough that if someone had been in the house they would have probably come running to see what had happened to me.

It was simple really, what was happening was my body was literally screaming as it felt like a fire was surging through me. I felt my pussy releasing a wave of cum onto her face, almost like I was peeing on her from the way it flooded over her. I ground my pussy into her face as my hips rotated in small circles around and around.

I looked down to see Charlene's eyes wide open, staring at me as if she was wondering what wild animal was sitting on her face. I slid down her and laid on top of her, my head on her shoulder as her arms wrapped around me and help me tight against her. She turned her head towards me and we kissed, my pussy cum all over her face. Mmmmmmm, I loved tasting myself on someone else, their face cock, whatever. We stayed like that while my pussy slowly calmed down. I felt totally spent, as if she had drained everything from me when I came on her.

"Oh Charlene, that was wonderful," I whispered to her.

"I never dreamed it would be like that," she said, closing her eyes as if reliving the past moments. "I honestly never knew I could feel this way."

It was getting close to the time when any of the kids might be coming back. Reluctantly we parted and got off the bed. We both stood there naked, facing each other. It was if we both were thinking the same thing as suddenly we both burst into laughter. It wasn't that there was anything funny about what we had done, it was more laughter over how happy we both felt, as if we were releasing the last bit if tension we had been harboring. Charlene looked in the mirror and gasped.

"Oh god, look at me!" she said as she put her hands to her face, "I look like a wreck, I have GOT to take a shower."

I looked at the clock and reminded her what time it was. It was hard to believe how fast a couple of hours could go by! Charlene looked torn as on the one hand she knew her kids could be home any second but on the other she didn't know to explain the she looked - and smelled if she didn't know it. I started to dress and she finally did the same, shaking her head in disbelief at what we were doing.

I grabbed a hairbrush from her dresser and ran it though my hair as I looked in her mirror. I grinned at the face I saw in the mirror. I had that glow about me that my liked to describe as my "just been fucked" look. Basically it meant I was flushed with bright eyes and a wicked grin I couldn't wipe off my face if you punched me! Charlene doused herself with some perfume and brushed her hair into place as well and off we went.

Charlene drove me home... in her Mercedes this time. We were both a bit overwhelmed by everything still and didn't say a word the entire way back. When we reached my house she pulled into the driveway and turned off the car. She turned in the seat and faced me.

"Can we do this again Kelly?" she asked.

Part of me wanted to immediately answer with a resounding "YES!" but I knew it wasn't possible. Just as I never met again with the married guys I let fuck me, I knew deep in my heart there was no way we could ever do this again. If we left it as it was, it would always be wonderful experience for the both of us. If we did it again it would be a relationship and neither of us needed one of those. I leaned over and we kissed passionately, not caring who may see us as they drove by. We parted and I looked into her eyes and sadly shook my head.

"I'm sorry Charlene," I said slowly, "I think you know we can't do this again."

Charlene's face scrunched up but she nodded her head knowingly. "Yes, I understand," she replied, "But I still want you to know how much I appreciate what you did for me today."

I blew her a kiss and got out of the car and closed the door. Charlene backed out of the driveway and we waved to one another as she drove off. I felt conflicted, sorry to see her go yet in some way relieved. At the start of the day I had been so excited about the possibilities yet in some ways incredibly afraid. I had never done anything like this before and now that it was over I knew I didn't have to do it again.

I went into the house where my mother was waiting. She looked at me with a questioning gaze and didn't say a word. I stood there at first, trying my best to put on a blank face. Then suddenly I couldn't hold it back anymore and I smiled and rushed into her waiting arms. We hugged and kissed and then she held me at arm's length.

"Well?" was all she said.

"Let's go upstairs and I'll tell you all about it," I said with a nasty grin.

She looked at me and then smiled in return, taking my hand as she led me to her room., Nothing beats an evening with my mom and tonight it was especially hot as I told her all about my day. What a way to end what was one of the most incredible days I had had in a long time!

(Jun 12) Chapter 116: My Best Friend's Father

Me (21)
Beth - BFF (21)
Mr. Anderson - Beth's Father (49)

Beth has been my best friend for what seems forever. In fact, she is so close to my family that she is the only girl outside our family that my dad has been with - and the only one to know what he enjoys doing to me as well. Was it time for me to repay the favor?

1. Was It Adultery?

Everyone has a best friend, that person you've known since childhood who has always been there for you. She's the one you confide in, yell at, and in general feel free to say or do anything yet you know she will always be there for you later. You share everything with your best friend, right?

For me, Beth has always been that best friend. I've said before that my parents were my best friends but that is more from the standpoint of the type of relationship we have. After all, my parents can't just walk away from me! Beth and I met when we were little girls and went through school together, grew up in church together, and partied together.

Beth and I certainly have our differences but I think that is what has made our relationship so special. Had we been clones of one another I doubt that we would have been able to stand the sight of each other after a while. Our strengths and weaknesses complement each other and as a pair we were stronger than the two of us individually.

As an only child, I never had a sister whereas Beth was the youngest of what had been a virtual tribe at home. She was the next-to-youngest of five kids - three boys and two girls. Her older siblings had all finished school and moved out leaving just her and her younger brother Tony at home as she finished school at a local college. For me, Beth was almost like a sister to me, at least the way I dreamed having a sister would have been. She was a regular fixture at our house as we grew up and it was almost at times like she actually WAS a member of the family. I spent a lot of time at her house as well and her parents were more like my aunt and uncle than your typical older couple.

From the time I started having sex, I'd always preferred more one-on-one sex than groups. It's not that I have anything against orgies or gangbangs, it's just that I like the intimacy. To be completely honest I have to admit that I prefer being the center of attention as well.

In contrast, Beth's first time was with two guys and she never looked back. As she got older, some of her partners would invite her to private parties and soon she became a fixture at the local sex party scene. Of course I knew she went to them since we shared most of our experiences; but the whole sex party scene never sounded like something I really wanted to get involved with.

It wasn't until I was nineteen and home on break after my freshman year of college that she convinced me to join her at one of her so-called parties. As things turned out, it was quite an experience and over the next few years I attended a few of them. Each was a little different and offered me new experiences so I found them fun but purely from a sexual perspective. The problem was that afterwards I was always left with this cold empty feeling when I realized I didn't even know the names of some of the guys who had fucked me! It wasn't that it was important to me that I knew their names, it was the fact that they never told me them in the first place and then pumped me full of their cum that was the problem for me.

One of the interesting things about Beth and I was that as close as we were, we had never done anything of an overtly sexual nature with each other except for some playing around at the parties. That really didn't count for me since everyone was doing it so it wasn't like we were being exactly intimate with one another. I don't know if it was actually a conscious decision or more of something that just never happened. Maybe it was something in the backs of our minds something told us if we went down that path that maybe there was a chance we might change our relationship into something we weren't ready for.

Then one day everything changed. I was home on fall break from my sophomore year in college when we were in the hot tub together and had sex for the first time. It wasn't something we planned but rather something that just happened. What really made it incredible was that it didn't end there. My parents came home while we were making out in the hot tub and to my complete shock and amazement, my dad ended up fucking Beth right in front of me and my mom!

I should say at this point that there WAS one thing I had not shared with Beth up to that point and that was my "special" relationship with my parents. Thus when he did her all I did was watch and didn't join in. It just didn't seem to be the right time to tell her - if there would ever be such a time for that matter.

Seeing my dad having sex wasn't exactly new - I'd seen him fuck my mom and aunt many times before this but there was a good reason for me to be shocked seeing him do Beth. As close as we were, Beth was not actually my sister and for my dad to fuck her was technically adultery and a sin. Since marriage, neither my mom or dad had ever had sex with anyone not in their immediate family. This had held true for over twenty years of marriage and I'd always considered it one of the major pillars in the success of their marriage. Thus at first I wasn't sure how to take it but the more I thought about it the less it bothered me. After all, I only had one best friend and if there was anyone that should be able to fuck my dad it would be her.

A month later when I was home on Christmas break my dad did Beth again. That was the last time they did it until finally in September of last year we did it together with my dad. That was another significant moment because until then I had never told anyone outside my family about what I did with my family. It felt great to be able to finally openly discuss it with my best friend! It didn't hurt that having her watch while I rode my dad was an incredibly erotic feeling.

As it turned out, that was the last time my dad did anything with Beth. I know she would love to do him again - he's not bad at all when it comes to sex, but he hasn't shown any interest and I have never wanted to push the issue. Although neither he or my mom ever said anything to me about it, I can't help but wonder if perhaps they have had second thoughts about whether he should be fucking Beth. Not so much that it was Beth as the fact he was committing adultery. If there was one thing they'd both had drilled into me growing up was to be careful what doors you opened because even though you may just peek inside, unless you're ready to face whatever is on the other side, don't open the door. I wondered if perhaps my dad had chosen to shut this particular door while he still could...

In any case, my dad never mentioned fucking Beth again and never showed any interest in doing her. We have sort of avoided the subject and the whole affair made me understand the wisdom in my parents' position on adultery. Even if both partners agreed to it there was never going to be a happy ending.

2. Playing In the Pool

Beth had invited me over to her house to spend the night. The weather was great and I couldn't wait to go over and jump in her family's beautiful in-ground pool. I drove over to her house and she greeted me at the door with a squeal and a hug. Her parents were in the living room and waved hello as I passed though. I'd been to their house so many times and spent so many nights there they didn't even bat an eyebrow when they saw me.

Beth and I went straight to her room where we traded gossip and caught up on our latest adventures. I even told Beth all about my day out with Charlene - the soccer-mom who the first person I had ever met from the Internet. Beth was stunned at the news to say the least.

"Oh my god, Kelly," she gasped as I concluded my account of that day.

Needless to say I left out the parts about what I did at my own house with my parents but she was plenty turned on hearing about what I had to say as it was. "And her I thought you'd sworn NEVER to meet anyone that way - no matter how tempting."

I shrugged my shoulders and smiled. She was right, as usual. I had indeed sworn never to meet anyone from on-line and for years I'd managed to stick to that promise. I tried to explain to Beth that is was strictly a onetime thing and I would probably never do such a thing again. Besides, it was with a woman not a man. Heck, my mom had even met Charlene before I went off alone with her.

At that point Beth asked me if I was ready to hit the pool and I only had to be asked once! I'd brought along a bikini of course - we never swam nude in her pool as her parents were pretty conservative and definitely not into that kind of thing. Admittedly it wasn't MUCH of a bikini - more like some small pieces of cloth held together with some colorful string. In fact, this was one of my outfits my dad liked to joke that the care tag had more material than the outfit!

Beth had a similar bikini only hers was a deep red instead of bright yellow like mine. As she stripped and briefly stood there naked in front of me, I couldn't help but admire her beautiful body. Beth was a little heavier than me but by no means would anyone have considered her fat. Her boobs were definitely bigger - a full D cup at least. Beth had been one of those lucky girls whose boobs had developed at an early age. Even back in seventh grade while I was praying for a training bra she already the boys staring at her chest, dying to play with them. Fortunately for them, she was always more than willing to let them! Beth's poor bikini top strained to contain he boobs and for all practical purposes she may as well have been wearing nothing the way it barely covered her nipples and showed off most of her breasts.

Once we were dressed we headed off to the pool. We passed through the kitchen where a large glass sliding door separated the house from the pool deck. In the kitchen Beth's mom was preparing supper and when she saw us she just let out a melodramatic sigh and shook her head in disbelief.

"Good God! I can't believe what girls are wearing these days!" she exclaimed, blushing slightly as she said it. "I mean, you may as well be swimming naked."

Beth started to speak up at that moment but her mom cut her off saying, "And NO!, no skinning dipping in the pool. At least you're wearing SOMETHING, even it doesn't leave much of anything to the imagination."

Beth grinned at me and winked; obviously this was not the first time they'd had this discussion. We both giggled and quickly went out the door onto the wood deck. The back yard was relatively small, basically consisted of a pool surrounded by a huge wooden deck and then by a tall wooden security/privacy fence. Thus even though we were right in the middle of town, it was almost like being all alone since the fence blocked out much of the outside traffic noise as well.

The pool was great. It even had a diving board and a small water slide which added to the fun. We didn't have long to play as her mom soon came out with dinner. Her dad soon followed and we all sat down on the table outside for dinner. It worked out well because Beth and I were dripping wet from the pool not to mention it was a fantastic evening. The temperature was perfect and the wind was just a whisper.

During dinner I couldn't help but notice that Beth's dad kept sneaking looks at me. Obviously I wasn't the only one to notice because at one point Beth's mom elbowed him with a sharp, "Donald!". She didn't have say anything else but based on his reddening cheeks he knew perfectly well what his wife was referring to. The cute part was that I didn't even have do flirt or anything overt - my bikini did it all for me in ways words could never accomplish.

It wasn't like I intended to flirt with Beth's dad - some things just happen on their own. What was more important to me was what he did NOT do and that was make any such covert glances at his buxom and all but nude daughter. In fact, Beth's dad didn't display any interest in her other than what would be expected from a father and I respected him for that. Still, I appreciated the looks he was giving me!

As we were cleaning up after dinner, Beth's mom reminded Beth and her dad that tonight was her bingo night and so she would appreciate it if we would finish up dishes as she was running late and needed to get going. I laughed to myself over it - like how could we have forgotten? Beth's mom was addicted to bingo and she hadn't missed her Monday night fix as long as I had known her. She was one of those women you saw there with a dozen boards in front of her and I never could figure out how she manage to mark them so fast.

Beth's mom dried her hands off with a dish towel, kissed Beth's dad goodbye and then waved goodbye to us all. As for Beth's dad, he retreated to the house after dinner to watch TV. With the two of us alone once again, we jumped in the pool, climbed on a couple of rafts and then just floated next to one another.

"Wow Kelly," Beth exclaimed when she got herself situated on the raft, "Did you see the way my dad was looking at you? I guess he really liked your new bikini!"

I blushed a little bit despite myself. I'd known her dad for a long time and this certainly wasn't the first time he had stared at me that way yet for some reason the way she said it made it seem naughty, even a little perverted.

"It was no big deal. How old is your dad anyway Beth?"

"Forty-nine."

"Do your parents still do it?"

Beth giggled at that one. "Well, not as much as yours but I still hear them now and then in the bedroom late at night. I would say they still do it a few times a month."

"Does your dad masturbate?"

Beth rolled her eye at that one. "C'mon Kelly, do you know ANY family other than yours where everyone masturbates openly without being embarrassed?"

She had me there! "Noooooo," Beth continued, "I've NEVER seen my dad jerk off but he IS a guy so I imagine he must do it - don't they all? Besides, it's not like exactly something I would want to see anyway, you know?"

"Why not? He still looks pretty good if you ask me."

"Kelly!!!!! He's my dad for god's sake!" Beth exclaimed. She looked a little red in the face and I wasn't sure if she was embarrassed or mad. "Sorry, I didn't mean anything by that. I guess we should have talked this over before so why not just get it over with now?"

I looked at her with quizzical eyes. I didn't say anything a I wondered where she was going to with this line of thought.

"Ok, let me explain it this way. Yes, I loved being fucked by your dad. Yes, I loved watching him fuck you. But that's with YOUR dad, not mine. Ewwwww, I have no desire to do anything with my dad like we do with yours - OK? I mean, it's OK that YOU do you-re your dad but I just could never do that with mine."

"Whoa - down girl!" I said, trying to take the edge off what could become an awkward discussion, " I was just asking because I was curious. I didn't mean to imply anything about you and him so let's forget about it and enjoy the pool."

We both laughed at that and so I leaned over towards her and I was relieved when she leaned towards me as well and we shared a brief kiss. Beth and I were best friends and so we often had some frank discussions but this time she seemed particularly disturbed.

I couldn't resist the temptation and so I pushed on her raft and dunked her in the pool! Beth flopped in and went completely under before jumping up and throwing back her wet hair. Her eyes were wide open and she got a nasty grin on her face. Next thing I knew I was in the water too and we were splashing each other and having fun. I reached out and grabbed her and gave a tug on the knot behind her head and her bikini top dropped and I pulled it off of her.

"Kelly! What the hell are you doing?"

I just laughed and ignored her and before she could react I grabbed the sides of her string bottom and pulled them down leaving her naked in the pool. I threw her bikini out of the pool onto the deck as far as I could and then just as quickly stripped mine off and threw it there as well. The two of us stood naked in the pool and for just a second we just stared at each other, motionless until finally she broke the spell.

"You know, my mom would KILL me if she saw us swimming nude, especially with my dad home."

"So what? She's not here and your dad's in the house glues to the TV. Nobody can see us anyway." I reached out and held her boobs in my hands. "So what's the big deal? I mean, it's not like you're shy anywhere else!"

Beth didn't protest at my touching her so I took it as approval and moved around behind her and started to run my hands over her smooth naked body under the water. Her boobs floated in the water and I cupped on in one hand while my other hand reached down further between her legs. She gasped softly when my finger slid easily between her wet pussy lips and found her clit.

"Oh god that feels so good Kelly," she moaned softly. I kissed her softly on the neck and she sighed as my tongue ran over her soft skin.

"Now isn't this a better way to spend our time in the pool?" I murmured in her ear. Beth glanced nervously towards the house. Even though we'd played together in her pool before, in the past her parents were always gone when we did anything naughty. This was the first time her dad was home while she as swimming nude, let alone fooling around and with another girl at that!

"What's the matter?" I asked, "Afraid your dad will see us?"

She turned and kissed me and then smiled at me saying, "Sorry, I just can't help it. Like, I've been fucked by plenty of guys out here but NEVER with my parents home. I don't know what I would do if he came out here now and caught us like this. My dad would probably freak if he saw me kissing another girl."

Actually the thought of just that scenario excited me but I knew the odds were all but non-existent. I knew her dad well and once he settled into his lounger for a night of TV it would take a load of dynamite to dislodge him. I grabbed Beth by the hand and pulled her to the steps to get out of the water.

"Where are you going?" she asked.

"C'mon, just follow me," I said with a sly grin.

We stepped out and I pulled her by the hand to the other end of the pool where the diving board was. When we got to it I climbed up and she followed but I could tell from the look on her face she had no idea what I had in mind. Finally her curiosity got the best of her.

"OK, I give up. What in the world are we doing?"

I just grinned at her and got down on the board and lied on my back with my head close to end. I spread my legs apart and used my hands to start playing with myself.

"Mmmmmmm, see anything you want?" I asked in my naughtiest tone of voice.

"Kelly! Have I ever told you what a crazy bitch you are girl?" she said with a chuckle.

"Many times!" I laughed in response, "Now are you just gonna just stand there staring at me or what?"

"Hmmmmmm, maybe I'll just watch you masturbate," she teased.

"Fuck that! I want my pussy licked," I said as I raised my hips just enough to make it easier to put a finger up inside of me.

"Well, if you really want it THAT bad...," she sighed as if somehow I was forcing her to do something she didn't want to do.

Beth got down on her knees between my legs and put her hands on my thighs, using them for support as she lowered her wet head to my open crotch. I felt a chill run up my back as her talented tongue touched my horny pussy and she began to go to work on me. God she was good! Beth was much more into girls than me to the point she'd probably been with more girls than guys over the years. As a result she was a master at pussy licking and it didn't take long for my first orgasm to appear on the horizon.

"That's it Beth, make me cum!" I begged her as I held her head in my hands.

For some reason I turned my head to look back at the house and I could have sworn I saw the curtain in the bathroom moving as if someone had just moved it back in place. Oh God, was her dad watching us? He was the only one in the house so maybe he had to go to the bathroom and while he was in there maybe he had been checking us out!

Beth's tongue swirled around my clit and all thoughts of her father were swept from my mind as my orgasm began to rock my body. My back arched and my hips rose up off the diving board as I felt this intense wave of pleasure run up and down my entire body. Beth's hands were under my ass now, helping to hold me up as I pressed my crotch into her face. It was pure bliss for me and I could feel my cum pouring out onto her face. Finally I dropped down and just laid there gasping for air.

"Hmmm, nice 'O'," Beth commented. "God you came really fast, you must be horny as hell. What's up?"

I licked my lips and looked her in the eyes. I debated for just a second as to whether or not to say anything but the answer was predetermined.

"You know... I think someone was watching us from the bathroom when you were making me cum," I said in a teasing voice.

Beth look at me, to figure out if I was serious or teasing her as I so often did. I just smiled at her and she realized then that I was dead serious and she twisted her head to look back at the house. This time we both caught the same thing – just a small flutter in the bathroom window.

"Oh... my... god!" was all she could say at first until she gathered her wits. "You don't think he actually watched what we were doing!"

"Mmmmmmm, I hope so!" I said with a smirk. I bet he was jerking off too!""

"Ewwwww, now that's just gross!" she said, turning up her nose.

"Well, I don't think so," I said, smiling at her. "Hmmm, I think I need to use the bathroom myself."

"Oh I bet you do," Beth said with a frown. "Well, just so you know I am staying out here so whatever you do, you're on your own girl!"

I kissed her briefly and then said, "Oh well, that's your loss ...I'll be back in five minutes unless I get lucky."

Beth suddenly realized I was serious and got this panicked look in her face so I said, "Hey, it's only fair. You got to fuck MY dad after all!"

"Well, that was TOTALLY different and you know it Kelly," Beth said with a huff, "My dad cheated on my mom once before they were married and I guess it almost broke up the engagement. He's been faithful to her their entire marriage, though, and I would hate anything to mess that up? ...Understand?"

"Don't worry babe," I reassured her, "C'mon, you saw how he was looking at me at dinner. He wants me so why not? Your mom's not home so who would know?"

"Well, me for one!" she countered, "Look, just promise me you you'll just flirt... nothing more, OK?"

I just grinned at her and shrugged, "Well, he's a big boy and he can make his own decisions."

Beth shook her head at me. "You forget who you're trying to bullshit here Kelly. I KNOW you and I know what you can do to guys so hands off my dad - got me?"

I just smiled. After all, I could do a lot with no hands!

3. Teasing Beth's Dad

Turning away from Beth, I walked toward the house where I grabbed my bikini and hurriedly put it back on. I started to open the doors and I looked back at Beth. She had grabbed a towel to wrap around her and was now sitting at the edge of the pool with her feet dangling in the water. I waved at her and she just glared back at me without anything more.

Sliding open the glass door, I stepped where the cool air instantly caused goose bumps to rise all over me. As I walked past the living room towards the bathroom I noticed her dad was in there watching TV, just as I knew he would be. He was so engrossed in whatever he was watching that he didn't even look my way as I went by.

Actually, I really DID need to pee so I used the opportunity to take care of that little problem. After I'd straightened myself out in the mirror, I stopped off at the entrance to the living room and stood there until finally he looked over at me.

"Ummmmm, Do you need something Kelly?" he asked. It seemed to be more out of politeness than an actual offer as once he said it he turned back to the television.

Seeing I needed to give him a little more incentive, I walked slowly into the room until I stood right front of him. Now I was blocking his view of the TV but he didn't seem to mind as his eyes moved up and down my scantily clad body.

"You know... I saw you watching us," I said in a soft tone. He started to protest but I cut him off saying, "Don't worry, it's OK, I really didn't mind. Did you like what you saw? Did you like me better when I was nude?"

He was looking distinctly uncomfortable now and so I wondered for a moment if maybe I'd misjudged the situation. I've never been turned down by anyone that I've actively pursued since I was fourteen (not that I was then either, it's just that's when I started) so I wasn't about to give up before I even got started.

"Um... Kelly," he said hesitantly, "I really don't know what you're talking about."

I heard what he was saying but his body language was talking totally different. He was squirming in his seat with his hands on his lap and I knew full well what he was trying to hide. Cool, he must have been masturbating! I love it when guys jerk off because of me. Lots of guys have done it for me on their cams which makes me feel hot and sexy but when a guy does it for "real" and I can see the results, well nothing beats the real thing!

Thinking about him watching us in the pool and jerking off in the bathroom made me think about one of the most famous scenes ever where Phoebe Cates caught a guy masturbating after watching her in Fast Times at Ridgemont High. In the movie she is disgusted which is exactly the opposite of what I would think in that situation. After all, what better compliment can a guy give me than to get so horny over me that he plays with himself to the point he cums, all the while dreaming he is fucking me or I am sucking him?

I was still standing across the room from him wearing nothing more than a slutty bikini with my hair all wet and pulled away from my face. My nipples were still hard from the orgasm I'd just had compliments of his daughter and they were poking out like pencil erasers through the thin bikini fabric. It didn't hurt that there was no liner in the top. I could feel the bottom pulling up into my pussy crack which must have been creating white a nice camel toe for him. The rear was really nothing but a few strings running up my ass crack and then around my hips to the thin "V" of material that tried its best to cover my pussy. Fortunately I was shaved completely because this little thing wouldn't have covered even the landing strip I sometimes left when I shaved! I wet my lips as if they were dry and slowly walked over the room until I was standing up close next to him.

"Watcha hiding there Mr. Anderson?" I asked coyly. He looked more embarrassed than anything. It seemed sort of funny that he was more concerned about hiding his erection than looking at me.

"It's OK Mr. Anderson, really it is. C'mon, show me what's under your hands."

He still wouldn't move so I leaned over and reached down to pull his hands away from his crotch. He didn't fight me very much, probably more because my boobs were practically hanging in his face as I did it. Leaning over like that gave him a full view of my boobs as they hung down from my bikini top and although I didn't look at him so as not to scare him but I knew he had to be looking at the new scenery!

Once his hands were free I could see the bulge in his shorts which was still there from his most recent masturbation session. I reached down and put the palm of my hand on it, pressing down just enough to get the feel of it through the fabric of his shorts. He wasn't rock hard anymore but there was enough stiffness there to know it must have been not too long ago.

"Damn it Kelly, you have to stop right now... you know better than to do this."

My response was to just press a little harder and then he grabbed my wrist and started to pull my hand away from him. I resisted and added my second hand to the mix to give me a little more power.

"God dammit, I'm serious Kelly, I really don't want you to do this," he protested, "Oh God, it's not like I don't want you - I just can't do it. I AM married you know."

Yes! He may not have realized it but that was just the opening I was waiting for! I knew he wanted me just like every guy did, at least sexually, so now all I had to do was make him an offer he couldn't refuse! Of course he HAD to protest, that was all part of the game. If he didn't then he couldn't rationalize his "failure" later when he had to live with himself for betraying his wife.

As much as I get turned on by fucking married men, in this case I wasn't sure what was more of a turn-on for me - him being married or being the father of my best friend. Somehow it seemed important to me to have sex with Beth's dad, like somehow it would balance the scales of our friendship once again.

I was still rubbing his cock through his shorts but he'd stopped trying to stop me. Even better, his dick was starting to react to my attention as well, despite whatever intentions he might have. All of this was playing right into my hand - literally! I chuckled to myself. God... men are so easy! A girl can be horny as hell but she can make herself look to a guy like she is totally disinterested. A guy may want to do the same but he can't control his cock which tells me everything I need to know!

"C'mon Mr. Anderson... I saw the way you were looking at me at dinner... I know what you were doing while you watched us," I purred to him. "Did you know it turns me on when men do all that for me?"

He just groaned, as if he was being tortured by the lust he was trying to suppress. "I'm old enough to be your father - I'm older than your own father for crying out loud."

Beth's dad may not have realized it but he was right on schedule. First came denial, then the mighty protest, and now he was making excuses. What was even better was that his being married wasn't even one of the excuses he was using! Yep, it was time to land this one before he shook the hook!

4. Beth's Dad Gives in to His Lust

I stood up and once again dropped my bikini top and bottoms as quickly as I could. I dropped to my knees and began rubbing his cock again through the denim of his shorts. He was getting a quite visible bulge now and from there way he was shifting in his seat it must have been getting uncomfortable. Guys have told me when it grows sometimes it needs to be "adjusted" in their clothes so I guess it was time to "adjust" Mr. Anderson's cock. I unzipped his shorts and undid the snap at the top and reached in to grab his cock through his underwear. He didn't move a muscle but I could hear his breathing quicken.

Taking his hand in mine, I pulled it up to my breast and held it against me. He didn't squeeze it or do anything but then he didn't pull away either. I smiled as I knew at that moment he was mine.

"Oh Kelly, why are you doing this?" he groaned, "Crap, what if Beth came in Here? For heaven's sake, what if Marlene comes home early?"

"Trust me, Beth won't be coming in," I assured him, "and you know Mrs. Anderson has never left a bingo game early in her life!"

He started to say something else but by now I'd worked my way into his underwear and I held his hard warm cock in my hand. He was about average size which was perfectly fine with me. Big cocks were nice for fucking and small ones easier to suck but an average cock was good for both! I felt his hand press harder against my breast and his fingers began to work against my nipples almost instinctively. His hands were large and easily held my breasts in them.

"Oh god you are SO fucking gorgeous," he moaned.

It was almost like he was saying it to himself more than to me and I recognized he was now in the next phase of my seduction schedule - rationalization. This was when the guy knew he shouldn't be doing me but his little head was now taking over operations leaving his big head to seek an excuse as to why it relinquished control.

I let go of his hand on my boobs and using both hands I was able to pull his underwear and shorts down far enough to free his cock. It was surrounded by thick, curly pubic hair and smelled of male musk yet it was nice and clean. I didn't hesitate but instead went down on him, first running my tongue from the tip of his cock to the base and then back up the other side. I repeated it a couple of times and then took the whole head in my mouth and sucked as hard as I could on it, flicking my tongue against the hole at the tip.

"Oh my god!" he groaned louder this time, "That feels fucking incredible! ...oh yeah, suck it... suck it just like that."

Those last words were the ones I was waiting for. He was progressing quickly to the next step - capitulation, which meant he was giving in to his inner lust and desires.

As I sucked his cock, taking him first deep in my mouth until my face was buried in his coarse black pubic hair and then letting him out until just the tip was in my mouth. My tongue kept working all over him, especially under the ridge of his head and along the underside of his cock where I knew men went crazy.

He was playing with my boobs now, rubbing it and squeezing them, while his other hand moved to the top of me head and pushed me down on his cock. He didn't press hard, just enough pressure to let me know he wanted me to take all of him in my mouth. Some men wanted their cocks licked more, others liked me to literally fuck their cock with my mouth where I bounced up and down on it letting it slide in and out. Then there were those like Mr. Anderson, guys who just wanted to watch me take as much of their dick into my mouth as I could.

"That's it Kelly, suck it harder... Mmmmmmm, take it all in your mouth... oh yeah – just like that!"

He was getting more and more into it as his inhibitions crumbled like a stale Girl Scout cookie. I have learned over the years that nothing makes a man forget his morals and inhibitions like a good blowjob, not even a good fucking has the same effect. When I give head to a guy he can sit back and just enjoy it as I do all the work. I have heard some girls say they don't like giving head because it makes them feel like a slave or some prostitute because it gives too much control to the guy. My perception is completely the opposite. A man is never under my control so much as when I am sucking his dick. I mean, think about it. The most sensitive organ outside his body is his penis and when I blow him I have it between my teeth, giving me complete control over him! Like, how can that make me a slave? No – it makes ME the one in charge, the one in complete control of the situation; which is why I love to suck cock. OK, I enjoy doing it too but you know what I mean.

He was beginning to hump now, using his hips to thrust himself harder into my mouth. As the speed quickened I realized if I continued this way much longer he would cum and I wasn't ready for him to do that yet. I could cheat with a teenage boy and get me a nice mouthful of cum and still get fucked, but when guy is Beth's dad's age he can never cum again anytime soon and I wanted him to fuck me so it left me with little option but to stop sucking him. I pulled my head off of his cock and went over to the couch where I lay with my back against the arm and put one foot up on the back of the couch and let the other hang over the edge, offering him a wide spread view of my shaved crotch. His eyes never left me as I looked at him and grinned like a little slut.

"Soooooo, do you like my little pussy Mr. Anderson?" I teased him.

I rubbed myself slowly with one hand while I cupped my firm breast with the other. He wasn't trying to protest anymore as he sat there and watched me intently.

He was stroking his hard cock, slowly stroking himself and I wondered if he even realized he was doing it!

"Well? ...Are you going to just sit there or are you gonna lick my cunt?" I asked him seductively.

I saw his chest rise as he took a deep breath and rose from his chair. It was only a couple of steps and then he kneeled down next to the couch. Silently he put one hand on each of my thighs and then reached out with one hand to explore my bald pussy. His fingers gently touched me and he softly ran the tips of his fingers up and down around my pussy lips. He wasn't actually touching my pussy yet it sent a tingling feeling through me. He looked up at me, as if he was seeking approval to continue. I smiled at him.

"It's OK... you can lick my cunt."

His face was only inches away from my crotch now. He took in a deep breath and sighed, "Oh god you smell so sweet, ...God I love your pussy."

He lowered down more until his tongue touched my skin just about my pussy and then he licked me with just the tip of his tongue. His fingers moved down and ran between my pussy lips, parting them and passing over my clit. I shuddered when he touched it and he continued down until his finger was pressing against my pussy hole opening. While he moved his tongue down to my clit he pushed his finger into me. When his tongue flicked over my clit I jumped and moaned.

"Oh yeah, lick me right there Mr. Anderson," I whispered to him as little jolts like electricity erupted from my clit as he pressed harder with his tongue.

His finger was moving in and out of me, like he was fucking me with it. He moved his tongue down my pussy crack, licking my wet pussy hole and then back to my clit. Each time he reached my clit he would run his tongue around it and then press down with the flat of his tongue on it. While he was licking me lower his nose would press against my clit, keeping the pressure on it and pushing me closer and closer to my first orgasm.

I could feel myself drawing into myself, shutting out the rest of the world and focusing only on what he was doing to my wonderful pussy. The closer I got to my orgasm the more I would do this until finally it was like I was in another world consisting of nothing but me and my partner.

Suddenly that world exploded like a sun going nova. My entire body felt like it was on fire - a good feeling, intense and incredibly pleasurable. I felt my pussy release and then my pussy cum gushed out onto his face.

"Ohhhhhhhhhhhh!" I moaned, "I'm cumming! ...Oh God I'm cumming!"

He kept licking me like a dog lapping water from a dish. I knew how good my pussy tasted when I came and he was trying to lick up every drop. My hips automatically thrust up against his face as my pussy begged for a cock to be in it. God I wanted to be fucked bad! He looked up at me when I finally settled down a bit and I knew I couldn't wait any longer - I wanted his cock in me and I wanted it now.

"Fuck me Mr. Anderson... I want you to fuck me," I told him softly.

I can't think of any time I have said those words to a guy and been refused and I wasn't disappointed this time. He hesitated for just a second, probably realizing that as "bad" as it was to allow me to suck him and for him to lick me, fucking me would take things to a whole different level. After all, Bill Clinton let Monica give him a blow job and people didn't get too upset overall (at least the rational ones). Had he fucked her it would have been a while different story!.

He finally got up and put one knee on the couch, holding his cock in his hand and moving in position. With one hand he spread my pussy lips apart and with the other he held his cock up close to my wet pussy hole. He hesitated again at this point and looked at me with a conflicted expression.

"Are you sure?" he asked me. I think the question was really more for him than me.

"Fuck me," was all I said in reply using a soft yet firm voice.

It was all he needed. Beth's Dad bit his lower lip and pressed his cock head up against my wet pussy hole, pressing against it but not hard enough to force his way in my tight little pussy. He let go of his cock and put one hand on each of my legs and I watch and felt him as he thrust his hips forward, forcing my pussy open and driving his cock head inside of me.

One of the most intense moments for me when a guy fucks me is when he first enters me, that moment when my pussy first stretches out to allow his cock to enter me. I loved the feeling as I felt myself widen and the thickness of his cock held me that way as his cock head violated my most private and intimate part of my body.

"Mmmmmmm, that's it Mr. Anderson," I moaned, "deeper... put it all in me... God I want your big cock all the way in me."

Every guy likes to hear his cock is big so I say it even if he's just average like Mr. Anderson. As he pressed harder I felt my pussy widening as his cock moved slowly deeper and deeper into me. He didn't do like most young guys would, thrusting himself into me with one hard push. Instead he just pressed harder and harder, driving himself slowly and steadily into my pussy, letting me feel him filling me rather than just a sudden jolt. I loved it and I looked down to watch as I his cock disappeared while I felt him inside of me.

Finally he was in me completely and he fell forward and held himself up with his elbows just enough off of me to keep from crushing me. I felt his hot breath against my neck as he held himself there, his firm cock literally throbbing deep inside of me.

"Damn your cunt feels so tight!" he groaned. I noticed he called it a cunt this time instead of a pussy. Oh yeah, he was getting into it now.

He started to pump himself slowly in and out of me, lifting his hips up to pull out and then driving it back into me. He pulled his cock out until the head was barely in me and then pushed it back in until the base of his cock pressed against my crotch. The coarse pubic hair that covered his crotch tickled my pussy when he rubbed it against me, especially when he would rotate his hips and corkscrew his cock in and out of me. Both of us were moaning and crying out as he fucked me harder and harder.

"Cum in me Mr. Anderson," I begged him, "Stay inside of me and cum in me. Fill my pussy with your sperm."

"God Kelly, you really are such a slut," he grunted as he fucked me faster and faster. "Well bitch, get ready -cause here it cums!"

He thrust especially hard against me and held his cock inside of me as deep as he could drive himself. He groaned and I felt a burst of warmth deep inside, almost like an enema of sperm and I loved the feeling I got as he squirted his cum into me.

"Oh my god, give it to me!" I cried out, "oh yeah... fuck me, fuck me harder!"

Over and over he jerked his hips and each time another load of his cum would erupt into me. He grunted like an animal as he drilled his cock into me, unleashing his sperm as far inside of me as he could. Finally he gave a one hard final thrust and then he held himself still inside of me, his breathing loud and fast from his exertions.

"Swish it around in me," I whispered to him.

He didn't say anything but I felt his hips swivel slowly, like a mixer forcing his cock to rotate around inside of me and I moaned as I felt my second orgasm erupt like a volcano.

"Cumming!" was all I could get out before I was overwhelmed and could only think about the incredible sensations that were washing over me, concentrating in my pussy and then radiating out like a bomb blast. My pussy squeezed down on his cock like a vise and he moaned as I gripped it tightly. My cum washed over his cock and I could feel it running out of my pussy and down the crack of my ass onto the couch below me. Finally we both just went limp with him lying on top of me, barely holding himself off of me enough to let me breath.

"Oh God, what have I done?" he said as I felt him lifting himself off of me.

His cock slipped out of me, leaving my pussy feeling suddenly empty and cold. Face it, my pussy was designed to hold a cock so it was only natural that it always feels better when one was inside of it. Sometimes I think I could have a cock in me 24 hours a day and not be satisfied!

Mr. Anderson stood up, his now flaccid cock hanging limp from his crotch, still glistening wet with a mixture of our cum and my pussy juices. I could see that he was now in the final phase of my "schedule" for him but this one has two options - satisfaction or regret. Some husbands that fuck me want to do it again another time and it doesn't to bother them in the slightest that they have just cheated on their wives, breaking the most sacred vow they can make.

A small number, though, fuck me and then when the feelings of lust clear from their head they start thinking about what they have done. The magnitude of the seriousness of their sin hits them like a brick and then they wish there was some way to undo what they had done. Of course they can't - which is what thrills me even more than the guys who are satisfied as I know they will always remember the time we spent together and can never again look at their wives and say they are faithful to them without thoughts of me in their head.

Personally, I believe adultery is a terrible sin, (the Sixth Commandment after all!). Personally, I don't feel I have sinned Since I am not married) and they SHOULD feel guilty for betraying the trust and love of their wives. In this case I had known the Andersons forever and although I never talked a lot with him, I couldn't help but feel I knew him better than most dads after all these years. Well, now I "knew" him in the biblical sense of the term as well!

I could tell he wasn't quite as thrilled though. It always amazes me the transformation that comes over a guy after he cums - like turning a switch or something as it is like all his lust and strength leaves with his sperm! That is exactly what was happening now with Beth's dad as he covered his face with his hands and I could almost swear he was sobbing! He turned his face away from me, gathered his clothes and headed out of the room, I guess to their bedroom or bathroom to clean up and dress. He turned to me before leaving and looked at me with s stricken face.

"So tell me Kelly, are you happy now?" he said in a low accusing voice. "Am I some kind of trophy for you, just another notch on your long-lost chastity belt?"

I just sat there silently not really sure what to say as he continued.

"You know, I always figured you were a real slut but what could I say, my own daughter is one too. Yes... I know what she does, more than she knows I suspect. But now... now I think you're just a damn whore. I know I can't blame you entirely for what we just did, I know I made the decision to do it, but damn you, I have this feeling you only did it as some form of sick game or conquest. Do you realize how much what you've done can hurt me and my wife?"

I sat up and looked pointedly at him to reply saying, "Well Mr. Anderson, your wife will be only hurt if YOU tell her and besides, from the way you fucked me and then came in me, well don't try to tell me you didn't love it ...and I know you would do me again if I let you!"

"Fucking bitch!" was all he could say to that and he stalked off and I heard a door slam down the hallway.

5. Making Up With Beth

I picked up my bikini and headed out to the pool again where Beth was waiting for me. I was still nude - no sense in getting cum all over my bottoms until I'd rinsed off. There was a shower mounted by the pool and I headed straight for it. Beth saw me washing off, scrubbing my pussy which had the added benefit of teasing my clit which was still ready to go again!

"So I guess my dad must have fucked you then, eh?" she asked, walking over to talk to me as I showered. "You know, I thought I asked you specifically NOT to do that!"

"Oh? So you didn't watch?" The disappointment in my voice was obvious.

"Fuck no," she replied, "Ok... so I thought about it but I just couldn't bring myself to do it. It was bad enough knowing you were doing it, I can't imagine actually watching him fuck you though. God that would be so perverted to see my dad screwing you"

"You must be kidding!" I laughed. With all the parties and guys you fuck... YOU would be embarrassed. C'mon, you're the last person I can think of that would be. Besides, you didn't seem to mind it when I watched you fucking MY dad!"

Beth just shook her head. "It's weird, I know it. I mean, it was one thing to watch you fuck YOUR dad but I just couldn't look at MY dad fucking you. My God Kelly! My dad has always been faithful to my mom. The more I think about it the more I can't believe you actually went through with it. I really thought you were just going to tease him!"

"So what's the big deal about me fucking your dad anyway?"

Beth glanced down at the ground and circled her foot around on her big toe. "I don't know... I guess I've always looked at my parent as being decent and moral. With everything else I do it was nice to come home where everything was 'normal'. Whenever I look at my dad now I will know he fucked you and cheated on my mom. I guess I-m just a little disappointed in him."

Then she started crying and sat down on a bench. I had my suit back on by then and held her in my arms.

"You know, I thought you were my best friend!" she sobbed.

"I AM your best friend, Beth," I said, trying to console her, "I always will be too."

Beth looked at me with tears running down her face and said softly to me, "Then how could you have done that to my dad. I don't blame my daddy - I know you only too well and I have seen what you do to guys. He didn't stand a chance against you and what's worse, he knows that I know about it. I mean, how can I face him again?"

Needless to say it wasn't exactly how I'd planned for this to end. Beth and I stayed up until late talking about a number of things and eventually she settled down. We'd been best friends far too long for anything to break us apart - even something like this. Finally it just seemed natural to kiss and be close to each other. It was nothing like out at the pool, this was just two best friends doing what best friends do - making each other feel good.

I didn't see her dad again until breakfast when her mom and dad joined us. I saw her dad exchange glances with Beth but he never looked me in the eye during the entire meal. Beth's mom was all cheery - she had won a nice jackpot at the bingo game the previous night and when she asked how our evening went, all three of us went suddenly quiet. I finally spoke up and said that we all had a good time. I left soon afterwards, giving Beth and her mom a hug and then I went over to her dad who was still at the table.

"Goodbye Mr. Anderson," I said softly, "Thanks for all your help last night!"

I winked at him but only he could see and he just pursed his lips and said a terse goodbye. I left feeling pretty good. Obviously I would never be fucking him again but that didn't matter as I don't fuck married guys twice anyway, not even my best friend's dad. I caught myself fingered myself as I drove home, reminding myself of how he had fucked me the night before.

Mmmmmmm, I can't wait until I tell mom about this one!

(Jul 01) Chapter 117: My Mom's Best Friend Returns

Story codes: MF FF oral inc father mother daughter
Me (21)
John - my dad (41)
Mary - my mom (40)
Tammy - my mom's BFF (41)

Back when I was seventeen and enjoying the summer before my senior year of high school, I had what can only be called an "interesting" experience. It was almost four years since I'd last seen my mom's best friend. An unexpected visit allowed us a chance to see if our last time had just been a fluke or whether there was really something between us.

1. Tammy is My Mom's Best Friend

My mom's best friend without a doubt is Tammy. They are about the same age (Tammy is a few months older) and have known each other since they were little girls. Unfortunately, Tammy's husband was transferred to Oregon about seven years ago and since then they've relied mostly on phone calls to keep in touch. They still manage to meet each other at least once or twice a year for a week or so. Tammy's husband travels a lot so she uses his frequent flier miles to get either her or my mom a plane ticket. My mom always looked forward to these visits but the last time Tammy came to our house, I got to know another side of her - and Tammy learned a few things about her best friend and her family as well that at first shocked her but eventually got her curious.

Since then, schedules and such had kept Tammy from coming our way although my mom had visited her and her family a few times out in the Oregon high desert where they lived near a beautiful ski resort. As for me, I'd never been west of Illinois so someday I hoped to join her on one of these trips but they were my mom's special times and so I didn't want to just butt in. Even so, Tammy would send photos of her family and judging by the looks of her husband and two boys, I couldn't help but dream about making the trip!

That said my mom assured me that while Tammy may have experimented with me during her last visit, she was really just your typical housewife. Early in her marriage she had cheated once on her husband but those days were long past and now they had a great marriage. Although Tammy's husband had no idea that my dad had been Tammy's first back in high school, he had no cause to worry when Tammy visited our home as my parents were both committed to their marriage and I was confident that they would never cheat with a woman outside the family, even if she was my mom's best friend.

My mom had been planning a trip to Oregon later in the summer so it came as quite a surprise when we got a call from Tammy asking if she could join us for a couple of days. Apparently she was going to be in Pittsburgh for some sort of conference and was hoping to stop by and see my mom while she was here. Needless to say, my mom was thrilled and I couldn't help but wonder how things would be between Tammy and me after her last visit.

Tammy's conference schedule kept her busy during the week but rather than leave Friday night, she had delayed her flight home until Sunday so she could spend part of the weekend with us. I was out Friday evening and by the time I got home, Tammy had already arrived and was sound asleep in the guest room. The door was closed and my mom told me that she was exhausted from the long week and had gone to bed early.

2. Tammy Watches My Dad Fuck Me

Saturday morning I woke up horny - which was nothing unusual for me. I started to touch myself but then a thought came to me. Why do myself when there was someone else available that was sure to be willing to help out? So I threw back the covers and got out of bed. Looking at myself in the mirror, my hair was a disaster! I fluffed it up and let it fall back to my bare shoulders. It wasn't exactly the best but it would certainly do, at least for what I had in mind. My eyes took in the rest of me. I was naked, just as I normally was getting out of bed, and I made a critical review of my imagine the mirror.

All in all, I was OK with myself. I would never be posing as a model for a fashion magazine but at the same time I didn't think I looked all that bad either.

After years of teenage angst over my boobs, they had filled in nicely and as far as I was concerned, were just the right size. My hips had filled out a bit since high school but I wasn't fat either, just a little shapelier I liked to say. I was keeping my pussy shaved for the summer although thoughts of growing it out came to mind now and then. Well, maybe this fall when it got colder, and I didn't have to worry about my pubic hair spilling out of my bikini or shorts, I might let it grow out a bit but for now I was shaved bare as a baby's bottom.

I ran my hand between my legs and cupped my smooth pussy in my hand. Without thinking much about it I started to rub myself but quickly realized what I was doing and pulled my hand away. I knew from plenty of experience where this would lead to if I didn't nip it in the bud early! I turned and looked back over my shoulder and smiled. One thing I'd always liked about myself way my ass and it was looking great this morning even if I do say so myself!

Satisfied finally with my appearance, I walked out to the hallway and to my parents' bedroom. The door was open as usual as the only time they shut it was when they were making love and wanted to keep things between themselves. I looked back and saw that Tammy's bedroom door was still shut. It was only 7:00 AM so it didn't surprise me that she was still asleep, even with the jet lag that I would have thought would have her awake by now.

Looking my parent's bedroom, they were both sound asleep as well. My dad was usually an early riser so I was a bit surprised to see him in bed this late in the morning. My parents had a king-size bed and they were making full use of it today. Both of them were sort of sprawled out. My mom was tucked under the comforters, staying nice and warm. It may have been July now but with the air conditioning cranked up she preferred to keep herself covered whereas my dad was just the opposite. Even in the coldest part of winter he would throw off his covers as he slept.

At the moment, my dad was on his back with his head turned away from the edge of the bed and thus away from the door where I was standing. I didn't need to see his face to know he was sleeping. My father hated to hear it but he snored pretty loud when he slept on his back; nothing too terribly but it was always enough to know when he was passed out. He was sensitive about it and hated to be teased about his snoring so if he was snoring I knew he wasn't faking being asleep. His arms were down at his side and his hairy legs were stretched out straight. Without the snoring you might have thought he was laid out for a funeral; although at a funeral he would have had some clothes on! However, what really caught my eye this morning was what was in display between his legs.

More often than not, when I come into my parents' bedroom in the morning I find my dad's cock is erect, even though he's sound asleep. Whatever he dreams about those mornings, it must be something pretty hot judging by the stiffness of his dick! This morning, though, he was soft and it was flopped over to one side almost buried in the thick pubic hair that covered my dad's crotch. For whatever reason my dad is quite proud of the fact that he has never shaved or even trimmed his pubic hair and from the outgrowth that emerged from his crotch, it was easy to believe! Impulsively I licked my lips as I looked at his wonderful cock. Even when it was limp I still enjoy looking at him. Mmmmmmm, it was hard to believe how much a single part of him could cause so many things to happen.

As I stared at his dick, I thought about how there is nothing I enjoy more than the feeling of my father's dick when it first penetrates me and pushes its way inside of me. Of course I enjoy it physically although in reality it's just another cock and really doesn't make me feel any different than any other guy's dick that has fucked me. What makes sex more than just physically fun is not the size of the cock but rather whose it is and how I feel about the guy who is fucking me. For instance, if you blindfolded me and had my dad put his cock in me and then do the same with a few of my boyfriends, I would be hard pressed to tell you who was who although technique CAN be quite different between guys. Compare that to when I KNOW it is my dad fucking me. THEN it creates an entirely different feeling inside of me, something different from when anyone else does me. Simply put, an overwhelming flood of pleasure and excitement fills me whenever I know it is my dad inside of me.

There is something about knowing my father loves me so much that he would have sex with me that brings me such an incredible feeling of love and trust that it can be almost more than I can take sometimes. My dad is also a man and I know how much he loves pretty women so knowing he finds me beautiful and sexy enough to want to have sex with is one of the greatest compliments he can give me. The most fulfilling thing he can do to me, though, is to cum inside of me. When I feel his cock swelling and then that bloom of heat emerges inside of me, I know his sperm is entering me and at that very moment we are as close as any man and women can possibly be, let alone a father and daughter. I know that he wouldn't cum in me if he didn't love me and when he eventually leaves me I treasure the cum in me, a piece of him left behind as a symbol of his respect for me.

I shook my head to clear it as I caught myself just standing there daydreaming about my dad's dick. He stirred just a bit and I knew I had better get moving if I was to accomplish my mission before he awoke. Walking tip-toe softly over to their bed, I leaned over him and gently cradled his soft cock in my hand. It seemed so small! I let it down on his dark bed of pubic hair and lightly ran my fingers through his pubic hair and down and around his balls, then back over his flaccid cock. I loved the feeling of the coarse, curly hair against my hand and fingers! Gripping his cock with just a couple of fingers, I positioned it so that it stood up straight into the air, at least as much as it could when it was so limp. I glanced up at him to check that he was still asleep and just then a loud snore emerged and I knew I was cleared to launch.

Bending over him, I supported myself with one hand while the other continued to grip his soft cock. Licking my lips a few times, I opened my mouth and touched the tip of my tongue to the head of his cock, then lightly ran it around the head. I could smell the odor of his crotch much more now that my head was right over it, a strong mixture of sweat and sex. I wondered how many times my mom and dad had done it last night? Opening my mouth, I let his cock slip inside. As small as he was he easily fit into my mouth and I sucked on him like a baby on a bottle. Mmmmmmm, he tasted every bit as good as he smelled!

As I started to suck his cock, my dad started to stir but that's not what caught my attention. Out of the corner of my eye I could have sworn I saw something move in the doorway. Sure enough, peeking around the corner was Tammy! I turned my eyes away so as not to let he know I knew she was watching. Wow, this made it even more special for me. It was fantastic enough just to suck my dad's cock while he was sleeping but knowing Tammy was watching just made it all the better.

Being watched when I was having sex has always been one of my most erotic fantasies. For it to really turn me on, one of the people involved has to not know the other knows about it. For instance, in this case Tammy was watching but she didn't know that I knew she was. If she had known, that wouldn't have been nearly as erotic for me. The fact my dad didn't know she was watching made it all the better. Of course, he was barely conscious anyway at the moment!

"Oh god, that feels great," I heard him mumble, barely audible but in the stillness of the bedroom I was sure Tammy must have heard as well.

"Good morning daddy!" I announced triumphantly, taking my mouth off of him for the moment and just stroking him with my hand in the interim.

if I raised any further. I stayed in that position for a brief moment with nothing but the dick head inside of me. Then I dropped down again, instead this time I rotated my hips in a circle as I did, simulating a corkscrew as I drilled myself down onto his nice cock.

Things started to get more serious after the first couple of slow and sensuous strokes. I put my hands on my dad's shoulders and starred to rock back and forth on my knees. As I went forward, his dick would pull out of me and then when I leaned back it would drive it back into me again. It was like being in a rocking chair, back and forth and back and forth as I pumped his cock in and out of me.

After a while my dad grabbed me by the hips and started to pull me to one side. One thing nice about fucking the same guy for a while is that you get to know his moves and desires and I knew what my dad wanted - to be on top of me. I leaned forward and he put one arm around me, pulling me tightly to his chest. He rolled over, trying to protect me to keep his weight off of me while at the same time keeping his cock buried in my cunt.

"Fuck me daddy," I moaned after we had made the transition and he was now on top of me. In all honestly, while I knew he loved to hear me ask him that, it was more for Tammy's benefit than his this time.

As my dad pumped his dick in and out of me, I forgot all about Tammy and concentrated on nothing but the incredible sensations that were pouring from my well-fucked pussy and out into the rest of my nude body. As much as I wanted to cum though, it was my dad I was mostly concerned about. I wanted to make him happy, to please him and to satisfy his needs.

"Cum in me daddy," I begged him, "Mate me, give me your sperm."

"Oh fuck, you are SUCH a little slut, aren't you baby? You like your daddy's dick cumming in you, don't you."

"Oh yes daddy, give it to me! Show me how much you love me... show me!"

Indeed, that as exactly what I wanted. I wanted my dad to show me in the most intimate way possible that he was being satisfied by me, that his needs were being met and his lust fulfilled by me. Most of all, I wanted him to show me how much he appreciated me and loved me - in a way only a father can love his daughter. There was nothing he could do to show me his love and respect, nothing more personal, more intimate, and more remarkable, than to cum in me after fucking me hard.

"Oh yeah Kelly, here it comes baby!"

3. Tammy Debates Incest

Eventually mom and Tammy got up and got dressed as well. Tammy didn't make any sign that she had seen anything this morning so I didn't bring up the subject. I knew sooner or later it was going to have to come up so it would be interesting to see what happened as the day went on.

We decided to go out to lunch and headed down to the Strip District to find something different than the usual stuff in town. There was one restaurant that featured open air seating under umbrellas. The tables weren't that close together and we were a little early for the lunch crowd so we had a little more privacy than might have been expected.

As we chatted about this and that, nothing in particular, I noticed Tammy seemed to be a bit distracted, as if there was something on her mind but yet she was afraid to say anything. Well, I knew what it was all about but I hadn't clues my mom into it so she finally reached the point where her curiosity got the better of herself.

"Ummmmm, Earth to Tammy," she prodded Tammy as it seemed she was lost in thought on something or another, "What's with you this morning Tammy?"

Tammy looked at me but I just acted all innocent and naive. If she was going to say anything, it was going to be her decision, not mine. She started to speak a couple of times but as her mouth opened she just shut it and sat back again as if trying to regroup her thoughts. Finally my mom had enough of it.

"For crying out loud Tammy, say something!" she said with barely concealed exasperation.

"Alright then," Tammy said with a look of fire and determination in her eye suddenly, "How in the world can you allow your husband to fuck your own daughter? I mean, that's incest and it's just sick.

"My mom's look was priceless as for a moment she lost her composure and looked genuinely shocked at Tammy's assertion. Then she looked at me and I just shrugged as if I didn't know anything about it. Tammy took advantage of her hesitation to keep going.

"Last time I was here Kelly mentioned something about her dad and her but I just assumed she was trying to mess with me and tease me. No way did I actually believe her or I would have said something to you back then Mary."

My mom looked at me again, this time not looking exactly pleased with me. I just shrugged; I guess that was one detail I had neglected to tell her last time. Tammy continued...

"Well this morning I saw them... I saw it all Mary. Your slut of a daughter here just walked in and started sucking John's cock while he was sleeping and then he fucked her. That was bad enough but he even came in her. I almost packed my bags and left right then. You people are perverted."

She seemed serious and for the first time I started to wonder if maybe I had totally misread Tammy. Maybe she was just a typical housewife these days. After all, it was over twenty years since she had fooled around with my dad and his brothers. I had just assumed that it would turn anyone on to see me fucking my dad and to hear her say we were perverted hurt.

"Now Tammy...," my mom said softly. She reached out to hold Tammy's hand but Tammy pulled back away from her. My mom looked visibly upset at that.

"Now Tammy...," she started over again, this time keeping her hands to herself, "If you saw them then you had to see it wasn't anything sick or perverted. She's his daughter and she was just trying to please her father."

"Well, there are a LOT of ways for a girl to please her father without letting him have sex with her!"

"True... true... but does that make it wrong?"

"I don't know, I just don't understand how you can lay there next to them while they do it, like nothing is even happening."

My mom smiled for the first time since Tammy's little tirade had started. This time when she reached out to Tammy's hand, Tammy didn't pull away. "I've never told you this Tammy, but my father took my virginity."

Tammy's eyes widened like saucers and her mouth could have drawn flies it was so wide open.

"What? You never told me that. You said John was your first."

"I know, but can you blame me? What would you have said had I told you the truth back then?"

Tammy looked puzzled, as if she was being overwhelmed by everything. "OK, but did he do you after that?"

"Of course he did, he was my father and so I let him whenever he wanted."

Tammy had this weird look on her face, like she had just eaten pizza and found an anchovy.

"I'm sorry but I just can't imagine my dad EVER doing that to me. I could NEVER imagine doing anything with my sons for that matter."

My mom tightened her grip on Tammy's hand. "That's fine Tammy, it's not for everyone. But you saw them this morning apparently. Did it look like he was abusing her?"

Tammy smiled and laughed for the first time. "No, can't say that."

Then she looked over at me for the first time and asked, "So you really don't mind it when your dad has sex with you? Don't you feel like he is taking advantage of you?"

I shook my head solemnly and replied, "No, not at all. I mean, he loves me and respects me as his daughter. For me, it makes me feel closer to him than anything else. I feel like I'm giving him my most precious gift when I give myself over to him."

My mom and I sat silently as Tammy seemed to mull over all of this. Finally she said softly, "Well, I guess I never looked at it that way before. I need some time to think about it, OK?"

My mom moved over to hug her. Tammy hugged her back and for the rest of the afternoon, the subject never came up again.

Later the night after supper, my dad suggested we get in the hot tub and relax for the evening. Tammy looked at my mom and then at me, undoubtedly wondering whether or not she should say something or not. Evidently, she decided not to because she agreed without another word about it.

4. Tammy Loses Control in the Hot Tub

By the time I made it out to the deck, my parents had already gotten the hot tub going and it was frothy from the jets, making it impossible to see beneath the surface. I didn't need to see to know my parents were nude. It would have been far more surprising if they were NOT since for as long as I can remember, none of us wore anything in the hot tub. Even when I was a little girl, I never gave it a second thought to jump in naked with my mom and dad. For me, that was just the way it was.

I dropped the towel I had tied around me and gingerly stepped into the tub. As always, the hot water took some getting used to but eventually I was submerged with the exception of my shoulders and head. Each of us was occupying one corner of the tub, sitting in one of the molded seats and enjoying the feel of the jets against out back and sides.

"See Tammy on your way down?" my mom asked.

"No, I thought she was already down here."

Just then the door to the deck opened and out came Tammy.

"Don't worry, I'm here!"

I looked over and saw she was wearing a full one-piece bathing suit. Granted, Tammy hadn't aged quite as well as my mom and a bikini probably wouldn't have been the most flattering thing for her to wear. It was the fact she was wearing anything at all that made for a potentially interesting scenario!

"C'mon in," my dad encouraged her. Tammy stepped over to the hot tub and it was then I think she realized for the first time that my mom and I weren't wearing anything, at least on top. With the jets running she couldn't see if we were wearing anything below but I think she figured out the situation pretty quick.

"Ummmmm, maybe this wasn't such a good idea," she said hesitantly, "I think I'll just watch some TV if you don't mind."

"Don't be silly!" my mom replied, "Don't worry, you look great!"

"Yeah but... I've never done anything like this, you know?"

"Like what?" my dad asked. "We're just enjoying the tub. C'mon, you know, it's not like it's anything I haven't seen before."

Tammy actually blushed at that. She rolled her eyes and said, "Well, that was a long time again John Wells. I'm not exactly a freshman in high school anymore, you know."

"Don't worry about it Tammy, it's just us," my mom encouraged her, "Besides, it will feel so much better without that suit on."

Tammy hesitated for another moment and finally her cheeks puffed out and she let out a loud sigh.

"Alright, but don't you dare tell Brad!"

I couldn't help but giggle a little at that. Her poor husband would probably faint if he knew Tammy's history with my dad, let alone if he heard she was joining us in the hot tub nude. Tammy dropped her suit and quickly entered the tub, as if she wanted to get in as fast as possible to hide herself under the water. Despite myself, I couldn't help but feel a little excited as she stripped. Knowing that she and my dad had done it back in high school and now she as once again naked in front of him was pretty erotic, even if they weren't doing anything. I also noticed that my dad's eyes didn't leave her for an instant either. I could only imagine what was going on between his legs just now!

Once she was in the water and the conversation turned to the day's events and such, Tammy seemed to settle down and relax. I don't know if she thought she was going to be attacked or have to take part in some orgy or what. It was similar to what I encounter from most people when they first hear about my parents and me. They seem to assume that just because we have an incestual relationship that we are having sex all the time.

After about twenty minutes or so, my dad's face was getting pretty red and my mom was getting concerned about him.

"John, don't you think maybe you should take a break for a few minutes? You know what the doctors say about staying in here too long at one stretch."

My dad nodded and he lifted himself up with both hands to the side until he was sitting on the edge of the tub with just his lower legs dangling in the water. What made it interesting was that he was also sporting one heck of an erection! Tammy noticed it as well and her eyes widened. The three of us all saw her reaction at the same time and I waited to see what, if anything, someone was going to say. Nobody did, though, so I decided to break the awkward silence.

"Ummmmm, Dad... something on your mind?" I teased him.

Tammy laughed nervously, as if she felt she needed to make some sort of response but didn't know what to say. Even so, her eyes stayed on my dad's crotch.

"Well, can you blame me?" my dad laughed, "What do you expect when I'm with three beautiful women, all of the naked and hot?"

My mom moved over to Tammy and put her arm around her. Their naked bodies were pressed up against each other but I don't think Tammy even noticed.

"So Tammy, does it still look the same?" my mom teased her.

"Ahhhhhh, I guess."

"It's OK, it's not like you have to worry about anything. You know John and I don't swing."

"Yeah... BUT... " she blurted out, looking at me as she did. Obviously she was referring to what she had learned this afternoon about my dad and me.

"Ohhhhhhhhh, you mean THAT," my mom said, as if the thought had never crossed her mind. "Kelly, why don't you show Tammy what we were talking about this afternoon?"

"That's OK Kelly, you don't have to do it for my sake," Tammy quickly responded. "I mean, well... I'm not so sure I'm ready for that."

"Oh nonsense!" my mom exclaimed, "I told you it as something she liked to do so just relax and watch the show."

Tammy didn't seem to know what to say so I shrugged my shoulders and moved in between my dad's legs. His dick as was hard as ever, still wet from the hot tub with his pubic hair plastered down in a matt around it. I had been wanting to suck him since I first got in the tub so I didn't waste any more time but instead went right to work on my dad's dick. Taking the head in my mouth while I held it in place by grasping the shaft close to his crotch, I sucked on the just the head like it was a tasty popsicle. Actually, it didn't taste all that great to start with as the bromide smell and taste in the hot tub water was covering him. Gradually the taste faded away as I sucked him more but the scent of the chemicals was still strong.

"Ohhhhhhhhh," was all my dad was able to say as he groaned softly when I took more or his dick in my mouth. Each time I bobbed my head on his dick I took in a fraction of an inch more each time until finally I had his entire cock in my mouth. With my face buried in the base of his dick, I twisted my head back and forth, rotating his dick in my mouth as my tongue played along the shaft.

"Damn that feels good Kelly!" he groaned again. I looked up at him and our eyes met as I held his dick in my mouth and tried to smile as best I could with a mouth full of cock. Then I looked to the side where my mom and Tammy were sitting. My mom still had her arm around Tammy and Tammy's hand appeared to be clasped in front of her as she watched me suck my dad's dick.

"So what do you think Tammy? Can my daughter suck cock or what?" my mom bragged to Tammy.

"Yeah, you could say that," Tammy replied, "But still, I just can't get over the idea that she's sucking her own father! It's unreal."

"But don't you see how wonderful it is?" my mom pressed her, "It's so beautiful seeing her pleasing him like that. I just think it's wonderful they're so close, don't you?"

I turned back to my dad's cock and after that it was hard to hear what the two of them were saying with the noise of the hot tub pumps and jets. It didn't really matter what they were discussing. What DID matter, though, was the feeling of my dad's cock in my mouth. Of course, knowing Tammy was watching made it all the more erotic for me. I sucked and stroked my dad for maybe ten minutes or so, keeping him aroused but being careful not to cross the line to where he couldn't help but cum. No way did I want him to lose that erection yet!

Finally I needed to catch my breath so I moved to the side of my dad and stroke his dick slowly with my hand. I looked over and saw my mom's hand on the arm she had around Tammy had drifted down until she was cupping Tammy's breast in her hand. Tammy appeared not to even notice but she had to know my mom was fondling her.

"God, isn't she beautiful?" my mom asked Tammy. Tammy seemed mesmerized by everything and just sat there motionless. My mom bent her head down and kissed Tammy on the lips. THAT brought her out of her reverie!

"Mary!" she gasped. She tried to pull away but without much effort behind it and my mom easily kept her arm around her. They kissed again and both my dad and I watched as the best friends quickly became more passionate with each other. It was like Tammy had been holding back and now that the door had been opened, she was letting it all out at once. I noticed my mom's other hand was under the water in the area of Tammy's crotch and I had a good feeling from the way Tammy suddenly jumped that her fingers had found a sensitive spot down there!

After a few minutes they parted from their kiss and Tammy had a dazed look on her face, as if she was in some sort of dream and was just waking up. My mom had a huge grin on her face and I knew she was thrilled to finally be doing this with her best friend.

"Do you want to see him fuck her?" my mom asked Tammy. It was a little surreal, like she was showing me off or something. Tammy just looked at her as if she didn't know what to say in response.

"Seriously Tammy, would you like to watch John fuck Kelly?" my mom repeated herself to Tammy. I pressed my thighs tight together as my pussy felt a little jolt as the thought of having her watch my dad fuck me made me even hornier than I was already.

"I... well I guess so," she stammered, "I'm sorry, it's just I still can't quite get over that yet."

"What do you mean, that I let my husband do my daughter?"

"Yeah but it's still incest!" Tammy protested.

"Your point?" my mom countered. Tammy didn't have an answer ready so my mom hugged Tammy and I barely heard her say, "Go on, tell him to fuck her."

"What? You want ME to say that? Why?"

"Trust me Tammy, just do it," my mom urged her, "See how it makes you feel."

Tammy looked at her and then at my dad and me. I could see her shoulders move back as she took in a deep breath, as if she was about to embark on a major effort.

"Alright then, do her John."

My mom slapped her shoulder playfully. "Oh come on Tammy, you can do better than that."

"Ummmmm, fuck her John," Tammy tried again but my mom still wasn't happy and urged her to let her feelings out. Tammy rolled her eyes and this time she let herself go.

"Fuck her John... I want to see you fuck your daughter!"

"That's it!" my mom encouraged her, "Didn't that feel hot?"

"Oh my god, I can't believe I said that!" Tammy said, her hands covering her mouth as if to keep anything else from escaping. It was OK with me; I was getting incredibly turned on by everything and from the stiffness of my dad's cock in my hand, so was he.

"You heard her daddy, fuck me!" I said playfully.

I moved over to the side of the hot tub adjacent to where my mom and Tammy were sitting tightly together. Leaning over the edge, my ass was just above the water line and I spread my legs apart to present an unobstructed view of my wet asshole and pussy. My dad made his way through the water, his cock sticking up above the waterline like a periscope from an attacking submarine. Moving in behind me, he gripped his dick in one hand and steadied himself by holding onto my hip with the other. I could feel the head of his cock pressing against me and I wiggled my ass, signaling my desire for him to enter me.

"So is this what you wanted me to do?" my dad teased Tammy.

Actually, he was teasing me even more as my pussy practically cried out for his dick to come inside. Tammy was obviously overcoming her initial fears and her inner lust was emerging as she got hornier by the minute between my mother's touches and now the show that was about to take place right next to her.

"I can't believe you are going to actually do it," was all she could say at first. Then she gasped as my mother must have come in contact with something sensitive again. "OK John, stop fooling around and show me how you screw your daughter."

It was like her words were the firing of a starting pistol as my dad's cock immediately began to force its way into me as soon as the words were out of her mouth. I gasped as his cock head split me apart, penetrating me like nothing else in the world can.

"Oh daddy, fuck me," I gasped between my non-stop moans.

I couldn't seem to stop moaning, they just kept coming out from my mouth as I felt that incredible sensation I get whenever a hard dick is making its way into me for the first time. Finally I felt his crotch pressing up against my ass and I wiggled my butt against him.

"Oh that feels so good inside of me," I groaned as I rotated my ass around his dick.

"Look at them," I heard my mother saying to Tammy, "Have you ever seen anything so wonderful?"

"I still can't believe he's actually fucking her," Tammy gasped, "I mean, I know what you said but I guess I never quite believed it. Oh my god, he's actually fucking her... his own daughter for god's sake!"

She sounded like she was having a hard time with it but the look in her eyes and the smile on her face as she stared at the two of us told a different story entirely.

"Go on, sit up next to her," my mom urged her. At this point, Tammy probably would have jumped off the deck if she had asked so she obeyed without question. I smiled at her as she sat next to me as I rocked back and forth in time with my dad's thrusts in and out of me.

"Spread your legs babe," my mom urged her. Tammy did and my mom plunged her head in between her thighs and began to eat her pussy. Tammy's eyes widened like saucers and she gasped as my mom's tongue went to work on her. I smiled as I knew how she must be feeling. My mom was an absolute expert on eating pussy and I always looked forward to our rare times together.

"Shit Mary, what are you doing?" she gasped as she jumped from what must have been a particularly good lick from my mom.

After a little but my dad pulled out of me and turned me around such that I was now sitting next to Tammy with my legs spread apart like hers. Instead of eating my pussy though, my dad went back to fucking me, sliding his cock back into me and fucking me slowly in a rhythmic motion. I looked over at Tammy and smiled.

"What do you think Tammy?"

"Oh god, this is incredible," she gasped between breaths. "I never even dreamed I would ever do anything like this."

A mischievous thought came to mind. It was treading on a thin line but I figured it would be OK.

"You want to suck my dad's dick with me?"

"What?" Tammy answered, a startled look on her face, "I mean, I'm married... hell, HE's married."

I grunted as my dad thrust himself particularly hard into me. He could obviously hear what we were discussing and I could only guess what was going through his head. My mom looked up from Tammy's pussy - she must have been listening as well.

"It's just a BJ Tammy, not like you're having sex with him," my mom cut in.

Poor Tammy, she was trying to be logical and make her point but at the same time my mom was playing with her pussy and she was watching her best friend's daughter getting drilled by her own dad. Not exactly the best of circumstances to make such a decision.

"C'mon Tammy, my dad wouldn't mind, would you dad?"

My dad just grinned. The answer to that was obvious. What guy would ever turn down a double BJ anyway?

"You sucked him all the time when you were in high school, don't you want to do it again?" I teased her.

"I guess... but what would Brad say if he found out?"

"Well, unless YOU tell him, how will he ever find out?" my mom countered.

"Well, anyways, I can't do it while he's fucking Kelly," she argued, as if that was going to get her out of it.

I up at my dad and grinned at him. He got the message and he pulled out of me, his hard cock standing out straight from him, glistening in the dim light with my pussy juices covering it.

"Don't you want to taste me on my dad's cock?" I asked innocently, as if I was asking her what flavor ice cream she wanted.

"Forgive me Brad," she mumbled, barely audible over the noise of the hot tub.

My mom moved back to give her room and Tammy slipped into the water until her head was at the level of my dad's dick. She reached out and grabbed it in her hand, stroking him slowly at first and just staring at it like it was the first cock she had ever seen.

"Bringing back any memories?" my mom asked.

Tammy giggled; apparently she was starting to get over her initial concerns. "God, it seems so long ago. Shit, it WAS a long time ago!"

I slipped in beside her and our faces were both inches away from my dad's dick now.

"Suck my dad's cock," I whispered to her, "Show me how you use to blow him."

"I can't believe I'm doing this," she mumbled again as her head moved forward those last few inches.

She didn't just nibble on him or lick him to start. No, Tammy went for it all from the start and took my dad's cock into her mouth, all of it. She choked just a bit as she hit bottom, more probably from the sudden entrance into her mouth than actually choking on him. She wiggled her head around his cock and then began to do a good old-fashioned head-bob on my dad, bouncing her head up and down his cock, taking him all the way in each time and then pulling up until the tip of his cock just cleared her lips and then repeating the process over again.

"Mmmmmmm, you taste so good on him," she said quickly with his cock out of her mouth briefly.

It was wild to see my dad getting blown by Tammy. All these years I'd known her and now to see her sucking on my dad's cock was incredibly erotic. The more she sucked him, the more she seemed to be getting into it. Any hesitation on her part, any signs of indecision or concern, all of that was gone now as she went down on my dad like a wanton slut. Just how horny she was getting, though, was even more than I had expected.

"Fuck me John... god I need to be fucked hard," she begged, stroking my dad's cock as she looked up into his face.

My dad looked at my mom, as if he didn't know how to respond.

"God Mary, tell him to fuck me," Tammy begged, "Brad hasn't been able to get it up for over a year and I need it SOOOOO bad."

Damn, this was NOT something I had expected. Frankly, just getting Tammy naked in the hot tub was a major score so far as I was concerned. To have her watch my dad fuck me was a bonus and now to see her sucking my dad was what I had thought would be the ultimate. I had never even dreamed about my dad fucking her! It was almost a relief to hear my mom's response.

"Now Tammy, you know better than that."

"What do you mean?" Tammy protested, stroking my dad quickly now, " Like, it's OK for him to fuck his own daughter but not your best friend? That doesn't make any sense!"

"Well, she IS his daughter, and that's why it's OK," my mom tried to explain. "It would be adultery for him to fuck you - for both of you."

Tammy looked stricken, as if the rug had been pulled out from under her. First she didn't even want to show herself nude to us and now she was apparently getting mad because my dad wouldn't fuck her! God, now THAT is what I call a quick change in attitude!

"Shit, what am I doing?" she exclaimed, as if she was suddenly awoke and was aware of her circumstances. She released my dad's cock and quickly climbed out of the hot tub. Grabbing her swimsuit, she hurried into the house, leaving the three of us in the tub to ponder what had just happened.

"Well, now THAT was certainly interesting," my dad mused.

My mom got out of the tub as well. "I had better check on her," she told us as she grabbed a towel and went after Tammy.

That left just my dad and me alone in the tub. My dad looked at me and I just shrugged. We both broke out laughing.

"Well, where were we, anyway?" my dad teased me.

"Hmmmmmm, I said, moving up against him until I felt his stiff cock poking me in the stomach, "I seem to remember something about your dick inside of me."

"That's funny, so do I," he teased me, "I guess I had better put it back, don't you think?"

I put my arms around his neck and hugged him. "I think that would be a GREAT idea daddy."

I felt his hands reach under my ass and lift me up until my pussy was hovering over his wet cock. He lowered me down and at first we had a hard time getting his cock to line up with me but after a few gyrations and wiggles, it hit the target and he dropped me down onto him, driving his dick deep inside of me.

"Oh daddy!" I cried out, "That feels so good in me... fuck me daddy."

Rather than try to hold me up and keep his balance on the slippery hot tub, he dripped down to his knees such that we were submerged under the water up to our chests. I felt like I was floating over his dick as he fucked me by lifting me and then lowering me back down on his underwater cock. In addition to his dick sliding in and

It made my heart flutter to hear my father say that about me. What could make a girl happier than to know she can please her father this way? Hearing my own father tell me how good it felt to fuck me, to feel his cum spurt out of him inside of me, made me feel more sexy and self-confident than anything else he could do for me.

"I had better make sure Mom and Tammy are OK," I finally whispered to him. I didn't want to leave his arms but I knew it was the right thing to do. He hugged me tightly one last time and then let me go. We didn't say anything else as I dried myself off and then went into the house.

My expectations were that I would have to go upstairs and find my mom consoling Tammy in her room, maybe wiping away the tears as she confronted what she had just done. Even though sucking guy didn't count as sex in MY book, I am not so naive as to think it doesn't for others. Tammy had obviously gotten caught up in the heat of the moment and now I was afraid she might be having second thoughts about even our relationship. With all that in mind, you can imagine my surprise when I entered the kitchen and heard sounds coming from our formal living room!

As I silently approached the entrance to the living room, the sounds became clearer and I could make out most of the words. Well, it turned out not to be so much actual words but more like moans and groans. What the hell was going on? It sure didn't sound like anyone was too upset.

I poked my head around the corner and in the darkness of the living room, lit only by the light streaming in the front windows from the streetlight out front; I could make out two figures on the floor, well actually on the rug that was covering the hardwood floor. Lo and behold, my mom was on top of my aunt as they licked each other in a classic 69!

Something told me that for once, discretion was the better part of valor so I quickly backed away and left them alone. Actually, I was starting to feel pretty tired so I just made my way to my bedroom and literally fell into my bed. It had been an interesting day, that was for sure!

5. My Dad Does Me While My Mom and Tammy Watch

The next morning arrived and I woke to the feeling of a dick pressing against my pussy. I didn't even have time to wipe the sleep from my eyes then I heard a grunt and the pressure behind the dick increased and it pushed its way into me. As groggy as I was, it didn't take a rocket scientist to figure out what was happening - my dear old dad was fucking me again!

"Oh daddy!" I moaned softly, stretching my arms out with my eyes still just partially open.

"See, I told you she liked it," I heard my mom saying to someone. I opened my eyes more and there in front of me, watching my dad fuck me like it was some play being acted out in front of them, was my mom and her best friend Tammy.

"I gotta say, once again I stand corrected," Tammy laughed, "I just couldn't imagine she would like waking up with a dick in her. Hell, I have enough problems getting Brad to fuck me when I'm wide awake!"

She and my mom both giggled at that one. Apparently, they had discussed this already and now it apparently was demonstration time. Oh well, it wasn't like I minded! If it involved my dad fucking me, I was all for it.

"You didn't see him cum in her last night, did you, my mom asked Tammy in a matter of fact tone. She could have been asking her if she caught the ending of a particular TV show from just the tone of her voice.

"Noooooo, I seem to remember a certain girlfriend eating out my pussy instead!"

Again, the two of them laughed loudly. I could tell things were back to "normal" between the two of them and felt a sense of relief.

"C'mon John, let's see it!" Tammy cheered him on. It was amazing how much someone could change overnight. If she had any concerns remaining over incest, they certainly seemed to be well-suppressed.

My dad was behind me, spooning me with my upper leg draped over his and his cock coming in from the bottom of my crotch and slipping into my clock from underneath. His wasn't the longest cock by any means that had fucked me but it was just suitable for this task. In this position, the two of us were lying on our sides and were looking directly at my mom and Tammy. All they needed now was a bag of popcorn to watch the show!

"I think he's about ready," my mom whispered to Tammy, "Watch closely now."

My dad wasn't saying anything at the time. He just seemed to be concentrating on his dick in me, as if he was willing himself to cum. This time, though, instead of pushing himself deep into me like he usually does when he cums in me, he pulled almost all the way out of me until just his head was buried in me.

"Ohhhhhhhhh!" he moaned as I felt his cum bursting out of him. As close as he was to the entrance to my pussy I could feel the heat of his sperm as he ejaculated inside of my pussy.

"Damn, he really does cum in her, doesn't he?" Tammy observed. On hearing her remark, I just shook my head slightly, more for myself than anything else. Despite everything she had seen so far, despite how everything we had told her had turned out to be the truth, for some reason she still seemed skeptical that my father would fuck me without a condom and actually deposit his sperm inside of me.

"Pretty hot, don't you think?" my mom asked her. "Imagine your sons cumming in you."

Tammy slapped her playfully, "No don't even go there sister. I would NEVER let one of my sons fuck me."

After my dad was finished, he held me in his arms and we just lay together for a while with his dick softening inside of me. Tammy and my mom got up and started to leave when Tammy turned and look at us thoughtfully. She looked at my mom with a naughty smile on her face and turned back to my dad and me. Kneeling at the edge of my bed, she pulled my dad's cock out of me and held it in her hand.

"Mmmmmmm, sorry but I've just GOT to get a taste of this," she murmured softly. I felt my dad shudder behind me as she took his half-erect cock in her mouth and sucked on it. It was too bad he wasn't going to be able to respond, at least not for a little while. I couldn't help but wonder how many times my mom would say no if she asked my dad to fuck her.

She sucked him for just a few minutes, enough to get the taste of his cum and my pussy into her mouth. The she giggled like a little girl and ran out of the room leaving my dad and me alone again. My dad looked at me and just laughed.

"Don't look at me baby, I don't know what is going on either!"

We just laughed together and then everyone got ready for church. As we drove to church, Tammy was in the back seat of our SUV with me while my parents were in the front seat. Tammy looked at me and just shook her head in apparent amazement.

"You know, if I hadn't seen it with my own two eyes I never would have believed that you would be going to church with a cunt filled with your dad's cum!"

I grinned at her and lifted my skirt to reveal my panties (my skirt was way too short to risk going to church bare-bottom). Pulling them to the side, I pushed a finger into my pussy to wet it and then licked the juices off my pussy.

"Wow, you really ARE a naughty little slut, aren't you?" Tammy laughed.

"I told you so!" my mom called back, evidently overhearing Tammy's remarks.

We all laughed as we pulled into the church parking lot. Unfortunately, Tammy's flight was not long after church so we had to take her straight to the airport after the service. She kissed each of us goodbye when we got there.

"Well, that was certainly a different weekend than I expected!" she giggled as my dad helped her with her luggage.

"Say hello to Brad," my mom said, a naughty grin on her face.

"And your boys too!" I chimed in.

Tammy was gone and we were left to our memories. I took consolation in that in just a couple of weeks my mom and I would be traveling to her house. I wondered if we would have a chance to be naughty while we were there? Mmmmmmm, maybe I could help Brad get it up again? You never know!

ponytail. Some of my friends who tutored had warned me about some of the pitfalls of showing up looking like a slutty high school girl as apparently it wasn't the way to impress the parents on your first day. I figured that once I got to know them, then I would adjust my attire if necessary and it proved to be appropriate.

When I rang the doorbell, Nathan's father answered and introduced himself. I tried to keep a straight face as he instinctively did what most guys do when I first meet them - give me the once over. Well, hopefully he was pleased with what he saw. As conservative as I tried to be, it wasn't like I was dressed like a nun. The jeans were just tight enough to show off my ass without being painted on. My blouse was buttoned appropriately but not to my neck. It was the right size for me (or at least "right" as defined by the store guides), although maybe a little on the small side which helped to show off my boobs just a little bit. My bra felt uncomfortable (God I HATE them) but without it my nipples would have been poking through and a much as it would have been fun to see his reaction, I didn't think it was appropriate on our first time meeting one another.

Nathan's dad invited me in and as I stepped inside and got a look around, it was all I could do not to stare at the interior furnishings. When I said they were well-off, that was obviously more than a bit of an understatement. The furniture was immaculate and I doubted all paintings on the wall were just reproductions. He led me through the house without saying a word and then up a staircase to a door about midway down a long hallway.

"We set up a study room for you to use when you're here," he explained, "Nathan will be in shortly. Make yourself at home."

I stepped into the room and looked around. I heard him hesitate at the door for a second and then his footsteps disappeared down the hall. No doubt he took a good look at my ass before he left but that was OK with me. Really, what's the point in dressing to show off your ass if nobody looks at it?

Looking around, I was impressed. The room as set up like a miniature school room. There was a desk for the "student" and a larger one for the "teacher". An new Apple computer sat on a table to one side and a nearby bookshelf was filled with various books and computer programs. There was a white board, various supplies and even a video camera although I wasn't sure what I was supposed to do with THAT. I smiled to myself as I thought that maybe daddy had some ideas about making a "naughty schoolgirl" video.

My thoughts may have gone further in the gutter had not the door opened again and in returned the father with young Nathan in tow. Nathan certainly didn't look too thrilled about the situation but then he saw me and for just an instant, the frown on his face softened but then quickly returned as he continued his protests.

"Come on Dad, I can't believe you're making me do this. It's summer!"

"Dammit, I told you to behave yourself," his dad hissed at him under his breath as if he was trying to keep me from hearing.

It was clear enough for anyone in the room to hear but I pretended I didn't hear anything and stood up to greet Nathan. Introductions were made, we shook hands, and then dad made his exit.

During the first tutoring session with a new kid, I try to spend most of the time getting to know the kid rather than trying to get any real instruction accomplished. The whole point of having a tutor is to individualize the instruction and in order to do that, I need to know more about the individual.

Soon I learned that Nathan was an only child (not a surprise) and both of his parents worked (again, not a surprise). Apparently dad had an office over the garage (it held three cars it's not like the office was a closet) where he ran some form of accounting business. Mom worked as some kind of manager at some expensive clothing store at the mall and was generally gone most of the day, leaving Nathan on his own most of the time.

It's surprising what kids will tell you once they start talking and before the hour was up, I knew about his parents marital issues (nothing unusual so far as I was concerned but Nathan seemed to be bothered by a few things), his friends at school (all boys), his sports (from the lack of trophies and such I figured he sucked at them), and more. From the way he kept glancing furtively at my boobs, I was tempted to ask him if he was going to jerk off dreaming about them after I left but of course, I never would have asked such a direct question.

The hour went by quickly and when I left for the day I stopped by his dad's office to say goodbye (and collect my money - cash only please). Glancing up from a pile of paperwork, he lowered his reading glasses down his nose and looked at me over them.

"Everything go OK?"

It was almost like he was surprised that I had survived the hour intact. My curiosity must have showed because he grinned at me and leaned back in his chair.

"Well, it's just that the last two girls bolted before the first hour was up," he shared with me, "Nathan can be a bit of a pain sometimes."

It seemed odd to me because overall, the kid had been quite nice to me. Certainly I'd had other boys who were REALLY pains in the ass so it was surprising to hear this about Nathan. Then he looked at me again, this time with more of a leer than a smile.

"Nathan is fine, really," I responded, "Besides, I think I do pretty well with most kids."

"Well, pardon me for being blunt but with Nathan it may have more to do with... shall we say your 'assets', than anything else. And I must say, yours are considerable better than those of his previous tutors."

Well, even though I knew immediately what he was referring to and it pleased me to hear it, I still pretended to be a bit embarrassed and put my hand to my mouth.

"Oh, I didn't mean to offend you," he hurriedly said. "I really meant it as a compliment. Besides, can't say I blame him."

He was just flirting a little bit, that was obvious. I've learned to tell when a guy is flirting just to be a bit "naughty" as compared to trying to see if he could get anywhere without committing himself. My quick assessment was that this guy was just enjoying himself and I felt no inkling whatsoever that he held any "promise" for the future. Of course I was a little disappointed as he was quite a god looking guy, but better to know up front so I wouldn't waste time just to find out later he was just a tease.

"Well, in that case I'll just have to try harder to keep his attention in the future," I teased him back, enjoying the little repartee.

He just smiled and handing me my cash and went back to work as I said goodbye and went home. As I drove home I wondered what Nathan would do next time if I left the bra at home? Somehow I didn't think his dad would mind either.

Later that night at dinner I was telling my parents about my day and when it came to my new tutoring job I finally got my dad's interest away from the daily newspaper.

"You know, I think I met this guy once; he does taxes for some of the guys at the office. Must do pretty well for himself. Is the house as good on the inside as it looks from the outside?"

I described the house and both parents just shook their heads. When I mentioned my parting conversation, my dad grinned at me.

"So, anything going to happen there you think?"

I sadly shook my head and explained how I felt about it. My dad just chuckled.

"Oh well, too bad I guess. You can't expect every guy to cheat on his wife," my dad consoled me. Then he grinned and teased me saying, "I bet your tutoring rate would have gone up considerably!"

"Dad!" I protested, pretending to be shocked at the implication he was making.

My mom just sat there quietly, a slight grin on her face as she listed to the two of us teasing each other. It was always interesting to see how differently my parents could view the same situation. My dad was thinking about me doing the father whereas my mother was obviously coming at the situation from a different angle.

"So are you going to tease the poor boy some more next time?" she asked.

"Oh I guess," I answered, then paused before continuing by saying, "He IS kinda cute and besides, his dad certainly seemed to think it helped keep his attention."

"So I assume that's ALL you're going to do, just tease?"

"Mom!" I whined, "You don't have to treat me like a teenager you know. I know better."

My mother was the moral compass of the family, apparently making it almost a crusade of hers to keep my dad and me on course. She knew about most of the things I'd done with a few younger boys before; but even then, none of those had been as young as Nathan, even when I was that young. Personally, I didn't see why she would think I needed to be constantly reminded to behave myself. As much as I loved my mom, sometimes she could be a bit overbearing.

3. Keeping Nathan's Attention

The next time I was scheduled to tutor Nathan, I dressed in almost the same outfit but with a few subtle changes. Of course, the first thing to go was the white bra. However, rather than doing away with it entirely, I thought I would raise the ante a bit by switching to a lacey black version that was cut considerably lower than the standard white one I'd worn the last time. You could see it outlined through the white blouse which in some ways I think made it more sexy than not wearing one at all, especially when it came to stimulating a young boy's imagination. The blouse I chose this time was a size smaller as well, which helped to show off my bust line better and forced me to leave two more buttons undone, letting my cleavage show this time, especially if I leaned over just a little bit.

As I gathered my things and prepared to leave, my mom caught just a glimpse of me as I walked by the kitchen and called for me to let her see how I looked.

"Hmmmmmm, not bad," she mused, "A bit showy but not TOO slutty. So tell me, is all this for the boy or his dad?"

"Mom!" I protested once again, "I thought I'd told you the dad wasn't interested."

"Hey, I was just hoping for your sake so don't get all up tight," she sighed as she rolled her eyes at my response. OK, maybe I overreacted a little bit but she knew better.

We kissed briefly and then I was off. Soon I arrived at the house, or should I say mansion. Nathan's dad again answered the door and again, he gave me the once-over but this time I noticed it took a little longer.

"Nice. I guess from the looks of things you took my hint," he said with just a hint of a smile.

"Well, I'll do anything if it helps me keep your son's attention," I replied softly, "And I DO mean anything."

"Ummmmm, you ARE tutoring him in MATH, right?" he teased, not taking the bait. Oh well, it was worth another shot, even if he WAS remarkably loyal to his wife. I chose just to nod in response then and he stepped back to let me in as he continued. "OK, just checking."

Nathan was waiting for me this time in the classroom and when I walked in alone, his eyes involuntarily widened and again, they fixated on my boobs. I probably could have walked with no jeans on at all and he would have stared at my boobs!

It was all business so far as I was concerned for the next hour although I couldn't help but notice Nathan's attention continued to be more on me than his text books. I never made any mention of it, though, and acted as if I had no idea where his interest really lay. There were a few times when I would move in closer to him until my boobs rubbed up against his arm. As I was taller than him, I could look down and see his attention shift to my open blouse and bra clearly visible underneath. It was hard to ignore the hard-on he was sporting for almost the entire session but somehow I managed!

On my way out, Nathan's dad had my cash and as he handed it to me, he shook his head slightly.

"I have to tell you that this morning the first time Nathan has ever told me that he was looking forward to his tutoring session. Looks like we finally found a girl who knows how to grab his attention."

Although that was all he said, a glance at my boobs and then a slight grin was enough to tell me that he knew what was drawing his son's attention to me, not to mention his own.

4. Raising the Stakes

Now that I had been there twice and gotten the same "message" both times, I decided the next week to crank it up yet another notch. This time the bra stayed home entirely and instead of wearing a blouse, I chose a tight cream colored tank top that clung to me like saran-wrap. It was too short to tuck in and unless I continuously tugged at it, it rode up and exposed a few inches or so of my tanned midriff. My jeans had been replaced with a tighter pair that rode further down my hips hugging my ass tighter and showing off the curves better.

The results, not surprisingly, were exactly as I had hoped for. My nipples were already hard by the time I got to the house, poking out through my tank top like little missiles as I anticipated the response I would be getting from the two of them. The jeans must have helped because for the first time, Nathan showed some interest in my ass which was encouraging. It was all I could do not to say anything a few times during our session when his attention went totally off track as he literally stared at my boobs.

Although I can't say how much math he was absorbing, his father didn't seem to have any issues when he paid me. In fact, he just dropped another "hint" as I started to leave.

"How in the world can you bear to wear those jeans in this hot weather?" he mused, "I thought most girls wore shorts when its gets so hot outside?"

I just shrugged but I definitely took the hint. The next two week I shifted from jeans, to a longer pair of white shorts, and then finally to a pair of cutoffs that left little to the imagination. In the process I learned that Nathan was much more of a leg "man" when I exposed some skin than he had been with the jeans covering them up.

like yesterday. I remember how excited I was the day I got dressed to meet Steve, knowing it was likely to be the last time I looked in the mirror and saw a virgin. My boobs were barely out of my training bra and my legs may have been ridiculously skinny but at the time I felt incredibly sexy and grown up.

Seven years later, I was starting to think about working out and my boobs were almost to the point where a bra might be a sensible thing to wear, if not the most desirable. Back then I remember being so proud of the new fuzzy hair that was finally covering my virgin pussy. Now I just frowned at my shaven crotch as I realized I hadn't shaven in two days and if I didn't do it soon, I'd be breaking out again in a rash when I eventually did.

What must it be like for a woman my mom's age or so when she looks in the mirror? At least my boobs were still perky enough I could get away without a bra most of the time (for now at least). My upper arms weren't sagging and my stomach was pretty flat. Like always, I loved my ass and there still wasn't any flab or cellulite back there to worry about.

Overall, I guess, I was content with the girl looking back at me in the mirror. My only regret was that I couldn't carry off the "teenager" look any more, unlike my cousin Kristen who still looked sixteen or seventeen at age twenty. The only reason that concerns me is that I think it turned guys on more when they knew I was a teenager. For some reason, telling a guy I'm twenty one just doesn't seem to be as naughty as back when I said I was eighteen. Even so, I'm not about to lie about my age - not yet at least.

"Staring in the mirror again?"

I turned to see my mom smiling at me from the bedroom door.

"Yeah, I have to get going soon."

"Tutoring Nathan again today?"

"Yeah, last time too. They're heading for Europe tomorrow."

My mom entered the room and stood behind me. I felt her hands on my bare shoulders as she rubbed them gently. "Well, don't you think you've teased the poor boy enough this summer?"

"Mom, you know I haven't done anything bad!"

Indeed, other than wearing some clothes that were a LITTLE provocative but by no means shameful, I hadn't done anything untoward with Nathan. Oh sure I didn't stop him from staring at me and looking at my shorts or between my legs, but I never let him so much as rub against me nor did he ever see anything more than he would have seen in a Sears catalog. Especially important, I'd never so much as laid a hand on him, not even in encouragement. When it comes to my professional life, I take my responsibilities seriously and the last thing I need is a reputation for being a slutty tutor when I eventually apply for a teaching position (even if I was).

"Well, I'm not trying to say you've been BAD. It's just that I see from the outfit you've got laid out that you're not exactly meeting the school district dress code."

She was referring to the skirt and blouse I had spread out on my bed. The skirt was made of denim and was tight around the hips with about a two inch pleated section on the bottom. It covered my ass, at least when I was standing up. The light-blue blouse was rather sheer and probably at least one size too small for my measurements. The black thong I'd chosen covered my pussy but that was about it as the back side was not much more than some strings to hold it on me. There wasn't a bra but that I hadn't worn to their house one in weeks now and besides, I doubt she even noticed as I normally never wore one anyway.

"Hey, isn't that the outfit your dad bought you?"

I nodded as indeed it was. My dad loved to buy clothes for me and as a man, he knew what turned him. He would bring them home and give them to me and then I would pose for him afterwards. He had loved this outfit and so far, the only time I'd worn it was for him.

"Don't get me wrong, Kelly, I don't mind you wearing it for him; but don't you think it's a little over the top for public consumption?"

"Oh Mom, I'm not fourteen anymore," I huffed. Maybe not, but I could certainly whine like one still! It was the first thing to come to my head, undoubtedly from having thought so much about being fourteen again before she'd come in my room.

"Exactly," my mom said softly, not reacting to the aggressive tone of my response. "It was easier to get away with things back then, people just thought it was 'cute'. Now you're an adult and frankly, you look like a street walking whore in that outfit. That's OK for your dad to see you in but are you really sure you want to wear it today?"

I felt myself stiffen at her words. Wow, she usually wasn't quite so direct with me and calling me a whore was NOT typical at all. Maybe she was right, was I going too far?

"Well, it's up to you I guess," she said wistfully as she turned to leave, "You know how I feel about it."

and told him how much I loved it seeing it got hard all those times when I was teaching him. Indeed, THAT wasn't merely a fantasy of mine. The poor kid DID seem to have perpetual erection throughout our tutoring sessions. As horny as he obviously was, why he never came and wet his pants was a mystery to me.

I pulled my finger out and pretended to reach out for his hard young dick, as stiff as a steel rod, waiting impatiently to enter its first pussy. It felt warm and stiff in my hand, the pulse of his rapid heartbeat throbbing against my fingers.

"Fuck me Nathan, oh God fuck me," I groaned as I slowly inserted my middle finger in me again, pretending in my mind that it was Nathan's young hard dick instead. I imagine the look on his face as he felt a real pussy consume and surround his cock for the first time, feeling the wetness and warmth of a woman's hungry cunt for the first time in his life. God I wanted to bad to be his first! If he suddenly appeared at my bedroom door at this moment I don't know if I could have held myself back.

"Make me cum Nathan, that's it, you can do it!"

Actually, my dream was moving more to coincide with where my body physically was at the moment than anything else. Indeed, I could feel my orgasm beginning to build deep in the pit of my stomach. As it began to spread out to my entire body, it started as a light tingle and then slowly grew, like the sun rising at dawn.

"Oh god, fuck me Nathan!" I cried out as I plunged another finger into me while I used my other hand to rub my clit. The room seemed to darken and withdraw, leaving me alone in some form of a sexual universe where it was just me, my starving pussy and his imaginary cock as "Nathan" fucked me with everything his young cock could give me.

"OH MY GOD, I'M CUMMING!" I groaned loudly, feeling my pussy gush out over my fingers, wishing it was his cock in me instead, covering his dick and balls with my pussy cum.

My hips bounced on the bed as I imagined bucking up against him, trying to draw every ounce of gooey cum from his erupting dick into my empty pussy, not letting a single drop escape. It seemed my orgasm would never end – not that I wanted it to, but eventually it started to die down. I tried to open my eyes but I couldn't find the energy as I collapsed on my bed, my swollen pussy throbbing with a pulse like the drumbeat of a hard rock album.

I must have laid there like that for ten or fifteen minutes, just savoring the lingering sensations in my pussy and the general glow that seemed to surround me. My only regret was that Nathan's cock wasn't really in me.

"Hey Kelly, you going today or what?" my mom called up the stairs.

I turned to look at my alarm clock and gasped. Damn, I had about twenty minutes to get to their house or else I would be late and I had NEVER been late, not even once, to a tutoring appointment. My little "exercise" had taken a lot longer than I'd thought!

Trying not to panic, I ran to the bathroom where I tried to straightened out my hair and dab on some makeup. One thing I certainly didn't need was blush! There was no time for a shower, I would just have to smell the way I did. A splash of perfume would have to do for covering up the majority of it and besides, I doubted that Nathan would even recognize the lingering odor of my pussy after sex anyway, although his dad certainly might if he got close enough.

Fortunately, it didn't take long to dress as it wasn't like there was a lot to put on. Actually, my heels took the longest as the straps were a pain in the neck the way they wrapped around my ankles before being buckled in. A few last second brushes through my hair and I was ready with minutes to spare!

I had to pass by the kitchen to get to the stairs leading to the basement and garage so there was no avoiding my mom. She saw me as I hurried by but to her credit, she didn't say a word although the tightening of her jaw said volumes. No sense in stirring up trouble so I didn't say anything more but rather grabbed my purse, kissed her goodbye on the cheek, and then headed to my car and quickly drove over to their house.

6. How Far Should I Go?

Nathan's family lived in a quiet neighborhood and in the past, I'd never even seen anyone out and about. This time, as luck would have it, an elderly woman was out working on her flowers next door. When I pulled up in a hurry I must have gotten her attention as when I stepped out of my car, there was no doubt from the look on her face that she was watching me. My first thought was that it was too bad someone wasn't taping the scene as her expression was priceless. I could have probably been nude and not seen such a look of intense revulsion and disgust God, talk about being up-tight! She turned her head away but I could see her muttering and lord only knew what the local gossip would be before long. Oh well, it wasn't my family that lived here!

As always, Nathan's dad answered the door. In all the time I had been tutoring him this summer, I had never once seen his mom as she always seemed to be working when my days were scheduled. Hmmm, was that just a coincidence? I was always on time so he must have been waiting for me because as I reached for the doorbell the door opened before I could ring it.

"Hey Kelly, nice to see you again," he said politely.

The way he was looking at me, though, was anything BUT polite. Gee whiz, talk about undressing someone with your eyes! He had me stripped and spread eagle on the bed in seconds judging from the look on his face as he took in my outfit.

"My, I see we've come a long way since that first lesson, haven't we?" he said softly, not even bothering to divert his eyes as he normally did.

"True, but I don't think that you mind, or do you?" I asked coyly.

He chuckled and finally looked at me above my neck. "Oh no, I wouldn't want you to get the impression I don't like it!"

"Well, I guess I'd better get to my lesson with Nathan then," I said as I turned to go up the stairs.

Normally at this point our little banter would end and he would head to his office while I made my way to the stairs leading to where the school room was. Well, not today. I could practically feel his eyes boring into me as I made my way across the room. It wasn't like I was hurrying, either. Indeed, I made sure he got a good eyeful and as I went up the stairs, my skirt rode up and I pretended not to notice. With the skimpy thong I was wearing, from the back I may as well have been wearing nothing and for the first time, he got an eyeful of my all but bare ass. Given all the effort I was making, I certainly hoped he was enjoying the view! Not for the first time I felt frustration over his loyalty to his wife. On the one hand I respected him for it but selfishly, I hoped that he was at least thinking a few naughty thoughts today, even if he didn't act on them.

Once I got to the top of the stairs and started down the hallway, I pulled my skirt back down and took a deep breath as I approached the room where I knew Nathan was waiting impatiently for me. Although I'd worn some pretty skimpy shorts before that showed off most of my legs and even a good portion of my ass, I'd never worn a skirt and so this would be the first time he got to actually see between my legs and my behind.

Regardless of how horny I was, I remained totally professional during his lesson. Well, at least what I SAID was professional. We talked about math but I made sure when I sat on my desk that he got more than a few lessons that weren't in the text book. After all, visual aids are all a part of teaching, aren't they? Throughout the lesson, I acted like a total klutz, dropping things all the time such that I had to bend over to retrieve them. Of course, they always seemed to drop in such a way my ass was up in the air facing Nathan when I leaned over for them. Of course, he didn't seem to mind!

Normally I would sit behind the teacher's desk or in the extra student desk next to his when I taught him. Today, I sat on top of the teacher's desk, letting my legs hang off the front edge. Sometimes I would cross my legs to hide my crotch although that just lifted my skirt up over my ass. The desk was a bit cold on my bare bottom but it was worth it to see the look in his eyes as they gazed at my naked ass. At other times I would leave them uncrossed and I have to confess I wasn't very lady-like at those times, "forgetting" to keep my legs together the way my mom taught me which let him get a great few of my barely hidden pussy. My thong was so tight it would bunch up and pull between my pussy lips, not leaving much material to cover me to the point where it was pretty useless so far as hiding anything. Again, Nathan didn't complain so I didn't worry about it.

One thing to remember is that teasing and flirting isn't just for the guy's benefit, it's fun for the girl as well - and I had a LOT of fun that day. When I was finally ready to leave, for the first time I hugged Nathan to say goodbye. Other than a perfunctory handshake, it was the first time I'd allowed Nathan to touch me in all of our sessions. My firm boobs pressed up against him and he quickly tried to take advantage of the situation as his hands grabbed my ass. They stayed on top of my skirt but I was impressed by the little perv! That was all I was going to allow, though, so I left the room with a smile on both our faces. Seeing his stiff dick trying to burst through his jeans, somehow I had the distinct impression Nathan would be using the bathroom pretty quickly!

As always, Nathan's dad was downstairs waiting for me as usual. He handed me a single bill and my eyes widened as I realized it was a hundred dollar bill! Nice tip!

"Kelly, you've been the best tutor we've ever had," he said in explanation, "And I don't mean just for Nathan."

He grinned at me and for just a moment I wondered what might have happened if I made a move but I actually respected the guy too much to do that now. After a summer of flirting and teasing he'd never made an overt move towards me, something not many men can say. I had a feeling he wouldn't respond and the last thing I wanted to leave things in an uncomfortable situation. Besides, maybe he would hire me next summer!

The neighbor lady was gone when I came out although I could have sworn a curtain moved in the house next door but I couldn't be sure. Oh well, let her have her gossip for the day!

When I got home my mom was watching TV in the family room as my dad hadn't gotten back from work yet. I went over to her and gave her a hug and a kiss. She still had a bit of a stern look on her face, though.

"I STILL can't believe you wore that out in public," she huffed.

"Don't worry mom," I assured her, "Nothing happened, I just teased the poor kid to death."

"Well, wait until your dad gets home," she sighed, "I can just imagine what HE will say."

I grinned as I knew exactly what my dad would say! He wouldn't give a hoot about Nathan and his dad. All my dad would want is for me to dress in that outfit again for him and I knew where it would lead from there!

I leaned over to kiss my mom again. Her lips felt soft and warm as our tongues met and for a moment I was about to climb in her LazyBoy with her but I needed a shower BAD so after a couple of minutes we reluctantly split apart and I hurried up to my bedroom.

Back in my room I looked at the clock and realized my dad would be home before too much longer. Well, no sense in changing yet as I may as well get a full day's use out of his outfit. I didn't think he would mind seeing me wearing it and at least I knew I wouldn't be just teasing him either! Oh well, so much for the shower! I laid in bed and pulled my thong to the side. Mmmmmmm, I was going to be ready when my dad got home!

(Jul 14) Chapter 119: First Time K9

Me (21)
Sam - girlfriend (21)
Sandy - Sam's golden retriever

Years before my little Yorkie licked me between the legs and that was all I ever thought I would do with a dog. Then a friend dared me to have sex with her best friend and the next thing I knew I was doing something I never even dreamed I ever would!

1. Fun With My Friend Sam

Almost six years ago when I was in bed my little four pound Yorkie became fascinated with what was between my legs so out of curiosity I let her investigate. As it turned out, she had quite the talented tongue and she was even able to make me cum. Like many things I've done on the spur of the moment, I chalked it up to being just an experiment, a one-time experience which I never would ever do again. I've seen a few clips of girls having sex with dogs and even horses but for me the very thought of having sex with an animal has always been somewhat repulsive to me. It seemed to be something that only ugly girls in poor quality foreign porn movies did. The idea that I would ever even TOUCH a dog's dick, let alone suck one or be fucked by one, was not even something I fantasized about.

Samantha (Sam) was one of those friends I include in my short list of close friends. We'd grown up together and while I'd watched her masturbate during some of our slumber parties, it was no different than any of my other friends since we all eventually did it. We never actually touched one another even though it became fairly public knowledge that Sam was an avowed lesbian. So far as I knew she'd never even had sex with a guy even though she was the same age as me - twenty one. Sam was beautiful and she still teased and flirted with guys but it was just out of cruel sport so far as she was concerned. She had a great body and enjoyed showing it off, even if she had no interest in them beyond that. Although I'm bi, my preference is for guys and I've never made a show out of being attracted to girls and so Samantha and I remained good friends but in a totally platonic manner.

It was the middle of my summer break and the newness of being home and away from the stress of school was wearing off. My best friend Beth had been trying to get me to go with her to some of her sex parties like I had in previous summers but for some reason they just didn't appeal to me at the moment. I was horny as hell yet the idea of having sex with some nameless stranger just so he could get off in the hope that I would as well just wasn't working for me. In any case I was getting plenty of cock from my dad, not to mention the occasional fuck from my uncle and cousin, but it wasn't the same as getting laid by a guy outside the family. I loved fucking them but I also needed that thrill that came from a new conquest and a new cock.

It just happened that I was masturbating on my bed when Sam called me. I didn't tell her what I was doing but I kept playing with myself as we talked. God I was so horny I couldn't stand it! We were just gossiping about who was doing what with who and so on but as I toyed with my wet clit I found myself thinking about Sam and wondering what she looked like as we talked. I wondered if she was doing the same thing as me - playing with herself as well and just not telling me. Was she thinking about fucking me? As we talked I found myself thinking more about how her pussy smelled, how it would taste, how her mouth would feel between my legs. I felt my orgasm rising and a soft moan escaped I came.

"Kelly... Ground Control to Kelly?" I heard Sam calling to me over the phone, "Are you still there? What the hell ARE you doing girl?"

I shook my head and realized that I had no idea what she'd just said and so I wondered how long I'd been phased out while my orgasm was at its peak.

"Sorry Sam," I said laughing a little, "What did you say?"

Sam laughed over the phone, "Ohhhhhhhhh, I get it now... Why didn't you tell me you were getting yourself off?"

"Sammmm!" I exclaimed over the phone, pretending to be embarrassed.

Sam just laughed even harder. "Hell, if you're THAT horny girl you need to get out." She paused for a second and then asked, "Hey, you want to spend the night at my place? We can relive some of our old pajama party nights... if you know what I mean."

I grinned to myself as I knew EXACTLY what she meant! What the hell? Masturbating with Sam had to be better than doing it alone and who knows, maybe we might do something else. As horny as I still was, the idea of sex with Sam was getting me even hornier. We agreed to a time and after we hung up I masturbated for over an hour afterwards, dreaming of sex with Sam and how it would be our first time together. Little did I know at the time what I was getting myself into!

My mom was working a double shift and as usual, my dad was working late so I just left them a note on the kitchen table telling them where I was. I arrived at Sam's house at about 8:00 that night and she greeted me at the door. Sam's parents had money - a LOT more than even mine. She had decided not to go to college and instead was working for her Dad. Rather than move out into her own apartment, she still lived at home but had moved into a basement apartment in their huge house so she had some privacy (as did her parents). It had a small kitchenette and bathroom plus a living area and bedroom so it was perfect for the single girl. As I entered I was unexpectedly greeted by someone else - a big golden retriever.

"Down Sandy!" Sam ordered as the dog tried jumping up on us. It didn't bother me as I could tell he just wanted attention from the way his tail was wagging fiercely as he nuzzled up against us. "Sorry, forgot to warn you about him. My parental units said I had to keep him down here."

Sam hugged Sandy around the neck and he rolled over on his back. She rubbed his belly which he obviously loved. I couldn't help but notice his cock, or at least what I could see of it beneath all the hair. My little Yorkie is a girl so when I rubbed her belly I didn't have to worry about where my hand was wandering - not so with Sandy!

Sam asked me if I wanted a beer or wine which I politely declined. I HATE beer and only drink wine on special occasions. It's not a moral issue or anything, I just don't really enjoy the taste. Fortunately she had my favorite - Diet Coke. We sat at the table and picked up our conversation where we'd left off on the phone - minus the references to masturbation.

"Hey, do you like porn Kelly?" Sam asked. It was like totally out of the blue and for a second I hesitated, not sure how to respond.

"Not especially," I finally managed to get out, "It always seems so... just so fake to me."

"Yeah, I agree," Sam replied, "But the girl-girl stuff is way better I think." She looked at me with a nasty grin on her face and said, "Wanna watch some with me?"

I shrugged and went along with her. My dad enjoyed watching lesbian sex and so I'd had seen quite a bit of it as a result at home but it had never held any special fascination for me. About the only part about it I liked was it never failed to get him hard and horny and usually that meant fun for me! I followed her to the bedroom where she had as small twin bed but a massive large screen TV. She opened a cabinet and I saw it was full of various DVDs, most of which were labeled such that I knew her collection was largely dominated by lesbian porn. I also noted that there were quite a few that seemed to refer to animal sex as well but I just ignored those, figuring everyone has their fetishes and Sam was no different.

"C'mon, let's get undressed," Sam said, pulling off her clothes. God she looked incredible as always! I'd given anything to have the perfect boobs and incredible ass she was blessed with. I couldn't help but notice she seemed to be keeping an eye on me as well.

We both quickly stripped and I reached in my bag for my nightie.

"Oh Kelly, you're not going to wear THAT, are you?" Sam said in an exasperated voice. "C'mon, we're not in high school anymore!"

Sam jumped on the bed nude with the TV remote and was motioning for me to join her. Once again I marveled at her incredible figure. She was more beautiful than ever with her summer tan - no tan lines I noticed, and I didn't mind one bit squeezing on the bed with her. She giggled and started up the DVD and before long the giant screen was filled with almost life-size images of girls fucking one another. There wasn't much of plot but then who needed one?

Almost on cue, we both started to touch ourselves and before much longer we were each masturbating heavily. I wasn't sure if Sam was masturbating more to the movie or me but I knew in my case what it was. I wanted her - not some silly movie! God she looked so hot leaning back against the pillows with her legs apart and hand massaging her pussy! Even though I'd seen her masturbating many times before, there was something different this time, almost as if this time she was doing it for me.

"God I want to cum!" Sam moaned, "Touch me Kelly... make me cum girl!"

Needless to say I didn't need a second offer. I reached over and she lifted her hand and then pressed mine against her pussy. She was soaking wet! Her clit was swollen and hard as my fingers played around it.

"Oh yea, that's it... oh fuck, I'm cumming!" Sam gasped. Her hips rose up off the bed as my hand stayed with her pussy and she began to buck like she was being fucked.

"OH MY GOD!" she exclaimed and I saw her pussy suddenly overflowing with cum as it poured out of her like she was peeing. I wanted to taste it and so I maneuvered myself between her legs and bent over until my face was just above her cunt. She smelled so strong! Her hands grabbed my head and she pulled me into her crotch.

"Lick it Kelly!" she begged me, "Make me cum again!"

I reached out with my tongue and started to lap up her cum as if I was a dog. I couldn't help but smile as I heard Sandy whining at the side of the bed, thinking how I was licking Sam like I was dog myself. Mmmmmmm, she tasted soooooo incredibly good! I've always loved the taste of a woman's pussy, starting back from my pre-teen days when all I had to taste was my own. My mom use to scold me when I was little when I would reach inside my panties and then taste my fingers. I just wanted to taste myself and didn't understand all about what was proper in public. As hot as Sam was, I figured it wasn't going to take much to get her off again and I actually overestimated the time as within a couple of minutes of me licking her she was cumming again!

"Oh fuck me Kelly!" she groaned, "God you do that so good!"

I had her tight butt in my hands and I could feel her smooth ass clench as she came, more pussy cum flowing out but this time all over my face. I was covered with her juices and I swallowed as much as I could lap up. Finally she flopped back on her back and just groaned long and loud.

"Damn that felt so good!" she sighed. "OK, your turn!"

As quickly as she had relaxed she was back up and pushing me onto my back. She pushed my knees apart and gazed down at my bald pussy.

"Mmmmmmm, you have a beautiful cunt Kelly," she said softly. I realized I wasn't breathing as I watched her intently while she reached out and caressed my pussy with the palm of her hand. Her fingers rolled over my clit and gently pulled on it, making me shiver as my crotch exploded with pleasure.

Sam looked up at me, her eyes locked onto mine as she opened her mouth slightly and lowered her head to my pussy. A sly grin came over her as she stuck out her tongue and touched just the tip of it to my throbbing clit. Even though I was waiting for it I still could not help but jump at the gentle touch of her warm smooth tongue as she flicked to over my clit, not applying too much pressure but rather just teasing it.

"Oh Sam!" was all I could mutter as she expertly licked my pussy, running her tongue all over me and up and down my pussy slit, pushing it into my hole and then running it hard up my slit again to my clit and back down again.

"Mmmmmmm, I've always wondered what your pussy tastes like," Sam said, her voice muffled by my pussy as she lifted her head just enough to speak but still touching me.

I wanted to tell her that if I would have had an idea how good she could lick pussy I would have let her find out a long time ago but I couldn't do anything more than moan and groan as my voice seemed paralyzed. My eyes rolled up into my head as my I stretched my neck back and lifted my hips to push against her wonderful mouth. She reached under me with her hands and massaged my ass, squeezing each butt cheek in one hand. My eyes tightened shut yet it was like I was looking into a night sky full of fireworks as my orgasm slammed through me. I could feel the cum gushing from my cunt onto her face as she hungrily licked me and rubbed her face against my pussy. I wanted to cry out for her to stop as the feeling that were running through me threatened to overwhelm me but my hands defied my brain and pulled her tighter into my crotch. Her mouth and tongue never stopped and just licked me even faster, driving me higher and higher than I even thought I could go. Damn it felt good!!!

Finally I could feel myself returning to the real world and my eyes opened to try and focus on where Sam was still gently licking my pussy. She was looking up at me, watching me as I tried to clear the fuzz in my brain left over from wherever it is my orgasms take me. Seeing me looking at her, she smiled and moved up alongside of me. We laid together in each other's arms, hugging and kissing as our breasts pressed against each other's and legs intertwined. We had jumped right into licking each other so fast we had not even touched each other so this was really the first time I'd ever felt Sam like this.

Although I've always said I prefer guys to girls, what that means is I prefer to be fucked by a real cock. A man's body is not something that necessarily feels good physically - it is more the emotions and feeling that I get when I'm next to a man more so than the actual touch of a hairy smelly guy. With a girl, though, it's completely different. Sam's body felt like warm velvet against mine, smooth and soft to the touch. Her breasts felt firm yet soft against mine and my nipples would tingle when they touched hers. She smelled heavenly, a mix of perfume and pussy that would make anyone a billionaire if they could bottle it! Her hair flowed down over her shoulders and onto my face and upper body, soft and silky, smelling faintly of shampoo. My body was still reacting to the last orgasm, especially my pussy, but in her arms I felt completely happy and content.

"That was beautiful Kelly," Sam whispered. We stayed like that for a while, two girls just enjoying one another.

2. Sam Wants More

Eventually Sam got restless and she pulled her face back from mine and looked at me with a strange grin on her face.

"God, I hate to say this but I'm still so fucking horny," she said with a giggle in her voice as if it was something dirty.

Actually, I was too. The only problem with girl-girl sex is I don't get a cock in me. I don't care what some girls say, a dildo simply is NOT the same as a real live throbbing dick. My mouth could taste a hard cock, the feeling of its smooth warm skin against my lips and tongue. I wanted... no, I NEEDED a cock in me. I was craving the feeling of it as it pulsed and shot its load of cum in me. I didn't say anything in response but the way I was squirming told her everything she needed to know.

"Yeah, I figured from the way you were doing yourself when we were on the phone and how fast you were willing to get it on tonight that your horny factor was up in the stratosphere," Sam said with a little laugh. "Actually, I know how you feel," she continued, "as much as I love getting licked, nothing beats a real dick in you, does it?"

I looked at her sort of strangely. What was she talking about? Everyone knew Sam was a pure lesbian so what was all this about getting fucked? Sam rolled her eyes and smiled at me.

"Yeah, yeah, I know what you're thinking," she said, "Sam's a lesbian so what does she know about dicks in her - right?"

"Well...," I started to say but she cut me off.

"Just because I don't fuck guys doesn't mean I don't get fucked," she said, obviously pleased with herself at her cleverness in confusing me.

"I don't get it?" I started to ask but again before I could say anything more Sam got the most mischievous look on her face and glanced over at where Sandy was pacing around on the floor besides the bed.

"Well, it isn't just men that have cocks you know," she said, teasing me to make my own conclusions. I looked over again at where her eyes were focused and suddenly it dawned on me - she was talking about Sandy! My reactions were completely involuntarily as for just a second I started at her and then back at Sandy, my mouth hanging open like a fish out of water. No... she HAD to be teasing me! Any second now she would laugh and tell me what an idiot I was for even thinking of such a disgusting thing. It didn't happen.

"What's the matter Kelly?" she teased me, "Don't tell me that you've never thought about getting fucked by a dog before."

"Well, I haven't!" I exclaimed.

The quickness and shrillness of my answer must have convinced her I wasn't joking and she got a bit more serious. Evidently she has expected me to be more open-minded about it and my shock at her revelation seemed to surprise her.

"You really shouldn't condemn something before you try it," she said a little bit defensively this time.

"Well, I don't have to eat shit to know I would never do it," I responded, perhaps a little bit TOO indignant but I was operating on reflexes and not even thinking about what I was saying.

"Well, you don't have to say a word, just watch me," Sam said as she reached under the pillow wand pulled out a little leather bag. It had a drawstring at the top and she opened it up to pull out a number of smaller leather backs, each again with drawstrings at the top.

Without saying a word, she pounded her hand on the bed and Sandy obediently jumped up on the bed between us. He was a beautiful dog and I couldn't help but automatically reach out and stroke his silky coat. Sam motioned for him to roll over and he laid back on his back. It was obvious this was a routine they both were well accustomed to doing. Sam pulled each bag over his paws and pulled the drawstrings up snugly.

"Have to be a little cautious," Sam explained, "Sandy gets carried away sometimes and so I use these to protect against his claws."

His leather booties in place, Sam started to pet Sandy, stroking him up and down his chest and belly. At first it was no different than any other time I'd seen or touched a dog, just innocent petting and loving. Sandy was well-trained and laid almost motionless on his back. Sam's stroking started to go further and further down

– it was getting what it had been wanting all night, a hard hot cock. I wanted to just push Sandy away, to fend off the demanding cock that trying to defile me. It was almost like I was being raped except it was a dog that was doing me!

Then Sandy thrust himself forward hard and I felt his cock slide into me. It wasn't as thick as I liked a cock to be but it was long and when he stroked himself in me it drove me crazy as it passed over the outer edges of my pussy. There was no technique or finesse, just hard fucking and yet that's exactly what I wanted a this moment. I wanted a cock to fuck me and now I had one so why complain? Once again, as usual, my pussy won by a knockout.

"Oh my god," I panted as he pushed up against me, his hips thrusting his long cock in and out of me.

Then he fell to the floor and my pussy virtually screamed at the feeling of sudden emptiness. "Oh no.. I want it again.. put it back in me." It was like I had suddenly gone mad and all I could think about was being fucked. I wanted his cock in me and I didn't give a damn that it was a hairy dog screwing me.

"Get down on the floor... quick," Sam urged me.

I got down on the floor on all fours like she directed and she pushed my legs farther apart. I felt her hand slide between my legs and realized she was oiling me up similarly to what I'd done to her a little while before. Her hand sliding up and down my pussy was driving me nuts. I wanted that cock back in me so bad I felt like I was going to scream! I took a breath and for moment I thought about how just a few minutes ago I was swearing I would never let a dog fuck me and now I was like a bitch in heat, begging for the very thing that disgusted me just minutes before.

"C'mon Sandy... fuck Kelly," Sam commanded.

Sandy was ready and willing and quickly mounted me. I felt the weight of him on my back as his paws dug into my side. His cock was poking me and it jabbed me over and over as he tried to find my pussy hole. I looked over my shoulder and watched as Sam reached in and grabbed his dick and helped him into me. With one thrust he invaded my pussy and impaled his cock in me. God it felt so good! His cock felt hotter than a man's and he was banging me hard in a way most men are afraid to. Sandy didn't care about my feelings, whether I came or not, or even if I felt good. He just wanted to fuck me and I was just another bitch to him.

At that moment he could have done about anything to me and I wouldn't have cared. I was overwhelmed by the entire situation This was more than just your average fuck. For God's sake I was being fucked by a DOG! I was doing something

(Jul 31) Chapter 120: Waterskiing Adventures With My Mom

Me (21)
John - my dad (41)
Mary - my mom (40)
Mike (25)
Tom - Mike's brother (24)

One of the hottest times I had on a lake was when Kristen and I went waterskiing with one of her boyfriends and his brother. Kristen wasn't available this time but a couple of guys didn't seem to mind that it was just me. The only question was, how far would they go with my mom there watching? Would she just watch?

1. My Only Athletic Skill

When it comes to sports and athletics in general, I'm the ultimate klutz. How anyone can hit a moving ball with a round stick is simply beyond my comprehension. My sadistic high school Physical Education teacher even announced to my entire class that I was the worse tennis player he'd ever seen. I don't work out or run unless it's absolutely necessary. Someday I guess I may pay for not being as active as I suppose I should be; but for now Mother Nature has been kind to keep me in good shape without a lot of effort on my part. Perhaps she feels guilty about taking so long to give me my boobs!

Despite the fact I proved to be a total failure at snow skiing, the ONE sport that I do can do is waterskiing. Maybe it's because my parents started me out really young, I don't know, but whatever the reason I can hold my own when it comes to being towed behind a boat riding a slalom ski. It doesn't hurt either that it's one of the few sports where you get to wear a bikini other than beach volleyball which is WAY too much work for me!

Most people are surprised when I tell them I water ski. These days it seems folks don't want to go through the hassle of learning to ski. It takes a lot of work and patience not only on your part, but also those in the boat who have to put up with the constant falls and starts. As a result, everywhere you look today, all you see are people being pulled along in tubes or out running around on jet skis. It's become a rarity to see someone even trying to ski and even then, it's usually on two skis which to me is the equivalent of riding a bike with training wheels.

As you might have guessed, for as long as I can remember my parents have owned a ski boat. Usually we travel to one of the state parks in northern West Virginia where there are several large lakes with lots of room to run around. The local rivers in the Pittsburg area have never been too appealing - too many obstacles and questionable cleanliness.

Usually we take along friends or family but there are plenty of times when we just make it a family day out. Actually, given my relationships with my dad, those are some of the most "fun" days now for me. Trust me in this one, if you think giving your father a BJ while he's driving an SUV in traffic is fun, that's nothing compared to giving him one while he's driving an open boat all around a busy lake!

As I mentioned, one of the reasons I love waterskiing is that all you need is a bikini and a life jacket. Actually, that's not QUITE true in that all you really need is a bikini BOTTOM and a life jacket. Many times I considered how wild it might be to ski topless but my parents drilled safety into me from day one and I would never even consider skiing without a life jacket, no more than I would drive a car without my seatbelt fastened. I suppose I could have tried going without the bottoms as well but there's a fine line between flirting and getting yourself arrested!

2. Satisfying My Dad's Morning Needs

One of my most memorable skiing adventures to date has to have been last summer with my cousin Kristen. Whenever you're out with Kristen, you never know what is going to happen and that was especially true on that trip. We picked up a couple of guys one we got to the lake and the both of us ended up getting fucked repeatedly, both on the boat and in the lake. Although we hadn't had a chance to try and repeat that adventure since then, we still love to talk about it sometimes when we get horny and masturbate together. Naturally each time their cocks get bigger and their cum spurts farther in the telling!

My dad arrived home late from work one Friday night and announced that he was going to take the entire Saturday off for once. That was good news for me as he usually worked at a half day most Saturdays and it would be nice to have him home for once for the entire weekend. We discussed over dinner some alternatives and finally the decision was made to head down to the lake and do some boating and skiing.

My mom immediately called up her sister to see if she and my cousin were available but unfortunately they had already made plans and couldn't join us. I could just imagine the sulking look on Kristen's cute face when she heard her mom had turned us down. I didn't know what they had planned but I hoped for her sake it was something hot - and I don't mean anything to do with the summer weather!

With everything that would have to be done in the morning, I went to bed early Friday night assuming my dad wouldn't have time for his usual weekend wakeup call. As disappointing as that might be, I wasn't really too concerned as I knew there would be plenty of opportunities later in the day to make up for whatever we missed. As I so often did, I underestimated my father's determination when it came to fucking me!

Saturday morning arrived and I woke up with the strangest feeling that something was happening to me but at first my mind was too groggy with sleep to quite figure it out. Well, believe me when I say it doesn't take long to shake loose the cobwebs when someone's got their index finger lodged up your pussy!

I was laying on my side, facing the wall, so I couldn't see who it was but there weren't many options. Actually, unless something REALLY odd was happening, there was only one person whom it could be and that was my dear father. My first coherent thought was to wonder what time it was and if we had time for this. Well, that was pretty silly of me looking back. My dad was the one setting the schedule so we had whatever time he wanted and obviously, fucking his daughter was the first thing on his agenda for the day.

"Morning baby," he whispered in my ear. Thankfully he must have taken time to brush his teeth first as his breath was fresh (a lot fresher than mine) as I felt the warmth on it brush against my cheek.

"Mmmmmmm, morning daddy," I murmured, still half asleep but waking up quickly. "You want me NOW daddy?"

"Kelly, you know I do."

"Then tell me you want me daddy."

I loved it best when he came right out and said exactly what he wanted of me. Of course I knew what he wanted, it was just nice to hear him put it in words and tell me. We had played this little game so many times I could never even guess how many; yet when I heard those words from him it still thrilled me just as much as the first time.

"Right now I want your pussy baby... Mmmmmmm, I want nothing more right now than my daughter's hot little pussy."

"And what do you want to do to it, daddy?"

"Oh my god, I want to put my stiff cock in it. All the way inside of you."

"And then what daddy? What are you going to do when you're inside of me?"

"You know what I'm going to do. I'm gonna cum inside of it. I'm going to fill you with my sperm."

"Mmmmmmm, yes daddy, then do it to me. Fuck me daddy."

His hand raised my upper leg up higher and then I felt him nestle up close to me from behind. I could feel his cock pressing against my bare ass at first, rubbing up and down my ass crack as he moved himself in closer behind me. His strong arm reached over me and his large hand caressed my breast, pinching the nipple gently between his fingers.

I love it when my father holds me close to him, feeling his nude body against mine, nothing between us. It makes me feel so secure yet it was so erotic at the same time. Mmmmmmm, talk about safe sex, how much more safe and secure could a girl could feel during sex than to be in the arms of her own father?

My hand reached down between my legs and he dropped his cock down until I could grab it in my hand. Mmmmmmm, I was pleased to feel that he was already warm and hard, all ready for me. When I moved it up to my pussy, I rubbed the head of it up and down my pussy slit, taking special care to treat my clit to a little extra treatment.

"You want it, don't you?" he asked in a voice hoard with his lust. "You want your daddy's cock in your tight little pussy, don't you?"

"Yes daddy, I do... I want you in me. Please put it in me... please."

"No, YOU put it in you if you want it so bad... that's it, put your daddy's cock where you really want it."

There was no doubt in my mind where THAT was so I moved his cock down until the smooth head was positioned just outside my wet pussy hole. As soon as he felt the wetness of my hole, he pressed himself up against me as he thrust himself forward, driving the thick head of his cock into me.

"That's it daddy, push it in me. Fuck me daddy, fuck me... please fuck me."

Another thrust and I felt like my pussy was being split in two as his cock disappeared inside of me. He draped my leg back over his and then put his own leg in between mine with it over my lower leg, letting his crotch push up until the base of his cock hit me and I knew he was finally all the in. Looking down, all I could see was his thick pubic hair covering my bare pussy like a bad toupee. Just the base of his cock was barely visible as he just held himself motionless inside of me, savoring the feel of his daughter's pussy as it enveloped his throbbing incestuous dick.

"Ahhhhhh, this feels so good Kelly, just to be in you."

His dick throbbed in me like a beating heart as both of us laid together, a dutiful daughter in her father's loving arms, sharing an intimate moment together. Sometimes I was happy just with this, just to be joined together with him, sharing myself with him out of my respect and honor for my father. As for me, how much more can a father express his love and respect for his daughter than to physically join with her in the ultimate act of love?

My dad was also a "guy" in addition to my father, meaning he had needs that had to be met as well; needs which required more than just laying together in bed with his dick up his daughter's pussy. After all, what sane man his age doesn't dream of fucking a pretty college girl when he sees one? When my dad first came to my bed this morning, 'm sure he was thinking of me as his darling little girl, someone he wanted to just love and be with. Who could blame him if after a while his thoughts turned more to the needs of his dick to be in my pussy than anything else. Heck, if he DIDN'T eventually think of me as some slut to fuck then I would have been concerned!

Without a word he started to roll me over. From experience I knew what he wanted so I helped as best as I could. Sometimes we could accomplish the transition without him falling out of me but this morning it didn't work out so easily and I felt his dick drop from my pussy for a moment. It was to be a short-lived respite as once I was over on my stomach he lifted me by the waist until I was on my knees and elbows with my face buried in the pillow until I turned it to the side so I could breathe. Still holding me with two hand on my hips, I felt him twist his hips to position his stiff dick back in position. Since he had already penetrated me once, the second time was a lot easier and he accomplished his mission without even having to use his hands.

Now, I knew, things were definitely changing from intimate father-daughter time to man fucking a young girl time! It was like Act 3 of our little play where Act 1 was when he would fondle me while I was sleeping to get me horny and wet, then Act 2 where we would join and just enjoy the father-daughter intimacy thing, and then now in Act 3 where it was down to pure sex. Most mornings he had to get to work so things ended when Act 3 was over.

Depending on the time we had, such as on a weekend like this, I got treated to Act 4. Actually, Act 4 was just a continuation of Act 3 with a different script. Most mornings, he would cum as quickly as possible so he could shower and get to work, leaving me to masturbate to finish myself off.

When he had time, though, my dad would try to be sure I came at least once and sometimes even more, before he would cum together with me. Don't think badly of him because usually he just gets himself off, after all, the main reason I submit to him is so he DOES get off. If I do too then it's just an added bonus!

My dad was banging me behind hard enough now to make the bed creak and if wasn't for the pillows in front of me he might have driven me into the headboard. Each time he thrust forward it as like he was spanking me the way his crotch would slam into my bare butt. His hands gripped my hips tightly as he pushed and pulled me towards and away from him in sync with his thrusts to drive himself into me as deep as he could each time. I knew he must be loving it and it made me glow inside knowing I was pleasing him.

"That's it, squeeze my dick with your cunt," he groaned.

Over time I developed the muscles and technique to where I could grip a guy's cock like a vise with my pussy. Some guys even complained it was TOO tight at times, to the point they said it even hurt. My preference was to tighten and loosen quickly, sort of like I was trying to milk his dick using my pussy, similar to what I do when I suck a cock.

Today was obviously going to be one of those where he was taking his time as he would start to slow down, and even stop at times, when he got close to cumming. Finally, he pulled out sat on the edge of my bed, like some nude Santa Claus patting his lap, enticing me to sit on it.

This wasn't my first rodeo so I knew what he wanted and I moved to the side of him and then twisted to wrap my leg around him, leaving me on my knees, sitting on his lap facing him. His cock was poking up between us, his large head surrounded by my dad's thick pubic hair that was ticking my bare pussy. I put my arms around his neck and we kissed. This wasn't your typical father-daughter kiss you see after she stars in the school play; no, this was a kiss between a father and his daughter where unequivocal NO. One of the major reasons I feel that way is based on the example that has been set for me by my parents. Neither of them has ever cheated on the other in over twenty years of marriage. As a result, my mom knows with 100% certainty that my dad loves her above any other woman. She has told me that she finds security in the knowledge that her husband would never cheat on her, and that he only makes love to her and her alone. When her husband fucks me she knows he is doing it with his daughter, not some floozy woman as part of an extramarital affair. She understands, as few women can, it is something unique between a father and daughter and that as wonderful as it is for me, it can never be the same for him when compared to being with her. Someday I want to have the same trusting relationship with my husband; which is why I can emphatically state that I will NOT ever have an "open" marriage!

Anyway, back to my mom...

"For drying out loud, are you two are STILL going at it? I thought we were going to get an early start John?"

My dad realized that she was watching and I couldn't help but giggle as he looked like a little boy caught with his hand in the cookie jar, except now he was a big boy with his dick in his daughter's pussy - same concept, just a bigger boy. It wasn't that he was guilty of fucking me per se, it was just he knew he should have been done by now!

"C'mon Mary, lighten up. We'll be done by the time you finish your shower."

"Whatever...," she huffed as she turned and went across the hall into the bathroom. I hugged my dad, wiggling my but in his lap to move him around in me.

"Guess you'd better hurry up," I suggested playfully, "She sounded pissed!"

"Don't worry... almost there baby... hump it faster girl."

Rather than just rock and wiggle around his cock, it was time for some serious fucking so I started to bounce up and down as quick as I could on his hard dick. My boobs bounced a bit and my nipples rubbed up against his chest.

"That's it Kelly... don't stop... faster," he gasped.

"Cum in me daddy... I want you to cum in me."

"Oh yeah, I'm gonna fill your tight pussy, get ready Kelly... NOW!"

When he announced he was cumming, I dropped down hard onto his lap and put my full weight on my ass to drive his dick in me as far as it would go when he came. Sure enough, I was immediately treated to my reward - the feeling of my very own father releasing himself in me, committing the ultimate act of incest.

the air, he got out of the bed and the set me back down on it like I was some sort of a doll. Leaning over, he kissed me again on the forehead and then joined my mom in the bathroom, leaving me alone in my bed.

Try to picture me at this point. I'd just been fucked by my dad and now my parents were occupying the bathroom so what else was there for me to do other than get myself off? As horny as I was, it didn't take long before I was on my stomach with my hand underneath me and between my legs, fingering my wet clit which was now leaking my dad's cum. Nothing special, just your everyday self- pleasuring and it only took a few minutes before I was finally enjoying my own orgasm. Afterwards, I just laid in bed with my finger slowly moving up and down my pussy slit, my eyes tightly shut as I recovered from getting myself off. Small wonder I never heard my parents leave the bathroom.

"Oh John, you selfish bastard, look at your poor daughter. After all she did for you this morning, I can't believe you left her to take care of herself."

"ME? And who as it that insisted I get in the bathroom?"

My parent's voices brought me out of my daze and I slowly sat up in bed and saw them standing at my doorway looking down at me.

"Well, looks to me like she didn't have any problem dealing with it herself."

"John!! That's not the point," my mom exclaimed, playfully slapping him on his bare bottom. I just grinned at them both and they left to get dressed in their bedroom while I got up so I could take my own shower.

3. Flirting With Mike and Tom

Eventually we were all dressed, packed and ready to go. The cooler and picnic basket were in the back of the SUV. Just as we were about to get in the SUV my dad's cell phone went off. I could see the battle being waged in him as he debated whether to answer it to not. The look in my mom's eyes made it obvious what her position was - don't answer it! Realize that my dad is a senior partner in a large corporate law office so not answering the phone could have significant consequences and thus he finally answered, although he studiously avoided my mom's glaring eyes. What happened next was exactly what all three of us expected from the moment his phone rang.

"What can I say Mary?" my dad pleaded as he closed the phone, "We have to have the depositions ready by Monday and with Martin out somebody has to fill in to get it done."

"Yeah, but why does it always have to be you?" my mom complained.

Actually, my mom fully understood the reality of the situation. There's a price to pay for everything but it still seemed ironic that in order to pay for the SUV and boat my dad had to work so much he didn't get to use them most of the time!

"Well, you girls go on and have a good time anyway," he encouraged us, giving my mom a kiss. He headed back into the house to change, leaving my mom and me alone in the driveway once again.

"Well, what do you think?" my mom asked, "Girl's day out on the lake?"

"Sounds like fun!" I replied. "Hmmmmmm, maybe we can pick up a couple of cute guys while we're at it and REALLY have some fun!"

"Yeah right," my mom answered, shaking her head at me. I was just teasing her and she knew it. My mom would NEVER cheat on my dad, no matter how great the temptation, but that didn't mean I had to be a nun either!

Even though it only took a couple of hours to get to the lake, once there we still had to get the boat ready, fueled, and such. Usually my dad handled all these details but my mom knew what to do. This wasn't the first time we had been left to our own devices thanks to my dad's work obligations. My mom parked near the marina where we uncovered the boat and got it ready for the day. Once underway, our first stop was the marina gas station to get fuel.

While we waited in line for our boat to be fueled, my mom and I stripped off our outer garments as both of us were wearing our bikinis underneath. My mom may have just entered her forties but I was always impressed by the way she took care of herself. Most women her age wouldn't dare wear a two piece bikini, let alone one as skimpy as hers. Sure, it wasn't exactly a thong or something like that, but it was still quite revealing and showed off her legs and boobs well.

As for me, I was wearing one of my newer bikinis. It was pure black with gold metal circles between where the material joined such as between my breasts and on each hip. I prefer halter styles over shoulder straps and this one tied behind my neck which allowed me to control how loose or tight it was up front. I have a collection of swimsuits from which I choose based on where I am and who is going to be with me. At the conservative end of the spectrum is what I wear at school or church camp - a simple one-piece that covers my boobs completely and stays low around my ass. Needless to say, I don't wear that one very often.

At the other end of the bikini spectrum is my dad's favorite which he calls "Kelly's slutty bikini". Really, it wasn't more than three triangle of red cloth barely big enough to cover my nipples and pussy held together with red strings. This one was reserved for home on the deck where I liked to have a little bit of tan line to emphasize my tan.

In between I had a number of suits. For the public pool, a fairly revealing version with high hips and low cleavage but just "decent" enough to where the mothers couldn't complain and have me kicked out - something they'd been known to do with a few a my friends in the past. The one I was wearing today was more on the risque side, definitely NOT for the public pool. The bottoms were a thong which revealed most of my cute ass (if I say so myself). It covered my butt crack and pussy but not much else. The halter top was a size too small which lifted my boobs to where it looked like they might flop out at any time, although they never had (at least not yet). All in all, I thought it was the perfect choice for a day like this.

There were still a couple of boats ahead of us and my mom was getting impatient. I heard her muttering something, "he couldn't be happy with just a BJ, now we're late and the crowd's here" or something like that. Knowing my mom as well as I do, the best thing to do in such a situation is to ignore her and let her blow off steam.

Looking ahead of on the dock I was reminded that one of the things I liked best about the marina were all the good looking guys that hung around. A few of them supposedly worked there although it seemed that they let the boaters did most of the work. Their primary goal seemed to be to hit on every good-looking girl that stopped by, plus most of the others as well from what I could tell. Well, I certainly didn't mind and couldn't wait until lit was my "turn". After all, why go through the trouble of wearing what I was if nobody made a big deal out of it?

We finally made it to the gas pumps and once we were tied up I stepped out on the dock and stood at the edge as if I was actually interested in what was going on. In reality, that was the least of my interests; I was far more concerned about giving the guys a nice view of my almost bare ass. Well, I'd tossed the bait in the water so now all I could do was wait and see what was biting. Unlike most fishing trips though, this was more like fishing in a stocked pond where you could throw about anything out and get a strike right off the bat. I couldn't help but think to myself that it was almost TOO easy when the first bite of the day struck.

"You going skiing?"

I turned around to find two guys behind me. They were dressed similar in denim shorts and sleeveless T-shirts. They looked similar and could have easily passed for brothers. My guess was somewhere in their early to mid-twenties. What made me the most interested was this air of self-assurance about them, almost to where it could be a sign of a puffed up ego which instantly set off alarms for me. While I like a guy who is self-reliant and comfortable with himself, it's just as much a turn-off when they think they are God's gift to women. From their arms and necks I deduced they spent a good deal of time in the gym although I wouldn't say they had the bulked up look of bodybuilder enthusiasts. That was fortunate as THOSE guys were almost always stuck on themselves.

"Maybe, what's it to ya?"

First rule of flirting - never answer with a straight answer. Always put it back on the guy to pick up the conversation.

"Nice boat. That your mom?" the same one tried again.

One looked just a little older than the other and so far he was carrying the conversation while the other guy was taking what little bikini I was wearing off of me with his eyes. It didn't bother me as like I said earlier, what's the point of wearing next to nothing if nobody looks at you and second, I wouldn't have minded seeing him drop his shorts as well.

"Yeah, is that a problem?"

Both of them shook their heads and pretended it wasn't but there was no missing the disappointment in their eyes. From their perspective, I was now off-limits so far as anything they probably had in mind when they first saw me as somehow I doubted their intentions were to discuss politics. We bantered about some small talk and then they finally introduced themselves as Mike and Tim. Mike was the oldest at 25 and Tim turned out indeed to be his younger brother at 24.

Meanwhile my mom had finished paying for everything and she came up to where I was still talking to Mike and Tim.

"Hey Kelly, who's your friends?"

As I introduced Mike and Tim to my mom, I almost cracked up seeing the looks on their faces. It was almost like they were thinking, "No way is that your MOM!" Indeed, my mom and I sometimes enjoyed cruising the mall, pretending to be sisters rather than mother and daughter. When it comes to flirting, we could get away with a lot more as sisters than as mother and daughter. I would said today she definitely had that MILF (Mom I'd Love to Fuck) look about her. Honestly, I was quite proud of her!

"Well girl, time for us to get going," she said, "Nice to meet you guys." Then she turned to go back to the boat without another word.

"Just a minute mom," I called after her. Looking at the guys, I asked, "Hey, you two want to come with?"

The brothers looked at each other and although I had a feeling they both wanted to instantly accept, when saw my mom coming back after she heard my offer, they suddenly seemed to hesitate.

"It's OK if Mike and Tim come with us, isn't it Mom?"

I could just imagine my mom's thoughts as she undoubtedly wondered what her daughter was getting into this time. These guys were almost young enough to be her sons! To her credit, she knew I wanted them along - and WHY, so she played along.

"Well, with your dad missing in action it's not like we don't have room today," my mom replied, shrugging his shoulders as if she didn't care one way or the other. It was a masterful performance!

"C'mon guys, you said you wanted to ski today!" I taunted them, giving them my best teasing smile.

They looked at each other and finally both nodded in agreement. I jumped up and down with glee, clapping my hands as my boobs bounced. Perhaps I was overdoing it a little in the little girl impersonation department but what the heck. The three of us made our way to the boat where my mom was waiting impatiently, although not nearly as impatiently as the jerk in the boat behind her who was waiting to get fueled.

Ignoring the guy's rude comments, my mom fired up the engine and we headed out for the middle of the lake. Naturally I was going to be the first to ski so on our way I got out my life jacket and put it on. As much as I would have loved to ski around the lake topless with the guys watching me, safety comes first and I would no more ski without my jacket than drive without a seatbelt.

Unfortunately, the jacket also had the effect of covering my upper torso but at least my ass was still on full display - a point neither of them seemed to have overlooked judging from where their eyes kept roaming. I glanced at my mom and winked which drew a smile from her. At this point I had absolutely NO idea where this was going but I knew she wouldn't mind one way or the other. Now had my DAD been with us, I know what he would have been hoping for!

Once out in an open area lake I jumped in the water and the chill of the lake water made my nipples instantly harden. I felt a tingle run through my boobs as the sensitive nipples rubbed against the inner lining of the lifejacket. Of course, nobody could see but I was getting incredibly horny, even more so than before!

Tim threw out the slalom ski to me, followed by the ski rope as my mom drove off slowly to take up the slack. I quickly slipped on the slalom ski and was ready to by the time the line went taunt. Signaling them with a thumbs up, my mom hit the gas. One thing I loved about our boat, it had LOTS of power and I was yanked out of the water before I knew it and heading over to ride the wake.

The guys all cheered as I put on a bit of a show for them. I crisscrossed the wakes, flying up in the air, landing on bent knees and taking off again. It was thrilling! We passed by other boaters, most of them towing one or more tubes, and I noted that with almost no exceptions, the guys in every one of them turned their heads to look at me, not to mention a few of the girls. One thing about skiing on a busy lake, if you're good, you can really show off. Of course, some of them may have been more interested in my near-naked ass than my skiing skills.

My legs could have gone on longer but my arms soon tired out so I signaled to stop and my mom cut the throttle, letting me slowly drop into the water like the Wicked Witch of the West melting away into the castle floor. My mom circled the boat around to pick me up and Mike put out the ladder for me to get back in. As I climbed the ladder, both of them were there to help me although they seemed to be more interested in looking down the life vest than anything else.

When I took off my lifejacket, I gave my top a twist which caused both boobs to pop out. Both guys let their mouths drop for a moment as I pretended not to notice their stares and absentmindedly pulled my top back over my perky boobs again. Even with the top on again, my hardened nipples were poking out like bullets through the think material. Needless to say, I hadn't bothered with any cup liners.

My mom was next and while she was out doing her thing, Mike sat next to me as I drove leaving Tim to keep an eye on my mom (a task he wasn't complaining about). Mike kept pushing up tighter to me with each bounce of the boat and then on one particularly heavy bounce, his hand "accidentally" landed on my smooth upper thigh as he struggled to keep his balance.

Figuring it was my turn to send a message, I put my hand over his and then pulled it up higher on my thigh until his hand was almost in my crotch. My legs parted, just enough to hopefully get his attention.

Mike got the message alright, loud and clear, and without a word his fingers moved to the inside of my thigh and started to stroke along the inner part of my thighs. Like a stripper on stage, I spread my legs further and I think he was about to try being a little more naughty when my mom cut her hand across her throat, signaling for us to stop. Mike's hand pulled off of me as he and Tim worked together to help my mom get back in the boat again.

Just like when I got back in, neither of them missed an opportunity to look down my mom's bikini as she climbed out of the water. Her boobs were a lot bigger than mine and even though her bikini was less revealing, when she bent over they got a great view of her cleavage. What I knew that they didn't was that my mom was taking at least twice as long as usual to climb in, obviously enjoying the attention she was getting from these two young studs.

It was so cool watching my mom flirting with these guys! It was a side of her I didn't see very often, at least not this blatantly. When she finally managed to get back into the boat her bottoms had been pulled down from the weight of the water and she took her time fixing them. Damn, she was even letting them have a great view of the crack of her ass! Go Mom!

Mike deferred to Tim, telling him that he could go next. Was he really being polite to his brother or was it more about the stiffening of something under his shorts that he maybe he didn't want to put on display in front of my mom?

It sort of surprised me to see that Tim wasn't a bad skier himself. With my mom back in the boat, Mike was keeping his hands to himself. I wanted to scream, "My mom doesn't care if you touch me!" but I kept my silence, figuring he would get the message sooner or later. Then again, maybe if he took his eyes off my mom maybe he would be more interested in me!

4. More Than Just Teasing

After both Mike and Tim had skied my mom suggested we find someplace to have lunch. As many times as we had been on this lake, my mom knew all the little coves and inlets where we could find some privacy, even on a busy day like today. We wound our way out of sight from the rest of the lake into a small cove where we anchored out in the middle, away from the shore enough that the breeze kept most of the bugs at bay. My mom got out the picnic basket and started to get lunch ready.

"Hey, it's going to be a few minutes before lunch is ready. Why don't you kids take a dip or something to keep yourself occupied."

Well, I think I knew what the boys would have LIKED to do to keep their dicks occupied but neither of them seemed ready yet to come out and say it. The guys both dived in while I stayed on board and started to help out my mom.

"Not exactly big on taking hints, are they?" my mom said in a low voice.

"I know!!" I huffed, "God, I practically stuffed Mike's hand right into my pussy and he STILL didn't get it."

"Well, I can handle lunch, why don't you try being a little less subtle?"

Well, that certainly was a broad suggestion but it was typical "mom advice", not always specific but just enough to push me in the right direction. I gave her a quick kiss and moved up to the bow of our boat where I like to lay out and work on my tan. Spreading out a beach towel over the hot fiberglass, I sat down and watched the guys swimming below me.

"You guys don't mind if I take off my top to work on my tan, do you?" I teased them.

Needless to say, there were no dissenters as I untied the knots behind my neck and back. When I slipped off the halter top, my perky 34C breasts were exposed to them. Even with this broad of a hint, the guys still didn't seem to know whether they should be looking or not with my mom being there. I laid back on my back and let the warm sun beat down on me. All I needed now was a couple of nice hard cocks and it was killing me that there were two of them almost within reach of me and they weren't in me, not even close.

My mom soon had everything ready and called out to us to come and get it. The guys climbed back in and dried off while I gathered up my things and stepped back into the boat, strategically "forgetting" to put my bikini top back on.

"Um, Kelly, forgetting something?" my mom said, nodding her head towards the guys. I looked at her with a "are you crazy?" look and grinned. She knew full well I hadn't forgotten anything and this was just her way of trying to get the guys to be more aware that she really didn't care so I played along with her.

"Oh mom, what difference does it make? It's not like we're out in the middle of the lake or anything. Besides, Mike and Tim don't mind, do you guys?"

Obviously unsure how to respond, both of them kept quiet and just nodded in agreement. My mom rolled her eyes and didn't say anything more. Were these guys gay or what?

"Why don't you take yours off mom?" I teased her, figuring maybe if we upped the ante it might help these guys along. Out of the corner of my eye I could see both our guests noticeably taking a deep breath. Seeing a girl their age expose her boobs probably wasn't all exceptional as I imagined the girls were drawn to them. Seeing a forty-something mom's boobs, especially one as sexy as my mom with her topless daughter next to her, now THAT was something I was sure they didn't get to see every day.

My mom gave me a "I can't believe you said that" look but then she also must have seen the expressions on the boys' faces. What the heck, it wasn't like she was letting them touch her or anything. I wasn't sure if she was doing it for their benefit or for real but either way she shrugged and slipped it off, exposing her white boobs which looked even hotter with the dark tan surrounding them like a frame. I grinned as she couldn't resist flirting a little.

"So what do you think boys? Not bad for the mother of a 21 year-old, eh?"

It was SO naughty of her! I'd never seen her tease any of the boys I dated like this, at least not so blatantly. Heck, for that matter I'd never seen her bare her boobs to anyone outside our family before! Judging from the way her large nipples were pointing out, she seemed to be turned on a bit herself.

Neither of the boys answered and to be honest, I doubted that my mom really expected anything from them. Their stares were more than enough to make her happy. It must have made her feel good to know that even at her age she could still get the undivided attention of two young boys, even with her daughter sitting bare-chested next to her!

That was enough for now. Tossing my top and towel over to the side, I grabbed a plate to start eating. Our two guests remained silent but I caught them looking at each other with a "Wow, is this really happening" look on their faces.

Speaking of baring boobs, growing up in my teen years I was always embarrassed by my breasts or, should I say, lack of them. My best friend Beth was already into her B cup when my mom was just starting to buy me training bras. It seemed Mother Nature was always forgetting me year after year as I watched other girls my age and younger sprout incredible breasts while mine remained no bigger than most young thirteen year-olds. They WERE nice and perky without a bit of droop and my nipples would harden and enlarge just as much or even more as girls with bigger boobs; but that didn't help when it came to filling out a halter top or skimpy bikini top. As a result I would wear a lot of tube tops and other tight fitting outfits which made the most of what I had but you can't wear those to church. Now, at the ripe old age of 21, I was finally proud of my boobs and today I loved the way they looked with the sun beating on them. Maybe someday I would have great boobs like my mom and turn head when I am her age!

As we ate, we chatted about some a number of things, nothing of any great importance. I got up to get another Diet Coke out of the cooler (my favorite drink) and as I reached into the cooler I made a point of not bending my knees but instead bending at the waist, drawing my thing up tight into my ass crack and even somewhat between my pussy lips. THAT should have gathered some looks although I didn't dare look back without having to admit I was doing it just for show. When I got back, I looked at Mike and Tim sitting together on one of the side cushions.

"Do you guys mind if I sit between you?"

Tim looked at Mike and they quickly moved apart, leaving me plenty of room to sit between them - too much room if you asked me as even with me seated they were at least six inches away on both sides. I finished eating and set the pop can in the holder behind us.

"Ahhhhhh, guys, you know I don't bite."

My intentions were clear but they both looked at my mom who tried her best to pretend she was oblivious to what was going on just a few feet away. There wasn't a doubt in my mind that she was listening in on every word but she managed to hide it well. Both of them scooted a little closer but still weren't as tight up against me as I would have preferred. I put my hands between each of their legs and pulled on them to all but drag them in closer. They both dutifully scooted over until I felt their wet shorts against my warm, sun-dried legs. Most important, I left my hands on their legs and closed my fingers down enough until I was firmly gripping them through their shorts.

"Hey mom, look what I've got!" I called over to her at the other end of the boat where she was now eating her lunch in the driver seat behind the windshield.

My mom turned to look at us, acting as if that was the first she had seen or heard anything. She frowned and shook her head at me.

"Now Kelly, stop teasing the poor boys."

"Ahhhhhh, they don't mind. Do you guys mind?"

Both of them seemed to have lost the ability to speak but they shook their heads to indicate I wasn't. Liars!

"Now THIS is teasing," I announced as I let my hands move upward until I had their crotches cupped in my hands. I could feel both their dicks under their shorts and I gently rubbed them through the denim material.

"You guys don't mind me doing this, do you?"

"Ummmmm, no, we don't mind," Mike quickly replied. Tim shook his head to indicate it was OK with him as well although I knew both of them were more than a little aware that my mom were sitting not more than a few feet away.

"What's the matter Mike, you don't think I asked you guys to come with us just so we could water-ski, did you?"

"Ahhhhhh...," was all he could get out. Surely in his fantasies he had envisioned something happening but with my mom along for the ride any real hopes he might have had undoubtedly didn't include something like this.

"So, which of you two has the biggest dick?" I asked, in the same tone as if I was asking them what the time of day was. They were both too stunned by the off-the-wall question to respond so I just got up and stepped in front of Mike and reached down to grab his zipper.

"Well, if you're not going to tell me then I guess I'll just have to find out for myself then."

Mike suddenly realized what I was doing and his hands covered mine to stop me from unzipping him.

"Ummmmm, Kelly, your mom?" he said softly, trying not to let my mom hear.

"What about her?" I responded in an annoyed tone of voice.

"Well, I mean, she's right there!"

"So what, you got something against her watching? Look at her... does she look like she cares?"

My answers were obviously not what he was expecting and for a moment he just sat silently, looking back and forth between me and my mom.

"Don't worry Mike," my mom called out to him, "Kelly's a big girl, she can do whatever she wants. Besides, it's nothing I wasn't doing when I was her age."

Mike's hands relaxed enough for me to continue unzipping him but I could tell the rest of his body was tense. I guess I could understand his nervousness. Perhaps the biggest fear most guys have is getting caught fucking a girl by her parents and here I was, unzipping his shorts right in front of my mom. Well, apparently not ALL of him was nervous. It amazes me sometimes how independent a guy's dick is from the rest of him. I guess that's why people call it a head - because it has a mind of its own and does what it wants to do.

I reached into Mike's shorts and was pleased to see he wasn't wearing any underwear which gave me immediate access to his cock. It was already pretty hard but I was still able to maneuver it out through his zipper without having to unbutton his shorts. Once free, it flopped out and stood up in the air with the bright sun showing it off...

"Mmmmmmm, now THAT looks pretty good. Let's see what Tim's packing over there."

I moved over to Tim, who had been nervously watching the entire thing with his brother. He knew what was coming when I started to go to work on him and after what I had done with his brother, he didn't protest or try to stop me. Once his cock was free I stood back as if I was evaluating them.

"Hmmm, they look pretty close. It's hard to tell, though, with those shorts on. Let's go, take them off!"

Neither of them moved a muscle. Instead, they both looked again over to my mom who was watching with about the same expression as if she was watching the evening news on TV. I had to give her credit, it wasn't like I made a habit out of doing this in the past so I knew she had to be a little turned on yet she each remained passive and almost looked bored.

"Well you guys quit looking at my mom's boobs and listen to me?" I said sternly. "OK, what if I take mine off first, would that be better?"

Actually, there wasn't a whole lot of difference between having mine on or off so it wasn't quite the same as asking them to strip but who was going to argue over square inches of material? I quickly slipped my thing down off my hips and they fell to my feet where I quickly stepped out of them one foot at a time. Reaching down, I picked it up off the deck and tossed it over to where my halter and towel were. Now I was totally nude as I stood back in front of them.

"C'mon, are you two just going to sit there or what?"

The brothers looked at each other and from their expressions I could see they figured, what the heck? From the erections they were sporting it was obvious they were horny and if there was one thing I knew from my life experiences, it was that I could get a guy to do damn near anything for me if I got him horny enough.

They stood up together in unison and almost as if they had practiced it before, together they unbuttoned their shorts and pushed them down and off their legs. Their cocks sprung out from their damp crotches and I could see the family resemblances were in more places than just their faces.

"Hmmm, let's see what we've got here," I purred as I stepped up to Mike and reached down to grab his dick. It was decent sized, nothing to brag about but not to be embarrassed by either. I could feel the hardness in my hand and the warmth of his erect cock as he throbbed in my grip.

"Mmmmmmm, not bad, not bad at all. Now let's see how Tim compares to his older brother."

Moving over to Tim, I grabbed his stiff cock and stroked it gently. It felt about the same as Mike's, at least close enough that I couldn't really determine which was bigger.

"Hmmmmmm, they're pretty close," I mused. I turned to my mom and asked, "What do you think mom, who's got the bigger cock?"

My mom grinned and answered saying, "Hard to tell from here, guess you'll have to use something else to compare them."

I was still holding Tim's dick so with a glance and a wink to my mom, I dropped to my knees and took his dick in my mouth.

"Holy shit!" Tim gasped. Up to that moment, he must have thought the whole thing was some practical joke or something but when I started sucking his cock, he finally seemed to realize that I was dead serious about all this. I could just imagine the thoughts running through his head, not the least of which had to be, "God, NOBODY is going to believe this back home."

Tim wasn't so big that I had to deep throat him to take him all in my mouth so it was pretty easy to take him in until my lips bottomed out against his hairy crotch. I took note of how far he felt inside of my mouth and then let him slowly withdraw until he popped free and was pointing straight up to the sun.

"OK, I have a pretty good idea about that one, let's see how Mike compares."

I repeated the process with Mike while Tim watched his brother's cock being sucked. I wondered if either of them had actually ever seen the other one being blown before. From the way they were looking, I was pretty sure today was a first!

"Hmmmmmm, I really can't tell any difference. What do you think mom, you want to give them a try?"

Oh my god, for a camera to capture the looks on their faces when I said that. For a brief moment I think they thought my mom might actually suck their dicks!

"No, I think I'll have to pass on that offer," she said seductively, "Although I must admit, they're mighty tempting."

The look of disappointment on their faces was priceless as my mom shook her head. Who could even guess how many guys have fantasized about having me and my mom suck their dicks at the same time?

"Just in case you were wondering, my mom doesn't do other guys," I finally confessed to them. Both of them tried to protest as if the thought had never entered their minds but I just laughed at them and said, "Don't give me that, I know what you were thinking. What's the matter, aren't I enough for ya?"

Once again the assurances and protests flew. At the same time, I was keeping an eye on their dicks, just as I could tell my mom was too. It must have been hard for her to resist an offer of two young cocks, especially when they were practically being delivered to her on a silver platter!

"Hmmm, so what do you guys want to do to me," I asked in a seductive tone.

The answer was obvious as a man's dick is the surest sign of his intentions. I had always thought it amusing how little control a guy has over his cock when you compare how much control it seems to have over him. It was like when it gets hard it just takes control and guys will do just about anything to satisfy its demands.

Neither of them seemed willing to verbalize their desires, though, and from the frequent glances they gave my mom, it was obvious why. I really couldn't blame them, I had the same "problem" with other boys I have brought home back when I was in high school. Sometimes I would start teasing them in the family room while we watched TV with my parents and they would freak out. Most of them couldn't bring themselves to do anything with my mom and dad in the room although there were a couple of memorable moments. Even though they KNEW my parents were OK with it, the conditioning they had been subjected to by our society prevented them from enjoying what could have been an incredible experience.

"Ahhhhhh, don't worry about her," I tried to reassure them, "In case you haven't figured it out yet, it's not like she hasn't seen me with a guy before."

Mike, as the oldest, was the one I assumed would take control but surprisingly it was Tim that finally spoke up.

"Well... you know... we just want to do it," he stammered.

"Do what?"

"You know... IT."

"Ahhhhhh, you want to fuck me, is that it?" I said slowly, as if it was news to me. "Then why don't you just say so?"

Mike then stepped in and took over. "Alright then, we both want to fuck you. Is that better?"

"Well, all you had to do was ask, silly. Who's first?"

They looked at each other and I knew each wanted to be the first. After all, who wants sloppy seconds? At the same time, this was undoubtedly a question they had never been asked before and I hoped my bluntness wasn't too intimidating for them. It wouldn't be the first time that I was this way with a guy and even though in his masturbation fantasies I was sure he had a girl offer herself to him, when it came down to reality it was too much for him to handle.

"Well, I tell you what. Since you can't seem to decide, here's what we'll do. Mike's the oldest so he gets to fuck me first and I'll suck off Tim at the same time. Sound OK?"

They both nodded and I think their horniness was letting them forget the audience so I reminded them just to keep them aware.

"What do you say mom, sound like a plan?"

"Whatever suits you," she replied with a smile, "I just don't understand what's taking you so long today."

I decided to let the guys figure out for themselves what she meant by THAT comment. Poor Mike and Tim, I bet they had never run across a mom like mine before!

"Have a seat Mike," I directed, pointing to the cushion behind him.

When Mike sat down his stiff dick was pointing straight up in the air, like a skewer waiting to poke inside of me and I was more than ready for it. All this teasing had me just as horny as they were and I could feel the wetness inside of me growing as my pussy hungered for their dicks. In another time or place I could have teased them for a lot longer but there was also the reality of where we were. It wasn't like we were in the most private location in the world although it was highly unlikely anyone could sneak up on us. In any case, I was damn horny and the thought of being fucked by the two brothers, right in front of my mom, was driving me bananas.

I leaned over him, putting my hands on his shoulders. My boobs hung in front of his face and his eyes were fixed on them. I put my head close to his ear and whispered so just he could hear me.

"You know something, I knew you were going to fuck me from the moment I first saw you."

His breathing was already getting fast and heavy and I knew he wanted me badly. There is just something about knowing a guy desires me so bad he'll do anything to have me that gives me this feeling inside of me I can't really describe. It's certainly not a bad feeling, I can say that!

"I want your cock in me Mike, I want you to fuck me. Is that what you want to do to me Mike? Do you want to fuck me?"

"Oh god, I want to," he whispered hoarsely back to me, "I want to fuck you so bad."

I turned to my mom with a victorious gesture, "See mom, I told you I was going to get fucked by two hot guys today, didn't I?"

My mom just smiled again and sat back to watch the show. She looked fantastic with her large boobs on display for these two younger guys to look at.

Finally Mike was horny enough to let loose his inhibitions and he started telling me more about what he really wanted. It wasn't enough for me just to KNOW he wanted me; I wanted him to TELL me, to openly express his lust and desire for me. I loved hearing a guy confess how bad he wants me and what he would do to have me.

Mike probably didn't realize that I wanted his dick in me just as much, if not more, than he did. There were plenty of signs of my desires if he had been a bit more observant - the hardness of my nipples, the wetness of my pussy, my heart rate which was pounding in my chest. None of these were as obvious as a guy's erection, though, so most guys never knew that the girl who was teasing him and playing hard to get was often hornier than they were!

Turning around such that my ass was facing him, I pushed his legs tight together so I could straddle them more easily. Then I backed up until my bare bottom pressed against his flat stomach. Looking down, I could see his hardened dick sticking out between my legs and I licked my lips at the prospect of where it was going to be in just a few more seconds. Finally I looked back up to where Tim was standing a couple of feet away, watching every move I made.

"You ready to see your brother fuck me Tim?"

Tim just nodded, licking his dry lips and subconsciously holding his hard dick in his right hand.

"Mmmmmmm, that's my boy! Now watch your brother fuck me."

I bent over and then reached down and grabbed his cock. I wiggled around until my pussy was just over the head of his dick, like an arrow pointed at a bulls eye. I carefully lowered myself down until his head was just able to rub up between my wet pussy lips and then I moved his cock so the head was rubbing against my clit. A moan erupted from me involuntarily as my clit responding forcefully to the touch of his dick, sending shivers up and down my spine. God I loved the feel of his hard cock against me!

Rather than let him enter me immediately, I slid his cock up in front of my pussy as I lowered down on him, causing his shaft to rub up against my pussy like a bow on a violin. I gently thrust my hips forward and back, drawing his cock along my pussy, stimulating my clit even more. It had to be killing him to feel his dick rubbing its length along my wet cunt and not be inside of me. Hell, it was killing ME! He put his arms around me and his hands cupped my boobs for the first time. Each one squeezed one of my boobs and then his fingers pulled on my nipples, letting them bounce back and then grabbing them again.

Finally I couldn't delay it any more. I simply HAD to have this wonderful dick in me and I was about to scream with the need that was building up inside of me. I lifted up enough so he had the right angle and the next time his dick passed by my hole I let it go further so his head was up against it and then pressed myself down onto it. Another loud moan escaped from me as I felt myself split apart as he violated me. I moved my hips in a circular motion as I continued to slowly drop down on him, as if I was literally being "screwed". Finally my ass met his lap and I let my weight settle down on top of him until my feet were just barely touching the deck of the boat.

"Oh god, you feel so damn good inside of me," I groaned as I just sat on him, feeling him pulsing inside of my pussy.

"Damn, you're really tight," he gasped. It probably didn't help that I was deliberately squeezing down on his dick with my pussy muscles as well, making his dick probably feel like it was in a wet and warm vise.

With Mike's dick finally I me, it was time to pay more attention to Tim. I had been ignoring him for the past few minutes and I looked around to see where he had gone to. Imagine my complete and utter shock when I saw him seated on the opposite cushion with my mom kneeling in front of him, sucking his dick like a porn star whore.

"MOM!" I practically screamed as I froze, not sure what to do. Oh my god, my mother was sucking Tim's cock! She still had her bottoms on but she had pulled them to one side and was paying with her hairy pussy as she used her other hand to stroke Tim's dick while she sucked him. Hearing me cry out, she lifted her head off of him and shrugged her shoulders at me before responding.

"Well, what did you expect Kelly? Was I just supposed to sit there and watch you have all the fun?"

Seeing the shock in my eyes, she then added on last thing before returning to his dick saying, "Don't worry, I'm just sucking his cock. It's not like we're having sex you know."

Well, by the book (a.k.a. the Bible) she was right but still, it WAS the first time I'd seen my mom rely on a technicality to suck another cock. Just when you think you know everything there is to know about your mom, she goes off and surprises you.

"Fuck that feels so good," Tim groaned as her tongue ran over his enlarged cock head and then down his shaft as she took more of him in my mouth. I remembered when his cock was in my mouth for a "measurement". Well, she was doing a whole lot more than "measuring" him, that was for sure!

As I watched my mom go to work on Tim's cock, by leaning forward I had pulled out a bit from Mike's dick so now I started a motion to where I would rock back and forth. When I leaned back, it would drive Mike into my pussy and then I would lean forward to reverse the process. Thoughts of my days on a see-saw came to mind, except in this case it was Mikes hard dick that was moving in and out of me instead.

As Mike fucked me and my mom sucked Tim's dick, I couldn't help but feel incredibly fortunate. What a fantastic way to spend a day - waterskiing on the lake, and then having incredible sex outdoors with two brothers along with my mom enjoying herself as well. Just goes to show that you never know what is going to happen sometimes!

Both of the brothers were groaning and panting pretty hard although neither of them was saying a word. Something told me one or both of them was about to cum but I wasn't ready for that yet. True, they were still in their mid-twenties, but once a guy was out of his teen years it seemed his ability to cum and stay hard for another round began to decrease quickly and I wasn't taking any chances. I stood up, letting Mike's wet cock flop out of me. To be honest, I wasn't sure who was most disappointed at the moment, him or me!

My mom didn't say anything but she stood up as well, letting Tim get up so he could trade places with his brother. It probably would have been easier for me and my mom to trade places but things worked out. I motioned for Tim to lay down on the seat cushions this time rather than sit on the edge the way his brother had. I think at this point I could have told him to jump off a cliff and he would have so he didn't even question me.

Holding the side rail, I straddled his waist, barely able to fit given the narrow width of the cushion. I love being on top of a guy as it allows me to determine the rhythm and depth of his penetration in me. It doesn't have a lot of intimacy, though, which is why when I submit to my father I prefer him to cum in me when he's on top of me in the standard missionary position. All that was moot as I wasn't submitting anything to these guys. Nope, I was the one in control today which was exactly the way I wanted it to be.

5. Mom Enjoys Young Cock

Meanwhile, Mike moved over to where my mom had taken the opportunity of the break to slip off her bottoms, leaving her now nude along with the rest of us. Unlike me with my shaven and smooth pussy, she had a thick thatch of curly pubic hair covering her pussy which both brothers couldn't seem to stop staring at. With so many girls shaving themselves today, I wondered when the last time was they say a hairy pussy? Mike took the same spot Tim had vacated and my mom went down on him immediately. The thought of her tasting my pussy on his dick made me so hot!

Meanwhile, my now empty pussy was begging to be filled again so I didn't fool around this time and instead lowered myself on Tim's cock as quickly as I could. It was like a sense of relief and pleasure both rolled into one as his cock filled my needy pussy once again. Now that I had my pussy at least partially satisfied, I turned my attention to Mike who was watching his brother's cock fuck me while my mom was going down all the way on his hard dick..

"So what do you think Mike, can my mom suck cock or what?"

My mom turned her head on his dick so she could see me and I saw her trying to grin but it's hard to do when your mouth is full of cock (try it sometime if you don't believe me). Mike didn't answer, he just groaned and moaned as my mom worked her magic on him. Of course I had seen her sucking my dad's cock before but this was an entirely unique experience for me! I almost forgot for a moment she was my mom as all I saw was this incredibly sexy older woman sucking on a boy who was about half her age. Talk about a Kodak moment!

This wasn't going to be some long, drawn out orgy style affair, I knew that from the start. These guys liked to talk up a big story but while I knew they weren't virgins, I also had a strong suspicion they had never encountered a pair of women quite like me and my mom before. There was no way they were going to keep themselves from cumming pretty quick, and under the circumstances that was just fine with me. In less than five minutes my prediction proved to be true.

As Tim was getting ready to cum in me, I thought about how neither of them ever mentioned or indicated any interest in using condoms. It was a bit odd as most guys these days at least mention it, even if they really don't want to use one. Personally, I hate the damn things so it was fine with me to ignore them. It's funny how in any discussion over condoms it always seems that the concern is over the guy's feelings, or lack of them. Why doesn't anyone ever mention what the girl misses out on? I suppose it's because almost anything written on it is by guys who only think of the guy's concerns.

Think about it for a minute, what is the biggest difference between being fucked by a dildo and by a real dick? Other than the physical intimacy, so far as your pussy is concerned there's not much, if any, difference in feeling which is why strap-ons are so popular with lesbians. If anything, a dildo is bigger and fatter than most cocks making them even better by some standards. For me, the reason I want a REAL cock in me, the reason I don't like using dildos, is what happens when a guy cums. Again, this is where the guy and girl have opposite feelings.

Guys may complain that some condoms de-sensitize their cocks but once they cum, it doesn't matter if they are wearing one or not, they're shooting inside of me and that's all they care about. Sure, they may not have the imagery of their sperm being spread inside of me, but so far as what they FEEL, I can't imagine there's any difference at all. However, for me or for that matter, any girl, there is a HUGE difference. When a guy wears a condom and cums in me, I can feel from his motions and the way his body reacts that he is cumming but there is no sensation within me other than the movement of his dick. What I'm missing is the bloom of warmth that I feel when a bare dick shoots his load of cum deep inside of me. It only lasts a few seconds at most but each time he shoots another load, it's like another flare goes off in me and I know when I feel it that it means another load of his sperm is being left behind inside of me. I take the pill religiously so it's not like I want to get pregnant, but there is still that evolutionary instinct within me that wants a man mate me, to unleash his sperm inside of me, even it's all in vain in the end. Some ancient craving is satisfied when I feel him cumming in me that satisfies me in a unique way nothing else can.

Tim was the first to cum. He groaned loudly as his hips rose up and I felt him instinctively try to drive himself as deep as he could before he unloaded inside of me. With a grunt he jerked under me and I felt it, that feeling in me I get when a cock shoots its cum into me.

"Oh yeah, that's it Tim, give it to me," I moaned. I swiveled my hips around Tim's erupting cock, grinding my ass into his crotch as he let loose one load after another into me.

Tim must have shot at least six or seven loads in me before he finally collapsed on his back and lay still like he had passed out. I could feel his dick throbbing in me still as I sat still on him for the moment, savoring the wonderful feelings he had unleashed inside of me.

"Your turn," I called over to Mike.

He grinned and held up a single finger, signaling he was about to cum. Sure enough, he gasped and I could tell from the way his hips jerked that he was unloading himself in my mom's mouth. I was so proud of my mom – not a drop escaped as she took his entire load in his mouth.

What happened next surprised me probably even more than the guys. By now, they were probably beyond the point of being surprised by much of anything when it came to me and my mom. No doubt they had never even fantasized of anything like this before I met them on the docks. No, it was me that was surprised, maybe even shocked, as I knew my mother better than they did – or at least I thought I did.

After taking Mike's load, she stood up and quickly moved over to me. With her mouth shut she motioned for me to dismount from Tim and lay down on one of the cushions. Once I did she moved in between my legs and putting he hands on my knees, spread my legs apart to expose my pussy, dripping now with Tim's cum.

Placing her head just over my freshly fucked pussy, my mother opened her mouth and out fell a long stream of Mike's cum, landing all over my bare pussy! That wasn't all though, although it would have been enough for me. Then she lowered her head down even lower until she could lick the cum back up again, this time going down to my pussy hole and getting a sample of Tim's cum as well.

Once she had a good mouthful, she moved up to look at me face to face. I then realized what she wanted and opened my mouth as she opened hers to let her load drip into mine like a mother eagle feeding her young! God, I couldn't believe I was getting a mouthful of cum from two guys and straight from my mom's mouth at that! We had shared my dad's cum a few times but this was completely different. I could only imagine what the two brothers must be thinking see this sexy mother-daughter team in action!

We kissed and swapped their cum a few times before both of us swallowed what we had. Looking over at the two guys, it was like they were frozen stiff, their eyes fixed on the incredibly sensual sight in front of them!

When we were done, my mom and I sat next to each other, kissing each other and holding each other tight. I loved her so much!

We all ended up jumping in the water nude to wash up. Once we were back in, we all put on our suits again and prepared to leave. Just as my mom was about to fire up the engine, a pontoon boat with what looked to be a couple of families drove into our "private" cove. There must have been five or six small kids and their parents on board. We all looked at each other and I knew we were all thinking the same thing - what if they had come in just ten minutes ago! Well, they hadn't and I am sure they had no idea what we had been up to so we waved as we slowly drove out to the lake, leaving them behind.

We were all tired and so we decided to head back and forego any further waterskiing. We dropped the guys off at the marina. As they left the dock, I noticed they were greeted by some friends and they all left together as a group. I wondered if they were going to try to brag about what had happened this afternoon and if they did, would anyone believe them? I mean, what would you say if a friend of yours came back with this story to tell?

As my mom and I docked the boat and put everything away, we both stayed away from mentioning anything that had gone on during the afternoon. On the way home my mom finally broke the silence, at least so far as our sexual escapades went.

"You know Kelly, you dad doesn't have to know EVERYTHING we do as mother and daughter."

I grinned at her and we both burst out giggling. Then she looked serious again.

"Just so you know, today was NOT something I intend to repeat, at least not anytime soon, so don't get your hopes up."

"Oh mom!" I giggled, "But you really seemed to enjoy sucking Mike's cock."

"That's beside the point," she countered. It was silent for a moment and then she giggled again. "He DID have a nice cock, didn't he?"

We joked and teased each other the rest of the way home, comparing notes about the two brothers and how we felt. By the time we got home, though, it was understood that all was said and done.

Good thing my dad doesn't read my diary!

came, it didn't make a whole lot really for me to convince him to fuck his teenage niece. As it turned out, once he started fucking me he decided he may as well get back together with my mom again. All this was fine with my mom, especially since she couldn't stand her frumpy sister-in-law and the opportunity to fuck her husband behind her back was too much to resist.

The more interesting thing for me was that only a couple days after doing my uncle for the first time, I went after his seventeen year-old son Rick. Needless to say, my poor cousin never had a chance - not that he resisted in the slightest. The final piece of the puzzle fit in when Rick had sex with my mom as well, completing the family circle. The only negative thing for me was once he fucked my mom, he wanted her more than me!

So much for the quickie synopsis of the sexual relations between our two families. What was probably the most intriguing for me was my cousin Tammy. Tammy was about four years younger than her brother Rick and about a year and a half younger than her sister Kate. Kate was a miracle of modern science - a clone of her mother. She was always all straight-laced and totally against sex before marriage.

Tammy, on the other hand, was the typical younger sister. She rebelling in any way possible against being anything like her sister. This, of course, created quite a conflict between her and her mom and they were constantly bickering over her tastes in clothes and such with Tammy wanting to wear as little as possible while her mom wanted her dressed like a nun.

Fortunately her dad sympathized with her and gave her some money on the side to let her buy some outfits she wore when her mom wasn't around. One of these was a little bikini that she preferred over the one-piece monster her mom would buy for her. Sometimes she would be over at our house and we would all go in the hot tub together. With just my family we would never wear bathing suits or anything but with cousins or anyone else we naturally did. Tammy would come out on the deck in this slutty little bikini and my dad would get instantly hard! I don't know if she ever noticed or not but I certainly did and I use to tease my dad by reaching under the water and grabbing his hard dick, asking him if he wanted to use it on her. He usually would just smile and roll his eyes but I knew full well that he would have loved to strip off whatever little bit of cloth she was wearing and take her right then and there!

her true feelings were about it. The fact she didn't say anything rather than freak out was a good sign though and I didn't push the issue.

As much as I had thought about it, there was still one quandary I didn't know how to address. On the one hand I've always regretted not giving myself to my dad first yet here I was planning for Tammy to give her virginity to someone other than her dad. I wondered if someday she would also wish that her dad had been her first and blame me for not letting it happen that way. All this left me torn between doing what I thought was "right" - letting her own dad have her first, or quenching my own guilt by helping my own dad take her virginity.

As it turned out, the problem worked itself out on its own. One day when my uncle was fucking me along with my dad, my dad asked him if he ever wanted to the same thing with one of his daughters. My uncle had responded saying he would love to fuck either one of them but he would never dare as his wife would put him in jail - or worse, if she ever found out. Actually I thought it was more than a little funny given she would have killed him anyway if she had any idea what he was doing to me at that very moment but hey, it left the door wide open now for me and my plans! Of course, the idea that maybe I could have helped change his mind about his own daughter didn't enter my thoughts...

The temperatures had been unbearably hot for the past several weeks. The good side of all that was that my cousins had a swimming pool so I tried to visit them whenever possible. When she was at home, Tammy's mom made her wear a conservative two piece swimming suit. The two pieces were so large it didn't even qualify as a bikini! Instead, it looked like something you saw girls wearing in the old Elvis movies. Actually this year's model was a significant improvement as in the past her mom required the girls to wear one-piece suits all the time.

Fortunately, Kate preferred to hang around her mom more than with us, leaving the three of us alone in the pool, something we tried to take advantage of whenever we could. We had to be a bit careful as the pool was visible from the house but that didn't stop us from doing anything we wanted.

Once, when just the three of us were in the pool I watched as Tammy sucked her brother's cock underwater. I couldn't just stand by and watch so I helped out with my hand whenever she was gathering her breath. Finally he came and it was interesting to watch the stream of cum emerge from his cock and linger as a long string of cum in the pool. Tammy dived under it and came up with a bunch of it strung out in her hair. Well, that was fine for her at the time but she would find out

"Fuck me daddy," I moaned as my hips moved around under his.

I gasped as his cock started to pull out of me and he stopped only when the head was just barely in me before he drilled me with it again. Faster and faster he fucked me with long full strokes. I heard a big truck go by but with the darkening skies and tinted windows I could barely make it out so I was sure he couldn't see what was going on in the back seat even though it wouldn't have bothered me in the least if the driver got an eyeful.

If there was one thing about incest I didn't like, it was that I can't tell anyone that my favorite guy to fuck me is my own father! At least when someone saw us anonymously it allowed someone to see how much my dad loved me and how much it meant to me to please him, even it was someone we would never meet.

"That's it baby, squeeze my cock with your cunt," he grunted.

I was gripping him pretty tight, almost to the point it was hard for him to push himself back into me but I knew he loved it when I did that. I think one of the things my dad loved about fucking me was my tight pussy. It wasn't really fair to compare mine to my mom's as she had one child and twenty-one more years of being fucked than me but it still gave me a feeling of satisfaction to know I was satisfying his needs. I suppose my cousin's pussy was just as tight but then she wasn't his daughter so no matter how sexy and cute the little slut was, I knew I pleased him in ways she never could.

My dad was fucking me fast and hard now which was a dead giveaway that he was getting ready to cum. Even though I knew 90% of the time he would stay in me when he came, I also knew he loved me to ask him for it. For that matter, almost ALL men do for some reason but that didn't matter, I liked to ask for it as it made me feel a little slutty and sexy to beg for a man to release his sperm in me.

"Cum inside of me daddy," I begged him, "Let me feel you cumming deep inside of my pussy... Give it to me daddy!"

My dad was breathing heavily and his eyes were glazed over in that way he gets when his lust for me overcomes him and all he wants is to fuck my brains out. He was getting ready to cum in me and I knew nothing in the world could stop him now. Although I had never tried nor wanted to, something told me that even if I did try to stop him, this was indeed a point of no return.

Actually this realization wasn't something bad to me, in fact it turned me on knowing that I could make my father so hungry for me, make him want me in such a way that he would take me as his. I felt I was totally under his control now, completely submitting myself to him, totally offering myself for him to have and do whatever he wanted to with me. I have been fucked by over a hundred men and my dad is the only one I ever feel this way about, the only man I surrender myself to.

"Oh god I'm cumming baby," he moaned loudly, "Here it cums baby... Oh god!"

I felt him jerk his hips into me and suddenly a blossom of heat bloomed deep inside of me, so deep it felt like he was almost in my stomach. I knew he was cumming in me, giving me the most intimate sign of his love possible. I lifted my hips upwards to meet his thrusts as he spurted out one load of cum after another.

"Yes daddy, cum in me," I cried softly, "Oh daddy I love you so much!"

One final thrust and he was spent. He tried to hold his weight off of me but his lower body pressed down on me, keeping his cock firmly in my pussy. My dad lifted his head and looked me in the eyes.

"God I love fucking you," he said softly and then he kissed me gently on the lips. His tongues pressed against my lips and I opened my mouth to let it in. Our tongues met and he pressed harder against me. As we kissed I could feel his hot cock getting smaller in me and occasionally I felt his stomach tighten against me which made his cock twitch inside of me. In response, I tightened down on his cock with my pussy, squeezing him as if I was trying to milk the last bit of cum from him.

"Hey, there's a rest area coming up, you two horny toads about done back there or what?" my mom called back.

My dad kissed me a few more seconds and then lifted himself off of me. I felt his cock slip from my pussy, leaving it with an empty, cold feeling. I looked down and saw his softened cock glistening in the soft light of the passing cars, shimmering with the mixture of my pussy juices and his cum that covered it.

"Ok honey," he finally answered my mom, "be ready in a minute."

He looked down at me as I lay still on my back, my legs still spread open for him as his cum had started to drain out of me. I reached down and ran my finger up my pussy slit and then put it in my mouth to taste the results of our union. My dad's pants never did get off so all he had to do was pull them up and then slip his t-shirt back on over his head and he was dressed.

In the meantime my mom had pulled into a space at the end of the parking row. She hadn't warned the others that she was going to stop so they were still on the road ahead of us. My dad opened the back door and stepped out, taking one last look at me.

"Damn if I don't have the sexiest daughter," he said, shaking his head as he looked at me as I started to play with myself.

"Daddy!!" I protested, "close the door!"

My dad laughed and hopped in the front seat. My mom had scooted over and then she turned her head around to see what I was doing.

"I take it you're not getting dressed yet Kelly?" she asked. "What's the matter, didn't your daddy make you cum?"

I looked up at her and pretended to pout and then closed my eyes and continued to masturbate. My dad was pulling out of the rest area then and she smacked him playfully in the shoulder.

"You selfish brute," she scolded him, "Don't you ever care about anyone but yourself?"

My gave her a "Who me?" look and she smacked him again. "I can't believe you didn't make her cum! Now look, she's back there doing herself – aren't you ashamed of yourself?"

My dad looked back at me briefly after he had merged into traffic. "Sorry babe, I just got carried away," he said in a sheepish voice.

I smiled up at him as I couldn't never be mad at him right after being fucked by him. I was getting close now as to be fair, I had actually been pretty close to cumming while he had been fucking me. I had two fingers in me now, ramming them in and out of my pussy while my other hand was playing with my clit. My leg was still draped over the top of the seat and as I got closer I dropped it down and lifted my other leg up onto the seat as well.

I started humping my hips up and down as if I was being fucked, gasping as I tried to breath. My eyes were closed as I dreamed my dad was still fucking me, that my fingers were his cock as I rubbed my clit furiously. God I was so close yet I couldn't seem to get over that last little bit to cum. I moaned loudly as my hips bucked harder and harder, my body desperately wanting to orgasm.

Finally it happened, just as I knew it would. In an instant everything in the vehicle seemed to disappear as nothing existed for me but my pussy and the incredible feeling as the cum literally gushed from me like a faucet. Like the shock wave of a bomb blast, a surge of pleasure radiated from my pussy outward, enveloping me in the most incredible orgasm. Every pore of my body seemed to tingle like I had plugged a live electric cable in my pussy. Even my hair seemed to stand on end and my toes curled involuntarily as my legs flopped down flat on the seat and I just laid there.

To anyone watching, they might have thought I was asleep except for the movement of my hand between my legs. It didn't stop but instead changed from a sharp, intense feeling to one of just total fulfillment, as if I was floating in a pool of warm pleasure that just enveloped me from head to toe. A low moan escaped from my lips as my pussy would periodically convulse and grip my finger which was still inside of it.

It felt like hours passed but in reality was probably maybe five or ten minutes and then it slowly subsided. It was like waking from a deep sleep as the rest of the world gradually intruded once again. Eventually I opened my eyes again and glanced up to see my mom looking back at me over the front seat. She was smiling at me, obviously pleased with her daughter's performance.

"Wow Kelly! That must have been quite the orgasm," she said. "I was starting to wonder if you were ever going to quit!"

I looked up at her and gave her a wicked grin. I took my hand from my pussy and reached it out to her and she put it in her mouth and sucked on it like a popsicle except this one was warm and was covered with my cum. I pulled it back and she grinned at me.

"Mmmmmmm, you always taste so good," she said as she licked her lips.

"Hey Kelly!" my dad broke in, "We're getting close to the exit. You might want to think about getting some clothes back on girl!"

I looked at my mom and we both burst out laughing. It was nice riding down the road this way but practical matters sometimes had to be dealt with. I knew my uncle would probably stop for gas before leaving the area around the interstate and even though he wouldn't mind seeing me like this, my aunt was quite another matter. It would be awfully hard to explain why I was laying in the back seat all flushed and smelling of pussy cum.

By the time we pulled into the gas station I had my clothes back on and I jumped out to head to the bathroom and wash up a bit. When I came out my dad and uncle were talking by the gas pump and as I approached I saw my dad whisper something in his brother's ear. My uncle's eyes opened and he looked at me and then back at my dad. A big grin broke out on his face and I knew my dad had just clued him in on what we had been doing on the ride down. I looked at my uncle and licked my lips slowly and winked at him as I got back into the back seat. From the look on his face I could tell he was wishing he was getting in with me!

3. Tammy and I Suck Her Brother's Dic

The rest of the trip was rather uneventful and we finally reached the park as dusk was settling in. My dad and uncle checked in and came out with the keys to our cabins. We all drove down the winding dirt road to the cabin area. Each of the parents had their own one-bedroom cabin while the rest of us were to share a two-bedroom one. Each of our bedrooms had two twin beds and Kate, always the crybaby, whined that she and Tammy had to share a small twin bed while Rick had a whole bedroom all to himself.

"Don't get yourself all worked up Kate, Tammy can sleep with me," I volunteered. Kate didn't even wait for anyone to answer before dumping her sister's stuff onto the other bed where mine was. My aunt thanked me for helping out but little did she know why I really wanted her daughter in bed with me! We all got ourselves arranged while my dad and uncle went down to the docks to check out the boat. They returned shortly and confirmed that everything was ready to go for the next day.

By now everyone was pretty tired and it was pitch black outside so we decided to have a campfire the next night and just get to bed so we would be rested in the morning. Rick went into his room and as he shut the door, I saw him looking at Tammy. He smiled and winked at her and then closed the door. Kate didn't see any of this but I wondered if Rick and Tammy were this blatant about things at their house. God, if Kate or her mom had the slightest idea of what Rick and Tammy had been doing they would have had a fit!

Once we were in our room alone, we all got undressed and slipped into our night clothes. I would have loved to sleep nude with Tammy but with Kate in the same room that wasn't an option. Instead, I opted for a long t-shirt which covered my ass but not by much. Tammy was wearing a similar nightshirt but hers was longer and reached below her knees. I noted she had taken off her panties and not put any fresh ones on and I wondered if Kate had noticed. Obviously not since the little prude would undoubtedly have said something about it.

Speaking of prudes... Kate opted for the full pajama set with pants and a shirt. Of course she was wearing her panties underneath and I thought for a moment she was going to keep her bra on until she removed it at the last minute. She turned her back to us when she did and had her shirt ready to put on so I didn't get even a glimpse of her bare boobs. She and Tammy got in their respective beds after which I turned off the light switch by the door and then crawled in with Tammy. It was pretty close quarters in the twin bed but she laid on her side and I climbed in behind her, the two of us basically in a spooning position.

It was totally dark in the room as the curtains were pulled and there was no night light in the room or even a clock to provide any illumination. That was fine with me! I put my arm around Tammy and pulled her in tightly to me. She wiggled and squirmed to press her little ass tightly in against my stomach, in the process making her t-shirt pull up a bit after which I helped out by reaching down and pulling it up over her hips. The covers were over us so even if a light should suddenly come on nobody could see what was happening anyway. My own t-shirt had ridden up when I got into the bed and I didn't bother pulling it down so the result was Tammy's cute little bare ass was now pressing against my bare stomach. It felt so warm and smooth against me!

My hands slipped under her shirt and I touched her boobs which were finally started to develop from little knobs on her chest to actual breasts. They were still small enough for even my hand to fully encompass but the nipples responded to my touch and hardened to become like pencil erasers. She put her hand over mine through the single layer of thin cotton and we laid there like that until I fell asleep.

For some reason I woke up a while later and for a second I was unsure of where I was in the dark until finally it came to me I was in the cabin at the lake and not in my bedroom. As my mind cleared I realized I was alone in bed and again it took a few seconds for me to remember that Tammy was supposed to be with me. Now where had that girl gone? Instantly the answer came to me and looked over to where Kate's bed was. The moon had risen and a sliver of light was shining in between the curtains, just enough for me to see the lump in her bed where she was sleeping soundly.

I silently got out of bed and slipped out of the room, closing the door back behind me and walked across to the other bedroom. The door was closed but when I placed my ear to the door I could definitely hear that something was going on and I had a darn good idea what it was! I carefully opened the door and peeked through. The drapes were open in his room and with the rising moon there was enough light now for me to get a pretty good view of the room.

little mouth filled with dick and I knew she was just trying to tease me. I reached out and took his balls in my hand. I gently rolled them in my hand and massaged them, feeling the thick pubic hair in my hands that surrounded them which was damp with his sweat and her spit from sucking him. After I played with his balls for a while I moved up and took the base of his cock in my hand and gently stroked him in rhythm with Tammy's BJ. Finally I just couldn't take it any more - I simply HAD to have that cock!

"C'mon Tammy," I said in a firmer tone, "Let me have it for a while."

Tammy looked me in the eyes again but this time she winked at me and lifted her head enough for his cock to slide out from her lips. Rick was impatient, though, and before I could lean down to suck him I heard grumbling.

"Look, how about at least ONE of you sucking my cock?" he whined. Tammy turned her head around and snickered at him.

"Hang in there big brother," she scolded him, "Besides, did I say you could quit licking me?"

Sometimes seeing them like this I would forget they were brother and sister but listening to them bickering reminded me again of their true relationship. I ignored their playful banter as the sight of his hard cock sticking straight up in the air was all I wanted to think about. It had been a while since I sucked him and I couldn't wait to take him in my mouth again!

I licked the tip of Rick's cock playfully, running my tongue in tight circles around his cock head and then up and down the length of his beautiful dick. He was still wet from Tammy's BJ and so I took the tip of him in my open mouth and sucked on the head like it was a hose and I was siphoning gas with it. My cheeks sucked in and I pulled up on his cock with my mouth, stretching him up from his crotch.

In the meantime, Tammy had simply sat up straighter and was grinding her ass in Rick's face, twisting back and forth as she rotated her cute little butt like a hula dancer. She looked incredibly cute with her puffy boobs and perky body, sitting all nice and nude on her brother's face. I was so proud of my little prot,g,!

I released the suction on his cock and lowered my head further down onto him, slowly taking his cock into my mouth inch by inch until finally my face felt his curly pubic hair brushing against it. His crotch smelled like a mixture of sweat and sex which at the moment was just perfect so far as I was concerned. I buried my face in his pubic hair and twisted my head around on his cock which was now pressing against the back of my throat.

"Oh god!" I heard him groan, "Suck my cock Kelly! Damn you know just what to Do... Ahhhhhh, take it all!"

Indeed I did. I had sucked his cock more than a few times before and by now I pretty much knew just what he liked. When it comes to blowjobs every guy is unique and if you really want to please them then you had to be conscious of how they react when you first started sucking their dick, figuring out what they like best.

Face it, I think I could just bob my head on most guys and they would be happy but that's not how to build a good reputation for giving a BJ. After all, I wasn't known as the best cocksucker in school for nothing! You just have to be sensitive to the slightest movements that tell you when he is getting turned on more or less. Sure, every guy groans and bucks every now and then. Even the most basic blowjob can do that to a guy as it doesn't take much to make a cock hard - they are pretty simple things when you get down to it. When I feel him twitch in my mouth, his stomach tighten, or his ass clench just that little bit, it tells me that I have hit a sweet spot. Most guys love a tongue against them when it's in the right spot. The trick is to keep sucking him at the same time whereas most girls just suck or lick and don't take advantage of the effect you get from doing both at the same time.

Rick was getting close to cumming but I wasn't ready for that yet so I had to drop him from my mouth. I got up on my knees on the bed and lifted one leg over him so I could straddle him.

"You sure you don't want him to fuck you instead ?" I asked Tammy as I positioned myself over he brother's cock. As I expected, Tammy just shook her head. For some reason she was pretty adamant that she didn't want Rick to be her first. Whatever it was, she had never told me. It wasn't just a sister- brother thing either as so far Tammy had never let any of his friends fuck her either even though she was more than willing to suck their cocks all night.

My first guess was that it was not so much "who" as "when and where". I think every girl dreams about her first time and Tammy obviously had some big dream sequence worked out where her Prince Charming would ride in and take her virginity. At the moment it didn't really matter to me as all I wanted was Rick to fuck me - and fuck me sooner than later!

"Here, you put his cock in me," I whispered to Tammy.

She reached down and took his cock in her right hand and positioned it under my cunt as I slowly lowered myself down to it. Tammy rubbed the tip of his cock against my pussy, parting my pussy lips and then rubbing it against my clit. I couldn't help but smile - the girl remembered her previous lessons well!

"Hold it still," I told her.

I was still on my knees, straddling him with my pussy hovering just over the tip of his dick. Tammy dutifully held his cock firmly in place and I let myself sink down slowly onto it. The head of his cock head pressed against my tight pussy hole and as stiff as he was, his cock still bent slightly as my pussy resisted him. I sat down harder on him and suddenly my pussy gave up and I felt myself splitting open as his cock pushed its way into my pussy hole like an invading army breaking down the castle gates. The moment I felt him enter me I stopped dropping down and his bent cock acted like a spring to push himself an inch or so inside of me without me having to push down any further.

As I had taught her before, Tammy began to move his cock around like she was holding a joystick, rotating him inside of me like she was using mixing a batch of cookies inside of me. God it felt so good! The entrance to my pussy is the most sensitive area part of my body besides my clit and when his thick head was just inside of me the way it was now, it caused my pussy to react like he had set off a firecracker in me, especially with Tammy spinning it around in me.

"Oh god... that feels so good!" I moaned as I began to gyrate my hips in the opposite direction she was twisting his cock.

I slowly sank down on him with my hips moving in tight circles. It was like I was screwing his cock into me (hmmm, is that why people call it "screwing"?). When I got far enough down Tammy had to let go and she sat up straight on Rick's face. I let myself just drop down then, plunging the final couple of inches into me as I sank down on his stiff hot cock. I leaned back with my hands on his knees, letting Tammy get a good look at her brother's cock that was now completely enveloped by my pussy.

"Hmmmmmm, do you like watching your brother's cock in me?" I asked her with a nasty grin on my face.

With my eyes adjusted to the dark and moon shining through I could almost see like it was daylight now and her face was beaming with delight. Tammy licked her lips and for a moment I thought she might change her mind and ask to trade places but she just kept quiet and watched as I fucked her brother some more.

Leaning back, I could see his tongue playing with her little pussy and she was obviously loving whatever it was he was doing to her cunt. I started to lift myself up and then dropping down again, more of a swinging motion of my hips than actually elevating myself up and down but it worked so far as sliding his cock in and out me went.

Tammy began to moan more now and I think seeing me fucking her brother while he licked her from below was getting her close to cumming. Her hands were holding her small boobs and she was moaning louder and louder until finally I hissed at her before she woke up her sister, even she was two closed doors away!

"That's it Rick, don't stop now!" she cried out softly, "Ohhhhhhhhh yeaaaaaaah... lick me Rick... make me cum!!"

She grabbed the sides of her head with her hands and her eyes were shut tight as her head leaned back and she didn't seem to be breathing for the longest time. Her entire nude body tensed and just when I was wondering how long she could go without breathing she suddenly let out a huge gasp and her eyes opened wide as saucers. Her mouth opened wide but it was like she was struck dumb and couldn't say a word as her eyes rolled back in her head and she seemed to sway back and forth like she was about to pass out.

I suddenly realized that I was frozen in place on his cock, completely forgetting for a moment about his cock in me. I was totally fascinated as I watched this little slut cumming while her brother licked her virgin cunt.

It seemed like she would never stop but finally her entire body seemed to just give in at once and she sank down on his face. He had to actually push up on her ass to breathe after which she just rolled over on the bed next to us. Tammy shook her head with a look of amazement on her face.

"Oh god, that was the most incredible orgasm I have EVER had," she gasped between her panting while she tried to catch her breath.

After that she didn't say another word but just laid back with one hand between her legs, her palm flat against her pussy as if she was trying to control her aching pussy. Her head was propped up on a pillow such that she could see me and Rick was able to lift his head now to see who had been squatting on his cock. Of course he knew it was me but I had never known a guy yet that didn't like to watch his cock slide in and out of me as he fucked me. Heck, I loved to watch it too but in this position it was hard to see as I was leaning way back and besides, I could feel him sliding in and out of me anyway!

Rick reached forward and grabbed my waist, pulling me forward to him so I was leaning over him now, my boobs hanging down and swinging slightly as I humped his cock. His head reached up and I leaned over more so his mouth could suck on my nipples. God it felt so good and his teeth grabbed my nipples hard - almost too hard in fact.

"Not so hard!" I protested, "You trying to chew them off or what?"

Rick went back to using his gums and lips which suited me better. He pushed me back up after a little, back to where I was more upright on his cock.

"Turn around Kelly," he instructed me, "Rotate around my cock... careful now - don't let it come out of you!

I lifted up my one leg and gingerly turned around on top of him. His cock was barely long enough to let me do this but after a few close calls I had done it.

"God I love your ass!" he groaned as his hands squeezed my butt, one hand per ass cheek.

I couldn't see either of them now which was sort of a turn-on, knowing they were both right behind me watching his cock sliding in and out of me. I reached down and started playing with my clit, rubbing my pussy slit up and down with special attention to my clit as my finger slid by it.

I was so horny now I knew it was no longer a question of whether or not I was going to cum but rather just a question of when! Rick was still squeezing my ass like he was checking out melons at the market, running his hands over me and then grabbing my butt. I could feel it coming as my pussy began to get even wetter and I would jump as if startled each time I ran over my clit. God I wanted to cum so bad!

Then it hit me like a truck coming out of nowhere and my cunt convulsed and grabbed onto his cock like it would never let go! I moaned out loud, not caring who could hear me as I stretched my head back and cried out to the ceiling with nothing but pure lust in my voice.

"Fuck! What the hell - you're gonna break my cock!" Rick grunted as my pussy continued to grip him.

It was almost like a cramp except instead of pain my pussy felt like it was filled with the most pleasurable thing I could imagine. Tammy knew what was happening and understood. Only a girl can truly understand the intensity of an orgasm, the way it originates in your cunt but then suddenly blossoms throughout your entire body like you dived into a pool of hot water and every pore of your skin was dripping with bliss. Men would cum in me and then in a few seconds it would be over and I mean OVER.

When I orgasmed like this it just went on and on for as long as I could stand it. I toyed with my clit just enough to balance myself on the razor edge between losing my orgasm and just going insane; speeding up when I felt it dying and then just pressing on it when I felt I just couldn't take it anymore. My pussy loosened up on his cock and I began to rock like a lunatic on Rick's cock, feeling his cock slide in a and out of me like a warm hard sausage.

"Cum in me Rick," I begged. "I want you to cum in me NOW!"

If he was nothing else, Rick was your typical eighteen year-old horny teenage boy and it didn't take much to get his rocket lit. Having his older cousin rocking on his dick, her pussy still convulsing around his cock, her ass in his hands, and now listening to her beg for him to cum was more than enough to send him over the edge. Heck, I doubt even a more mature man could have held off much longer!

"Oh fuck, here it comes!" he groaned as I felt his hips rise up to push himself deeper into me.

"Oh yea!" I encouraged him, rubbing my clit faster again, "Cum inside of me... give me that hot cum!"

No sooner than I said that then I felt Rick's cock burst inside of me, spewing his load of incestuous cum deep into me. It was amazing that as hot as my pussy felt and as intense my orgasm was still going that I could feel the heat of his sperm in me but indeed I could. Nothing is more amazing to me than to feel a man exploding inside of me, pouring a part of him into my welcoming cunt, in effect trying to mate me! It was almost animal-like in its intensity as he unloaded one shot after another of sperm into me.

As he finished I just sat down on his cock, slowly rubbing my clit as I let my orgasm begin to dwindle. I couldn't sit completely still, my pussy was just too sensitive to do that, so I rocked just a little bit on him, squeezing down on his cock now and then just to feel it in me.

"WOW!" I heard from behind me. The softness and soprano tone told me it was from Tammy. With everything else happening I'd forgotten all about her! I turned my head and looked over my shoulder at her with a grin on my face. She was sitting back against the headboard, her fingers slowly working her pussy as she watched us.

"So what do you think?" I asked her, "Did you enjoy the show?"

I leaned forward and allowed Rick's now limp cock to slip out of me. Normally he would be ready to go again by now but I think I really took it out of him this time! I got up and laid on the bed alongside of him with my head up against Tammy and brother?? To be honest, I was sort of glad she didn't ask for it then as I still had hopes for my dad to be the one to take her virginity.

I got up and dropped Rick's cock which by now was hard and ready to go again. I looked at Rick and then over at Tammy and smiled.

"Well, I'll leave you two to finish," I said, "Don't stay up all night - we have a big day tomorrow!"

I left the room quietly and when I turned back to close the door I saw she was already on top of him, back in their 69 position again and each seemed to forget already that IU had been there. I slipped into our bedroom and saw Kate hadn't budged an inch. I was exhausted and it was morning before I woke again. Tammy was in bed with me when I awoke and I wondered when she had come back in. Suddenly my eyes were open and I gently nudged her.

"Tammy... Tammy... get up," I whispered in her ear. Tammy started to groan but I clamped my hand over her mouth. "C'mon, get dressed girl, we can't let Kate see us like this!"

Tammy's eyes opened then as she realized what I was saying. As tired as we both were last night we had both evidently just crawled into bed and forgotten all about our t-shirts! I don't know how we would have explained it to Kate if she had woken first and see the two of us lying next to each other completely nude! Fortunately our shirts were by the nightstand next to the bed so we quickly slipped them back on.

Tammy was already starting to doze back off again (what time DID she come back anyway?) and so I covered her and let her go back to sleep.

4. Morning Sex With My DAD

When I woke up again I saw that Kate hadn't moved a muscle the entire night and was still in the exact same position she had been when she went to bed. I was wide awake though and even though it was only 6:30 in the morning I was ready to get going. I brushed my teeth and looked out the door. The camp area around our cabins was dead still and I looked over at the other two cabins and didn't see anything going on that indicated anyone was up yet.

A nasty thought came to my head just then and I grinned like a lunatic. I quietly opened our door and walked across the damp grass to my parent's cabin. It was surprisingly cold for August and the grass was wet with dew and I gingerly stepped over the rocks and branches that were in the way. I peeked in the window and saw my parents sleeping in bed. My dad was on his back with my mom draping herself over him, her arm over his chest and top leg over his. The covers were over most of them but I knew they never slept with anything on - I don't think my mom even owns pajamas or a nightie other than to dress up for my dad. I tried the door and was surprised but happy to find that it was open.

Inside the cabin it was much different from ours. There were no separate rooms, just a big bed on one side and a kitchen/living area on the opposite side. I stepped softly over to their bed, cringing every time one of the old floor boards would squeak in the slightest. Fortunately they didn't wake and my dad was snoring up a storm laying on his back like that. How my mom slept with it I never figured out!

I gently pulled the covers over to one side to expose his waist and crotch. Sure enough, underneath was his bare body with my mom's pressed up tightly to it. His cock was flaccid and laid over to one side, almost hidden in his thick crop of black curly pubic hair. My pussy was tingling with anticipation as I reached down and gently cupped his cock in my hand, wrapping my fingers around it and then gripping it firmly.

My dad shifted slightly and for a moment I thought he was going to wake but he was still out cold. For a moment I wondered just what he and mom had done last night to be so tired this morning? I mean, I had a pretty good idea but details are always fun to have!

I knew he was getting close and I couldn't wait for him to cum but at the same time I wanted to give him more than just a blowjob. Even though I knew he would be satisfied with that, I wanted to give him more. I wanted to show him just how much I loved and appreciated him. Admittedly, it was more than just pleasing him if I was being honest with myself. I wanted it for me as well - I WANTED my father to fuck me.

I felt so special when he was in me. It was completely different from what I felt with any other man and why shouldn't it? He wasn't just any other man, he was my FATHER and no other man could ever take his place in my heart - or my pussy. I let his cock slip from my mouth and moved up close to his face. For a moment we both just stared at each other. He knew, of course, what I was about to say but at the same time I knew he wanted to hear me say it.

"Fuck me daddy," I whispered to him.

The smile on his face told me everything as he reached out to pull me to him. He pulled me into bed with him, my body pressing against his as his hands roamed over me while we kissed passionately. He pulled my t-shirt up and over my head as we separated just long enough for him to pull it off of me.

My dad pushed me over on my back and reached between my legs. His large hand cupped my bare pussy and pulled up between my legs, putting pressure on my entire pussy. His middle finger pressed in more and pushed its way between my pussy lips and then into my wet hole. I groaned as we kissed and his finger explored me. He lifted his head and looked at me, running his eyes up and down my naked body as I lay in bed beside him.

"God you are so beautiful," he whispered huskily to me, "I want to fuck you so badly right now... I want to fuck you so hard."

"Take me daddy... give me your love," I begged him, "You can do anything you want to me... ANYTHING!"

Without another word he moved on top of me as my legs spread open wide to offer myself to him. I could feel his stiff cock pressing against my stomach and the coarse hair surrounding it tickled me.

I looked over to my side and saw my mom had awakened and was watching us. We both looked at each other, not exchanging a word but yet at the same time communicating everything that was necessary. She had once told me that loved to watch my dad fuck me because she knew how much it meant to both of us. He had just fucked her a few hours ago and I knew that what we were about to do was so different. She was his wife and soul mate while I was his daughter. He loved us both but in different ways.

Someday I will get married and I am sure that my relationship with my husband will be as special as the one my parent's share. For now though my thoughts returned to my dad as I turned back to him. He had seen me look at my mom - how long had she been awake? He smiled as he lifted himself off of me and got on his knees between my legs.

My dad lifted my legs up in the air and rested them on his shoulder. Then he put his hands under my ass and lifted my hips upward and pulled me into him. His hard dick met my pussy and he moved my into position such that his cock tip was tight against my pussy hole. He thrust forward and his cock pierced me, forcing my tight pussy to spread open and accept him.

"Oh yeah," I said to him, my hands to my side to help position myself against him, "Fuck me daddy... push it in me more! Show me how much you love me!"

He grunted as his cock pushed its way into my tight pussy. He kept pushing until I felt the hair of his crotch tickling me between my legs and then pressure of the base of his cock against my crotch. For a moment he paused and it was suddenly deathly quiet in the room as the three of us just looked at each other. It was a moment I would always remember, all of us in bed in a remote cabin, my dad's cock buried deep inside of me while my mom looked on, touching herself. What could be better? Well, I was about to find out!

5. My Dad Finally Fucks His Niece

My dad had just started stroking his cock in me when we heard what sounded like a muted gasp from the doorway. All of us looked and to our mutual surprise, there in the doorway was my cousin Tammy! She was standing there with her eyes wide open and her hands covering her open mouth, unsuccessfully trying to keep us from hearing her. Once she realized that we had seen her, Tammy started to turn away as if to run out but my mother, always the practical one, was the first to recover and she called out to her.

"Tammy! Don't go!" she called as she swung her legs off the side of the bed and stood up.

My mom started walking quickly across the room to where Tammy had frozen like a little statue at the sound of her voice. In the meantime my dad had stopped pumping his cock in me and just held still although his cock would still involuntarily throb and pulse inside of me.

I watched as my mom reached out to Tammy and took her hand and then bent her knees to lower herself down to hug Tammy. She was still nude but that didn't seem to matter to Tammy who hugged her back. My mom took her by the hand and brought her over to her side of the bed where she picked her up and set her down. She was still wearing her long t-shirt while the three of us were totally nude but nobody seemed to care. My mom ran her fingers gently through Tammy's short hair to calm her.

"Well, I guess now you know about Kelly's special relationship with her father," she started out. "You've seen your brother fuck her, haven't you?"

Tammy just stared at me and my dad. It was a little surreal to have him on top of me, my pussy gripping his cock while she stared at us like she seeing someone having sex for the first time.

I reached out with my hand to touch her leg. "It's OK Tammy, this is how I show my dad I love him." I looked back up at my dad and smiled. "C'mon daddy, show Tammy how much you like to fuck me... show her how well a daughter can please her daddy."

I suddenly felt incredibly horny. I wanted my dad to fuck me with her watching us. I knew my dad probably wanted to fuck her right then but he was in me now and I wanted him to screw me in front of the girl he dreamed of fucking. I bucked my hips up against his cock, driving him deeper inside of me.

"C'mon dad, fuck me! I want Tammy to see you do me," I begged him.

My dad didn't say anything but once the initial shock of having Tammy discover us had passed, his natural instincts were returning. After all, he DID have his cock buried to the hilt in his daughter's cunt and he WAS a man so it was only natural that his hips started to move again and he began to slowly push himself in and out of me. Well, I had my own instincts as well and I couldn't help but moan softly as my dad fucked me again.

"Now see Tammy?" my mom pointed out, "Isn't it wonderful to see them together? Kelly is such a wonderful daughter to let him do that to her, don't you agree?"

Tammy's voice finally returned and her first words showed she was still unsure of what was happening.

"But it's your dad... Oh my god Kelly, you let your own dad in you?" she said softly, "Sorry... I just can't imagine my dad ever wanting to do anything like that to me."

There was something in her voice, though, that sounded more like curiosity than condemnation. I quickly picked up on the fact she said she couldn't imagine her dad "wanting" to fuck her, not that she couldn't imagine him fucking her. I was a bit confused myself. On the one hand I loved my dad fucking me but on the other I couldn't take my eyes off Tammy.

I looked up and saw my dad was looking at her too. I knew how badly he had always wanted to fuck Tammy and I would have loved to know what he was thinking at this moment. He may have had his cock in me but I had a pretty good idea of where he wanted it to be. Ordinarily if he was fucking me and I had ever thought he was thinking of someone else, I would have been insanely jealous.

In this instance I felt just the opposite if anything. My emotions were like a roller coaster. One minute I wanted nothing more than him to fuck my brains out and suddenly now, for the first time I could ever remember, I wanted my dad to stop fucking me! If this went on much longer I would be a basket case!

With all the confusion in my mind, I decided that it was now or never so I looked up at him and then at Tammy.

"Daddy, I want you to fuck Tammy," I said softly. My dad stopped pumping me and Tammy's eyes widened even further than I thought possible. "It's OK Tammy, I've always wished he was my first and I know he wants to be yours."

My dad withdrew from me and laid on his side with his hard cock glistening in the dim light. Tammy looked at my dad as if she was seeing him for the first time. Then she looked at my mom. My mom didn't say anything and I knew she was probably not entirely pleased with my suggestion. My mom had made it perfectly clear in the past that my dad was not to grope her or even "accidentally" let Tammy see his cock when she was over, not matter how horny he would get when she would show up in some tiny pair of shorts.

I always thought it was cute the way he would get hard whenever she was around as I knew exactly what was going on in his mind. It didn't bother me or make me jealous. I gave myself to my dad out of love and respect, not just to get fucked. I knew he fucked me because he loved me and wanted to show me in the most personal and intimate way he could.

she would be one hot young teenage - not that she wasn't hot enough now to get my pussy wet!

"Just think of Rick... think about your brother now... remember the first time you sucked his cock and how you didn't know what it was going to taste like or how it would feel," I told her. "Remember how good it felt in your mouth then... how hard he got and how he shot his cum in your mouth that first time."

As I said that my hand moved between her legs and pressed inside her thighs to touch her pussy. She moaned softly and I wasn't sure if it was me touching her pussy or thoughts of her first blowjob that were turning her on but maybe it was both! I reached down with both hands and pressed her legs apart. As I put pressure on her inner thighs she spread them apart for me and I could see her cute little pussy clearly. She had a thin covering of fuzzy brown pubic hair and I thought about how despite the beauty of her pussy, no cock had yet to enter her. Well, hopefully I would help to solve that problem!

I motioned for my dad to get up and I pretended to be holding a cock and sucking it. He dad is no dummy and he knew exactly what I was trying to tell him. He winked back at me and crawled up the bed until he was kneeling by her head. I bit my lip in anticipation as I watch him stoking his hard cock a foot or so over her face with her eyes screwed shut tightly.

My dad looked at me and I nodded - she was ready. He held his cock and forced it downward until it just touched his niece's lips. She couldn't keep her eyes shut any longer, she had to see what it was touching her. When she saw it was his dick pushing against her lips, her mouth opened to release a gasp which that allowed my dad to quickly push his cock into her mouth. The expression on her face started off as one of surprise but then she closed her eyes again and opened her mouth further for him.

If there was one thing I knew about Tammy, she was truly a born cocksucker of there ever was one. From the moment she first latched onto her brother's cock, she had sought out every chance she could so get it back in her mouth again and as many others as possible as well. This morning it may have been her uncle's cock and she may have been unsure of the situation but once her mouth had a taste of his dick her natural instincts took over and she just had to suck him.

Now I LOVE to suck cock, more than anyone I know. That is, anyone I know except Tammy. The girl was insatiable! Rick was always telling me or my mom how she was in his room every free moment, practically begging him to let her suck his

Her ass felt so small and firm, even in my small hands so I could only imagine how my dad's hands had grabbed it earlier. I pushed my tongue as deeply as I could in her and then pulled it out and played wither clit, running over it with the flat of my tongue and then running circles around it with the tip. Tammy began to pant harder and faster and then her body went rigid as her back arched and she grabbed my head and pushed it into her crotch.

"That's it, make me cum... oh I'm cumming Kelly... Oh I love this!" she cried out.

I could taste her cum mixed with the remain of my dad's cum that was being flushed out of her as she orgasmed into my mouth. It didn't last long, I think she was getting close to exhaustion at this point. Finally she just slumped and laid motionless in bed, eyes closed and gasping for air. Gradually she calmed down and I laid alongside of her, hugging her close to me. Her naked body felt so hot against mine, it was like she had a fever!

Tammy turned on her side and pressed in tightly against me, burying her face in my breasts with her arms around me underneath mine. She began to sob and I pulled back a little to see what was wrong.

"Tammy?" I asked, "Are you OK?"

Tammy's whole body was shaking now as she cried and held on tightly to me. I was starting to be genuinely concerned when she lifted her head back and smiled at me.

"Oh Kelly, I feel so wonderful," she said between sobs, "I can't believe how incredible I feel right now!"

I looked over my shoulder at my parents who were holding each other now. My dad's cock was flaccid now but it still looked as delicious as ever and under different circumstances I would be sucking it hard again for another round. Right now I was happy just hugging my young cousin, happy knowing her first time was something she would always remember with wonder and joy.

We must have all laid there like that for another ten or fifteen minutes when dear old mom, ever the practical one, spoke up.

"You know, I hate to say this but if you and Tammy don't get back soon, someone may notice and this could be a little hard to explain to her mom."

I understood what she was saying, I could just imagine the reaction my Aunt Shari would have if she were to walk in right now! Tammy was about to fall asleep so

I shook her gently and helped her get her T-shirt back on. I put mine on as well and after reaching over to kiss my Mom and Dad, I started to help her from the cabin.

"Tammy!" my dad called out. Tammy and I turned back and my dad smiled at her. "Thank you Tammy, I will never forget what we did this morning."

Tammy smiled and blew him a kiss. "Me neither Uncle John... thank you."

The two of us scurried back across to our cabin and went inside. I shut the door behind us and when I turned back around, to my surprise there was Rick standing the doorway of his bedroom.

"Well, well," he said, "And just what have you two sluts been up to this early in the morning? Out for a little morning fun?"

I just ignored him but the look on Tammy's face told Rick everything.

"Oh... my... god!" he said, "Do you mean you did it? With who?"

Suddenly his mouth dropped as he finally put everything together which shouldn't have been TOO hard as there weren't many options really for him to consider.

"Noooooo!" he said with an astonished look on his face!

I just gave him a flirty look and directed Tammy back to the bedroom leaving Rick behind. He would undoubtedly start masturbating now, imagining god only knows what about what he thought had happened. The cool thing was that no matter what he might dream up, it wouldn't be as hot as what REALLY happened!

Somehow Kate was still in the exact same spot as when we left. Damn but that girl could sleep through anything! Tammy and I slipped in bed and she fell sound asleep. The poor thing had quite a trip already and I could only imagine how the rest of the weekend would go. I hoped she wouldn't be too sore as I had a feeling my dad would be wanting more before the weekend was over!

Postlude

Tammy was a little sore on Sunday but not enough to stop what turned out to be one of the hottest sexual events of my life - my dad and uncle swapping daughters! But that's another story...

my Uncle Jim knew his son was doing my mom (and me occasionally), he wasn't aware of what I had awakened in his youngest daughter. He knew my dad fucked me but I had never seen any sign from him that he was interested in that type of relationship with his own daughters, and I doubt he knew just how badly my dad wanted to fuck Tammy!

Getting the three of them to have sex with me was a good start but I had bigger ideas. The next "step" in my plan came during Christmas break. I arranged for Tammy to "accidentally" catch her brother fucking me and her natural curiosity took over from there. The first thing I did was to teach her how to do a blowjob although it didn't require much on my part - she proved to be a natural.

Even though she liked to suck Rick's cock, Tammy steadfastly refused to let her brother fuck her. I had to give her a ton of credit for her incredible willpower. She would let him rub his erection against her pussy and even allowed him to cum on her but when it came to penetration the answer was always the same - a solid NO.

You can imagine how Tammy's refusal to let him fuck her was driving Rick nuts at times but he wasn't complaining TOO much given her skill at blowjobs. As it turned out, Tammy loved sucking cock as much as I do which made her quite popular with his friends to say the least.

Of course, Rick wasn't the only guy that wanted to fuck Tammy as she matured and developed. As I mentioned before, my dad masturbated regularly dreaming about doing her and there were times when she would put on her skimpy little bikini and parade around in front of him that I thought he was going to burst through his pants!

It didn't bother me or make me jealous in the least that my dad wanted Tammy in that way. One of my deepest regrets in life is that I did not give myself to my dad for my first time so I thought that maybe if I helped him to realize his dream with Tammy that maybe it might atone for what I had denied him. It didn't matter to me that technically it wasn't my fault, since I had no idea at the time he wanted me, but I still felt guilty about it - and still do somewhat to this day.

So this was how things went until this summer. The relationships were complicated, to say the least, and it wasn't exactly what I would call the best of situations. The most difficult part concerned my Aunt Shari, one of the most uptight and sexually repressed woman I have ever known. She would have killed the lot of us if she ever had an inkling of our activities! Kate, the middle daughter, was a clone of her mom and there had been several times when she almost caught us fooling around. She was probably going to be a virgin AFTER she got married so you can imagine the attitude she wore on her sleeve regarding premarital sex.

When discussing incest I tell people that I believe everyone on the family should be involved for it to work and here I was, violating my own rules. I guess the fact that we had long-term, mature incestual relationships on my mom's side that we thought we could deal with the issues on my dad's side. So far it seemed to be working but only time would tell.

Tammy had turned fourteen at the end of June and her new bikini revealed how much she had grown up over the past year. Needless to say, this just made my dad even hornier for her. When the opportunity came during an overnight waterskiing trip to the lake, he didn't hesitate to make his dream come true and so he took her virginity - with a little help from me of course! Even my mom, as concerned as she was about the whole thing, pitched in to help.

That's what made it so wonderful for me - the fact that I got to be there when my dad became Tammy's first. I kept thinking the entire time as I watched them how much I wished it had been like that for MY first time; but at least now I had done this for my dad and I hoped he would forgive me for what I had done - or not done as it were. What I had NOT anticipated in earlier fantasies was that my mom would be there as well. While I can't say she overly enthusiastic about what happened, I think she felt better being there to be sure everything went OK. She was very protective of Tammy, just as she always was with me.

One of the side effects of all this was that Tammy now knew about me and my parents. This reduced the number of secrets I was keeping considerably, making life easier in many ways. Keeping a secret is hard and stressful at best. On the other hand. it was one thing for Tammy to know her brother was fucking me, for some reason that didn't surprise her at all. Finding out that her dad was fucking me was a little more of a stretch but I think she was more concerned that he was cheating on her mom than she was about him fucking me. She really couldn't say anything about an uncle doing his niece - after all, she had just given her virginity to her own uncle. However, it WAS a big deal for her to learn that my dad was doing me.

For a father to have sex with his daughter was a totally new concept to Tammy, one she had never even considered before - at least not regarding "normal" people. I could understand her confusion over it. In fact, I'd felt much the same way when I was her age. The idea of having sex with my dad never even crossed my mind when I never done them both together and looking at them now I couldn't help but wonder which I would prefer to suck while the other was fucking me.

After the initial shock my aunt dealt with the situation by simply ignoring me the rest of the day. She didn't even speak to me which was fine with me. Rick was super horny, like always, but today my interest wasn't so much in him. Today all I was thinking about was what had happened early in the morning and where things might be going as a result.

It's not like all I did all day was dream about sex - we also had a lot of fun. I love being out on our boat and waterskiing is the only sport I excel in - other than sex. It was thrill for me when I was out slaloming and showing off. Most people these days don't seem to want to take the time to learn to ski so they just jump on a tube and get pulled around. Tubes are fun but skiing is so much more!

Water skiing also gives me an opportunity to show off in other ways as well. I have to wear a life vest so my top is covered but my bottom is on display for everyone to watch once I get up on the ski. I love the way guys look at me when we pass them and they get a good look at my all but bare ass. In some cases they probably have to look twice to see if I am wearing ANYTHING at all on my bottom given the way my thong pulls up my ass and the front is so small. I have gone out topless at times when I am just with my parents but that was more for my own thrill since the life vest covers me up.

My cousins can't ski although they did try a few times so most of the time we just tubed. As the day wore on the sun was hot and people would tradeoff between staying on shore for a break and going out on the boat so we had a constant mix of riders on board. My dad drove so he was always out but other than that all of us stayed behind at some point or another. It gave me an opportunity to lay out on the dock and work on my tan - not to mention draw the attention of every guy that went by! My mind was so occupied with thoughts of my dad and Tammy that I wasn't even thinking about flirting too much with them but I still couldn't help but enjoy the way they looked at me.

At one point the combination worked out that the parents were out on the boat and the kids (including me) were left behind. After they left the dock Rick came up to me with a sly grin. I had a pretty good idea what was on his mind and as it turned out I was right on target!

"I'm so fucking horny for you... let's go fuck," he whispered in my ear.

I motioned with my eyes toward his sister Kate. Kate was the middle child and unlike her siblings, took after her mom 100%. Whereas Tammy was the "bad" daughter by wearing a revealing bathing suit, Kate was the "good" daughter with her one-piece suit that as conservative as they come.

If there was one thing I knew for sure, it was that Kate would be a virgin until she was married and might even be one AFTER she got married for all I knew. She was cute but I guess being the older daughter she was closer to her mom whereas Tammy seemed to have to rebel for attention.

"So what - who gives a crap about her?" Rick said in a low voice to me.

I just rolled my eyes and gave him an exasperated look. This was the problem with doing what we did without the entire family being involved. If Kate ever even suspected that Rick was fucking me she would certainly tell her mom immediately who then would go ballistic. I wished my aunt would just take the position that my grandmother had with my grandfather and my mother. She was never involved with incest but at the same time she didn't stop her husband and daughter from doing whatever they wanted. I really didn't care if my aunt ever wanted to get involved, I just wished she could know about it, ignore it, and allow us to do what we enjoyed.

Rick put his hand on my bare bottom and squeezed before I could react.

"God I love the way your ass looks in that thong," he whispered in a husky voice that I knew was filled with nothing but lust for me. Even though sometimes I would tease him and pretend to push him away, I actually loved it when he grabbed my ass but at the same time there WERE issues with all the people around us.

I grabbed his hand and pulled it away. "Dammit Rick, you know better!" I hissed at him, maybe a little too loudly. Kate was not that far away and for a moment I thought she had seen and or heard what was going on between Rick and me but she was too busy talking to Tammy and didn't appear to be even interested in the two of us.

"Well, why the hell do you wear your 'fuck me' outfit then if you're not going to put out?" Rick whined.

"To tease guys like you!" I answered with a naughty grin.

"Well, you're doing a pretty damn good job," he griped. He turned away muttering something about me being a "cock-teasing slut". What could I say, he was right!

Striking out with me, I watched as he went up to Tammy and whispered something in her ear. I couldn't hear but I had a darn good idea what he was telling her. To my surprise, Tammy grinned at him and Rick smiled in return. Kate and I joined them at the end of the dock and Rick announced he was going to take a nature break. I teased him, asking why he didn't just go in the lake when he was out the last time. Rick ignored me and headed off. Tammy then announced she needed to go as well and ran off to join him, leaving me and Kate behind.

"Well, just you and me girl," I said to Kate as we took a seat on a picnic table near the dock. We chatted about school and church and the day in general. It was just small talk as Kate and I really didn't have much in common and I knew she looked down at me for being a slut, just as her mother did.

It has never really bothered me when close-minded people like her think badly about me. They're entitled to their opinions and if anything, it made me feel good knowing I was hot enough to make them look at me that way. I doubt they understood that calling me a slut was a compliment so far as I am concerned!

About fifteen or twenty minutes had gone by and still no sign of Rick or Tammy. Kate was looking in the direction of the restrooms, obviously wondering what was taking them so long. Finally she huffed, her cheeks pushing out as she let out a long breath.

"What in the world is taking them so long?" she said, more to herself than to me.

Well, I knew EXACTLY what it was but it wasn't something I could tell Kate. Another five minutes went by and she was getting restless and about to go looking for them when the two missing siblings finally appeared in the distance. Rick was grinning like a moron while Tammy was keeping a straight face and didn't say a word as they approached.

"What happened, did you fall in?" Kate teased.

Rick waved her off and Tammy motioned for me to come over by her. Facing me with her back to Kate, she opened her mouth and it was all I could do to keep a straight face and not react. Tammy shut her mouth and gulped down the cum that she had just shown me, licking her lips like a cat after drinking a bowl of milk. She grinned at me mischievously and twirled around, her blonde ponytail flying out straight as she did. I didn't say a word but when I looked at Rick he just winked at me and I shook my head at him as if to say I couldn't believe they had done that.

Just then I heard the boat coming back and Kate ran down to the dock, leaving us behind.

"I can't believe you blew him!" I exclaimed to Tammy, "Where in the world did you do it and not get caught?"

With Kate gone Tammy was now looking like the cat who just ate the canary except instead of feathers coming from her mouth she still had a little cum to swallow. Rick was obviously quite pleased with himself as he explained quickly while we walked down to join Kate.

"Yep, she sucked me right in the stall like a good little slut - that's my sister!" he said, patting her on the head.

"Oh Kelly, it was soooooo cool," Tammy blurted out. "Someone came in right when he was cumming and it felt so hot sucking him knowing they were right outside the door!"

I knew from a similar experience just how erotic such a thing could be so I understood how excited she must have been feeling. Sucking dick is ALWAYS fun but when you add an element of risk or danger it makes it just that much better.

We reached the dock which forced an end to our conversation as our parents got out of the boat. I was surprised they had come back so quickly but I soon learned why when my aunt stumbled out of the boat. Evidently whatever she had eaten had not agreed with her and she was feeling sick to her stomach after bouncing around on the waves so they had returned to let her get back on dry land again.

My dad said something about taking the boat out of the water but my aunt protested, saying she didn't want to ruin everyone's day and that she would feel better if she just laid down for a while back in her cabin. My mom graciously offered to stay back with her so the rest of us could go out again.. Nobody was surprised when Kate announced she would stay to attend to her mom as well.

Tammy and I got in the boat and Rick was about to join us when his dad held up his hand.

"Rick, you stay back and make sure your mom's OK," he told him, "I would feel better if there was a man around. Besides, we're low on gas so this will be the last time out and I need you on shore to help your uncle take the boat out when we get back."

Rick looked frustrated but he knew better than to argue with his dad. He still couldn't resist a mild huff which his dad just ignored and as we left the dock we watched the four of them heading back to the shore. He couldn't complain TOO much though, not after just getting his dick sucked by his cock-hungry little sister.

didn't mind because it meant each was always trying to prove to the other who could fuck me better.

To be perfectly honest, my uncle's technique was a little better than my dad's but there was one thing my uncle could never offer me - my father's cock. It was fun to let my uncle fuck me, especially since he was married and I knew he loved fucking me more than my stuck-up aunt, but he really wasn't that much different than fucking anyone else in terms of emotions. THAT was the department where my dad held all the trump cards. There was nothing in the world that compares to the feeling I get when I feel my father entering me and knowing that we are literally transforming from being just a normal father and daughter to joining physically and emotionally together to become as one.

When my dad cums in me and gives me that sacred part of himself to keep inside of me, it is simply the single most incredible act of love and respect that he can do for me. My uncle was like any other man in that he just got off cumming in me because it felt good; whereas my father did it out of love and respect for me. That didn't mean I didn't enjoy having my uncle fuck me - not at all! It was just that while he could certainly deal with my physical desires, he could never fulfill my emotional needs.

I put one foot up on the seat with my other still on the deck which displayed my pussy even better for my uncle as he advanced toward me. Tammy took his seat up front next to my dad and turned to watch. I could only imagine what must have been going through her mind at this moment, seeing her own father approaching her older cousin, knowing full well what his intentions were for her.

Well, if there was any doubt at all about those intentions they must have disappeared as he dropped his swim trunks and stepped out of them, standing there totally nude in the center of the boat. Our boat is pretty deep and so it would have been pretty difficult for anyone to see him from the waist down unless they were right next to us but it was still awesome to see my uncle standing there with a massive erection while we idled along on the lake in broad daylight!

Tammy was watching as well and I realized that this was probably the first time she had ever seen her dad nude, not to mention with his dick sticking out like a missile prepped for launch! The same thought must have struck my uncle at the same time because he turned to his daughter with a look of uncertainty, as if he wanted her approval.

"Well, what do you think of your old man now?" he asked her with a grin.

"Well, if you insist, then I guess I'll have to do it," my uncle joked with my dad.

He looked at me and held his cock in his hand, slowly stroking it right in front of me. "Well Kelly, are you ready for some of this?" he asked me.

What did he expect me to say? Of course I was so I didn't bother saying anything and just gave him a nasty grin. Not only was I was ready for it, I'd been thinking about him fucking me all day!

Leaning forward. I took his cock from his hand and started to stroke it with my own hand. He felt so warm and hard! His crotch was covered in thick pubic hair which blended in with the hair on his stomach and legs. I rubbed his cock head against my chin and cheeks and gave him a quick kiss on the tip of the head.

"Alright, Alright... quit teasing me slut and suck it," my uncle commanded me.

I grinned up at him and with our eyes locked together I took his cock in my mouth and sucked it hard, stroking it in and out of my mouth without taking my eyes away from his. Uncle Jim groaned and leaned forward, pulling my head into him with both hands.

"God damn it that feels so fucking good!" he groaned out load. I glanced to the side and could see other boats on the lake. They were all a good ways off and so long as they didn't have binoculars, I was sure they couldn't tell what was going on, not that I really cared to tell the truth. In fact, it would've been pretty hot if someone DID see us! I loved to be watched so what would be the harm?

My uncle maneuvered his way to where he was sitting on the cushions next to me. I leaned over and kept his dick in my mouth, not letting it slip out even once in the process. As good a blowjob as I was giving him, it wasn't what my uncle was craving. He wanted to fuck me. Not just fuck me though, he wanted to fuck me in front of my dad!

Even the idea of fucking me in front of my dad wasn't what I think was really getting him horny now. It was the idea of fucking me in front of his daughter that seemed to be foremost on his mind. I wondered if he had any thoughts of fucking her as well? I couldn't see how he could NOT but you never knew, some men are funny about that. I've been with fathers who loved fucking young girls and fantasized about their daughters but in real life they would never actually do it. Somehow I didn't think my Uncle Jim fell in this category but until it actually happened I couldn't say for sure.

"Get up here and sit on my dick," he demanded.

Dutifully I started to climb on him so I would be facing him but he grabbed me by the hips and spun me around.

"Nope, I want you to see them," he said, "I want you to face them while you show them both what a fucking little slut you are."

I wasn't sure what my uncle was thinking but if it made his day then so be it. It didn't bother me at all to see Tammy and my dad watching me get fucked – both of them had already anyway. I WAS interested in watching Tammy though because this wasn't her brother fucking me now, but rather her dear old dad. Her face was a constantly changing mirror of her emotions as I stood between her dad's legs and lowered my pussy down onto his cock.

I sighed as my uncle's stiff cock pressed further and then forced its way into me. With my legs close together like this it made my pussy even tighter than usual and his cock was straining to find its way into my resisting pussy hole. It's not like I WANTED him not to violate me, it was just the way I was down there. I loved it because the harder it was for him to enter, the better it felt when my pussy finally surrendered and opened up for him.

Such was the case this time as suddenly it was like my pussy waved a white flag and the head of his cock expanded my cunt and forced its way into me. God he felt so big in me! My pussy felt like it was being stretched open and a surge of pleasure erupted from between my legs which spread upward through the rest of me as his cock went deeper and deeper inside of me.

My ass was finally sitting on his lap and I looked down to see his cock as it disappeared inside of me. It was always fascinating for me to look between my legs when a man was fucking me and actually SEE the cock I was feeling inside of me moving in and out of me. For some reason it was just intriguing to see a part of him actually penetrating me and at the same time feeling it up inside of me. I wasn't the only one interested in seeing me being fucked.

I looked up and saw my dad and cousin were just as mesmerized at the sight as I was. Tammy saw me looking at her and a broad grin broke out on her face.

"So what do you think Tammy?" I called over to her, "What's it like seeing your daddy fuck me?"

Oh yeah, she liked it! The little vixen was getting turned on more by the minute as evidenced by the hand that had slipped between her thin legs. She was rubbing herself through her bikini bottom and I could actually see the wet spot where she was soaking though it already!

I turned my attention back to my own pussy and the incredible feelings I was experiencing having my uncle fuck me. I have always maintained that sex is 20% physical and 80% mental and this was just proving my theory. I had fucked guys in just this way dozens of times yet for some reason it was more of a turn-on now than ever. It was easily explained - I wasn't just being fucked in some hotel room all alone with some horny guy, not at all!! No, I was being fucked by my uncle AND being watched by my own father and young cousin!

While my uncle may not have been my father, there was still something about fucking him knowing my Aunt Shari was back on shore without a clue in the world what her husband was doing to me! The entire setting was erotic in every way - boats driving by and waving to us without a clue that I wasn't just sitting on his lap but being screwed by him as well! None of them came so close as to be able to see I but it was still wild just the same.

Knowing my dad, it surprised me that he could just sit there and watch me being fucked. In the past when he watched my uncle fucking me he would at least masturbate or show some sign he was turned on. Today he must have been too occupied with driving the boat as he didn't openly respond other than to watch as much as he could.

It must have been getting to him, though, as he turned into the next inlet. The waterway made a bend and after turning he nosed the bow of the boat against the shore such that we were facing the lake but with some trees and brush between us. Even then, someone would have had to come in the inlet as well to see clearly what we were doing. Turning off the engine, he stood up and stretched. I was still bouncing on Uncle Jim's cock, just having a good time. I could have gone on all day like this but unfortunately men have their limits.

"Slow down girl," my uncle warned me, "We don't want to rush things here."

I didn't just slow down, I stopped and sat down on his lap with his dick up in me. Needless to say, it was impossible for me to keep completely still with the feeling of him in my lower abdomen so I would wiggle and squirm just enough to feel him move slightly in me.

lined up his cock with her little pussy hole and I saw his butt clench as he thrust his dick forward. There was just a moment of resistance but he pushed harder and quickly he was in her. He pushed about half his cock into her and then just held it there, letting her grow accustomed to it again. So far it had gone easier than this morning and I had no doubt it was because Tammy was so much more turned on at the thought of being fucked in front of her dad.

"God Jim, she's so fucking tight!" my dad groaned.

I turned my head around to my uncle and winked. He got the idea and we stood up together such that he stayed in me as I took a position next to my cousin. Now both fathers were fucking the other's daughter side by side. I looked at Tammy next to me and we both smiled and then we reached out to kiss one another. It was to keep together though as our dads were each fucking us to their own rhythm so we were being pushed and pulled out of sync with one another.

"This is SO fucking incredible!" my uncle exclaimed, "God damn it John, I can't believe we're doing this!"

"Better than doing the sisters?" my dad responded. Tammy looked confused but I knew he must have been talking about my mom and her sister. Tammy didn't know about what my dad and I did with my Aunt Linda – at least not yet.

"Shit, that was NOTHING compared to this," Uncle Jim said, starting to pant as he fucked me using a continuous rhythm.

"Yeah, I guess not many guys get to fuck each other's daughter," my dad said, laughing at his own joke.

It was true though. I could say something similar as well. How many girls get to be fucked by their uncle – with their own father fucking their cousin right next to them? I was loving it just as much as they were and from the look on her face, so was Tammy.

It was all so erotic I can't describe in words what it was like to be in this situation. In the calmness of the lake I could literally hear them fucking us, their crotches slapping up against our asses, our pussies sounding so wet as their dicks worked their way in and out of us, the dirty things they said to us as they fucked us. But most of all I felt my uncle's dick fucking me, that wonderful, incredible sensation of a man's cock as it moved in and out of me, stimulating me in ways nothing else can, in places nothing else can. I could be fucked 24 hours a day and STILL not be satisfied!

were animals while they were fucking me and then cried afterwards as they realized what they had done and how no matter what they ever did, their act of adultery could never be taken back. I had a feeling once my uncle's sperm count revived he would looking to fuck Tammy again! For now I just had to get her through this without screwing her head up completely.

"Damn! Look at the time. We better head back before they send out a search party for us!" my dad said.

We all quickly slipped on our bathing suits, not that it took much time to do that, and my dad pulled us away from shore and headed back out across the lake. Tammy was sitting next to me and I had my arm around her. She looked dazed and confused as I tried to explain to her why her father had reacted the way he had.

Indeed, to confirm my theory he was already rebounding and had stopped talking to himself about what he had done and was back to bantering with my dad about everything. He looked back and saw the two of sitting there and the look on his daughter's face. Leaving my dad to drive, he came back to us and sat on the opposite side of Tammy and hugged her.

"Sorry baby, I don't know what got into me," he consoled her. "I love you and I just want what's best for you."

"But why are you so sorry you had sex with me?" Tammy said in a tearful voice. "You seemed to like fucking Kelly. Wasn't I good enough for you?"

"Oh baby, baby," he said, hugging her tight, "You were incredible! I mean my god, did you see how hard I came? YOU did that to me, not Kelly."

Tammy brightened up a little at that but she still didn't seem completely convinced. She looked at her dad and asked, "Do you want to do it again with me?"

Uncle Jim kissed her on the forehead and replied, "We will someday baby, we will. For now we have to keep this between us though, OK?"

I knew what he meant, that she shouldn't be telling anybody, including Rick. Rick was a typical eighteen year old horny boy and if he knew his dad was fucking his sister, I doubted he would kept the secret very long. There was no way she would tell her mom, he didn't have to tell her that. By the time we had reached the dock everyone seemed happy again and Tammy was the first to jump out when we were tied up. She ran to her mom who apparently had recovered and was waiting for us and gave her a big hug.

"Gee, where in the world did you guys go off to?" my aunt asked. "I was expecting you back a half hour ago! Everything OK?"

my sexual history is that I didn't give my virginity to him. Helping him to take Tammy's, who was the same age as me when I lost mine to my boyfriend, made me feel better, as if I had somehow wiped an unpaid debt from the books.

One of the key questions in my mind now was what would happen now between Rick and Tammy - if anything. Rick was just your typical horny teenage boy so it didn't take much for me to convince him to fuck me just over a year earlier. Although I had played around a little Tammy even before Rick, it had been relatively harmless. I was as surprised as anyone when she "caught" Rick and me going at it during Christmas break and instead of turning us in to their uptight mother, she actually let me teach her how to give a blowjob - with her brother as my teaching aid! Her older sister Kate was like her mother - a complete prude, and I think it was more rebellion on Tammy's part than sexual drive that drove her it.

From what the two of them told me, she'd been sucking her brother's cock almost daily ever since, not to mention those of most of his friends as well. Tammy obviously loved sucking cock but despite their pleading and begging, she had been adamant in refusing to allow any of them to penetrate her in the slightest which must have drove them nuts!

To make it worse for the guys, Tammy just seemed to be born with everything it took to be the perfect cock teaser. She let them lick her pussy and touch it. She would let them rub their cocks against her bare pussy, even let them rub it up and down her wet slit. All that sort of stuff was fine, they were even allowed to cum on her but the moment any of them started to press up against her pussy hole she stopped them dead in their tracks.

I can only imagine how many times Rick must have masturbated as he dreamed of fucking his little sister. My biggest fear had been that one day he would just rape her to get it over with. They could be such intimate siblings sometimes, such as when he was on top or her and rubbing the length of his hard cock along her wet pussy slit, that it wouldn't have taken much for him to do it so I had to give him some credit for not taking advantage of his sister in that way.

Now that Tammy had lost her virginity and realized that all the horrible results that her mother had tried to brainwash her wish had never happened, would she allow them to fuck her as well or stick with the blowjobs? Rick knew she wasn't a virgin anymore as well as who had taken it but that was all. What he still did NOT know, at least so far as I knew, was that his own dad had already gotten what he had been wanting so desperately - to have sex with Tammy.

From my own perspective, now that she had been fucked by both of our dads and realized how good sex really was, Tammy had little basis for refusing her brother's desires other than to just be mean to her older brother. I thought Rick was actually quite handsome and a pretty good hunk of an eighteen year old. I really enjoyed it when he fucked me, as did my mom who had been with him a lot more than me, so it wasn't like Tammy needed to worry about whether or not he would be any good.

Of course, as I mentioned Tammy might not let her brother fuck her just on principle alone. I've witnessed a number of sibling rivalries and fights but it would be the cruelest blow I'd ever heard of if she started fucking other guys and still refused him!

There was just something about that look in her eyes when she was having sex that I left me with no doubt that she was going to be quite the little slut. She was probably already craving her next fucking so with a hunk of a brother at her disposal virtually any time she wanted it, why not take advantage of the situation?

I often wondered what it would be like to have a brother who could do me any time either of us wanted it. True, my dad did me a lot but that I would think it would be a lot different to be fucked by your brother than your dad. With my dad it is more me being a good daughter who is trying to satisfy her father's most intimate desires and needs. With a brother I would think it would just be fun!

2. Sibling Debates

It was an uneventful Tuesday and I was being lazy, laying around in bed until almost noon. My dad had awakened me just before 5:30 AM and I was so tired at the time that I could barely remember him fucking me before he left for work. One thing I knew, it wasn't a dream - the evidence had dried on my pussy and sheets. Unfortunately, I was still recovering from the weekend and trying to be responsive at that early of an hour was just too much to ask. From the evidence left behind, obviously my dad didn't mind fucking me while I was all but asleep and unresponsive!

In any case, I drifted back off to sleep immediately after he left and now it was almost mid-day and I still hadn't even gotten out of bed yet!

I was finally awakened once and for all when my cell phone rang. I wasn't going to answer it until I saw it was my cousin Tammy calling. She was excited about something and was calling to ask if she and Rick could come over to my house for a while since she knew I was home alone. I guess that my mom must have told her mom who told Tammy. Anyway, she was going to tell her mom that they were going to go to the mall for a while but she hinted at other plans that they would tell me about when they got to my house. Naturally I was curious so I told her it was fine with me.

When I hung up I finally rolled out of bed to get cleaned up before they arrived. While I was in the shower I made sure to make an extra effort when I shaved my pussy and legs as something told me that they weren't coming over to watch TV.

I debated quite a bit over what to wear and decided the less and looser the better. My old pair of gym shorts were so baggy that when I sat down in them or laid down on my stomach they allowed a pretty good view up the legs and then you know where further up. A tube top is always a good choice when you want to make sure someone has easy access to your boobs so I slipped on a small rainbow- striped one, arranging it so it barely covered my boobs. Besides, it wasn't like either of these two hadn't seen me naked before so what was there to hide!

I pulled my hair back in a ponytail so it would be out of the way. No need for socks or shoes since we wouldn't be leaving the house. I splashed a little Charlie on my neck and pussy (what I can I say, my mom got me hooked on it). A quick final check in the mirror and I headed downstairs to wait for them. I decided to hang out on the deck since I could hear when their car pull in and not be surprised.

Heading downstairs, I grabbed a glass of water as I passed through the kitchen and then opened the door at the rear of the kitchen leading to our deck. Since our house was on a typical Pittsburgh hill, the garage was at the rear of the house and actually level with the basement thanks to the steep slope. Our deck essentially formed a roof over the garage so it was quite large - the same area as our two-car garage. We kept some outdoor furniture out most of the time and today the chaise lounge beckoned me so I fell back into it and closed my eyes to keep out the sun.

It wasn't the clearest of warmest of summer days but even with a little cloud cover the sun was still bright enough to make me wish I'd brought out my sunglasses. Fortunately it was still plenty warm out, even if you couldn't hardly see any shadows, enough to warm the cushion on the lounge chair so when I laid back on it I could feel the heat against my back and legs.

From where I was I could see the top of our driveway and still no sign of Tammy and Rick. Well, where were they? I started to think of all the possible reasons

My pussy was getting so wet, just like it had while my dad and uncle had fucked me over and over throughout the weekend. Without really thinking about it, I slipped my tube top down to free my boobs after which I started to play with my nipples with one hand while I used the other to play with my clit. My eyes were shut tight and I was getting so close to my orgasm when suddenly I heard a noise from the house and the door to the deck burst open. I hadn't realized how much I had shut off the rest of the world while I was masturbating but thankfully Tammy and then Rick appeared.

"Damn girl, couldn't you wait a few more minutes?" Rick teased me.

I just glared at him and pulled my hand from my pussy.

"Whoa! I didn't mean you had to stop," he said.

From the smug expression on his face I could tell he was serious. Typical horny teenage boy - just thinking about himself. He didn't care if I got off so much as he just wanted to watch me get there. Normally I would have treated him to his little fantasy and finished myself off while he watched but Tammy was here and I couldn't wait to talk to her. For some reason, habit I guess, I pulled up my tube top, grabbed my shorts and quickly slipped them on. Soon the three of us were sitting around the glass-topped table on the deck. Rick cranked opened the umbrella even though the sun wasn't all that bright.

"So, what brings the two of you over?" I asked, acting as if I had no idea.

Rick was the first to responds saying, "Well, to be blunt, after this weekend I've been so fucking horny but with mom and Kate around all the time... well there just hasn't been any time to do anything about, if you know what I mean." He looked over at Tammy who actually blushed! Rick continued. "Besides, I have a couple of questions now for you two, and I want the truth - OK?"

Tammy and I looked at each other and then we both turned to look at Rick. We each had our poker faces on and waited for Rick to finish.

"OK, I see neither of you is going to make this easy," Rick said, as the two of us pretended to not have any idea what he was talking about. "Saturday morning, when you two came back in the cabin, you both seemed awfully excited. So Tammy - did Uncle John really fuck you or where you two just trying to tease me?"

Well, I could see that Tammy certainly didn't have a career as a poker player in her future as the look on her face gave everything away in an instant. Rick's eyes opened wide. Somehow, even though he probably fantasized about it, I think he wasn't really convinced it had actually happened. Now that he knew the truth, it was a bit mind-boggling for him. I suppose I could understand, it's not every guy that finds out his sister's first fuck was with her uncle! Then again, it's not every guy whose sister sucks him off whenever he asks either!

Rick quickly regained his composure and continued. "So what happened when you guys went out on the boat with dad and Uncle John on Sunday? I don't buy the 'we just drove around the lake' excuse!"

I was the one to answer this time but instead of confirming his suspicions I answered his question with another question, "So Rick, what do YOU think happened?"

Rick took a deep breath before answering this time. "Well, to be perfectly honest, until just now I figured my slutty cousin and sister were giving out blow jobs to their uncles. Now... well now I can only imagine what went on."

He hesitated for a second, as if unsure he should say something. Then a look of determination came over him and he asked, "Assuming Uncle John fucked Tammy again, God I still can't get use to saying that, did our dad fuck you Kelly?"

I couldn't help but grin at that one. I turned to face Rick directly and then asked in a naughty tone of voice, "So what makes you think you're so special that you're the only guy in your family that gets to fuck me?"

Rick stammered a bit at that but quickly regained his composure. "Well, I didn't mean THAT. So tell me, how long have you been getting laid by my dad?"

I grinned mischievously and replied, "Well, let's just say he's been doing me longer than you have. Besides, you like fucking my mom better than me anyway so what's the big deal?"

Tammy's mouth opened like a bass going for a lure. "You WHAT?" she exclaimed, looking at Rick with eyes wide.

Rick immediately realized what he'd said and tried to downplay his last statement saying, "It's not like it sounds Tammy."

I coughed into my hand with a muffled "bullshit" under my breath and Tammy looked at her brother with her arms folded and demanded in an incredulous tone, enunciating each word slowly, "What? You... fuck... Aunt... Mary?" Rick got defensive and said, "Well, you're screwing Uncle John so what's the difference? Besides, you're only fourteen so don't preach to me."

Tammy glared at him and replied, "Well, my being fourteen never seems to bother when you want your dick sucked." I stepped in before this brother-sister argument got out of hand. "What difference does it make? So you each fuck my parents - what's the big deal?" Rick and Tammy just stayed quiet so I continued, "You know what I think? I think you're jealous Rick."

Rick tried to laugh as if I was talking nonsense. "Oh come on... that's just ridiculous! Tammy's my sister for crying out loud."

"What's THAT got to do with anything?" I responded, "You've been dying to fuck your sister since the first time she blew you and you know it."

Rick didn't answer but his silence spoke volumes. I turned to Tammy who had been quiet during this last exchange. "And as for you, are you going to let your brother fuck you now or just stay a major tease?"

Tammy's nose crinkled up looked like a skunk had just gone off next to us. "Ewwwww - you mean let HIM fuck ME? Earth to Kelly, have you forgotten he's my BROTHER!"

Rick heaved a heavy sigh of frustration. "Oh for crying out loud sis, you've been sucking my dick for months. So what if I'm your brother. What's the big deal anyway?"

Tammy scrunched up her face at him and replied, "I don't know, it's just... different I guess. Sucking your cock is fun and besides, almost all of my friends do it too. I just can't imagine my own brother actually fucking me though. Besides, isn't that incest!"

In my mind I wanted to just scream with frustration. For God's sake, what did she think letting her uncle and dad fuck her was if not incest? Of course, I didn't say it out loud, but it took all the willpower I had to keep it bottled up in me.

In a way, I guess I could empathize with her dilemma. From my own experience, I knew that letting your dad fuck you was something a daughter SHOULD do if for no reason than to respect her father's authority so it was relatively easy for her to rationalize having sex with her dad. On the flip side of the coin, allowing her brother to fuck her probably seemed to be just indulging his perverted lusts and fantasies.

I mean like, it wasn't as if Tammy needed to let her brother fuck her if all she wanted was to have sex. Indeed, that is one area where girls have it all over guys. A girl can get laid virtually at any time so long as she's not overly picky. At her age and with her looks, Tammy could easily get all the sex she wanted. Rick, on the other hand, was probably not getting it or at least not as much as he wanted so being able to screw his own sister would be a dream come true.

In the meantime, Rick had gone back to debating his sister. "Well I hate to be the one to inform you of this, what do you call letting your uncle fuck you if not incest?"

It was Tammy's turn to be defensive but she stuck to her guns. "Silly, that's different and you know it. Like I said, you're my BROTHER and nice girls just don't fuck their brothers."

"Ohhhhhh? But it's OK to blow them?" Rick asked, more as a point in the debate than a question.

"Well, that's not sex," Tammy answered weakly, "besides, everyone does THAT."

"Oh yea, I'm sure that's what Mom would say if she caught you with my dick in your mouth," Rick said as he laughed.

We all laughed at the thought of their mother which helped to break the tension that had been building.

3. Tammy Surprises Her Brother

I decided it was time to move on so I pushed my chair back from the table and stood up between the two of them.

"Well, on THAT note, you two didn't come over here to debate so let's quit wasting time and have some fun!" I said.

Rick laughed and pointed at Tammy saying, "Sounds like a GREAT idea - get over here sis and suck my dick."

"Say please," she taunted him.

Rick reached over and grabbed her, pulling her up against him. "What do you mean saying I have to say please, you little slut? I think YOU should be the way saying please!"

It was crude but yet at the same time I got a kick out of their little banter. I thought about what he had said about their mom catching them and tried to imagine what she would say if she had just heard this exchange between Rick and his sister. If anything, it just made what they did seem all the hotter to me knowing that their prudish mother would go totally ballistic if she even had a clue of what they did behind her back! Tammy grinned and moved over to where Rick as sitting.

"Well, if you want so bad for me to suck it, why are you still dressed?" she said with a sly smile.

Rick didn't need to be told twice and I watched as he quickly stripped off his shorts and sneakers and sat back down again. One look at his hairy crotch was all I needed to verify that he was already hard and my mouth watered as I saw his rigid cock extending from his crotch but Tammy wasn't satisfied.

"I meant everything and you know it," she demanded.

Although Rick sighed in mock exasperation, he quickly pulled off his t-shirt such that he was now sitting there nude. I admired his cut body and no matter how Tammy might have felt about him fucking her, I certainly was open to the idea!

Tammy had this big grin on her face. No matter how she might feel about being fucked by her brother, I knew she LOVED to suck his cock more than any other guy's. Looking at him, I couldn't blame her. There he was, leaning back in the chair with his legs spread apart, his cock rising from his lush pubic hair like a ballistic missile on the launch pad.

It wasn't just Rick's erection that caught my eye. Rick had a nice looking cock too. Some guys just have weird looking cocks with strange colors and covered with birth marks but Rick's was classic, with a large smooth head and a darker ring around his shaft below the head. The rest of him was sleek and smooth and tasted wonderful. For a teenage boy he was also better than average in personal hygiene. I don't mind a little smell of sweat and musk but some guys don't seem to believe in daily showers and can get downright raunchy. Rick was almost always clean and I loved to bury my face in his crotch and take in a deep breath of his pure male scent.

"Now THAT'S what I like to see - a nice hard cock waiting just for me," Tammy teased Rick.

She got down on her knees and reached out to grab his shaft with one hand. As I watched, she slowly began to stroke him and tease him.

"I bet you wish you'd been out on the boat with us, don't you?" she said, winking at me. Without waiting for an answer - it was obvious anyway, she continued, "Uncle John loved the way I sucked his dick; but I love your cock the best."

I sat back down on my chair and watched as my little cousin nestled her way in between her brother's bare legs, never losing her grip on his cock. She rested her arms on his thighs and looked up at him with a smile. "Tell me what you want," she said in a sultry voice.

"God I want you to suck my dick so bad," Rick groaned, "I want to watch you take it all in your mouth."

better access to her fuzzy little cunt. Rick began exploring her pussy with his fingers and eventually got one up inside of her.

"Hmmmmmm, wet already," he commented, "I think somebody's horny."

Tammy just mumbled something but otherwise just let him grope her how he wanted. I didn't mind, I was enjoying the sensation of his cock in my mouth as I knew where it was going to be before long - even if he didn't.

"Turn around and show me your ass," Rick commanded Tammy.

She did as she was told and he pushed her on the small of her back saying, "Now bend over, I want a good view of that little ass and tight pussy. Tammy leaned over until she was lying face down on the table with her feet on the deck. Rick pushed her legs apart and as I looked to the side, I could see her cute little butt with the fuzz of her pussy poking out for us both to enjoy. Rick reached in and pushed his finger up into her, wetting it with her pussy juices. Then he pulled it out and smeared her wetness around her asshole, toying with it around the edges with his fingertip.

"Rick, what the heck are you doing?" Tammy said, turning her head to look behind her.

"Shut up slut," Rick admonished her, "If you're old enough to get screwed, you're old enough to let me play with your ass."

"But Rickkkkkkk!" Tammy whined, "That's so dirty."

"No it's not. Besides, I know you took a shower before we came over," Rick said in reply, "C'mon, spread your cheeks apart for me. Shit, you love showing off your ass any other time."

Despite her earlier protests, she reached behind her with both hands and pulled her butt cheeks apart without another word. Seeing her showing off, I was literally went on hold so far as sucking his cock went. It may have had it about half-way in my mouth, but my attention was focused on what the two of them were doing now. Rick knew I wasn't into anal so he didn't dare ask me to do what Tammy was doing but it seemed he had found someone more compliant to his wishes. I have never understood the fascination guys have with assholes but they seemed to love sticking their fingers and dicks in them. Rick was no different as sure enough, he reached out and pressed his first finger up against her pink asshole until it went in her up to the first knuckle.

"Stop it, that feels weird," Tammy protested.

Other than her words, though, she didn't let go of her butt, let alone do anything else to stop him, which Rick took as her unspoken permission to keep on going. He pressed his finger in further until two knuckles were now up her asshole.

"Owwwwwww, now that REALLY feels weird," Tammy said, a little louder this time. Rick twisted his finger around in her asshole and then pulled it back out to the first knuckle before pushing it back in her again. He paused for a few seconds, as if unsure of whether or not he should continue. Tammy seemed to be quickly adapting to the new sensations though.

"Well, if you're going to do it then do it dammit," Tammy growled. "Don't start and then quit!"

Rick grinned broadly and continued playing with her ass but as he did he looked down at me and used his other hand to push my head down onto his cock more.

"Speaking of starting something and quitting, who told you to stop sucking my cock?" he said harshly to me.

It was typical Rick; he liked to think he was the one in charge when we had sex so I usually indulged his little fantasy but sometime he could be a pain in the neck. In reality, it was ME that held all the power since all I had to do was quit sucking his cock and he would be quickly reduced to begging for more. Oh well, if he wanted to think he was the dominate one, I was more than willing to let him so long as he fucked me good!

After a while more of this I eventually dropped his cock from my mouth and stood up in front of him. Rick looked up at me and grinned, thinking I was going to ask him to fuck me like I usually did after I sucked his cock. Well, it was true he was about to fuck a girl, he just had no idea what I really had planned for him!

"OK Rick, get your finger out of your sister's ass and lay down on the chaise lounge so we take care of you?" I suggested.

Needless to say, he didn't protest and I quickly stripped off my clothes so now all three of us were totally naked out in the open on the deck. Fortunately by being on top of our garage nobody could see us without a telescope on the next hill over. I lowered the back of the chaise lounge until it was flat and then laid out a beach towel over it. Rick sat down and swung his legs up on it and then laid back flat. It was sort of funny the way his cock stood up straight in the air. If the sun had been out we could have used it for a sun dial! As it was, it beckoned for someone to sit on it and so I decided not to keep it waiting any longer than usual.

"I'll ride him while you straddle his face," I told Tammy, taking charge of the situation.

She nodded eagerly and moved to the top of the chair. I lifted my left leg and stretched out over him. It was a bit of a stretch to straddle the chaise lounge but it also spread my legs wide apart making it easier for me to maneuver his cock into me. I was pretty wet from my earlier masturbating and sucking of his cock so he slipped inside without much protest from my pussy. I dropped down on him and sat on his lap, wiggling my butt on his crotch so I could feel his cock moving in me. I held myself up with my hands behind me on his thighs while I lifted my feet up on the lounge chair beside him letting him get a good view of his cock as it disappeared inside of my bare pussy. His cock was being pulled back making it rub hard against my pussy as I rocked on him, forcing him to slip in and out of me just enough to stimulate the inner lining of my pussy.

"Like what you see?" I teased him.

He started to say something but just then Tammy decided she had waited long enough and she pulled herself up over his face. She was too short to straddle the lounge chair so she left her left leg on the deck and just raised her right leg up and over his face, pulling his head to the side of the chaise lounge such that his face was nestled in her fuzzy little pussy. She looked at me with a huge grin on her face as his tongue started to work on her pussy, licking her like a cat with a bowl of milk.

"Feel good?" I asked her.

"Oh yeah!" she said with a giggle, "Tickles a little bit actually."

Tammy started to giggle more and squirm as her brother licked her pussy even faster. In the meantime I was rocking on his cock, letting him slide a little more in and out of me now. I could have gone on all day like this but at some point a thought came to me and I couldn't wait another minute to put it into action. I slipped off his cock and stood up. Tammy looked at me with a question in her eyes.

"Don't stop - I just have to go get something!" I said as I hurried into the house.

I went up to my parents room and quickly rummaged through their dresser until I found what I was looking for. I grabbed it and rushed back down to the deck where I saw Tammy hadn't wasted any time. She had gotten up on the chair and straddled him such that now they were in a 69 with her sucking his cock while he continued his work on her pussy. I should have known she wouldn't be able to resist seeing his cock just standing there without going after it. I watched them silently for a few minutes. I was tempted to go back in the house and get my camera God they looked so hot together! Seeing this young girl on top of an older teenage boy was erotic in and of itself. Knowing she was his sister just made it all the better!

It was obvious that Tammy had been practicing quite a bit as her technique was better than mine when I was her age. Of course, I didn't have an older cousin giving me hints either although my mom did a pretty good job of teaching me how to suck a guy well. As it was, I was so mesmerized by the sight of my cousins getting it on that I just stood in the doorway, playing lightly with myself.

Finally, I knew that if I didn't move on I wouldn't be able to stop touching myself and I had other plans in mind for this afternoon. I licked my pussy finger off and then stepped back out onto the deck.

"OK you two, take a break, I have an idea for a fun game," I announced, "C'mon, get up for just a second."

Neither of them seemed too enthused about pausing for even a minute from what they were doing but reluctantly Tammy lifted her head from her brother's crotch and the two of the stood together to see what was on my mind. Even so, Tammy still had one hand holding her brother's cock, as if she couldn't stand to be separated from it for even a minute. I took the cushion and beach towel off of the chaise lounge and laid them out on the deck.

"There, that's better. That lounge chair is just too hard to get comfy on," I said with a theatrical sigh of relief. "OK Rick, assume the position."

Rick laughed at my poor acting job but he followed my directions and laid down again. I was pleased to see he hadn't softened up one bit but then, that would have been difficult with his sister's hand on him the whole time! Then I then opened my hand to show what I had been hiding since I came back - my dad's sleeping eye shades, the type they give you on airplanes for covering your eyes when you try to go to sleep.

I don't think either of them recognized what they were right away as they had been crumbled up inside of my hand but when I reached down and slipped them over Rick's head, they both murmured as they realized what my plan was. Fortunately, Rick didn't protest as I pulled them down, covering his eyes and effectively blindfolding him. Then he seemed to think about it some more and started to protest but I shushed him and he stayed quiet after that..

"OK, the name of the game is 'Who AM I' and you have to guess which of us is doing something to you," I announced.

Tammy looked at me with a "what are you talking about" look so I explained further. "One of us will do something to Rick and he has to figure out which of us it is."

Rick cut in saying, "And what do I get if I'm right?"

I kicked him gently but enough to let him know he was being a goof. "Frankly, I think the whole game is your reward so just shut up!" I said, grinning at Tammy who was now smiling as she realized what the game was. "OK, you have to be still now and see if you can figure out which of us this is - no hands either!"

I looked at Tammy and silently pointed to myself to indicate to her I wanted to go first. She frowned but nodded in agreement so I quietly kneeled down next to him and kissed him on the lips. He responded and our tongues met briefly before I pulled back and stood up.

Rick licked his lips as if he had just tasted a great dessert and said, "Shit, that was easy - Kelly; nobody tongues me like that."

"Score one for the goofball," I announced.

Tammy raised her hand and I debated whether she could go or me again. Should we try to fool him or would he expect us to swap back and forth or what? I couldn't decide one way or the other so I decided to let Tammy have her way. I nodded and so she was the one to kneel down this time and she gently sucked the left nipple on his chest. She licked it pulled on it with her teeth gently and then sucked it hard like a baby with a nipple on a bottle. I think she would have gone on for quite a while so I tapped her on the back and she reluctantly backed off and stood by me, waiting for his verdict.

"This is too easy - Tammy," he declared.

I asked why he thought so and he responded saying, "Kelly has never been a big fan of sucking my nipples so it had to be Tammy."

I'd never really thought about that before but he was right. I didn't suck a guy's nipples normally unless he asked me too. It's not like I ever sat down and made a conscious decision NOT to, I just never got into it I guess.

The score was now 2-0 in favor of Rick. This called for a new game plan! Tammy indicated she wanted to go again which seemed reasonable as I figured Rick would expect it to be me the next time. This time she remained standing and used her foot to play with his dick. She rubbed it against his stomach under the ball of her foot and then used her toes to run up and down the shaft. Rick didn't even wait for her to finish this time.

why not her brother. If anything, I would bet it would be easier for her to get him to fuck her in the future than her father anyway so why not get started now?

Sure enough, Tammy looked over at me, shrugged and took in a deep breath. I watched closely as she stepped over Rick with one foot on each side of his hips. She started to lower herself down but then stopped and looked at me as if she needed one last push, one more affirmation that it was OK.

I nodded at her and mouthed, "Go for it!".

She rolled her eyes and shook her head as if to tell me she couldn't believe she was doing it but she did anyway. I watched intently as her knees bent and his cock was just inches away from her pussy. It wasn't like she was a virgin anymore so the suspense of her first fuck was no longer there but it was still a "first" in that it was the first time she would be fucking her brother.

Tammy used one hand to spread her pussy apart and the other to hold Rick's cock in position. Fortunately she was still soaking wet from their recent 69 and his head started to pierce her pussy until it stopped about halfway in her. She repositioned herself, this time kneeling on each side of him instead of standing. It was a lot easy to control her decent by starting out lower than it was before.

This time when his cock was stopped by the tightness of her pussy but she grunted softly and pushed herself down hard onto it. Rick even groaned this time as his cock, as hard as it was, started to bend under the strain of pushing into her tight cunt. Tammy was determined, though, and if there was one thing I could say for her, she didn't give up easily. If our dad's cocks could fit into her, his certainly should be able to although I had to say that Rick's cock was as least as large as his dad's.

With another grunt Tammy pressed down hard on her brother's dick and it was like something just gave way as suddenly she dropped down onto his lap and his cock was buried to the hilt inside of her.

I finally took my first breath from the time she had first started taking his dick in her. Damn, Rick was actually fucking his sister after all these months of frustration - and he didn't even know it! How hot was THAT?

"Awful tight today but of course that's Kelly," Rick said, actually a little sad in his tone.

I think he was wishing that somehow his sister was riding him instead of me but he knew that she would never do it - at least , that is what he THOUGHT.

I motioned for Tammy to stay on him and I straddled his face and lowered my pussy down to his tongue. He started to lick me but as soon as his tongue touched my cunt he stopped.

"What the hell?" he suddenly asked.

He ripped off the mask and looked up at me, his eyes wide as saucers. "I thought so but I didn't believe it. It HAD to be Tammy on my face but there's no hair so that meant it was you."

He paused for a second and his eyes even widened further. "If YOU'RE on my face, then who the hell is riding my cock?"

Of course he knew but it was fun to hear him ask anyway. I laughed and moved off to the side so he could look down. He lifted his head and stared at the sight of his cute little sister riding his cock.

"Oh... my... God!" he exclaimed, "Oh yeah, I'm fucking you! God damn I'm fucking my sister! ...Finally!"

He was so surprised and happy at the same time that I couldn't help but laugh at the situation. It was interesting to note the differences between how her father had fucked her compared to her brother. Her dad had actually been a little remorseful immediately after fucking his daughter for the first time. He had seemed unsure as to whether or not what he had done was the right thing for a father to do with his daughter (although it didn't take long for him to reconcile with that).

In contrast, Rick was ecstatic at the realization of what was happening. After all those months of being teased by her, of her letting him get so close yet at the last possible moment denying him, she was finally doing what he had undoubtedly masturbated so many times thinking about - riding his cock!

Tammy was rocking on her brother's dick ever so slowly. She grinned at his outburst and nodded her head at me saying, "Well, you should thank Kelly here, she's the one who convinced me."

I waved her off and shook my head, "Yeah right, like it took a lot of convincing. I knew once you finally got the feel of a cock in that pussy that you wouldn't be turning it down again any time soon - no matter who's it was."

"Well, it DOES feel pretty good," Tammy agreed with a big grin as she rocked harder and faster, "Even if it's my brother's."

"You know Rick, your little sister is becoming quite the little slut, wouldn't you say?"

"Harder!" she barked at him as she rocked back on forth on her elbows and knees. With his sister doing all the work, Rick had been just kneeling behind her and enjoying the ride!

"OK, you asked for it sis," he replied.

With that he suddenly swung his hips forward, almost knocking her down to the deck. He grabbed her by the hips and pulled her roughly back up to him and then banged her again. I started to speak out as I was afraid that he might be hurting her but she turned her head toward me and grinned.

"Oh yeah, now THAT'S the way I like it" she said, "Fuck me hard Rick.. fuck me!"

Well, so much for not wanting her brother to fuck her! Now that she had his cock in her she was singing a different tune, just as I knew she would. From my own experience I know that in almost every case, any worries I had about fucking a guy in a certain location or situation disappeared once his cock was in me. There is something about getting laid that trumps everything! Rick was only Tammy's third guy so she was learning that lesson for herself. As much as she was once positive that she never wanted her own other to fuck her, now she wanted nothing more. I had a feeling that Rick's cock was going to be spending a lot of time in her pussy from now on! Rick wasn't going to be complaining about not getting enough, that's for sure!

As much as I was enjoying the show - and getting myself off in the process, I was getting fed up with being just a spectator. With Tammy on her elbows her face was close to the deck while her ass was pointing up towards the sky. Not only did this make it easier for Rick to screw her, it also gave me an opportunity.

I got up from the chair and sat down in front of Tammy and pushed myself forward so my legs were on each side of her and my pussy was below her face. Grabbing a cushion from the hair, I stuffed it under my bare ass, lifting it higher towards her sweaty face. She quickly took the hint and buried her face in my wet cunt. Her mouth was pressed against my clit and I could feel her pushing into me each time Rick banged into her. I was up on my elbows so I could watch the two of them, Rick pounding her pussy and Tammy was between my legs.

Tammy wasn't able to really concentrate on licking me bit who could blame her? This was only the third time in her life she was getting fucked so if anything I was probably being a bit selfish but then, who could blame me as well? As much as I loved to masturbate, it was always better to have someone else and when that someone was your little cousin, all the better.

"Please," she whispered plaintively.

Rick pushed himself up into her once again, his cock sliding easily into her pussy thanks to the recent lubrication of his sperm. He pushed himself all the way into her and then the two of them just laid still in each other's arms, now coupled together physically as well as emotionally.

"Just stay in me for a while," she whispered to him, "hold me."

Then I watched in amazement as they kissed as I had never seen them kiss before. As far as I knew, they had NEVER kissed passionately before, just a quite thank- you or hello type of kiss so this was a first for them. Had I not known who they were, I would have thought they were boyfriend and girlfriend, maybe even lovers. It was almost too much to believe that only a matter of minutes before they were bickering like a typical brother and sister and now they were hugging and kissing like they were deeply in love, not to mention his cock was buried in her as well!

Damn, did one simple fucking do this? Of course not; I didn't believe for one minute that just the act of fucking her once could have changed everything so drastically. Obviously there had been something there before and she had just been either hiding it or, more likely, subconsciously suppressing her feelings for her brother. Maybe that was why she had been so adamant about not letting him fuck her - she knew how she felt about him and it scared her.

Watching them together, I couldn't help but be a little cynical. I was as positive as I could be that for Tammy, this was truly an emotional moment for her that she would remember for the rest of her life. On the other hand, Rick was a teenage boy and would be willing to do whatever she wanted so long as it meant he could fuck her, even if he had to pretend to put up with an emotional scene such as this one. Maybe I should be giving him more credit but my gut feeling was that all he really wanted was to fuck his sister.

I sighed as my heart reached went out to Tammy. I could only guess at the conflicting flood of emotions that were she was having to deal with. She had been refusing Rick for months. Was it really because she didn't want him or was it just because she didn't want to give her virginity to him? Until now I had thought it was just a brother-sister thing and she just didn't want to let her own brother fuck her. I couldn't have blamed her, it was what society had taught her. Now I was leaning more towards the "not to him" theory where she wanted him, but not for her first time. I wondered who she really had wanted for her "first". I couldn't believe it was my dad, that was something that just happened. Was it her father? Would she ever tell me? Needless to say, I was quite confused at the moment.

The two of them were snuggled up close so I decided to leave them alone for a while and went into the house to use the bathroom. Imagine my surprise when I walked into the kitchen and up from the basement appeared my mom! She explained that she had found someone to work the next shift so she didn't have to put in a double shift. I couldn't understand how I had missed hearing her coming down the driveway but I guess I must have been too engrossed with what had been happening on the deck. She asked me where Rick was as she had seen the car parked in the driveway. I smiled as I knew what she was interested in where he was! Nothing like a little teenage cock after a long day at work to make the weary bones feel better.

Well, she was in for a surprise today! I told her to be quiet and led her to the door leading to the deck. She gasped as she saw the two of them out there. From the way they were laying you could just make out Rick's dick as it disappeared inside of his sister's pussy. My mom looked back at me with a look of total astonishment ion her face. Actually, I wasn't sure why it should be such a surprise after what had happened the previous weekend.

I took her hand and pulled her back into the kitchen. I explained to her everything that happened and I could see from her expressions that she was getting pretty turned on. Tammy had no idea that her brother had been fucking her aunt regularly for some time now and I didn't think that today was the right time to bring her up to speed and my mother reluctantly agreed. Even so, she couldn't totally resist being involved in some way so against my protests she went out onto the deck and stood over the two of them. Rick was the first to notice and he didn't seem to be bothered in the least. On the other hand, Tammy almost freaked when she lifted her head up and instead of seeing me, as I was sure she expected, she saw her Aunt Mary.

"Aunt Mary!" she cried out, "What are you doing here?"

I almost laughed as the answer was obvious - she lived here! My mom was cool and just motioned at Tammy to settle down. Tammy's instinctive reaction was to cover up and with her brother's hard dick in her it wasn't as easy for her to move as she would have liked.

"Don't worry hun," my mom said softly, "It's OK, I just wanted to say hi."

It was such a natural thing for her to say, as if Tammy and her brother had been sitting at the table watching TV or something. What made it seem surreal was that of course, that was NOT the current situation and for my mom to just act as if it was no big deal seemed to calm Tammy down. Rick was looking at her as if he was wondering what she was going to do - maybe even join in? Instead, my mom just smiled, told them to have a good time, and came back to the kitchen where I was watching.

"Damn that is hot!" she whispered to me under her breath.

I wasn't expecting that from her as she was always saying how Tammy was too to be having sex but I guess if her partner was about her age then it was OK. She headed upstairs to her room and I had no doubt one of her toys as about to get a workout! I looked back out on the deck, expecting to see them getting their clothes on and heading back in. To my surprise, instead of stopping they were back at it again! Rick had rolled her over on her back and he was now pumping away in her missionary style. Damn, how much fucking were they going to do, anyway.

I debated what to do for a second and then headed up the stairs to my mom's room. I had a feeling she wouldn't mind some company about now!

my uncle. It was the first, and so far the last, time I ever did a father-daughter "swap"!

As I mentioned, once Tammy lost her virginity it was like a dam had burst and events seem to flood during the course of the next week. The following Tuesday, just two days after Tammy's cherry-busting weekend, Rick and Tammy came over to my house. My assumption was that we would do our "usual" thing where Rick would fuck me while Tammy and I played together and both of us would suck him off. It would be a gross understatement to say that things didn't turn out that way, not at all!

Apparently, Tammy's reluctance to having her brother fuck her had disappeared along with her virginity. It was similar to how it was back when she first started sucking cock - once she got started she couldn't get enough of it. Well, I could understand how she felt - I felt the same after my first time with my boyfriend. The difference was that for me, I only fucked Steve at first and nobody else until Steve moved away. Tammy had already been fucked by her uncle and father, something that I didn't do until I'd been having sex for a couple of years, so I guess it was only natural for her to expand her horizons faster than I had.

To finish the story, by the time they left for home, Rick had FINALLY fucked his little sister. What was interesting to me was that once Rick fucked his sister, it was as if someone waved a magic wand and it changed their entire relationship. When I had watched my dad fuck Tammy, she clearly enjoyed it but I could tell that it was just a physical thing for her. With her father, she responded to his needs and lust just as any "good" daughter should, but it was clear that it was more for her dad than her. When Rick fucked her there seemed to be something more, a new connection between them. It wasn't love in any sort of kinky way, but it was still something quite emotional. When they left I couldn't help but think that things were certainly going to be different from now on.

I was right.

"together" than ever before. Since then, Kristen and I played around quite a bit and even shared my dad a few times.

I was sipping from a can of Diet Coke when Kristen shifted in her chair and gave me "the look", meaning she had something serious to say and I needed to pay attention.

"So tell me Kelly... when were you planning to tell me how you convinced Tammy to let your dad do her first?"

I almost choked on my drink as it was certainly not the type of question I Had expected. Where in the world had she come up with THAT? How did she find out so fast?

"Oh don't act so surprised silly goose. Come on, you didn't think what you've been doing this past week was going to stay a secret forever, did you?"

I had no idea where she had gotten her information or how much she knew so I figured I'd better play it safe for the moment. Kristen was a master at the art of interrogation and for all I knew she only had a hint from some rumor and was fishing for details.

"Oh? And just what have I been doing that's so special?" I asked innocently.

"C'mon Kelly, spill it. NO? ...Let's see if I got it right, your dad fucks her for the first time Saturday morning, then you and your dad go out on the lake for a 'father-daughter' getaway with her and her dad, then just yesterday the little vixen FINALLY puts out for her horny brother. God, I thought she would never let him do that. So... did I miss anything?"

Well, she certainly had her sources, that was for sure!

"Well, I guess it WAS pretty hot seeing her and Rick finally going all the way," I confessed.

"Yeah, I bet that was cool but it must have been wild seeing your dad and then her dad doing her. What's with that anyway? Your dad wouldn't do us until we were sixteen and then he goes off and does his fourteen year-old niece."

"What's the matter, jealous of your cousin?" I teased her.

Kristen just rolled her eyes at me. I wasn't being exactly sympathetic. Really, it wasn't like the little slut wasn't getting fucked whenever she wanted it.

"Noooooo, I'm jealous of YOU!" she said accusingly. "You've been keeping Tammy for yourself and not even giving me a whiff at her."

"Oh well, sorry about that," I replied, even though I really wasn't.

Truth was, it felt sort of good having Tammy for myself and not letting Kristen in on it. At least for now that is. It seemed Kristen was always one-upping me in the sexual escapades department and this was one time I had something that she wasn't doing more of or earlier in her "career".

"I'm sure she knows what a slut you are, after all, doesn't everyone?" I continued, taking a different approach. "But she doesn't know everything about you, especially what you do with your mom and my dad. My dad wouldn't surprise her - after all, he's fucking her already. But she might freak if she knew what you do with your mom, not to mention her boyfriends."

Before she could debate it with me, I continued with the offensive. "You know, maybe if you let Rick fuck you more often, then she might want to be closer to you. That's really the only time she and I do anything, when he's fucking me."

Kristen frowned at that and replied, "Ugh, he's such a jerk. Too much like his dad if you ask me. Besides, he's a bit old for me."

Typical Kristen. Ignoring my dad and a few situations he had orchestrated for the two of us, she pretty much stuck with the younger high school boys although I knew she did a lot of guys at college. The college boys were more to earn money, while the younger guys were her "toys" she loved to play with. I figured it had more to do with Rick himself than his age. It was true, he WAS sort of a jerk. But my god, the stud could stay hard all night!

"He's only eighteen," I countered, "Well, nineteen soon."

"Your point?" she responded with a twinkle in her eye and a naughty grin on her face.

There was no way that I was going to let myself go any further down that rabbit hole with her. Kristen knew full well how I felt about her doing the younger boys. I mean, it was one thing if she just wanted to dabble here and there. Kristen, however, seemed totally infatuated with young teenager boys. To her credit, she wasn't cruising the middle school but high-schoolers were fine, even the freshmen. It guess went both ways. While I couldn't understand her infatuation with what to me were just kids, she had never been able to comprehend my fascination with older married men.

"So anyway, what was your point in bringing this all up?" I finally asked, trying to put closure on the topic.

"Well, I just don't think it's fair that apparently everyone else is in on this and I'm not," she pouted.

The was a pause on the phone as he seemed to be thinking about the question.

"Well, let's see.. Kate has her dance lessons at 1:00 tomorrow afternoon. That usually gets her and mom out for a couple of hours at least. How about then? They'll probably leave at least a half hour before then."

That was certainly OK with me. They had a large pool which was a lot easier to play in than our hot tub. The hot tub was perfect for individuals or couples but more than two or three people in it and it started to get crowded.

We eventually got things sorted out and I called Kristen back to let her know.

Now that I finally had most of everything in place, I left the phone on my nightstand and stretched out on my bed. The house was so quiet! My dad was working late and my mom was at some board meeting for church. I had no idea when either of them would get home so it was just me in the house for now.

Lying in bed, I tried to imagine what it might be like for the four of us cousins to get together. The odd thing about it, for whatever reason I wasn't finding myself getting really all that turned on by the idea. Of course it would be fun, especially with Kristen there as she was always good for something unexpected. I'm not a big fan of multiple partner sex, (in other words, an orgy), to start with. They have their time and place, that's for sure, but for me it's more something I would do with strangers than with family. It probably had more to do with WHY I have sex with family members than anything else. In short (or in other words, VERY brief), here are my primary motivators:

Dad — As his daughter it's my duty to satisfy his sexual needs and I love pleasing him. Plus it never hurts to get laid!
Mom — What can I say, she's my mom! I love her, especially the intimacy we share.
Aunt Linda — We don't do it often and it's more for her than me.
Cousin Kristen — It's all about FUN! She's always got something new for me.
Uncle Jim — My dad wants me to, enough said about that.
Cousin Rick — He's a jerk but a great fuck so why not?
Cousin Tammy — She's cute and impressionable so why not?

One look at that list should tell you that there isn't a whole lot in common between them, at least so far as why I have sex with them, so it shouldn't be all that mysterious why we don't. I enjoy getting fucked by Rick but I don't particularly care for him as a person so sharing him with two other girls, even my favorite cousins, doesn't make me all wet to think about it.

Kristen's a blast to party with and she's always got something naughty up her sleeve. That's usually a recipe for fun but I couldn't see how it applied to being with our cousins. Tammy's almost TOO cute and I just enjoy being with her when she learns about new things, seeing the amazement on her face and the look of pure happiness as she enjoys new experiences. ALL of these are fun, by themselves, but mixing them up was like trying to mix oil and water of you asked me.

Well, I guess it couldn't hurt to try but thinking about it more at the time obviously wasn't going to get me off. It was frustrating to be as horny as I was at the moment and yet the thought of tomorrow's plans still weren't enough to get me started. Well, it was all Kristen's fault so I picked up the phone and dialed her cell phone.

"Now what?" was what I heard when she answered the phone. Obviously she'd seen my number on the caller ID.

"OK, so tell me again why we're doing this."

There was a pause on the line as she must have been trying to figure out why I was calling her and asking her such an odd question.

"Well, I think it started when you decided to start fooling around with OUR cousin and not including me," she started out slowly, as if feeling her way blindfolded through a minefield.

"Oh, so it's my fault then?"

"Well, it's not like I'm the one doing father-daughter swaps at the lake and then getting together with her brother so he can fuck her," she whined.

"Whatever... so then why don't you just do them yourself and leave me out of it?"

"Kelly, give me a break," she snorted over the phone, "Hello? Is this Kelly, my always horny cousin who's fucked a couple of hundred guys and fools around with every married man she can get her tentacles into? Since when are you opting out of an opportunity like this?"

She had a point but I have my pride and as such, wasn't going to concede it to her.

"Besides," she continued, not waiting for me to respond anyway, "Someone's got to keep one of them occupied while I do the other." She laughed over the phone as if what she had said was hysterical or something.

"Oh really? And since when don't you like threesomes?"

"Hey, I never said I didn't," she defended herself, "But you can't blame a girl for wanting a little one-on-one her first time with her cousins, do you?"

"I don't get it. You've fucked Rick plenty of times, what's the big deal?"

"Hmmm, besides the fact he's a dork?"

We both laughed at that one. It was true, we both felt the same way about our only male cousin. He was just lucky to have a cock with the most tremendous staying power of any guy I've fucked. I knew that was probably the only reason Kristen had sex with him as well.

"No silly, I meant what's the big deal about having him join in then if you're not all that keen on getting laid by him?"

"Well duh, earth to Kelly... Oh sure, YOU'VE seen the two of them fucking but I haven't. What makes you think I wouldn't enjoy watching them just as much as you do?"

"So what am I there for then?" I went back to my original question.

"Well, SOMEBODY needs to take the pictures," she said with a naughty giggle.

That was pure Kristen for you. Only a slut like her would even THINK about taking pictures of cousins getting together. Lord only knows what she thought she would do with them afterwards. It's not like they would be something you showed at school or wherever.

"You know, you're such a slut!" was all I could think of to say back at her.

"Ahhhhhh, now that was SO sweet of you," she taunted me back. We both giggled.

This was going nowhere fast so I said goodbye and hung up the phone. If anything, I was all the more frustrated than I was BEFORE I called her.

3. Dad Helps His Horny Daughter

Letting out a big huff, I flopped over on my stomach, bunching the pillow under me and then burying my head in it. I kicked with my legs like I was trying to swim across my bed and then just shook as the most intense feeling of pure horniness all but overwhelmed me.

"What's the matter, my little girl horny tonight?"

I didn't have to turn around to know who it was asking me such a silly question. Wow, my dad was home early tonight. Sometimes I was all but ready for bed before he finally got back but tonight he was early if anything.

I flipped over and laid my legs down flat so I could see him better. He still had on his office clothes although his tie was loosened up a bit. He looked tired but at that moment it was like a cramp struck my lower abdomen. My pussy was so horny it was dying for a cock and it was reminding me that I now had one at my disposal. Well, why not?

"Fuck me daddy!" was all I had to say to him.

What more did I NEED to say. I knew he was probably a bit on edge himself after a long day at the office and odds were he would have asked me for some "relief" anyway so what was wrong with me doing the asking up front?

"Wow, I guess you really ARE horny then," he chuckled. "Well, I think that's one thing today that I can take care of."

I didn't say a word as I laid there in anticipation. He didn't disappoint me, just as I knew he wouldn't. As he approached my bed he started taking off his tie and then unbuckling his belt. His slacks were unclasped and unzipped to the bottom just as he made it to my bedside. I turned on my side to face him and watched as he dropped his slacks and underwear to the floor together in one messy heap, followed by his dress shoes and socks, leaving him there in just his unbuttoned dress shirt.

"Mmmmmmm," was all I said as I reached forward to take his cock in my hand. He was still pretty soft but I could already feel the pulsing of his heart as it delivered more blood to him, growing and strengthening it as I stroked him gently.

"Suck it," he whispered softly to me, so low I could barely hear him. He didn't have to ask twice!

I slipped my dad's dick between my lips and began to gently suck on it. He was still pretty soft so it bent and molded to my mouth as I pulled it in and out of my mouth to suck on him.

"Oh yeah baby, that's it," he groaned gently, "I love this SO much."

As I tugged on his warm dick, I could feel it growing and stiffening in my mouth with almost each stroke. My heart fluttered as I realized it was because of ME that his cock was reacting the way it was. A cock is the world's best lie detector test as men can't control them and depending on whether it got hard or not was the surest sign in the world as to whether he was turned on by me.

Feeling him grow erect in my mouth, it made me feel wonderful to know my own father was feeling this way about me, wanting me as more than just a daughter but as some sort of sex object as well. Even if they felt that way deep inside of themselves, not many fathers were open enough and secure enough to openly show their daughters how they felt about them.

After a long day at work his crotch smelled of sweat and musk as his cock kept growing and growing in my mouth until it was finally fully erect, standing out straight from his body like a sword or something. I loved the way his thick pubic hair caressed my face like a stiff brush. His balls hung down low and loose in their sacks as I gently fondled them while I continued to blow him.

"Deeper," he whispered softly as his hands both took my head and pulled me in tighter to his crotch.

My dad has a decent cock but nothing that would get him a gig on a porn video. It didn't matter all that much to me. It was my dad's cock and that was all that really mattered to me in the end. Even when I took all of him in, the tip of his dick was barely able to reach the back of my throat. I closed my eyes as his pubic hair was pressed between him and my face, ticking me more than anything else.

"Faster," came the next one word command.

There was no need for me to do much as he had the situation well in hand now. Actually, all I had to do was hold my head still and he was doing all the work, thrusting forward and then pulling back and thus effectively fucking my mouth in the same way he would my pussy later - at least the way I hoped he would.

"Get on your knees," he ordered me.

Actually, it wasn't like he was being overly bossy or anything bad. He was just making his needs known and I was actually happy that he was taking control. It's a lot easier when he controls things and besides, I knew he would never ask me to do anything that was out of my comfort zone.

His cock dropped from my lips as I silently said goodbye but I knew I would be sucking it again soon. As I turned away from my dad's pleasantly smelly crotch, I got on my hands and knees sideways on the bed for him, facing the wall away from my dad. My dad's hands grasped me by the hips and pulled me closer to the edge of the bed. Without looking back, I knew where he was as I could feel the tip of his cock teasing my ass and pussy.

"Damn, you really want it tonight, don't you?" he said, shaking his head in amazement.

There was no need for me to say anything else, he knew what I wanted from him. If I had been blowing him I would've asked him to cum in my mouth but since he was fucking me, my pussy was the logical place for him to release his incestuous load of sperm.

"Oh god yes," was all he said as I felt the warmth in my lower abdomen that signaled he was cumming in me.

This was the moment I loved the best, those brief few seconds when Mother Nature took over and my dad came inside of me. There was no stopping him once he started, even if either one of us for some strange reason would want such a thing. It was the ultimate gift a father can give his daughter, the most special sign of his love, the perfect indicator of the respect he had for me. There was only one man in the world who could fuck me and then cum in me resulting in this same emotion – my future husband, which meant for now, my dad was the only man in the world who could fuck me this way. And to think that people still continue to question why I like to be fucked by my dad!

"So, what got you going today anyway?" he asked me.

He may have been my dad but he was so much like other guys at this moment. One minute he was fucking my brains out and the next, it was if nothing had happened and we were just having a casual conversation. True, it wasn't like your typical conversation in that his dick was still inside of me – a sure attention getter to be sure.

As I started to reply he pulled out of me and gathered his clothes from the floor. I knew he would be taking a shower as soon as he left me so there wasn't much sense in getting dressed again.

"So let me get this straight," he murmured as he held his stuff in his arms and looked down at me, "You're getting together with your cousins tomorrow for some sort of cousin orgy?"

"It's NOT an orgy, daddy," I corrected him, "Kristen just feels left out that she hasn't been involved with Tammy and Rick yet."

"I just don't get it, it's not like Kristen's exactly lacking for sex from what I've heard," he said, shaking his head as if to clear some cobwebs out. "Besides, what if their mom comes home early or something and see you guys together? C'mon Kelly, I thought you knew better."

"Well, YOU try saying no to Kristen then," I challenged him.

"OK, OK, I get it," he chuckled. It was the perfect argument as he had no answer. My dad knew from his own experiences how difficult it was to turn away Kristen once she had her mind set on something, especially if it had something to do with sex which was pretty good odds when it came to her.

"So," he continued, "Do you mothers know about all your plans?"

I shook my head in response. It was true, we had planned all of this just today and there hadn't been an opportunity to discuss it with either one of them.

"Well, just one word of advice then," he said in a low conspiratorial tone, "Don't!"

He didn't have to explain further, I understood what he was trying to warn me about. My mom was the moral and social conscience of our family and if anyone would have objected to the risk I was looking to take tomorrow, it would be her. Although my Aunt Linda herself most likely wouldn't have minded, telling her was a sure way to let my mom find out as they didn't keep anything secret between them.

He smiled at me then and turned to leave the room. Before that though, he smiled at me and asked, "Feeling better now?"

What a silly question! Here I was laying on my back, his incestuous load of cum now oozing from my pussy after having just been fucked, and he asks if I'm feeling better! My broad smile told him all he needed to know and he left for the bathroom across the hallway.

My mom was home shortly afterwards but by then I'd showered as well. I didn't bother telling her about my dad fucking me as she probably wouldn't have really cared one way or the other. All she seemed concerned about at the moment was getting some groceries put away that she had picked up on her way home.

The rest of the night went by rather uneventfully. Before I knew it, it was morning and my dad was at my bedside for his usual wakeup call, otherwise known as "Fucking Kelly before she wakes up". Well, at least he TRIED to. Most of the time I wasn't all that tired come morning and so I would wake up before he actually fucked me but he still tried. Got to give the old guy credit for his perseverance!

Once he got off and showered, my dad left for work and I stayed in bed to catch some more sleep. I turned off the snooze alarm which turned out to be a mistake because it wasn't until after 10:00 before I woke back up again! Fortunately with what I had planned, I didn't have to worry much about what I wore or how I did my hair. I fully expected to be in a chlorinated pool in less than a few hours so what difference did it all make?

4. Kristen and I Watch A Brother Fucking His Sister

My mom had left for work by the time I got up so it was just me to get myself breakfast. Slipping on one of my many t-shirts, I made my way to the kitchen and had some cereal. For the rest of the morning the only interruption I had was when the doorbell rang as the UPS guy was delivering something for my dad. It was our "usual" guy so it wasn't the first time he saw me in just a t-shirt but I still liked the way he looked me up and down. There was none of this "fucking the delivery guy" you see in the porn movies tho9ugh, just some innocent flirting and then he was gone. Too bad, really. He was quite a hunk and I loved the shorts he wore!

It was tempting to call Rick to be sure everything was on for this afternoon. The only reason I didn't was I assumed that if anything WAS wrong that he would have called and by calling them, his mom might answer the phone and wonder why I was calling.. My Aunt already thought I was a slut and barely tolerated me as it was when we visited. I didn't want her to get any ideas when the hope was she would be leaving the house for a few hours this afternoon.

As I got ready to leave, out of habit I reached for my bikini drawer before I stopped and slapped myself playfully. Stupid me, I wouldn't be needing one today! Instead, I just threw on some shorts under my t-shirt and pulled my hair back in a ponytail and left for my cousin's house. Surprisingly, either Kristen was late or she had been dropped off because my car was the only one in the driveway. Kristen being late by itself wasn't the surprise. My mom claimed she would be late for her funeral someday. It was just she was rarely late for something like this and if anything, I figured she would be early to try and get a piece of Rick before I arrived.

As it turned out, Kristen HAD arrived before me but just by a couple of minutes. When I walked in through the side door into the kitchen, she was standing there around the bar along with my two cousins.

"Hey Kelly!" my little cousin Tammy squealed as I came in through the door. She ran up to hug me and wrapped her arms around me. She was such a cutie! Actually, she looked a lot like me at her age, skinny and rather flat-chested, especially compared to most of the girls in her class. Who knows, maybe that was why we seemed to relate so well with other.

"Look who's here," she said excitedly, "Kristen came over today too!"

I looked at Rick with a questioning expression. If he had told Tammy what he was SUPPOSE to have told her, then why did she seem to be so surprised that Kristen before, obviously, but I doubted she'd ever been in this type of a situation before where it was more than just me watching. For a fourteen year- old, it was probably a bit intimidating, especially knowing Kristen' reputation - and who in town didn't?

"Now quite teasing her, Kristen," I chastised her, "Why don't YOU just suck him off and get it over with?"

I motioned for Tammy to come over by me and I had her sit on a chaise lounge chair next to me as Kristen needed no further encouragement to go to work on her well-hung cousin. She might complain about him over the phone to me, but I couldn't help but smile at how quickly she put all that aside when his cock was within reach! Actually, this was as new for me as it was for Tammy, at least in terms of actually seeing Kristen blow Rick. Of course I knew he had been fucking her for the past few months but I'd never done him together with her.

Kristen was squatting down with her face level with Rick's crotch. She was probably squatting rather than kneeling to avoid burning her knees on the hot concrete by the pool edge. Watching her, it was a rather classic pose and I wished that I had brought a camera as Kristen had once suggested. I was sure a shot of her taking on his cock would've been a great addition to most anyone's porn portfolio - especially my dad's although I bet her mom would have loved it just as much. Kristen had one hand around the base of Rick's hard dick, the other between her own legs fondling her clit, and her mouth around his cock, sucking him as her head slowly bobbed up and down on his wet dick.

"So what do you think Tammy," I asked as I put my arm around her nude little body.

Tammy was sitting up tight next to me and her cute little nude body felt warm and soft against mine. At first it was if she didn't know what to say as she just stared at her cousin while she blew her brother. If course she'd seen me suck Rick's dick before, but I didn't think she had seen Kristen doing it until now (and neither had I). For that matter, other than me I suppose she had not seen ANY other girl sucking off her brother except for maybe herself in a mirror.

"You know Kelly, I didn't know she and Rick were doing it," she finally whispered to me, as if she was afraid they might hear her.

"Oh really? Is that OK with you?"

"Well of course-I mean, I know he does other girls and after all, he does you too. I just didn't know he did Kristen too."

Then she leaned up to my ear and whispered in a more conspiratorial tone, "She's such a slut you know!"

I couldn't help but grin at her last comment. There was no need to whisper actually, Kristen would have probably taken her words more as a compliment than anything although I doubt that's how Tammy intended them. She didn't sound upset or anything, just more of a statement than anything. I tried to pry a little more.

"Do you mind it when he does other girls?"

"Why should I?" she answered a little sharply, as if I shouldn't have even asked the question. "Good grief, he's my brother Kelly! I'm not dating him you know."

I remembered then how obstinate she had been about letting him fuck her before she lost her virginity. There was something in her tone that made me wonder if she really enjoyed sex with her brother or just tolerated it? Hmmm, maybe she just did him so she could do his friends without having to get involved with them? I decided to pry some more.

"Tell me something... does it turn you on watching Kristen suck his cock?"

Tammy hesitated a moment before answering but she just shrugged and said, "Well... sorta - I guess. She IS pretty good at it - almost as good as you."

I couldn't help but smile at that comment. Indeed, Kristen was putting on a blowjob clinic in front of us. Yes, that girl certainly know how to suck cock! She wouldn't have been pleased to hear Tammy's verdict, though. We had sort of a running friendly competition on who could suck cock better. Most guys privately told me I was better but then maybe they said the same thing to her!

"Say, would you like to show Kristen how good you've gotten at sucking his cock?"

I felt her tense up next to me and she didn't answer at first.

"Don't worry Tammy, there's nothing to be embarrassed about," I assured her, "Remember, Kristen's done a LOT more guys than you have so of course she's pretty good at it... oh yeah, a LOT more guys."

We both giggled at my poor attempt at humor but it seemed to relax her a bit and I could feel the tension drop in her shoulders.

"I guess so... Do you think Kristen would mind?"

I smiled to myself as by her asking the question, she had essentially agreed to do it. Now it was just a question of logistics.

"Ohhhhhh, I don't think she would mind if you sucked his cock, would you Kristen?" I said, raising my voice so Kristen could hear me.

Kristen looked our way, keeping Rick's dick deep in her mouth the whole time. She winked at me and so I got up and helped Tammy to her feet as well. Leading her over to her brother, I brought a cushion along and set it on the concrete for her to kneel on. Not only would it make it easier for her to kneel, it would raise her up a bit as she was a few inches shorter than Kristen.

"OK Kristen, hand it over," I teased her.

Kristen acted as though she was giving up the Hope Diamond but I knew it was mostly just an act for Tammy's sake. Granted, it WAS a hard dick and as such, I was sure she had been enjoying it despite who it was attached to. I knew, though, that she was more interested in seeing a brother-sister act than just another cock exploding in her mouth. After all, she could suck cock just about any time she wanted but how often do you get the chance to see a REAL brother and sister having sex?

"It's OK... you can do it," I encouraged Tammy.

A couple of words of encouragement and suddenly she went straight to work on her brother. It was like once she got started, the ever growing slutty side of her took over and she started sucking on her brother's dick. I had to admire her concentration as it was as if neither Kristen or I was there. Not only that, the kid was a lot better at sucking cock than I was at her age!

"So, what do you think cuz?" I whispered to Kristen as we took our place back on the chaise lounge and watched as the erotic scene unfolded right in front of us.

"Damn they're hot, aren't they" she gushed. "You know Kelly, I've never seen a sister blowing her brother before."

Neither of us had a brother, a missing element in our lives that we had discussed many times over the years. Although each of us enjoyed being an only child MOST of the time, the idea of having an older brother around to fuck us anytime we needed it was a fantasy we both shared. I'm sure our mothers wouldn't have minded having a son around either!

Yes indeed, Kristen was definitely getting worked up as she watched Tammy with her mouth around her brother's dick. It wasn't long before she started to play with herself, licking her lips as I was sure she was imagining how it would be to do her own brother if she had one. Well, she wasn't the only getting horny as I slipped my own hand between my legs and felt my wet pussy react as my fingers toyed with my sensitive clit. God, I couldn't believe how horny I was already and I hadn't even touched myself until now!

"Fuck her Rick!" Kristen called out, apparently trying to act like a director for the sexy show being played out before us.

Rick looked down at his cute sister who still had her mouth around his hard dick. Their eyes met and I could almost hear the silent question between them. Should they do it? I had no doubt at all that Rick was game but what about Tammy? As it turned out, there was nothing to worry about as her answer was in her actions. She stood up, still hanging on to her brother's hard dick, and looked at Rick, waiting for him to tell her what to do next.

"Do it over here!" Kristen called out, pointing to a spot right in front of us. Needless to say, she wanted a front row seat for the next act in this play.

By now Tammy didn't even appear to be thinking for herself, instead she looked dazed and seemed to be following whatever her brother told her to do. Rick laid some cushions down in front of Kristen and me, so close they were practically over our bare feet, and then like a gentleman, helped Tammy to lay down on them on her back.

Evidently Rick was planning for some good old-fashioned missionary style which was fine with me. Sometimes the classics can be better than anything else. Tammy laid there motionless, her eyes dull as she became not much more than some sort of blow-up sex doll ready to do whatever her brother wanted. She didn't even look over at her cousins as we both sat on the edge of the chair, rubbing ourselves almost absentmindedly as we watched Rick position himself over the nude figure of his sexy little sister.

"C'mon, do it... fuck her," I heard Kristen whispering under her breath. She was masturbating faster now as she waited impatiently while Rick wiggled around, trying to get his cock into the right position.

"Jesus, what's his problem? Just stick your damn dick in her," I barely heard her whisper angrily to herself.

"Finally!" she hissed as Rick pushed forward and his dick began to disappear inside of Tammy's tight little pussy. I marveled that her tiny pussy could even take a dick the size of Rick's but as usual, she came through and took all of him.

I put my arm around Kristen and let my other hand slide between her tanned and smooth legs. She moved her hand out of the way and spread her legs apart so I could reach in more easily and soon I had one finger in her soaking wet pussy while the palm of my hand was pressing on her hard clit. I could feel her breathing fast

"Almost," she replied, a touch of disappointment in her voice that she tried but couldn't hide from me.

"Well, don't worry. Cousin Kelly will take care of THAT for you now, OK?"

She just nodded but a smile came to her face. Indeed, Cousin Kelly was the first girl to have ever licked her pussy and she knew how good I could make her feel. Now I think she really prefers boys to girls but she has never turned me down whenever I have offered to lick her!

The flavor of the various liquids that had mixed together in and around her pussy was incredible. The salty mess of Rick's cum was diluted down by her own pussy juices and in the mix was the strong smell of musk and sweat from their sex. Damn, he must have really unleashed a load in her as it seemed the more of his cum I licked from her pussy hole, the more just kept dribbling out after it.

"Oh Kelly, that feels so good," I barely heard Tammy whisper.

It wasn't much but for Tammy it was literally a speech for when she was having sex. Typically she would just lay there with her eyes closed as someone fucked her, maybe a moan escaping now and then but she wasn't a "talker", that was for sure. Maybe as she grew older and gained confidence, who knows?

Indeed, it must have felt good because I felt her body stiffen under my hands and her hips raised up as my tongue played her clit and pussy like a bow over a fine violin. I heard her gasp and a little river of pussy cum mixed with even more of her brother's cum surged from her little pussy. Even though I tried to lap up as much as I could, some of it still dripped down to the cushion where no doubt it would leave a stain for their mom to wonder about later. It went on for several minutes until she collapsed and lay still once again, not saying another word.

"There, feel better now?" I asked sweetly, as if I had put something on a cut to ease the pain. I guess in a way I HAD eased her pain as I know how painfully frustrating it can be when a guy fucks you and then takes off before you get a chance to cum.

Tammy just nodded and smiled as she opened her eyes and looked at me with the most angelical little face you could imagine. It was almost impossible to believe that this cute little "innocent" girl could also turn into such an intensely sexual creature.

In the meantime, Kristen and Rick had been going at it furiously. Kristen was the complete opposite of Tammy when it came to voicing her feelings as a non-stop stream of cursing and moaning emerged. Between the moans and load sighs she urged her younger cousin to fuck her harder and faster and everything else you could imagine. As I was accustomed to her ranting during sex, I'd automatically tuned it out while I'd been paying attention to Tammy but now it struck my ears like a clanging gong. God, for someone who looked like such a "nice" young girl, Kristen could certainly turn on the sex talk!

"Wow, she sure talks dirty, doesn't she?" Tammy said softly to me, her eyes wide open probably more at the coarseness of Kristen's vocabulary than the actually fucking that was going on.

"That's just her," I said, hugging her closer to me, "Some girls like to talk during sex. Maybe someday you will too!"

Tammy looked at me with a "you've got to be kidding" look but didn't say anything more about the subject. We continues to watch and listen as the two of them went at it. Heck, even I typically learned a few new phrases each time I watched Kristen getting laid.

There was one more thing that was different for Kristen when compared to Tammy. While Tammy had been left without an orgasm of her own, Kristen was more selfish. She was going to make sure she came! She had enough experience to know that in situations like this, you're really doing it for yourself so she was going to make damn sure her orgasm arrived before his. As far as she was concerned, if Rick didn't get his rocks off that was his problem, not hers.

As it turned out, they both got off as Rick came all over her for the second time in less than twenty minutes. Looking at the white cum spattered all over her, once again I was reminded that I don't playfully call my cousin a "cum slut" for nothing! Amazingly, even after Rick was finished cumming on Kristen he was just as hard as when he first started fucking his sister. Damn, the boy was a one heck of a sex MACHINE.

I hugged Tammy as we watched Rick shake a few remaining drops of cum off in Kristen's general direction. My own pussy was starting to tingle even more as I knew whose turn it was now to be at the receiving end of Rick's dick! As much as I enjoyed eating out my little cousin, and as much as in another place and time I would have jumped at the opportunity to play with Kristen, the thought of being fucked by Rick's hard cock overwhelmed any other desires I might be having. People are always asking me if I'm a lesbian or bi-sexual. Technically, I guess I would have to check off the "bi-sexual" box if there was ever such a survey as I do enjoy having sex with both men and women.

That said, if forced to make a choice, however, I would always take a hard cock over a wet pussy. Sure, some girls claim a dildo in the hands of another girl puts together the best of both worlds but for me, nothing beats the feel of a REAL dick in me, warm and hard and ready to explode in me. Dildo's don't WANT to fuck me. You can't tease a dildo. Dildo's don't shoot real live sperm inside of me. Dildo's don't make the person they're "attached" to commit adultery or do other things they normally would never do except for their deep desire to have me, even if for only a few minutes.

So yes, I wanted Rick to fuck me - badly. The fact that he was my cousin really didn't matter all that much to me. I mean, so what if he was? It's not like I was planning to marry him or have his baby. We both just wanted to have some fun and enjoy ourselves so what's the big deal if he is related to me in some way?

Rick stood up and faced me, his wet dick glistening as the sunlight bounced off Kristen's pussy juices that still covered him. A few drops of cum dripped from the tip of his dick as approached me, leaving Kristen behind to clean off the cum he had just sprayed all over her.

"I bet you want it next, eh?" he teased me, standing just far enough away that I couldn't reach him. "So... you get wet watching me fuck them?"

I grinned and leaned back, supporting myself with one hand while I spread my legs and ran the middle finger of my other hand down through my soaking wet pussy lips. Putting my finger in my mouth, I drew it out slowly, savoring the taste of my pussy.

"Mmmmmmm, what do you think?" I responded softly.

"Yeah, look like you're horny all right-as usual," Rick chuckled as he grabbed his cock with his right hand and started stroking it slowly as he watched me. "You know what? I want you to play with yourself... let me see how you do yourself for a while."

Rick may have still been hard but evidently after cumming twice already he wasn't as hell-bent to get his dick in my pussy as he would have been normally. Heck, usually he was trying to fuck me before I could get my clothes off! I looked around and saw Kristen grinning at me while Tammy, who was still lying next to me, had this odd look on her face as if she didn't understand why her brother would ask me to do such a thing when he could be fucking me.

"Well, you asked for it," I warned him.

I didn't mind and if anything, it turns me on when a guy watches me masturbate. When I was in high school sometimes I would just let a boy watch me masturbate and not touch me. It was incredibly erotic to make myself cum while all he could do was watch and nurse his erection, wishing more than anything he could fuck me.

My hand returned to my horny pussy and I slowly rubbed my fingers over my entire crotch in a circular motion, rubbing my clit in the process. God I was so wet! Rick was watching me as was Tammy and Kristen. Tammy was just sitting still, staring at me as if she had never seen another girl masturbate before. Kristen, of course, had seen me do this countless times but she was still fingering herself as she watched me tease Rick.

"Put your finger inside," he told me after clearing his throat.

He was clearly turned on and I loved having him tell me what I should do to myself. Usually when I did something like this the guy may not have known it, but he likely wasn't going to get a chance to fuck me which is why I was masturbating in the first place. In Rick's case, he knew without a doubt that eventually he would be replacing my finger with his dick but that still didn't make it any less a turn-on for me to have him watch.

As wet as I was, my finger easily slid into my pussy up to the first knuckle and I twirled it around inside of me, stimulating the incredibly sensitive nerves that lined my pussy interior there. A gasp escaped me as it felt like little shock waves ran up though me while I finger-fucked myself.

In the meantime, I noticed Kristen wasn't going to be content just watching and playing with herself. She had moved over to the other side of Tammy and stretched out alongside of her. They started kissing as Kristen's hands roamed over her soft little body. Most of Rick's cum was still on Kristen's nude body so as she pressed up against Tammy it made a bit of a mess on her as well but she didn't seem to mind having her brother's cum on her. After all, until she had finally started letting him fuck her and cum inside of her, that's where it ended up anyway when they played around together.

As the intensity of the feelings in me increased, my attention was drawn away from the two of them and back to my pussy. Rick was still standing right in front of me now, stroking his cock over me as he looked down and watched his older cousin masturbate. Like me, I don't think it was the "cousin" thing that turned him on; he just liked fucking sluts like me! Kristen told me that he had acquired a bit of a reputation for being a good fuck with the girls in school but I doubted he got to do any college girls like me.

"Put another finger in," he said, his voice hoarse with lust.

For whatever reason, I had learned early that guys loved to see me put my fingers up inside of me and the more the better. Usually I drew the line at two because that was all that really felt comfortable. I could force three and even four if I really tried but it felt best with one or two.

I added my index finger to my middle finger and pushed them both in as far as I could. I don't know what was turning me on more, the feeling of my fingers in me or seeing Rick watching me and stroking himself at the sight in front of him. After all, how many boys got to see a real girl doing this? Heck, I have been told by many a married man that their wives wouldn't masturbate for them!

With all that that had been going on, bringing myself to an orgasm wasn't especially difficult. Indeed, if anything I had to slow down a bit so as not to rush into it TOO fast. After all, the buildup can sometimes be almost as good as the main event! At one point, though, it just became too much to hold back and I knew I was right on the verge.

"Watch me cum Rick," I panted as I rubbed my pussy furiously, "I'm gonna cum for you now!"

I just stared at his stiff cock as my fingers drove me higher and higher. I imagined it was that wonderful dick right in front of me that was in me, that it was his cock that was making me cum, the same cock that had just fucked his sister and other cousin so well. God I was cumming and I wanted his cock in me so bad it was about to drive me insane!

"Put it in me dammit," I gasped as my pussy exploded, cum gushing from me like a fountain. I didn't want to wait until it was over, I wanted his dick in me NOW! "Fuck me Rick, I want you to fuck me!"

If Rick had been really coy and tried to tease me more by holding back, I'm not really sure what I would have done but fortunately he was as horny as I was by now and he couldn't hold himself back any more either. I doubted that if I told him NOT to fuck me that it would have made any difference at this point. Regardless of what I said or did now, he was going to fuck me. At times I've been in such a situation with other guys and it can be a little frightening at times, knowing that the guy I was with was so horny, so filled with lust, that he was going to fuck me no matter what I said or did at that point. Fortunately, I can't think of such a time when I didn't WANT him to fuck me!

Taking my hand from my pussy, I kneeled down between my legs and pulled myself up onto his thighs until my bare pussy was pressing up against his wonderful cock. That was all he needed as without any further fanfare, he simply drove it into me all the way, ramming his incredibly hard shaft deep inside of me.

"OH MY GOD, FUCK ME!" I cried out, tears draining from my eyes as the feel of his dick in me intensified my orgasm to an unbelievable height.

I had been wanting this so bad after seeing him fuck Tammy and Kristen, and then masturbating for him just made my desire all the more intense If he hadn't entered me soon I think I might have screamed in frustration!

After a bit Rick leaned forward and I slid down his thighs as he moved on top of me, keeping his dick in me the entire time. He held himself off of me with his outstretched arms as he drove his cock in and out of me like some sort of monstrous fucking machine.

My entire world had collapsed into just my pussy and his cock. It was as if nothing else existed. Every thought, every sensation I felt was centered around my throbbing pussy and his stiff dick that was violating it. The rest of my body had been stimulated to the point where it was almost numb as I just laid there with my arms stretched out like I was being crucified, except instead of nails it was Rick's incredible dick that was being driven into me.

"You love this don't you? You love me fucking you, don't you?" Rick managed to get out in gasps between his heavy breathing. Well DUH!

"Cum in me Rick - I want you to cum in me," I begged him, shaking my head back and forth as I tried to keep from going insane from the sensations inside of me. God, if he didn't cum in me soon I just might go nuts!

"Oh yeah, here it comes," he gasped yet again, lifting his head and straining his neck back as his hips drive his dick deep into me one last time.

"That's it, give it all to me," I pleaded as I felt the first load of sperm emerge from him, creating a brief sensation of warmth in my already hot pussy. "I want ALL your cum in me."

"Ohhhhhh!" he groaned as he deposited one load after another inside of me. God, where did this kid get it all from! It was if the more he fucked the more cum he produced!

Finally he was done and he dropped to his elbows, barely enough to keep from crushing me under the weight of his sexy body. His teenage dick throbbed in me and I squeezed down on it with my pussy to show it my appreciation. Then he rolled over, drawing his dick out of me, leaving my pussy suddenly empty. He was laying on his back on the hot concrete but it didn't seem to bother him as he struggled to catch his breath. I noticed that his dick was finally showing some signs of softening, although I had a feeling that with the right "attention" it would be ready to go again soon.

Looking over, Kristen and Tammy had gotten themselves into a 69 and I don't think they had even noticed that Rick had just finished fucking me. Tammy was a lot like me in that she preferred boys but Kristen was a true bi-sexual creature. For her, it wasn't a choice between men and women, it was more a question of who was available. Odds were it was her that had instigated their little maneuver but from the looks of things, Tammy was enjoying it. She was the one on top and didn't show any signs of wanting to stop.

"So what do you think of your little sister now?" I said to Rick, nudging him with my elbow.

Rick just shook his head, more in amazement and wonder I think than anything else. What was it with guys that they loved seeing two girls getting it on? Of course, in this case one of them was his youngest sister so I could only imagine how that influenced him.

"Shit, they're hot," he whispered as if he was in awe and didn't want to interrupt them.

It looked like they were going to be at it for a while so I figured why not take advantage of the situation? Rick's dick was just lying there, all alone without any attention being given to it and it seemed such a shame to leave it so lonely. I twisted around and leaned over his waist to take his dick I my mouth again. I smiled to myself as I tasted the distinct flavor of my pussy on him. It was hard to imagine that this same dick I was sucking on had actually been INSIDE of my pussy just minutes before!

Rick just laid back, his head turned to watch the lesbian exhibition as I sucked on his cock slowly. It was more like I was just sucking it to enjoy the feel and taste of him than to get him off. He wasn't as hard as he had been which made his dick a little bit flaccid in my mouth but actually felt rather erotic. He tasted great and I think I could have laid there like that for the rest of the day; my head on his lap with his cock in my mouth while my hand gently touched my pussy, just enough to feel good but not too much to get my "engine" started up again.

As the oldest I guess it was my responsibility to make sure we didn't get into trouble and somewhere inside of me was that little internal alarm clock we all seem to have. It's the same one that wakes me up one minute before my alarm goes off in the morning. It doesn't always work but usually it's pretty accurate and today, thank goodness, was one of those days. Suddenly I felt this premonition that I needed to know what time it was so I asked Rick who was still wearing his watch (although that was ALL he was wearing).

Rick reluctantly turned his head away from the show and looked at his wrist. He didn't answer me, nor did he need to as the expression his face said it all.

"Shit, Mom and Kate are going to be home any minute!" he gasped. He looked panicked and whatever time it was, I had a feeling it was well past when we should have been preparing for their return. "C'mon Tammy, Mom will kill us if she catches us out here like this!" he pleaded as he went over to his sister and tried to get her attention.

Tammy looked up from Kristen's bare pussy and frowned at him. She was about to say something when she seemed to think better about it and gave a big sigh instead.

"Shit!" was all she ended up saying. Reluctantly she got off of Kristen, who looked even more upset at having to quit but she didn't say a word. We grabbed the towels and clothes and rushed into the house. As we entered the kitchen I heard the garage door opening and sure enough, out in front was their minivan with Kate and my Aunt Shari. We scurried to the bedrooms in the basement and threw our clothes on just in time before we heard them entering the kitchen from the garage.

"Tammy?... Rick?" I heard my aunt call out. Kate came bounding down the stairs to her bedroom where the three of us girls had just taken seats on the bed and by the computer.

"Hey, when did you guys get here?" she asked, looking at Kristen and me.

I answered for us, explaining we had just been driving by and thought we would stop in for a minute. It was actually a pretty lame excuse but thankfully Kate wasn't the sharpest knife in the drawer.

"Cool, where's Rick?"

"Who cares?" Tammy answered, trying to act like a typical sister would if asked about her older obnoxious brother.

It seemed to be enough for Kate as she shrugged her shoulders and went back up to the kitchen to grab something to eat or drink. I watched her as she left and noticed she looked pretty hot in her dance outfit. Too bad she was such a prude, I imagined she would have fit in nicely with our little group by the pool!

With Kate gone the three of us looked at each other and then we all broke out into giggles. When we got up to leave I looked over at Kristen and pointed to her chest, just under her chin, where a big glob of Rick's cum remained. God, what if Kate had seen it? Of course, she probably wouldn't have recognized what it was but her mom most certainly would have if I hadn't caught it. She wiped it off and licked it from her fingers with an exaggerated motion. Again, we all giggled and finally went up to see my aunt.

Up in the kitchen we all said hi to Aunt Shari. She didn't seem to have a clue that anything had been going on in her absence but then why should she suspect anything? I'm sure that the last thing she would ever suspect her daughter of doing was playing with other girls, and the thought of her letting her brother fuck her was likely something she couldn't have even imagined, let alone suspected. My Aunt was about as straight as they come and she would have undoubtedly been totally shocked that Tammy was even having sex, let alone with her brother. If that was "bad" enough, imagine what she would have said had she known her own husband had fucked their daughter as well!

After a few minutes Rick joined us and he played his part perfectly, pretending not to be interested in us at all and if anything, a bit disdainful. I stole a peek at his crotch and couldn't help but imagine what his mother would say if I knelt down in front of him right now and started sucking his dick! Then I looked at Kate, who was really quite a looker and probably could have had even more boys than Tammy had she wanted them. Rick followed by gaze and I wondered if he jerked off at times thinking of fucking Kate instead of Tammy?

Oh well, with them home it was curtains for anything else we might have wanted to do. Actually, you could say it was mission accomplished as Rick had managed to fuck all three of us in the short time we had. It would've been interesting to see where it might have gone had we had all day to ourselves but those opportunities just don't come around too often. Kristen and I said our goodbyes and left shortly afterwards.

"Well, are you happy now?" I teased her on phone later when we had both made it back home.

Kristen laughed and replied, "Yeah, too bad we don't have more boy cousins."

She was right, our family DID seem to be dominated by girls. It worked out alright though, as far as I was concerned. Besides, it wasn't like we didn't have any other guys to turn to. My pussy was still a bit excited and the feel of my shorts drawn up between my legs wasn't helping. I hung up the phone and took them off. As my fingers began to roam, I had a feeling I was going to be a while with all I had to fantasize about after today!

NOTE: This was the first time the four of us got together to have sex. As it turned out, it was also the last time, at least so far. To me, that's not surprising nor unexpected. I've tried my best to get people to understand that my family is NOT just a bunch of sexual deviants and that as a rule, sex is just something we do at times and it is NOT a dominant part of our lives. Since my Aunt Shari and Kate are not involved, keeping up such activities as what we did this day would sooner or later lead to a disastrous situation. Besides, if I want to get laid I don't need my cousin Rick to get some dick, even though he IS a nice distraction now and then.

(Aug 19) Chapter 125: Casino Orgy

Me (21)

After a week in Oregon with my mom visiting her friend Tammy, I was awfully horny so when we went to a casino on a nearby Indian reservation I was looking for any opportunity. When my mom dared me to take on a group of guys at the poker table, her friend Tammy learned what a slut her best friend's daughter really was!

1. My Mom's Best Friend

My mom's best friend without a doubt is Tammy. They are about the same age (Tammy is a few months older) and have known each other since they were little girls. Unfortunately, Tammy's husband was transferred to the Oregon and since then they have relied mostly on phone calls to keep in touch. They still manage to meet each other at least once or twice a year for a week or so as Tammy's husband travels a lot and she used his frequent flier miles. My mom always looked forward to these visits but the last time Tammy came to our house, I got to know another side of her - and Tammy learned a few things about her best friend and her family as well that at first shocked her but eventually got her curious.

Since then, work schedules and such had kept Tammy from coming our way although my mom had visited her and her family a few times out in the Oregon high desert where they lived near some big ski resort. I'd never been west of Illinois so someday I hoped to join her on one of these trips but they were hers and I didn't want to butt in uninvited.

Tammy's husband had no idea that my dad had been Tammy's first but he had no cause to worry when Tammy visited us as my parents are both 100% committed to their marriage and my dad would never cheat with another woman, not even if Tammy wanted to. Odds were high she didn't as my mom assured me that while Tammy may have experimented once with me during her last visit, she was really just your typical housewife and mother. True, very early in her marriage she had cheated on her husband but those days were long gone and today they had a great Christian marriage. Even so, judging by the photos of her husband and two boys, I couldn't help but wonder what might happen if I were ever to make the trip with my mom!

All summer long my mom had been planning a trip to Oregon for some time in mid-August so it came as a surprise when Tammy visited us in July without hardly any forewarning. Apparently there was some conference in Pittsburgh and the person from her company that was supposed to attend got sick and so she was a last minute replacement. By the time we left she and I "experimented" again, as my mom put it. So when my mom agreed to take me with her this time to Oregon I was looking forward to the trip in more ways than one!

2. First Time in Oregon

We had quite a long trip to get to where Tammy lived. First we flew from Pittsburgh to Chicago, a flight I'd taken before to visit my grandparents, but then a long one to Portland which was the longest flight I'd ever taken. This was followed by a small hop in a plane with propellers (another first for me - wow was it loud!) and we finally arrived at some little airport, seemingly out in the middle of nowhere. We actually had to walk from where they parked the airplane to the terminal! A sign stated the elevation was over 3,000 feet which seemed weird as I had never been to a place that was very high above sea-level before.

Tammy picked us up after we got our luggage from the lone luggage handler and then it was about an hour drive to her house. I really wasn't sure what her husband did for a living but whatever it was, he must do it pretty well! Their home was in a beautiful wooded community with golf courses, pools, and everything you could think of. The house wasn't huge but it was immaculate and decorated in an expensive but not gaudy style. No IKEA furniture in this house!

Tammy pulled into the garage and we took our luggage in and up to the guest room. Nobody else seemed to be home and Tammy explained everyone was out for one reason or another but that they would be back for dinner. The trip had been exhausting and with the jet lag I was nodding off so I left my mom with Tammy to catch up on everything while I went to take a nap.

I passed by the other bedrooms and wondered what her boys were like. There were some family photos hanging in the hallway and they looked to be quite a handsome family. Tammy's husband looked athletic and trim, at least in the portrait, and I wondered if he was a dedicated to the marriage as Tammy was. I noticed that they had a king-sized bed in the master bedroom and as I closed the door to the guest bedroom behind me, I found myself wondering what it would be like to have him fuck me in that big bed.

So much for a nap. As tired as I was there was one thing that could always keep me up and that was being horny - a condition I was definitely in at the moment. The trip here had been uneventful, despite some earlier fantasies I had where I was earning my way into the mile-high club. Unfortunately, my mom told me that masturbation doesn't count.! Now that I was actually at her house, her son's bedrooms right next to ours and seeing the bed where Tammy slept with her husband, my imagination began to work its magic.

I stripped off my clothes and laid on my back in the middle of the bed with the covers still on. My legs spread apart as my hand found its way to my already damp pussy and I shuddered as my fingers found my clit, already hard and sensitive. My other hand held my boob and I squeezed it as my fingers began to work their way around my bare pussy. Hmmm, I guess I had better shave before meeting the guys. Wouldn't want any stubble to appear around my bikini!

I must have been masturbating for at least fifteen or twenty minutes when the door suddenly opened and my mom poked her head in.

"Mom!" I whined a little at being distracted from my efforts. My mom just chuckled and grinned at me.

"Sorry, didn't mean to disturb you," she chuckled, "I thought you were so tired?"

I just gave her one of my patented looks of exasperation and she waved goodbye and closed the door behind her. Alone again, I went back to the business at hand, imagining myself in a number of scenarios. Of course, all of them involved someone in Tammy's family - even Tammy! There was one fantasy that really got me hot though. I imagined I was fucking one of her sons when Tammy appeared at the doorway. Rather than being shocked, she joined us and I got to watch her son fuck his mom for the first time.

I got off so much from the thought of that I could feel the waves approaching and as my fingers rubbed my clit furiously, my back arched and then I thrust my hips upward as if against an imaginary lover trying to ram himself deep into me. I had been trying to keep quite but I couldn't help it when a soft moan escaped as I came.

I suddenly realized I was on top of the covers and was about to make quite a mess but at that point there was not stopping to grab a towel. I felt my pussy grow hot like an oven and then suddenly it exploded with intense pleasure, as if a bomb had exploded except this bomb was loaded with the most incredible bliss you could imagine. I felt myself gushing pussy cum around my hand and down my ass onto the bedspread as I moaned a little louder this time.

God it felt so good! Goose bumps broke out all over me and I felt flushed as my fingers kept on teasing my clit, driving themselves into me and then back out again to run circles around and over my blazing hot clit. Finally I collapsed on the bed, spread eagle as I just allowed my pussy to throb and pulse, my chest heaving as I tried to regain my breath. I must have finally dozed off because my mom was waking me.

"Oh Kelly, couldn't you have at least pulled the bedspread down?" she said, almost more to herself than to me.

Oh well, it would dry! We both crawled under the covers then and I fell asleep in her arms. It felt so secure to be in my mom's arms, feeling the warmth and softness of her nude body against mine.

The next morning, as we got ourselves dressed and ready for the day, my mom sat me down next to her on the bed and laid down the ground rules for the week. My shoulders slumped as she pretty much repeated to me what she'd already said to me before leaving home. Somehow at home it hadn't seemed so real as it did now, being right next door to where Tammy's sons were sleeping. Basically, I had to behave and not in the way my dad defined it! No sex with ANY of the guys in the family, especially Tammy's husband! No flirting either, which really sucked. No masturbation outside the bedroom and no flashing. I heaved a sigh of exasperation. For crying out loud, what was there left to do? Actually, as it turned out there was quite a bit to do in this region of the country.

For the next five days it was like being on a guided tour of central Oregon. Tammy's husband (he was as handsome as in his picture!) was at work most of the time and the boys seemed to belong to every sporting activity in the area. As my mom had warned me, Tammy's family was nothing like mine when it came to sexual openness and sharing. Following my mother's instructions, I was a good girl, wearing some of my most conservative evening wear and actually wore a terrycloth robe most of the time. Even though I had left my tiniest thong bikini at home, I still wore a cute bikini but it was nothing more risque than you would buy at JC Penny.

Despite what I considered to be almost a nun's existence, Tammy's two teenage sons WERE boys after all and I caught them both looking at me rather "inappropriately" at times. I was sort of proud that her husband did a couple of times as well when he thought I wouldn't notice but other than that, they never made a move towards me or indicated any overt interest. It was sort of weird for me to have three relatively handsome men near me like this and not even flirt with them but then even I know how to respect someone's lifestyle. I knew I must have been doing well because my mom actually thanked me about half- way through the week and commended me on my restraint and respect.

Needless to say, it was hard to be around three handsome men and not even give so much as a hand-job to them. Every night before I could fall asleep I masturbated like crazy to deal with the built up passions that I had to bottle up inside during the day. Sometimes my mom would put her arm around me while I played with myself. It made me feel good to know she understood how difficult it was for me and that she appreciated my efforts.

During the course of the week we went boating, rode a ski lift up some big mountain, and even spent one day white water rafting - another first for me! We had to wear life jackets the entire time which hid my top but I know the boys got a good look at my ass when I was seated in front of them! I wasn't wearing a thing but with all the movement and tossing and turning, I often had to pull them back up into place - but not TOO soon...

3. The Casino

Overall I had a good time, even if I didn't get to do everything I would have liked to. We were due to return home Saturday so Thursday night the three of us women sat around the table discussing the past week and what we should do on our last day.

"So Kelly," you're 21 now - right?" Tammy asked. She knew perfectly well I was so I just nodded and waited to see she was going with this.

"Ever been to a casino?" Tammy asked, looking at my mom with a twinkle in her eye. Actually, I never had. Pennsylvania doesn't have any casinos and even though a couple in West Virginia were only an hour away or so, it just wasn't something that my parents were into all that much so we had never even discussed it before.

"Oh wow, that would be SOOOOO cool!" I exclaimed. I looked at my mom who didn't seem as thrilled by the idea. It wasn't like she was morally against gambling or anything; I just don't think it was something she enjoyed all that much for whatever reason. I reached over and held her hand. "C'mon mom, can we go?"

My mom heaved a sigh and agreed so the discussion turned to where the nearest casino was. how long it would take to get there, and other such things. Tammy explained that the only place gambling was allowed in Oregon was on an Indian reservation with the nearest one being a couple of hours away. My mom wasn't too thrilled about the long drive it until my aunt told her about a couple of small towns on the way that featured great shopping - always the perfect temptation for my mom!

Friday morning came early and we left right after breakfast to get a head start on the shopping part of our trip. Tammy was right, each town offered its own unique stores and shops and we spent the entire morning and part of the afternoon spending money - a hobby all three of us had in common.

It wasn't until the middle of the afternoon that we finally reached the turnoff to the reservation. I was excited at the prospect of my first casino experience and I thought when I saw the sign that we were finally there. Well, it turned out that it was another half hour or so by the time we wound our way through barren desert until we finally dipped down a steep mountain road and before us was the casino!

At first glance I couldn't help but feel a bit disappointed. Compared to the casinos I'd seen back home and on TV, it look tiny. A couple of tour buses were in the parking lot along with maybe twenty or thirty cars and that was it. We parked and went to the entrance. The guy asked for my ID and he smiled at me when he looked at my driver's license. He was pretty cute and I thought to myself maybe there was more to a casino than gambling!

Once inside, it wasn't much more than it looked like from the outside. It was almost entirely slot machines with one small area to the side with a poker table but the lights were off and nobody was around it. Off to the side were some stairs that led up to what I later found to be just more slots. The one thing that turned me off was all the people that were smoking - it was like being in a smokestack! The thing that struck me the most, though, was the noise! It was a small area and with all the slots ringing and making sounds it was almost deafening at first. People seemed to be having fun, though, and so I figured we may as well make the best of it.

My mom and aunt went to a window where they took out a few hundred dollars from their credit cards. I was surprised when they were given all bills as I expected to see a bucket of quarters. My perception of slots had always been putting in quarters, pulling a lever and then watching the wheels spin until all the fruit lined up. Well, I guess I was a generation too late! These machines took bills and instead of a lever, there were just button to set your bet and then make the video "wheels" spin.

My mom and Tammy gave me some quick lessons on slots to get me started. I found that most didn't have fruit but instead there was an incredible array of machines with every theme imaginable. I guess it was more efficient but somehow I felt cheated! As I played I learned quickly that it WAS a more efficient way to take my money as the dollars seemed to be disappearing faster than the credits I was earning.

Nobody ever called me the most patient person in the world and I quickly became disillusioned and started wondering what was so great about gambling. Suddenly my machine started making noises and a light started flashing and spinning on top. My mom came rushing over and hugged me - I had won $200! Suddenly my whole attitude changed and I couldn't wait to throw more money into the machine.

Another thing I learned about gambling, or at least about slots, was it was not something to share - you played alone. It wasn't any fun watching someone else! My mom and Tammy disappeared once they got me rolling and the three of us moved about on our own trying out whatever machine caught our eye.

As I played I noticed that the casino was filled primarily with old people who must have been bussed in from their retirement homes to spend their social security checks. A few younger couples were around but for the most part nobody looked all that interesting. Again, I felt like all my visions of a casino were being dashed. What happened to all the sexy girls and hunks that I saw on TV in the casinos?

As the day wore on and evening approached, I took a walk outside to clear the smoke from my lungs. My clothes were going to stink when we got back! Coming down the mountain I saw car lights approaching the casino. At the same time the tour busses were loading up the geriatric crowd. As the old timers left, the people in the cars replaced them and I noticed a distinct difference in age and attitude. The evening crowd seemed to be here for more than just gambling. Whereas the old folks looked like refugees from a Cocoon movie, these folks were dressed a bit less conservatively, to say the least.

It still wasn't like it was some hot nightclub or anything. You got the feel pretty quick here that this was a working class casino. Most everyone wore jeans but at couple of the girls wore skirts. It was stereotypical western garb for the most part, even down to the boots for many of them. Actually I fit in rather well as I was wearing some tight jeans and a western shirt we had bought earlier in the day. It certainly wasn't the most sexiest outfit in my wardrobe but the jeans were awfully tight and showed off my ass nicely - no panty lines of course! The shirt was tight, probably at least a size to small but I liked the way it fit around my boobs and there shouldn't have been any question as to whether or not I was wearing a bra (actually, I hadn't even brought one with on the trip!).

Somehow my mom had convinced me to buy a pair of cowboy boots which replaced the brown flats I had started the day in. They were still pretty stiff and personally I found them more difficult to wear than heels! My hair had what my mom called, "she woke up and just combed it" look. It really wasn't THAT bad and I liked it sometimes just to hang down loose to my shoulders. Overall, I doubted most people would have thought of me as anything but just another local girl here for some fun.

One thing that DID make me stand out was it seemed almost all of the newcomers were older than me but I guess that was to be expected since at 21, I was as young as you could be and still get through the doors. Most seemed to be in their late twenties or thirties, definitely not a teenage crowd. It was a Friday night so folks seemed to be in a party mood which most likely made the owners happy as I had no doubt they gave away their money all the faster when they were drunk.

When I re-entered the casino, I noticed that the light had been turned on over the poker table and a dealer had appeared along with a couple of hefty body guards. People had already started migrating closer to the table and before long the seats had all be taken. I liked to watch poker on TV sometimes but this was the first time I had seen it for real. Most of the players were couples while at the far end was a group of guys with one of them at the table and the rest looking on. Naturally it was the guys who got my attention!

4. An Easy Bet to Win

"Well well, see something interesting?" I heard from behind me. I turned and my mom and Tammy were there, both of them grinning at me.

"Well, you gotta admit they're better than the grandma and grandpas," I replied with a wink.

I noticed that both of them had a glass of wine in their hands and from the way my mom was standing I had a suspicion it wasn't her first (or second). It sort of surprised me as I couldn't remember the last time I had seen her drunk. For that matter, I couldn't remember ANY time when she had been drunk.

"Did I ever tell you my daughter was a slut?" my mom said with a slight slur to Tammy. Dear god, she WAS drunk!

"Oh really? Well, I think you mentioned she was popular with the guys," Tammy said, looking at my mom with about as surprised a look as I had on my face, "But no Mary, I don't think you ever called her THAT before!"

"Well she IS a slut," my mom said with a silly grin on her face, "You wouldn't believe how many guys she's spread her legs for. Makes me look like a nun when I was her age!"

"MOM!" I said in a little louder voice than I intended. I looked around and although a few people had turned at the sound of my voice, thankfully it didn't appear that any had heard what she had said.

"Now Mary, don't embarrass Kelly," Tammy said, putting her arm around my mom to hold her steady.

"Are you kidding!?" my mom said, laughter creeping into her voice, "I don't think she even knows what the word means!"

Tammy tried to steer my dunk mother to a couch in the lounge at the back of the casino but my mom refused to go. Instead she stood her ground and looked over at the group of guys at the poker table.

"Here Tammy, I'll prove it to you," she said in a softer voice. The she looked at me with a nasty grin on her face. "Ok... Kelly... Show Tammy what a slut you are. Go over and get all four of those guys to fuck you."

"Mary!", Tammy exclaimed, "What are you trying to prove?" She turned to me and took my hand. "Now Kelly, your mom's drunk and I know she didn't mean to say that. You certainly don't have to do anything like that."

I looked back over at the guys and thought for a minute. They all looked to be in their mid to late twenties, not bad looking and seemed to be having a good time trying to hit on every girl that walked by. Overall, not too shabby and definitely fuckable! I turned back to my mom and Tammy and put on a silly grin.

"Oh, I don't know Tammy, I think it sounds like quite a little challenge actually," I said softly, rubbing up against her slightly but just enough for her to feel my breast pushing against her. She blushed a little, although I couldn't be sure that she wasn't more embarrassed than turned on. I looked back at my mom and asked, "OK, so what do I get if I win?"

My mom just laughed at that saying, "Well, I would think getting fucked by four guys would be enough of a present for you. After all that masturbating this week I KNOW you're horny as can be! So what's it going to be girl?"

"Deal!" I said, closing the negotiations as they were.

Tammy was looking at my mom like she was some sort of stranger and I could see her lips moving as she whispered to my mom, asking what she was talking about when she said I had been masturbating all week. Well, what did she expect me to do surrounded by gorgeous men all week, none of whom I was allowed to touch! My mom knew me all too well. She was right - I WAS as horny as I could be and I was willing to do most anything if it meant getting fucked. After all, it wasn't like the thought had not already entered my mind earlier. I took a deep breath and was about to head over for my prey when my mom stepped over to me and grinned.

"Now remember - all four of them or it doesn't count!" she whispered to me.

"Does oral count?" I responded. My mom laughed at me and shook her head.

"Hell no!" she snorted, "When I say fucked that means fucked, not sucked!"

I grinned, not expecting anything less from her. Usually my mom was the "voice of reason" whenever my dad would go a little too far when he came up with things for me to do for him but now and then my mom seemed to like to live vicariously through me. Sometimes I wondered if she really told me everything that she had done when she was my age. Was she reliving her past through me or using me to realize some unfilled fantasy? I had a feeling today was the latter. Of course, a few drinks didn't hurt when it came to loosening up the inhibitions. After a week of being away from my dad I knew she was pretty horny herself and I had no doubt in her mind she was wishing she could do what she was telling me to do. I also had no doubts that the guys would have loved a mother-daughter pair as well!

I ran my hands through my hair and shook my head to fluff it up. One less button on the shirt to reveal some more cleavage and I was ready to go. I slowly walked over to the table towards the guys. Because there as only one poker table in this little casino and all the seats were filled, they were stuck having to just watch their friend but that didn't seem to prevent them from drinking beer and having a good time.

Judging from the way they were chugging down the bottles, I had a feeling they were going to be a bit drunk which usually meant that in addition to their normal mental capacities, any inhibitions would be dulled as well. Mmmmmmm, that was perfect for what I had in mind for them!

As I got closer I was able to see them more clearly and listen to them. One guy stood out as the leader, a tall, dark haired guy who looked also to be the oldest, probably in his early thirties if I guessed right. I quickly noticed one other thing about him that set him off from the others - he was the only one with a wedding ring on. He was standing directly behind the guy sitting at the table, slapping him on the side of the head when he made a stupid move and then shaking him by the shoulders when he made a good play. From the looks of things, he was getting hit in the head a lot more than which seemed to correspond with the shrinking pile of chips in front of him.

Actually, the guy playing was the most handsome of the bunch and also looked to be the youngest, just barely old enough to be playing from the looks of him. He was wearing a tight t-shirt which showed off his arms and chest nicely. The other two were your run-of-the-mill guys that seem to populate most of the world. They weren't exactly models but not ugly either. Both were probably in their mid to late twenties and seemed more interested in their beer and flirting with the girls than the game at the table.

So far it looked they were having about as much luck with the girls as their friend was having at the table but that didn't deter them from trying. The poor waitress had to deal with them with every round. She just smiled when they grabbed her ass but I noticed she moved away as quickly as possible once they paid and tipped her. She obviously knew what it took to get a good tip but I could have told them that they had about as much a chance of laying her as a snowball had in hell!

I made my way to a spot where I could watch the table as if I was interested in the game but close enough for them to hit on me if they wanted. In a way I almost felt sorry for them as it was like throwing bait into a bucket of hungry fish. I wasn't there a minute before one of the two made his way over to me.

"Hey babe, buy you a drink?" he said with his eyes planted firmly on my chest.

Now THAT was an original line if I ever heard one! I just smiled at him and shook my head. It wasn't a complete turndown like they had been getting from the other girls, just enough to say I didn't want drink but not so much that I was turning him completely away.

"You like poker?" he tried again. This time I nodded slightly and looked his way.

"I like to play," I said softly. He seemed almost surprised that I had responded to him, which was probably not to be unexpected given his .000 batting average so far for the evening.

"Oh really?" he said, moving up closer to me, "Guess you'll have to get yourself a seat at the table."

As he said it he put his hand on the table behind me that I was leaning against such that his arm was pressed against my back. Since I didn't make any move to pull away from him, he took it as a sign of encouragement and moved in a little closer to me. I grinned at him and teased him a little.

"I said I like to play, not that I wanted to play poker," I said as I pressed back against his arm just enough to let him know I was OK with him pressing against me.

He obviously didn't need much more encouragement as almost immediately I felt his hand firmly on my ass. I almost laughed at how easy this was becoming. Yep, fish in a barrel! I glanced over at where my mom and Tammy were standing, watching me and talking to each other as if they were observing some kind of sporting event. Well, I guess in a way that was exactly what they were doing. This was just a game for me after all, one I had no intention of losing!

"You DO know that's my ass you have your hand on," I said softly to him. He responded by clenching it tighter.

"Yea, and what a nice ass it is," he said, pressing up harder against me. One thing about horny guys, and slightly drunk ones at that, was they didn't waste a lot of time with small talk. He was looking to get laid, not for a date which suited me just fine as it wasn't like I had all night myself. The key now was to get the others involved as well.

"What about your friends?" I asked seductively, nodding at them over by the poker table, "Do they like to play too?"

"Nahhhhh, forget them," he said as he started to move his hand over the curves of my ass, "What you say just me and you head out for a little fun - just the two of us?"

I pulled away from his hand and touched my finger playfully to his chest, which was at eye level for me. "But I told you, I like to play... and the more the better."

For a moment I thought maybe I had gone too fast for him. His eyes narrowed and he looked at me with a little more concern this time.

"How old are you babe?" he asked. I told him I was twenty one and he looked at me again saying, "You sure?" I rolled my eyes at him this time and informed him that my ID was checked when I came in so what was he worried about?

"You're not a cop, are you?" he said in a questioning tone. I shook my head and then he said, "OK, then how much?"

I looked at him with a pout and slapped him hard enough to let him know I wasn't kidding. "I am NOT a whore!" I protested. I started to turn away as if I was disgusted but he grabbed me by the arm and pulled me back to him.

"I'm sorry... Hey c'mon, forget about them," he whined, "We got a van out in the parking lot... let's go babe, just you and me."

He put his arm around me but I twisted out of it and looked at him with a pout. "If you really want me that bad then you know what to do."

His cheeks puffed out as he let out a deep breath and looked over at his friends. "Damn, then what the hell are you, some kind of fucking nympho or what?"

"Maybe, " I said with a grin, "Like I said, I like to play and tonight I just want to have a good time!"

"Fuck it then," he said, "Wait here a minute."

I smiled as he walked over to his other friend and started talking to him. I couldn't make out what he was saying but it was enough to make his friend look over at me and run his eyes up and down me a couple of times. At first he looked like he wasn't believing what he was being told but when I returned his looks with a smile of my own, that seemed to convince him. Both of them went to their leader and I knew this was the make or break point. He was married, or at least he wore a wedding ring, so was he into this sort of thing or just here for the gambling? Like the other guy, he turned to take me in and then his eyebrows rose and a grin appeared so I knew he was hooked as well.

The guy at the table apparently didn't get a vote. The leader tapped him on the shoulder and informed him that he was finished whether he liked it or not. I noticed the player didn't protest and I had a feeling that the leader didn't tolerate much backtalk from his minions.

My pussy was tingling now as I knew I had them hooked – as if there was ever any doubt. The rest was all downhill. I glanced again over at my mom and Tammy and grinned. Tammy had this look on her face of total disbelief. I think she was shocked at how easily I had reeled in my catch while my mom just shook her head like she usually did whenever I did something that she couldn't quite believe I had done. Even though in this case she was the one to egg me on, somehow I had a feeling she hadn't really believed it would actually happen.

Well, she should have known better given my track record - which she knew completely. Just then the group came over to me and literally surrounded me. Naturally, the leader set himself in front of me and he led the conversation as well.

"So, Jimmy here says you're looking' to play around tonight," he said, nodding his head to the first guy.

"That depends," I said, licking my lips slightly, "on what you've got to play with."

They all laughed and he replied to me saying, "Don't you worry about THAT sweetie. I've got plenty, if you can handle it."

I rolled my eyes as if I had heard it all before and shook my head slowly, "Well, I guess we'll just have to find out."

He looked around and then back at me, "Say, you here alone babe?"

"Does it matter?" I answered. I wasn't sure where this was leading and I didn't want to lie and possibly get myself in trouble. I wasn't too keen that they thought I was alone because then who knows what would keep them from getting out of hand. On the other hand, do I tell them my MOM is here?

"Just curious if you had a friend to join us," he said, looking at me more and more like he was ready to take me right then and there. Well, what could it hurt?

"Well, my mom and her best friend are here with me," I said as if it was perfectly natural for them to be here when I was doing this sort of thing.

"Yeah right," he said in a disbelieving tone, "And my mom is here too so maybe we should get them together for coffee or something."

"Seriously," I replied, "They're right over there... by the slots." I pointed them out with my finger and the lot of them turned to look.

My mom and Tammy saw me pointing at them and realized what must be happening. I grinned as my mom just sighed but Tammy quickly turned away as if she was embarrassed to be seen.

"Damn, you're not kidding, are you?" he said. "Let me guess, mom turned away and her friend is the horny looking one?"

He was partially right - my mom WAS the horny one but he had them reversed otherwise. I was about to correct him when a nasty thought came to my mind. Hmmm, this could REALLY get interesting!

"Good guess," I giggled, not actually saying what he said was true but giving them that impression.

"God, I can't believe that's your mom," he said, "What kind of mother..."

He let it go at that but I knew what he must have been thinking. In a way, I had to agree with his thoughts. What kind of mother indeed! I would have loved to have told him what a fantastic mom I had for allowing me to have fun like this but then I could also see where it would have been easy to get the wrong impression. Besides, it's not like she was pimping me out or anything. Meanwhile, my mind was racing with a nasty idea I had forming. I looked back at my mom and then at him again and gave him a wicked grin.

"Would you like her to join in?" I teased them.

As if on cue, all four of them let out a collective sigh. What is it with guys that they are so into a mother and daughter thing? In a way I could understand as I had always dreamed of being with a father and son. I didn't give them a chance to respond but instead pushed my way between them.

"Let me go ask... OK?" I said in a cute little girl voice, as if I was going to ask them something entirely innocent.

They were punching each other and mumbling about how incredible this was going to be and I had the same thoughts actually. I went to my mom and Tammy and whispered to them as soon as I approached.

"Just go with this, ok?" I said softly. They both looked at me, not understanding what I was up to but appeared to be willing to do as I asked. I put my arms around Tammy's neck and hugged her as if she was my mom. I looked back at the guys and they were watching as if it was the only show in town.

"What is this all about Kelly?" Tammy asked, whispering in my ear.

I whispered back, explaining quickly that I had told them SHE was my mom and that she might want to join in. Tammy gasped and her eyes met mine, as wide open as saucers.

"You've GOT to be kidding!" she whispered back to me, "NO WAY!"

"Ah, c'mon Tammy," my mom joined in, "You could have fun!"

As much as my mom and I tried to talk her into it, Tammy was adamant that she would not join in so I looked back at the guys and shrugged my shoulders. It was a long shot knowing Tammy but then again, it would have been fun if she HAD joined in. I returned and explained to the disappointed group that she wouldn't join us.

"But she doesn't care if her daughter messes around with some total strangers?" one of the guys asked.

"Hey, it's not like I am going to get married or anything," I said in a flippant tone. "So what's the story, you guys up for some fun or what?"

Needless to say, they were all starting to get "up" and I was even feeling a bit warmer between the legs at the prospect of what was about to happen. Sure I had done some pretty wild things for my dad before, but never anything even remotely like this when my mom was around! I wondered for a minute what was going on with her. Was she trying to impress Tammy somehow?

Despite a couple of "lapses" with me, I knew Tammy was extremely religious and straight these days so was my mom trying to show off how slutty her daughter could be? Maybe I was making too much of it; maybe it was more simple than all that and she was just horny and with the drinks had let it get the best of her. That's usually what happened with my dad. Sometimes he just got to wound up that it seemed he needed something more to satisfy his needs than just fucking me so he would have me do things that he normally wouldn't.

I smiled as I remembered the time he asked my cousin Kristen and me to pretend to be whores for him and some clients. My mom wasn't too pleased about that one but she found out about it too late to do anything about it. The more I thought about it the more I concluded it was just her own needs that were driving the events tonight. Even though she couldn't do it herself, having me be a slut in her place was the next best thing! "Let's go baby," the leader said.

He planted his hand firmly on my ass and directed me towards the door. I looked back at my mom and Tammy, who had turned back now to watch. There was something in Tammy's face that made me feel really hot, a look of total disbelief and shock. It was one thing to tease about it, still another to watch me tease the guys, but to actually watch me leaving and knowing what they were about to do to me seemed to be more than she could believe. My mom had her arm around Tammy and that was the last I saw of them until I returned later.

5. Fucked by Four in a Parking Lot

The sun had gone down but there was still enough light to see clearly with the parking lots on. The lot was about full now as we walked out to the middle aisle. About three-quarters of the way down there was a large dark-colored van, maybe deep blue. I almost laughed when I saw that is was a Grand Caravan. Four hot guys driving around in the classic soccer-mom van just seemed silly I guess.

The leader (I still didn't know anyone's name but Jimmy's) reached in his pocket and pulled out the keys. It figured, the married guy owned the van. I couldn't see any self-respecting single guy driving a loser-cruiser around! The security alarm beeped a couple of times and then he lifted the rear gate. Again, I almost snickered as he pushed aside some toys and a small jacket that must have belonged to one of his kids. I wondered if he was the same big-shot with his wife around as when he was out with the guys. Somehow I didn't think so!

"Well, whatcha waiting for?" he said suddenly, breaking my thoughts about his family and bringing me back to the task at hand. From experience, I knew guys like these loved to be dominating and in control so I figured I would have a little fun with it.

"Ummmmm," I said hesitatingly, "I never said anything about getting in a van."

"Give us a break, you fucking slut," one of the guys said, "You knew exactly what we wanted."

I pretended to be a bit scared and I looked about me like a mouse cornered by a cat. "Hey guys, really... How about just a blowjob for each of you?"

The parking lot was empty, not a car coming or going. The leader looked around, undid his belt and unzipped his jeans. He wasn't wearing any underwear which made it easy for him to reach in for his cock and hold it out to me.

"Stop talking and suck my dick bitch," he said in a harsh tone.

I got a kick out of guys when they demanded I suck their cocks. Who did they think they were kidding? All I had to do was bite down hard and that was all it would take to put him in place - forever! Yet somehow he thought HE was in control. What a joke! I didn't suck a cock if I didn't want to and tonight wasn't going to be an exception.

The truth was, I had been wanting him to pull it out just as much as he wanted to do it himself. It had been a week since I had sucked a nice cock and his looked delicious! I dropped to my knees on the hard blacktop and eagerly grabbed his cock and took it in my mouth. It was warm and smelled of sweat, just beginning to grow into the hard cock I was craving.

"Oh yeah!" he gasped as my tongue raced around his shaft. "She good?" one of the guys asked. I looked up at him with his cock still in my mouth. Our eyes met and he just groaned in reply. "Guess so!" said the guy who had asked.

The other three were standing around us and if anyone had come out they would have had to look closely in the dusk light to tell what was really happening. They had pulled out their own cocks and were stroking themselves as they watched me suck his cock. He was nice and thick but not too long and I was able to take his whole cock in my mouth easily, burying my face in his smelly pubic hair. I pumped his cock with my hand and looked up at him, our eyes meeting as I held his dick in my mouth for him to watch. I allowed it to slip out and I grinned up at him.

"I bet I suck it better than your wife," I said seductively.

The others laughed and he just grinned and pushed my head back on his cock. He grabbed a handful of my hair and pumped my head on him like he was masturbating, just using my mouth instead of his hand. Out of the corner of my eye I could see off in the distance there were some more headlights so I knew it would only be a few minutes before they were pulling into the lot but I was making the best of it. Two of the other guys stood to each side of us and I grabbed their cocks with my hands, jerking them off as I sucked on the one in front of me. Sure enough, it was not long before we heard the sound of the cars coming our way.

"Get in the van - now!" the leader commanded me.

I jumped inside and stretched out on my back on the floor where he had lowered the seats. It wasn't exactly the most comfortable bed but it would do. His cock quickly appeared again in front of my face and I started sucking on him, enjoying the flavor of his dick and the odor of his crotch.

"God damn it all!" he groaned, "fuck, you really know how to suck a dick."

As I blew him I felt hands on me and my clothes being undone. I didn't want my buttons torn off so I helped undo my short while my jeans were being roughly pulled off of me. In a matter of seconds I was naked and just then a car drove by behind us. Everyone ignored it so I guess the people in the car couldn't see what was going on inside. A hand reached between my legs and I felt fingers explored my pussy, quickly finding my wet pussy hole and pushing inside of me.

"Damn! she's soaking wet already," someone exclaimed, "I think the fucking whore wants something."

I started playing with myself, pushing my finger up into me as my mouth was being fucked with his cock. I couldn't see in the I dark what the others were doing but they must have been able to make out what I was doing.

"Christ, look at her... she's got her fingers up in her!"

"Fuck, look at that little body. I can't wait to fuck that cunt!"

"Look at her suck that cock, she really loves it!"

I loved hearing them talk dirty about me, it made me feel sexy and hot. Meanwhile, the leader pulled his cock from my mouth and looked down at me. I could barely see the leer in his face as he stroked his cock just above my face.

"I know you want it," he sneered at me, "Tell me, you want this cock?"

I moaned like a whore in heat and plunged my fingers deep inside of my pussy. "Oh fuck me!" was all I said and all I needed to say.

"God, listen to the little whore," the leader crowed to the others, "I think she wants it as bad as we do!"

To be perfectly honest, he was right! I wanted to be fucked terribly. Actually, I NEEDED to be fucked. A week without a cock in my cunt was a torture I should never have to bear when I'm away from school. At the moment it didn't really matter to me who was attached to it, I just wanted one inside of me, filling my pussy the way it loved to be filled.

"Fuck her Ramone!" they said over and over, almost chanting as they went on.

Ramone worked his way awkwardly in the cramped quarters until he was over me. I spread my legs wide so he could get in between them and reached down for his hard cock. I found it immediately and literally pulled him into my waiting pussy. I positioned his cock at the entrance to my pussy hole and lifted my hips up to him to make it easier to penetrate me.

"Give it to me," I hissed at him, "Push it in me dammit!"

Ramone groaned and shoved his hips into my crotch and I felt his cock sliding into my wet pussy. It felt so good to feel my pussy split open, at first resisting his cock but then surrendering to the pressure and accepting the intruder. He kept pushing and pulling until he was buried in me to the hilt and his pubic hair tickled my bare pussy. For a moment he just held himself still in me and I could feel his hard cock throbbing inside of me. I moaned loudly at the incredible sensations it produced throughout my entire body.

"Hey, I think she likes it!" one of the guys called out to Ramone. "Yeah, fuck her harder!" another guy cried out.

Ramone didn't waste time with anything subtle. He started pounding my pussy with his cock and crotch. By now I was so wet his dick made a slurping sound as it slid in and out of my wet pussy. The feel of his cock rubbing against the walls of my pussy was like a bow being drawn across the strings of a violin, but instead of making music it produced surge after surge of the most incredible sensations in me, the most intense pleasure you could imagine.

Actually this was exactly what I had wanted - just to be fucked. It was dark, I couldn't really see him and I really didn't care if I did. The only thing I wanted was what he was putting in me - a wonderful hard cock that was making me so damn good! There was something about being fucked by a guy that no dildo could ever replace. Knowing a man was literally mating me like some animal in heat, fucking me without a care about me other than my pussy around him, was incredibly erotic and simply made me feel sexy as hell.

"That's it, give it to me," I moaned, "Deeper... push it deeper inside of me... Oh god yes, fuck me!"

It was like being in heaven. The bumps and lumps of the van floor under me disappeared as it was like my body was suspended in midair. All I could feel was his cock inside of me, stroking in and out of me like a fleshy piston. I reached down and played with my clit while he kept fucking me, driving me even more insane with pleasure.

I didn't want it to end. All I wanted right then was to keep going all night this way. Unfortunately, he must have been even hornier than I thought because he didn't last very long. It seemed like only a few minutes had passed by when he groaned even louder and I knew what was about to happen. I squeezed his cock with my pussy, increasing the pressure of his dick against my sensitive pussy walls while my fingers worked furiously around my hardened clit.

"God I'm gonna cum!" he cried out.

"Cum in me," I begged him, "Cum in my pussy!"

"Here it cums bitch," be groaned, a grimace on his face as he tried to hold back for as long as he could. Suddenly he lurched forward and I felt his cock surging in me, releasing his warm load of sperm inside of me.

"Give it to me," I begged him, wanting all of his cum inside of me. "That's it, keep cumming in me!"

It was like a flood of sperm was being released in me. The warmth of his cum quickly disappeared but I could feel him throbbing me as my body responded to the sensations of his orgasm. My pussy felt like it was on fire as it convulsed and gripped his cock like a vise. My back arched under him and it was like every square inch of my body was suddenly tingling like your foot when it falls asleep. I moaned and groaned as I writhed beneath him, my orgasm overwhelming me.

"Fuck! She's cumming!" someone exclaimed.

If he only knew how right he was! It was like a week's worth of pent-up frustration was all being released at once as my pussy exploded again and a wave of pleasure coursed up and down me from head to toe. Finally it began to die down and I just laid there, completely spent and motionless with his cock still impaled in my pussy. Ramone pulled out of me then and my pussy suddenly felt so cold and empty . I wanted more though, this had gone too quickly so thank god there were more of them!

"Alright, who's next," I said as I ran my finger around my pussy.

Some of his cum was leaking out of me and I scooped it up in my fingers and made a show of tasting it. Ramone was still in the back of the van so he called up to the guys in front and told them to drive the van to a different spot in the parking lot. This area was more secluded and we backed into the spot which hid us even more from anyone that should around this way. Ramone raised up the back hatch and crawled out backwards, pulling his jeans back up as he stood. He looked at me and motioned for me to get out.

"C'mon bitch, get out of there!" he demanded.

I was still nude but it seemed secluded enough so I managed to get out and sit on the outer edge of the van. I smiled as I saw the next guy was already dropping his jeans. My pussy tingled - it wanted more! He moved in between my open legs and then lifted them up and over his shoulders. I leaned back on my elbows and held my ass up to let him see my crotch more clearly in the light of the overhead lamps

"Damn, look at that pussy! Now it's my turn," he said to nobody in particular, least of all me.

Yep, this was just pure fucking. No emotion, no concern for each other, no "did you cum" lines at the end. He was horny and just wanted to fuck me and I could have been a plastic doll for it mattered to him except my pussy was real. He struggled a little to keep his balance but I couldn't help him as I was trying to hold myself up to watch as his dick entered me. I could feel the tip of it pressing against my now cum-filled pussy and he easily slid inside of me.

Just then I was surprised when a car drove by right in front of the van. I hadn't heard it coming and apparently neither did the guys but by being in the back we were hidden from prying eyes. This was so cool! I couldn't believe I was being gang-banged in the middle of a parking lot. OK, it wasn't the MIDDLE of the lot but it was close enough.

I wondered what my mom and Tammy were talking about inside. It would have been so cool for them to have been able to watch, even more if they had joined in!

It didn't take long for #2 to cum, he had been stroking himself watching his friend fuck me so soon I was filled with a second helping of sperm. The third guy moved in quickly but first he twisted me around so I was leaning forward into the back of the van, As I did, the last guy made his way to take my place where I had been sitting such that my arms were now straddling his body with my hands on the floor.

It was obvious what they wanted and as I bent over I felt #3's cock pressing into me. I leaned forward even more and as his cock pressed into my pussy I took the last guy's hard dick in my mouth. Mmmmmmm, now I had a cock in me in both of my favorite holes!

I felt the guy behind me grab my hips and push me and pull me onto his cock. The resulting motion caused me to automatically rise and fall on the cock in front of me. Both guys seemed to be enjoying it and I had to admit, so was I. It was just what I needed tonight, just pure fucking. I suppose it ranked only a step above masturbation but who cared so long as a real dick was in me - that was what counted so far as I was concerned.

Then somehow I remembered my bet with my mom and I knew I had to get the fourth guy to fuck me as well. I could have easily lied to her but why would I when I could accomplish my mission for real?

"I want you both to fuck me," I said with a devilish smile on my face. They looked confused and I laughed gently, "Noooooo, not at the same time silly, switch back and forth."

They looked at each other and shrugged and the one guy pulled out of me to make room for his partner. Each one would stroke himself in me a few times and then pull out so the other could have his turn. I smiled and though they may have thought it was due to their efforts, the reality was I had just officially won my bet with my mom! They seemed to be both getting close so I directed them some more.

"OK, one of you cum in my mouth, the other in my pussy," I demanded.

I was still bent over as they fucked me from behind so the one that had started fucking me first moved to have a seat on the van while his friend took sole possession of my pussy. There was already some precum on the guy's cock when I took it in my mouth so I knew it wouldn't be much longer. Sure enough, his groans got loader and then he took his cock in his hand, pulling it from my mouth.

"Open your mouth bitch," he said, stroking himself with one hand.

I did as he commanded, trying to stay lined up with his cock which was beginning more and more difficult as the guy fucking me was getting ready to cum himself and was banging into my ass like a pile driver. Just as I feared, at the same moment the guy in back almost knocked me off my feet, the guy in front began to cum and the first shot hit me right on the forehead and God knows how much was in my hair.

I regained my balance and took the next shot straight in my mouth but he was stroking himself wildly and the next two loads fell on my face and some even hit my eye. Damn, what a mess! People wonder why I don't like guys cumming on my face! I didn't have much time to reflect further when the guy in back began to cum. Like his idiot friend, he also pulled out of me and shot cum all over my back and ass! I could even feel it between my shoulder blades and again I wondered if somehow he had managed to get it in my hair as well. I felt him spread the cum on my ass around using his cock like a squeegee. I could taste the guy's cum in my mouth and swallowed what little there was. Mmmmmmm, it tasted pretty good and I wished he had given me his entire load to enjoy!

"Hot damn, good job guys!" Ramone said, clapping his hands at their performance. "Shit, look at her - now she really does look like a fucking whore!"

I stood up and tried to wipe the cum from my eye so I could open it again. I could feel the cum drying on my face already and I knew my back and ass must have been a mess from the way I could feel it running down my back. Someone threw a small towel at me and I used it to wipe off my face. As I opened my eyes I squinted and could see them all piling in the van. What the hell was going on now? One of them threw my clothes on the ground at my feet and closed the last door behind him. Ramone was in the driver's seat and he stuck his head out the window and called back to me.

"Thanks for the sweet fuck bitch, gotta run now!" he said, laughing along with all his buddies as they pulled out of the parking spot and then headed to the exit, leaving me standing there.

I just stood there I a daze, completely confused at how quickly things had changed. One minute I was getting fucked like there was no tomorrow and now here I was, nude, covered with cum inside and out, standing out in the open in a public parking lot.

Suddenly it dawned on me what my situation was and I ducked behind the car next to me just in time as a couple came strolling down looking for their car. Fortunately it wasn't one of the ones around me and they quickly disappeared out of site.

I used the towel to clean myself off as much as possible using what light I could get from the parking lot and my reflection in the car window. I tried to reach my back and get off what I could but I knew I was missing most of it. My ass was easier to reach and I was pretty sure I had all of it off but by then the little towel was getting pretty covered with cum. I slipped on my clothes and tried to straighten my hair but I had left my purse with my mom so all I could do was run my fingers through it. It felt like a little cum was in it but there was nothing I could do about it out here.

I slowly headed back to the casino. On the one hand, it had felt good to be finally fucked and I didn't mind so much that they had left me but I really would have liked a little more to be honest. It had all gone by so quickly!

6. Claiming Victory

As I walked up the steps it was almost surreal – did this really just happen to me? The warmth in my pussy told me it was for real but rather than taking the hours I had expected, I must have been gone for less than an hour. Would my mom even believe me? The place was even louder than ever when I entered and I looked around for either my mom or Tammy. I finally found them in the lounge, each of them with an oversized margarita in front of them. "Well, look who's back!" my mom said with a look of surprise on her face. "So soon? Guess I won, eh?"

Tammy looked at me over her shoulder and then straight at me as I sat down, never taking her eyes off of me in the process. There was a look in her eyes I hadn't seen before, as if she was seeing me for the first time.

"Nope, I won," I declared proudly.

I then explained to them all that had happened. My mom broke in a few times to clear up a detail or ask for more information but Tammy just remained silent the entire time, staring at me like I was some sort of freak or alien from outer space.

Finally, as I finished Tammy looked at me and asked, "OK, did you REALLY do all that or is this some sort of practical joke between your mom and you to play on me?"

The question actually threw me off balance for a moment. I had never even thought about such a thing although the idea was pretty clever. As proof I leaned over and showed her where I thought the cum was in my hair and smiled at her.

"Well, this isn't hand lotion," I said softly, "Why, don't you believe I would actually do such a thing?"

Tammy looked at me, then at my mom, and then back at me again. "Honestly," she started out, "I didn't... I just figured it was your mom and you just teasing me. I never once thought you would actually do such a thing!"

My mom started to say something but Tammy cut her off, "Good Lord Mary, doesn't it bother you that your daughter's a whore?"

"Now Tammy!" my mom exclaimed, "Don't say that about my Kelly. She may be a slut but she's not a whore. Those guys didn't pay her for sex."

Tammy looked like she was going to be sick. I didn't know quite what to do but my mom turned to me and told me to go to the girl's room and clean myself off. I did as she told me although I suspected it was more to let her talk to Tammy alone than it was for my benefit. Indeed, when I returned Tammy appeared to have settled down a bit but she wanted to go home.

It was a long ride back to her house with the first hour being fairly tense, to say the least. However, once the initial shock wore off, Tammy's curiosity became more apparent. She started asking me questions about when I started having sex, how many guys I had fucked, and so on.

I found it interesting that she never once asked me about my dad. It's not that she didn't know about us, but with everything else I guess that was just too much for her to think about now. Her eyes widened several times, especially when I told her how many guys I had been fucked by, but she didn't say anything in response to any of it. It seemed like there wasn't much more I could shock her with anymore. Eventually things seemed to be back to normal but she had one last question to ask me.

"OK Kelly, I hate to ask this but I have to," she said softly, indeed acting as if she was afraid to ask, or perhaps more afraid of the answer, "Did you fuck my husband or sons this past week?"

"Tammy!" my mom exclaimed, "You know better than that!"

"That's OK mom, I understand," I said. Looking at Tammy right in the eyes, I slowly said, "No, not even once Tammy." It was like a wave of relief ran over her and I couldn't resist throwing in one last line, "I WANTED to but my mom said no."

"Kelly!" my mom exclaimed again, this time directing herself to me.

"I guess I should say thank-you," said Tammy softly. "God, I never dreamed I would be thanking someone for NOT fucking my husband! This is all just so weird!"

Just then we pulled up in her driveway. It was late and everyone was passed out in the living room with the TV set still on. My mom and I went up to our room and I took a shower to get the gunk off of me. God I hate it when men cum all over me! There is nothing worse to get out of your hair than dried cum and it itches when it dries on your skin. The shower felt great and as I stepped out of the bathroom, Tammy was there waiting for me.

"I'm sorry Kelly for being so close-minded," she said, giving me a hug, "I guess with two boys I just have a hard time understanding how girls behave these days."

Then to my surprise, she kissed me! Not just a friendly peck on the cheeks, but a real, open mouth, tongue to tongue kiss! When we finished, she looked at me and smiled. "See, I'm not really so narrow-minded." With that she went to her bedroom and I returned to ours.

My mom was already in bed and so I dropped my towel and got under the covers with her. We cuddled for a bit and I relished the feel of her soft warm skin against mine. When I told her what Tammy had just done, she looked surprised and then kissed me except hers was even more passionate than Tammy's had been.

"Can't let her have all the fun," she whispered to me with a smile on her face. "You know, I was so proud of you tonight."

It made me feel so good to hear her say that and I hugged her tightly. I felt our breasts pushing against one another and then she wrapped her leg around me, pulling me in tighter until her pussy was pressing against my leg that was between hers. I sighed softly as I realized it was going to be a while before I got some sleep, but somehow that didn't bother me at all!

(Sep 04) Chapter 126: School Sendoff

Story codes: MF MMF oral inc father daughter uncle niece
Me (21)
John - my dad (41)
Uncle Jim (40)

It was time to leave for my last year of college. In the past my dad was always the one to fuck me last but this year he was joined by his brother. It proved to be a "different" experience but then sometimes two can be better than one!

When I read this over I realized that I really rambled on a lot about things. If you're looking for a straight slam-bam style story, you might want to skip this one. If you continue on, don't gripe at me later - you've been warned!

1. Why Incest?

People always ask me why I have sex with members of my family. In a way, I sort of resent the question as it implies there is some reason why I should NOT have sex with them but that's another issue. Well, there is no simple answer as there is a different reason for each one. I have explained all of this in lots more detail in other article in my diary so this is only a short review to help to explain the events of this day. First let me reiterate that in my view it is NOT adultery for a man to have sex with a woman other than his wife provided that woman is a member of his immediate family. Adultery is having sex outside of marriage and a marriage is more than just one man and one woman - the entire family is a part of it. This is why family is so important to me.

My parents believe strongly in their marriage vows. Thus my father would never even consider committing adultery yet he does have sex with several women besides my mother with but ALL of them are within his marriage family. This includes two of my cousins (primarily Kristen), my Aunt Linda (my mom's sister), and, of course, me. Similarly, my mother enjoys being with my cousin Rick and his father (my Uncle Jim) but wouldn't dream of giving herself to any other man (except my husband someday, of course).

So let's start with the easiest to explain - my parents. I shouldn't even have to explain why I have sex with my parents; the answer is obvious. I love my parents more than anyone else in the world and would do anything to please them. The bible commands that we honor our parents and in my mind, what greater honor is there than to offer myself physically to them, to present myself totally to them for whatever they desire and need without reservation or conditions?

Even so, there ARE difference between my parents when it comes to sex. With my mother it is more of an equal relationship than it is with my dad. When I have sex with my mom it is like being with a female "lover". The bonds between us from just being mother and daughter evolve to another level to where we become "equals" in bed.

On the other hand, when I am with my dad I am ALWAYS his daughter and as such it is my duty to submit myself to him. Now don't get me wrong as needless to say, I enjoy it physically but my greatest emotional feelings arise from the knowledge that I am pleasing my father and satisfying his deepest needs. When he cums in me it is not like it is when any other man does it. With my dad, it is more than just a physical turn-on created by the feeling of a man's sperm filling my pussy. When I feel my father cum in me it is a physical indicator of his love and respect for me, not to mention proof of the lust I have successfully created within him.

As for my cousin Kristen and me, it's not complicated - we do it just for fun. Period. Really, what more can I say? I love my cousin but she is such a slut, and just loves sex. I simply have a great time being with her. It's all physical! Besides, not that many people really have an issue with girls having sex with each other, even if they are cousins.

Many people are surprised when I say this but it's true... Kristen's mom, my Aunt Linda, and I haven't really been together a great deal. When we have, usually it is in conjunction with someone else such as my mom or Kristen. My aunt is an incredibly sexy woman and she certainly knows how to make love to a woman so I enjoy being with her, it just doesn't happen all that much. While she seems to like younger men, younger girls just aren't all that interesting to her in a sexual way (other than her daughter of course).

My youngest cousin, Tammy, is more of a "project" for me than anything else. I recognized early that she was going to be the sexy, rebellious girl in the family (her older sister Kate is SUCH a prude). My goal was to teach her about sex so she

Anyone who knows me knows that I love having sex with married men. There is no way to adequately express the way it makes me feel when a man fucks me and I know he has a wife back home who has no idea that her loving husband wants me more than her and is willing to risk everything just to have me. With my uncle, this feeling is all the more intense because of the relationships involved. My aunt would crucify her husband (and probably have me burned at the stake) if she knew he was fucking me!

Bottom line then, I have only been fucked by my uncle a few times and then primarily just for the thrill of doing it without my aunt knowing - especially later when I would see her, sometimes with a load of her husband's cum still in me!

I apologize if this has been boring but with that all said, hopefully it will make it easier for you understand why I did what I did on this day. Actually, it wasn't something I DID, as that would imply I initiated it, but rather something that I ALLOWED to happen once it was started by someone else. I guess in my book there is a big difference between the two as they indicate the state of mind I was in and how I felt about what happened.

2. Dad Does Me in the Garage

It was the end of summer break and I was almost finished packing up my things to return to school. I have my own car now so my parents didn't have to drive me over three hours to school and then back again. While overall I think they appreciated not having to make the long drive, it DID mean that our goodbyes had to be said here at home and not at school - something that got pretty interesting in years past.

Down in the garage, I was standing behind my car with the trunk wide open and what seemed like a never-ending pile of stuff surrounding me as I pondered how I was going to fit the last of it in. Somehow during the past few hours, what had seemed to be a huge trunk earlier had shrunk dramatically! It was like a Twilight episode or something.

"Hey baby, how's it going?"

I turned to see who was talking to me and there was my dad at the door leading to the basement from the garage. Our house is on a typical steep Pittsburgh hill so the garage was attached to the basement at the rear of our house. Thus the door from the garage lead to the basement where our family room was. We had a there is no need for panties or even a thong unless I plan to be teasing someone later. My 34C boobs are plenty firm enough to let me get away without a bra in most outfits unless the material is excessively tight or sheer. I had my hair pulled back in a simple ponytail and was wearing just the bare minimum of makeup so it wasn't like I was looking super sexy or anything, at least not to me when I looked in the mirror. Actually, some guys seem to prefer me this way, saying it gave me that "girl-next-door" look. Maybe so but to me I am never sure if that means I am sexy or just plain.

"Oh yeah baby," my dad said with a twinkle in his eye, "And daddy's little slut knows what he wants, doesn't she?"

That was my dad's favorite nickname for me, "Daddy's little slut", and I just LOVED it when he called me that - and he knew it. As for me, I loved calling him "daddy" when we were fooling around with each other instead of "dad" like I usually did (or "father" when I was perturbed with him). I NEVER can even remember calling him John, not even in jest. I know some girls who call their parents by their first names but that just seems so disrespectful to me.

As for the "slut" part, well what can I say about it? After all, I AM a slut and quite proud of it actually, especially in the sense that my dad intends when he calls me that. When most people call me a slut I know that it means that they see me as someone who is sexy and not afraid to show off a bit or even do something about it. From that perspective, why would I consider it a slur? Of course, some people use it as a way to be mean or to criticize and naturally I do not like it under those circumstances. I know my dad doesn't mean it that way and when he calls me a slut it is like the ultimate compliment that he can give me! There is something special when my dad says it though. He is telling me that I am HIS little slut which makes me feel especially good and warm inside.

Looking at my dad, indeed, there was no doubt in my mind whatsoever what he wanted. My dad had one thing on his mind now and that was to fuck his daughter! I felt a shiver down my back as I realized that for all practical purposes, it was a done deal now. No matter what my plans or intentions may have been even a few minutes ago, there was no way I was NOT going to be fucked in the next few minutes.

When my dad was in this mood there was only one way for things to turn out - he was going to fuck me. I was OK with it and actually I was proud of the fact that in the past five years since I first gave myself to my father, I had NEVER refused him. Sure there had been times when it was inconvenient or frankly, I just wasn't in the mood. That wasn't the case today, not by a long shot. Today there was no problem for me at all - I was just as horny as he was knowing that once I left for school, the odds of having sex (at least with someone other than myself) were pretty poor.

My car was the only one in the garage as my mother was out shopping and my dad had left his SUV out in the driveway so I would have more room to pack. I had pulled in the middle of the garage and had all the doors open as well as the trunk to make it as easy as possible to find just the right place to stuff that last thing I couldn't fit anywhere else.

Not only did our property slope sharply from front to back, thus allowing the garage to be attached to the basement in the rear, but it also sloped side to side going down the street in front of us such that each house was about half a story lower than the one preceding it. Our driveway ran down the side of our house before turning into the garage so there was a retaining wall on one side to keep the neighbor's house from falling into ours. The result was that once you were about half-way into our garage, unless you were actually standing in our own driveway or lying flat on our neighbor's driveway, there was no way for anyone to see inside.

At this moment that was proving to be convenient. I slowly walked from the rear of my car to the front fender ahead of the driver's door and leaned over onto the hood, putting both hands flat on the hood and looking back over my shoulder at my dad.

"Ohhhhhhhhh, I think I have an idea what you want," I said seductively as I started to seriously tease my dad.

When he got this way I loved to tease him a bit at first rather than just throw myself at him. Of course, he wouldn't have objected had I simply walked up to him, pulled down his shorts and started sucking his cock right then and there on the steps. Truthfully, that didn't sound like such a bad idea the more I thought about it! Even so, I knew that it would be worth it in the end to tease just a little bit at first and flirt, even if he was my father (or should I say, because he was my father!) This wasn't the same as when I flirt at the mall with the men and boys. Then I have no intention whatsoever of allowing them to so much as touch me, let alone do anything else.

Fooling around at the mall was the definition of true flirting - or cock-teasing as the guys preferred to call it. With my dad, though, it was more like giving him an appetizer or a preview. No matter how much I pretended that it was not decided one way or the other, in the end he knew he was going to get it. Still, I think it's more fun to do it this way and at least pretend he had to try to work to have me. I wiggled my butt at him a little and giggled like a little girl.

"So daddy, see anything you like?" I said as I kept giggling at him like an eighth grader.

"Hmmmmmm, I THINK so," he replied with a clever smile, "But how can I be sure with all those clothes covering you up?"

He was so silly sometimes! I laughed and flipped my head around, making my ponytail fly out straight which always felt fun to me. Sometimes I would shake my head back and forth just to make it whip from side to side. Sometimes I toyed with the idea of cutting it shorter or letting it grow longer but this length seemed to be a good compromise. Indeed, one of the worst things I ever did to my hair was to bleach it blonde one summer when I was nineteen. Not only that, but I had it cut it a bit shorter than usual and I almost cried the first time I saw myself in the mirror (actually I did cry but it wasn't the girl's fault - I asked for it). Not only did it drastically change the way I looked more than I was expecting, but people treated me differently afterwards.

It may sound like a cliche but yes, people DO treat blondes like they are stupid. The only good thing, if you want to call it that, was they also expected me to be "looser" than your typical brunette. Before I got my contacts I use to wear glasses - and sometimes I do when my eyes are bothering me. During those times it was just the opposite as people seem to treat a brunette with glasses like some sort of nerd! Not only that, but guys automatically assumed when they first met me that I was Little Miss Prude. Needless to say, it was an impression I soon changed once they got to know me!

Turning around, I leaned back against the fender and grinned at my dad as I slowly undid my belt and unbuttoned my jeans after which I slowly slid the zipper down to the bottom. I spread the waist open but without any panties to reveal there was nothing showing but bare skin. My pussy was still well hidden as the jeans were much too high on my waist to reveal anything of importance. Putting my hands to my side, I rested them on the fender and smiled at my dad again.

"Is this better daddy?" I asked innocently as if I had actually done something significant.

Of course he shook his head and just folded his arms as if he was prepared to wait me out until I did what he wanted. I grabbed the sides of my jeans and pulled them down and off my ass until they were down to my knees. I leaned back again and the cold steel of my car met my now bare bottom. Having just shaved this morning, my pussy and legs were smooth as a baby's behind without a single hair showing.

My dad nodded his approval and motioned with his hand for me to keep going. I looked out through the open garage door and all I could see was the wall on the far side of the driveway as I was far enough inside that the house next door was up too high to see from my angle. Well, if I couldn't see them, then I guess they couldn't see me. It was an older couple next door to us in that direction anyway and I rarely even saw them so it wasn't a big concern of mine.

I wiggled my ass with my legs closer together resulting in my jeans falling from my knees to my ankles. Although I tried at first to kick them off, my sneakers foiled my initial attempts so I slid them off, leaving my socks on so that I wouldn't have to go barefoot on the garage floor. My dad kept it pretty clean but it was still a garage floor. This time the jeans came off and with the second leg they flew across and hit the wall!

I put my hands to my mouth as I couldn't believe I had kicked them that hard but my dad just laughed. Besides, he wasn't looking at the jeans - he was more interested in what the jeans had been covering up until now. A grin came to face as I saw his eyes zooming in on my bare pussy. It made me feel good to see him looking at me that way.

For the moment I was bare-bottom, leaning back against the car. It was more comfortable for me as for whatever reason, I've always enjoyed running around with a top on but bare-bottom down below. At night around the house I usually wear either one of my dad's dress shirts or a t-shirt without anything else. While my dad's shirts were big enough to cover me enough to make me decent at a church sleepover, most of my t-shirts were not all that long and usually left my ass showing and everything else as you might imagine.

It wasn't just the sexual nature of the clothing, although that was certainly a factor at times, but as much an issue of comfort for me. I just didn't feel comfortable running around with my boobs hanging out and even the slightest protection of a t-shirt was enough to make me feel more secure. It wasn't the same with my ass. If anything, I loved the feel of cool air against my butt and the way it felt when I sat down on the couch or a chair. Also, not having something pulling up my crotch was a pleasure all in of itself. Like bras and panties, there was a time and place for "camel-toe" outfits but for general everyday living, just not for me. So after all that is said not even remotely going through his head. My father deserved my trust and I never had regretted putting myself in his hands - literally as well as figuratively.

As we kissed passionately, I lowered my arms and reached inside the elastic band of his shorts to search for his cock. It wasn't hard to find, that was for sure! Damn, if had been just a little bit longer it would have been poking out the top of the waist band! As it was I found it almost immediately upon venturing inside his shorts. I grabbed the shaft with my right hand, encircling it with my palm and fingers as I gently stroked it up and down in slow motion as we continued to kiss. I felt my dad's breath quicken for a moment when my hand first held his cock and I also felt another twinge in my pussy as it reminded me in not too subtle of ways that it was still waiting for what I had promised it not too long before!

As we kissed my dad started to unbutton my blouse. The buttons on this one were a little harder to deal with than most and he fumbled around so much I was tempted to reach up and deal with them myself but that would have meant letting go of his cock NOT something I wanted to do now that I had it in my hand. Besides, it would have been a blow to his male ego. Men always seem to have such fragile egos when it came to sex and I didn't want to disturb my dad's pleasure in any way. He eventually got them all undone and his hands reached inside my now open blouse where each one cupped one of my boobs and gently squeezed them. He let my nipples poke between his fingers which then tightened down on them causing them to pull just enough when he gripped my breast to send a tingle through me. My nipples were hard and pointy and I loved them to be played with when they are this way.

"God you feel so fucking good," he whispered to me as his hands began to move over my bare body, caressing my smooth skin with his fingertips. I loved it when he touched me like this, like a teenage boy exploring a girl for the first time. His hands roamed all over my upper body, eventually working their way down to my lower back and then finally cupping my ass. His hands were so big that it felt like they covered my entire butt and he lifted me up to my toes as he squeezed them and pulled me in tighter to him.

"I love your tight ass," he murmured to me, "It feels so warm and smooth; I could just hold it all day this way."

"I love you to touch me daddy," I sighed back to him.

I wasn't saying it just to make him feel good either. Since I was a little girl I have loved my ass to be touched and played with, even it was just my own hands

"Oh yes daddy, I want it... Oh my god I want it... please fuck me daddy," I moaned as I pulled on his cock.

Under other circumstances I would probably sucked him for a while to get things started but today it seemed that my dad was so horny for me that he wanted to get right to it. Slipping the blowjob today was fine with me as my pussy was dying for a cock!

"Oh yeah baby, you just love to be fucked, don't you... you're such a fucking Slut... you want your daddy's cock, don't you?"

"Yes daddy... I want it."

"Do you want to be a good daughter for your father?"

"Oh daddy, yes! ...you can do anything you want to me... anything... just show me how much you love me."

I went on for a while longer, telling him over and over how much I wanted him to fuck me, how badly I wanted to please him, how much I wanted to be a good girl for my daddy. My father has always been so wonderful to me and I owe him so much that to offer myself to him and give myself totally over to him seemed almost inadequate. I would have done anything he asked and allowed him to do anything he wanted to me because he was my father and I trusted him totally. He would never do anything to hurt me and it made me feel so fulfilled when he would just leave his cock in me after he had cum and just hold me in his strong arms, feeling our bodies joined together and knowing what he had he just left inside of me.

On a bit of a side note, while I LOVE my father to cum inside of me, it is NOT my intention or desire to ever get pregnant from him or anything weird like that. Frankly, the very thought of such a thing is revolting to me. Think about it - I am his daughter, not his wife or lover, so why would I even want to dream about having his baby? The reason I love my dad to cum in my pussy is because of the love and respect that it shows for me from him. I am not just any girl to him - I am his only daughter and for him to fuck me and then leave his sperm in me builds a very special bond between us that can only be shared, and possibly even truly understood, by a father and his daughter.

So anyway, I could tell from his breathing and voice that he was entering that state of mind that he sometimes did when he was totally consumed by his lust and sexual desires. His eyes seemed to lose their focus as it was like he entered this world where nothing mattered but sex. I knew once he was in this state that there was no turning back. The only result that was possible from here on was for him to fuck me.

I think the entire neighborhood could have gathered at the entrance to our garage at this point and he wouldn't have even noticed, let alone stop what he was doing. It was almost scary in a way as I sometimes wondered if he even remembered who I was. It was like he was some sort of animal that was in heat and the only way to bring him back was to allow him to consummate his desires. I say scary only in that I have no idea what is his mind when he fucks me in this state and afterwards he never talks about it. At the same time, it is a bit thrilling as I know that he must want 'em even more than usual to get this way.

Without another word he grabbed me by the waist and lifted me up onto the hood of my car. I leaned back on my hands behind me and spread my legs wide for him. I still had my blouse on but it was hanging to the side, revealing my boobs in full for him. He stood back for a second, stroking his cock as he stared at my pussy and licked his lips in anticipation.

"That's it you fucking little slut, spread those pretty legs apart," he said slowly in a deep voice, "Mmmmmmm, you know I'm going to fuck you so good."

I didn't respond verbally but instead just watched as he moved up closer to me and held the head of his cock up to the entrance of my pussy. He rubbed it up and down my pussy slit, wetting the head of his cock and teasing my hard clit. My hips squirmed as my clit shot out bolts of lightning that ran through my body like electricity.

"Yeah, you really want it bad, don't you," he teased me, "God, you can never get enough, can you?"

"Fuck me daddy," was all I had to say then.

It was all he needed to hear as well. He placed the head of his dick at the entrance to my pussy and pushed forward. He grunted as my pussy resisted at first but he didn't let up the pressure and suddenly his cock head just popped into me and disappeared from view as I watched him fucking me. I could feel his head in my pussy which almost screamed with pleasure as his dick rubbed against the sensitive nerves that lined the entrance to my cunt.

"Damn, you're always so fucking tight," he said, almost to himself more than to me.

Although my dad loved my mother more than anything and she was the only person he truly "made love" to, even she would freely admit that my father was enamored with the tightness of my pussy, especially when he compared mine to my mom's. It wasn't her fault - childbirth and decades of fucking take their toll!

In addition to the advantage of youth, another thing I think helps to keep me tight is that I am not a big fan of dildos so the only time my pussy gets stretched out is when I'm actually fucking. Even then, most guys have dicks that are a lot smaller than your average dildo (sorry guys, but it's just a fact of life). I know some girls that love these monster dildos and it's no wonder that they get loose fucking themselves with those atrocities! It's like a smoker complaining about lung cancer - you have to pay for your actions sooner or later. I was proud of my tight pussy, even if it DID make it a bit hard sometimes to get started.

My butt slid on the smooth clean car hood as he grabbed my hips and pulled me in tighter against him, driving his cock deeper into me in the process. By holding myself up instead of just laying back and taking it, I was able to watch his dick as it disappeared inside of me and I smiled as my pussy hungrily took in my dad's cock.

"That's it daddy, push it in me," I encouraged him, "I love to feel it inside of me."

"You like it when my cock's all the way in you, don't you?" my dad asked, almost rhetorically. Well duh, OF COURSE I did! What girl doesn't like a cock deep inside of her? Well, I guess there ARE those who claim to be happy just with girls but even so, don't most of them still rely on a dildo? And even those, I bet, if you could offer them a cock without the guy attached, they would much prefer the real thing than some plastic replica.

"Mmmmmmm, yes daddy, I want you ALL the way in me," I purred as he continued to slowly push himself deeper and deeper into me.

Finally I felt the base of his crotch meet up against mine and I looked down again and saw nothing but his pubic hair pressed tightly against my bare pussy, his cock nowhere in sight and a shiver ran threw me as I realized my dad and I were now joined together as closely as a father and daughter could ever be. It was like we were one now, a parent and child reunited through one of the most intimate and loving acts two people could share.

My dad began to stroke himself in and out of me, slow and first and then gradually picking up speed.

"Oh Christ, your cunt feel so damn good!" my dad groaned.

He reached down and lofted my legs up from where they had been hanging over the edge of the car hood and draped them over his shoulders. Afterwards, it felt like his cock was even deeper into me when he was pushing it in and I grunted a little each time he banged into me. My dad wasn't even looking at my face anymore but seemed to be concentrating on my body and especially down at his crotch where his cock was putting on quite a show for us.

I wasn't saying much by now as I wasn't sure he was actually listening to me anymore. From the vacant look in his eyes and the grimace on his face as he struggled to fuck me even faster, it appeared that he was 100% focused on me and nothing else. In fact, he was SO focused that he didn't even appear to hear the voice behind us - although I certainly did!

3. Uncle Jim Joins In

"Well, well, well! Looks like someone's getting in a last minute screwing," a deep voice called out from the garage door opening.

I looked over and while I couldn't see much with the car in the way, I certainly recognized the voice. It was my Uncle Jim, my dad's younger brother. Actually, I was a bit relieved that it was him. I could only imagine what the reaction would have been had one of our neighbors stopped by to borrow the lawn mower or something! Now THAT would course quite a stir in the neighborhood!

Although I had no illusions that people thought I was some naive innocent girl, at the same time I didn't think they thought me as some kind of whore either and certainly NOT the type of girl who fucked her dad! What I mean is that although in my view I don't see anything whatsoever wrong with incest, I am not so naive as to think everyone shares my point of view. It would certainly have been a major topic on our town and I could probably hang up any aspirations of teaching should THAT ever get out. We were both so sure that nobody would interfere that I wasn't worried about the door being up while we did it but now with his brother there it hit home just how big a risk we were taking on!

"Uhhhhh, earth to John!" my uncle called out, "Anyone going to say hello or are you just going to ignore me and keep fucking your slutty daughter?"

I frowned a little at that. When my dad called me a slut it was cute, sort of his personal pet nickname for me. My Uncle Jim, on the other hand, called me a slut more as a slur than anything else. I fucked him the first time partially for the fun of it but mostly as a little bit of revenge against his bitchy wife. I had let him fuck me a few times after that more out of respect for my dad's wishes than anything else.

My dad didn't skip a beat but just kept on stroking himself in and out of me in a rhythmic way. He DID slow down a bit though until he was almost a clock with one stroke in each direction every second or so.

"So what do you say Kelly?" my dad asked me, looking me in the eyes for the first time since he had started fucking me, "Do you mind if I let your uncle fuck you for a while?"

I smiled at the tone of his voice and the way he said it. For him it wasn't so much a question as to whether or not I wanted my uncle to fuck me, but rather a statement that my DAD would decide if his brother was going to have a piece of his daughter's pussy. It was subtle one way and it was my decision whereas the other way made it his choice as to whether another man would fuck daughter - or not.

In the past I my dad had actually acted like my pimp, such as the time he recruited my cousin Kristen and me to act as "prostitutes" for some important clients of his. It pleased me to see him take control, to be the one responsible for who would have sex with me - and how. Again, I didn't worry because I trusted him implicitly so whoever I always consented no matter who he asked me to have sex with. In this case it was just his brother so there wasn't any big deal anyway.

"Anything you want daddy," I replied.

Indeed, I really DID want him to do anything he wanted so far as I was concerned, and I DO mean ANYTHING. It wasn't until you stop holding back anything, that you released yourself into someone else's care totally, that you could feel the true love between you and that person.

"Anything sweetie?" he repeated with a broad grin.

"Yes daddy... ANYTHING."

My dad looked over at his brother and shrugged his shoulders.

"Well, looks like it's your lucky day little brother," my dad chuckled.

He pulled his dick out of me but kept his death grip on my hips as he pulled me off the car hood. He twisted me around to face his brother and then pushed me in the back, causing me to lean over. I put my hands on my knees and kept my legs spread apart at about shoulder width as I felt my dad's hand groping my ass and directing his cock back into me again from behind. In the meantime, my uncle shut the driver's door leaving his crotch about two feet in front of my face. He was fully clothed but that didn't hide the growth of something under his jeans!

"Why don't you help him get ready Kelly?" my dad "suggested".

It more of a command than a suggestion but that didn't matter to me - I was more than happy to comply! I reached forward where my uncle was already unzipping his jeans and probed through his underwear until I had his dick out in the open. He was already pretty stiff But I knew a little attention from my tongue and he would be hard as a rock before long.

While my dad continued to fuck me slowly from behind, I took my uncle's cock in my mouth and started to stroke him in and out of my mouth in sync with the strokes my father was making with his cock in my pussy.

"God damn John! who taught her to suck cock like this?" my Uncle Jim groaned, "Shit, she is absolutely INCREDIBLE!"

"Well, I know Mary gave her a few lessons early on but I think she was born to it, don't you think?" my dad said proudly.

"Oh my god, you said it brother," Uncle Jim replied.

Listening to them, I went all the way down on my uncle's cock until I had it all in my mouth. I shook my head back and forth to cause it to rub around in my mouth and on my tongue and my uncle just shuddered from the sensations I was giving him.

"Oh god, look at her now... Christ, she has the whole damn thing in her mouth now!" Uncle Jim gasped.

He put his hands on the back of my head and pulled me in even tighter into his crotch, almost making me gag before he allowed me to pull my head back and catch a breath.

"OK, my turn to fuck her now," Uncle Jim said to my dad.

I looked back over at my dad, expecting him to consent to his brother's wishes. I was just as surprised as my uncle when I saw him shaking his head instead!

"Nope, I have a better idea," my dad said in a secretive voice. What in the world was he up to now anyway?

"What do you say we BOTH fuck her?" my dad asked.

Now THAT got my attention, to say the least. My first thought was he wanted one of them to fuck me in the ass while the other did my pussy. Some of his porn videos had scenes like that in them and I thought at first he was trying to live out one of those fantasies. I couldn't believe he would offer such a thing, especially since he knew how I felt about anal sex! He must have sensed my trepidation or seen my face grimace as he quickly added more to his statement.

"Don't worry baby, I know how you feel about THAT!" he laughed at me. "What I meant was two cocks in your PUSSY at the same time!"

Amazingly, with all the guys I have been fucked by, I'd never done anything like that before. It wasn't that I turned it down, the opportunity just had never arisen, or at least I didn't realize that it had. I know that guys love to watch me with another girl but when it came to having sex with me and another man, now THAT was a different story entirely. To have their cocks actually touch each other, even if it WAS inside of my pussy, was apparently an act leading to homosexuality or something as "bad" as that. None of the guys I had been with seemed to want to do it at least. My uncle wasn't too keen on the idea either from what I could tell at first.

"Both of us in her.. at the same time?" he said, as if he hadn't heard my dad correctly the first time.

"Sure! Why not?" my dad said like a little boy with a new idea.

I knew full well why he didn't want to but I figured this was one debate that was best for me to stay out of so I just shut up and listened. My Uncle Jim hemmed and hawed but eventual he shrugged his shoulders and gave in. He pulled away from me such that I wasn't sucking his dick anymore and waited for my dad to make the next move.

"Hmmm, now let's see how we can do this," my dad said as he pulled out my cunt as well.

Damn, here I was with two hard dicks right next to me and neither of them was in me or in my hands! Well, at least THIS didn't happen very often. He went over to the side of the garage and pulled out a blanket that had been stored on a shelf and spread it out on the floor. I should say - the HARD cement floor. I glanced over at the door leading to the basement and wondered to myself why we didn't just go inside where it was comfortable, not to mention not out in full view of the neighborhood. Well, maybe that was an overstatement but still, someone COULD walk by at any time. My dad was the one to get down on the floor so at least he wasn't making me do it! He laid back on his back with his hard cock directed at his face, parallel to his stomach as he reached down to direct it skyward.

"Get over here Kelly and sit on my dick," he commanded.

Well, who was I to complain about THAT command! I more than willingly positioned myself on top of him with my knees on the hard floor and my feet back up behind me resting on his legs. I quickly lowered myself onto his cock, which slid MUCH easier into me now that he had been fucking me for a while.

"Mmmmmmm, that's better," my dad said with a grin.

I don't know how he could stand laying on the hard floor with nothing more than a blanket between him and the cold concrete but he didn't seem to mind one bit. I guess his mind was on something else!

"C'mon Kelly, lean over," he said, "That's it baby, now put your hands on my shoulders."

As I leaned forward his cock automatically pulled out of me just a bit and I could feel the movement inside of me. Uncle Jim was standing right behind me, taking in the view as he stroked his stiff cock with his left hand.

"So what do you think Jim?" my dad called out to him, "Think you can fit it in?"

"Damn, John, you know she's awful tight as it is and that's with ONE cock in her," Uncle Jim said in a tone that indicated he still wasn't quite sure about the whole idea. I looked back at him saw him grinning mischievously. Uh-oh!

"That is... unless someone's ready to take it up her ass!" he said with a laugh that didn't take the edge off as I think it was meant to. He wasn't joking. Nope, he was damn serious!

I glared at him.

"Oh come on Kelly, a cute little asshole like that needs to be fucked sooner or later," my uncle went on, "Besides, it looks so damn pretty and pink - not at all like the dark brown hole in the middle of my wife's fat ass!"

It seemed odd, but I knew that as far as some men were concerned my asshole was "pretty". So far as I was concerned, it was just that - an asshole and assholes are where I crap from so it doesn't turn me on in the least thinking about having a dick up in there as well. For those that like anal sex, I don't mind if they LICK my asshole. Heck, even I have to admit that it feels pretty good to have my asshole played with and licked.

The farthest I have gone is to play with myself in the shower and bath tub where there is lots of running water. With just one finger it wasn't all that bad but then my fingers aren't all that big compared to most guys and nowhere as big as even a small cock. Bottom line, this was NOT going to happen. People have asked me what I would do if my dad asked to fuck me in the ass but that's not a fair question. My father knows my feelings about the subject so I know he would NEVER ask me to do it so asking what I would do if he did is just moot.

"Better back off Jim," my dad recommended. I had stopped rocking on his cock during our little exchange and he obviously didn't want to ruin the good thing we had going.

"Oh all right, don't get all hostile on me," Uncle Jim said with a distinct note of resignation.

I wondered quickly if he had ever tried to fuck Tammy in the ass. God, she was so small it would have probably hurt her, and I mean physically harmed her! Tammy had never even mentioned the subject but then she didn't talk about her dad fucking her either, at least not to me. My thoughts were brought back to earth when I felt my uncle moving in behind me, trying to push his finger in my pussy alongside my dad's dick.

"Shit, she's so fucking tight I can't even hardly get my finger in her," Uncle Jim whined. "How the hell am I going to get my dick in there?"

"There should be some lotion in my glove box," I offered. I usually kept a small bottle in there for emergencies. You never knew what you might need it for although admittedly, this was NOT one of the reasons I had anticipated!

Uncle Jim went around to the passenger side and opened the glove box and rummaged through my mess until he found the small tube. There wasn't a lot left in it but I knew it should be more than enough. As he walked back to us, Uncle Jim squirted some of the lotion out on his hand and used it to lubricate his cock by sliding his hand up and down his cock as if he was masturbating for us. By the time he got to me again his dick was all covered with white lotion and he put some more on his hand before reaching down to my ass. He spread it over and around my pussy which left us both ready for what was to come next (hopefully him if I can apologize for the bad pun).

"There, that should be better," he said softly to himself as he worked his way behind me. I couldn't see quite how he as positioned but somehow he managed to get the head of his cock to my ass and I felt it slide across my butt cheek and briefly rest on my asshole.

"Uncle Jimmmmmm!!" I said in a warning tone of voice.

He got the message and laughed, tugged my hair just a bit to tease me as he said, "Now don't get your panties in a bunch, just giving you one last chance to reconsider."

I didn't bother correcting him about the panties - hard to get them in a bunch when you don't wear them! Instead, I concentrated on how it felt as his cock slid down my ass from my asshole until it was down to my pussy. I was holding still to make it easier for him to do whatever it was he was going to try to do to force his cock into me alongside my dad's. I was still not too certain about all of this. Were they both going to fit? I knew theoretically a baby could pass through my pussy but I also knew it wasn't without a lot of pain and tearing so forget that theory. I felt his finger pulling my pussy to the side, trying to create an opening big enough to push his cock into.

"Ow! That hurts!" I complained.

When it comes to sex, I am a definite wimp. Nothing that causes pain or humiliation - that's my motto. No bondage, whips, handcuffs, or any of that crap so far as I'm concerned. I don't even have any piercings, at least not after one misguided flirtation with my belly button - a foolhardy effort that I gave up on after a few weeks of pain. I couldn't even imagine getting a real tattoo as the very thought of a needle piercing me hundreds or thousands of times is enough to make me puke.

My uncle didn't seem to hear me, or more likely he was just ignoring me, as he pulled my poor pussy apart even harder. Then, just as I was about to complain again, I felt him pressing his cock head into me. From the pressure I could tell he was pushing with everything he had and I was surprised that his cock didn't bend in two! I guess it just goes to show you how hard he was!

My uncle repositioned himself and tried again. Then he repositioned himself and tried again. To be honest, the thrill was beginning to dissipate - this was more like work than sex! I was about to say something about trying another time, anything to get him to stop, when I heard him groan and it felt like my hips were being split apart.

"Oh yeah, here we go!" my uncle gloated.

I couldn't help but cry out a little as he pushed himself into me and then just kept pushing and pushing until he must have been as far into me as he could go because he let out a deep breath and I felt the pressure stabilize. I felt them both start to move and then they both stopped. After a brief pause they started again and once again they both stopped. Both of them started to laugh and my dad was the first to speak up.

"Well, you gotta admit... this looks a lot easier in the porn movies!"

My uncle laughed even harder and responded saying, "OK, do we do this together or what?"

"Guess we better stay together then," my dad offered, "On second thought, I'll lead."

"Oh sure, you always get to go first," my uncle whined. God, it sounded like an Everyone Loves Raymond episode except I never saw one where the brothers discussed how to fuck one girl at the same time. Maybe I should write in and recommend it! Nonetheless, I sat still as I let them try to stroke their cocks in me. My dad was right - it DID look a whole lot easier and hotter in the movies. I guess it also helps if you have a pussy as wide open as a barn door like those porn sluts probably have. Finally, after a few minutes of almost comical efforts, I felt my uncle pull out of me (it wasn't as easy as you might think either!) and he fell to the floor and sat down next to us. I can't say I was all that disappointed.

"Crap, now THAT was one fucking horrible idea John," he said with a disarming grin, "Any more insane fantasies you'd like to try?"

My ears perked up at that and I quickly spoke up before he DID have any more!

"Hey, what if I sucked you both at the same time... how would that be?" I offered. It was a spur of the moment idea and as soon as I said it my jaws were already starting to hurt but I couldn't take it back.

Not surprisingly, they both looked like they thought it was a great idea so I stood up and let my dad's cock slip from my pussy. What a difference to go from being stuffed with two cocks to being empty! Before they could do anything I looked around and saw one of the seat cushions left over from an old deck chair in the corner of the garage. Maybe my dad didn't mind the hard floor but my knees hurt from the short time I was on it so I needed something to protect me better than just a thick blanket. I tossed the cushion to the floor on top of the blanket and dropped to my knees. I pointed a finger, one at each of the hard disks in the garage, and motioned with my finger for them to approach me.

"I think she wants to suck our dicks," my uncle joked with my dad.

"Oh, and what gives you THAT silly idea?" my dad replied, playing along.

"Will you guys just shut up and let me suck your cocks, gee whiz anyway!" I huffed as I rolled my eyes in mock exasperation.

They both stepped up to the plate, which in this case was about six inches in front of me such that their cocks were practically tip to tip. To my dad's everlasting shame, his brother's cock was at least an inch or so longer and considerably thicker. It really didn't matter to me but I knew it always bothered him so I rarely mentioned it. In this case, however, it was sort of hard to ignore. My uncle knew all about my dad's penis phobia and poked him in the side to tease him a bit about it.

"Still smaller, I see," he gloated, "So who's the 'little' brother now?".

"Ah shut up," was all my dad could come up with. Not exactly a snappy response but I think he had other things on his mind at the time!

I took both cocks, one in each hand and started to stroke them. They both had some of the lotion from my uncle's cock although naturally my uncle had more. Even though my dad had plenty of my wet pussy on him, it wasn't as slick as the lotion so it was easier to stroke my uncle's cock at the start of things.

At first I just sucked them one at a time, starting with my dad first, doing a few simple head bobs and then switching to my uncle. One taste of his cock and I learned a valuable lesson - don't use hand lotion to lubricate a cock if you plan to suck it later! Ugh, it was gross! Fortunately, it dissipated rather quickly but there was still an aftertaste when I sucked him.

After a few minutes of switching back and forth, I decided it was time to try out two dicks at the same time. I normally prefer one-to-one sex and when I DO get involved in a gang-bang, usually there is more fucking than sucking involved. As a result, this was actually a first time for me! I wasn't sure how to go about it - take them both at the same time or put one in my mouth and then try to fit the other one in? If my pussy experience had anything to say, maybe it would be best to do them both at the same time so I took them each in my hand and put the tips of the heads together. I couldn't help but tease them a little by rubbing them together like two sticks when trying to start a fire.

"Crap, that's gross Kelly!" my uncle complained, "bad enough to see his miniature cock but don't rub it on mine!"

My dad playfully smacked him, although maybe not as playfully as he could have judging by the sound! I figured I had better get to business before it got ugly so I opened my mouth wide and pushed them inside. At first it really wasn't all that bad. They actually went in without much problem although I had to watch my teeth more closely than normal to be sure I didn't chew on their dicks. As I got more of their cocks in my mouth I started sucking on them like they were just one fat cock. It seemed a little less then optimal to me but they must have liked it because I looked up to see them winking at each other and then giving high-fives to one another.

"Holy shit, what the HELL is going on out here?"

Now THAT was not something I expected and I practically choked on their cocks as my breath seemed to disappear. I turned my head and there standing in the garage opening was my mom with a bag of groceries in her arms. She had evidently parked at the top of the driveway and walked down to put some things in the freezer which was in the basement. I bet she never expected to see this when she turned the corner!

"Hey Mary, nice to see ya again!" my uncle said, the first to respond and acting as if we were all just sitting around having a cup of tea. My dad just had this sheepish grin on his face as my mom just stood there as if she couldn't quite believe what she was seeing. It certainly wasn't the fact we were having sex. Hell, she fucked both of these guys herself on a regular basis so what was the big deal with me doing them both together? I soon found out.

"Do you horny bastards realize that the old folks next door are outside?" she said with a look of her eyes towards the driveway. "Hell, if they weren't so hard of hearing they would have heard you by now. Cripes sake, I could hear you from halfway down the driveway!"

"Don't worry, we'll be done in a bit," my dad assured her.

My mom gave him her classic put-down look and said, "I figured as much knowing you two."

"Ouch!" my dad responded, "damn Mary, now THAT hurt!"

Meanwhile, what was I supposed to do? There wasn't much for me to say so I just kept sucking them off. My mom wasn't through though and her next words added some urgency to my efforts.

"Well, just so you know, I was just on my cell phone and Shari is going to be over here in about ten minutes to pick up some of the stuff I got at the store for her."

Red Alert! My Aunt Shari was the self-appointed Family Prude - and proud of it. Frankly, I don't know how she and my Uncle Jim ever even had kids! God, if she were to walk in right now the papers would have headlines tomorrow about the mass murder in Pittsburgh! Even with this threat on the horizon, my dad and uncle were too horny to quit now. Men! My dad quickly took control of the situation.

"Well, no time to lose so let's get going," he said. He pulled from my mouth and pushed me down onto the cushion.

"Sorry Jim," he said to his brother as he kneeled down between my legs, "parental privilege, you know."

My dad quickly kneeled between my legs and reaching down, grabbed me by the upper thighs and pulled my ass up onto his lap until my pussy was up to his cock. Using one hand to guide his cock while the other held me in place, he was soon inside of me and fucking me quickly. Mmmmmmm, it felt good to have my dad fucking me again. I had been afraid that he was just going to have me finish the blowjob and then cum on me or in my mouth. Since this was my last day and home and I would be leaving for school shortly, I had been hoping to leave with a nice load of daddy cum in me!

"Oh well, I guess beggars can't be choosers," my uncle sighed as he moved up to my face and offered me his cock.

It was a lot easier to suck just his cock alone and I was soon blowing him as hard as I could while my dad was plowing my pussy, working to cum as quickly as he could. I was curious who would cum first but if I had to lay money down, it would be on my Uncle Jim. It wasn't anything really to do with him per se, it was more that he as the one getting the blowjob and I was quite proud of my ability to make a guy cum pretty damn fast with just my mouth.

Some guys claim that they can't finish off with just a girl's mouth on them and have to stroke themselves to finish. Personally, I think they just have watched one too many porn movies where the stereotype is for the girl to suck until the guy is ready to cum and then he strokes himself off until he shoots all over her. Hogwash! That is just for the porn movies, or least so far as I was concerned. Think about it – how could I get a guy so hard and excited and NOT be able to make him cum using my mouth? It just didn't make sense to me and any guy that claims he can't cum that way just hasn't had the proper blowjob!

There was only one problem with my logic – my dad was a super horny toad today. Sure enough, as I prepared myself for my uncle to cum while my dad was fucking away at my pussy, suddenly I heard my dad groan and to my surprise I felt him cumming in me! God, he really WAS horny today to cum that fast!

Fortunately for my ego, my uncle was less than a minute behind him. I locked my lips on him, determined to keep his cum in my mouth and not all over my face but he had other plans for me. As I said, my uncle can be a bit of a jerk at times and apparently this was going to be one of those times. Just as I felt his cum starting to erupt onto my tongue, he pulled his dick from my mouth and spurted his cum all over my face, hair and boobs. If it hadn't been for the pleasure I had gotten from my dad's cock cumming in me, I would have been really pissed off so my uncle got off pretty lucky (no pun intended this time!). Even so, I could feel his cum dripping down my chin and face. Then I looked down and saw that it was running all over my boobs and upper chest as well. God only knows what was in my hair!

Again, the two of them exchanged high-fives and my dad let me slide down his lap, his cock withdrawing from me in the process. Both of them were no teenage boys, that was for sure, as I noticed their cocks were already only about half the size they had been just a couple of minutes earlier. Lack of stamina had its pros and cons and today the pros undoubtedly won out.

With Aunt Shari on the way, we had to get moving and they were out of service for at least the next few hours so there was no temptation to keep going and risk my snotty aunt catching us. I grabbed a cloth from the rag pile and used it to wipe the cum as best I could from my face and body. I looked over at my uncle as I did it and frowned. He knew exactly what I was frowning about and just shrugged his shoulders at me - the jerk!

"What can I say Kelly?" he said with a stupid grin. Well, maybe next time I won't suck him when he wants me to!

I checked my face out in my car mirror and sighed as I saw several strands of cum in my hair. From past experience I knew better than to try and rub them out with the rag - they would have to wait for a shower. My dad and uncle quickly dressed as I gathered my clothes and disappeared into the house to shower. As I passed my mom going up the stairs, she noticed the cum still in my hair and the flush look on my face.

"You know girl, sometimes I really don't know about you," she said with a strange look on her face, "I guess I never dreamed when you were little that one day I would come home to see you sucking your father's and uncle's dicks in the middle of the garage - with the door open at that!"

At first I thought she was being serious and was unhappy with what had I had done but then she couldn't hold it back anymore and broke out laughing.

"Good grief Kelly, you are so easy sometimes," she said with a smile on her face. "Now you had better get going... and for crying out loud, make sure you get all that cum out of your hair. Let me guess... Uncle Jim?"

I nodded and she frowned, for real this time.

"Yeah, he CAN be an ass sometime, can't he?" she said sadly. Then her face brightened up and she giggled, "But he DOES have a pretty nice cock, doesn't he?"

We both giggled like two schoolgirls sharing a naughty secret. She spanked me playfully on my bare ass and then called up to me as I went up the stairs, "Now don't you DARE tell your father I said that!"

I smiled at her, just a mother and daughter sharing a little secret between them. Just as I reached the top of the stairs I heard my Aunt Shari coming in the front door. God, what would she have said if she saw me now; nude, clutching my clothes with a flushed face and cum in my hair! It would have been especially interesting if she knew whose cum it was! I went into the shower with a smile.

Not a bad send-off for my last year at college!

(Sep 09) Chapter 127: New Boyfriend

Story codes: MF oral
  Michael - boyfriend (22)

So what's the big deal about having a steady boyfriend? During my first three years of college I didn't have one so why should my senior year be any different? Well, as it turned out, Michael was the difference.

1. Meeting Michael

I was finally a college senior! Woo hoo!! It was the beginning of September and I had just returned to school, quickly getting settling in for my last year of college. True, I was still living on-campus in the same apartment as last year, but I had a new roomie and besides, with student teaching I knew that I would be pretty busy this year - probably more busy than any previous year. With everything else going on, about the last thing on my mind was a boyfriend. That's NOT to say BOYS weren't on my mind, just not a boyfriend.

Every year the hardest thing about coming back to school has been having to switch over to a totally different lifestyle. Don't get me wrong, I love my school and I don't regret for a minute my decision to come here, but there is ONE thing about it that's especially hard to deal with - the code of conduct ("Lifestyle Guidelines" as they like to refer to them) we are required to follow. Of course, technically they are just "guidelines" and as such aren't mandatory, but it was made clear to us that attending this school isn't mandatory either! Most of the rules are just common sense and actually are perfectly reasonable; but the part about abstinence and no sex is a bit over the top, to say the least.

My freshman year was probably the hardest in terms of dealing with the rules but by over the past three years I have found ways to deal with my frustrations and general horniness in numerous ways, some better than others as it turned out, and so I was confident that this year would go well. After all, it is my LAST year! All I have to do was hang in there for nine more months and I graduate!

Sitting alone in my bedroom, my thoughts wandered back to my freshman year at about this same time. God, I thought at the time I was so mature and confident when in reality I was incredibly naive and maybe even a bit over-confident. My assumption had been that my boyfriend back in Pittsburgh would wait for me to return, especially after the naughty goodbye present I had given him. Yeah, right! Not two weeks later I got an e-mail from him telling me he wanted to break up. Can you believe it - an e-mail!! Well, the joke was on him as I had just spent the weekend at my new roomie's house and she had taken a bunch of pictures of me for him - pictures that I am sure would have had him jerking off in a heartbeat BUT he never got to see them of course.

If there was silver lining in that bad experience with my boyfriend, during the weekend at her house I also learned a few interesting things about Brenda, my roomie. To make a long story VERY short, she was my first lesbian experience, at least outside my family. It wasn't her first time as she preferred girls, but I was still hooked on cocks so while it was fun to play with Brenda, she couldn't satisfy me in the way a guy could - if you know what I mean.

I also learned a valuable lesson from my jerk of a boyfriend; just because a guy claims to love me doesn't mean that he loves ME. Odds are it probably just means he loves to fuck me. Being so far from home, I decided it wasn't worth getting into another long-distance relationship. After all, with all the rules and restrictions at school, what was the point in having a boyfriend if we couldn't have sex?

It didn't help that I never trusted the guys outside of school in the local community. It was previous obvious that all they wanted was to get into my pants. That may have been fun for some fun now and then, but wasn't what I was looking for in a relationship. All-in-all, for the next three years I steered clear of any serious relationships.

Actually, there WAS one time when I thought that maybe things might work out with a local guy. Unfortunately, he got too serious and I had to break it off when he started to use the "L" word. Once I graduate I can start looking for a serious relationship but until then, my plans are to just take whatever comes my way. There WAS one promise that I had made from the start of this school year and that was that I wouldn't go off and do anything silly this year like I had done in the past when my sex drive got out of control. Fortunately, I had come through everything pretty well even when my brief escorting career had ended on a sour note.

One of the questions I get asked a lot is where guys can find girls like me. My assumption when they say that is what they really want to know is where can they find a girl who puts out on the first date. Well, I learned long ago that one of the best places to meet guys is at church and I would say that goes the other way as well. There is something that seems to appeal to guys when a girl plays a little naughty in church and I find it fun as well.

While at school I am active at the local church I attend where I help out with the youth group. A lot of young guys attend the church from the nearby area. My suspicion is that they are attracted more by the abundance of 18-21 year-olds from the university next door than the quality of the religious services. Indeed, this was how I met my one "boyfriend" I mentioned earlier. You would have thought I would have learned my lesson from him but as it turned out, even I can be blind in the right circumstances.

In my opinion, the rules at my school are so ridiculously oppressive that I don't feel guilty when I tweak them a bit, particularly with regards to clothes. We aren't allowed to wear anything risque or even the slightest bit suggestive at school which means I need two different wardrobes - one for home and one for school. There is one advantage in that it makes it easier to pack as I leave my school clothes behind when I go home and vice versa.

When I attend church I usually wear a long skirt to the services and jeans with a blouse to the youth activities. My silent "rebellion" comes in that I rarely wear underwear and I find it quite erotic to sit in church with nothing between me and the father next to me but the thin fabric of my dress. With his wife and kids on the opposite side of him, it thrills me when he steals a glance now and then at me during the service as I pretend not to notice. Of course, I cross my legs and do other subtle moves to encourage him.

My experiences at church are proof that attitude is as sexy or even more than clothing. Heck, any girl, even the overweight ones, can get a guy's attention with a short skirt and low-cut blouse. It takes a lot more effort to do the same attention with a skirt hanging to my ankles and a blouse buttoned almost to my neck! Don't get me wrong, I don't blatantly throw myself at men and openly flaunt myself. It takes just the right look at just the right time to draw their attention. Walking the fine line between being naughty and getting expelled is a skill so far as I am concerned, one at which I am highly effective!

As I mentioned before, with all the college girls at church, it's a magnet for boys in the community looking for that "catholic school girl". Well, first of all I'm Presbyterian, not Catholic, and I'm clearly not innocent but I don't think it really matters. This year I noticed several new faces and I smiled to myself, wondering if any of them would turn out to be more than just someone to flirt with. The odds were heavily against it but then you never knew.

One of the new guys was Michael. I noticed him immediately when I entered the church and I was pleased that he was giving me the once over as well; that is, until I saw that he was checking out ALL the girls as well - and not being exactly subtle about it! Did he really think he was going to draw the attention of any of the girls by leering at us?

For some reason or another, Michael seemed to focus more on me, which I didn't mind as he wasn't a bad looking guy. I hadn't ever seen him on campus so I figured he must have been one of the locals. Our eyes met briefly and I flashed him a smile before heading to the ladies room to fix my hair.

There is a paved walkway between the campus and church but it was windy outside today so by the time I made it, my hair was a total disaster. When I exited, I noticed he was leaning against the wall opposite the doorway with his arms folded and one leg crossed over the other as he stood there looking quite confident and full of himself. As I passed by, he straightened up and caught up with me.

"Hi, I'm Michael and I'm new here, would you mind telling me where the service is at?"

What a come-on line! There was only a sign about two feet high with a big arrow under it pointing the way ahead of us. There was ONE thing I noticed, though, and that was his accent. It was something British or maybe Australian, definitely not from boring old mid-Ohio! I pointed out the sign and started to walk away but he quickly stepped up to come alongside me again.

"Sorry to bother you again, but if you don't have anyone to sit with, would you mind if I joined you?"

Well, you could say what you wanted about him but the guy DID move fast. Normally I would've just gone in and looked around for someone I knew and had a seat. I guess it didn't hurt in this case to indulge his request and so I tilted my head towards the sanctuary and we headed off that way together. On the way we passed the Pastor and I introduced our new guest to him. My Pastor asked him where he was from and he said Nottingham, England and that he was here on an internship with a company in town. Cool - Robin Hood himself was in the building!

With the service about to start, there wasn't much time for us to talk with the Pastor so we went in the sanctuary and found a seat about half-way down on the aisle. There was still at least five minutes so Michael filled me in on some new details about himself. It turned out that he was out of England for the first time, at least to this continent, and he had just arrived a couple of weeks before. I couldn't help but smile when he confessed that he wasn't normally much of a churchgoer but the guys at work had recommended he come here to meet girls! At least he was honest - worth a few points in my book.

Michael seemed a bit young for a company to be investing this much money in him (I learned later he was twenty two, just a little older than me). My dad sometimes hired interns for his law office but he always picked them from the local universities where they then became essentially "slaves" in the office - working ungodly hours for peanuts. He would never have brought anyone over from a foreign country, at least not for an internship. Michael explained it was a special program the company was offering and he had already graduated the past fall so once the internship was over he had the potential to become a full employee. I had to admit I was becoming a bit impressed with Michael.

The service started and for the next hour or so, it was business as usual. I was wearing a long peasant style dress that hung to my ankles but at least bunched around my boobs enough to accentuate my breasts. I caught Michael taking a peek more than once at me as we went through the rituals of the service. I wonder what he would have said had he known under that dress there was nothing but me and a little baby powder!

After the service we headed out and I expected to just say goodbye and get back to my apartment and out of this silly dress. I guess they raise them to be bold in the UK as instead of saying goodbye, Michael offered to buy me lunch! He warned me that he wasn't too familiar with the surrounding area yet so he would leave it to my discretion as to where we went. I didn't have anything THAT pressing to do back at my room so I figured why not accept a free lunch? The campus cafeteria wasn't bad, not bad at all actually, but it was still nice to get out and about and besides, I WAS a little interested in this guy.

We walked out to his car in the parking lot. It was a small rental and he apologized, saying he hadn't had time to find a car yet, but that didn't bother me under the circumstances. He even opened the door for me! Not many guys do that anymore and Michael rose yet another notch in my book.

I gave Michael directions to a local restaurant next to a bowling which served decent fare. On the way we discussed the sermon and the church. I found that I loved listening to Michael. What is it about a British accent that just melts you? It seems that all the ads on TV use British actors to sell their junk because for some reason, people seem to trust them and buy from them. It was sort of the same thing for me with Michael. Just listening to him made me willing to trust whatever he told me. Honestly, he could have been a completely different person than he claimed to be but for some reason or another, I was buying it all - hook, line and sinker.

In the restaurant we were taken to a booth where we sat facing one another. Michael mentioned he was still getting use to American food - especially the size of the portions! I told him to look around and see the results and we both laughed softly at the sight of so many obese people.

During the course of lunch, Michael did almost all the talking, telling me about his home and family back in Nottingham. At the start he warned me that the Robin Hood jokes were already getting old so I tried to refrain from mentioning anything along those lines. He DID confirm that there was indeed a Sherwood Forest but that most of the locals didn't view Robin Hood quite like Hollywood portrayed him.

Michael was an only child, like me, and his parents were both back in England. We both were astonished to find out that our fathers were both lawyers although his mom took care of the home instead of working at a formal job. He tried to explain what he did but I got lost after the word "Engineering". All I could understand was that they made big machines that were sold around the world which was all I cared to know in the first place.

Overall, it turned out to be quite an enjoyable lunch. Michael was the perfect gentleman, probably the most polite and non-intrusive of any guy I had been out with in ages. Most guys were trying to grope me before the salad was served! He asked if I would be interested in seeing him again and I quickly agreed. When we got back in the car to take me back to school (he DID open the door for me again!), he started to drive off but stopped before we left the parking lot. Michael looked over at me and I could see he wanted to say something but he was obviously a little embarrassed or maybe just too shy to get it out. I sat there patiently, letting him work it out and eventually he smiled and cleared his throat.

"If you're really not THAT busy this afternoon, would you like to come over to my place?"

Wow, the boy really DID move fast! I wondered if he had been watching too many TV shows where all the American girls were sluts and that he should make his move immediately if he wanted anything. The funny thing was, although he probably would have been slapped by 99% of the girls he had just pulled this one on, he was just lucky enough to be sitting across from a member of the 1% who met the stereotype he had been given! Still, I wasn't going to be THAT easy though; he needed to work at least a little for it.

"Oh?" I said with a hint of surprise in my voice, "And just what did you have in mind when we got back to your place?"

Actually, I really DID want to know. For all I knew, maybe he WAS the perfect gentleman and all we would do is sit and watch TV and discuss politics. Now THAT would be a horrid way to spend a Sunday afternoon! It was then that I looked down at his crotch and saw the unmistakable signs of an erection pressing out against the zipper. Hmmmmmm, it looked like the boy might have some potential after all! It had been a couple of weeks since my dad and uncle had fucked me before leaving home and I was more than overdue for a nice dick to suck and fuck!

Michael saw where I was looking and he appeared a bit embarrassed and his cheeks had an unmistakable reddish glow to them.

"Ahhhhhh, I don't know; I just thought maybe you would like to be with me," he stuttered.

I grinned at him but in a nice way. I didn't want him to feel any more embarrassed than he was already. There WAS one way to bring him out and so I reached over and put my hand on his crotch, pressing down until I could feel the outline of his hard cock underneath his pants.

"Something tells me you don't want to just talk about US-UK politics... am I right Michael?" I said in a low soft voice to him as I moved my hand slightly over his dick.

"Well...," was all he could get out. He looked down at my hand on his crotch and from the look on his face, I had no doubt that he had never dreamed that this would really happen.

Well, maybe he had DREAMED about it and maybe even masturbated while imagining some American slut fondling him in his car, but I couldn't believe that he thought it might really happen. Then again, if all he knew about American culture was from TV and magazines, maybe he DID think all girls were like me! I wasn't about to burst his bubble although I had a feeling the next girl he was with was in for quite a surprise!

"Take me to your place then, Michael," I purred, "I think I know what you really want."

For the rest of the way to his apartment, neither of us said a word. I took my hand off of him once he started driving again (I was worried enough about his tendency to drive on the wrong side without distracting him any further!)

While he drove, I sat back and thought about what had just occurred. It was interesting just how fast a relationship could change. All through church and lunch he had been the perfect upstanding young gentleman, polite and well-spoken. In a matter of seconds, all that went out the window and now he was just another horny guy lucky enough to have found himself a girl who was just as horny - if not more!

It was actually a bit surreal. Waking up this morning, I had masturbated dreaming about my dad fucking me without any inkling that I might be getting laid later that day. Of course, I wasn't in the sack yet and touching Michael through his pants was a long way from him fucking me, but I had a suspicion that I would be getting it this afternoon. I mean really, what guy in his right mind would turn down a 21 year-old college girl who was all but throwing herself at him? Maybe I should have played it more tactfully but what would have been the point? He was a guy so it was a no-brainer as to what he wanted. As for me, I was horny as hell and looking for it. Under the circumstances, it just made sense to cut through the nonsense and get down to what we both wanted!

As we drove along, I realized that I had never been to this part of town before. The neighborhood didn't look all that bad - typical mid-Ohio middle class. Nothing impressive but at the same time well-kept and relatively safe looking. Michael pulled up in front of what looked to be a two-story apartment building. Judging by the mail boxes on the outside, there were four dwellings although there was only two doors. Michael stopped the engine and turned to me with a questioning look.

"Well, I guess this is it. My place is the one to the right on the second floor," he said, as if he was a realtor showing me around.

I was about to open the door when I hesitated for a second. Really, what did I know about this guy? Just because he went to church didn't mean much. I had met all kinds over the years and being a Christian was no guarantee as to what type of guy he was. After all, I had been all but raped by my own Youth Pastor once - and he was married! A couple of years ago I had tried out the escorting business and quit after only a short time once I realized the dangers of following strange men to their hotel rooms. Was this that much different?

At that moment I almost told him to take me back to my apartment. Then I looked at his lap and saw his hard-on through his slacks. God, he must have been incredibly horny to be that hard still! My pussy started to throb and I felt the wetness between my legs - he wasn't the only one in the car that was dying to get laid!

I took a deep breath and opened the door. Michael followed suit on his side of the car and he quickly ran around to shut my door for me. He reached out his hand to me with this lost puppy dog look on his face and I smiled back at him as I took his hand and followed him up the narrow wooden steps to the apartment building entrance. I glanced about and wondered if anyone was watching and if they were, what they might be thinking. Was this something they saw regularly, did Michael bring home girls all the time; or was this something unusual, something they would be talking about between themselves?

In any case, he quickly unlocked the door and we stepped inside what looked to be an entryway. A door leading to the first floor apartment was to the right with nothing more than a small number "1" painted on the outside with no other indication of who might be living there. Michael led the way up a steep set of wooden steps where at the top was a door identical to the one at the bottom except it has a number "3" painted on the exterior. It was quite dark and I noted that the lone light bulb in the ceiling wasn't on - burned out maybe?

"Be careful, the last step is steeper than the rest," Michael warned me as he pushed open the door. I was able to see better once the door was open and I gingerly stepped into his apartment.

My first impression was one of surprise as it was neat and clean, not your usual image of a single guy's apartment. It wasn't cluttered but at the same time what furnishings were there were in good shape and a reflection of good taste by someone. Of course, the standard "guy toys" were present - big screen TV, several video game consoles, a collection of CDs and DVDs, etc. I was expecting something like a British flag on the wall or some other sign of his nationality but there was nothing to be seen.

"Home sweet home," Michael announced as he held out his arms like an announcer for some game show showing off the latest prize package, "Well, what do you think Kelly?"

I just nodded and raised my eyebrows, trying to show I was impressed. It was a bit awkward, the two of us standing there in the middle of his living room, each seemingly waiting for the other to make the first move. I figured I had been forward enough and it was time for Michael to assert himself. After all, if he wanted me the least he could do is make a little bit of effort! Fortunately, I wasn't to be disappointed.

"Would you like to see the rest of the place?" he asked.

Given the tiny size of the apartment, there was only two things that could possibly be left to see - the bathroom and the bedroom. Fooling around in the bathroom would be a bit kinky so I presumed he meant to show me the bedroom. Well, that was fine with me as I hadn't any desire to play his latest video game.

I remained quiet and followed him past the bathroom, or at what I presumed was the bathroom since the door was closed, and down to the open door at the end where again I was pleasantly surprised. Unless he was psychic, there was no way he could have known he would be bringing a girl back home from church so whatever state the room was in was what was its natural state. If that was the case, Michael was indeed not your average guy. First, the bed was made! Thankfully, it didn't have an ruffled bed-skirt or I might have started to get a bit worried but it was covered with a plain white quilted comforter.

The dresser drawers were all closed with a couple of pictures of what looked to be his parents on top. Thankfully, there weren't any girlfriend photos nor were there any porn magazines on the floor. All in all, the bedroom was the final straw in convincing me that Michael was a relatively mature and decent person. Of course, looks could be deceiving but the odds were in favor of my being right.

2. Sucking Michael's Dick

"So tell me Michael, why did you bring me to your bedroom?" I teased him, twisting my hips so my skirt flowed around me. I loved the way the material felt against my bare butt and I wondered if Michael had a clue that I wasn't wearing anything underneath.

"Ummmmm, I just thought you might want to see it," he said in a low voice. Well, he wasn't going to get away with THAT answer, that was for sure.

"Come on Michael, I want you to tell me why you brought me here."

"No special reason... really."

"Michael!" I said in exasperation, "If you want something, sometimes you have to ask for it. Last chance - why did you ask me up here. Don't worry, I just want to hear you say it."

I folded my arms and waited for his response, like a teacher in a classroom waiting for a reluctant student to answer. Michael was looking down at his shoes and for a moment, I thought maybe I was wrong about him. Was he really just a wimp?

"Oh alright," he said suddenly, "I was hoping we would fool around a little. There, does that make you happy now?"

I couldn't help but giggle a little bit. I love it when men finally break down and do what I ask when they realize it's necessary if they are going to get their hands on me. Well, I wasn't quite satisfied yet; time to push a little harder.

"Now that's better!" I said, licking my lips a bit for him, "So basically, you just want to fuck me - right?"

If I could have captured the look on Michael's face at that moment, I would have posted it on my desk at home as an example of the most shell-shocked look imaginable on a guy. It was so hilarious, I almost broke out in laughter. His eyes widened and his mouth just opened and shut like a fish out of water.

"What's the matter Michael, hasn't a girl ever talked to you like this before?"

"Well... no!" was all he could say. I smiled seductively at him and walked up closer to him and put my hands on his chest.

"You DO realize Michael, that girls sometimes want it too... sometimes as much or even more than the guy," I whispered to him as I moved my hands over his shirt and then started to unbutton it slowly starting at the top.

"I want you to fuck me Michael," I whispered softly, looking up into his eyes, "I want to suck your cock and then have you stick it in my pussy and cum in me."

I was down to the bottom button and had to pull his shirt out of his pants to get at the last one. Meantime, he wasn't saying a word.

"Well, aren't you going to say anything?" I asked, pushing his unbuttoned short off of his shoulders and down his arms, revealing an incredible chest and smooth torso. He either shaved or had almost no body hair, at least so far as his chest and back were concerned. His shirt dropped to the floor and I started to run my hands over his luscious bare chest and sides.

"I want you to suck me," he said, so softly I could barely hear him.

I was unbuckling his belt now as he just stood there motionless, as if he was afraid to move and break the spell. With his belt undone, I unbuttoned his slacks and pulled the zipper quickly down to the bottom. I reached inside under the elastic of his underwear and was rewarded with the feel of his warm hard dick in my palm. My fingers wrapped around it and I held it firmly.

"Mmmmmmm, your dick feels so good," I purred, "Tell me again what you want me to do to it."

"Oh god, Kelly, I want you to put it in your mouth," he gasped as I pulled my hand out and started to push his pants down to the floor along with his underwear at the same time. No sense wasting any motions!

As his underwear moved down over his cock, it suddenly popped out as it was freed and I smiled at the sight of it. He was circumcised and looked to be about six inches or so - about average for most guys from my experience. It was the type that curved upwards from his crotch when he was erect such that the head was pointed straight to the ceiling. As for thickness, again I would put him in the "average" category, meaning my hand would wrap around him and he would fit nicely into my mouth.

Pardon me for a word on cock size. Does size matter? Yes and no. Frankly, I don't like the huge cocks you see in the porn movies. Sure, they are great to watch, but have you ever tried sucking one of those monsters? It's a pain, literally, and frustrating in that I don't feel I can do my best in terms of technique and satisfaction. Getting fucked by one is another pain - again quite literally. I find myself worrying more about how damn big he is and whether he is going to hurt me than the satisfaction I am looking for.

At the other end of the spectrum, I have had a few guys who were ridiculously small - to the point I would be better off with my own finger. Those are pretty rare and in all fairness, 99% of guys are "average"; maybe five to seven inches and about the same thickness. There's nothing wrong with these guys, not in my book at least. They are relatively easy to suck and when they fuck me, if they can stay in me then they are long enough.

One other thing, I have found though, and that is cock size has absolutely nothing to do with the amount of cum a guy produces. I wish there was some way to predict it as I love nothing more than to have a guy cum and literally fill me with sperm. It is also better when it shoots out of his dick in a forceful stream such that I can hold it away from my mouth and watch it shoot into my open mouth, or feel it emerging from his dick in my pussy and shooting far up inside of me. So anyway, seeing Michael's cock all erect and pointing upward was a good sign of what was to cum - pun intended!

With his slacks down to his ankles (he hadn't removed his shoes yet so he just stood there with his pants and underwear gathered at his ankles), I kneeled down and quickly took his cock in my mouth, pumping my head swiftly up and down his shaft and then lifting my head up towards him.

"Is this what you wanted Michael?" I asked him softly. It wasn't like I didn't know what the answer would be, I just wanted to hear him say it.

Michael took my head in his hands and ran his fingers through my hair. As much as I had been forward on the trip to this apartment, as much as I had hinted to him what a slut I was, I had a feeling that deep down he probably thought I was just a big tease. Now that I had actually put his cock in my mouth, even if just for a brief moment, there was no denying that I was indeed everything he was hoping for.

I wondered how that made him feel, what thoughts were going through his mind. He most likely had masturbated many times dreaming of a girl doing just what I was doing and now his dream was on the verge of coming true. God, what I would have given to be able to hear his thoughts right now!

"Oh yes Kelly... that's exactly what I wanted," he managed to finally say. Then, to my own pleasure, he said, "Suck my cock again... please."

There was something about hearing a guy beg to have his cock sucked that turns me on something fierce. I don't know exactly how to explain it but so much for anyone's theory that sucking cock is submission by a girl to a guy! Quite the contrary, I view it as complete control over a guy. After all, I'm the one with his most sensitive organ between my teeth. I'm not the one begging for it, willing to say and do anything for it. Although I will never know for sure how a guy feels when my mouth is around his cock, it must be pretty wonderful from the way it drives them crazy when I do it!

I was still fully dressed ( if you call wearing just a dress with no underwear fully dressed), as I remained kneeling in front of him next to his bed. My right hand grabbed his cock at the base as I dipped my head back down on him again. With my left hand, I reached around and put in on his firm ass and squeezed it as best I could. Up and down I went on his cock, sucking it until my cheeks pulled in and running my tongue around it as I did.

At first I only went about half-way down using my fingers to stroke the lower half of his cock. As I heard him breathing harder, I released my hand and used just my mouth on him as I grabbed the other half of his ass with my right hand, pulling his crotch into my face. My nose was inundated with the rich musky odor of his crotch. He must have showered earlier as I could make out the lingering scent of his soap but it was overwhelmed by his strong male scent. At the same time, the thick growth of pubic hair that sprouted from the base of his cock tickled my face as it dipped down deeper on his dick. It was incredibly erotic for me to take his cock deep in my mouth until my face was covered by his thick, wiry dark pubic hair that smelled so strongly with the scent of a male consumed by lust.

"Oh my god, Kelly, that feels incredible," Michael said as he groaned almost non-stop while I worked on his cock.

He tasted good, again it was apparent he had showered as there wasn't any of the aftertaste I get sometimes when a guy hasn't washed his dick for a while. His hands were still holding my head and I could tell from the pressure he would apply that he loved it best the deeper I took him. Some guys actually seem to like it better when I lick their dicks like a popsicle, using my tongue to touch him up and down his hard dick as if I was trying to keep an ice cream cone from dripping on a hot summer day. Other guys seem to have a thing for more attention to the head of their cock, especially when I would run my tongue around the bottom ridge and then tickle the slit at the tip. The vast majority, though, want me to take their cock deep in my mouth - the deeper the better. I have asked different guys and gotten different answers as to why, and I'm not sure I believe many of them anyway.

Personally, I think it has more to do with porn movies than pleasure. Guys see the whores in porn flicks taking some huge cocks down their throats and so they think they it makes them like one of those guys and I am their favorite porn whore. The second reason I think guys like me to deep throat them is somewhat the same thrill I get when I see a guy's cock disappear inside my pussy until it completely disappears and I know all of his dick is inside of me. There have been times I could see myself in a mirror when I give a guy head and I have to admit that it looks really hot when his dick is completely down my mouth and throat and my face is up tight against his crotch.

I was twisting my head around his dick, rubbing his pubic hair against my cheeks, when I heard him groan especially loud and his body shuddered like he was suddenly chilled. I looked up at him and saw that his head was tilted back while his hands were pulling me more tightly into him. His grip on me was such that when I tried to pull my head up to keep from choking on the cum I knew was about to erupt from him, I couldn't pull back and just then I felt his dick swell and the first shot of cum spewed into my mouth.

For a moment I thought I was going to gag as he was so far into my mouth that it went straight down into my throat. My reaction at that point was involuntary as I more or less panicked and forcibly shoved my head back to give me more room in my mouth. His cock was still about half-way in when the next few shots sprayed from his dick into my mouth and I couldn't help but choke just a little, causing his cum to spill out of my mouth and dribble down my chin. I really didn't want to get it on my dress (that may be fine for Monica but not on my favorite church dress!) so I tightened up my grip on his shaft with my lips to keep the rest of it inside of my mouth.

"That's it... oh yeah," Michael groaned, almost shouting as he pressed his hips forward, trying to drive his cock back down deep into my mouth and throat, "Swallow it... eat my cum!"

I would have been more than happy to accommodate his demands but when you have a thick dick in your mouth and it's still shooting out little bits of sperm in your mouth, swallowing is not exactly the easiest thing to accomplish! At this point I had little choice as it was hard to breathe through my nose and I really needed the air so I pulled back again and this time was able to get his dick out of my mouth. It popped out like it was a spring and pointed back up in the air again, glistening with a slimy coating of his cum and my saliva.

As I gasped for air I held it in my hand and stroked it slowly as if I was milking him. Indeed, a little more cum emerged from the tip of hid cock as I squeezed it out of him like the last drops of toothpaste from the tube. My tongue reached out and licked it off lightly, just enough to take it from him.

"God that feels so fucking good," Michael groaned when my tongue returned to his dick, licking the head as I tasted the sperm that coated it.

I surprised him by suddenly taking his cock deep in my mouth again, shoving my face down into his crotch again and sucking on it as hard as I could. This time his hands were pulling me off of him rather than pushing me down.

"Fuck Kelly, that's enough... I can't take it when you do that!" he gasped.

I released his dick and rubbed it over my face and chin with my hand, using it like a squeegee to spread the cum that had escaped from my mouth over my face. Usually I am not a big fan of getting a covering of cum on my body as frankly, when it dries it tends to itch more than anything. In this case, I knew he was watching and if he was like most guys, seeing me use his dick to rub his cum over me was a turn-on and well, it was my goal to please him as well as take care of myself so why not?

3. Begging Michael to Fuck Me

Michael grabbed me by the shoulders and pulled me up to my feet saying, "C'mon now, stand up for a second."

I stood before him, still in my dress while he was naked down to his ankle where his slacks and shoes remained. He looked down and grinned a bit sheepishly.

"Guess I should take these off," he said in a low voice and he kicked off his shoes and reached down to pull his slacks and socks off. Now he was totally nude in front of me and I admired his lean body and muscular chest and arms. His dick was still standing at attention despite having just climaxed and I knew he wasn't satisfied yet. Well, neither was I for that matter!

"Mmmmmmm, you look really good," I said softly, running my hands over his bare chest and arms.

His hands were on my shoulders at the edge of my sleeves and he was fumbling with them. I knew he wanted to take my dress off and for a moment I was about to have him undo me and slip it over my head when another idea came to mind. Looking Michael straight in the eyes, I smiled seductively at him and in a firm but soft voice said, "Are you ready to fuck me now Michael? I hope so, because I want you to."

Michael stammered a bit and despite several attempts, couldn't seem to get the next words out.

"What's the matter Michael, hasn't a girl ever asked you to fuck her before?" I teased him.

"Ummmmm, not really," he sputtered, I mean, not using those words."

I pressed up against him and felt his wonderful hard cock pushing against my stomach through my dress.

"You know, sometimes girls want it just as badly as boys do," I said, "What's wrong with a girl telling a boy she wants to get laid?"

Michael looked a little uncomfortable but he still managed to say, "Well, I just didn't think girls did that."

A little giggle escaped from me at that. "Ohhhhhhhhh, I get it. You mean, 'nice' girls don't ask to be fucked... is that what you mean Michael?"

Michael's eyes widened and he started to open his mouth to protest but I wasn't letting him off the hook that easily.

"So do you think I'm not a nice girl Michael?" I pressed on, "Do you think I'm some sort of slut, a skank or something like that just because I asked you to fuck me?"

"Oh no Kelly!" Michael finally blustered, "I didn't mean that at all... you're a nice girl."

So predictable but then, he was a guy so it wasn't his fault.

"What if I told you that I wasn't a 'nice' girl, Michael?" I said as I traced little circles around his hardened nipple

Looking down, I noticed that despite everything his cock was still as hard as ever. My pussy tingled at the sight and I knew it was time to finish up with the theatrics and get down to business.

"For your information Michael, I AM a slut and quite proud of it," I declared as I turned my back slowly to the bed and stepped backwards until I was pressed up against it. I sat on the bed and scooted back until my knees were hanging over the edge. Gathering up my skirt, I pulled it up until he could see that I wasn't wearing any underwear. I kept my eyes fixed on his as I reached down with one hand and slowly began to rub my bare pussy that was now exposed for him to see.

"See my pussy Michael? So tell me, do 'nice" girls go to church with nothing under their dresses? Has a 'nice girl ever sucked your cock the first time you took her out? Would a 'nice' girl ask you to fuck her?"

Michael was too mesmerized by the sight of me playing with myself in front of him to respond. Not that I was really expecting anything from him; it was fun just to talk dirty to him and tease him a little.

"You see Michael, I'm NOT a 'nice' girl," I continued as I pushed a single finger up into my already wet pussy, "I like to be fucked and I want you to fuck me now."

Michael stood there as stiff as a statue. That was fine with me so far as his cock was concerned but I was wishing he would be a bit more flexible elsewhere. His reaction really didn't surprise me all that much. It wasn't the first time I had a boy freeze when I was being forward with him. Boys seem to think that they are the ones that are suppose to be in charge and when a girl is the aggressor it is like the rules of the game have been broken and they don't know how to respond. I've had a few tell me later that it was always a big fantasy of theirs to have slutty girlfriend but when it actually happened they were freaked out.

My guess was that if I could read Michael's mind about now, that I would find he was thinking that exact thing at this moment. This had to be one of his wildest dreams - to have a girl lifting her skirt, playing with herself for him to watch after having just sucked his cock, begging for him to fuck her. Now that the dream was reality though, he was finding that he wasn't the super stud he liked to think of himself as being. Well, all that didn't matter to me about now, I was just interested in getting that hard dick inside of me as soon as possible! Keeping my hand on my pussy, I reached out with the other one and motioned for him to move towards me.

"What's the matter Michael? Don't you want to fuck me?" I asked in my best little girl voice.

Michael finally seemed to break out of his stupor and moved towards the bed. He reached for the top of my dress again as if to undress me.

"Noooooo, leave my dress on Michael," I resisted, "I just want you to fuck me and that's all."

Michael looked at me a bit strangely but by now the hormones were in overdrive and I don't think it mattered what I said or did from this point onward. There is this look a guy gets when he is set on fucking me that is unmistakable. Once that look appears, there is no stopping him until the act is complete. It's like a sexual point of no return, where once crossed there is no recall, no going back. The male conscious mind seems to turn off and all that is left is his lust driving him to complete the mating ritual. Millions of years of evolution are lost in that moment when it is like the most primal emotions and drives take over, the need to mate and procreate overwhelms all rational thought and actions. It is a look I have seen many times in my father's face after I have teased him and toyed with him to the point where fucking me is no longer an option - it is a foregone conclusion and requirement. I would imagine it is the look a woman sees when she is about to be raped except in this case I wanted it.

"Alright, you asked for it," Michael said in a deep voice that sounded more like an animal's growl than anything else. He was breathing heavily and his cock quivered, looking like it might just explode if it got any bigger or harder.

My own heart was starting to beat rapidly as well as I understood what was happening to him and the consequences it meant for me. There would be no more teasing, no more conversation, no more euphemistic exchanges between us. I knew at that moment that no matter what I might want from this point on, I was going to be fucked before I left the room. Even though that was EXACTLY what I wanted, the finality of the situation, the loss of control, the inevitability that was now in place made me a little anxious despite my own cravings and lust.

It was like I had jumped out of a plane and now was wondering what I had done. Nothing could bring me back inside of the plane - I was committed now and completely dependent on my parachute to save me. In this case, my parachute was my knowledge of men and how they reacted under these circumstances. I knew Michael wasn't going to hurt me, he just wanted to fuck me - no, make that he HAD to fuck me. The parachute wasn't going to open and bring me to earth safely until his cock was deep in me, spewing his next load of sperm inside my hungry and waiting cunt.

Michael put one hand on each of my knees and pushed my legs further apart. He stood with his legs up against the bed and then grabbed me by the waist and pulled me towards him until his crotch met mine and his cock was laying over my pussy. He grabbed his dick and positioned it up against the opening of my pussy hole.

"God you have a great looking pussy," he whispered, almost more to himself than to me.

"Put it in me Michael, put your cock inside of me" I pleaded with him, feeling like I was begging him now to push his dick inside of me. "Oh please Michael, I NEED it in me."

Michael moved his hips forward and as stiff as his cock was, it still bent noticeably as it tried to violate me. I prided myself on having a tight pussy and it wasn't unusual for guys to have difficulty the first time they tried to enter me; but I knew that once he was in me that he wouldn't have any trouble fucking me after that. Finally his head slipped into me and half his dick was quickly inside of my pussy. He didn't hesitate after that but instead immediately began pumping his dick in and out of me.

"Damn your pussy's tight," he said with a bit if a grimace. Even as he said the words though, I noticed his efforts were getting easier with each stroke of his cock in me.

I looked down at my pussy, watching as Michael's cock fucked my pussy. There was just something about seeing a man's hard dick moving in and out of me while at the same time feeling the warmth and hardness of him inside of me that was the ultimate erotic experience for me. As he continued, each stroke seemed to penetrate me just a little bit more until finally he was moving the full length of his dick in and out of me with each stroke.

This was where it really didn't matter what size a guy was. While a guy is fucking me this way, my pleasure comes more from the stimulation of the inner walls of my pussy just inside my pussy hole than anything else. Moving deeper into me doesn't add a whole lot to the sensations nor does it really matter how thick he is. Think of a bow as it stroked over the strings of a violin. Although a longer bow provides a longer note, it really doesn't make a whole lot of difference with regards to the pitch of the note being played. All I wanted was to feel him moving against me although at times it was nice to have him just be buried deep in me and hold still for a while allowing his dick to throb noticeably inside of me. Michael was holding me with his hands on my waist as he pulled and pushed me in sync with his thrusts in and out of me. I was leaning back on my hands, lifting my hips upward to meet his thrusting groin.

"Oh Michael, this is what I wanted," I panted as I tried to speak while barely able to breathe myself, "God your cock feels so good inside of me!"

One good thing about sucking a guy off before he fucks me, besides the obvious of course, is that he usually lasts a little longer when he finally fucks me. This strategy works better the younger the guy is as when they get to my dad's age, their six-shooters become musket loaders - one shot only before they have to take a long time to reload. For teenage boys and most men up to a little older than Michael, it's almost mandatory to get them off at least once before they fuck me or else they end up coming almost before they're even in me all the way. It's not that I mind the fact that they cum in me, it's more that I wouldn't mind a little more stimulation first.

Someday maybe I'll understand this but for whatever reason, when a guy cums after I blow him, he usually wants to keep on going without even a break. Yet at the same time, if he fucks me and cums then it's like game over, mission accomplished. Thus my usual strategy is to do just what I did today with Michael - suck him until he cums and then get him to fuck me right away afterwards to maximize his longevity.

After Michael had fucked me for a while this way he pulled out of me and motioned for me to turn over. I looked at him and his impatience was more noticeable now.

"Turn over," he said impatiently, "Show me that cute little ass."

I giggled and quickly slid down until my feet were back on the floor and then turned around to face the bed. Michael lifted my skirt up almost to my shoulders as I leaned over the bed and rested myself on my elbows, allowing my ass to stick out for him to see. My feet were spread apart and I felt his hands grab my ass like he was palming a pair of basketballs.

"You've got a GREAT ass," he complimented me as he squeezed it like a housewife checking out melons at the supermarket. I turned my head around and looked at him over my shoulder.

"Well, are you just going to stare at my ass or you gonna fuck me some more?"

Michael laughed at that, acting more and more assertive as his confidence grew. He no longer seemed to be nearly as intimidated by me as the lust inside of him drove him onward.

"Don't worry you dirty little slut, you'll get your fill of my cock soon enough."

I pretended to be exasperated but inside I was getting a kick out of his transformation from shy little school boy to man-in-charge. I liked to tease a guy at first and even intimidate him a little but eventually it grew wearisome and I liked it when he had the confidence and self-assurance to try to take control of the situation. Of course, little did he know that he might THINK he was taking control but it was only me LETTING him, and then only for as long as I was willing to allow him. In the end, I need to be in control of any sexual situation I am in for me to feel good about what I am doing. The only time I allow myself to actually submit to a man's authority is when I am with my dad and that is a completely different situation from this.

"Oh Michael, stop teasing me... I want you to fuck me dammit!" I pleaded.

It was true but I have to admit the tone was a bit theatrical. Of course I wanted to be fucked - that wasn't ever in doubt. The begging and pleading was for his sake though, and I hoped it was turning him on to hear me begging him to do me. Some girls fake orgasms, I fake begging for cock - was there really anything wrong with either so long as we're both satisfied?

I felt Michael spreading my ass cheeks apart with his hands and then the pressure of his cock head against my butt. For a moment his dick was pushing against my asshole and I was just about to warn him off when it moved down to my pussy hole. With a sudden push of his hips and pull of his hands on my hips, his cock easily slid into me from behind and I felt his crotch pressing up against my bare bottom with his thick pubic hair once again tickling my cheeks only this time it was my butt cheeks and not my face that was getting the attention. I moaned long and softly as he held himself deep inside of me, rotating his hips as he moved his dick around inside of my cunt.

"Yeah, you like this, don't you Kelly," he said, with a smirk I couldn't see but could clearly hear in his tone of voice, "You like having a big cock in your tight little pussy, don't you?"

"Oh yeah, I love it in me, I love your dick in me," I repeated over and over, trying my best to sound like the whore that I knew deep down he wanted me to be for him, "Oh fuck me Michael, keep fucking me... fuck me harder."

As much as his staying power may have been extended by my sucking him off, I had a feeling Michael hadn't been laid in a while and my suspicion was that he wasn't going to last very long the second time around either. As usual, my female intuition was right on the mark.

"God I'm going to cum again," he moaned.

I would have preferred he cum in my pussy, especially since I had already taken him in my mouth once already today but it wasn't going to work out that way it seemed. Michael pulled out of me and stepped back, stroking his cock to keep it going.

"Turn around and get on your knees," he commanded me.

There wasn't time to argue and there was no sense in letting him cum in his hand so I did as he asked. No sooner than I had dropped to my knees and opened my mouth than the first shot of cum emerged. The first time he had cum it was in my mouth and while I felt it hit the back of my throat with some force, I was still not prepared for what was about to happen. His first load was like a shot from a paint ball gun or something. There was none of this weak stream or dribble that so many guys produced, especially the second time around. No, not my Michael; he shot the first load over my head! At least, it seemed to go over my head but a little was on my forehead and I knew there must be quite a load on the top of my head and probably some on the back of my dress. So much for keeping my dress clean!

As it turned out, that shot was the least of my worries so far as my dress was concerned. Michael was holding his cock but the way he was stroking himself it was spraying about like a charged fire hose running wild, spreading cum all over the place. Some of it hit my face and a little managed to make it into my mouth and outstretched tongue. The majority of it ended up either on my face or on my dress and shoulders. To make it worse, it wasn't like it was a secondary load that was only a portion of the first one. Michael's balls must have been filled to the bursting point with sperm as this load was just as big, or bigger even, than the first. I thought he would never stop spraying me with his cum as one load after another shot out and made an even bigger mess of me. Finally he finished and stood there with his still stiff cock in his hand.

"Damn that felt good," he said between gasps as he tried to catch his breath. From the way he was breathing and the flushness of his face and chest, you would have thought he had just finished running a marathon.

He dropped his cock and reached down to pull me up. For the first time we kissed which seemed a little bit backwards - first kiss AFTER we fucked? It wasn't anything too prolonged although our tongues did play a bit with each other's. I lowered my dress and tried to straighten it out a bit as he reached for his clothes. So much for cuddling afterwards!

"So, do you fuck every guy you meet the first time?" Michael asked.

I wasn't sure from his tone whether he was teasing or serious. Michael must have seen the question on my face as he shook his head and said, "That's OK, you don't have to answer, I was just curious."

Now I had a feeling he wasn't just teasing me, but rather was actually wondering whether I did or not. Well, I HAD told him that I was a slut so what did he expect? Truth was, I did NOT fuck every guy the first time and for that matter, not even a majority of them. OK, I DO suck off most guys I go out with but that is for my enjoyment as much as theirs. Besides, sucking cock isn't really "sex" in the first place. What's the difference between kissing a guy and sucking his cock? If anything, I think kissing is more intimate than a blowjob.

"Noooooo, silly," I rebuked him, "I don't do that."

Michael seemed a little relieved at that which just confirmed my belief in the ultimate stupidity and gullibility of the male side of the human race. What did he think, that he was someone special and that this was the first time that I had gone to a guy's house and asked him to do me? Men!

Michael looked at his watch and a look a panic came over his face.

"Shit, I forgot I'm supposed to meet some guys this afternoon," he said, speeding up his actions as he straightened himself out. It didn't take me much - just flattening out of my dress with my hands and I was ready. I looked in the mirror and saw several stain marks where his cum had landed but there was nothing I could do about them at this point other than get home and hit it with a stain stick as soon as possible. Hopefully I could sneak in to my apartment without anyone seeing me and asking any difficult questions. As for the cum on my face, I wiped it off with a handkerchief from his dresser and whatever was in my hair would have to wait for a shower.

From that point, to leaving his apartment, and then driving back to the campus, neither of us said another word. Although I am sure the thought of having sex with me had crossed his mind when we left church earlier, I doubted that he ever seriously thought it would actually happen. Now that it had, was he having second thoughts about me or was he just working up the courage to ask me out again? It wasn't until we pulled up in front of my apartment that I found out the answer.

"Can I see you again sometime Kelly?" he asked as I undid my seat belt.

I turned to him and smiled, "Of course Michael, I would really like that."

Michael looked like he had more to say and I knew what was undoubtedly going through his head that he was too shy to ask so I helped him out.

"And yes, you can fuck me next time too."

Michael actually blushed when I said that and I couldn't help but giggle a little. Obviously he had never been with a girl quite as forward as me but he didn't seem to mind it overall. I stepped out without saying another word and waved at him before turning my back and walking to my apartment. I didn't look back once until I heard him drive off and then I watched his car as it disappeared from view.

I wondered what was going to happen in the future. Would Michael really ask me out again? Would we do something besides sex or would we just use each other for our own mutual satisfaction? Today's events had certainly been unexpected and who knew what was in store for the future. One thing I DID know - my pussy was still warm from being fucked and so if nothing else, we had gotten off to a great start!

Dave (26)

My new boyfriend Michael confused me sometimes. There were days when he could be the most wonderful guy in the world and yet on others, he could be a total jerk. You'll never guess what he was asked me to do for some friends. I'll let you decide if he was being naughty or nice this day.

1. My Boyfriend Michael

A common questions for me is where guys can find girls like me. By "like me", I assume they mean a girl who puts out on the first date. Most guys are surprised by my answer - church! There is something about a girl who is a little naughty in church that seems to appeal to guys and I find it fun as well. I have always been active I my church and at school I attend a local church where I help with the youth group. A lot of the students attend this church as well as a number of single guys from town who I suspect are attracted more by the abundance of 18 to 21 year-old girls than the quality of the religious services. During my high school years, I had met most of my boyfriends at church and we had a bit of fun more than once during services!

The school I attend is a private religious university. Although it is coed, anything sexual in nature or even suggestive is expressly forbidden and even as a senior I am forbidden to have guys in my on-campus apartment. Early in my senior year I met Michael at church. He was a year older than me and worked for a local company. He was actually British and assigned here as part of an internship for young employees though to have high potential. To make a long story short, I learned on our first time out together that while he may or may have not been a business whiz, he DID have a nice cock... and he knew how to use it.

For Michael I think I was a bit of an enigma to him at first. I don't know what girls are like in the UK, but apparently I was rather unique in that I was quite forward with him. The first time I told him I wanted him to fuck me, his jaw almost hit the floor. It wasn't that he didn't WANT to fuck me, it was just that he'd never had a girl come right out and ASK him before. After the initial shock, he seemed to enjoy it when I talked dirty to him and generally acted like a slut. After our first "date", if you call going out for lunch and then straight to his apartment for sex a "date", we'd gone out a number of times. For me, it was great since one of the things I find hardest to adapt to after being home for the summer is the lack of sex at school. I've been fortunate enough in the past to have had a bisexual roomie my freshman year and one at least not afraid to masturbate in front of me my junior year. Unfortunately, this year was more like my sophomore year when my roomie was not into breaking the rules regarding sex. Having Michael available as a "relief valve" for my needs was an unexpected pleasure that I'd not expected to have when I started my senior year!

Michael would take me out to dinner, movies, and such but our evenings ALWAYS ended up about the same no matter how they started - with his hard cock in my mouth and/or pussy. I liked Michael and he was a decent person but not my type so far as an emotional boyfriend attachment was concerned. The plain facts were that he as available for me about anytime I wanted him to be and he was adequate enough in terms of sexual technique to satisfy me.

Michael confessed to me once after an especially hot night of sex that he had never met a girl quite like me, at least one that wasn't a whore and just playing out a fantasy for him. I tried to explain to him that most girls loved sex as much as I did but in a way it was sort of like the problem guys have - they're afraid to go out and just ask for it. It's not that they're afraid of rejection - what boy would ever say no to a girl asking for sex? Instead, most girls worry about their reputations whereas I thought it was pretty cool to know that people who knew me called me a slut - often to my face. Of course, at school I never let on to what Michael and I did as it would have gotten me expelled.

One weekend Michael and I had been planning to take the entire day and do nothing but fuck all day. I'd confided in Michael about my fantasy of having a guy's dick in me for an entire day - even in bed that night, parting only as needed for biological reasons. Michael thought it would be pretty cool to try it out as well so all week I had been masturbating like crazy as I imagined what it was going to be like later today.

Ali, my roomie, could tell I was excited about the weekend but she didn't have a clue what I was planning of course. I warned her I might be staying the night at someone's house at which she gave me a bit of a sideways glance but I assured her nothing was going to happen - yeah right! I knew that Ali was more aware of my masturbation needs than she thought I knew, but we more or less avoided the subject so long as I wasn't blatant about it. Face it, most girls masturbated and Ali knew it. We just all pretended we didn't and were good little Christian girls.

Although I was planning to stay the night out, I didn't take much with me except my purse. By now I'd stocked Michaels apartment with the essential toiletry items so I could clean up and not worry about returning to my apartment smelling like sex with cum on my face. I wasn't planning on wearing my clothes for long once I got to his apartment so why bother with bring more for the next day?

Michael picked me up just after noon and we headed straight to his apartment. As soon as I got in his car my pussy tingled like it was connected to an electrical outlet as I looked at his crotch and saw the bulge he seemed to have anytime he was around me. My first thought was to reach over and free his rigid dick from its prison where I knew it had to be aching to escape. I would have loved to start sucking him before we even left the campus but caution for once got the better of me and as it turned out, it was a good thing as the guard was at the entrance was checking out the cars as they left for the first time in ages. It wouldn't have gone over very well if he had caught me with my head in my boyfriend's lap with his dick in my mouth!

Although it seemed like forever, it only took a few minutes to get to his small apartment and I followed him up the stairs where he opened the door and I followed him in. Now I don't claim to be stupid or anything and usually catch on to things pretty quickly, but for whatever reason it never dawned on me that his door was unlocked when we arrived, something he normally never allowed when he was away.

2. Meeting Michael's Friends

As it turned out the reason for the unlocked door was that his apartment wasn't empty but instead the living room had three other guys planted in one position or another playing some silly video game. My heart sank as my dreams of an all- day fucking session were apparently not to be realized today. What the hell were these guys doing over here? I had never seen them; for that matter I had never seen anyone before in Michael's apartment.

Michael acted as if nothing was out of the ordinary and quickly introduced me to his buddies. There was Rob, 22 years old but looked not a day over eighteen with a youthful face and long hair, was apparently a neighbor friend. Jeremy was 24 and a coworker from where Michael worked as was Dave, the oldest at 26. To be honest, they all looked pretty hot and under different circumstance, I could imagine some interesting times together but today had my heart set on being fucked continuously and THAT was not going to happen now, no matter who these guys were.

Michael must have seen the disappointment in my face and he hugged me. Then he did something I had NOT expected him to do - he kissed me and cupped my crotch in his hands right in front of the other guys!

"David!" I exclaimed, wondering what the hell was going on.

David laughed as did the other guys and I looked at him, wondering what was the story.

"Don't worry, I told them all about you," David said, rubbing my crotch again as if to drive home the point.

"You WHAT?" I asked him pointedly, "Just what does THAT mean?"

"He said you were a slut who loved being fucked," Dave spoke up at this point. As the oldest, he seemed to be the most forward, even more so than Michael. The straightforward tone of his voice softened the words somewhat so they didn't seem as outrageous as what they might have. It was if he was saying I was a waitress who enjoying working at the local bar. I looked at David who just shrugged his shoulders.

"Well, you DID say you were proud of it, didn't you?" he said, his face looking like "who me?"

"I didn't say you could tell all your friends though, did I?" I countered, "and just what else did you tell them?"

Jeremy spoke up for the first time at that. He pointed at Michael and laughed, saying, "He said you dreamed of being fucked all day and dumb fuck over here was scared he couldn't do it so he called in the cavalry."

THAT was not at all what I expected to hear. I looked at Michael, this time with more of an accusing look than anything else. What in the world was he up to?

"I didn't think you would mind," he said lamely.

"Mind??? You mean you never thought you might ASK before you called your friends over and invited them to have a good time fucking me?"

David spoke up again and I was quickly getting the idea he was not going to be my favorite from the hint of arrogance in his voice.

"Hey, give Mike a break. From the sounds of it I don't think you mind the idea all that much. You don't exactly look like the type that says 'no' very often so cut the BS."

Now THAT wasn't going to go unanswered, even if he was correct I couldn't let him get away with being so nasty to me so I stepped over to him and slapped him across the face. It was a pretty hard slap at that and my hand stung a bit afterwards so I knew his cheek must have hurt, especially from the way it was reddening. Rather than getting mad though, David just laughed and rubbed the side of his face gingerly.

"Damn Mike, she's a feisty one, isn't she. Does she fuck as good as she hits?"

Mike started to say something but when he say the look on my face he quickly retreated and shut up. I put my hands on my hips and stared at Dave.

"For your information mister, I fuck BETTER than that; not that YOU'LL ever know."

Everyone but David was whooping it up and laughing at that. David didn't get angry though and if anything, he just smiled and I realized he knew full well it was just a little game between the two of us and that sooner or later he would be fucking me no matter how much bluster I may put up in front of the other guys.

"So what's the story, Michael?" I finally asked after it had calmed down a bit.

Michael hesitated and then looked at the other guys, all of them looking at him as if to say get it over with and tell her!

"Well, you said you wanted to have a cock in you all day and night," he started out. I grinned and nodded so he continued, "But you didn't say it had to be the same one, did you?"

I'd been suspecting as much but it was good to get it out in the open. Actually, the idea had not occurred to me. In my dreams when I would masturbate about this, it was always just one guy as my preference was to be with one guy at a time for these type of things. Being with multiple guys was fun at times but generally seemed too impersonal for me to want it that way too often. I prefer the intimacy of being with a single guy. Maybe it's a little bit of ego and selfishness as well as I normally wouldn't like to have to share a cock with another guy if I cared about him.

The more I thought about what Michael was proposing, the more interested I became. It DID address the major concern I had, which was how he would stay hard enough to keep in me for a long time and when he got sift, how would I keep him from slipping out? With four guys working in shifts, the odds of going a full 24 hours with a hard cock in me the whole time were greatly improved.

"Well, I guess the IDEA is OK, but what about their cocks, especially Mr. Big Mouth's over there?" I said, pointing at Dave, "I don't want no tiny dicks, you know."

Inwardly I cringed at my crude English but it seemed to fit the moment. Frankly, I could have cared less about their cock sizes so long as they had something between their legs. I was just trying to give them a bit of a hard time by making them worry about whether they were adequate or not. Every guy in the world seems to worry if his cock size is OK so why not make them sweat a little?

They looked at me as if uncertain what I wanted so I put it more bluntly for them. "Let's see em' guys, pull out those boys for me get a look at."

The four of them looked at each other as I think I caught them off-guard a bit. Dave was the first to comply - what a surprise. He pulled his jeans down and then his boxers, revealed a rather impressive dick at that. It was flaccid but looked to have potential. It's really hard to judge a guy's erection size when he is soft and many a guy has surprised me when my expectations weren't met. It worked both ways - guys with big soft cocks didn't grow much when they hardened while some guys had what appeared to be tiny dicks when they were soft but grew like a balloon when they got excited.

Dave's dick looked pretty decent even when soft but not TOO big which was usually a good indicator for later. I knew Michael's cock quite intimately by now so I didn't pay his a lot of attention at this moment. Jeremy was right on the heels of Dave and looked to have an average dick. Nothing to write home about but adequate for the job at hand. From the way Rob was hemming and hawing, delaying taking down his pants, I had a bad feeling that he was going to have a cock as youthful as his looks. Dave was sitting next to him and slapped him on the back.

"C'mon Rob, show the girl that monster you keep in there."

That made me all the more suspicious as I figured Dave was just teasing Rob and being sarcastic. As it turned out, he was just being accurate as when Rob dropped his jockey shorts he revealed the biggest cock of the bunch - by a mile! Damn, even soft he was bigger than I suspected the other three would soon be once I got to work on them. Not only that, it as thick and he had the bushiest thatch of pubic hair surrounding it that I had ever seen on a guy, especially one as young as him. It was like a forest down there! I must have been staring at it because even Michael started laughing at my reaction.

"What's the matter Kelly, too big for ya?" he called over to me.

I wasn't about to let that challenge go uncontested. Without a word I walked over to where Rob was sitting on the couch, his jeans and underwear around his ankles and his cock lying there like a giant sausage between his legs. Before I did anything, I looked around at the three of them and gave them a bit of a haughty look.

"Well, I guess it's time for me to show my credentials," I teased them.

Rob was in the center of the couch so I sat down to the side of him sort of sideways on the couch and then reached over to grab his dick. My hand barely went around it and all I could think that he was still soft - my god, what would he be like when he got hard? For all my bluster, I was wondering if I would be able to take him all once he was aroused. There hadn't been many men in my "career" that I hadn't been able to take down my throat and it was looking like Rob might be one to add to that short list.

I lowered my head to his lap and took the head of his dick in my mouth. The scent of his crotch was strong and I doubted he had showered that morning or else he had been doing some work before he came over as not only was he strong with the musk of his male lust, there was a pretty strong sweat odor as well. I didn't mind at all actually, so long as it wasn't TOO overpowering.

"God, look at her go!" I heard Jeremy say.

"Guess you were right Mike," Dave said, "She IS a little slut - and a damn cute one at that!"

With Rob as soft as he was, I was able to rather easily take his cock all in my mouth and I buried my face in that thick bush of hair at the base of his shaft. I had never felt so much pubic hair against me before, the guy was a human hair brash! Slowly his cock began to harden and I could feel it growing in my mouth. I slowly lifted my head upwards, sucking on his dick and stretching it upward as I went until finally the head passed my lips and I would lose suction and it would slip from my mouth, springing back to his lap. Each time I repeated this, it would snap back a little less as it became less flexible. God, it was so big I wondered where all the blood was coming from to fill it? That old joke about there not being enough blood for both head seemed to be for real with Rob.

As I sucked his cock, it was like I was on American Idol with three judges rating me.

"I think she likes sucking his cock..."

Damn, look at the way she sucks him, damn girl's a vacuum cleaner!"

"He's getting bigger, I bet she can't take him all in for much longer."

Actually, that last comment was similar to a concern going through my head. He WAS getting big and the last couple of times I had gone all the way down on him he was about to the back of my throat. I had practiced deep throating a lot over the years and generally could fight back the gag reflex now without gagging or choking but never had I tried it with anyone as large as Rob. I was determined, though, to take him as I knew the others were watching and what I did with Rob was going to set the tone for the rest of the day.

Finally the time came when I felt him hit the back of my throat but there was still almost an inch of him to go. I rose up and then slowly descended on his cock, concentrating on his dick and my mouth as I tried to block out everything else in the room. When his dick hit the back of my throat I pushed down harder on him and I felt his dick pushing its way into my throat. For just an instant I felt the natural gag reflex try to make me give it up but I fought back the impulse and pushed down even more on him, driving him past the gag pointing my throat. My face hit the base of his cock and I held myself there, his cock filling my throat.

"Holy shit, look at that," Jeremy explained, "She's doing it!"

I needed to breath so I slowly allowed my head to rise up on his cock, letting them see his cock as it emerged from my mouth inch by inch until he was free of my lips. I looked around at them triumphantly.

"Well guys, what do you think? Can I suck cock or what?"

They all started to talk at once but I just ignored them and went down on him again. He had grown a little more and it was harder to get him all the way down this time, more because he was thicker than the added length. Once you got past the gag point, it really didn't matter how big he was after that. The worst case scenario was to have a guy just long enough to make it to the gag reflex but no farther as it was like you were constantly having to fight it back. Rob was well past that, though, so once I had him down my throat he could have gone down a couple more inches with no problem.

After that I alternated between sucking his whole cock and sucking only half of it while I stroked the lower half. As much as I prided myself on my mouth being able to make a man cum, I had to admit that there was something about a hand around a cock that seemed to work better than a mouth, no matter how talented. Thankfully, as it was a bit of work to suck him, it didn't take terribly long for him to reach the point of no return and I tightened my lips around the base of the head of his cock, forming a seal so when he came his cum would stay in my mouth. I felt his legs tighten under me and then his hips shuddered as the first shot of sperm shot from his dick into my mouth.

Another thing about trying to judge a cock is that I have found it nearly impossible to predict the size of a man's load. Some men seem to cum in quarts while others barely cover my tongue. Even the same guy can vary dramatically depending on some unknown factors so you never know what to expect when you first feel him starting to cum in your mouth. As big as Rob's cock was, when he came I was a little surprised at the small amount of cum that resulted. Maybe he masturbated a lot or maybe he had a lot of sex lately, who knew, but the result was that he just shot out a few little squirts and that was it. Oh well, a little sperm was better than none!

"Shit, he's cumming!" I heard Jeremy, speaking out first as usual.

"That's my girl!" bragged Michael, "See, I told you she would take it in her mouth."

After Rob had finished, I sat up and opened my mouth for them to see. I stuck out my tongue for them to see the cum I could feel pooled on it. Then I shut my mouth and swallowed with some emphasis and then reopened my mouth, like a patient proving to the nurse she had taken her pill.

"Oh yeah, we got ourselves a little cum slut here," Dave chortled, "Now get over and take care of me."

3. A Solid Day of Fucking

As much as I normally would have jumped at the invitation, sucking a bunch of cocks wasn't what my plans had been for the day. I mean, there wasn't anything WRONG with doing so, just not what I had planned. As such, I stood up and crossed my arms across my chest and looked over at Michael who still had his cock in his hand.

"Ummmmm, Michael, I thought we had something planned for today?"

"You're serious about that?" Michael exclaimed, "I thought you were just teasing me to be honest."

"Well, if you and your friends aren't up to it, then I guess not," I said, raising my eyebrows at them as if daring them to back out.

"Whoa!" Dave said, cutting into the conversation, "Don't go off the deep end now on us. Nobody said we wouldn't do it - did we guys?"

Dave looked around and the other guys all looked a little surprised at first but after all, they were guys and what did guys want even more than beer and football? Sex. I took charge at this point and load down the ground rules.

"OK, first, the name of the game is 'Fuck Kelly' so no matter what, that takes priority over everything else - OK?'

I looked around and nobody was disagreeing so I continued.

"It's now 1:00. Until 1:00 tomorrow afternoon, one of your cocks has to be in me at all times. You get just enough time for one of you to pull out and then the other had to be in me as quickly as possible."

Again, no response so I went on. Actually, I had dreamed and masturbated about this so many times it was like I had already established all the ground rules.

"You can cum in me as many times as you want, but no complaints about 'sloppy seconds' or anything else about the previous guy's cum in me when you fuck me."

"If you cum, you have to cum in my pussy - none of this pulling out crap. I'm on the pill and have no more desire to get pregnant than you do. I expect a LOT of cum in me by the end of this so no holding back!"

"If you cum and you can't keep hard afterwards such that you can't stay in me easily, the next guy in line will have to step up to take his place so if you're on deck - be ready!"

"I don't mind sucking your cock while someone else is fucking me so long as you're ready to go when it is your turn. I want you to be hard when you're in me, not soft because you can't get it back up again after a blowjob."

"I expect to be actively fucked even if I fall asleep so no sleeping when it's your turn. If you have to trade off, don't feel you have to wake me, just do it."

"Speaking of which, you don't have to be going at it like crazy all the time but don't just stay still all the time. The least you can do is wiggle it in me a little now and then!"

"Last and important - do NOT even THINK about pissing in me. If you have to go, tap out and trade off while you go to the bathroom. If I have to go, I'll let you know and we'll uncouple just long enough of me to address my problem."

I looked around and all four of them were just staring at me. Did they ever think they would ever be in such a situation before? For that matter, sure I had fantasized about this before but did I really think I would ever actually DO it? I have heard of porn stars who fucked a hundred guys or more but this was different. I wasn't expecting them to fuck me raw, just stay in me most of the time. I hoped four guys would be enough though, to keep a constant supply of hard dick on tap.

"Well, who's going to be first?" I asked. Needless to say, they ALL raised their hands so I pointed at Michael and smiled.

"I think it's only fair that Michael gets me first," I declared and Michael winked at me.

It was then that I realized I hadn't really though out all the logistics. Where would we do this? What position? What about dinner? Did I want to be nude or partially dressed? Oh well, I shrugged to myself and figured we would just play it by ear. I felt a little shiver run through me as I thought about what I was about to embark on. God, was I really ready for this? Would my pussy survive? Years ago I had been fucked by a dozen guys at a party and I was a little sore afterwards. Damn, what would my poor pussy feel like after 24 hours of non-stop cock? This was different in that the dozen guys all were working my pussy pretty hard but still, it was a fairly tender part of me and not exactly accustomed to a lot of sex lately other than what Michael was giving me.

I went into the bedroom and stripped, laying my clothes out on the bed carefully since I would need to wear them tomorrow. Looking around the bedroom, I knew this was not the place to do this as after a few hours I was sure boredom would set in pretty good so I went back out to the living room. I was nude when I walked in and everyone turned to stare at me.

"God, look at that!" Rob exclaimed. I noticed his dick was back to his flaccid state but something told me it wouldn't take much to awaken it again.

"Hmmmmmm, nice little shaved beaver, I see," Dave said, pointing out the obvious.

"Ready to fuck me Michael?" I asked. It was like I was there to watch the game and I was asking him if he wanted more chips to eat or something. Michael was indeed ready - stripped down and stroking his dick slowly to keep it up. I moved to the couch, pushing Jeremy from it so I had it all to myself, and laid down on my back with my head resting on a pillow at the end. I raised one leg and rested in on the back of the couch and let my other leg hang over the side. The end result was I was in the perfect position to be fucked - and Michael quickly took advantage of the situation.

Michael got up on the couch and kneeled on the cushions between my legs. He leaned over me and balance himself with one arm on the back of the couch while he reached down and directed his cock into my waiting pussy. With a quick shove, his dick violated me for the first time that day and I looked over at the clock.

"1:20 and the clock is running!" I declared. Looking at Michael I grinned and said, "No remember big boy, take your time. The object is to see how long you can stay in me, not to cum right away!"

"How long does he get before one of us gets a chance?" Jeremy asked. It was a legitimate question. With the four of them, if we went on until the first three couldn't stay hard anymore the fourth guy might have to wait all night before getting his chance at me.

"OK, new rule," I declared, "One hour maximum and then you have to let the next guy in - how's that?"

Everyone nodded in agreement and Michael went back to work. It was sort of surreal being fucked like this in front of his friends. It wasn't like I had never been fucked in front of other people before but this situation was a little unique. Each guys knew he was going to have a lot of time in the next 24 hours to fuck me and I wondered how they were feeling about the prospect. I was sort of curious myself how it would turn out. Would I have a significant preference for one over the others? For that matter, would there be one I did NOT like compared to the others? Would it really matter after a while whose dick was in me? How many loads of cum would I be getting? Who would be in me the longest?

It was then I realized that if I wanted to have a good record, I had better start keeping track now so I asked Rob to find me a notebook and pen. Michael told him where to get one and when he came back I started keeping a log that would record who was fucking me, when, and how many times he came in me. It was a little odd writing in a notebook while a guy was fucking me - THAT was one thing I don't ever remember doing before. Another thing that was going to be different was the TV. Although I have been guilty of looking at the TV a few times when I was having sex, I never made a conscious effort to watch a show while a guy was in me. Yes, this was certainly going to be a unique experience and I was only into the first ten minutes!

"Do you like fucking me with your friends watching?" I asked Michael.

Michael rolled his eyes and looked around. Since we had just started, they were all pretty interested in watching us and although I was accustomed to it, I wondered if Michael had ever done it this way before.

"Well, first time for everything, I guess," Michael said with a shrug as he slowly stroked himself in and out of me.

"I think you should cum in me and then let the others have a chance so everybody gets to fuck me once at the start," I suggested to Michael, "What do you guys think?"

Michael didn't seem too pleased by my suggestions but needless to say the others were more than in favor of it. Michaela went along with it though, and speeded up his stroked in me. He was pretty horny and it didn't take long for me to get my first load of what I had a felling would be a significant number in the next 24 hours. He groaned as he came and I smiled as I looked to the others while he came in me.

"Mmmmmmm, I can feel his cum in me guys... who's gonna be the next one to cum in me?"

I wasn't exactly surprised that Dave asserted himself and moved over to the couch. Michael was finished now and he looked to me as if wondering how this was going to be done.

"OK Michael, when Dave says he's ready, you pull out and let him get in. Dave, you get that hard dick in me as fast as possible - got it?"

Dave tapped Michael on the should and Michael quickly slipped out of me, My pussy barely had time to register the emptiness when I felt Dave's pushing its way into me. My pussy was still pretty fresh so he had to press a bit to get in me but it was only a few seconds after Michael was out that my pussy was once again filled with a hard cock. Funny thing, if I closed my eyes I really couldn't tell you whose cock was in me. Unless it was abnormally big or large, once a dick was inside of me they all feel pretty much the same. Dave was fresh and horny so he wasn't about to just let it sit in me and immediately began to stroke his dick in and out of me.

"Dang, she's still pretty tight!" he noted to Michael. In the meantime, I was filling in my notebook with the time he had started and put a little mark by Michael's name to indicate he had cum once inside of me.

"Well, I guess you get to fuck me after all," I said with a sly grin.

"Don't be so cute," Dave said, grunting as he fucked me faster, "You knew you wanted this cock from the moment you walked in the room!"

Theoretically, he was correct in that as a general rule, my first thought when I met any new guy was what it would be like for him to fuck me and Dave had been no exception. Where he was wrong was in personalizing it as not many men actually got to fuck me, despite whatever thoughts I might have had about them. Sure, I had indeed thought about him fucking me but nothing more than normal. He was doing a nice job though, and I certainly wasn't minding that he got to do me!

"Ready for a real load this time?" Dave asked me as his thrusts got longer and deeper. I nodded and he just grinned at me and said, "Yeah, you certainly are one hell of a little cum slut."

Just then he came and again I felt the heat of a man's sperm as it filled the interior of my pussy. Dave was true to his word, he DID have a big load for me and it felt much warmer than when Michael had cum in me although I had no intention of inflating his ego any further by telling him.

"Well, who's next?" I said, looking over at Rob and Jeremy.

Dave was still stroking himself in me and I could feel him shudder as a few last shots of cum erupted from him. I didn't mean to rush things but I found myself getting a bit turned on by the impersonality of the entire affair. It wasn't like parties where I felt the impersonal sex to be a detriment to my enjoyment, Here, the entire eroticism was all about the fact it WAS impersonal, almost like business. Checking off my log and talking to the next guy in line while the guy who was currently fucking me was cool!

Jeremy was next. He followed the same instructions that Dave had with Michael and the switch went smoothly. He entered me rather easily thanks to a combination of his smaller dick and the additional cum in my pussy. He had been stroking himself as he watched me being fucked by Michael and Dave and it was only about a minute after he entered me when he came.

"God, you came ALREADY?" Dave exclaimed, "Jesus, what a wimp!"

I knew it was because he had been so worked up already and that the next time he would last longer so I hugged Jeremy as Rob got ready to take over. Seeing his giant cock, I was glad he was the fourth in line. As wet as I was and even though lubricated with three loads of sperm, his cock still felt like a giant log trying to force its way into me and I groaned in a mixture of pain and pleasure as he pushed harder to force it into me. Pardon the analogy, but taking in a cock the size of Rob's is like when you have to really go to the bathroom and you're a bit constipated. It hurts a bit at first but once it starts it feels better and when it's over you feel really good.

In this case, rather than getting something OUT of me, Rob's dick was moving IN but the concept holds. When his head stretches me apart as it pushes its way in, it's like my hips are being dislocated and my first reaction is to push him away. Once his head cleared and made its way inside, his shaft followed easily and from there on it felt incredible as it was like I was being pumped full of cock.

"Oh god... you feel so big in me," I moaned softly. It was loud enough, though, for the rest of them to hear me as well and it was like I had a cheering section rooting for me as they made lewd comments about my pussy and how I was enjoying being screwed by Rob's giant cock.

Rob kept the pressure on, drilling into me deeper and deeper and I thought his cock was going to burst into my stomach when finally I felt his crotch meet up with mine and I knew I had him all in me.

"Hold it there Rob... let me just feel it in me," I whispered to him with my eyes closed as I concentrated on the feelings of pleasure his cock was producing in me, even as it lay still inside of me. I could actually feel his heartbeat in my cunt as his cock pulsed and I instinctively swiveled my hips slightly under him to move it around just enough to let me feel the length of it in me.

"OK, fuck me now Rob," I whispered hoarsely as I lifted my hips up against him.

Rob responded without a word by slowly withdrawing until his head was all that was in me, and then driving himself back in me, again ever so slowly such that I could feel every inch of him pass into me. He kept stroking in and out, in and out, speeding up slightly each time until finally he was banging me pretty good. I was so wet and sloppy that I could hear the sound of him moving in and out, a slurping sound like a baby sucking on a pacifier.

This was his first time in me and there was a long way to go for the rest of the day so I wasn't too anxious to have Rob wear me out in the first couple of hours. He was going at it pretty hard and rather than trying to control him and make him last, I let him go at it, hoping he would cum quickly. My wish was granted as without a warning he suddenly let go inside of me and I felt the warm bloom of heat generated by his emerging stream of cum deep inside of me.

"That's it Rob, cum in me... give it to me," I panted as he drove himself as far into me as he could and just held himself there as his cock erupted time after time inside of me.

Finally he was finished and he gasped for air while he held himself still in me. God, I had already been cum in four times now and the day had barely started. I wondered just how much cum my pussy would hold! I could feel something wet dribbling down my ass and I had a feeling Michael's couch was going to be in dire need of a cleaning when this was all over!

There' no way, short of writing a small novel, that I could describe everything they did to me for the remainder of the 24 hours. Here is the final scorecard:

|---|---|---|
| Michael: | 04 hours & 15 min | came 5 times |
| Dave: | 05 hours & 10 min | came 7 times |
| Jeremy: | 02 hours & 45 min | came 4 times |
| Rob: | 11 hours & 50 min | came 8 times |

The reason for the large discrepancies was that Jeremy just couldn't stay in me that long without cumming so he was by far the lowest. Michael and Dave were actually pretty close until towards the end when Michael was just too tired to stay awake. Rob was the longest for the simple reason that he WAS the longest. What I mean was that once he was in me, even if he went soft he was still plenty long enough to stay in me without accidentally slipping out. A lot of the time he was in me was later in the evening when I was falling asleep. We found that if I was on top, it was easier for him to keep himself in me, even if I was sleeping. Thus while he had the longest accumulated time, I probably remember him the least!

Rather than try to describe the events chronologically, I thought it might be easier just to make some comment about things in general...

First, being fucking for 24 hours straight was not what I thought it would be. Frankly, after about six or seven hours, I was a bit bored! We tried to mix things up a bit, different positions, etc., but still, it almost became difficult to imagine I was going to last 24 hours!

Yes, I WAS sore by the time it ended. Not so much sore in terms of being raw but more in due to muscle soreness. My hips felt like I had been exercising all day and my back was killing me. Even my neck was tight. The last couple of hours were more like finishing a marathon than anything else. Even though it wasn't really that

Speaking of which, I was glad that Michael had invited his friends over. There was no way he could have pulled this off by himself and even with the four of them, if it hadn't been for Rob's long dick there were a few times when I was concerned any of them would be hard enough to fuck me. When I had dreamed about doing this in the past, it never occurred to me that a guys couldn't fuck me as long as he would want to, I just figured he would stay in me when he got soft until he hardened again. After all, this is what most guys did when they wanted to fuck me longer. What I learned was that while that technique might work for an hour or two, going 24 hours straight was a different story entirely. My recommendation to anyone silly enough to try this would be to have at least six guys standing by.

So much for the commentary, I suppose there are some questions most people would like to ask...

Would I do this again? That's easy to answer - NO! Like many experiences, such as the time with my friend's dog, it was interesting to try it once and have the experience to look back on, but I have no desire to repeat the performance. It's sort of cool to be able to say "I was fucked for 24 hours straight once", but I'll take a good ol' fashioned one-on-one fucking for an evening any time.

Did I tell my parents afterwards? Of course - I tell them everything I do, at least sexually, provided it is interesting. My mom's reaction was funny, she couldn't believe I would want to do it in the first place. Needless to say, my dad offered to try it when I was home but I had to tell him not to get his hopes up.

Did we record it? No. Dave tried to convince me to let them take some pictures and video but I refused. I didn't need to have something like that circulating around town - I didn't believe for a moment that they would keep it to themselves.

The last guy to fuck me was Michael. Actually, it should have been Dave as he was the one that was in me when the 24 hour mark approached. We agreed that Michael should have the "honor" or being the first and last to screw me since he was the one that had arranged everything.

When it was over, Michael withdrew from me and for a few minutes my pussy felt really weird as it was empty for the first time in over a day. In a way it was also a relief to have it over. I never would have dreamed in my earlier fantasies that I would be glad when it was all over!

I made my way to the bathroom (surprisingly, I had only made two trips during my 24 hours of fucking) and closed the door behind me. Looking in the mirror, I was an absolute mess. Although I had fallen asleep quite a bit during the night, it was never for all that long and I doubted that having a dick in you was the recommended way to get a sound night's sleep! My eyes looked a bit puffy and dark and my hair was a disaster.

As I sat on the toilet, I flood of cum drained from me and dripped into the toilet, almost like I had just douched. Now THAT would be an interesting product to take to market - sperm douche! I took a long hot shower and emerged to find the guys all dressed. Typical men - they must have stunk like sex but they dressed anyway without even taking a shower!

After all the time they had spent fucking me, there really wasn't much to say. Dave started to say something about getting together with me again but I shook my head and said this was a one-time event and I wasn't about to be their toy in the future. They looked a bit disappointed as I had no doubt they figured any girl that would do what I had just done would be willing to fuck them any time in the future. As I explained to Michael on the way back to campus, that was one of the differences between being a slut and a whore. Besides the obvious - being paid, whores did anyone at any time. As a self-proclaimed slut, that meant I enjoyed sex but did it on my terms with whomever I wanted.

When I got back to my room I laid in bed and dropped off to sleep almost immediately. I don't know exactly when Ali returned but she as in the room when I woke. She asked me how my night went and when I told her it was rather uneventful, she looked at me a bit strangely. I was sure she was suspicious but even so, I doubted in her wildest dreams that she could ever have imagined what it was that I'd REALLY done!

(Oct 31) Chapter 129: Halloween Party

Me (21)
Michelle (20)

My church considers Halloween to be a pagan ritual so we have an "alternative" party for parents who don't want their kids to be demons for the night. Even so, I found that you can still be a little devilish, even at the most unlikely of places!

1. A Halloween Rant

When I was growing up as a little girl in Pittsburgh, I loved Halloween. It was a time to dress up silly, go around the neighborhood collecting candy, and have fun at a party or two. Sure there were some scary costumes and movies, but that's all they were - movies and costumes. Nobody I knew took it any more serious than that, let alone look at it all with any religious connotations. That was then...

As a senior in college, one of my biggest activities outside of school is working with the youth at the local church. Although not my specific brand of religion (I was raised Presbyterian), it worked for me Most of the kids I worked with were between twelve and fifteen, boys and girls. I dealt mostly with the girls and it never ceased to amaze me how even in your stereotypical WASP church in middle-America, kids still had issues that their parents might never believe - or even want to know about. Think just because your fourteen year-old daughter goes to church, gets good grades, and dresses like a princess that she doesn't have problems? Think again. Teen pregnancy, STDs, sexual molestation, and just plain sexual curiosity are just as much a part of their lives as any other kid.

Admittedly, the really big ticket items - STD, pregnancy, etc., have been few and far between. The biggest issues I have had to deal with mostly center around a parent's inability to address the sexually-related questions and changes every teen girl has as she grow up. I was amazed the first time a girl asked me about her period. My god, why didn't her mom tell her anything about it? Birth control? Well, I guess some mothers figure if they don't talk about it, then it won't happen. Yeah, right. What's worse moms - telling your daughter about birth controls or letting her get pregnant? She's going to have sex whether you like it or not so why not protect her as best you can?

Pardon my rant but it helps to explain my issue with Halloween at the church I help out at. Someone managed to convince the masses that Halloween is based on some pagan ritual and exploits our children by convincing them that satanic ritualism is OK. What a line of BS! Nonetheless, these politically-correct fear-mongers have managed to eliminate the traditional Halloween in favor of what they call "Harvest Festival". All brought to by the same type of hypocrites who complained when Pittsburgh started calling the Christmas Season "Sparkle Season:.

So now instead of dressing up like goblins and witches, the dress code requires something "nice" like a princess or action hero. No ghosts or other harbingers of the apocalypse. The party has most of the trappings of the usual party - apple bobbing, pin-the-tail, and such but no mention of anything with a straw broom or that rattles in the dark. No haunted houses but we did have a "Holiday farm House". Don't even ask me about it!

Oh well, at least the kids will grow up to be wonderful human beings with high self-esteem and family values. (If you believe that, I have some good swamp land to sell you!)

2. Getting Ready

It was my responsibility to act as a chaperone during the event. That meant primarily keeping one eye on the little monsters *oops - no monsters allowed, I meant "young-ins") to be sure they stayed in sight. Despite all the rhetoric, everyone knew they were still young adolescents and you know what that means!

My partner in crime for the evening was Michelle, a twenty year-old sophomore from town. She didn't go to school but instead had chosen to do the beauty school route and now did old ladies in some local hair shop. Michelle's family had been in town for several generations although she was the only one to go to this church. The rest of her family were traditional Baptists and from what she said, quite horrified that she was going outside their religion! It sounded more like she was converting to be a Muslim than just another branch of the Christian Church but that's how some people are.

Michelle said her parent's church was boring and she enjoyed being with the college age crowd that attended this church, even if most of us were students and for the most part a great deal more religious than she was. Personally, I don't think Michelle is really saved but she knows the right words to say and when to say them so nobody hassles her. At least she attends church and I figure maybe something will rub off given time. She started coming about the same time I returned to school and in the space of a couple of months we had become good friends, even if the only time I ever saw her was twice a week at church.

The day of the party I was still fretting over what to wear. For a moment I found myself daydreaming about what I might have chosen had it been for a party with my friends back home. My, now THAT would be interesting! My dad use to buy me outfits for Christmas that I would dress up in after we opened our presents and put on a private fashion show for him and my mom. Most of them were what you might expect, the traditional schoolgirl skirt and blouse, the naughty nurse, the ever-favorite French maid, and so on. It was all just for fun and it use to give me a bit of a thrill to try them on and show myself off in them. What made it best was knowing my dad had bought them, especially for me!

It goes without saying that such outfits weren't going to be in vogue at my church's party. Being I was just going to be a chaperone, it really didn't matter all that much what I wore anyway but I couldn't go in just jeans and a shirt. Finally, out of desperation I went to a friend of mine, Kristen, who was on the cheerleading squad. Kristen was about my size and figure so I pleaded with her to let me borrow her outfit for the night.

Kristen wasn't too thrilled with the idea. There were supposedly rules about when the uniforms could be worn and she wasn't sure a costume party met the guidelines. When I explained it was for the church party, she finally caved but told me I'd better not go anywhere else with it on. That wasn't too hard a promise as being a cheerleader wasn't exactly on my list of lifetime goals I hoped to achieve. I'd never even tried out to be a cheerleader and in fact, throughout high school I genuinely despised most of the little wenches. Of course, there WAS that time when my dad gave me a cheerleading outfit for Christmas but it was a little more revealing than your average school version!

Back in my room, my roomie had returned and she laughed when she saw me carrying in a cheerleader outfit.

"Well I'll be," she laughed, "And I thought you hated cheerleaders!"

I gave Ali a "don't go there" look and tossed the outfit on the bed and started to get undressed. Nothing like waiting until the last minute. I had to be at the church in just over an hour and here I was just starting to get ready!

My clothes were quickly in their usual location - a pile on the floor, leaving me standing in the room naked and a bit chilly. Ali had turned back to her computer and wasn't paying a bit of attention to me. Ali was a great girl and overall a wonderful roomie but she didn't have the slightest bit of interest in girls. Now BOYS were another matter entirely but even then, she was really just a big flirt and had only been with one guy so far and that was way back in high school! She was quite pretty and many a time I'd watch her undress and wish she would turn and let me kiss her all over!

Over my almost four year career at college I'd been lucky to have a wide range of roomies with varying interests and values. Brenda, my freshman roomie, also turned out to be my first girl I had sex with (not counting my Aunt Linda and my mom). She was certainly more than I ever dreamed of getting in a roomie, especially at a religious university! What made it even better was her brother - who just happened to be married and very horny!

Karen, my sophomore dorm roomie, was about as opposite as you get, at least sexually, from Brenda. Karen was a knockout but totally frigid. She wanted to keep her virginity for marriage and even considered masturbation a form of sex and thus totally abstained from it. I don't know how she did it and as you might imagine, it put quite a crimp in my lifestyle as she would get upset even if just slept naked, let alone masturbated.

Fortunately, my junior year I was blessed with another roomie who enjoyed sex. Jen had a boyfriend back home whom she loved to carry on explicit phone sex calls while she masturbated. She wasn't into girls, however, until I finally convinced her to try the other side for a while. In the end, she stuck with her boyfriend and didn't return for her senior year so that she could stay home with him.

So of my four roomies, Ali ranked probably third in terms of sexual awareness. She didn't get hung up if I walked by her nude and so long as I didn't make it TOO obvious, pretty much ignored me if I masturbated in my bed. I guess you could classify her as "tolerant" - she didn't stop me from doing most things I wanted but didn't participate herself. At least she let me take care of myself without making me run to the bathroom like I had to with Karen!

Oh well, once again I gave up on getting a reaction from Ali and wrapped myself in a towel to go to the bathroom. Our three bedroom apartment had just one bathroom but fortunately it was large and let two of us have our own sink at a time. There were separate showers and bathtubs and two toilet stalls but you can imagine how crowded things got when we all were getting ready at the same time!

For once I had the bathroom to myself and I stepped in the shower for a quick rinse. When I first checked out the bathroom I remember laughing at the shower stall. For a school where sex was taboo and masturbation was off-limits for discussion, there in the shower stall was a girl's best friend - a shower massager with a six-foot stainless steel hose! I didn't know for sure about the others but I know me and Mr. Massager had shared more than a few good times together!

As I pointed the pulsing water to my pussy and rubbed myself clean with body lotion, my fingers lingered over my pussy for a few seconds and I felt a little tingle that I knew would quickly grow if I allowed it to. Just then someone walked in to use the toilet so I decided to wait for another time, even if it WOULD have been nice to get off once before the party started.

Although I would never have admitted it to anyone, there were a few of my charges that were pretty hot for their ages and I often dreamed after returning home of what it would be like to add a sex-ed class to our curriculum. It wasn't just the boys either. Some of the girls had all the right looks and moves for a future career as class slut and from what I had heard, some of them were already well on their way.

Whoever it was taking a dump certainly seemed to be taking her time about it and for a moment I was tempted to offer Mr. Massager but then thought better of it. I wasn't sure who it was and some of the girls in school were so uptight about sex that they didn't even like to joke about such things. Time was running out so I breathed a heavy sigh and gave up on any idea of pleasuring myself and rinsed my hair before getting out to dry myself off.

As I rubbed the towel over me, the toilet flushed and sure enough, it was Cindy, the apartment virgin who made sure everyone KNEW she was a virgin and how perfect she was when it came to avoiding the "sins of the flesh". She was just the type that would turn you in if she caught you even masturbating so I had made the right call, even if it was frustrating at the time. I almost laughed but managed to hold it back as she deliberately averted her eyes so as not to see my nude body. If it had been her in the shower, she would have dried off with the curtain shut and not come out until she was "decent" for all to see. What a bitch!

My hairdryer was back in my room so I wrapped my towel around me loosely and scampered back to my room where Ali had moved over to her bed and was laying down with a book to read. I spread my towel over my chair seat and sat down. I was still nude but Ali didn't even seem to notice, as usual. On the one hand, it was nice that she wasn't hung up about nudity and I did try not to flaunt myself TOO much around her. On the other hand, it would be nice if she at least showed a LITTLE appreciation!

Since all I was planning to do with my hair was pull it back into a pony tail, I just blew it dry and brushed it out. A little blush and lipstick was about all I felt was needed tonight. Sometimes I liked a dash of Johnson's baby powder between my boobs, especially if I was hoping to have them fondled by some horny guy that night. There was something about the smell and feel of the soft powder that just seemed to drive guys wild! Well, if there was one thing I was sure about, it was there was no worry about THAT tonight.

Ready to get dressed, I pulled Kristen's uniform out of the plastic clothes bag and spread it out on my bed. The panties were lined so I assumed the intent was that additional panties were not needed. For a moment I was tempted to sniff them to see if Kristen's scent remained but then I remembered Ali was behind me and with my luck, might just be looking when I did and think I was weird or something.

The skirt zipped up the side and then buttoned over to make doubly sure it stayed on. I guess with all the moves the girls were making these day you couldn't be too sure! The top was snug and for a moment I thought about going without a bra until I looked in the mirror and saw the clear outline of my nipples through it. Ordinarily that wouldn't be an issue for me but around campus and church, revealing yourself in that way was a major violation of the "Lifestyle Guideline" we had all sworn to adhere too. Technically, these applied 24/7 no matter where you were but my view was that what I did off campus - stayed off-campus!

Taking the top back off, I went over to my dresser to pick out a bra. Ali must have been watching more than I had known.

"Awwwwww, isn't that just too bad. Guess you're going to have to break down tonight and wear one, eh girl?" she teased me from her bed.

I looked back over at her and she rolled back on her bed, evidently quite satisfied with herself and her little joke. There were times when I think Ali suspected that I wasn't the naive little schoolgirl I tried so hard to portray but she never let on to what she was thinking so I just let her guess and wonder.

Taking out a simple white bra from the back of my drawer, I turned to her and rebutted saying, "Well, there's a first time for everything you know."

I grinned to let her know I was joking, although not as much as she may have thought. Ali just shook her head and went back to her book, leaving me to wrap my bra around my waist. I quickly latched the two hooks and swiveled it around so the cups were in front. Reaching down, I put my arms through the straps and pulled it up and over my boobs. It was like I was encasing them in some sort of medieval torture device. God I hated wearing a bra!

This time when I pulled over the top my boobs looked "decent" and I checked myself out in the mirror before turning to Ali.

"Well, how do I look?"

"You sure that's OK to wear to church?" she asked, her eyebrows lifting a bit at the short skirt and tight top.

"Well, if the girls can wear it out in front of everyone at the games at THIS school then I think it should be OK for church, don't ya think?" I answered.

Ali just shrugged as if she didn't care one way or the other. After all, it WAS my decision and my ass that would be in jeopardy if someone complained. Even so, it wasn't like it was the most risque cheerleader outfit in the world either. Now if I were to wear the one my dad gave me, then there would be quite an uproar, especially since it didn't come with panties!

It was a little chilly so I grabbed a light jacket before leaving.

Saying goodbye to Ali, I went out through our living room and out the door into the evening air. It was a bit of a walk to the church but fortunately there was a paved walkway that was lit up at night between the school and the church parking lot. There were quite a few other students on their way to the church as well and I smiled to myself as I noted a number of the boys taking a second look at my short skirt. My jacket hid the cheerleader top but there was plenty of leg for them to see – a lot more than we were normally allowed to expose. A few of the girls also took note, except in this case I caught a few frowns from some of the more uppity ones who probably thought I was being some sort of slut wearing such an outfit to church. It WAS sort of walking a fine line but then, that's what made it fun.

3. Flirting With Michelle

I got to the church just as Michelle was driving up in her little blue Honda. It was old and a bit ragged but it was all hers, bought with her savings after her first year of working, and she was quite proud of it. I almost felt guilty driving around my Avalon when I thought of her. Sure it was used but my mom hadn't put that many miles on it before she gave it to me and with the leather seats and power everything, was a serious upgrade compared to Michelle's little beast. On the other hand, she seemed even more thrilled by hers than I did with mine so maybe there IS something to earning your own way. Well, I'm don't complain when my daddy pays the tuition bills, that's for sure!

Michelle was dressed up in some outfit that was supposed to represent a lady bug or at least some form of bug or insect. She had on black shoes, black tights, and an orange hunting vest over a dark back top. The vest had black spots painted on it (I wonder if her dad knew about those!). A pair of funny antennas she must have bought at the store finished it off and she looked pretty good in it overall. The black tights were modest yet at the same time could have been painted on for as tight as they were on her and if you looked closely you saw they outlined one fine looking ass!

"Hey girl, 'what's that you got on?" she called out to me as we approached in the parking lot. I pulled off my jacket to reveal my outfit and she covered her face as her eyes widened.

"Wow, they gonna let you wear that?" she said softly.

"Why not, it's OK at school and you know the dress code there." I responded, "Besides, last year they had a fund raiser and the cheerleading squad all dressed up when they came to the school to do a routine."

Michele didn't seem to give it another thought and the two of us went inside to meet with our adult sponsors. Two married couples were in charge of the youth group we helped out with. One was in their thirties and had a daughter in the group while the other had only been married for a couple of years and had one little boy in the nursery. Both couples were great and I enjoyed working with them.

"Hey Kelly!" Judy called out to me. She was the older wife and was about as close to the stereotypical soccer mom as you could imagine. She wasn't fat but had clearly put on few pounds over the years although overall she still didn't look too bad. Her blonde hair was cut shorter and she usually wore pants rather than skirts.

And yes, she drove a minivan! I liked her particularly because unlike so many of the adults at church, she didn't treat me like I was "just" a student but more like a friend and peer.

"Wow, that really looks cute on you!" she remarked as she took in my outfit. The nice thing was she meant it as a compliment without any hint of innuendo. I guess I get so accustomed to people always looking at me more as an object than a girl that it feels nice to have a friend who accepts me for who I am and doesn't have any hidden agendas.

"I'll say!" her husband added in, having just joined in time to hear his wife's assessment of me. Don was the other half of the "average" family, clean cut and heavily involved in the church.

"Now Don, behave yourself!" Judy chided him. She was just teasing as I knew Don might glance my way now and then but he was probably one of the last husbands in church that would have cheated on his wife with me. I accepted that and if anything, it made it easier to work with him.

The two of the them went off to the classrooms, holding hands like two teens in love. It was nice to see a marriage that actually worked. Other than my parents' marriage, it was rare for me to see a couple married for that long to still be in love with each other so openly.

"You know, she's right. You DO look cute in that outfit," I heard just behind me. To my surprise, it was Michelle. "I don't think I've seen you in a really short skirt before. You've got great legs!"

It was probably true that she hadn't since the only time we saw each other was at church where I had to adhere to the dress code. I wore skirts now and then to the services but nothing TOO short although I did push the limits at times. I almost always wore jeans to the youth nights. Sometimes I wore shorts but like the skirts, there were limits on how short they could be so most of the ones I wore back home I had to leave behind when I was at school.

There was something about the way she was looking at me that was different than usual. Michelle and I had known each other for a couple of months but it was a relatively distant friendship in that we mostly talked about church activities and such. I think because I was a student at a university known for being strict about how we conducted ourselves, Michelle was probably a little concerned about opening up to anything more personal about herself. It was obvious to me that she wasn't exactly your naive and innocent young woman just from the way she carried herself and looked at the men around the church - including some of the younger ones in our group.

"Well, you know how it is here, we have to all be good little girls," I replied, providing her an opening to see if she was interested in discussing something besides church.

Michelle laughed and shook her head. "Oh? I thought all of you over there WERE good little girls!"

"Well, maybe at school but if you think this skirt is short, you should see some of mine back home."

It was meant as another nudge, just enough to get her reaction without saying TOO much.

"Oh really?" Michelle remarked, appearing to be a little more curious now. "I suppose all the boys are after you back home then."

"Well, not just the boys," I teased. As soon as I said it my heart skipped a beat as I figured I had probably gotten carried away and now I'd gone and said something I shouldn't have.

I don't know what I was expecting Michelle to say at this point but it didn't matter as she just smiled at me with a bit of a twinkle in her eye and looked at her watch.

"Time to get going," she reminded me. It also served as an artful dodge for her not to respond to my last comment.

As we walked to the auditorium for the opening, I caught her quickly glancing at me again but she just turned back away as if nothing had happened. Well, I had made my "move" so now it was up to her. As we sat there listening to the opening remarks and songs, I wondered what I was trying to do. Michelle had never shown any interest in me in "that" way before so was I taking a couple of innocent comments and blowing them out of proportion? I didn't want to say anything else as if she wasn't interested in girls, then it would make things pretty awkward for us in the future.

Normally at this point the groups would break up and go to various classrooms for the evening activities. Tonight, though, was different and everyone stayed in the auditorium where we had games for everyone to participate in as well as a table full of snacks and drinks. There was a costume judging contest and through it all, Michelle and I would cross paths now and then but never really had much of a chance to say anything to each other besides what was needed for the activities.

Finally the evening was over. It wasn't that I didn't enjoy it; it was just a lot of work. Fortunately, a group of guys had been volunteered to clean up so with the kids gone just the leaders remained. We all gathered in a circle and prayed, thanking God for the successful evening. When it was over, Michelle came over to me.

"Hey Kelly, I was wondering if you wanted to go out for some dessert with me? Some ice cream sounds perfect right now!"

"Sorry," I apologized, "I can't wear this out in public. My friend made me promise to only wear it here at church."

I was about to suggest that I run back to my apartment and change but Michelle already had an alternative plan.

"Well, why not come over to my place then? I should be able to scrounge up something."

Why not? We had never gotten together outside of church so this would be an opportunity to get to know her better. Maybe I could even influence her a bit to get more involved in church and maybe even join my bible study!

We agreed that I would follow her to her place as I had no idea where she lived. As it turned out, it was just a small apartment in one of the, shall we say, less affluent areas of town. Judging by the looks of things, doing hair didn't pay all that well.

"Sorry for the way this place looks," she apologized as we entered.

Did I say the place was SMALL? It really was one giant room with a partial wall between the living room and bedroom and there was just a bar separating the kitchen. There wasn't even room for a kitchen table so she must eat all her meals at the bar or on the couch watching a small TV. The furniture looked like thrift store rejects. Heck, my apartment on campus was bigger than this and better furnished as well.

Michelle saw me looking around and I instantly felt guilty as I must have allowed my face to show what I was thinking.

"You probably come from a rich family, going to that school," she said softly. "This must seem like a dump to you."

"Well, I'm not going to lie to you, my parents do make a good income," I replied, trying to be honest with her but at the same time not appear to be looking down on her. "But hey, I don't have my own place so you should feel good you at least have this!"

It seemed to take the edge off the moment and she smiled again. We took off our coats and she sighed as she struggled to take off the hunting vest.

"God, I've been waiting all night to do that!" she exclaimed, dumping the vest on the couch. "That thing was so hot!"

Then she pulled down the black hose she was wearing, revealing a black thong underneath. It wasn't the most revealing thong in the world but any thong shows more than standard panties so her ass was looking pretty good!

"Hope you don't mind," she said, tossing them aside, "Damn hose was KILLING me!"

I laughed at her and pointed at my chest saying, "I know how you feel, this bra is killing me too!"

"Yeah, I noticed you usually don't wear one," she observed, "Well, why not take it off then? After all, you're not at church anymore."

She said it in such a casual way I wasn't sure if she was just having fun or if there was a more subtle reason for her suggestion. Oh well, did it matter? I tried to reach behind me under the sweater top to unsnap it when Michelle moved in behind me.

"Here, let me help."

She reached under my sweater top and quickly unhooked me. I pulled the straps down and over my arms and then dragged the entire contraption out and under the front of my sweater. Straightening out my sweater again, I twirled the bra in my hand and smiled at Michelle.

"Ahhhhhh, MUCH better!"

"Well, I don't know why you wore it in the first place. If I had your boobs I'd never wear one!"

Again, it was the type of remark that could be taken a couple of different ways. Michelle was at LEAST a D cup and probably DD. I suppose wearing a bra was something she about had to do just to support them.

"Yeah, bras and panties - who ever invented them!" I said with a giggle, once again trying to subtlety push the conversation along.

"Well, I don't think the Pastor would've been too happy if you wore that outfit tonight without the panties!" Michelle said with a sly grin. "Can you imagine the look on his face if you leaned over and he saw you weren't wearing any!"

We both laughed as Michelle made her way to the kitchen.

"Hope you like strawberry, it's all I have," she called out as she opened the freezer door. She soon returned with two bowls of ice cream and we sat down next to each other as we ate ours.

We got talking about boyfriends and I learned that Michelle had once been engaged but broke it off just a week before the wedding.

"Yeah, mom and dad were pretty pissed," she said. "Kicked me out and told me to live on my own if I wasn't going to get married. Haven't been out with a guy since - almost six months now."

"Wow, you must be pretty horny then," I joked, "Dildo or fingers?"

Michelle laughed, obviously a little surprised at my remark.

"Dildo of course! You know, you're pretty cool," Michelle remarked as she finished off the last of her bowl. "I figured you were just another one of those stuck-up girls that seem to populate that school. I've heard most of the girls are lesbians."

Didn't I wish THAT rumor was true!

"No, I wouldn't say that," I replied, "A lot of them claim to be saving themselves for marriage but I think most of them are just putting on a show."

"What about you?"

I paused for a moment, not sure how to answer. "Well, at school we have to live by the Lifestyle Guidelines so that means no sex."

Michelle wasn't going to let me off THAT easily. "No, I meant are you saving yourself for marriage?"

I couldn't help but laugh a bit at that one. Oh lord, if she only knew!

"No. Actually, I lost my virginity when I was fourteen."

Michelle's eyebrows raised at that one. I think I surprised her a bit. "Oh really? Shit, I thought I was young when I did it at fifteen."

"Boy or girl?" I teased. It was a shot in the dark but the way the conversation was going, it seemed to be the right time to broach the issue.

"Oh a boy of course," she laughed, "Why, was yours with a girl?"

I paused and then said more gently, "No, I didn't do THAT until I was eighteen."

"Really?" Michelle said again, apparently I was not exactly the girl she thought I was. "You've done it with a girl?"

The tone of her voice surprised me. To be honest, I had for some reason assumed Michelle was bisexual. Maybe it was her ease around girls and guys, maybe the way she had looked at me earlier. Whatever the reason, I was surprised that she apparently had never done anything with a girl.

"Sure, haven't you?" I replied, just to verify my suspicions.

"Oh no, I'm not a lesbian," she quickly responded. The way she said the word lesbian was almost like it was something bad, like a disease. Then she blushed and put her hand to her mouth/

"Oh Kelly, I'm sorry, I didn't mean to say anything about YOU!"

"Well, I'm not a lesbian either," I said softly, trying to calm her. "Actually, I prefer guys. It's just that being with a girl can be fun too sometimes."

Michelle scrunched her nose and frowned. "I just can't imagine kissing another Girl... or anything else."

"Why do you say that? What's wrong with it?"

Michelle just shrugged her shoulders. "I don't know. I guess I always thought that girls who did that were... I don't know... weird?"

"Well, you've known me now for a while. Do you think I'm weird?"

I could tell she was genuinely confused, as if she was struggling to sort out this apparent contradiction in what she always had believed and what she was being confronted with now.

"Noooooo, not at all. You always seemed normal to me."

I couldn't help but laugh just a little at that and this time I put my arm around her before I answered. She tensed at first but then seemed to relax again once she realized I wasn't going to attack her somehow.

"So now, just because I told you I've done it with other girls, do think I'm abnormal?

"Shit, now I don't know WHAT to think," she huffed, the frustration clearly coming across.

"Haven't you ever touched another girl, even just for fun? Say maybe in a game of Truth or Dare? What about sleepovers? Haven't you seen other girls and wondered just for a minute what it might be like to be with one of them?"

Michelle got even redder and I knew she was holding back something. It probably wasn't anything major but to her it must have been something she was embarrassed about.

"Well, I did have to kiss a girl once back in high school during a party after I lost a bet. But we just barely did anything."

Well, it was a start. At least she was now starting to open up to me a bit.

"Didn't you ever masturbate with your friends during sleepovers?"

From the startled look she gave me the answer was obvious but I waited for her to say something.

"Oh my god NO! Only the slutty girls did things like that."

"So you saw them doing it?"

"Well, it's not like I watched or anything."

"So you've never masturbated with another girl before either?"

Michelle was looking at me like I was some sort of alien from another planet. I guess when you grow up with the family and friends that I had, you don't even think about the fact that there are a lot of other girls who grew up in totally different environments, much more restrained and restricted.

Then she rolled her eyes and giggled at me saying, "Ahhhhhh, I get it. You're just teasing me. I can be so naive sometimes, you know? You never did any of that stuff, did you?"

If she thought I was exaggerating about what I had told her so far, imagine what she would have thought had I told her about everything I had done. I'm not sure what would have shocked her the most - letting my dad fuck me or doing a dog once. Well, obviously we wouldn't be going there tonight!

"You don't believe me, eh?" I asked her.

"Nawwwwww, you're just pulling my leg."

Hmmm, sounded like a challenge to me and I was never one to back away from a challenge, especially when it had to do with sex.

4. Michelle's First Time With a Girl - ME!

I stood up in front of her and pulled down my panties, then stepped out of them and sat back down next to her, leaving them on the floor in front of us.

"Uhhhhh, Kelly... what exactly are you doing?" she asked carefully.

I had a feeling she thought I was still just trying to tease her but that I wouldn't actually DO anything. Well, was she in for a surprise! I lifted my skirt to reveal my shaved pussy. Her first reaction wasn't about what I might be doing but rather what she saw.

"You shave it all off? Cool, I just trim mine. I never got the courage to shave mine completely."

"Yeah, I know how you feel," I replied, "But once you do it you'll never want to fool around with all that hair again. Besides, it feels better this way."

To prove my point, I reached down between my legs and started to touch my pussy. Michelle immediately began to wiggle next to me, clearly uncomfortable with what I was doing.

"See, it's so much easier to masturbate without all that hair in the way."

I heard her breathing get heavier but it was probably more due to shock and surprise than anything lustful. Several times she seemed to start to say something but then it was like she thought better of it and held her tongue. As for me, I figured so long as she wasn't telling me to stop, I was going to go for it. My middle finger reached down and slid between my pussy lips while my other fingers ran along the outside as I stroked myself slowly. When I touched my clit I couldn't help but jump just a little which seemed to galvanize her to finally say something.

"I can't believe you're doing that... I just can't believe it."

I was heartened by the tone of her voice. It didn't sound like she was upset or outraged at my behavior, but more like she was just genuinely amazed that I was doing it. It was one thing to supposedly joke about masturbating with another girl, quite another to actually witness it for the first time.

"Take your panties off Michelle," I encouraged her.

She didn't say no but she didn't say yes either. Instead, she seemed to just stiffen, as if I had asked to drop them in front of the congregation or something.

"Go on, take them off... it's just me."

I didn't push her any further, not wanting to put her in a position of doing something she didn't want to do and then getting angry at me for putting her there. I had planted a seed and now it was time to water it so I returned to my own pussy and let her do as she pleased, which for now was just to watch me.

"Did you say you had a dildo?" I asked her. Normally I wasn't a big fan of them but in this case I figured it might come in useful.

"Uhhhhh, yes," she stammered.

She quickly got up and went to her dresser, apparently happy for the chance to do something besides just watching me do myself. She returned with a blue dildo, just your standard "torpedo" design as I like to call it.

"Sorry, needs new batteries," she stuttered. I grinned slyly at her and she reddened again. I didn't have to say anything about WHY she needed new batteries, the answer was obvious.

I took it from her and was pleased when she resumed her place next to me on the couch. At least she didn't sit somewhere else or stay standing. I put the dildo in my mouth to wet it and I could smell the faint odor of her pussy. Something told me she had been using this not too long ago! Reaching down, I used the tip to rub up against the outside of the opening to my pussy, toying with myself for a minute or so before I began to insert it into me.

"Oh that feels so good," I moaned softly, pushing it deep up inside of me. Even without the batteries it felt good although I would have preferred a real cock anytime. For now, having her watch me using it was just as much a turn-on as actually feeling it in me!

"Here, you do it," I said, taking her hand in mine and pulling it over to the dildo buried in my pussy.

Michelle resisted a little at first but it was half-hearted so I kept up the pressure and she relented without a word. At first it was as if she didn't know what to do which was obviously not the case as I would bet she used it quite frequently on herself.

"Just do it the way you would on yourself," I instructed her. "Pretend it's your pussy."

She started to stroke her dildo in and out of me, just a little at first as if she was afraid of hurting me or something.

"That's it... deeper," I encouraged her, "Put it in me just like you do with your own pussy."

I leaned back into the couch and spread my legs wide, letting her natural instincts take over. Using the dildo on me didn't seem to be that much a stretch for her. After all, she wasn't actually touching me even, let alone doing anything more. After a while I reached down and took it from her and pulled it out of my pussy. I offered it to her to taste but she wrinkled her nose and shook her head so I put it in my mouth instead, savoring the strong taste of my pussy.

"Mmmmmmm, do you ever taste your own pussy Michelle?" I asked after I took it out of my mouth and inserted it back in my pussy. This time I didn't even have to encourage her, she took the dildo from me and started to work it in and out of my pussy on her own.

Michelle shook her head and whispered, "Oh no, never, that would be nasty."

"NEVER?" I challenged her.

It was hard to believe that she had NEVER even experimented once. I first tasted mine when I was a little girl, curious about myself. Of course, that may have been partially because I saw my mom doing it when she masturbated.

Michelle shook her head again and I took her for her word, even if it DID seem almost too much to believe.

"C'mon, take off your panties," I urged her once again as she seemed to be getting more and more into helping me masturbate.

I don't know if it was because she was getting a bit horny from using her dildo on me or she was just tired of saying no to me. Either way worked so far as I was concerned. What was important was she slipped them off under her ass and let them drop to her ankles where she lifted her feet up and out of them. Sure enough, I saw her pussy was covered with a trimmed layer of dark black pubic hair. Once they were off she went back to her dildo in me without making any reference to her new "bare bottom" style.

"Now touch yourself," I whispered to her. Nothing more, just a gentle nudge. She hesitated and so I took the dildo from her so her hands were free and repeated myself.

"You can do it, touch yourself," I encouraged her, "Pretend I'm not here."

Slowly she put one hand down between her legs. The dildo in my own pussy was still as I sat there motionless, afraid to do anything that might distract her. At first she just cupped her pussy. Then, as she worked up her courage, she started rubbing it slowly with her fingers. She just rubbed over her clit, running her flattened out fingers over it in a circular motion.

"That's it Michelle, just do what you always do."

I noticed her eyes were closed and I would have given anything to know what images were In her mind right then. Was she thinking about an ex-boyfriend, some fantasy lover, or maybe even me? I wanted so bad to ask her but I didn't want to break the spell that seemed to have settled over her. As she rubbed herself more, it must have made the rest of her body respond as well as she leaned back and started rubbing her pussy more aggressively. God she looked so hot! It was almost too much to believe that I was the first person to watch her touch herself this way!

Pulling the dildo from my pussy, I reached over and rested the tip of it against her inner thigh. She quickly took it from me and started to use it on herself. Maybe it was the familiarity of her own dildo or she was just getting use to me watching; whatever it was she seemed suddenly to be much more into it than before.

"Ohhhhhh," she gasped as she pushed her dildo almost entirely into her pussy, holding onto the last part of it to keep from having it disappear inside of her.

I reached down and took it from her. She didn't resist and so I started to stroke it in and out of her pussy, sometimes taking it out to rub up against her clit but most of the time fucking her with it. Finally I couldn't resist so I took it out and put it in my mouth. The smell of her pussy combined with the distinctive taste and I just wished I was getting it straight from the source instead. Putting it back in her just long enough to get a fresh coating of her pussy juices on it, I pulled it out again but this time offered it to her. She turned her head away but this time I was more insistent and pressed it against her lips.

"Try it, just a little," I whispered to her.

It reminded me of a girl at a party I was at that didn't want to suck a dick at first. The guy she had been playing with held his cock up to her lips and she just kept them tightly shut, refusing to let him push it in her mouth. Finally, she parted he lips just enough to let the tip of his dick enter, just as Michelle did at this moment, opening her mouth just enough to get the tip of the dildo in but not enough to take it all in her mouth. Then, just as the girl at the party had done, her tongue extended and I could tell she was getting a good taste of her pussy. Apparently it was enough to overcome her fear as again, she mimicked the party girl who finally opened her mouth and let her guy quickly push his dick into her mouth. So too did Michelle, letting the pussy-covered dildo fill her mouth.

"Tastes good, doesn't it?"

Michelle didn't respond. Well, it would have been hard with a dildo in her mouth but all the same, she managed to signal her answer from the way she sucked on the dildo like she was trying to draw off every bit of moisture from her own pussy. She finally opened her eyes and looked over at me while a smile tried to crack her face.

As much as she may have enjoyed her newly acquired taste, apparently she preferred the dildo in a different hole and so it was returned to her pussy where it belonged. Any hesitation she may have had before about masturbating with me there was no history as she closed her eyes again and went to work on herself, essentially ignoring me as she seemed to focus on her own pussy.

I could smell her sex as she played and the aftertaste of her pussy remained in my mouth. As much as I enjoyed watching her masturbate, I wanted more and now that she was fully engaged with her own pussy, I doubted she would mind if I helped out a bit more. I slowly got off the couch and kneeled on the carpet in front of her. Her legs were spread apart so I crawled up between them and put one hand on each of her upper thighs. At the touch of my hands she opened her eyes and looked down at me. She seemed to know what I was about to do but in her current state of mind she wasn't going to protest any longer.

Leaning forward, I put my head to the side of her dildo, which she had buried once again inside of herself, and licked her pussy lips around the dildo. Mmmmmmm, her pussy smelled so good up close and the flavor was stronger licking it directly from her pussy instead of off a dildo. She pulled out the dildo and I knew that it was her way of telling me what she wanted, even if she didn't have the courage yet to speak for herself.

My face was plastered up tight against her fuzzy pussy. She had it trimmed so short that "fuzzy" seemed more appropriate than "hairy", like my mom's pussy. My nose was up against her clit while my tongue extended out as far as I could reach into her wet pussy hole.

"Oh Kelly... what are you doing to me?" she sighed. It was more a statement than a question, as if she couldn't believe the sensations I was creating in her pussy.

I could understand how she was feeling. I remembered the first time a girl ate my pussy (actually it was my mom back when I was sixteen). It was a totally different experience than all the times a boy had tried doing it before. Undoubtedly Michelle has done oral sex with a guy but no guy has ever been able to lick my pussy the way another girls can, something Michelle was learning for herself about now.

I don't mean it as a put-down for guys when I say girls eat pussy best. It seems only natural to me that it should be that way. After all, what guy really knows how it feels to have a clit and a pussy? Only a girl knows what to do and how to do it based on her own experiences. Personally, I have never understood why guys don't like guys to suck their dicks. I mean, it's not like I have one to understand how it feels. All I have to go by is the feedback guys give me after I suck them. It just makes sense to me that a guy would give the best BJ yet for whatever reason, most guys would never dream of allowing such a thing.

"Making you cum," was my response as I briefly lifted my head from her awesome pussy.

For a moment I wondered how many guys had fucked this pussy, how many cocks had been where my tongue was now. In the end, what did it matter. I was her first girl and I thought that was pretty fantastic myself.

"Don't stop," she gasped as my noise rubbed up against her wet clit. I used one hand to rub her clit while my tongue snaked into her pussy like a miniature dick and my other hand fondled her ass. It was hard to keep my tongue in her as she wiggled her hips under me, gasped and moaning as I ate her pussy.

"Oh shit!" she exclaimed as her back arched and her hands grabbed my head and pulled it in tight to her pussy. "Oh SHIT!" she cried out as I felt her pussy flex and the pussy cum gushed out over my face and down her ass crack. I was relentless, not letting up for a moment as she began to actually cry from the intensity of her orgasm. Finally she just slumped back, her eyes still tightly shut, just as they had been the entire time.

With her orgasm settling down, I stood up and looked down at her. She wasn't asleep but at the same time she just sat back on the couch motionless, her breathing fast and shallow with her face flushed bright red. I pulled my sweater up off my head and sat down beside her, essentially naked except for my sneakers. I ran my fingers through her long black hair and then gently stroked the backs of my fingers down her face and cheek.

"Felt good, didn't it?" I whispered to her.

She opened her eyes and looked at me. Her eyes clanked down and she saw that I was naked but she didn't make any reference to it. She was still wearing her black pullover top so I decided to be forward once again and I grabbed it at the bottom and started to lift it off, waiting to see what her response would be. I smiled as she leaned forward, allowing me to more easily slip it off of her. Her large breasts were encased in a black bra which I reached behind her and unsnapped, freeing her boobs which flopped out of the cups as I lifted the bra off her arms and tossed it aside. "Oh Kelly," she sighed softly.

I didn't know exactly what she meant by that. Was she just expressing how good she felt? Was she trying to tell me she wanted more? Maybe she was trying to put up a token resistance to anything further I might have in mind for her. In any case, she wasn't physically doing anything to resist me so I took that as permission to go a bit further.

I put one arm around her and caressed her large boobs with my other hand. God, they were huge compared to mine, bigger than my mom's. Her nipples were sticking out, large and erect, waiting for me to pay more attention to them. I wasn't about to let them wait much longer as I rolled them between my fingers and tugged gently on them. Michelle sighed again as I pulled out on her nipples and then let them snap back.

Although it seemed a little backwards, now that I had gotten her off I felt it was time to take it a bit slower and just be intimate for a while. Actually, there are days when that alone is enough for me. I've spent entire afternoons or evenings with my mom in bed, doing nothing more than kissing and fondling one another, feeling the warmth of her smooth naked body against mine.

Leaning over, I kissed her gently on the mouth. At first it was just a little thing, no more than you might give to a relative, assuming you kiss them on the mouth at all. Her head lifted as if she was trying to get me to be closer so I kissed her again, this time lingering longer and reaching out just enough with my tongue to lick her lips.

"Oh Kelly," she sighed yet again.

Apparently that was the extent of her vocabulary for the time being as that seemed to be all she could say, repeating it several times as I kissed her more, each time staying longer and reaching further with my tongue. Finally she responded with her own tongue and our tongues touched and played with one another as we kept our mouths together for as long as we could. As I played gently with her boobs, she responded by reaching for mine and I felt my boobs tingle as she cupped them in her hand, squeezing them gently at first and then harder as our kiss intensified.

"Let's go to your bed," I suggested.

It was a bit of a gamble to take a break like this as sometimes you can lose that special magic but I felt it was worth the risk. As it turned out, the few seconds it took to pull back her comforter and nestle under the cotton sheets were well worth it as we laid up against one another, our boobs pressed up together and arms wrapped around each other's body. It was like once she got over the hurdle of the initial contact with another girl, she couldn't get enough of me as we spent the next couple of hours just kissing and touching one another.

Eventually I had to go home as I had classes the next morning. It was too bad that it wasn't a weekend night as it would have been tempting to stay the night with her. It would have been nice to try a 69 with her or some other positions but I wasn't about to complain about anything. As it was, the evening had gone better than I could have dreamed - and I have a pretty good imagination!

Later that night, as I laid in my own little bed listening to my roomie snore softly, I thought about what had just happened between Michelle and me. As much as I enjoyed it, was it the right thing to do? I wondered if she would be in church next Sunday? How would she react when we met at youth group next Wednesday night? Would we just be friends or was tonight the start of something more between us? I have never had any desire to become "lovers" with any girl, but still, would we be more than just friends if we continued having sex?

As I laid there in bed, contemplating all these things in my head, my fingers were back to their usual hangout - high up between my legs. As I started to masturbate, I imagined what Michelle and I might do the next time we were alone together. As I mentioned, I have a pretty good imagination so you can only imagine what I was dreaming about as I spent the next hour or so masturbating. God I love doing myself! Hopefully, I would get the chance to do it more with Michelle.

(Nov 25) Chapter 130: My Cousin Rick and His Friends

Story codes: MF MMF F-solo exhib oral inc father daughter cousins
Me (21)
John - my dad (42)
Rick - cousin (18)
Tom (18)
Gary (17)

Rick was bragging to his friends about all the sex he was getting but he couldn't tell them who "she" was. Finally he begged me to help him and show that his boasts to his friends were for real. I didn't mind the sex part but we certainly didn't tell them that I was his cousin!

1. Rick's Proposal

I've been fooling around with my eighteen year-old cousin Rick almost a year and a half now. You can read about it in my diary so I won't go into too much detail about it here only to say that since that first time, we've done it off and on whenever I'm home from school. Actually, much to my chagrin, Rick prefers my mom more than me! My mom tried to explain it to me as being something about a "Mrs. Robinson" thing or whatever but all it sounded like to me was that some young guys apparently get off screwing older women. Go figure!

Last Christmas Rick's sister interrupted one of our "sessions" and to make a long story short (VERY short), she ended up giving her brother her first blowjob. Tammy didn't give him her virginity though, but soon after she eventually lost it, whatever hang-up she had about fucking her brother disappeared. Whether it was her age (she is four years younger than he is) or the fact she is his sister, the one thing I do know is that she gets it more than I do from him!

My point is that while I enjoy getting fucked by Rick, it's not like I'm the one in the family he does the most. It's OK with me, though, as it's not like I NEED Rick's cock. If I'm horny there are plenty of ways to take care of myself but still, he IS my cousin and not only that, he has incredible stamina so I miss it a bit whenever he's not "available" and I want him.

One day while after I had just finished giving him a quick blowjob I his bedroom before his mother got suspicious, he mentioned something that shocked me - and I'm not easily shocked.

"You know Kelly, I've told a few of my friends about you," he said with a sly grin. I was instantly mortified. God, how could he have blabbed something like that to someone outside our family? I guess my face must have turned pale or something because he started laughing and continued.

"Don't worry silly, I didn't tell them WHO you were or anything," he assured me, "I just said I was getting a nice piece of college girl ass."

I looked at him with my eyes narrowed.

"Nice piece of college girl ass?" I questioned in a stern tone, "So is THAT how you think of me?"

Rick laughed even harder at my response and said, "Well Kelly; after you ARE a nice piece of ass and you ARE a college girl so if the shoe fits..."

"Yeah but still, it makes me sound like I am just some kind of slut," I protested.

"And your point is...?" he replied, grinning the whole time.

I just shrugged. What could I say, he was right. It didn't really bother me to be called a slut, so long as it was meant in a sexy way and not as a putdown or anything. My dad loved to call me his "little slut" and every time he said it I couldn't help but smile at him.

"So what's your point?" I asked, "Why even bring this up?"

Rick stopped grinning and frowned. "Well, frankly they don't believe me, especially that you're a senior," he said rolling his eyes, "They said that if I was really pounding an older girl she must be fat and ugly or she wouldn't let me fuck her."

Now that sort of surprised me. Rick was actually pretty handsome and athletic so there was no reason for anyone to say girls wouldn't be attracted to him. Besides, if they had seen him in the locker room then they must know how blessed he was below the belt as well! Maybe it a little jealousy on their part, who knows? Somehow I had an idea of where this was leading but I let him go on as if I was clueless.

"Still, what does this have to do with ME?" I said, trying to sound exasperated.

"Well...," he stalled, as if he as trying to get up the courage to ask what I figured he was going to ask me. "Would you let them watch me fuck you?" he finally blurted out. As soon as he said it his face turned beet red and he covered his mouth as if he couldn't believe he had let that one escape.

"That's it? ...Just let them watch?" I questioned, "Doesn't sound all that exciting."

"Well...," he stalled again. This time he had to do it on his own, assuming he was going to say what I thought he was going to say. His eyes looked at the floor as he zipped his jeans. "They MIGHT want to join in too," he said in a low voice.

I knew exactly what had happened now. My well-hung but stupid cousin had bragged to his friends about how easy this girl was he had been fucking. They didn't believe him and so he had upped the ante and told them that he could get her to put out for them too. Now he was stuck having to live up to his bravado. Well, he was fortunate to have a cousin like me to bail him out!

"So let me get this straight, and stop me if I get anything wrong," I said in a deliberate voice, as if I was upset with what he had done - exactly the opposite of what he had ACTUALLY done.

Truth was, between the blow job I had just given him and now this conversation, I was getting horny as hell as I thought about the prospect of doing three teenage boys all at once. I wasn't about to let Rick know this, at least not yet. It was too much fun toying with him a bit and anyway, I wanted to see how far it would go.

"So now you want fuck me in front of your friends and then let them join in as well? Do you really expect me to let two strangers fuck me just because your ego needs to be protected?

"It's not like THAT Kelly!" he protested.

"Oh give me a break Rick, it's EXACTLY like THAT," I responded back to him in a domineering voice, "You want your friends to believe you've been fucking some college slut - you didn't call me a whore, did you? And to make it better, you want them to owe you for letting them get a piece of her as well?"

Rick's initial silence was all the confirmation I needed. Actually, as I said before, the thought of it didn't bother me at all and if anything, it was quite the opposite. Then he took a deep breath and plunged ahead.

"Well it's not like you don't just about any guy you can so what's the big deal?" he asked.

"That's not the point," I responded, "You're not my pimp you know."

He looked a little shaken, as if he realized that perhaps he had gone too far. I guess it was partly my fault as well. He was right - I DID fuck a lot of guys and so far as he knew, he probably didn't know of any that I had refused. I guessed I had been hard enough on him so I had better get things back on track before he chickened out.

"So who are you going to say I am?" I asked.

Rick's eyes opened up wider and her perked up as he realized that I was thinking about doing what he was hoping for. "Not much really; just a girl I met at church," he replied.

"Do these friends happen to know that you've got a cousin that looks like me?" I asked.

"Oh no, Kelly, they have no idea who you are," he said quickly. He seemed to be sensing that I was leaning all the more toward accepting his idea, which made him all the more eager to satisfy me and thus making it all the more easier for me to manipulate him.

"So when do you plan on doing this?" I asked.

"Well...," he said, once again stalling for time. "What about tomorrow?"

"Tomorrow???"

"Well, I may have said something about you being home for Thanksgiving."

"Oh you DID, did you?" I said with a knowing smile, "And what would you have done if I'd said no?"

Rick blushed again but he had a wicked grin when he replied, "Well, frankly Kelly, I didn't think there was much of a chance of you turning it down... knowing you and all."

"You're a bastard, you know that don't you?!" I teased him, playfully spanking his butt. He was right, of source, about me not turning it down, but that didn't make it sound any better.

"C'mon Kelly, give me a break," he teased, "Do you EVER say no?"

I spanked him harder this time. "Sure I do!" I insisted.

"Oh yeah, like when?" he chortled, leaving me behind to smolder.

I smiled to myself as I tried to think of one time I HAD said no and shook my head. The kid had a point! Well, if nothing else it looked like I had something to look forward to the next day.

2. Turning on My Dad

Later at supper as we ate leftover turkey from the day before, I mentioned my plans for the next day to my parents. Of course, my dad just got this big nasty grin on his face and I didn't doubt the only thing he was thinking of was how much he would like to watch himself! My mom, on the other hand, was the conscious of the family as usual, pointing out all the flaws in my plan.

"So do you know who these boys are?" she asked, "Do you even know how old they are?

Of course the answer was "no" so I just looked down at my plate sheepishly.

"You know Kelly, if you plan on getting a teaching job here next year you can't get a reputation for fooling around with some underage boys, " she lectured me, "You need to start being a little more careful now."

I wasn't too sure what to say in response but my dear old dad stepped up to defend me.

"Oh come on Mary, they won't know who she is," he said, "And besides, who said they were underage anyway? I would think if they're Rick's friends then they would be about his age."

"Oh quit trying to defend her John," my mom said sternly, "I was just making the point that with graduation getting so close that she needs to start considering those type of things when she plays around."

I just sat there as they sparred. They weren't fighting by any means, just talking about me as anyone's parents would. At least they cared enough to be concerned about me! By the time it was over my mother just shook her head and let out a sigh, her usual sign when she had made her point and wouldn't pursue it anymore.

My dad playfully kicked me under the table and winked at me. I knew he was turned on by the idea and to be honest, it would have been cool if he COULD watch me but with us doing it at one of Rick's friend's house there was no way that could happen. I smiled to myself as I recalled how it was when I was in high school and I would "sneak" boys up to my room for sex. The poor guys had no idea that my dad would usually watch through the bedroom door I left cracked open - and sometimes even my mom! It had been quite a while since my dad had seen someone fucking me and I made a mental note about planning something for Christmas break.

After supper my parents went down to the family room to watch some TV. I went up to my room to change out of my clothes into my nightshirt. As I dropped my jeans and started to unbutton my blouse, I closed my eyes and imaged it was Rick stripping me while his buddies watched. I could feel the warmth growing between my legs as my imagination took over and I started to dream about him fucking me in front of them.

I tossed my clothes under the bed (my mom would yell at me about it later but I didn't care at the moment) and laid back on my bed, nude and not just a little bit horny. As I dreamed of the nasty things I hoped that Rick would do to me, I masturbated using my left hand on my pussy and my right hand on my boobs. God it felt so good to touch myself that way! I had gotten so horny talking about it over supper that it was like this huge load was being lifted from me as the pleasure created by my finger rubbing my clit replaced the lust that had built up inside of me.

It didn't take long before I felt that familiar sensation between my legs that signaled the onset of my orgasm and I thrust two of my fingers into my wet pussy while I moved my other hand from my boob to my clit. I fucked myself with my fingers while I imagined how it would be to have three dicks all seeking my attention at the same time, three cocks cumming on me and in me at the same time. My hips rose up and a cry escaped my lips as my orgasm struck like a hurricane making landfall. It was like when you hit your funny-bone except the tingling sensation was over my entire body and not just one arm. Then it grew and the tingling was replaced by this enormous sensation of heat as it was like I was burning up except the heat was inside of me and struggling to escape.

I moaned loudly as I thrust my fingers deeper into me and held them there as my other fingers rubbed my clit furiously, driving my orgasm higher and higher until it was like I couldn't take it anymore. I couldn't open my eyes yet it was like I was seeing flashes of bright multicolored lights in front of them and I bounced my hips up and down like I was being fucked - and fucked hard!

Finally I just dropped and with both hands I cupped my throbbing pussy, laying still as it pulsed and sent out little aftershocks of electricity up and down my body. I was panting like I had run a marathon, my chest heaving up and down as my heart pounded. God I love to cum! It's the most incredible sensation imaginable and all I have to do is play with myself to get it so who could blame me for wanting it as often as possible? I've known a couple of girls that claimed not to ever masturbate. God, how do they do it? I can't even imagine going more than a day or two without doing it!

Finally I caught my breath and opened my eyes. As the room came into focus I realized that there was somebody standing in the doorway to my room. It was my Dad! God, how long had he been watching? Well, judging by the size of the erection he was stroking, evidently for a while! He was staring at me with this shit-eating grin on his face, like a boy seeing his older sister in the nude for the first time.

"Hmmmmmm, I see someone must have been pretty horny!" he said with a twinkle in his eye.

My voice seemed to have disappeared and I coughed to clear my throat. I smiled back at him while I watched him stroking his wonderful cock. It made me feel good to see it that way, all hard and thick, especially knowing WHY it was in the condition that it was!

I don't think I'll ever get over the thrill of seeing my father getting sexually excited by me. Really, what greater compliment could he ever give me? Heck, anybody can SAY anything without necessarily meaning it but a guy can't fake an erection and whenever I see my father looking at me with that bulge in his crotch, I know what his true feelings are for me!

"I don't think I'm the only one who's horny around here," I responded seductively.

"Well, what do you expect a guy to do when his sexy daughter puts on a show for him like the one you just did?" he teased me.

I grinned at him and noted he was stroking his dick faster and I knew what was about to happen.

"Aren't you going to share something with me?" I asked in my little girl voice, sounding disappointed as if he was withholding something from me.

In truth, he was. It simply wasn't fair that he was about to cum right in front of me without giving me the opportunity to have some of it. My dad didn't reply but answered by stepping into my room and standing next to the side of my bed by my head. I turned on my side and took over from him, replacing his hand with mine. I could smell his masculine scent, a combination or sweat of sexual musk that never failed to turn me on. I licked my lips and gently took his sensitive cock in my mouth. He was already so close to cumming that there was no need for any fancy moves. All he needed was a warm mouth to set him off - and whose better than his own daughter's?

"Oh god Kelly...," he moaned, "That feels so damn good... Fuck it, I'm cumming!"

Naturally I couldn't say anything with his dick in my mouth, and I wasn't about to risk letting it out and have him cum all over me and the bed, so I kept sucking on him while my hand stroked the base of his shaft. Suddenly he groaned even louder and I was rewarded with the feel of his first stream of cum shooting into my mouth and hitting the back of my throat. I swallowed it to avoid choking and kept sucking him as he followed it up with several more warm shots of sperm. I could taste his cum on my tongue and as it lined my mouth I sucked every drop I could get from his dick.

"That's it baby, don't stop!" he groaned as I felt him shudder when my tongue ran over the head of his sensitive cock. Finally he stopped jerking and a loud sigh emerged.

"Damn Kelly, I just love watching you suck my dick while I cum!" he gasped.

I let his dick drop from my mouth and I looked up at him and grinned. I stuck my tongue out and teased him by showing him some of his cum on it and then swallowing it down and proudly presenting him with my empty mouth.

"Mmmmmmm, I love your cum daddy," I said softly. Another drop had formed at the end of his cock so I gently took the head in my mouth and softly sucked on it like a baby on a bottle.

"Oh baby, you look so damn hot sucking my cock," he said again.

I smiled to myself, pleased that I had satisfied him and made him happy. Everything I did sexually with my dad was for his pleasure. Now I don't mean to say I didn't enjoy it too - not by any means! My point is that I, like most girls if they really wanted to, can get laid about any time I want to. It's not like I NEED my dad to satisfy my sexual requirements. I love my father and pleasing him, in any way he desires be it sexual or not, is one of the most fulfilling things I can do. When he cums, it is a testimonial to me that I have accomplished my goal, that I have satisfied my father's most intimate and personal needs and desires.

As much as I like my dad to cum in my mouth, it means the most to me when he cums inside of my pussy because that's as physically intimate as a man can be with a woman. For a girl's father to love her enough to take her in that way is the most beautiful sign of a his love and respect that he can give to her.

My dad's cock has pretty much dwindled in my mouth by now so I released it and he ran his fingers through my hair lovingly, just as he use to do when I was a little girl sitting on his lap. He kissed me on the forehead and left to go to the bathroom, leaving me to roll on my back once again and close my eyes as I relived how he had just cum in my mouth. I could taste his cum - the aftertaste hung around forever if you didn't wash your mouth out with something, and once again I thought of how it would be to have THREE guys cumming at the same time!

3. Turned On By Fan-Mail

The next morning I woke up hornier than ever. I don't remember what I dreamed about but it must have been interesting judging by how wet I was! Feeling the wetness between my legs reminded me of my plans for the day and my hand wandered again between my legs. I must have masturbated for at least a half hour, cumming a couple of times before the urge to pee overwhelmed even my more naughty feelings.

As I crossed the hall to the bathroom I noticed my parents' bedroom was empty so they were evidently already up and about. Amazingly, whatever gene it was that made them both morning people apparently wasn't passed on to me. Me, I could sleep in all morning and stay up late and be happy as a lark. Many a time when my dad would visit me in the morning before he would go to work, I would be barely awake while he fucked me and more than a few times I woke up to find his cum on me and realized I hadn't woken up at all!

My cousin Rick wasn't supposed to pick me up until around noon so for the time being I just slipped on an old t-shirt and headed downstairs for some breakfast. My parents were nowhere to be seen and I found a note on the refrigerator door from my mom explaining they had gone out for breakfast and some shopping.

I smiled to myself at that, knowing how much my dad hated shopping. My mom must have given one hell of a blowjob this morning to convince him to go - or at least promised one when they got back! Hmmm, maybe she had promised him WHILE they were shopping. I sort of doubted that knowing how my mom was about public sex but it was fun to think about anyway. I grabbed some milk and had a large bowl of cereal.

While eating breakfast I was still feeling a bit horny. Somehow I had a feeling that nothing was going to satisfy me today until I'd been with Rick and his friends. Even so, I crossed my legs tightly as the itch between my legs became almost unbearable. After quickly finishing up my cereal, I rinsed out the bowl and headed back to my bedroom. Looking around, I contemplated what to do for a few seconds and finally ended up seated at my desk and turned on my computer. Opening my e-mail, I saw a couple of them had attachments so I checked those out first to see what someone had sent me.

The first e-mail was from a younger guy (he claimed to be 20), with his parents. He said he didn't have any brothers or sisters so he was just sending along a family pic for me to see. I prefer to get this type of photo much more so than some silly cock shot as it shows me some sincerity on the person's part; plus it is always interesting to see his family. In this case they looked almost like your all-American family, missing only a girl and a family dog to make the stereotype complete. His parents looked like your typical suburbanites and if I had to make a quick call it appeared he was a nice guy so I write out a response to him quickly and moved on to the next e-mail.

The second e-mail was quite a bit different from the first. I guess you could say technically it was a cock shot since it was a photo of his dick but what made it special was what was ALSO in the picture - a photo of my Aunt Linda in her bikini on a boat. It was a pretty good photo of her which showed off her legs and new boobs nicely. About two months earlier she had a small boob job - just a lift with no implants as she has some medical issues that prevented her from having them. Even without them, they look pretty nice plus they still feel natural (trust me - I know!).

The picture was taken after what must have been a hot masturbation session as her photo was literally covered with cum and there was even a small drop of cum still dripping from his cock! God, I loved it! It's hard to explain why I love these type of photos to be sent to me. It just makes me feel hot and sexy knowing that men get off looking at me and my family that way - enough to jerk off and cum all over ours pics in the process! The guy who sent it to me claimed he had been married for over twenty years with a couple of kids which made it even hotter as far as I was concerned. I sat there and imagined what his wife would say if she knew what her dear husband was doing when she wasn't around. Mmmmmmm, I couldn't wait to show it to my Aunt Linda! Most guys sent them of me and my cousins but a few got off on my Aunt and she is always appreciative from what her daughter, my cousin Kristen, has told me!

The more I looked at the photo the more I thought about how my Aunt would react when she saw it. It wouldn't be the first time I had showed her a "tribute" that someone had sent me for her so I had a pretty fair idea what was going to happen!

Obviously the guy had gotten off looking at her - the evidence was there for all to see. What was less obvious was how much it made me feel - and my Aunt in this case or whoever else's picture the guy used.

The first time I showed my Aunt and cousins a "tribute" sent for them, their reactions were are all exactly the same - a gasp and wide eyes along with disbelief. Then, once the initial shock had passed, they would look at the picture and stare at it as they realized what it represented.

I consider getting such a photo returned to me as one of the ultimate compliments a stranger can give to me. He has no idea what I am really like or much more about me than what I have written in my diary, yet he gets turned on by me enough to jerk off and then cum all over my photo and even take the time to photograph it and send it to me afterwards! Considering many of them are married and some even have kids only makes it even all the more erotic.

Had I had more time, there was little doubt where this train of thought would had led me. I almost lifted the phone to see if my Aunt or cousin were home so I could share this new photo with them - and then enjoy the results of the emotions that were raised. Unfortunately, I knew I had to be ready for Rick soon so there wasn't enough time to indulge in more than just my fantasies about what might have happened.

As I sat there I spread my legs slightly apart and my hand pressed between my thighs. As I touched my clit and shivered at the response it gave, I closed my eyes and imagined myself watching through a barely opened door as a man I had never seen before stroked his cock as he dreamed of fucking me. My fingers ran over my slit and pussy as I "listened" to him whispering to himself as he fantasized about taking off my clothes and me sucking his cock. His hand was stroking his hard dick faster as he looked at my picture and imagined fucking my mouth and then my pussy. God, the filthy things he called me and wanted me to do to him! Then his head leaned back and he stroked his dick even faster as in his mind, he fucked me and came deep inside of me.

In this case, instead of cumming in my pussy, his sperm spilled out all over my picture, staining it and desecrating it. In my fantasy I entered the room and he gasped as he realized his ultimate fantasy had come true, I was standing nude before him, asking him to fuck me. I pushed a finger up into me as I imagined his cock, hard once again in my fantasy, pressing against my wet pussy, trying to enter me and then finally achieving its ultimate goal. My breathing quickened as I imagined his

4. Rick Picks Me Up

I looked at the clock and gasped. God, how could over an hour have passed? It seemed like only minutes since I had sat down and started to masturbate. I quickly took a shower and washed my hair. As I blew my hair dry, I debated what to wear and how to look. They were expecting a college girl and not a hooker so it wouldn't be right to dress up too sleazy. When my hair was dry I looked at myself in semi-disgust in the mirror. All those damn commercials and advertisements about the wonders of various hair products yet it seemed none of them worked for me as my straight hair hung down past my shoulders. What I would give for the full and bouncing hair that they promised!

I finally just sighed and pulled it back, working it through a stretch ponytail holder. I've always looked a little young for my age and with my hair in a ponytail this way it made me look more like I was eighteen or younger than twenty-one but somehow I didn't think the guys would mind. When I use to chat on-line the guys were more interested in me when I was eighteen than when I turned twenty-one. Heck they probably would have liked it even more had I said I was sixteen - or younger!

I sprayed on a little perfume and put on a minimum of makeup. Back in my room, I looked through my closet and debated once again what to wear. It was late November although you wouldn't have known it from the weather. Maybe the scientists were right about global warming! Even so, it still wasn't THAT warm! I ended up selecting a tight pair of jeans and white blouse. Not exactly the sexiest outfit in the world but I added a few extra touches. The blouse was sheer and underneath I decided to wear a black bra which showed clearly through the thin white material. I left the top buttons undone so it was open down to my cleavage.

Normally I would have gone without panties but knowing what was probably going to happen shortly I chose a tiny black thong to match my bra. It wasn't the smallest thong I owned - it actually had some material in the back! What I liked about it was how it rode high on my hips such that it was barely covered by my jeans. Finally, I picked out a pair of black heels. They weren't my fancy pair with the five inch heels but rather a more modest pair. Finished, I stood in front of the mirror and then turned around and looked at myself over my shoulder. Hmmmmmm, my ass was looking good in these jeans! I took a profile position and smiled as the bra lifted my boobs and made them look much bigger than they really were. To top it off, the blouse was so sheer you could almost read the label on the bra!

It was almost noon so I headed downstairs to wait for Rick. My mom was on the phone with someone and hung up just as I came into the kitchen.

"Hey girl, nice outfit!" she said as I approached, "Love the blouse by the way."

I smiled at her compliments as after all, she was the one who had bought the blouse for me.! Actually, both of my parents bought me most of my clothes. My mom tended to go for the outerwear - jeans, blouses, shorts and such. My dad, on the other hand, was a regular at Victoria's Secret. He loved to buy me slinky lingerie and fantasy outfits, especially for Christmas. In the past, he had dressed me up as a nurse, schoolgirl, French maid, and a number of other typical male fantasy figures. He was the one who bought me the bra I was wearing. I think the part he enjoyed most about buying me clothes was when I modeled them for him after he gave them to me - although taking them off of me was probably a close second!

My mom saw me as I looked at the clock and asked, "Soooooo, when's my favorite nephew coming over?"

My mom had a naughty grin going and I knew exactly what she was thinking about.

"Oh mom!" I said, trying to sound exasperated but not pulling it off very well, "He's just picking me up and won't even be coming in so don't even think about it!"

She pouted but I knew she was just teasing me. It seemed that ever since she had first fucked Rick that she couldn't get enough of his young cock. Well, who could blame her? Rick was nothing more than a boy toy for her and he knew it but he certainly wasn't complaining about it! After all, how many boys can only fantasize about fucking their hot older aunt and here he was actually getting to do it!

"Well, I hope you have a good time," she said, "You're sure that these boys are OK?"

"Rick said they were cool. He actually didn't tell me much more than that but I trust him."

"I do too but still, just don't get yourself into anything you can't get out of," my mom warned me.

I rolled my eyes and sighed. My mom was always worried about me but I guess that was her job as a mother. Even so, sometimes it got annoying, even though I loved my mother unconditionally and trusted her totally.

Just then I heard a car horn blaring. It had to be Rick so I gave my mom a quick kiss on the cheek and grabbed my black leather jacket. Opening the front door, I saw Rick in his family car waiting at the curb for me. He honked again just as I stepped out and I ran out to the car where he as waiting for me impatiently.

"Damn it Rick, give me a chance!" I huffed as I closed the passenger door behind me.

Rick just laughed at me and drove off. He waved and I looked back and saw my mom was standing outside the front door waving to him. God, was she hot for him or what? I was sure she wouldn't have complained if I told Rick to turn around and stop by for a quickie! It was just a physical thing with her so far as he was concerned but all the same, it was still sort of weird seeing your mother acting like some teenager with the hots for her boyfriend. What was cool was that my dad didn't mind; if anything he seemed to think it was all rather amusing and he teased her relentlessly about him. I shook my head; mothers - what are you going to do with them!

Although I didn't know exactly where we were going, I had taken from the way Rick had talked before that his friends wouldn't be that far away. Nonetheless, Rick wasn't about to lose out on any opportunity! He held the steering wheel with one hand while he started to rub his crotch with the other.

"C'mon Kelly, how about something to warm things up before we get there?" he said to me with a leering smile on his face. I just rolled my eyes at him and folded my arms on my chest.

"Just hold your horses," I admonished him. Then I looked at his crotch, an obvious bulge was there and at any other time I would have gladly accepted his invitation.

Rick loved it when I sucked his cock while he was driving and it was a turn-on for me as well knowing people might see my head in his lap and wonder if I was really sucking him or just faking it. THAT was one thing my mom wouldn't do for him as she was too shy about getting caught but for me, getting caught was half the fun!

"So tell me more about these guys we're meeting."

"You're gonna love them Kelly, they are really cool."

"Oh really, and just how old are they anyway?"

Rick hesitated for a second which set off a warning bell in my head. He answered, though, saying, "Tom is my age and Gary is a year younger."

I frowned a bit at that. That would make Tom eighteen and Gary only seventeen. As much as I have always loved being fucked by younger boys, lately I have tried to be more discrete about it since I was getting close to graduation. After all, as much fun as it was, I had to keep in mind that I would be applying for a teaching job soon. The last thing I needed were rumors getting around that I was having sex with underage boys; not exactly a resume builder for a prospective elementary school teacher! I guess I could deal with seventeen, so long as they weren't going to go out and brag about it with all their friends. In all, it made it all the more imperative that Rick not tell them who I really was.

"You're sure that you haven't told them who I really am?" I asked softly.

"Hell no!" Rick protested, "Give me a break Kelly, even I know better than that."

"OK, but just don't forget or I'll tell mom and it's curtains for you!"

That was the ultimate threat so far as Rick was concerned. He shut up after that and it was only a couple of minutes before he pulled into the driveway of this old stone house. I was a bit impressed. We were now in one of the more exclusive sections of town and in my town, that was saying something. The place was HUGE and the driveway weaved around to the back of the house where Rick parked. We both got out and I followed him to a door at the back of the house. There was nobody waiting for us and so Rick just walked right in, waving me to follow him inside. We entered into what looked to be a laundry room and then went into the kitchen where his friends were waiting.

5. Gangbanged by Three Teenagers

"Hey guys!" Rick called out as we entered, "Look who I have with me."

The two of them turned and their eyes ran up and down me. Both of them grinned and one of them, who looked to be the older one, slapped Rick on the back.

"Damn Rick, you really brought her," he said. From the sound of his voice I got the immediate impression that they thought Rick was just making it all up and that they hadn't expected someone to really show up with him.

Rick grabbed my hand and pulled me into the center of the kitchen. He introduced me to them and I learned that Tom was the older one and that the other guy, who had yet to say a word, was Gary. As it turned out, it wasn't that he was shy or anything, just that he hadn't spoken yet. I soon found out that he certainly wasn't shy!

"So Rick, this is the slut you've been fucking?" Gary asked. Nope, not shy at all!

"Gary!" Tom huffed, "Have some manners for once you jerk!"

Gary protested, "Well, that's what Rick calls her so what's the big deal?"

I looked at Rick with narrowed eyes and he avoided looking back at me. It was one thing for HIM to call me a slut; I knew he meant it in a sexy and complimentary way. I had no illusions, though, that Gary had no such intentions. From the way he was looking at me I could see he thought of me more as a whore than anything, a girl that would put out for anyone at any time. It made me wonder just what Rick had been telling them!

"So... and what else has Rick been telling you?" I asked in a sultry voice, speaking up for the first time?

Gary was the first to respond and I quickly came to the conclusion that he might have been the youngest one of the group but he was certainly the most outspoken and crude. I wondered how much of it was bluster and how much was based on actual experience. I have found that usually the ones that are the most outspoken are the ones trying to compensate for their lack of getting the real thing and somehow I had Gary pegged for being just that type - all talk. Well, it wouldn't take long to find out!

"He said you put out whenever he wanted it and that you would do it for us today," Gary said quickly.

Well, if nothing else he went straight to the point. Rick looked at him like he was from another planet. I had no doubt that Rick had said exactly that but I was just as sure he had never intended that those words be repeated back to me, at least not this early in the game.

"Oh he did, did he?" I said with a grin. Rick was still avoiding my eyes but he had a grin on his face that he couldn't wipe off. "And exactly what is it that are you're expecting me to do for you today?"

This time Tom punched Gary before the little pervert could answer. It didn't matter, the nasty look in his eyes told me everything.

"Why don't we go to the family room first," Tom proposed. Gary was giving him the ol' evil eye but he stayed quiet, at least for the moment. Rick and I just followed along as we walked through the house. I wasn't sure whose house it was, Tom or Gary's, but SOMEONE had some bucks, that was for sure! The place was incredible. I also noted a few portraits on the walls of the family that lived there and then I stopped so suddenly Rick almost bowled me over from behind.

"What the hell?" I said under my breath, staring at the photo.

"What do you mean?" Rick asked and then looked at the pic and mumbled under his breath.

"Damn!"

Gary and Tom were ahead of us and didn't notice what we were doing. I turned to Rick and looked in sternly in the eyes.

"Well...?" I whispered, "Was there something you were going to tell me?"

Rick just shrugged his shoulders. After all, the photo said it all. There in living color was a family portrait with the parents and their three kids. The younger daughter was in the middle with the two sons flanking their parents. It must have been a recent portrait as Tom and Gary looked just as they did today. So they were brothers! It didn't really bother me as doing two brothers had always been a bit of a fantasy for me. It just bugged me that Rick hadn't told me about it. I playfully punched him in the stomach and turned back to follow Tom and Gary. They must have noticed we had stopped because they were standing at the entrance to their family room and looking back for us.

"You guys coming?" Tom called to us. Rick responded saying, "Well, somebody couldn't help but notice the family portrait in the hallway."

Tom's eyes opened wider and Gary just grinned and was the first to speak up, of course.

"Well, has your slut ever fucked two brothers?" he asked in a leering tone. I wondered what he would have said if I had told the truth - including the minor fact that the two brothers were my dad and uncle!

I looked at Rick and cocked my head. He took the hint and rebuked Gary saying, "C'mon Gary, her name's Kelly, not 'your slut'." Then he looked down at me and then back to Gary with a smile. "Besides, if you keep calling her that you'll still be a virgin tonight."

I wanted to laugh out loud at the look on Gary's face when Rick said that. God, it was precious! His face went bright red with embarrassment and he just stuttered as he tried to regain his composure. Well, I was right about Gary after all - all talk. As I said before, it was so typical. Although I was amused at his response, I was also turned on a bit by the prospect of not only getting to be fucked by my first pair of brothers, but to have one of them be a virgin was icing on the cake.

Tom was starting to appear as the most mature of the three. He smacked his brother on the back of the head and pointed a finger at Rick.

"You idiots, quit being so stupid and let's get going here, OK?"

I was starting to think I was with the three stooges so it was nice to see at least one of them acting decent. The four of us proceeded into the family room and I looked around quickly to take it all in. The room was pretty big, maybe twice the size of my family room at home. There was a pool table, a huge plasma or whatever TV and several couches and stuffed chairs. The floor was a dark wood covered by several large rugs and at the end of the room was a huge fireplace with a stone hearth that filled half the wall. Then I noticed on thing that seemed out of place - a tripod with a video camera mounted on it. I pointed it out to Rick.

"Uh, Rick... what is THAT doing here?"

"C'mon Kelly, we just wanted to have something to remember this by," explained Rick in a plaintive voice. He looked at the other guys with a "what can I do?" shrug of the shoulders.

"No cameras - period," I said sternly, "I told you before, no photos, videos, nothing - understand?"

Rick looked at Gary and Tom and they started to protest but Rick just raised his hand and they both promptly shut up. With a dejected look, Gary dismantled the camera from the tripod and started to set it on the floor. I started to say something and he understood immediately and put the camera back in its case. There was no way I was going to have them sneak the camera out and capture whatever happened on tape. I could just imagine such a tape getting around the neighborhood until someone recognized me and pointed out I wasn't Rick's slut but more like his oldest cousin! Goodbye teaching career!

The room was dead quiet for a few moments as we all just stood there looking at each other. Somehow I think in the back of their minds, none of them, maybe not even Rick, had really believed that this would actually happen. I could imagine them sitting around watching porn flicks and bragging about what they would do to Rick's girlfriend if she dared to show up. Well, it was now time for them to find out what they REALLY would do. I just stood there with my hands on my hips, waiting for them to make a move. So far I hadn't even so much as unbuttoned my jacket and it was starting to get awkward so I figured as the oldest one there, it was up to me to break the ice.

"So... what else did Rick tell you about me?"

That brought a grin to the brothers although Rick looked down at the floor, as if he was afraid to look me in the eye. I could only imagine what he had told them! Not that I could complain as no doubt most of it had been true!

"Well... he said you give the best blowjobs of any girl he's ever met," Tom said in a low voice as if he was embarrassed to say it

"And he said you love to give them in the car and other places," Gary chimed in.

I thought about this for a moment and then replied, "Hmmmmmm, OK... and what else?"

Now that the dam of silence was broken, both of them started to talk at once.

"He said he fucked you in their pool - while his mom was home."

"You're shaved."

"You let him cum inside of you - without a rubber."

"You swallow."

"You never wear panties on a date."

It went on like that for a while and I couldn't help but smile. Indeed, almost all of what they said was true, or at least it was based on something that had really happened. I had no doubts that Rick had embellished a few details here and there but other than some comment about "gangbanging her school basketball team" (God, where did THAT one come from?), I wouldn't have argued with anything they said. There was one thing that I was thankful for and that was that there was no mention of fucking my mom or his sister - or anyone else in my family! At least Rick had enough sense to keep THAT to himself! I guess he could have said something about incest without implicating himself but why risk it?

"OK, OK, that's enough... so tell me then, do you want to see a little more of me or what?" I teased them.

It was like shooting fish in a barrel. Three mouths gaped open and they were reduced to the equivalent of bobble-head dolls. That's what I love about younger boys - they are SO appreciate of just about anything you do for them. Taking control, I motioned for them to have a seat on one of the couches and the three of them obediently followed my instructions and sat in a row on the couch like three munchkins. Their eyes remained fixed on me as I stood in front of them and pondered briefly as to where I should start.

Had I wanted to, I was sure that I could have dragged this out all afternoon but what would be the point of that? I quickly took off my coat and hung it over the back of one of the chairs. I had no doubt that they could clearly see my black bra under the sheer material of my blouse as I turned slowly in a circle, giving them a full view of my entire body. My jeans were tight enough for them to pull up into my crotch, giving me a nice "camel-toe" for them to view.

"Well?" I teased them some more, "Is this all that you wanted to see or what?"

Rick finally asserted himself and spoke up. "Quit being such a tease Kelly, you know damn well what we want to see."

I grinned at him as I knew exactly what he meant. It didn't matter though as I wasn't going to be THAT easy. With my hands moving in slow motion I unbuttoned my blouse and pulled it out from my jeans, letting it hand open and loose on my shoulders. My black bra was displayed in the middle as I flashed them by pulling the blouse open and then letting it hang down back together. Finally I just dropped it off my shoulders and let it hand down my arms before pulling it off completely, leaving me standing in just my jeans and bra.

My attentive audience was sitting quietly now, staring at me while no doubt waiting to see what was going to come off next. Not to keep them waiting TOO long, I carefully unbuttoned the top of my jeans and slowly pulled the zipper down, spreading the top open to let them see my black thong hiding underneath. I couldn't help but look at Rick and smile. I don't think he had ever seen me wearing underwear before!

Turning away from them, I leaned forward and slowly dropped my jeans to my ankles, keeping my legs straight to give them a nice view of my firm ass and legs as I slowly let them fall to my ankles. With the jeans down to my ankles, I sat down on the floor and pulled off one heel at a time, letting my pant legs pass over my foot and then putting the heel back on again. With my jeans finally off, that left me in just my thong and bra as I once again twirled around in front of them.

"Is this better?" I said softly as I rubbed my ass with both hands. The thing certainly didn't cover much of it and I could feel my bare skin under my hands.

From the looks I was getting I would have bet most anything they were wishing it was THEIR hands in place of mine! This was all probably going quicker than even their wet dreams had imagined so it wasn't a surprise to me that even Gary seemed at a loss for words. Rick, who had seen a LOT more of me in the past, wasn't as wide eyed and if anything, I noted that he seemed to be as interested in the reactions of his friends as much as he was in me. He stretched his arms out to me.

"How about a lap dance?" he suggested.

I smiled and moved forward to him. He spread his legs and I stood between them, slowly gyrating my hips and rubbing my boobs through my bra. He sat back in the couch and I climbed up and put one foot on the outside of each leg. I wasn't naked but pretty close and Rick's hands immediately grabbed my legs and started to rub them up and down. My heels made it hard to keep my balance so I leaned on the back of the couch with one hand and removed them one at a time with the other leaving me barefoot. Maybe not quite as sexy but definitely a whole lot safer!

I pushed Rick's head back against the couch and leaned over him, balancing myself by putting my hands on the top of the couch on each side of his head. My boobs were right over his face and I could see his eyes moving between them as my bra stretched and flexed as I moved. Rick's hands began to wander higher until I felt him touching my ass. I didn't mind, I loved my ass to be played with and the more he touched it, the better as far as I was concerned.

I stood up straighter and pushed my pussy up close to his face. His hands started to work more towards the front and that was where I was drawing the line at the moment. I pushed his hands gently back to my ass and whispered in his ear, loud enough for the two brothers to hear.

"Not yet, just my ass... for now."

I looked over the other two and smiled at them as they watched me tease Rick.

"Hmmmmmm, now I suppose the two of you want a dance as well, eh?" I asked. The answer was obvious but I wasn't going to let it be that easy for them. Half the fun was to see what I could get them to do in return for putting out for them!

"Alright now, I want to see what you've got first," I said as I continued to rub up against Rick.

Rick's hands were grabbing my ass like he was trying to lift a basketball but it just felt all the better for me. The brothers didn't seem to understand what I was talking about so I figured I needed to be a little more basic in my directions.

"Don't look at me like a fish out of water!" I admonished them, "now take off those pants and show me what's hanging between your legs!"

This probably wasn't in the script they had rehearsed when they masturbated thinking about what would happen today. No matter to me, it never hurt to dominate guys a little bit. I smiled seductively at them and motioned for them to take off their jeans. Gary and Tom looked at each other and I started to wonder if they had ever been naked together, at least in a sexual situation. Locker rooms and school showers were one thing but having your brother see you with an erection was probably something new for them judging from their hesitation and the way they were exchanging looks. Well, so much the better!

"That's better!" I encouraged them as they undid their belts and quickly pulled down their jeans, "Underwear too!"

In a moment they were both sitting bare-bottom on the couch and I couldn't help but smile at the sight before me. They were both sporting a full erection with their cocks sticking out from their crotches, pointing to the ceiling. Neither one seemed to want to look at the other. They were obviously so aroused it was almost laughable. There was no doubt that I probably could have asked them to bark like a dog and they would have done it without even thinking. Instead, I had better things for them in mind. I stepped off of the couch and looked at Rick.

"OK Rick, you too," I told him. Hopefully he didn't think he was going to get away with not performing for me as well!

Rick puffed his cheeks out and let out a loud breath as I stood there, waiting impatiently with my arms crossed and fingers tapping. It didn't take long for him to show off his incredible cock. Of all the men in my family, Rick had the biggest cock, at least when he was aroused. His made the other two look rather puny but it really didn't matter to me. I knew Rick's cock pretty well by now so I was just as interested in the two new ones as I was in his.

I love trying out a new cock as each one has its own personality and characteristics. No two guys tasted and smelled the same, some even varying depending on the day. It was always fun to try out a new one and learn where it was the most sensitive and how it felt in my mouth. Oh well, I was pretty sure I would be finding out soon enough so it was back to having fun with them. The brothers looked at Rick and I wondered what they were thinking about his cock as it looked to be about half again as big as either of theirs. Guys are so self- conscious about their cocks! Big ones LOOKED sexier but when I came down to it, size really doesn't matter so long as you don't go to extremes.

I sat back on the chair that was closest to the couch and lifted my right leg over the arm, giving them an unobstructed view of my crotch although it was still being mostly hidden by my thong. I started rubbing myself through the thin material and I could feel a hint of moisture through the fabric. They certainly weren't the only ones in the room that were hungry for more sex!

"Here's how it's going to go," I told them, almost like I was back to my student teaching again and they were my eighth graders all listening attentively, "I'm going to sit here and play with myself while you guys watch."

The three of them exchanged glances but Tom and Gary were now looking mostly at Rick. This certainly wasn't going down the way he had promised. What they didn't know was that the best (from my perspective at least) was yet to come.

"Now... while I play with myself I want you guys to jerk yourselves off. The first to cum gets the first blowjob."

Now THAT got their attention. Like cock size, I have never understood why guys are so hung up about masturbation. From what I've seen, they ALL do it but yet they act like it is something secret or dirty. Girls just seem to understand it more and I started masturbating with my friends at sleepovers when I was only thirteen or so. I was never embarrassed by it - why should I be? We only did it to feel good and there was never anything at all sexual between us so what was the harm? But just even mention doing the same thing to a guy and they act like it is the worst thing in the world.

My threesome today was no exception. All three has this deer-in-the-headlights look and so far, none of them was reaching for his dick. Rick had masturbated for me before when he was really horny but he had never done it WITH another guy so far as I knew.

"C'mon guys, don't you want any of this?" I teased, pulling my thong to one side to reveal my smooth shaved pussy to them. My finger rubbed up and down my wet slit and then I plunged it deep inside of me.

The three of the let out a collective gasp, even Rick who had seen me masturbate many times before. Maybe it was because he HAD seen me doing something like this before, Rick was the first to regain his wits and next thing I knew he was stroking his cock like crazy. Tom and Gary noticed what he was doing, they looked back at me as I played with my pussy, and finally gave in to their our lust. They were a bit tentative at first but once they got started their little heads took control from the big ones and they started masturbating for me. I loved it, especially knowing that at least for Gary and Tom, they had never jerked off together before. For a quick second I wondered what else I could get the two brothers to do with each other that they had never done before!

"Mmmmmmm, now that's JUST what I wanted to see," I purred, "Oh yea, three teenage boys all jerking off... and just for me! God this is so hot!"

I stopped playing long enough to take off the rest of my clothes. The thong was the first to go and my bra quickly followed, leaving me naked in front of them except for my heels. You would think seeing a guy masturbating would be old hat for me by now but I simply couldn't take my eyes off of what was happening in front of me. I'd never had three boys jerk off for me like this before and it was making me hornier by the minute as I watched them.

As they masturbated together, I wondered who would be the first to cum. My bet was on Gary - he certainly seemed to be the horniest of the three. Frankly, I was sort of pulling for him as I thought it would be hot to give him his first BJ in front of the other two before anyone else had anything of me. It was turning me on so much to watch them that I wasn't even paying a lot of attention to myself. It didn't seem to matter to them though, they were staring at my pussy for the most part where I was rather absentmindedly toying with my clit. I licked my lips seductively for them and then brought my hand from my pussy to my mouth where I licked my pussy juices off my fingers. Mmmmmmm, it tasted soooooo good! My eyes remained fixed on their dicks, seeing their hands running over them and imagining how they would soon taste in my mouth!

Seeing me licking my pussy juices from my fingers was evidently the last straw - at least for one of them. My heart skipped a beat as I realized that Tom was looking to be the front-runner as he was stroking something fierce but then, just moments before Tom came, Gary came out of nowhere and he shot a load of cum at least a foot into the air, landing on his legs and hand. A second shot had emerged before his brother let out a groan and began to cum as well. Tom also shot his load up in the air but it was more out in front of him and landed on the carpet. It was so cool to see the both of them stroking their dicks as even more cum emerged and my first thought was how much I would have loved to have felt them cumming in my mouth and pussy together. Well, I had little doubt that it would happen before I left the room!

As it turned out, Rick was a distant third, not cumming until both of the others had run out of their own sperm and were laying back against the couch, panting from their exertions. He looked at me a little sheepishly, apparently a bit embarrassed at his failure to win but it was fine with me since I was more interested in the brothers than him, at least at this moment. I lowered my leg from the chair and stood up in front of them.

"Well, well," I said with a grin, "Looks like young Gary here is the winner!"

Tom looked at Gary and glanced down at his brother's still hard cock for just a second and then looked away, evidently still a little embarrassed to look directly at his brother's dick, especially now that it was covered with cum. Gary was grinning broadly, of course, and I was just as anxious as he was to award him with his well-deserved prize.

"OK - strip!" I commanded. It was aimed at all three of them as they still had their shirts on and I wanted to see them nude. In a moment they had been removed and I was left with three horny teenage boys sitting on the couch in front of me, still with these massive erections! Mmmmmmm, there was one thing you had to say about young guys - they could cum and keep on going! They were Energizer bunnies! It was truly an incredible sight that any girl would appreciate - what more could a girl ask for than to see three teenagers dying to fuck her?

"Mmmmmmm, I want that cock," I murmured seductively as I approached Gary.

Gary was sitting in the middle and as I kneeled in front of him I saw the other two watching my every move. Gary's cock was proactively quivering as he just sat there with his hands to his sides, his eyes fixed on me as I leaned forward and put my hands on his bare thighs. He had a nice covering of brown pubic hair and there was a few traces of cum left from his recent masturbation session. Reaching forward with my right hand, I grasped his cock at the base and slowly stroked it.

"Such a nice, hard, cock," I whispered just loud enough for them to hear, "Tell me Gary, do you want me to suck it?"

Gary's eyes were staring down at me, not even blinking as he seemed unable to even breath, let alone talk to me.

"C'mon Gary," I encouraged him, "If you really want me to suck your dick then you have to tell me."

If there was one thing Gary DID want, it was a blowjob and he licked his dry lips as he took a deep breath before answering me.

"Oh yeah, I want you to suck it."

"Suck what Gary?" I teased him.

"Dammit, I want you to suck my dick," Gary finally blurted out, "Oh my god, PLEASE suck it!"

"Mmmmmmm, now was that so hard to say?" I said to him. It was so cool to hear him begging for me to suck his cock. If only he knew I wanted to do it as much as he wanted me to!

I reached out to the tip of his cock with my tongue and gently started to tease the head with my tongue. I ran my tongue around it in circles, paying special attention to the underside of his head where I could feel him flinch each time I licked him there. Finally, I looked up at him and while our eyes met I slowly took him in my mouth, taking all of him in with one long smooth motion. His pubic hair pressed against my face as I buried the last bit of his cock in my mouth and then twisted my head around it. God, he smelled so good!

I started to bob up and down on his cock, fucking his dick with my mouth while my tongue ran around it. I reached behind him and grabbed his firm nude butt as I gave him his first blowjob. It was hard to imagine what must be going through his mind as his cock was being sucked for the first time. Was it what he had imagined? I knew one thing, he would always remember his first BJ which meant he would always remember my mouth on him. For a moment, I let it slip from my mouth as I held the base of his cock and looked up at him.

"So tell me Gary, is it what you dreamed it would be?"

Gary was breathing hard and he still had his hands to his side, as if he was afraid to touch me.

"C'mon Gary, tell me... do you want more or not?" I teased him gently. Of course he would want more - I have never met a guy yet who asked me to stop giving him head!

"Don't stop," he panted hoarsely to me, "God that feels so good!"

I took just the head of his dick in my mouth and sucked on it like it was a candy sucker. In a way, at least for me, it was! Besides, I would rather suck on a nice hard dick any day than a piece of candy! After sucking him for a while longer, I could tell he was getting close to cumming again so I again lifted my head and looked up at him.

"Do you want to cum in my mouth?" I asked him. Again, I knew exactly what the answer would be. Some guys liked to cum on my face and boobs but nobody had yet declined an offer to shoot his cum into my mouth.

"You can do it Gary," I said to him, "You can cum in my mouth... you just have to ask me."

"Do it Gary!" Rick joined in, "Cum in the slut's mouth."

Gary looked over at Rick and grinned. Then he looked back over at Tom who encouraged him even more.

"Go for it Gary. God, it would be just like that porn movie we watched last night!"

I could only imagine what he meant by that but I was game for just about anything. I gave Gary a questioning look and suddenly he was Mr. Macho in front of his brother and friend. He pushed me back so I was sitting up on my knees and rose from the couch to stand in front of me where he started stroking his cock in front of my mouth. The head of his dick was only an inch or so away and I knew when he came it was going to spray all over me if I didn't get it in the mouth!

"Open your mouth, bitch," he said, "Stick your tongue out for me to cum on."

Yep, he had definitely seen one too many porn flicks but I wasn't about to ruin his fantasy. He had probably jerked off numerous times just dreaming about saying that to a girl and now he was finally having his chance to do it for real. As he undoubtedly was hoping, I obediently opened my mouth wide and stuck my tongue out as far as I could.

In the meantime, I figured why not go for it all and so I started to play with my pussy with one hand while I rubbed my boobs with the other. It didn't take long for him to cum. I watched his dick closely and suddenly this stream of white cum shot out from it and thankfully landed on the back of my tongue. I could taste the bitterness immediately as another shot hit home. Gary was pumping his cock hard now and his aim began to stray so the rest of his cum landed on either my cheeks or my chest.

When he appeared to be finished I grabbed his cock from his hand and pulled it into my mouth. He shuddered and groaned as I sucked his sensitive head, drawing a few more drops of sperm from him. He collapsed back onto the couch, groaning and mumbling something about how incredible it was. I wiped the cum off my cheek with the back of my hand and grabbed the nearest shirt that was laying on the floor, using it like a towel to wipe the rest of his cum from my face and boobs. It made a mess of whoever's shirt it was - I think it was Tom's, but I didn't care. Swallowing down Gary's cum, I grinned at all three of them.

"Well, that was a nice way to get started," I chuckled, "So who's next?"

Both Tom and Rick started to speak up but it didn't matter, I already knew who I was going to next. After all, why suck just one cock when you can have two? I motioned to both of them to come closer.

"Come on boys, give me both of those wonderful cocks."

Tom and Rick looked at each other, a bit confused at first and then they realized what my intentions were. Their homophobic fears surfaced once again as they hesitated but I wasn't going to let that stop them.

"Well, if you want to me suck your dicks then you'll both have to get over here," I encouraged them.

As I've said numerous times before, once you get a teenage boy good and horny there's not much you can't get them to do and so it was with Rick and Tom. Despite their uneasiness about having their cocks touching, they both wanted a blowjob even more so they stood next to one other in front of me while Gary watched from the couch. I took a cock in each hand and slowly started to stroke them.

"Mmmmmmm, nothing like two nice teenage cocks at the same time," I said, grinning up at them.

I pulled them closer to me, using their cocks like a leash, until they were side by side with me in the middle. Both cocks were next to my face and I took each in my mouth, one by one at first, alternating between the two of them while stroking the one that wasn't in my mouth at the same time. With all the blowjobs I've given over the years, there have actually only been a few times when I have sucked more than one at a time so this was as erotic for me as it was for them.

After a while I took them both by the base and pulled them closer together until I was able to put both of them in my mouth at the same time. It was quite a mouthful to say the least! I wondered how they were feeling, having their cocks against each other's while my mouth surrounded both of them. I dropped them both and looked up at them.

"How do you like this boys?" I asked seductively. The two of them exchanged glances and grinned.

"Sort of weird," Rick admitted, "Never felt another guy's cock next to mine before." He looked at Tom and shrugged. Tom grinned back at him.

"Hey now, don't get any weirdo ideas," Tom said to Rick with a laugh.

I giggled at their exchange and went back to work on their cocks again. It wasn't easy to take two cocks in my mouth at the same time and there was no way I could get all of the them in together so I stuck mostly to sucking their heads. My mouth was actually getting tired from being stretched out so far so I would rest at times and just stroke them with my hand.

"So who's going to cum on me first?" I teased.

Both of them were as hard as steel and from the way they were both groaning I had a feeling it was going to be a tossup. As it turned out, it was pretty much a tie. I had just dropped them from my mouth again and was stroking them when I felt both cocks beginning to swell in my hands and just as quickly both of them were cumming again. Neither of them had a chance of hitting my mouth and I felt their cum hitting each side of my face, neck and shoulders. There was probably a few loads in my hair as well which I knew would be a pain in the ass later to get out but what could I do at the moment?

I quickly leaned forward and took them one-by-one again in my mouth, sucking whatever cum was left and taking them all the way down to the base of their crotches. I kept hold of them for balance as I struggled to get up on my feet. My knees were starting to get a bit tired after all these blowjobs!

"Now be good boys and sit down on the couch with Gary," I instructed them, "I need to get myself off now."

Although the three of them were far from being limp, their cocks were not 100% erect but I knew it wouldn't take much to get them back in shape again. Rick had actually fucked me four times once without having to wait any significant time between cumming - something his father certainly wasn't capable anymore - or his uncle for that matter. I sat back on the chair again and once again lifted my leg up over the arm and rested back in the opposite corner of the chair. I really DID need to get off - all this cocksucking had made me horny as hell! As much as I wanted to get fucked, I knew the three of them weren't going anywhere so why not have some fun first?

I love to masturbate and one of the things that makes it even better for me is to be watched when I do it. Sometimes I pretend I don't notice that I am being watched which makes it pretty hot since the guy think he is catching me doing something he shouldn't be seeing. My favorite, though, is to have someone watch me like I was performing or something. One of my biggest fantasies is to be on a stage and have sex with a crowd of people watching. Of course, it would start out with just me on the stage, masturbating while the entire crowd got to watch and wish they could fuck me.

For the next fifteen to twenty minutes, it was just the Kelly Show as the three of them sat there mesmerized by what I was doing to myself. I came twice, the second time being the best as I gushed pussy cum and felt it running down my ass and onto the chair. I could only imagine how Gary and Tom would be explaining the stains on their furniture to their mom! By the time I was finished I was now as horny as I'd been all day (which is saying a LOT) and I desperately needed a cock in my pussy. As much fun as it was to masturbate for them, at this point it was ME that needed THEM. God, I needed to be fucked so bad – and fucked hard as well!

Being Gary was the virgin, it seemed only fair that he fuck me first, even if he did get the first blowjob earlier. His cock had fully recovered although to be fair, so had the others. All signs of shyness had long since disappeared and the three of them were stroking their cocks shamelessly while I was masturbating. I walked over to the couch and motioned for them to move off after which I laid down and stretched out on my back.

"You can touch me now," I said softly to them as I rested my head back and closed my eyes.

I waited and it wasn't long before I felt the soft touch of the first pair of hands. I wanted so bad to open my eyes to see who was the first to be brave but I kept them shut and allowed them to explore me in any way they wanted. I had done this a long time ago with a boy I dated that was shy and it was so incredibly erotic that now I liked to do it with other young guys. With older guys, it would have been just like I was being groped but with the young boys there is this sense of mystery and naughtiness that can really get you hot!

Soon I felt the hands of the others on me and the three of them were touching me on my legs and chest. At first they seemed to stay away from my pussy and boobs but eventually someone got the guts to touch my pussy and eventually to press his finger between the folds of my pussy lips. My boobs were the next to get attention and it was all I could do not to open my eyes to see who was doing what to me. I had a feeling that by not looking at them it helped them to be a bit braver so I just kept them shut and enjoyed their explorations. It took a while but eventually whoever was playing with my pussy got the nerve to push a single finger up into my pussy and I couldn't help but gasp. The finger quickly withdrew, apparently mistaking my gasp at the pleasure it gave me with something bad.

"Oh no, keep it in me," I whispered to whoever it was playing with my pussy. He must have heard me because once again I felt the explorations again in my pussy.

One thing I DID know, it couldn't have been Rick. He had toyed with my pussy plenty in the past so first, he wouldn't be so tentative, and second, he never would have pulled it out when I gasped. Somehow I had a feeling it was Gary as Tom had probably felt a girl before and whoever was touching me was certainly being tentative about it!

I allowed them to play with me for as long as I could stand it. As erotic as it was to let these three teenagers explore me without any interference from me, now I REALLY needed to be fucked so I opened my eyes and too in the scene. Sure enough, it was Gary down at my hips, his hands both on my pussy. Tom was closest to me and Rick was in the middle, the two of them each tending to one of my boobs. They were so close I could feel their hard cocks pressing against me and all I could think of was having one of them in me - and in me NOW!

"God I need to be fucked," I whispered in a husky voice. Rick started to push Gary to the side but I didn't want him to be the first.

"I want Gary fuck me first," I insisted. Gary's eyes widened and I smiled at him saying, "Don't you want to fuck me Gary?"

I grabbed one of the pillows from under my head and pushed in under my ass to lift me off of the couch and make it easier for Gary's first time. Gary seemed a bit confused. As many porn flicks as he must have watched, it just goes to show you that nothing beats the real thing when it comes to learning how to fuck. I motioned for him to get on the couch between my legs as I lifted my knees up until my feet were flat on the couch. My knees spread as far apart as I could make them and I reached out for him with both hands.

"That's it Gary," I encouraged him, "Get on top of me."

Fortunately it was a wide couch, especially with the pillows that made up the back removed. Gary scooted up and then leaned over me, holding himself up and off of me with his hands to my sides. I could feel his cock rubbing against my lower stomach as Gary's lowered his face down close to mine.

"You can kiss me," I said softly.

It just seemed appropriate that I should make his first time more intimate so it wasn't like he was just fucking some plastic doll. Under the circumstances, even though I didn't feel ANYTHING emotional for him, I figured the least I could do is let him kiss me. Hopefully it would allow him to feel more like I was a girlfriend submitting myself to him rather than just some slut that would have fucked anyone and he was just the one who happened to be doing me now.

Rick's lips touched my gently and then I opened my mouth and touched them with my tongue. His lips parted and his tongue met mine and we kissed for several minutes. He was actually not a bad kisser! In another place and time I could have gone on like this for hours, just feeling his warm naked body against mine, his stiff cock pressed against my stomach as he kissed me. Unfortunately, we had an audience and not a very patient one at that!

"C'mon Gary, fuck her!" Rick encouraged him.

"Yeah Gary, let's get going," his brother chided him, "Some of us would like a piece of the slut too ya know!

Gary ignored them at first but I DID want to be fucked more than just make out so I reached down and grabbed his hard cock. I guided it to my pussy hole and lifted my hips against it.

"Push it in me Gary," I said in a whisper, our lips barely apart, "Fuck me Gary."

Gary seemed to hesitate just a moment. After all, it WAS his first time and maybe he was thinking that this wasn't how he had imagined losing his virginity? I doubted that even in his wildest masturbation moments he had imagined he would be fucking a girl for the first time in front of two other guys, one of whom was his older brother!

"Please Gary, I want you in me... please fuck me," I begged him. It was partly for him that I said it but it was mostly for me. I really DID want him to fuck me and the feel of his cock head pressed against my wet pussy was almost more than I could stand. Gary's face was just above mine and I barely heard him as he whispered.

"Oh god, I want to so bad... I'm sorry, I don't know how," he said. I was pretty sure the others didn't hear him as they would have undoubtedly teased him mercilessly. For me, it was really quite cute; suddenly he wasn't the big macho man anymore but a scared teenage boy about to take a major step in his life. Seeing the fear in his eyes, I was glad that I had let him kiss me and I knew it was up to me if this was going to happen so I wrapped my legs around him and literally pulled him into me.

Feeling me pulling him in, he finally responded by pressing his hips in towards me as he tried to push his cock into me. He grunted as it failed to penetrate me. As wet as I was and as much as I had been playing with my pussy, it was still pretty tight and so it was able to resisted the invader. Gary grunted again as his cock pressed harder against me and as stiff as it was, I could feel it bend slightly as he pushed harder and harder.

"That's it Gary, keep pushing," I encouraged him more, "You're almost there."

Finally it was like my pussy simply surrendered and his head popped into me at least an inch or more. God it felt so damn good to finally have a real dick inside of me! My pussy felt like it was being stretched out and there was this incredible pressure building inside of me. Gary pushed harder and now that his cock had finally violated me, he slid easily deep inside of me until his crotch met mine. I wiggled my hips under him as I felt his pubic hair pressed against my bare crotch. It sort of tickled and I liked the feel against me, especially since it signified that he was as deep as he could be in me and now there was nothing was between us as my pussy welcomed his cock.

"Oh Gary, that feels so good," I sighed as Gary held his cock in me, "Move it in and out now."

Gary didn't say anything but that didn't mean his audience was quiet, not by a long shot!

"That's it Gary, fuck her!" I heard Tom call out.

Both Tom and Rick kept up almost a nonstop commentary, like two sportscasters at a football game. Gary stayed in the missionary position; I think he was so overwhelmed that he was actually fucking me that any thoughts of doing me any other way never even entered his mind.

"Does my pussy feel good Gary?" I asked him, "Tell me how it feels to fuck me. How does it feel to have you cock inside of me?"

I love it when a guy talks to me while he is fucking me, the dirtier the better. Gary was evidently so engrossed in what was going on between his legs that he wasn't saying a word until I finally encouraged him to speak.

"God it feels so good... so tight and wet... so good," he managed to finally gasp between thrusting himself in me again.

He just kept pushing himself in me as far as he would go and then drawing himself almost all the way out before immediately pushing himself back in again. Not exactly the most imaginative technique but it worked. Sure, I loved the physically feeling of a dick in me but it was the emotional aspects that made a simple fucking into a great one. Knowing I was Gary's first was more than enough by itself but to have his brother watching, well THAT was even more special. Having my cousin there, and the other two not knowing that we were related was indeed the icing on the cake!

Gary was on the verge of cumming and even in his state of mind he had enough sense to realize he wasn't wearing a condom and I felt him reposition his arms so he could pull out of me when he came. Well, I wasn't going to tolerate any of that nonsense so I wrapped my legs around him and crossed my ankles over his ass.

"Don't you dare pull out, dammit," I warned him. He looked at me like I was crazy and I smiled back. "I'm on the pill silly, don't worry."

In response, Gary pushed himself hard against me, driving his cock in as deep as it would go.

"That's it Gary, cum inside of me," I whispered to him, "I want you to cum in my pussy."

Well, I got my wish as Gary groaned and I felt the warmth of his cum as I spurt from his cock and into the innermost regions of my pussy. Each time it died quickly and then was followed by another as Gary came inside of a girl for the first time. The peanut gallery kept up the commentary.

"Yeah Gary! Fuck her!" Rick cheered.

"Give it to her bro," Tom followed up with, "Fill her cunt!"

Gary collapsed onto his elbows and nearly crushed me as he finished. My boobs were pressed tightly against his chest and I could feel his sweaty body covering mine. Despite his exhaustion, he looked me in the eyes and grinned.

"So Gary, did it feel good to fuck me?" I said softly.

"Oh my god, that was so incredible!" Gary gasped, "I can't believe you let me cum in you!"

"Mmmmmmm, I loved it when you came in me Gary," I murmured to him, "Now let me suck your dick... I want to taste my pussy on it."

Gary lifted himself up and off of me, his cock, which was STILL pretty hard, leaving my pussy. He leaned against the couch next to my head and I turned on my side to take his cock in my mouth. God it tasted so damn good! Nothing beats the taste of a guy's cock just after he has fucked me. The mixture of his sperm with my pussy juices together with the strong odor of his crotch made for an incredible turn-on. Gary shivered as my mouth sucked his sensitive cock and he actually let loose a few more drops of cum for me to savor.

"Hey, when's it our turn?" Tom cut in.

I couldn't blame him as so far his brother was getting most of the attention. What the hell, I wanted him to fuck me too so why wait any longer?

Gary was finished for the moment so it was time to take on his brother. Tom was no virgin and while I had no idea how many girls he had fucked, it was obvious this wasn't his first time. I stood up and faced him with this sort of "Well, what do you want?" look on my face. Tom knew exactly what he wanted!

"Bend over on the couch," he demanded.

Gary had moved to the end of the couch where he was sitting and watching. I wondered if he even realized he was holding his cock or was it just a subconscious thing after fucking a girl for the first time?

I spun around and bent over, holding myself up with my outstretched arms. I spread my legs apart and looked back over my shoulder. Tom grinned at Rick and moved in behind me, holding his hard dick in his hand. I wiggled my butt at him and teased him to hurry up.

"Well, are you going to just stand there holding your dick or are you going to fuck me?"

"Shut up slut," Tom said playfully, "This time you're getting screwed by someone who knows what he's going."

For whatever reason, the phrase "screwed" has never been one of my favorites. Just something about it I guess, it just doesn't sound sexy. Maybe it seems like something a guy does to a whore - something I definitely do NOT claim to be. In this case I just ignored him and waited for him to back up his words with some action. Fortunately, I didn't have to wait long. I felt Tom's hand on my ass and then it worked its way down to my asshole. Then, in a totally unexpected move, the little pervert tried to press his finger into my asshole! I quickly slapped his hand away.

"Sorry, you can play with it but nothing goes IN," I admonished him.

I then realized what he meant when he bragged that he "knew what he was doing" - he wanted to show off by fucking my ass. I wondered if he had ever really had anal sex before from the clumsy way he approached it but in any case, I wasn't going for it. My ass was definitely a one-way street! Actually, I loved my ass and even my asshole to played with. If a guy wanted to lick my asshole, he was more than welcome to it. Just don't kiss me later and don't expect me to reciprocate!

"Ahhhhhh, come on," Tom whined, "Rick said that you would do anything I wanted."

I looked at Rick and then back over my shoulder at Tom. "I don't give a damn what Rick says, one more word about fucking my ass and I'm out of here!"

For a moment the room was deathly quiet. Maybe for the first time they saw me as a girl, as a real live person and not just some imaginary figure from out of a porn flick. No matter, I still was horny and ready to be fucked again so I quickly stepped in to restore the mood.

"Enough of all that, now are you going to fuck me or do I have to let Rick do it for you?"

Rick snickered at that and Tom did what he had to do to maintain his dignity - he stepped up to my rear and started fumbling with my pussy. He seemed to have a hard time navigating, even with my pussy as swollen, wet and open as it was whenever I had just been fucked. He may not have been a virgin but I was getting the impression Tom wasn't exactly a gigolo either! I didn't want to embarrass him but on the other hand I wanted his dick in me sooner than later so I reached between my legs and spread my pussy open with my fingers.

"That's it Tom, put it right here," I said softly, trying not to sound like I was telling him HOW to do it but rather encouraging him instead. I felt the head of his cock slip between my fingers and he slid rather easily into my pussy thanks to the results of his brother fucking me. On advantage of "sloppy second", it was a lot easier to get your cock into me the first time!

"Oh yeah Tom, that's it... push it in me deeper," I moaned for him.

Tom was gripping me with both hands on my hips and I felt him pull me back as at the same time he pressed his cock into me. The result was his cock slid into me until I felt his crotch press up against my ass and I wiggled it again to move it around inside of me. I looked back over my shoulder again and saw Tom grinning like the cat who ate the canary while he started stroking himself in and out of me. After a few times he overestimated his cock's length and it slipped out of me but he had the mark now and he quickly slid it back into me without missing a beat.

"Go Tom!" Gary exhorted from his position at the end of the couch, "Fuck her!"

"Damn, she's tighter than I expected!" Tom gasped as he rammed me time after time with his hard dick.

"Yeah, you would never know she was a real slut, would you?" Rick chimed in, evidently trying to impress them with his "experience" with me. I felt a little bad that

Rick still hadn't fucked me but it wasn't like he didn't know what it was like. When I had first heard his plans for today I had expected that he would be the one I fucked the most with the other two guys just watching but once I found out about them being brothers - and one a virgin at that, all my plans went by the wayside and all I wanted was to be fucked by the two of them. Still, Rick had an impressive cock so I decided it was time to get him involved as well.

"Get over here Rick, I want to suck your dick while Tom fucks me," I said to Rick in a seductive voice.

Rick seemed rather hesitant at first. It wasn't that he didn't want me to, it was more a question as to HOW I was going to. I motioned for him to sit on the couch in front of me and he quickly scampered over and sat down in front of me. I put my hands on his legs and leaned over to take his hard cock in my mouth while Tom kept fucking me from behind.

Getting it from behind was OK but not my favorite position because it was so hard to see what he was doing. I loved to watch myself being fucked, to see his cock sliding in and out of me while I felt it inside of me at the same time. Sometimes I would try to look underneath and back but it was uncomfortable to say the least. This was one time, though, that it worked out for the best as it made it easy for me to suck Rick at the same time. Actually, although I had been fucked my multiple guys at one time before, it was usually more one after the other and not two at the SAME time. This felt sexy in that it was like I was being fucked from both ends - my pussy and my mouth, at the same time.

"God your cunt feels so good!" Tom exclaimed and I knew he was getting close to cumming again.

I wanted to tell him to be sure to cum in my pussy but I had Rick's cock in my mouth and I didn't want to let go of it, not even for a few seconds. Tom should have gotten the idea of what I wanted anyway from when his brother had just fucked me. Thankfully, he wasn't as stupid as he seemed to be at times and when he came, he did it exactly where I wanted it - in my pussy again!

"Fuck, I'm cumming!" Tom grunted as I felt his crotch push up tight against my ass.

His hips twitched against me as he unleashed his sperm inside of me, joining whatever was still in there from his brother. When he finished he didn't stay in me but instead just flopped down on the couch between his brother and Rick. I had sperm from two of them in me so now it was time to make the trifecta. I let Rick's cock slip from my mouth and I looked up at him as he stared at me, probably wondering what I had up my sleeve - if I had been wearing one. I grinned at him and started to work my way up onto the couch. Rick quickly grasped my intent and he closed his legs together to make it easier for me to straddle him. I was finally on my knees with his cock pointing up at my wet, dripping pussy like an arrow aimed at its target.

"You ready to fuck me too?" I asked him softly, but loud enough for the other two to hear.

"Hell yeah!" Rick all but shouted as he grabbed me by the waist and literally pulled me down onto his cock.

I was so wet and open by now that his cock slid in me like he was fucking my mom. Tom's cum was dripping from me and some of it had landed on Rick's crotch but he didn't seem to care, if he even noticed. I sat down on his cock and wiggled my ass around in little circles.

"Mmmmmmm, now THAT is where it belongs, doesn't it?" I gasped as the pleasure of his cock ran through me. He may have been the third cock in me this afternoon but I still loved it just the same.

Rick's hands cupped my ass and he helped me by lifting me and then lowering me up and down on his stiff dick. I looked over at the two brothers and they were watching Rick fuck me, of course, but I loved it that they were also stroking their own cocks at the same time. Hard to believe that the two of them didn't even want to be in the same room naked not too much earlier!

I briefly toyed with the idea of seeing how far I could push them, maybe even have them jerk each other off, but that would have probably been a little much, even if they were as horny as they were at the moment. Instead, I turned my focus back to the wonderful feeling of a male dick filling my still starving pussy. Rick could have called over every friend he had and the way I was feeling now, I would have fucked every one of them!

"God Kelly, you're such a fucking slut!" he whispered to me and then he winked.

I grinned as we were both probably thinking the same thing - if the brothers only knew the truth about the two of us! It would have been thrilling to tell them and see the expressions on their faces but as horny as I was at the moment, I still knew better than to do such a stupid thing. Even Rick, just a few seconds from cumming again, knew better. Hopefully we would never see these two guys in church or wherever when we were together as a family but since I had never seen them before the odds of that happening were pretty remote.

"I am, eh?" I teased him as I raised myself up and then lowered myself down slowly on his stiff cock.

I loved being on top sometimes because it let me set the tempo and penetration of a the guy's cock who was fucking me. So many guys get on top and just bang away as fast and hard as they can until they cum. Not that doing so is always bad - not by any means! It's just that there are times, like this, when I like to savor the feeling more, to be able to concentrate on every inch of his cock as it passes in and out of me. Sometimes I lift up until the head is just barely inside of me and the rest of his shaft is exposed. The best is when I look down and allow myself to drop as slowly as possible onto him and watch his cock disappear inside of me at the same time I can feel it penetrating me and warming me inside. See a guy fuck me is such a turn-on!! Sometimes my dad takes videos when he fucks me and later when we watch it on the big-screen TV we both get soooooo horny!

"Oh yeah, you're the biggest slut I know!" he confirmed.

"Then fuck me like a slut!"

Rick grinned at me when I said that. He looked over at his friends who were still nursing their hard-ons, probably wishing they could be inside of me again. He lifted me off of him and spun me around and then pulled me back down onto his lap again. My pussy was so wet and swollen that he easily slipped back into me again and I sat on his lap with my feet on the floor and hands on his knees as I rocked on his dick. I could feel his hands gripping my waist as he lifted me up and then pushed me down on his cock. I looked down and saw his thick cock appear and then disappear again as it stroked in and out of me. Both of the brothers got up and stood in front of me to watch as my boobs bounced from the rapid motions I was making.

"Cum in me Rick!" I panted. I really DID want him to cum. I wanted the two brothers to see his cock cum in me and mix with their cum that was still in me. Most of all, I just wanted to be fucked and fucked and fucked even more!

"Do her Rick!" Gary cheered, "Fuck the little slut!"

"Here it comes!" Rick groaned from behind me and I felt his hands squeeze me tighter as he stopped stroking himself in me and just sat still. I leaned back and looked down to see just the base of his cock visible below my pussy as suddenly he jerked and I saw his cock push upward at the same time I could feel him cum in me, so deep in me it was like he was pushing up against my stomach inside.

"That's it Rick, cum in me!" I encouraged him, "Fuck me Rick!"

Again and again I felt him hump me as he ejaculated inside of me. Each time I felt the warmth of his cum in me and all I could think about was what it must be like inside of me to have his sperm released in me, coating the inside of my pussy with his slimy sperm. .As he came I played with my pussy slowly, rubbing my clit until I could finally feel my orgasm rising in me. Rick was through cumming but there was no way I was moving - not now! I closed my eyes and leaned my head back as I felt my pussy squeezing down tight on his cock.

"Oh my god, that feels so good!" I moaned, "You're making me cum!"

Suddenly it was like I was going to the bathroom as the cum gushed from my pussy and covered Rick's thick pubic hair. I even forgot about the two boys watching me as all I could think about was how good my pussy felt at that moment with Rick's dick impaled in it and my finger running circles around my aroused clit. I feel forward, going to my elbows on his knees and my face almost to my legs as my orgasm struck.

It wasn't the most incredible orgasm I had ever had but there was no such thing as a bad one! I just kept moaning and telling them how good it felt as it was like my entire body suddenly tingled and if wasn't for Rick holding me, not to mention his dick acting like a post for me to be mounted on, I probably would have fell to the floor. Finally I leaned back again against him and his hands moved up to cup my boobs as I opened my eyes to see the two brothers still stroking. I was rather surprised they hadn't gotten themselves off again but maybe twice was al they thought they could do.

When my head cleared I stood up and as I did Rick's cock fell from my cunt and it was like a stopper had been removed from me and his cum mixed with more of mine drained from me. I reached down and gathered some up with my hand and put it to my mouth to lick off.

"Mmmmmmm, nice dessert," I said with a naughty grin as I slowly licked the mixture from my hand and fingers.

Well, I had sucked and fucked the three of them so that should have proven out Rick's boasts. Indeed, Rick was looking more than satisfied as was Tom but Gary was still horny from the looks of it! He looked like he had something to say and then he finally blurted it out.

"Can I fuck you again Kelly?" he asked. I almost laughed at the plaintiff tone, almost like a little by asking for another piece of candy he know he shouldn't have. I was tempted, to say the least. As horny as I still was, I could have fucked all three of them again but somehow it just seemed like it was time to call it quits with them. I wanted them to think of me as a slut, not a whore!

"Maybe another time," I said as I reached out and grabbed his cock. I stroked it a few times and smiled at him before dropping it and reaching down to gather my clothes.

My pussy was still leaking so I grabbed another one of their shirts and used it to clean myself off. I wondered if their mom was going to recognize what was staining their shirts when she did laundry the next time? The guys reluctantly dressed as well. I didn't bother with my bra or thing this time, what was the point? I hated wearing them unless there was a good reason so I just bunched them up and held them as I turned to Gary and Tom.

"OK, now hand it over!" I said to them. They looked at me as if they had no idea what I was talking about but I knew better!

"You know what I mean - hand it over!" I insisted. Rick truly didn't seem to understand but Tom and Gary did. They frowned and walked over to the fireplace mantel where they pushed aside a couple of pictures to reveal the video camera that was hiding behind it.

"What the fuck?" Rick said incredulously. He turned to me and his face told me clearly he had not known about it. Then he turned to the other two and pointed his fingers at them.

"You motherfuckers!" he said accusingly, "You promised me that you wouldn't do that!"

Gary just sighed and raised his hands palm up as if to say he tried but hadn't gotten away with it. Tom took out the DVD and handed it to me with a smile.

"Well, you can't blame us for trying!" he said.

"Yes I can," I said with a huff and I walked out with the DVD in one hand and my underwear in the other.

"C'mon Kelly, don't get mad," Tom called out after me.

I didn't look back until I was out the door and then only to see if Rick was following. He was close behind and so he unlocked the car and we got in and left. As soon as we were out of sight I broke out laughing.

"What's so funny?" Rick asked.

I held up the DVD and smiled saying, "Well, I never thought I would get a DVD of the afternoon... pretty cool!"

Rick reached over to grab it but I pulled it away.

"Nope, just for me," I teased.

On the way back we talked about what had all happened. Rick went on and on about how they hadn't believed him before but now they would trust anything he said in the future! My pussy hadn't settled down yet and the tight crotch of my jeans wasn't helping matters. It was SO tempting to reach over and suck in Rick's cock on the way home but I held off. There would be plenty of opportunities to do that another time.

Rick was carrying on so much about how cool it was to do me with them that he didn't even seem to think about doing anything on the way home anyway. It only took a few more minutes and he dropped me off at the curb. I leaned over to give him a kiss goodbye and hustled into the house where I found my mom in the kitchen, almost like I had just left her. She turned and saw me entering.

"Finally back I see," she said and then she noticed what I was carrying. "Don't tell me, you didn't tape it, did you?"

My grin was enough to confirm it but I also waved it at her as if to flaunt it.

"Well, I bet your dad's going to want to see that one, now THAT'S for sure!" she laughed. "Come over and have s eat and tell your dear old mom all about it - and I mean ALL about it!"

She brought me a glass of juice and I sat down at the kitchen table and started to tell her. As I did, I couldn't help but think about how cool it was going to be to surprise my dad by starting up the DVD later tonight and seeing his reaction when he realized what he was watching! I had a feeling my day wasn't over quite yet!

(Dec 14) Chapter 131: Last Night Before Break

Me (21)
Ryan (37)

I had held out for most of the semester and tomorrow I would be going home for Christmas. I got myself so horny thinking of home that something had to give!

1. Too Horny to Wait

After breaking up with Michael, for the rest of the first semester of my senior year it was just me and my fingers when it came to sex. Of course Thanksgiving Break provided some "relief" but in a way it only intensified my feelings when I was back alone in my apartment. Not for the first (or last) time, I found myself wishing that my roomie Ali was into girls! God she was so hot! Seeing her nude while she was dressing or even just being close enough to smell her drove me nuts!

Finally the end of the semester arrived. Finals were over and everyone was just packing and having fun, anticipating our return home the next day for Christmas Break. By the way, I attend a Christian university so yes, we call it Christmas Break and not Winter Break! Ali was out in the living area with some of my other apartment roomies. Our on-campus apartments had three bedrooms with two girls in each that shared a common living area and kitchen.

Until a few minutes before, I'd been out there right along with them, laughing about the events of the past semester and talking about our plans for the upcoming break. Of course, I never told them about my REAL plans - that I intended to get fucked the minute I got home and as often as possible after that! Although I may not have been saying it aloud, the thoughts were certainly filling my mind, making me so damn horny that finally I couldn't take it anymore and excused myself to go to the bathroom.

No sooner had I shut the door behind me than I was yanking down my jeans and taking a seat. Actually, I DID have to pee but that wasn't my primary reason for being here. I quickly finished THAT business and my finger was on my clit before the toilet was half done flushing. I almost cried out as it was like I was applying an electric shock to my clit instead of just a fingertip. God I was SO incredibly horny, it was like I was going to burst. As I used one hand to play with my clit, I took the other and shoved a finger up my already soaking wet pussy. I wanted, NEEDED, a hard dick in me more than anything and as good as my finger felt up in me, it just wasn't the same.

Normally no matter how horny I am, masturbation settles me down and allows me to stay in control, if not satisfied. Not tonight. My heart was racing and it was almost like I was having an anxiety attack as my breathing quickened into fast, short breathes and my pussy felt like it was going to jump out of my body at any moment. Tasting my fingers, I could smell and taste my pussy and I dreamed of sucking a cock with my pussy cum all over it.

That was it. Last straw. I simply HAD to have a dick and there was no way I was going to make it until tomorrow without having a nervous breakdown. You would think after all the weeks without getting any that I would be able to hold out for twelve more hours but that wasn't the case, not by a long shot. Now I can say I really do understand how a cigarette smoker feels when she hasn't been able to smoke for a while, or a drug addict waiting for her next fix. In MY case, my "fix" was sex and if I didn't get some, and get it quick, I might do something stupid like attack Ali! As incredibly hot as that idea made me, I still had enough common sense left to know she was off-limits. Indeed, anyone at school was out of bounds for me, male or female. Sex was grounds for expulsion and as much as I wanted it, I wasn't going to get expelled with just one semester to go!

Therefore, the only question was where to find a dick? Well the obvious answer was below the waist of some guy so that meant all I had to do was find a guy willing to fuck me. THAT wasn't difficult for me to find, just as it isn't for any girl who is really serious about getting laid. What WAS difficult was finding someone who was discreet and wouldn't come looking for more later. I didn't want a boyfriend or a date, I just wanted a guy to take me and fuck me like there was no tomorrow - and never talk about it later with his friends!

Near my school is a factory with several little bars surrounding it where the workers hang out after their shift. In all the years I'd been going to school in this town, I'd never gone near any of them as I could only imagine the type of guys that frequented such establishments. For a single girl, and a college one at that, to walk into such a place would be like a lamb walking into a lion's den. Somehow that sounded like just the ticket tonight, though. I had a sneaky suspicion that getting laid in such a place wasn't going to be much of a challenge! So what if they weren't the most handsome and sophisticated men? The only thing I wanted was below their belts anyway.

I gave up masturbating. As good as it felt I knew I could rub my clit raw tonight and never be satisfied. Pulling up my pants, I exited the bathroom and returned to the living room.

"Wow, that was fast!" Ali whispered to me as I took a seat next to her on the couch.

Although we never really talked a lot about sex and I never did anything overtly with her around, she knew I masturbated - frequently. Heck, so did she but at my school, that sort of thing isn't discussed openly with most people so we both pretended not to notice the other.

"I only had to pee," I replied, pretending to be innocent.

"Yeah, right!" she teased me, tickling me innocently. If she only knew what it did to me when her hands were on me!

We both giggled and then I turned to her and whispered, "I need to run out and take care of some things before tomorrow."

Ali looked at me suspiciously, not buying my cover story for an instant.

"What do you need that can't wait until you're home tomorrow?"

"Just stuff," I replied, trying to avoid giving myself away.

Ali frowned at me. Even though she wasn't believing me, I doubted she had a clue as to what I was REALLY planning to do. I quickly gathered my purse and just headed out as I was dressed. It WAS December and although the winter had been pretty mild, it wasn't fit for shorts and so I was wearing a pair of jeans and a flannel shirt. As usual, I hadn't bothered with anything else, especially since I hadn't planned on leaving my apartment when I got dressed earlier. My hair wasn't exactly at its best but sometimes all I did was just comb it out and let it hang so this would just have to be one of those times.

Out in the parking lot, I climbed in my car and looked in the rearview mirror. Ugh, I had to do SOMETHING to be a bit more presentable although I suspected the guys I'd be meeting wouldn't be looking above my chest anyway. I found a wrap in my purse and pulled my hair back into a single ponytail so it didn't look so plain. A little lipstick and blush and my face wasn't so pale. A splash of perfume and that was it. Well, it would just have to do.

As I drove to the bar my pussy suddenly reminded me that it wanted something in it - something hard and warm. It was almost like a cramp it hit me so hard! I rubbed myself through my jeans and then forced myself to hold off as I didn't want to walk in with a wet spot between my legs. Even for me that would have been going a little too far!

It was only a short drive to the bar but I don't hardly even remember the trip. It was like I was in a fog, like some girl in a bad vampire movie who was being called by the vampire and robotically responding without really understanding what she was doing. In my case it wasn't a vampire but a nice cock that was calling me. Even though I didn't know where it was yet, I knew there would be one for me, nice and hard, eager to satisfy me.

2. Getting What I Needed

When I got to the bar I saw there were about a half dozen or so cars parked outside. Actually they were all trucks which gave me some insight as to the type of men who frequented the place. For just a moment I sat in my car with the engine off, contemplating what I was about to do. It was like for just a moment the vampire's pull on me had been broken and I realized what I was doing. God, I could be hurt or who knows what else! This was beyond stupid, it was flat out ridiculous. All I had to do was wait until morning and drive home. I was sure my dad would be waiting for me at the door, hard dick in hand, ready to welcome me home as only a father can. Why do this when my dad would be available in literally hours?

The struggle for my mind resumed and once again my pussy won out. It was all I could do to not just pull my jeans down and masturbate right there in the parking lot. Damn, I couldn't remember EVER being THIS horny before! What had happened to me? It wasn't like I'd woke up this way or anything. Something about tonight had triggered this inside of me, like a virus that had been activated by the proper code word and now was set upon driving me crazy if I didn't satisfy the manic lust that it had created within me. Oh well, did it really matter WHY I was feeling this way? All that mattered to me at that moment was to respond and accept it, to satisfy it... to get fucked!

As I walked to the front door I looked around and shuddered. It wasn't exactly the type of neighborhood I'd grown up in, with all the nice middle-upper-class homes, well-lit brick streets, and pleasant neighbors. Without the moon it would have been pitch black except for the beer signs lit up in the window and the dilapidated sign out front with the bar name under a Pepsi logo. The parking lot wasn't even paved and the exterior of the bar apparently hadn't been painted, or received any other form of attention, since before I was born. Under any other conditions I wouldn't have been caught dead here! Unfortunately, this was exactly the type of place I knew where I could go and get a guy quickly and with no questions asked.

Stepping inside, it was almost comical. It was like one of those cheesy westerns where the bad guy steps into the saloon and everyone stops whatever they're doing and the place focuses on him. Indeed, that was me tonight. As soon as I opened the door every head turned to see who was violating their private little bar. As soon as they saw it was a girl, their faces went from sullen to eyes like saucers. Undoubtedly I was about the last thing they had ever expected to appear at the door this evening - or any other evening for that matter.

"You lost or something honey?" the bartender called out to me. Obviously he didn't think that I would actually be entering here unless I was forced to.

"Noooooo," I replied softly and innocently, "Why, can't I come in here?"

What I REALLY wanted to say was, "Anybody here want to fuck me?" but that would have been a little TOO forward, even in my current condition. Dropping my jacket and hanging it over my arm, I stepped up to the bar and took a seat on the stool. It felt a little odd as I had never actually been in a bar like this before. As I walked through the room it was like every pair of eyes in the place was staring at me with the majority either at my boobs or ass, which was perfectly OK with me.

"OK, what can I get ya?" the bartender asked.

"How about a Diet Coke?"

The bartender laughed and shook his head. I knew he wanted to say something more but he held his tongue like a good bartender.

"Here, on the house," he said with a grin as he set the glass in front of me. "So what brings you in here tonight anyway? You're not exactly the type we get in here very often."

"Oh? So just what type am I?" I teased him, letting my voice take on that little girl lilt to it that I knew men liked so much.

He didn't have a chance to answer as I was drawing men like flies. Before I knew it, there was one seated on each side of me. The guy on the left was rather young and good looking, probably early twenties at most. To the right was an older guy, not THAT old but probably in his thirties at least. He was a little rougher looking, starting to bald and obviously hadn't shaven since early morning. Both guys were wearing wedding rings, something a girl looks for instinctively when approached by a strange guy.

"Hi, I'm Simon," the younger one started out, "So what's a babe like you out alone tonight?

Well, so much for originality!

"Forget him," the older one broke in, "You look like you need something and I've got it."

He was patting his crotch and the bartender overheard him and saw what he was doing.

"Nice one Ryan," he scolded him, rolling his eyes, "nothing like being a gentlemen. Be careful or I'll tell Ruth on you!"

Any other time and I probably would have slapped this Ryan character but not tonight. I wasn't in the mood for some drawn out repartee with a guy like Simon. Sure he was younger and better looking and his breath was undoubtedly more palatable as well, but I was looking for someone more direct and wasn't in the mood at all to play games. I turned my back to Simon and gave my full attention to Ryan.

"That's OK, I like a man who says what's on his mind," I said softly. The I looked down at his crotch where the creep was actually rubbing himself through his jeans! Oh well, why not?

"Looks like you have a lot of things on your mind," I teased him, nodding to his crotch. Even with that he didn't take his hand away. Well, you had to give him credit for chutzpah!

Ryan looked around and glared at the other guys who turned away and pretended to ignore what was happening at the bard. Obviously he was the alpha male in this wolf pack. Even the bartender moved away as if he didn't want to be involved.

"Let's stop fooling around," he said in a conspiratorial tone, "You're not a cop, are you?"

I was shocked at that one and I guess my reaction was answer enough for him.

"Don't be offended, I was just checking. You know how it is."

"Well, I'm NOT a cop or anything like that," I said huffily.

"I didn't think so - the cop whores aren't as good looking as you anyway," he continued, "So what's it going to take?"

I looked at him with a blank stare. Damn, I wasn't a whore! Was THAT what he thought I was?

"I'm NOT a prostitute," I said firmly.

"Well, you're obviously not here for the atmosphere," he chuckled, reaching over to put his hand on my thigh. I didn't make any move to resist him which he took for permission to move it up closer to my crotch where he started to squeeze and rub his hand over my leg.

"Can't a girl just be looking for a drink?"

Ryan almost burst out laughing. "Yeah right, like you needed to come in here for a diet pop. I think somebody needs something a little more substantial."

"Oh?" I replied naively, "And what would THAT be?

His hand suddenly moved forward and his fingers pushed against my crotch through my jeans. At the same time his other hand was rubbing his dick which had obviously grown under his jeans.

"Why don't we go in back and I'll show you."

Well, there it was. Time to go for it or back away before it was too late. As crude and disgusting as he was, it WAS rather erotic in a way. It wasn't like your typical boy-meets-girl where the two dance around their real feelings all night - or longer. He clearly wanted to fuck me and he wasn't making any bones about it (no pun intended). Wasn't that exactly what I had gone out looking for?

"Well, are you sure you can handle me?" I teased him some more.

"Baby, the question is, can you handle ME!" he retorted, obviously full of himself.

With that he got up and motioned for me to follow. He stopped by the bartender who was now at the end of the bar.

"Gimme the keys to the office," Ryan demanded.

"I'm not supposed to let anyone in there," the bartender resisted.

"God dammit, if you don't give me these keys I'll take them from your cold stiff fingers," Ryan growled.

"Alright, alright, here," the bartender gave in, handing over a key chain with a single key on it and a round tag attached by a string that I could just make out said "office" on it in dirty letters.

"Get in here," Ryan said to me, apparently no longer caring who heard him or what they thought. I wondered if this was something he had done before or if it was all a show for his buddies. Something told me from the way he looked and acted that it was more bluff than anything. Had this been a frequent affair then he wouldn't have needed to make such a demonstration.

Once inside he shut the door and turned on the light. It was a small room that smelled of stale beer and potato chips. The only furniture was an old wooden desk and a couple of chairs that had clearly seen better days. Ryan turned to me and leered at me like some drunken fool. Actually, I didn't think he was all that dunk but rather just an idiot.

"Well?" he questioned me.

"What do you mean?" I responded, pretending to be confused.

"Shit, are you going to strip or what?"

It wasn't as if I was having serious second thoughts, but it WAS a little faster than I'd even dreamed about when masturbating earlier. I needed a moment to get myself calmed down a little as my heart was racing like a beating drum.

"Who's Ruth, anyway?" I asked.

"Fuck her," he grumbled, "my old lady... stupid bitch."

If Ryan's marriage had been all that good I doubted he would've been a regular at this bar but even so, he seemed almost ready to spit the words out when he mentioned her.

"Ah, so then you must fuck girls like me all the time then I take it?" I accused him as I started to unbutton my shirt.

"Yeah, lots of them," he answered as his eyes were fixed on my chest as my cleavage was more exposed.

There was something in his tone that told me he was lying. Ryan was a blowhard and I had a good feeling that he'd never had the nerve to actually cheat on his wife. So why was he doing it now? Had he gone up to me and flirted, never expecting to actually score with a girl like me? Had I called his bluff? Would he go through with it?

I was naked by now, standing in front of him like a piece of meat being checked over by an FDA inspector. Actually, I felt quite comfortable considering the circumstances. He may have been an overweight boorish letch, but at the same time I was clearly the one in control no matter how much he may try to bluff. It was becoming more clear to me by the moment that he had never dreamed that I'd actually go through with this and if anything, his face was showing a little anxiety - at least in between the leering looks and lip-smacking.

"So... what do you think," I teased as I spun around in a circle with my arms over my head, lifting my boobs up tight and showing off my firm ass. I was proud of my body and not afraid to show it off. If anything, it made me feel good to see the approval in his eyes.

"Damn fuckin' incredible," he almost whispered. I would've been willing to bet this was the closest he'd been to a nude college girl in his entire life - he didn't look like the type to have married a professional woman.

"Ever watch a girl masturbate?" I asked him with a sly grin on my face. I wanted to add, "besides in a porn video" but that would have been too much, even for this jerk.

He didn't respond but the way his eyes popped open told me all I needed to know. I scooted up on the desk, pushing the papers and magazines away without worrying about the mess I made - who would have noticed anyway? Leaning back on one hand, I spread my legs for him and started to run my fingers lightly over my crotch. My fingertips gently traced their way over my smooth shaved crotch, moving around my pussy without actually touching it.

"I bet Ruth's pussy doesn't look like this," I taunted him.

"You can say THAT again," he practically blurted out before he had time to think of it. He was breathing heavily and he was so fixated on my pussy that he wasn't even rubbing himself through his jeans anymore. The bulge there, though, told me he didn't need to touch it to make it any bigger!

"Now watch me play with myself," I encouraged him, as if THAT was necessary. I pressed my middle finger into the folds of my pussy and reached down to my hole and pressed it inside of me as far as I could.

"God that feels so good," I sighed.

Indeed it did. There was something about him watching me that was like adding gasoline to a fire, making my pussy almost feel like it was burning with pleasure as my finger stroked in and out of me. I was masturbating for HIM, not me, and I knew full well that men loved to see a girl put her fingers up her pussy so I ignored my starving clit for the moment and concentrated on fucking myself.

"Mmmmmmm, I love the way your jeans are bulging Ryan," I sighed again, "When are you gonna show me what you're hiding in there?

Ryan took the hint and unbuckled his belt. His jeans were tight, probably a couple sizes too small at least thanks to what was probably an ever increasing waist line. As he dropped his pants and dirty underwear, I couldn't help but wonder when the last time he looked down and actually saw his dick? I put away the thoughts of his bulging stomach and man tits as his hard cock came into view. Who cared if he was bald, overweight, and generally as uncouth as they come? He had the one thing that mattered to me the most at this moment - a wonderfully hard cock surrounded by a literal forest of thick, stiff pubic hair. Mmmmmmm! God, I HAD to have it.

No sooner had he stepped out of his pants and shorts than I was off the desk and on my knees in front of him. This was no time for a show, I wanted that dick - NOW! Grabbing it by the base to steady him, I leaned forward and took his dick in my mouth. God he tasted wonderful! Sure he needed a shower - badly, but that didn't take away from the unmistakable scent of his male musk, generated by his intense lust for me. His swollen cock head was nice and large, no marks or weird angles that some cocks seems to have. He felt so warm and smooth in my mouth, like a warm sausage fresh from the oven. After a few head bobs I let his cock drop from my mouth and looked up at him.

"Do you like that Ryan?"

"Fuck yes!" he whispered hoarsely, as if his voice would fail him if he said any more.

I sucked on it a while longer and then again looked up at him as my hand stroked his stiff wet shaft.

"So Ryan, does Ruth suck you as good as I do?"

"Shit, the bitch has never sucked my dick," he answered almost angrily. He definitely had some issues with Ruth!

Once I started sucking on his dick again, he grabbed my head and held it still as he moved his hips back and forth, driving his dick in and out of my mouth as if he was fucking it. Ryan didn't have the biggest cock in the world, not by a long shot, but he was large enough to where I could only take about two thirds of it before it struck the back of my mouth. Feeling his cock head against my throat, he stopped his thrusts and instead he pulled my head down onto him, like he was trying to mount my head on his cock like an apple on a stick.

"Take it all, babe," he grunted, driving his dick down my throat, "take my big dick."

I tried to relax but for a moment I thought I was going to gag - or worse. Then it made it past my gag reflex and I felt my throat fill with the head of his cock. After a few seconds I needed to breath but he was pulling my face tight against his crotch, plastering his sweaty pubic hair against my cheeks and face. Finally I pulled back hard enough to get his dick from my throat and I sucked in air past his dick.

"Too much for ya babe?" he teased me. Like all men, he obviously was looking for penis reinforcement and I didn't see any reason not to give it to him. I let his dick drop from my mouth and grabbed it with my hand as I looked at him yet again.

"It's a wonderful cock... I love it," I purred as if he was the original porn star, "Give me more of it."

He certainly didn't have to be asked twice! It went back and forth, from me bobbing on his dick to him fucking my mouth. Talk about a straight BJ, it was about as exciting as watching grass grow but hey, it WAS a dick so it couldn't be all that bad, could it? As much as I liked the taste of him, there was another part of me that was craving his cock far more than my mouth.

"Fuck me... I want you to fuck me," I said, getting up from my knees with my hand still holding his cock.

For a brief moment there was look of panic on Ryan's face. Yep, I was now sure of it. Ryan hadn't cheated on his wife before, despite his bravado, and he hadn't really planned to this evening either. He had bluffed, assuming I would never go through with anything, and now that his bluff was being called, he wasn't sure how to react.

I leaned over the deck, wiggling my bare ass at him and then spreading my smooth legs apart so he had a good view of my tight asshole and wet pussy from behind. I reached between my legs and fingered my hungry pussy as he watched.

"C'mon Ryan, wouldn't you rather see your fat dick in me than my finger?"

"Oh god," was all he could say as he stared at my ass and my hand on my pussy.

"C'mon Ryan, you're not worried about that cunt Ruth, are you?" I teased him, "I just can't believe you don't want to fuck me... You DO want to fuck me, don't you?"

"God help me, I do," he replied.

Gone was all the bullying and play-acting he'd done for his friends. Obviously it was all an act for his barroom buddies. Now I was seeing him the way he REALLY was - a pussy-whipped blowhard that was so scared of his overbearing wife that he was afraid to fuck the girl of his dreams, or at least his WET dreams.

"Last chance to fuck me, Ryan," I said, delivering my ultimatum, "Do you want to feel your dick in this tight, wet college pussy or not?"

It was a calculated bluff on my part. If he only knew how I was feeling at the time, he might not feel so intimidated. The reality was that I wanted to just scream at him, to beg him to fuck me and give me his hard cock. What would he say if he knew that I wanted his wonderful dick even more than he wanted my pretty pussy. My pussy was starting to cramp again with lust as I looked behind me and saw his marvelously erect dick pointed just inches away from me - yet so far. God, what if he chickened out now? I don't think I could have handled rejection after being this close to getting what I needed.

As for what MIGHT have happened had he chickened out and not screwed me - well I'll never know - thank God! Fortunately, his instinctive male lust took over, just as it has done with every other guy I've ever been with. No man had EVER turned me down when I was determined that he was going to fuck me. usually all I had to do was say, "Fuck me" and that was the end of the debate, if there had really been one to start with.

"Oh what the hell," he sighed, more a statement than a question.

Ryan moved in behind me and without ceremony or even a little style, he rubbed his cock up against my bare ass. At first he ran it up and down my ass crack and then he lowered it down to between my legs, searching for the entrance to my anxious pussy. Impatiently I reached between my legs and took his cock head in my hand, directing it to the moist opening between my legs.

"Push it in me Ryan, push your dick inside of me" I finally begged him, "PLEASE fuck me!"

FINALLY I felt it, that incredible sensation I'd been dying for all night, that feeling I was willing to do literally anything at times to experience. There is nothing in the world that feels like the moment a hard dick forces its way between my tight wet pussy lips and then moving up inside of me, penetrating me for the first time. Paradoxically, as bad as it wants a dick, my pussy always initially tries to fight off the very thing it has been begging for, sometimes not even letting the head enter without practically bending his cock in half from the pressure.

Fortunately, in the end it always relinquishes and then the head pops in me like a vacuum cleaner was inside of my pussy, sucking it in. Think of a balloon that won't blow up. You blow so hard until your ears pop and then suddenly it gives in and swells up and everything goes in easily after that. When he first entered me it was like my crotch was being split open, my legs being forced apart. Sometimes I experience a slightly painful sensation if the guy is too big but that certainly wasn't a problem with Ryan. But then again, he was big enough for the job and that was what counted in the end.

"Oh god yes," I moaned, "That's it Ryan... Deeper... Push it deeper inside of me... ALL the way in me... Give it to me!"

His hands gripped my hips as he thrust his stiff pole deeper into me with each push. I felt the length of his shaft as it slid into me, gliding against the walls of my pussy like a bow across the strings of a violin, driving me almost insane with non-stop delight. Oh yeah, now I was glad I'd done this. It just felt SO DAMN GOOD to be fucked!

"God you're fuckin' tight," he groaned as he tried to push himself in even deeper.

Yep, tight - and proud of it! I've been fucked hundreds of times by more than 150 guys but I was still tighter than most girls my age, even those who didn't fuck a lot. Most of that I attributed to my genes as my mom, even at her age and after a kid, is tighter than most women her age - at least according to my cousin Rick and his dad. The other major factor, at least in my opinion, is my aversion to dildos, especially the monsters that some girls seem to love so much. No way was I stretching myself out to accommodate any of those nasty things. Most guys who fucked me commented on the tightness of my pussy and I was naturally quite proud of it. My dad has even told me privately that I'm tighter than my cousin Kristen and she is two years younger than me. Kristen loves dildos and has been fucked by at least twice as many guys as me - which may explain why.

I could feel Ryan's fat hairy belly hit my smooth ass as he stroked his tool in and out of me and then, as he got in deeper, his pubic hair would also brush up against my butt as if a feather duster was teasing me. What felt the best, of course, were the sensations I got from having his dick thrust up inside of me. By facing away from him, all I had to concentrate on was the feeling of him fucking me - and it was incredible!!!! Masturbation is ALWAYS good but nothing beats the feeling of a REAL dick inside of me.

"Tell me you like fucking me more than Ruth," I demanded, trying to make him admit openly about his unfaithfulness. The bastard was cheating on his wife and I wanted to make sure he knew it - as if somehow he couldn't have known what he was doing.

"You little bitch," he groaned, "You know damn well it your pussy feels better than hers."

Well, he may have thought I was a bitch, but he didn't stop fucking me, not even a slowdown.

"I want you to cum in me," I demanded again, "I want her cum... I want you to give it to me instead of your wife."

"What's with all the wife crap?" he huffed as he began to stroke himself in and out of me longer and harder.

How could I have explained to him what it meant to me to be fucked by a husband, even a lousy one such as him, while his wife sat home without a clue as to what he was doing behind her back to me? In all fairness to Ryan, how could most anyone have understood? How do I explain that it was MY ego being stroked, that it was MY emotions that were being tied in knots knowing I was able to seduce him, to get him to fuck me against his better judgment. Did he have any idea of how it felt to be the first girl he had fucked other than his wife since he married her (at least I was assuming it based on his actions)?

"Whatever... just fuck me and shut up," I replied, realizing I may have pushed him too far. Well, not every guy likes to be reminded about his wife when he's betraying her by fucking another girl!

"Cum in me," I panted after he had fucked me a little more, "Cum inside of me."

Even if this wasn't exactly the most thrilling screwing I'd received in terms of varied positions and style, that hadn't been my goal from the beginning. Simply put, all I wanted was to be FUCKED, nothing more, nothing less. Just the fact that his adulterous dick was inside of my pussy was enough. I didn't need to play Kuma Sutra this evening to satisfy me. This was all intended just to satisfy the most base desire any female of any species can have - the need to be mated. Anything more than that was gravy, as they say.

"No, I can't do that," he resisted, sounding a little frantic but not pulling out of me either.

"You know you want to dammit," I chastised him, "Don't you DARE pull your cock out of me. You had better cum in me you bastard."

Having made his required pitiful plea, that was last time Ryan protested and I could tell from the intensity of his breathing and thrusts that he was about to cum. It wasn't much of a surprise as I hadn't expected someone like him to last long with me in the first place. Indeed, suddenly he gasped and he squeezed my hips so hard it was a wonder he didn't bruise me as he pushed himself tight up against my ass, driving his engorged cock as deep inside of me as he could.

"Oh god!" he gasped as he started to cum in me.

It was incredible! This was the one thing that masturbation (or even a dildo) could never duplicate. There is NOTHING in the world like the sensation of feeling the warm seed of a man being literally pumped into my pussy, his penis shooting load after load of sperm into me. This was finally it, the feeling I had craved all night, the feeling of being mated, of submitting myself to a male, of accepting a part of him inside of me. Even more, with Ryan it was knowing I was effectively stealing it from his wife, taking something from him she would never have allowed me to have had she known. By cumming in me he was sealing his act of adultery, the final straw in demonstrating his lust and sexual desire for me over his own wife.

Once he had finished shooting his cum in me, Ryan pulled out almost immediately. What is it with guys? It was like his lust had been stored in his balls and now that he had cum and emptied his balls, his lust was gone as well. Ryan almost immediately began to go limp although I loved the way his dick glistened in the poor light with the mixture of male sperm and my pussy juices covering it. I turned around and reached for his dick, hoping to get a taste of it with my pussy adding to the flavor. He pushed me away, though, a look of panic on his face.

"Shit, I can't believe this," he muttered, more to himself than to me.

"What's the matter Ryan, didn't you like fucking me?" I said softly.

Ryan looked at me and shook his head, his eyes rolling to the top of his head.

"No, that IS the problem," he said so low I almost couldn't hear him. "You need to get out of here."

My pussy would have taken more. Indeed, I was starting to wonder if maybe someone else in the bar wanted to make a trip back to the office. Ryan, though, wasn't having any of that.

"Shit, hurry up and get dressed," he hissed at me, pulling his pants up as he struggled to snap them under his ponderous belly.

I only had to pull up my jeans and throw on my shirt so it wasn't like it took me that long to dress. Since he had cum in me it wasn't like I had to clean myself off the way I have to sometimes when guys cum on my face - or who knows where else. From the way it had felt when he came in me, I was pretty sure he had dumped a pretty big load in me which meant it would be draining out of me before I got home but then who would see me?

The two of us returned to the bar area where everyone looked but nobody seemed to want to say a word. Seeing their expressions, I wondered if Ryan had crossed some invisible line? It was one thing for them to all sit back each night and brag about their conquests and manliness, but another to actually DO it. Ryan had just fucked a girl, cheating on his wife, and everyone in there knew it.

Oh well, that was his problem to deal with.

3. Finishing Myself in the Parking Lot

I grabbed my jacket and went out to the parking lot again and quickly sat down inside of my car. Before starting the engine, I sat back with my head against the headrest, taking a deep breath and trying to believe that everything had actually happened. God, what had I just done? The throbbing in my pussy was enough to convince me it had not all been a dream and the warmth I felt in my belly and throughout my entire body told me it was worth it. I was about to start the car when my hand touched my crotch and I could feel the wetness through my jeans already.

I couldn't leave yet - I needed to cum. It was great being fucked but without cumming, the night still wasn't complete. I couldn't go back now for seconds so it was up to me to finish myself off. The hell with it, why not just do it now? I pulled my pants down to my ankles and started to masturbate behind the steering wheel. The leather seats of my Avalon felt cold at first but quickly warmed. My pussy was slick with his sperm as I ran my fingers over my clit. All I could think about was Ryan fucking me. God I wished he was fucking me again. Well, at least his cock. The horrible hunger I had felt for a dick was partially satisfied, enough at least to make it until I got home to my dad in the morning, but I still wanted to cum.

A few minutes later I was on the verge of an orgasm. Somehow, even with the initial surges of pleasure that were beginning to signal my orgasm, I noticed a car pulling into the parking lot. The gravel flew as the driver came to a fast halt and the door was thrown open the instant the engine stopped. In the dim light I made out a LARGE woman with a look that could kill, making a beeline for the front door of the bar. Hmmm, maybe that was Ruth? I had a feeling someone had blown the whistle on Ryan - that bartender probably. He was SUCH a weasel it wouldn't have surprised me. Had Ryan known he would do that? Was that why he had hurried me out?

Somehow the thought of Ruth barging in on her adulterous husband was all I needed to go over the top and my orgasm hit me like a loaded freight train. My pussy gushed as his sperm and my cum flowed from me like I was peeing on my seat. I could feel the wetness as it ran down my ass and then to the seat and finally under my butt, making a mess but I couldn't have cared less at the moment. The sensations that were overwhelming me were more than worth whatever short term untidiness I made of my car.

Wave after wave of pleasure flowed through me, sometimes likes waves on the beach - swelling and cresting, and then other times more like a lightning strike - brief but oh so powerful. As I came all I could think about was the feeling of Ryan's dick in me, of his adulterous cock sliding in and out of me, of his sperm spewing into me.

I might have gone on even longer but for the interruption outside. Sure enough, it must have been Ruth because she was bitching at Ryan as the two of them came out to the parking lot. God she was pissed! With my windows close it was hard to make out just what she was saying; but from the way she was gesturing and the loudness of her voice, she wasn't giving him hell just for being out late! Fortunately they got in their respective vehicles and drove off without appearing to have noticed me. Lord only knows what she would've done had she known the slut her husband had just screwed was in the car right next to hers!

I took some left-over napkins from the glove box and tried to clean up the mess under me before pulling my jeans back up. It only took a few minutes to get back to my apartment where everyone appeared to have gone to bed. Slipping into my bedroom as quietly as I could, I noticed Ali was in bed and apparently asleep. Stripping off my clothes, I dropped a t-shirt over my head and climbed in bed.

"I don't suppose you're going to tell me what you've been doing?" a muffled voice sounded in the quiet from the direction of Ali's bed. I didn't respond so she answered herself saying, "I didn't think so."

Oh well, better for her to wonder about it than to confirm it. At least I'd gotten what I needed. Of course I was still excited about going home the next day so getting to sleep took a while. As I laid in bed I contemplated my actions. Should I have tried harder to hold off until tomorrow? After all, it HAD been only twelve more hours until I was back home and could have all the cock I could handle. Well, I didn't regret it a bit as my pussy felt SO much better. It wasn't that it felt better actually, but more like you feel when you have this terrible itch and it finally goes away. As crude as it sounds, it's like that incredible sensation you feel after a good dump!

I woke up the next morning with my sheets damp underneath me from the drainage during the night but they were being washed that day anyway so it didn't matter. Ali gave me the strangest look but I just pretended nothing had happened. We both were heading home in a few hours and by the time we came back next year, hopefully she would have forgotten about it. Looking the mirror, it was almost like last night had been a dream! Had I REALLY done it? Had I REALLY gone out and just fucked the first guy I could at some sleazy bar? If it wasn't for the mess on my bed, I might have thought it really WAS a dream!

my freshman year of college. As things turned out, it was an "interesting" experience and since then I have attended several of them with her. Each was a little different and offered me a new experience. They were just fun from a sexual perspective and afterwards I was left with an empty feeling when I realized I didn't even know the names of the guys who fucked me! It wasn't that important that I remembered their names, it was the fact that they never told me that was the problem.

Like most girls I knew, Beth and I would masturbate together when we both were horny. Other than that, we had never done anything of an overtly sexual nature with each other except for some fooling around at her parties - which I don't really count. It was like it was a conscious decision that we ever discussed, it just never happened. Then one day that all changed. I was home on break during my sophomore year when we had sex for the first time in our hot tub. What really made it even more incredible was that it didn't end there. My parents came home while we were in the hot tub and to my complete shock and amazement, my dad fucked Beth right in front of me!

As much as I knew he wanted to, my dad didn't fuck me when he did Beth because there WAS one thing I had not shared with Beth - my sexual relationship with my parents. When my dad fucked her, technically he committed adultery which is why I was so shocked at the time. Until that day, throughout their marriage my parents never had sex with anyone not in their immediate family. After twenty years of marriage, I considered it one of the major reasons for the success of their marriage. At first I wasn't sure how to take it but after all, I only had one best friend and if there was anyone that my dad should be able to fuck, it was Beth.

A month later, when I was home on Christmas break, my dad did Beth again and once again, I didn't get any of his cock. I thought it would be their last time but in September of last year we both did it with my dad. It was a little scary at first as I'd never told anyone outside my family about me and my dad but in the end it was a relief to finally be able to discuss it with my best friend. Besides, seeing her watch me as I rode my dad was incredibly erotic.

As it turned out, that was the last time my dad did anything with Beth. Although neither he or my mom ever said anything to me about it, I can't help but wonder if perhaps they have had second thoughts about whether he should be fucking Beth. One thing they have both had drilled into me growing up was to be careful what doors you opened because even though you may just peek inside, unless you're ready to face whatever is on the other side, don't open the door. I wondered if perhaps my dad had chosen to shut this particular door while he still could? We have sort of avoided the subject and the whole affair has helped me to understand the wisdom in my parents' position on adultery.

Things got interesting at Beth's house last summer when she invited me over to her house to spend the night. During dinner I couldn't help but notice that Beth's dad kept sneaking looks at me. Obviously I wasn't the only one to notice because at one point Beth's mom elbowed him with a sharp, "Donald!" After her mom left for bingo later that night, I shocked Beth by returning the favor with her dad although in this case I was the one to make the first move. I was quite proud of myself, actually, as although he may have enjoyed looking at me, her dad really had no plans of actually doing anything so it took some "convincing" on my part. Beth wasn't exactly pleased with me afterwards but it was only a "notch in my belt" type of thing and I had no intention of ever doing him again so she got over it eventually and we never discussed it again.

2. Playing With Beth

Now it was almost six months later and I was finally back home for spring break. Beth was on break as well from her college so we spent lot of time shopping and just generally hanging out together. We returned to her house shortly after having lunch and when we pulled up I noticed another car in their driveway. Since both of her parents worked during the day, I wondered who it was.

"It's Tony's," she sighed a bit dramatically, "Damn, I thought he was at school today."

Tony was her younger brother. At sixteen, he was still in high school which didn't start the winter break until tomorrow – or so Beth had thought. Well, it looked like she had her dates mixed up. I loved Beth dearly but sometimes she could be pretty flighty – even if she was a brunette!

We went into the house and checked out the family room. Beth's home was a rarity in my neighborhood – a single floor ranch with a pool in the back. Most lots weren't large enough or level enough for such a house but they had one of the few exceptions. Coming in through the garage, we passed through the kitchen and then into the family room. Sure enough, planted on the floor was Tony with his X-ox controller playing some silly game on the large screen TV. He looked up just enough to see who it was and went back to his game without saying a word. Beth looked at me, rolled her eyes and led me to her bedroom where she shut the door behind us.

"He's such an idiot!" she complained, "All he does is play that stupid game day and night."

I couldn't help but take the opportunity to tweak her buttons a little. It wasn't that nice of me but then, what are best friends for?

"Well, he may be an idiot but he IS a good looking one you have to admit."

"Kelly!" Beth exclaimed as she stared at me in disbelief, "He's my sixteen year-old brother. Don't you go off and get any ideas now - hear me?"

I just grinned mischievously at her which set her off more than anything I could have said.

"I mean it Kelly. He's off limits!"

"Does he have a girlfriend?" I asked, "Has he done it yet?"

Beth knew exactly what I meant by "it" and from her expression she wasn't too pleased about my line of questions.

"Yes, he does, and yes, he has."

"Oh really? And how would his sister know THAT?" I pressed onward.

"I caught them one time in his bedroom. She was just sucking him but I am sure they were planning to go farther than that."

"God, that must have been hot to see your brother getting a BJ!" I gushed.

"C'mon Kelly, he's my brother. The last thing I need to see is THAT!"

I could tell she was getting agitated so I dropped the subject and we went back to the usual gossip and secrets we had to share from the time we had been apart. Beth was still into the party scene and she kept pressing me to go to the next one with her. She averaged about one a week which was way beyond anything I was willing to do. It had been quite a while since my last one and to be honest, the next one wasn't high on my priority list.

Beth started telling me about the last one and how many guys had fucked her and all and it all seemed so impersonal. She knew most of the people so it wasn't like they were all strangers to her like they were to me, which undoubtedly helped to some extent. Even so, after a while I would have thought she would get bored with them! Finally, just to shut her up about them I thought up a brilliant scheme - brilliant to me at least.

"OK, OK Beth, I get the picture... I tell you what - I'll come to your next one if you agree to help me with someone I want to fuck."

Beth looked at me and she was so wrapped up in the thought of taking me to her next party, she didn't think through her response.

"Sure," she agreed, "Although I can't picture who you would need my help to get you slut!"

We both laughed. Beth would often call me a slut thanks to my maneuverings with guys and I playfully called her a whore because of all the guys she fucked at her parties. We both knew it was just teasing on the other's part so neither of us took the nick=names in a bad way.

I grinned and started to speak in response when her face drained of color and her mouth gaped open wide. Somehow I had the feeling she had figured out what I was up to.

"Oh no - wait just a minute girl. You promised you wouldn't go near my dad again. Please Kelly, he couldn't look me or my mom in the eye for a week after you seduced him and he didn't even know that I knew about it!"

I just grinned at her and shook my head.

"Nope, I had someone else in mind... someone a little younger if you know what I mean."

Beth wrinkled her nose and thought for a second. I guess the idea was so foreign and unbelievable to her that she couldn't bear to think about it at first but then a frown appeared and I knew she had it figured out this time.

"Oh don't tell me you mean Tony, do you?" she said, her voice sounding more disgusted than anything else, "Christ Kelly, he's only sixteen."

"You don't have to watch if you don't want to," I assured her, "It could be just like your dad, just stay out the way and let me have a go at him."

"Yeah, but what if the little perv tells someone?" Beth mused, "God, that would be all I need. I'd never hear the end of it."

Beth dropped back on her bed, her head all but buried in her large pillows. She just stared up at the ceiling as if lost in thought. I looked at her and couldn't help but admire her large boobs, which even the sweater she was wearing couldn't begin to hide. I was barely out of a training bra when Beth was wearing a "C" cup and now she was at least a "D" or better. The amazing thing was they were still almost as firm as mine and you would hardly know it when she wasn't wearing a bra so long as she stood still! I could tell she was wearing one now from the outline through her tight sweater. I guess there was one thing about being smaller in the boob department, you didn't have to wear a bra to keep your boobs from banging around uncomfortably.

Like me, Beth was wearing jeans and she had one leg stretched out with the other bent so her foot was flat on the bed next to her other knee. Her arms were at her sides and if she hadn't been breathing and staring upwards, you might have thought she was out cold! It had been quite a while since the two of us had played around - at least on a sexual sense, and the more I looked at her the more appetizing she became. Hmmm, maybe there was a way to convince her to go along with my idea after all!

I laid down beside her on my side with one arm over her stomach just below her boobs and one leg draped over her outstretched leg. I nuzzled my face up to her neck and through her hair until I could just touch her neck with my tongue. I gently flicked my tongue on her neck and then ran it up to her ear and around her earlobe. At first she didn't move a muscle but then when I started to softly kiss the side of her neck, she couldn't stay quiet any longer.

"Mmmmmmm, what have you got on your mind girl?" she whispered softly.

"You," was all I said in response before my mouth went back to work on her hair.

"Don't start anything you're not ready to finish," she warned me.

"Oh I won't," I replied with a little giggle.

My hand moved upwards until it held her breast through her sweater and bra. God her tits were incredible! They were so large that I couldn't cup them completely and they felt impossible firm in my hand. All that clothing couldn't hide the hardening of her nipples under my fingers, though, as I gently rubbed them through her garments.

"Ohhhhhhhhh Kelly," Beth moaned softly as she began to squirm almost imperceptibly.

I reached down lower and pushed my hand up and under her sweater, reaching up underneath until once again could fondle her breasts. For a while I rubbed them through her bra until I reached under the bottom elastic and pulled it up and over her breasts. It was pretty tight around her in the process but once it was up and over it stayed tight above her cleavage. I couldn't see anything, of course, but my hand felt the softness of her breasts and the warmth they generated.

"That feels soooooo good Kelly," Beth whispered. She had closed her eyes and was just lying there now, by her silence signaling to me that she was allowing me to do anything I wanted to her.

I pulled her sweater up and this time she gave me a little help as it was bulkier than it looked. It was now all bunched up under her neck along with her bra, revealing her breast and flat stomach to me. Her jeans were cut pretty low so her belly button was well above the waist. Beth had a perfect figure and her soft yet perfectly flat stomach felt so good as I ran my fingertips around and over it. I shifted my position so my head could move down lower and soon her beautiful breasts were right below my face. I blew softly on her nipple and was rewarded by her chest pushing upward, as if she was trying to will me to take her into my mouth.

"Suck my breasts, Kelly," she whispered softly to me, "Bite my nipples."

I looked up at her and her head was back with her eyes closed. I wondered what she was thinking about. Was it really me or someone else. Since she wasn't watching me, I assumed she was dreaming about someone else. It didn't bother me so much as made me curious. Who would Beth be dreaming about while I was fondling her? As I said, it really didn't matter so I lowered my head and took her nipple between my lips and gently pulled on it, then sucking it into my mouth and letting my tongue play over it. Beth gasped and I sucked harder on as much of her boob as I could get into my mouth - which wasn't a large percentage, I can assure you.

As I licked and sucked on her closest breast, my free hand held the other, squeezing and massaging it. They were so much bigger than mine, which I could cup in one hand. The softness and warmth of them felt good against my hand and mouth. As I touched her, I wiggled up closer to her until our bodies were pressed tightly together. My upper leg was wrapped around her and I used it to pull myself even tighter against her such that my crotch was pressed up against her hip. I instinctively ground my crotch against her, slowly rotating my hips to rub my pussy through my jeans against her.

Beth remained still, her hands to her side and her eyes closed. I wanted her more with each passing minute. This was the girl I rode bikes with as a girl, giggle with as we talked about boys for the first time, shared some of my most intimate thoughts and feelings as we both went through puberty and the pains and joys of teenage life. I knew her so well in so many ways but could count on one hand how many times I had known her physically in this way. Actually, on just a couple of fingers for that matter.

It was a bit odd, I guess, when you look at it. For most people, having sex with your parents or brother is something they would never think of because they were so close. For me, having a sexual relationship with my parents just seemed the natural thing to do yet when it came to Beth, the one person outside of my family that I was closest to, the thought of having sex with her was one of those things that I never really even considered. Oh well, someday maybe some shrink will have a field day trying to figure me out!

As much as I was enjoying her boobs, the feelings that were rising in me drove me to take my hand from her breast and work its way slowly down her bare torso to her belly button where I playfully tickled her. Beth giggled softly and then I pressed my fingers between her jeans and body. They were so tight that I couldn't reach very far but it signaled my intent.

Beth was breathing harder and I continued to suckle her nipple like a hungry baby on a bottle. Pulling my hand back out, I worked on undoing her jeans but they were hard to deal with using only one hand. I was pleased when Beth's hands pushed my gently out of the way and she unbuttoned the tops and unzipped them for me. She finally dropped her raised leg and lifted her hips up off the bed enough for the two of us to pull her jeans down off her hips. As they opened up, I was amused to see she was wearing plain old white cotton panties. Obviously she hadn't been expecting to be revealing them to anyone today! No matter; they wouldn't be on her for long.

Beth kicked off her jeans and I got up on my knees and reached over her to grab her panties on both sides of her waist and pulled them down and off her legs as she lifted her hips up to help me again. I looked down and drew in a breath as I gazed at her incredible figure. Growing up, I'd always been jealous of Beth's body. Wherever we went, the mall, the beach, anywhere, the guys always looked at her first and then me. She had the legs I would have given anything for, the incredible hourglass figure, the perfect skin tone. The more I looked at her, the more I wanted to touch her, taste her, feel her against me.

Moving to the end of the bed, I gently pushed her legs apart and crawled up between them. For the first time, I saw her looking down at me, a weird smile on her face as she looked over her bunched up sweater and bra. I grinned back at her as I put my arms in and under her legs, lifting her ass up off the bed and onto my forearms. Her pussy was already wet and gleamed in front of me. Beth had a dark landing strip of pubic hair that she kept trimmed short leading from the top of her pussy slit to her bikini line. At the moment, it was like an arrow pointing me to her beautiful pussy.

I lowered my head down close to her crotch and I could smell the scent of her pussy. God it smelled so good! I rubbed my cheek up against the smooth skin of her inner thigh, kissing her leg gently, allowing my tongue to just touch her now and then. Slowly, very slowly, I worked my way up her thigh until I felt my other cheek against her crotch. Turning my head, my face was directly on top of her cunt and I couldn't hold back any longer.

My tongue reached out and I licked her from her pussy hole to the top of her slit, just missing her clit to tease her a little bit. Back down I went until I was over her clit and I let my tongue flatten down against it. Beth moaned and her hips moved slightly under my mouth as I took her clit between my lips and pulled on it gently.

"Oh Kelly, that feels so good," Beth moaned softly. She reached to her sweater and pulled it up and over her head such that she was now completely nude on the bed. As for me, I still was fully clothed but at the moment it didn't matter. I was going to eat out my best friend's pussy whether I was clothed or not.

My hands were cupping her ass and I lifted her as best I could upwards as my mouth pressed down against her. She tasted so sweet and strong! I have loved the taste of a pussy from the first time I sucked on my fingers after touching myself. Overall, I would have to choose a cock over a pussy if I was forced to make such a terrible decision; but I love eating out a girl and to have a pussy as sweet as Beth's was a dream come true. My tongue pushed up into her cunt as far as I could reach and I wiggled it like a little worm was in her. Beth was moaning almost constantly now, not really saying anything intelligible but rather just a low series of moans and groans as she twisted from side to side. I looked up at her and she had her eyes closed again, concentrating on what was happening between her legs while she played with her boobs.

"Oh god, I'm gonna cum," she struggled to say, "That's it Kelly, right there, don't stop!"

My tongue was working over her clit at that moment so kept it moving against her enlarged clit while my fingers worked their way into her pussy. I stroked two fingers in and out of her as my tongue pressed tightly against her clit when her back arched and I could feel her ass clench in my hands.

"Oh my god!" she repeated over and over as my face was awash in her pussy cum as Beth's orgasm rolled through her. Her hips began to buck up and down as if she was being fucked and it was all I could do to keep my mouth on her.

"Fuck me Kelly... oh shit fuck me!" she panted.

She was starting to get louder and for a brief second I wondered if Tony could hear here but Beth's bedroom was at the end of the hallway, far enough from the family room that we could have probably left the door open and he wouldn't have heard anything. Oh well, so what if he did? Most guys seem to get off watching two girls together and I doubted Tony was an exception, even if one of the girls was his own sister.

My face was covered with her cum and I lapped up as much of it as possible but Beth was quite the "gusher", even by my standards, and I imagined there was probably a growing wet spot on her bedspread. Eventually she began to calm down and finally I lifted my face from her crotch and looked up at her with a big grin on my face.

"Feel better?" I asked softly.

Beth reached her arms out to me and I moved alongside of her again. It felt a little strange to lay there with all my clothes on and her completely naked but I figured that would be rectified sooner or later. She turned to me on her side and we held each other in our arms, two best friends enjoying one another. We kissed and her face was wet with the pussy cum from my face.

"Mmmmmmm, I can taste myself on you," Beth murmured.

Amazingly, I know some girls who can't stand the scent or taste of their pussies but that didn't apply to Beth or me. When we masturbated together over the years we both would finger ourselves and then lick the pussy juices off our fingers. It was always just our own - we didn't lick the other's fingers, but it was still fun to watch. I liked what we were doing now - letting her taste herself by kissing me and licking my face. I couldn't wait for when I could taste myself on her!

3. Horny For Beth's Brother

We just kissed and snuggled for a while, not in any hurry to do anything else at the moment, just content with the way things were. I became more conscious of my clothes but another idea was forming in my mind that coincided with other feelings inside of me. I'd just been home a few days now and although my dad had fucked me already a number of times, I hadn't had anybody from outside my family and I was horny as hell. Letting my dad fuck me was more for him than me. Of course I enjoyed it but he was still my dad and when I was with him I was always conscious that I was his daughter so it wasn't like I could feel I was in control or manipulating him.

When I have sex with regular guys, I need to be in control - even if I let him THINK he is. I love manipulating men, pushing their envelopes so to say, to see what they will do to have sex with me. That's why I love having sex with married men, because I know they are making the ultimate betrayal of their wedding vows, vows they made to their spouse and God, just because they want me so badly. It makes me feel so sexy and frankly, is a hell of an ego booster for those times when you're feeling down!

"I need to be fucked," I whispered to Beth.

"Well, let's get you undressed then so I can take care of you," Beth replied in a low husky voice.

"No, you don't understand, I need to be fucked... I need a dick in me."

"Want one of my dildos?"

"Beth, I am so fucking horny now... I NEED a man to fuck me, a real cock, something to cum inside of me."

It was like I was pleading with her now and in a sense I was. My pussy was throbbing now and it hadn't even been touched yet. The last thing I needed was some cold piece of plastic shoved up inside of me. No, I needed a warm hard cock to fill me with sperm and mate with me. I needed a man to want me, someone that would just fuck me like a slut. There are times when you just need sex, not love, not intimacy, just pure lustful sex and I was trying to get Beth to understand.

"So what do you want then girl?" Beth asked, a puzzled look on her face, "Go out and find someone or what?"

I hesitated a moment and took in a deep breath. "Well, if I'm not mistaken, there's a nice cock just down the hallway."

"KELLY!" Beth hissed at me, "I thought we already discussed him."

I pressed my crotch up against her and squirmed. "I know, I know... you don't have to be involved, just let me go."

"What makes you so sure he'll do it?" she asked. Then her eyes rolled and she sighed, "Sorry, that was stupid."

I grinned at her and giggled a little. I wasn't sure if she meant that of course he would want to fuck me or that she knew even if he didn't, that I would be able to convince him just as I had his dad that time. Either way, the end was the same so I didn't press her for more details.

Beth kissed me passionately again and then pulled her head back and looked me straight in the eyes.

"OK, one on condition though and NO negotiating. No more sex with anyone in my family - got it? That means never ever again."

I smiled, glad to have overcome her resistance but I couldn't resist teasing her a little as well.

"Oh? I thought maybe I'd see what you mom was interested in sometime?"

Beth realized I was just joking but she playfully smacked me in the cheek anyway.

"Yeah, right, now THAT would be beyond even your talents," she said, shaking her head. Her mom was about as far from being bisexual as anyone I knew except maybe my Aunt Shari but at the same time, the gauntlet was being thrown and for just a second, I wondered if I COULD seduce her mom but that idea quickly faded away to be stored in my closet of dreams that would never be fulfilled. I was just happy that Beth was willing to go along with me doing her brother.

"Well, you better get going then. I'll stay here though - I can't even imagine seeing my brother doing you," she said, shaking like she was shivering at the grotesqueness of the very thought of watching her brother in a sexual way. Maybe it would be different if I had actually grown up with a brother but for me, I would think it would be cool to see your brother screwing another girl - and even better if he was doing me!

I gave her one last kiss and got off the bed. I opened the door and turned back to give her a wink and then with a little wave of my hand I stepped into the hallway and closed the door behind me. My face still felt wet and as much as it would have been fun to let Tony see me this way, it might have been a little over the top when it came to getting things rolling so I went into the bathroom across the hallway.

Looking into the mirror, I realized it was a good thing I'd done so as my hair was a wreck and my face glistened with its coat of pussy cum. In an act of compromise, I wiped my face and hands off with a towel but didn't wash them, thus drying myself off but leaving most of the strong scent of Beth's pussy on me like a sensual perfume. I brushed my hair out until lit looked reasonably straight, pulled at my clothes to get them back in shape and took one last look in the mirror. I saw a horny girl that needed to be fucked so rather than waste any more time, I stepped confidently out of the bathroom and worked my way down to the family room.

Amazingly, or maybe not, Tony was in exactly the same position as when I last saw him. It was like time had stopped in the family room while Beth and I had out fun. I had no idea how anyone could be THAT involved in a silly computer game! Tony glanced up to see who was coming in and when he saw it was me, he just turned back to his game and ignored me.

I guess I shouldn't have expected anything less. Over the years I'd been over at Beth's house countless times and so it wasn't like I was a stranger to him or anything. If anything, he was probably NOT thrilled to see me as Beth and I had not exactly been kind to him over the years. He was five years younger than us, making that ten years in teenage boy time, and until recently, had been more of an immature jerk than anything. I had to admit, though, that since his sixteenth birthday he had grown up quite a bit - in more ways than one. There was a certain mental maturity although he WAS still just sixteen which made him pretty much just above the maturity of your average dog but that was only getting batter as time went on.

The most impressive changes were in his physique. He wasn't exactly going to be a body builder but he had joined the school wresting tem and the workouts were having an obvious effect on him. I sat down on the couch behind him and tried to figure out what he was doing on the TV. Frankly it made no sense to me but then I wasn't really all that interested in it anyway. No, my interest were more in what was between those legs that were spread out behind him!

To be honest, this was more of a challenge than what you might think. Normally, it is the guy who's after me and I'm the one doing the controlling and manipulating. Since I already know he wants to fuck me, I get to decide whether or not to just give him a hand-job, blow him, and ultimately, if he gets to fuck me. With Tony, things were a little different. Granted, he was a boy and would probably fuck any girl that offered herself to him without a moment's hesitation, but I was still his sister's best friend, not to mention Beth claimed he had a girlfriend with which I had no idea how deeply he was involved. It wasn't that I thought he would turn me down because her was "in love: with his girlfriend; heck, if I can get a man who has been faithful to his wife for twenty years to do me then Tony would be like shooting fish in a barrel.

The issue was how to initiate things. I guess one possibility would be to just strip and offer myself to him. Actually, that would probably work as well as anything but then it would be like I was giving in to him and submitting myself to him. That would never do as there was only one man in the world I willingly submit myself to, and that is my father.

It wasn't like I had all day so sooner or later I was going to have to make my decision. One way or another, I needed a good fucking and the thought of getting it from Beth's brother just made me all the more horny. It was just getting laid - one nice thing about being home from school was that here I have friends I can call if I ever get THAT desperate. I wanted it from Tony because he was Beth's brother. It was the same way I felt when I contemplated fooling around with her dad. He certainly wasn't the most sexy guy in the world, to say the least!

The whole point in getting him to do me was because he was married to my best friend's mom which meant all sorts of good things to me. First, he was married - always a good sign. Second, he had never cheated on his wife - all the better because what fun was it if he didn't feel guilty about it later? Third, he was Beth's dad and since she had been fucked by my dad I only thought it was fair that her dad should do me.

The clock was still ticking and all it seemed I could do was sit and daydream. I shook my head and felt this sense of determination inside me. It was time to act! Just then a light bulb went on over my head. Suddenly it was crystal clear to me what I could do to get Tony's attention and it had been right in front of me the whole time! I got up and off the couch and laid down next to him on the carpet floor. I wasn't pressed against him but at the same time, I was pretty close.

"This look pretty easy," I said in an off-hand manner, "Can I try it?"

"Wait a minute," Tony said gruffly, a hint of annoyance in his tone.

His hands were flying over the controller and to be honest, it looked anything BUT easy to play. I had never gotten into the action video games, preferring a good book or a video for entertainment, so I watched him and tried to figure out what he was doing. If nothing else, it looked horribly violent as he kept shooting at people, killing them or maiming them as he worked his way through the game.

"C'mon Tony, I want to try," I whined and pouted.

Tony just ignored me at first but then apparently he must have reached some place of sanctuary because he hit a button and the game paused. Then he did something else that must have saved where he was because he reset it and it was back to the start screen. Tony turned to me and handed me the controller with a grin.

"Well, if it's so easy, let me see you do it then."

I didn't even know how to start the game and he quickly sized up the situation and grabbed the controller from my hand.

"Girls!" was all he said as he huffed under his breath.

"Please! Gimme a break, at least get me started," I pouted some more.

"Yeah? And what do I get out of it?" he retorted. Typical sixteen year-old boy, only thinking about himself with a hint of care for anyone else.

"Name it," I replied, challenging him with a sly grin. I put one finger to my lips and smiled at him as seductively as I could.

"Hmmm, now THAT sounds interesting," he said as he turned to face me.

I noticed his eyes were giving me the once over, stopping briefly at my breasts and then again at my crotch. He was interested in me, that was for sure, but I could tell he wasn't quite sure if I was just teasing him or being real. Couldn't really blame him after the way Beth and I had treated him as we were growing up. I figured he needed further encouragement so I unbuttoned the next two buttons on my blouse, letting it spread open and show about my half my boobs underneath.

"Does this make it any more interesting," I said softly, licking my lips for him seductively.

"Naaaa, I'm not falling for THAT one again," he said, laughing a bit at what he must have thought was a joke I was playing on him. Then I remembered how Beth and I had teased him terribly a couple of years ago, pretending to be strippers in front of him. Of course we didn't show him anything but he got hard just the same despite himself and we both teased him for getting turned on by me and his sister. He was SO embarrassed at the time! Well, who could blame him for thinking I was just setting him up again. Yep, more persuasion was in order if I was to have any hopes of getting laid this afternoon.

"So what would it take to convince you I'm not teasing this time?"

Tony looked at me with his eyes squinting a bit, as if he was trying to see inside of me as if there was some way he could figure out if I was telling the truth.

"Well, you could always strip," he said half-heartedly. It was if he didn't expect me to say yes to anything he asked so why not just ask the most outrageous thing he could think of. Well, was he in for a surprise!

"OK," was all I said in a flippant way, as if he had asked me to get him a drink of water. I stood up and started to unbutton my blouse the rest of the way. Tony sat up with his legs crossed under him and arms folded, staring at me with a strange look on his face. It was almost like he was waiting for someone to yell, "surprise!" because in his mind there was no way this could really be happening.

I pulled my blouse out of my jeans and undid the last button. It was now hanging open, barely covering my boobs. I stood facing him with one hand holding each side of the blouse and grinned at Tony.

"Still think this is just a tease Tony?"

"Well, so far you haven't shown anything, just teasing as usual," he said with his arms folded in a defensive posture. God, had Beth and I been THAT bad to him? Any other guy would be up on his feet trying to get my clothes off of me but poor Tony was acting more scared than anything, as if he was waiting for the other shoe to drop and somehow be embarrassed once again by his sister's best friend. I bent my knees and lowed myself down until I was face to face with Tony, just a foot or so away. I took in a deep breath and pulled my blouse open, revealing my bare breasts to him. Needless to say, I wasn't wearing a bra so he had a full view of my 34C boobs, complete with nipples that were already beginning to poke out and harden.

"So Tony, what do you think now?" I asked him seductively.

Tony's eyes were the size of saucers now. His mouth was slightly open and he wasn't moving a muscle. I think he was caught completely off-guard and had never expected me to do anything for real.

"You said you wanted me to strip... Do you want me to keep going Tony?"

Tony just stuttered and stammered and it took all my self-control not to laugh at him. Instead, I just shushed him and dropped my blouse to the floor, leaving me topless with just my jeans and socks. My hands cupped my breasts as I watched his eyes staring at them.

"Like my breasts Tony?"

The way Tony's eyes were fixated on them, the answer was obvious!

"So tell me Tony, are your girlfriend's breasts as good as mine?" I asked him softly as I massaged my boobs slowly for him to watch. My nipples were like little bullets as I tugged on one and then the other with my fingertips.

on with it. Still, it was sort of fun to play this little game with him so I continued a little more.

"Does she suck your dick?" I asked, my tongue running over my lips sensuously.

"Noooooo, she thinks oral sex is dirty," he said with a lower tone to his voice. Well, at least it was more than one word back to me.

"Does she play with herself for you to watch?"

Tony looked at me with an odd expression.

"Oh no, she would NEVER do anything like that!" he exclaimed.

"Do you wish she would?" I tempted him.

"Well... I guess so," he replied, a little uncertain as to where this was all going but I had a plan up my sleeve (or I would have if I had been wearing something!).

"You wanna watch me play with myself?" I offered. Just the thought of it had my pussy tingling but when I said it aloud to him it was like someone had lit a match in my crotch as I felt my pussy getting wetter and hotter by the minute.

Tony suddenly seemed to drawback just a little, as if he was wondering if I was just teasing him again and perhaps this was all an elaborate trap after all. Talking to him more probably wasn't going to change his mind at all so I figured the best thing to do would be to just do it. I sat down on the couch, rearranged the pillows a bit and laid back against the side arm with a couple of pillow to support me. I kept one leg draped over the side of the couch with my foot almost touching the floor and lifted my other leg up on top of the back of the couch.

"Sit over there," I said, pointing my finger to the opposite side of the couch.

Tony stood up and I couldn't help but notice his jeans had a significant bulge in the crotch, so much so that he had to pull up his pants a bit to rearrange himself. I have never understood how guys deal with that thing sticking out between their legs in the first place, especially when it was as stiff as his seemed to be now.

"You know Tony, sometimes I like to watch myself play in the mirror... Will you be my mirror?" I teased him. It was a corny line, actually one I remembered from watching one of my dad's porn movies so it wasn't even original but I doubted Tony had heard it before. Even if he dad - so what?

Tony was sitting sideways on the couch, one leg underneath him with the other over the side and his foot on the floor. From the time he moved from the floor to the couch, I don't think he blinked or took his eyes off of me once. Sitting where he, Tony had a straight-on view of my open pussy as I started to slowly masturbate for him. God, it felt so good to finally touch myself! My pussy felt warm and already a bit wet when my fingers ran over it and when I pushed my index finger inside it slide in easily. Drawing my wet finger out, I used it to lubricate my clit and upper pussy slit and started to run little circles around it.

"Does Michelle let you touch her pussy?" I asked him softly.

Tony stuttered so badly at first he couldn't get two consecutive words out but finally he composed himself enough to answer.

"Yeah, she lets me," he answered in a hoarse voice.

"Would you like to touch my pussy?" I teased him gently. Tony didn't even try to speak after that question but instead just nodded his head vigorously. Well, it wasn't going to be THAT easy for him! He started to lean forward as if he was expecting me to tell him to touch me but instead, I waved him back.

"Not so fast, I want you to just watch me," I said with a grin and then added, "for now, that is."

For the next fifteen minutes or so I masturbated on the couch while Tony watched me intently. I guess I could have sped things up but honestly, I love to masturbate and having my best friend's younger brother watch me was a major turn-on. I came twice; both times were average so far as orgasms go but there is no such things as a mild one - by definition. Other than some moans of mine, a few of which Beth must have heard even at the end of the hall with her door closed, neither of us said a word. Most of the time I had my eyes closed as I remember what I had done with her dad on this very same couch! What would Tony say if he knew that his dear old dad had fucked me almost in the very spot he was sitting now!

"Do you want to taste my pussy?" I asked him after my second orgasm had waned.

Tony's eyes widened and subconsciously he licked his lips in anticipation. Compared to your average girl, guys were not the best pussy-lickers in the world and with no prior experience, I had no expectations that Tony was going to dazzle me with his technique or anything. That didn't matter to me. What turned me on the most was the anticipation of knowing my pussy would be the first one his mouth had ever touch,, the first his tongue would ever taste, I used my finger to tell him to get over on my side of the couch.

"Touch me," I commanded him. He seemed scared stiff but not TOO scared to do what I told him to do. Tony scooted over closer to me and when he was within arm's reach of my crotch and stretch out his hand towards my pussy.

"Get closer, silly," I encouraged him, "Just rub me the way you saw me doing myself."

Surprisingly, the boy had been paying attention in more ways than one. He went straight for my clit, probably because that is where I had paid the most attention to myself when I was masturbating.

"That's it, Tony, you know what to do now," I encouraged him, "Oh yeah, right THERE!"

I let him play with my pussy for a while. He probably would have been satisfied with just that but not me. No, I had more plans for Tony than to just be touched by him. There was the matter of that even larger bulge now in his crotch that was begging for my attention. That would come soon enough, a few more things to teach him first, though.

"OK Tony, put your finger up inside of me," I told him. He gingerly inserted his fingertip into my pussy. Fortunately, he had no nails so I wasn't going to be scratched up the way some guys had a tendency to do.

"Push it in and out of me Tony, like it was fucking me," I instructed him, "That's a good boy.. put another one in me now.

Tony pushed a second finger in me and it slid easily into my soaking wet cunt. It felt better to have the two of them in me instead of just one skinny finger. I could have probably taken a third one easily, maybe even a fourth, but for now the two of them felt too damn good to do anything that might make them atop for even a moment. I reached down and started to play with my clit as he fucked me with his fingers and soon was on the verge of my third orgasm.

"Oh god, I'm gonna cum again Tony," I panted, "Don't stop now... Oh my god, don't you even dare think of stopping now... OH MY GOD!"

With that the best orgasm of the afternoon struck me and I came and gushed pussy cum all over his fingers and hand. All the while I kept calling out his name, telling him how wonderful he was making me feel.

"Oh Tony, that felt so good," I sighed as I went limp on the couch. He still had his fingers ion me, as if waiting for my permission to withdraw them.

"Taste your fingers Tony... See what I taste like."

Tony put his fingers to his nose, took a whiff of my pussy juices on them and then shrugged and put his fingers in his mouth. He grinned as he licked my cum off his fingers.

"Taste good Tony?" I asked him.

"Mmmmmmm," was all Tony had to say which told me enough.

"Lick my pussy now," I told him, holding my pussy lips apart with both hands. My crotch was soaked by now and I could only imagine the mess I was leaving on the couch but who cared? Tony slowly moved his head down towards my pussy. I could tell he wasn't quite sure about doing this but he was too horny to say no to me about anything so I was going to take advantage of the situation.

"Just lick it with your tongue Tony... right here," I said softly as I pointed to my clit with my finger. Tony's tongue reached and just barely touch me but it was enough to make me jump a little and he quickly pulled his head back.

"Don't stop.. it's OK," I assured him, "It felt good."

Tony looked up at me and I smiled as our eyes met. Then he looked back down at my pussy and started to lick it slowly with his tongue. God it felt so good to feel his wet tongue on me!

"Suck on it softly," I instructed him, "Not TOO hard... that's better."

It didn't take long for Tony's inhibitions to melt away and soon he was like a kitten with his first bowl of milk. He wrapped his arms around my legs and his hands gripped my ass under me. They felt so strong and firm as he held my bare butt in his hands and squeezed my ass.

In the meantime, I started to play with my boobs as his wonderful tongue worked its way around my wet pussy. My nipples were SOOOO sensitive that combined with Tony's tongue on my pussy I was soon feeling my orgasm beginning to build inside of me. Suddenly it struck and I gasped as my pussy felt like it was on fire. My hips pushed upwards against his face and I gripped my boobs tightly as I moaned loudly. At first I couldn't even breath but finally something had to give and I sucked in a huge breath and groaned even louder than before.

"Oh my God Tony, don't stop... don't stop now!" I begged him as I felt my pussy gushing, covering his face with my cum. I wasn't sure if he understood what it was but he didn't seem to mind and kept licking me all the more.

"Fuck me Tony," I pleaded with him. I had originally intended to suck his cock for a while before we got down to actually fucking but I couldn't wait any longer. I wanted his cock so bad at that moment I wanted to scream for him to put it in me. Tony looked up at me, a look of uncertainty in his eyes.

"Don't just look at me, dammit... fuck me," I said in a more firm voice, "Put you cock in me before I go nuts!"

have been if Beth had joined in. God, it would've been incredibly hot if just as he as pushing himself deeper inside of me, his sister surprised him and let him fuck her after he was done with me. Well, it made for a good fantasy and a few times I thought I heard a noise from the hallway but when I looked there was nothing there and I knew it was just the workings of my overactive imagination but it still made me horny as hell!

Meantime, I felt Tony's crotch pressing up against my mine and the feeling of his cock deep inside of me made me shudder with excitement. At first he just held it still inside of me and even though I was bucking a bit underneath of him, I could still feel the throbbing of his pulse as his dick throbbed within my pussy.

"Oh yes Tony... now THIS is what I've been craving," I whispered in his ear. Tony just looked at me silently. His face was beaming, though, and I could tell from the way he was involuntarily starting to thrust slightly in and out of me that his male instincts were about to take over.

"Fuck me now... Oh god Tony... let me feel you move in and out of me." Once he got started, Tony went to work on my pussy, thrusting himself in and out of me like a piston on a train. Our hips moved together, pulling away from each other and then ramming ourselves back together again. Over and over and over again he filled me with his cock, only to pull it most of the way out again before shoving it back in. A couple of times he managed to accidentally slip out of me but I quickly reached down and guided him back in again and he barely missed a beat in the process. His movements were becoming faster and his breathing more labored. Usually that meant only thing - Tony was about to cum.

"Cum in me Tony... I want you to cum inside me."

Tony's movements slowed for a second as he looked down at me with almost a look of panic.

"It's OK, you can cum inside my pussy."

Tony started to say something but I cut in before he could say anything saying, "Haven't you ever cum in a girl before Tony?"

I knew the answer but I wanted him to say it anyway.

"Nnnnnnno," he stammered.

"Trust me Tony, it's ok."

To escalate the matter I wrapped my legs around his waist, pulling him into me like I was trying to shimmy up a palm tree. Tony seemed to accept the inevitable and he went back to work, pumping me like a jack hammer, relentless and hard. Finally it happened and I felt his ass punch into me as suddenly a faint feeling of warmth emerged inside of me, like a flower blooming in the wilderness and I knew I was feeling his sperm emptying into me. Instinctively he drive himself as deep as he could into me, trying to mate with me, trying to inject his seed ad deep into my empty womb as possible. As I was on the pill, his sperm was facing a hopeless quest, doomed to failure before they even started their journey, but what did that matter? This was one time when good intentions were good enough!

"Yes Tony, fuck me, cum in me... oh god I can feel you cumming inside of me," I moaned as I wrapped my arms around him and pulled him down on top of me.

My breasts were crushed against his firm, hairless chest and I could feel the heat of his body as we molded together as if one body. This was the moment I had been waiting for, the moment I had been dreaming of. As much as I loved being intimate with a girl, as much as I enjoyed masturbation, this was the one thing only a man could do for me - to fill me with his cum until it dripped from my pussy.

The last few loads of sperm erupted from Tony's cock and it was like he collapsed on top of me in exhaustion. He was too big and heavy to stay on top of me so I pushed him over and on his side like a sack of potatoes only this one had a cock still in me so as he turned over his dick slipped out of me and glistened in the light with my pussy juices covering it. He actually fell to the floor next to the couch but it didn't seem to bother him and I turned on my side to look down at him as he laid there on his back with his arms stretched out above him and his legs flat on the floor. His cock was still hard, for that matter the only thing about him that seemed to have any stiffness. I put my hand to cup my pussy and I sighed deeply as I felt his cum draining from me and covering my hand. He just lay there, eyes closed and chest heaving as if he had just finished running a marathon or something.

The more I looked at his, athletic nude body below me, the more I wanted more of it. He may have been finished after fucking me but I certainly wasn't finished with him - not by a long shot! I got off the couch, stepping over Tony as I did and pulled a couple of pillows down and laid them on the floor next to Tony's prone body. Kneeling down on one of the pillows, I reached out with my hand and grabbed his still incredibly hard cock. God, you had to love the resilience of a horny sixteen year-old boy! Had it been my dad, he would have been asleep with his cock already shriveled down to next to nothing by now. In contrast, while Tony may have been working on catching his breath, sleep was about the last thing on his mind and his cock was still as hard as it was when he first entered me. I wasn't about to let such an opportunity go to waste so I leaned over and took the head in my mouth. Tony shuddered as I sucked gently on the head of his cock.

"Oh wow, that feels good," he managed to croak out.

I held his cock in my hand again and looked up at his face where he was watching my every move.

"You like your cock to be sucked, eh Tony?" I teased him gently. I wasn't trying to play hard to get or anything, I just wanted him to tell me how much he wanted me to suck him.

"Always wondered what it would be like...," he said on almost a dream state as I stroked his cock slowly with my hand.

I took his head again in my mouth except this time I let my tongue go to work on it, running the tip of it around the soft smooth head of his dick. Damn he tasted good! Most of the flavor was my own pussy which I always loved to taste, either on my fingers, a face, but especially on a dick like this. Knowing he had just been inside of me and that the smell and flavor was a mixture of my pussy with his cum was almost overwhelmingly erotic.

"OHHHHHHHHH!," he cried out suddenly as I took all of him in my mouth until he was practically down my throat and I had my face buried in his smelly pubic hair. I grinned to myself, thinking that Beth HAD to have heard that and I wondered if she was wondering herself what was going on between me and her youngest brother.

God, how could she be resisting joining us? Many times I had dreamed of what it would be like to have a brother and how it would have been to let him fuck me as much as he wanted. I would masturbate thinking of my dad fucking me while my imaginary brother fucked our mother. I know my mom would have wanted it - heck, she had TOLD me so enough times!

One good thing about letting Tony fuck me before I blew him was that it helped him to have a little more stamina in terms of holding off cumming. The first time had been pretty quick and while I still loved it, it would have been Ok with me if he had held off awhile longer. If I'd started out sucking him like this, no doubt he would have already cum in my mouth! As it was, I was able to enjoy sucking him for almost ten minutes before I felt his ass tightening and his balls pulling up against him.

This time I didn't have to say anything, I just kept my mouth clamped on his cock like a hose as he came once again. It was almost as much as the first time and I felt my mouth quickly filling with his bitter sperm. Somehow I managed to keep it all in, though, and after about six or seven loads he stopped jerking and I had his entire load in my mouth.

Lifting my head off of him, I turned to face him and opened my mouth so he could see his sperm pooled on my tongue. I couldn't really say anything so I just smiled and closed my mouth. Rather than just swallowing it down, I leaned over his STILL erect cock and let the sperm drip from my mouth and down to cover his cock. Once it had a nice coating, I leaned down further and sucked it all off once again.

I repeated it again and this time when I sucked it up I swallowed it down in several gulps. Once the last of it had been cleaned up by my tongue and my mouth was relatively clear of it (if you ever had a mouthful of cum, you know that no matter how much you try, you can never get ALL of it out of your mouth until you finally get to have a drink or something else to wash it out your mouth), I sat up on my knees and looked down at him. He just had this look of total bliss on his face so I let him lay there and stood up. Gathering up my clothes, I held them in a bundle and nudged him with my foot.

"Well Tony, I hope you remember me next time you're with Michele," I said seductively.

Tony just sighed and I doubted he had the energy left to reply even if he knew what to say. I blew him a kiss and returned to Beth's room where I found her on her bed, still nude and still playing with herself. God, had she been masturbating the entire time I had been fucking her brother?

"Damn girl, you STILL going at it?"

Beth gave me a sly look and I knew something was up. She hadn't been fingering herself for the last hour so, so what HAD the little minx been doing? Suddenly it dawned on me and I dropped my clothes in a heap as I jumped up in bed with her.

"You little slut, you watched me fuck your brother, didn't you?" I accused her, "I bet that was you I heard in the hallway, wasn't it?"

Beth actually denied that part but she couldn't lie to me about the rest.

"I couldn't help myself, I hated myself for doing it but I HAD to see what was happened once I heard you getting off." Beth rolled her eyes and smiled at me saying, "For god's sake Kelly, it's a good thing the windows were closed, the neighbors would have been calling the police if they had heard you!"

She couldn't hold it in anymore and burst out laughing saying, "So tell me, did my little brother REALLY fuck you that good or were you just playing to his ego?

"Well, you'll just have find out for yourself someday," I teased her.

Beth smacked my bottom playfully and I leaned over to kiss her. I could tell from the way she pulled back quickly that she hadn't expected to find the taste of her brother's cum on my mouth!

"Ewwwww, that isn't what I think it is, is it?" she asked with a horrified look on her face. I winked at her and she smacked me again, a little harder this time.

"You little slut, how could you do that to me?" she said, a little more accusing than I would have expected to be honest.

Beth could never stay mad at me long so we laid down next to each and just hugged. I noted she wasn't kissing me anymore! Oh well, maybe someday I would get her and her brother together. I figured Tony would be the easy one to convince and it would be Beth that would be the speed bump for my fantasy. But then, you never know!

(Mar 18) Chapter 133: Party at My Cousin's Dorm

Story codes: MF FF F-solo exhib oral inc cousin
Me (22)
Kristen - cousin (19)
Neil (22)
David (21)

When it came time to choose a college, I decided to attend a religious university based on its personal learning atmosphere and impressive academic credentials. In comparison, my younger cousin Kristen chose hers based on being close to home and having a good time; apparently a degree was an afterthought. I get frustrated at times with the strict rules but I'm sure in the future I will not regret my choice. When I was home on break, I got to experience dorm party life at my cousin's university which was just a little bit different from mine.

1. Cousins

My favorite cousin Kristen is about two years younger than me and in many ways we are more like sisters than cousins. We both started having sex at about the same age (fourteen), both of us have enjoyed it ever since, and we both have incestual relationships within our family. Kristen's mom is divorced so she never knew her dad but my dad has "filled" the position for her - literally I guess you could say.

As much as we are alike, we still have our differences. While our birth certificates say she was born a couple of years after me, most people think I'm really four or five years older. Kristen has that natural "young girl" petite look that fools people all the time. Then there is our hair - she's a blonde and I'm a brunette (don't even ask about the time I experimented being a blonde!). Kristen is slightly shorter than me now but I weigh a bit more than her. I don't think I'm overweight so much as she is just very petite.

Appearances aside, the biggest difference between us is what you might call our "wild" factor. Sure, nobody is ever going to call me a wall flower, especially when it comes to my sexual side, but it's like Kristen has always tried to do everything one step beyond me (or more). I've been fucked by quite a few guys, over thirty intimately and almost 140 if you count the parties.

Most people would probably say that is quite a few but it pales in comparison to Kristen. She doesn't keep a diary like I do, but she thinks her total is maybe as high as 300 by now, driven primarily by the fact she loves parties and being the center of attention.

Our public demeanors vary quite a bit as well. My career plans are to return to my home town after I graduate and get a job teaching in my old school district. A slutty image as a student might be fun but doesn't look so good on your resume! Sure, back in high school I had a bit of a reputation with the boys. However, I never did anything more than a little innocent flirting with any of my teachers or staff, certainly no more than most girls did at one time or another. There were times I might have dressed a bit on the edge but usually nothing overly naughty that would earn me the attention of the principal.

When I use the word "slut", it usually has a different meaning than from what most people think when they hear it. For instance, my dad loves to call me his "little slut" but he means it as a compliment to describe likes the way I dress and act around him. My Aunt Shari, on the other hand, is a super conservative bitch and when she calls me a slut, I know it's NOT intend it to be a compliment. Finally, there are the boys at school and when they call Kristen a slut, that is their way of saying she is sexy AND willing to fuck about anything on two legs.

While in high school, Kristen all but wore a "Class Slut" crown on her head. She had a well-earned reputation for being willing to put out for just about anyone - including a few teachers according to the rumor mill. We discussed what people thought of her at times and she was quite proud of it. She also had the support of her mom, who even bought some of her most risque outfits to wear to school. Kristen's motto was that if you're going to step over the line you may as well go for it and she never held anything back. More than a few times she had been sent home from school for a skirt that was WAY too short or a blouse that was WAY too sheer (without a bra of course). One thing you couldn't argue - she got the results she wanted - passed her classes (one way or another, usually ALL the way) and had as much attention from the guys as she could handle.

My school's policy was that freshmen HAD to live in the dorms. Half of the sophomores got to live in the on-campus apartments but I lost the lottery and had to spend a second year in dorm hell. Guys were allowed in the dorm only when we were moving in and out and during special occasions that were heavily chaperoned. Getting caught with a guy in your room was grounds for immediate expulsion.

All students are required to pledge to a strict set of "Lifestyle Guidelines" which prohibit any form of sex, lewd behavior, etc. Actually, we are not REQUIRED to pledge to them, but then we were also informed that we are not REQUIRED to attend school here either! The dress codes is not Amish by any means, but still pretty conservative.

There have been times when it has been frustrating to the point where masturbation just wasn't enough to satisfy my emotions and physical needs. Unfortunately, it was when I got to the breaking point that I found myself doing things I normally wouldn't have done (a brief stint in the escort business was probably the craziest thing I tried to satisfy my needs). Overall, I love my school and I know I'm getting a great education. It's not like I am going to be here all my life and I still manage to have some good times.

Kristen could have lived at home during college and taken a bus into school every day, but it would have been a hassle and besides, in her mind living in a dorm was half the fun of going to school. My Aunt Linda is a successful realtor (not so amazing considering how many of her deals are finalized in a the bedrooms of the homes she sells!) and was able to afford the extra expense. It didn't hurt the tuition at a state college was a fraction of what my school charges. Besides, she knew what Kristen's motivations were and wanted her daughter to enjoy her college years.

I was a junior when Kristen started her freshman year so I got to move to an on- campus apartment which I shared with five other girls, two to a bedroom. Although many of the rules were still as strict as they were in the dorms (no boys allowed), at least there were no RA's and I had a bit more room and privacy.

Kristen and I e-mail or phone each other almost every day and even though I thought I knew my cousin pretty well, I was still amazed at how quickly she adapted to college life - or should I say college parties. As it turned out, Kristen's reputation preceded her at college as many of the guys who had been fucking her over the years were there already. From the way she described things, I had to wonder how she ever got any schoolwork done!

Unlike my dorm, Kristen's not only allowed guys, it was coed! Not that the guys shared rooms with the girls; each sex had their own floors but they were allowed to mix freely. From what I gathered, Kristen's room all but had a red light over the door and quickly got the reputation for being party central on her floor. Whenever we would talk about what went on in her room, I would be amazed at how two school could be so different. God, if my school found out that I was doing that sort of stuff OFF campus that she was doing in her room, I would be expelled.

In my diary I maintain a "sexual history" where I record the first time every guy does me (just when I get fucked as I lost track of the number of blowjobs years ago). Due to the rules at my school, my list doesn't change while Kristen's headcount (pun intended!) skyrockets. I have to admit that it gets a bit frustrating when she complains about not getting laid the previous night when sometimes I go for months without getting a real cock for myself. Hell, sometimes I get the impression she gets fucked more often than I masturbate - which is quite often by the way. Over time, the newness of college seemed to wear off and with it, Kristen's bragging about her school sex life. Even so, I knew she was still getting it as much as ever.

I was nearing the end of my senior year and spring break was about to start. While many of my friends were heading to Florida and Mexico, I decided to stay at home and study for the state boards which I would have to pass this summer if I want to be certified to teach. One disadvantage of going to school out of state is that as part of my curriculum I have to pass the state boards but that is for Ohio, which of course isn't recognized by Pennsylvania. Since I won't be graduating from a PA school, I have to wait until mid-summer to take the boards whereas the PA graduates will already be getting their results back, letting them apply for jobs before me. Thus I have to be sure to pass the boards the first time and as much as Cancun sounds like fun, I had a career to consider.

Kristen's spring break was the week before mine so when I arrived home, she was already back at school. A while back Kristen had invited me to spend a night in her room so I could get a taste of what "real" dorm life was like. When Kristen said "taste", I had a feeling it had a more literal meaning to it than most people would have thought.

2. Thoughts of My Dad

Although my break officially started on a Friday and everyone was suppose to be off-campus, I got permission to stay in my apartment until Saturday so I could help out with an event for my church youth group on Saturday. It was lonely that night as the campus was practically deserted. Lying in bed that evening I kept thinking about how I could have been home right then and how wonderful it would have been to be with my family instead of wasting away the evening watching TV all alone.

The more I thought about being home the more the tingle between my legs grew stronger. Nobody was around so I turned off the TV, stripped down, and laid back on my bed naked with my head supported by a pillow. Reaching down with my right hand, I cupped my warm crotch with my hand. Just the slight pressure of my palm against me was enough to make me gasp slightly as goose bumps instantly raised all over my body. With my left hand, I traced my fingertips lightly over my firm stomach and slowly moved up to my boobs, running little circles around my nipples which quickly hardened in response. Using two fingers, I pinched my left nipple and tugged on it, then letting it snap back. A shiver ran up and down my spine as I repeated it on my right breast and then back again on my left one.

My eyes closed as I imagined being home, watching TV in the family room with my parents. I would be wearing one of my dad's favorite dress shirts, the long tails hanging down to cover my bare ass with only a couple of buttons at the bottom buttoned, just enough to keep it from opening completely. My dad would be in his Lazy-Boy, wearing his Nike shorts and t-shirt while my mom would be in her chair, typically in a long nightshirt that draped below her knees.

My dad loves to watch StarGate, not that the show itself is so great, he's enamored with Amanda Tapping. Something about a pretty young woman who is smart and can take care of herself seems to turn him on enormously. Whenever she is on the screen he becomes more alert and sometimes even starts rubbing himself. In my dream, she had a large role in tonight's episode and thus was seen more often than usual, making my dad so horny he finally had to pull his hard cock out of his shorts and then he started stroking himself.

While the image of seeing your dad masturbating to a woman on TV might seem odd to most people, at my house it wasn't all that unusual. I'd been raised to know that fundamentally, masturbation was no different than scratching an itch - a physical response to a need your body had at the time. It was certainly nothing to be ashamed of and while it wasn't polite to flaunt it, doing it discreetly when the need struck was not only acceptable, it was expected. What was the point in putting it off until later when you could 'scratch the itch" now? Let me be clear that while growing up, I never saw any sexual connection between my father's frequent urges to masturbate and me. After all, I was his daughter so why would he think of me that way? Of course, looking back it was all quite obvious but I guess when you are young and naive that even when it's right in front of you the message doesn't always get through.

Usually I masturbated in my room but in a few cases, such as when a sexy guy was on TV, I would do it on the couch or even in the backseat of our car when we traveled. Obviously, I was aware that my dad would watch me but I assumed it was just his concern for my well-being, not that it turned him on in any way. Again, I didn't think father's thought about their own daughter's that way. When I saw my dad's cock, I certainly didn't think about him the same way as when one of my boyfriends would take his out for me.

Well, I was a bit off-base with that assumption but you can't blame me when you consider the environment I was raised in. It's interesting to me that being raised in an sexually "open" home, the idea of incest just didn't occur to me whereas had I been raised like most of my friends, many things about my dad's behavior would have been taken in an entirely different light. For me, it was just normal family life.

Of course, once I started having sex with my dad back when I was sixteen, I realized what the real story was so now when I see my dad masturbating outside my room I know it's me he's thinking of. Even though I now know that when I masturbate in front of him that it turns him on, I still do it if I felt the need to but it feels different knowing he is not only watching me, but that he wants to fuck me as well. Sometimes now I to it just to please him, knowing he likes to see me playing with myself.

As I dreamed of my father stroking himself as he stared at Amanda's hot body, I imagined myself playing with myself across the room for him, unbuttoning the few remaining buttons and letting the shirt fall to my sides, revealing my nude body to him. As much as he was turned on by his TV fantasy girl, I know he loves seeing his daughter masturbating even more and tonight I dreamed I was putting on a real show for him, just for his entertainment.

My fingers started to roam about my pussy, running between my pussy lips and toying with my clit. I let my fingertips drag gently against the soft inner skin of my thighs and then slowly move back to my impatient pussy. My hips gyrated slowly under my hand as I imagined my father watching me, his lust for a TV fantasy girl forgotten now as he thinks about what he wants to do to his own daughter. How long would he hold out before he came to me, before he used me to satisfy his most base urges, to let me fulfill his lust and desire for a young woman?

My pussy was responding to my finger, getting that feeling of wetness as my own sexual urges began to unleash themselves. In my mind, my dad was getting out of his chair now, looking over at my mom who just grinned and nodded her head, giving her permission for him to use her daughter to satisfy himself. He approached me with that hungry look in his eye, like a hungry wolf approaching an innocent lamb. At some point between his chair and the couch, I knew that in his mind I had changed from being simply his daughter to a young girl that existed at that moment solely for his pleasure, willing to give herself to him in any way he wanted. Whenever I saw him like this my heart would race and I would feel such an incredible sensation of love and security knowing my own father wanted me in that way.

My middle finger pushed itself just inside my now wet pussy hole but in my mind it wasn't my finger but my father's, checking out my pussy to see if I was wet enough for him. Of course I was and I pushed my finger in even farther as I moaned out loud, then softly urging my father to take me, offering myself to him unconditionally, just as a daughter is expected to yield herself to her own father. Every child is commanded to lover and honor their parents. How could I honor my father in any way more intensely than this?

A second finger followed my first and my hips rose up to take in my dad's imaginary cock as he started to fuck me. I stroked myself as I dreamed of his hard cock moving slowly in and out of his daughter's pussy. In the haze of my own lust, I could see my dad's face just above me, see that look of pure incestual lust as he took me in a way only a father can with his daughter.

I felt my orgasm rising in me, like the waters of a flood slowly rising until they overflowed their dikes and spilled out to flood the rest of my body. It was like every pore of my body was on fire, pleasure consuming me from the trip of my toes to the outer reaches of my hair.

"Oh fuck me daddy," I cried out into the silence. "Cum in me... PLEASE cum inside of me!" I begged my imaginary father.

Thankfully nobody was anywhere near my room or I might have had some explaining to do! As it was, I could feel him releasing his cum in me, feel his incestuous sperm filling my empty womb. Whenever he came in me the look on his face was always one of such pure joy and happiness and it made me feel like nothing else I had ever known to know I was responsible for his joy. His cock was gripped by my convulsing pussy as he gave his daughter his precious gift of love, shooting it deeply into me, as far up in me as he could ram his dick.

Now THIS was the moment I lived for. THIS was the reason I let my dad fuck me. It wasn't just the sex, not by any means. As much as I physically enjoyed him fucking me, let's be real; I can get laid any time I want so I don't need my dad's dick just for that. It's knowing how happy I make him, seeing that look in his eyes when he knows he has just cum in his daughter's pussy, that incredible feeling I get knowing I have satisfied my dad in a way no other woman can - not even my mom. He is my father, the man I love and respect more than anyone else so far in my life. To please him in this most intimate way is the ultimate gift I can give him. I can't even imagine withholding myself from him. To do so would be the act of a self-centered and disrespectful person.

As my orgasm waned, I laid there without moving a muscle, allowing the aftershocks to pulse periodically in my pussy and then through my entire body. God I love to masturbate! Of course, getting fucked would have been better but at times like this when the need arises, it certainly feels good. I turned on my side, my hand still cupping my soaking wet cunt, and drifted off to sleep dreaming of my dad staying in me, holding me in his strong arms tightly against him.

3. Sunday Morning With Kristen

The next day started out fairly typically. I woke up, masturbated in bed for a while, and then did my thing in the bathroom. It seemed weird to be the only one there, to be able to wander around the apartment without having to worry about putting on a robe. A few last minutes items to pack and I was out of there. I went straight to the church and when the play was over, set a course for home and arrived a little more than three hours later. Needless to say, I had a great homecoming and while it may not have started with Amanda Tapping on his mind, my dad certainly fucked me good that night - and the next morning before church.

to their maximum advantage. In the competitive world of real estate, it never hurt to use all your "assets" and my aunt wasn't afraid to do whatever it took to land a sale.

"Now you girls don't do anything I wouldn't do!" she warned us as she left the house. Kristen and I both laughed at that one as it pretty much left the door open to do about anything.

Once she left, we went up to Kristen's bedroom to get her stuff. Actually it was her AND her mom's bedroom since they had always shared a bed since Kristen's dad had left. Kristen's relationship with her mom was just one of many things I probably would have never been told about had I decided not to engage in incest. When my mom finally DID tell me, it was like a big "duh" neon sign lit up over my head. Sometimes I guess you don't see the things that are right in front of your face so I guess that's why when I was growing up I had no idea what else they "shared" with each other..

When Kristen and I first started masturbating together, I would sometimes wonder what it would be like to do more with a girl. Other than playing with ourselves, Kristen and I never did anything more until after my freshman year in college. Actually, it was probably best I didn't know because until I understood what incest really meant by having sex with my own parents, I think I would have freaked had I known that Kristen was doing it with her mom long before she was even a teenager!

"So, have you been bringing home quite a few boy toys for your mom lately?" I asked her, sitting down on the edge of the bed.

Kristen giggled and replied, "Nahhhhh, actually it's been a while. Mom's been getting plenty on her own lately it seems judging from her commission checks."

I was sure she did and it certainly didn't hurt that she had a nineteen year-old sex-crazed daughter to offer as well when the deals got stuck. Unlike housework, I had a feeling Kristen never complained when her mom asked for her "help" at work.

It didn't surprise me the first time Kristen told me about what she did to help out her mom sometimes to seal a deal. As much as I know it turns on guys to see me with another girl, it's nothing compared to the intensity created when they ask me if they have sex together with my mom and me. While that will never happen (my mom would NEVER have sex with a guy not in her family - back to the adultery taboo), it still amazes me at how strong a fantasy that is for men. About the only thing guys seem to want more is to see me being fucked by my dad - another fantasy I don't quite understand.

I have to admit that there are times when I envy Kristen as her mom isn't married. Thus my aunt doesn't have to face any issues over committing adultery and thus two of them can do things my mom and I can't. Lately I have been thinking about asking my aunt if I could pretend to be her daughter at one of her "sales meetings" but Kristen gets such a thrill from them that I haven't had the nerve so far to ask.

The dynamic duo didn't limit themselves to just work-related fun. Sometimes they just shared their dates for the fun of it. As I mentioned before, Kristen prefers the young boys over her mom's older companions so she likes it better when she is the one to bring home the guy. That said, she certainly didn't complain when her mom came home with one of her older dates. Although there was probably no way she ever would have done a guy that age on her own, with her mom it was different and hopefully someday I'll get to experience it myself.

"Hey, want to see something?" she asked, bringing my head down from the clouds. Well duh, what was I supposed to say - no?

Indeed, it was more a rhetorical question for her as she didn't wait for my answer and instead went over to the nightstand and opened up the top drawer. She pulled out several pages of paper and handed them to me with a big grin all over her face. Looking through them, I was a bit surprised, to say the least, to find they were printouts of some of the more recent tributes I had forwarded them from guys who had sent them to me. Most were of Kristen since she seems to be a popular "target" for most guys; but a number of them were photos of my aunt, mostly in her bikini. Of course, they all had one thing in common - they were splattered with some horny guy's cum!

"So I guess you didn't mind that I passed these on to you, eh?" I asked, the answer being obvious with the evidence in my hand.

"Crap, I remember the first time I showed them to my mom, she about freaked," Kristen chuckled. "Not the messy stuff..., she thought I might be sending out nudes or something as well to get them off this much."

Well, that was certainly nothing for either of them to be worried about. Although I have been asked literally hundreds of times for nudes of my aunt and cousin (not to mention the rest of my family and of course, me), I have always refused since I didn't have their permission nor would I expect to get it. It is one thing to be a slut in person; but to have your photos circulating around the world is another thing entirely.

Back when I first started fooling around on the Internet, I use to send out nudes of me to just about anyone and even ran a web site for a while where guys could download them. Then I started seeing them appear on other people's profiles and web sites so I quit sending them out as a general rule. After all, I figure if guys want nude pics of young women there are millions available for free on the Internet so why did they need any of me? So now my philosophy is that if someone wants to see what I look like and get off from that, it's fine with me but al they will get are "regular" family photos. That's one reason why I love it when guys use them for tributes as it shows they want me more for who I am than just cumming to a nude pic that could be anyone.

"So, did you two get off from them?" I asked, "You know, guys always ask me if you do and I have always just assumed you did. I mean, you are always asking me to get you more."

Kristen giggled again. "Oh yeah, more than a few times. Remember those videos you passed on that showed a guy cumming on me in different outfits? You know, the ones with the audio where he kept saying how much he wanted to fuck me? Well, they got me so horny that I simply HAD to show them to my mom and then both of us just HAD to do something about it, if you know what I mean."

I certainly did! We both had a good laugh over that one and then she put the photos back in the drawer as we changed clothes before leaving for her school. It was a nice day outside but still a bit on the cool side so we both decided to wear jeans. I added a new sweatshirt I had just bought from the school bookstore, figuring I may as well advertise the home school a bit. Kristen just threw on a light blouse which didn't do much to hide of what was underneath. From all appearance, most people would have thought we were just two typical college girls, even if we did have anything but typical plans for the evening.

The next day started out fairly typically. I woke up, masturbated in bed for a while, and then did my thing in the bathroom. It seemed weird to be the only one there, to be able to wander around the apartment without having to worry about putting on a robe. A few last minutes items to pack and I was out of there. I went straight to the church and when the play was over, set a course for home and arrived a little more than three hours later. Needless to say, I had a great homecoming and while it may not have started with Amanda Tapping on his mind, my dad certainly fucked me good that night – and the next morning before church.

As always, we attended church on Sunday morning as a family, sitting in the same pew with my aunts, uncles and cousins. It was the first time I had seen Kristen in months and we squealed and hugged like little girls when we met. She was looking incredible, as always, as did her mom. Both were wearing dresses that pushed the boundaries of the unofficial church dress code just a little bit without being overly risque. Kristen had that young high school girl look while her mom was a definite MILF.

As usual, my dad had his eye on his sister-in-law and I had a strong feeling that my aunt would be stopping by our house this afternoon once Kristen and I had left. It wasn't like she was hurting for sex so much as she just enjoyed doing it with my dad. At thirty eight, she still looked almost ten years younger (probably where Kristen got her youthful looks from).

My dad had been doing both sisters since they were all barely teenagers and marrying one of them didn't change a thing so far as that relationship was concerned. Actually, I think screwing his sister-in-law gave him a similar thrill to what he got when he fucked me. It wasn't just the sex, although I knew from seeing her in action that my aunt was quite talented in that area, but rather it was doing his wife's sister that made it hot for him. After all, how many guys had their wife's permission to fuck her sister anytime they wanted?

Speaking of having her permission, many people ask me how my mom feels about all of this; I mean her husband having sex with her sister and daughter. Remember that as I just described, I believe my dad gets off from fucking the us mainly because of his relationship to him us, not the sex (OK, he IS a man and he loves women just as much as the next guy so don't think I'm THAT naive). Most people assume my mother gets jealous or insecure. Actually, nothing could be further from the truth. When your husband has available to him several younger girls and an older woman, yet he always returns to you, doesn't that say something about his love and respect for you?

When my dad married my mom, he promised before God to love her and protect her until death, above all others. Nobody that I know of has ever questioned his total commitment to that vow. My dad truly loves my mother like no other woman in earth and he would NEVER cheat on her. There is only one woman in the world he has ever made love to - my mother. Sure, he fucks me and some relatives, but we are all part of the same family and thus fall within the boundaries of his marriage.

An important distinction to make when discussing incest is that opportunity does not necessarily translate into reality. Just because it is "legal", none of us feel obligated to let him fuck us. Speaking for myself, I let him do it because I WANT to as a sign of my love and respect for him as his daughter. Although as I said, it's not an obligation where I feel forced to do anything, I still feel strongly that as his daughter I should always strive to honor my father. Frankly, if that means letting him fuck me, then what's the harm? After all, it's just sex, a natural act between a man and a woman. In the past six years I can't remember a single time I have refused to honor my dad's desires and I have no intention of ever refusing him so long as he wants me in that way.

So much for my soapbox speech. After church I kissed my parents goodbye and went home with my cousin and aunt for lunch. We discussed school for a while and eventually my aunt asked Kristen how things were going "recreationally".

"Oh mom!" Kristen huffed but her eyes twinkling at the same time. Then she got a sly grin on her face and looked at me and then back to her mom.

"You would have loved the guy I had the other night, Mom. God! He had such a big cock, just the way you like them."

We all laughed, especially her mom. Kristen had told before me how she sometimes would bring home a boy from school and then surprise him with a little mother- daughter action. She knew the types her mom liked, that was for sure! While my aunt dated mostly guys around her age, I guess it's only natural for an older woman to want a young cock now and then, no different than most older guys seem to always have a desire for a young pussy. The way my cousin explained it to me, her mom got off as much from seeing the guys go nuts watching a mother- daughter scene as anything else.

Unlike me, Kristen likes her guys young, TOO young if you ask me. It's not that I don't think about it at times, but having sex with a young teenage boy isn't exactly a resume builder when you want to be an elementary school teacher! My aunt has told me that even she has had to avoid more than a few of Kristen's prizes. Bringing home a college guy, though, wasn't a bad deal for any of the three of them.

Had it been another day or time, things might have gotten interesting between the three of us as it usually did when the talk turned in this direction. Unfortunately, today my aunt had an open house on the other side of town and had to hurry off to get things prepared. I noticed she had changed out her relatively conservative dress for one that was considerably shorter and lower cut, showing off her legs and boobs to their maximum advantage. In the competitive world of real estate, it never hurt to use all your "assets" and my aunt wasn't afraid to do whatever it took to land a sale.

"Now you girls don't do anything I wouldn't do!" she warned us as she left the house. Kristen and I both laughed at that one as it pretty much left the door open to do about anything.

"Hey, want to see something?" she asked, bringing my head down from the clouds. Well duh, what was I supposed to say - no?

Indeed, it was more a rhetorical question for her as she didn't wait for my answer and instead went over to the nightstand and opened up the top drawer. She pulled out several pages of paper and handed them to me with a big grin all over her face. Looking through them, I was a bit surprised, to say the least, to find they were printouts of some of the more recent tributes I had forwarded them from guys who had sent them to me. Most were of Kristen since she seems to be a popular "target" for most guys; but a number of them were photos of my aunt, mostly in her bikini. Of course, they all had one thing in common - they were splattered with some horny guy's cum!

"So I guess you didn't mind that I passed these on to you, eh?" I asked, the answer being obvious with the evidence in my hand.

"Crap, I remember the first time I showed them to my mom, she about freaked," Kristen chuckled. "Not the messy stuff..., she thought I might be sending out nudes or something as well to get them off this much."

Well, that was certainly nothing for either of them to be worried about. Although I have been asked literally hundreds of times for nudes of my aunt and cousin (not to mention the rest of my family and of course, me), I have always refused since I didn't have their permission nor would I expect to get it. It is one thing to be a slut in person; but to have your photos circulating around the world is another thing entirely.

Back when I first started fooling around on the Internet, I use to send out nudes of me to just about anyone and even ran a web site for a while where guys could download them. Then I started seeing them appear on other people's profiles and web sites so I quit sending them out as a general rule. After all, I figure if guys want nude pics of young women there are millions available for free on the Internet so why did they need any of me? So now my philosophy is that if someone wants to see what I look like and get off from that, it's fine with me but al they will get are "regular" family photos. That's one reason why I love it when guys use them for tributes as it shows they want me more for who I am than just cumming to a nude pic that could be anyone.

"So, did you two get off from them?" I asked, "You know, guys always ask me if you do and I have always just assumed you did. I mean, you are always asking me to get you more."

Kristen giggled again. "Oh yeah, more than a few times. Remember those videos you passed on that showed a guy cumming on me in different outfits? You know, the ones with the audio where he kept saying how much he wanted to fuck me? Well, they got me so horny that I simply HAD to show them to my mom and then both of us just HAD to do something about it, if you know what I mean."

I certainly did! We both had a good laugh over that one and then she put the photos back in the drawer as we changed clothes before leaving for her school. It was a nice day outside but still a bit on the cool side so we both decided to wear jeans. I added a new sweatshirt I had just bought from the school bookstore, figuring I may as well advertise the home school a bit. Kristen just threw on a light blouse which didn't do much to hide of what was underneath. From all appearance, most people would have thought we were just two typical college girls, even if we did have anything but typical plans for the evening.

4. Kristen's "Game"

We grabbed out backpacks and walked down to the T-Station. It was a bit of a hike but I didn't to leave my car overnight in the city lot. We could probably have asked my dad to drive us but it was a nice day for a walk and I hadn't seen the old neighborhood in a while anyway. After an uneventful train trip to downtown Pittsburgh, it was an quick and easy bus trip to the main campus.

Walking around, the first thing that struck me was how everything was so different from my school. Here we were, all the fun things of a big city around us, traffic galore and people everywhere. In contrast, my school is on the outskirts of a relatively small city in the middle of nowhere, without even so much as a bus to get you around. Now that I was back in my home town, I realized just how much loved being in the city and all it had to offer. Thankfully it was just a few more months before I would be graduating and leaving Hooterville.

As we approached her dorm, without seeing the sign out front you would have thought it was just another big office building crowded in among the others. In contrast, mine was out in the open with grass and open areas surrounding around it. We entered through the front door where Kristen had to show her ID card to get through security and then sign me in as a guest at the front desk. I guess with all the issues today on large campuses that a little tighter security was required. My dorm had a guard but I think he was there more to keep the boys out than the crooks.

We went through the lobby and then took an elevator to the third floor where her room was. It may not have seemed like much to her, but I would have KILLED for an elevator at my school back when I was in a dorm. Fortunately, there had been only three stories but freshman were all on the top floor. In my head I could vividly remember traipsing up and down those damn stairwells so many times! Kristen nudged me and pointed to the ceiling. Looking up, I realized we were under surveillance and so I waved to the camera. Kristen pulled me towards her and planted a big kiss on my lips. Not to be outdone, I returned the favor and we held it until the chimes indicated we were at our floor. I could just imagine some poor security guy getting a hard-on watching us! We both were still laughing when we reached her floor and the doors automatically opened to let us out.

Kristen's room was about half way down the hall from the elevators and I marveled at the crap some of the girls had posted on their doors. Some of it was all but obscene - well, maybe some of it WAS. There weren't any nudes or anything like that, but some if it got pretty suggestive. When we got to her room, she pulled a key out from her bag and opened the door. A big "Kristen and Sara's Doll House" sign was taped front and center on the door and I half expected to see a signup sheet under it.

Inside the room as about what I expected - a dump. Kristen was never one for housecleaning and evidently neither was Sara, her roomie. Clothes and underwear (the bras must have been Sara's as I don't Kristen even owns one) were strewn about everywhere and the walls were plastered with posters and pictures.

One photo in particular caught my eye - it was a picture of her in her bikini at the beach. Ordinarily it wouldn't have been anything to draw my attention (although Kristen DID look terribly sexy in the outfit). In this case, however, the photo included a guy's cock at the bottom and his cum was plastered all over her! My jaw dropped as I realized that my nasty little cousin had one of her tributes hanging up on display for everyone to see! It was like a kid bringing home her homework with a star on it and posting it proudly on the refrigerator door.

Seeing me staring at it, Kristen grinned and said, "Oh yeah, I get a LOT of comments on that one!"

Just then a guy stuck his head in the door and called over to Kristen saying, "Hey girl, glad to see you're back."

Despite the fact I knew the dorm was coed, I still had to shake off years of conditioning as I instinctively started to cringe when I realized that a guy was at the door. Trust me, such a thing had NEVER happened during my dorm years, that was for sure!

"So who's the new babe?" he continued, his eyes mentally undressing me without a hint of shame.

Kristen patiently explained how I was her long-lost cousin from a school far, far away and that I would be staying the night with her. Then she walked over to the door and whispered something to him in his ear just low enough I couldn't quite make it out except for words like, "the game" and "she will" that I more lip-read than anything else. When she was finished, the guy gave Kristen a thumbs-up and left with a big grin on his face..

"So what was all THAT about?" I asked when she came back in the room.

"Oh, he just wanted to know if the game was on tonight," she said, knowing she was teasing me by telling me just enough to be curious without actually spilling the beans about anything else. As much as I hated myself for falling for it, my curiosity WAS peaked so I took the bait and ran with it.

"Game?" I repeated innocently.

"Oh, it's just something Sara and I do," she teased, "Don't worry, you'll find out soon enough."

From past experience at similar exchanges, I knew better than to try and pump her for more information. Once Kristen made her mind up about something there was no changing it so I figured I may was well wait until she was ready to share. We left the room and for the rest of the afternoon she gave me the grand tour of the campus. Although I had driven through it many times in the past, I never really looked at it from a student's perspective. Kristen showed me where her classes were and the hospital where she hoped to take nursing classes someday. Most of the time we spent scoping out the various clubs and restaurants she liked to hang out at. Rather than subject me to more cafeteria food, we ate at an interesting joint where everything is served with French fries and sauerkraut piled on the meat between the bread. Sounds sort of weird but it tasted great!

We got back to the dorm again just in time as it was starting to get dark and the weather had chilled down enough to make my sweatshirt a bit inadequate. This time on the way to her place we stopped by a number of other rooms where she introduced me to some of her friends so by the time we actually got to her room it was well into the evening.

The two of us were standing in the hallway as she unlocked her room when another guy stopped by.

"So, everything still on for tonight?" he asked. From the anxious look on his face I had a feeling he wasn't talking about a study group get-together. Now if I had been at school I really would be getting ready for bible study, but somehow I doubted he meant THAT either.

"Geeze, hold your horses, Tracy," Kristen scolded him, "You know how it works so if you want in, you had better get going."

Needless to say, by now I was practically bursting with curiosity but I was doing my best to appear nonchalant. Damn, what sort of game was Kristen going to be playing and even more important, what did it have to do with me?

Tracy just nodded and then he reached down to drop a folded slip of paper into a can by the door. I hadn't noticed it before and when I looked closer I saw it was full of similar pieces of paper, each folded in half like there was going to be some sort of drawing. Kristen gathered it up after she opened the door and we went inside where she closed the door and locked it this time behind us.

"Hmmm, let's see who we've got for tonight," she mused, dumping the pile out on her bed. She started opening them up and dividing them into two piles. It was then I realized each one had a name and phone extension written on it.

"Hmmmmmm, got to keep him!" she muttered, throwing it into the smaller pile.

"Ewwwww, not tonight," she grimaced as she tossed the next into a much larger pile. I just sat back and watched as she separated the contents into two piles. When she was finished, she gathered up the larger pile, crumpled them together into a big wad and tossed them into a nearby garbage can.

"Some guys just can't take a hint," she muttered to herself cryptically, rubbing her hands together as if washing away the dirt from holding those pieces in her hand.

Then Kristen gathered the others and started to sort them out into some sort of order. It didn't appear to be alphabetical so I had no idea what criteria she was applying. She was deep in thought and so I just kept watching and waiting to see what this was all about. It looked like there were about fifteen or twenty of them that had survived whatever weeding-out process she had just conducted. When she was done, she thumbed through them one last times, rearranging a couple until she sat up with a pleased look on her face.

"Been a while since I have this so I guess everyone wanted to get in on it tonight," she told me, even though I was still clueless as to what she was talking about.

"OK, OK, how about cutting out the theatrics for once and just tell me what's going on," I blurted out, unable to contain myself anymore.

"Oh, I thought you knew about my little game?" she answered acting all innocent, "I could have sworn I told you once."

Enough already! I let out a big sigh of despair and dramatically rolled my eyes towards the ceiling until she cracked up and finally broke down and explained everything to me.

"Well, as you might imagine, if we just opened the door and let anyone in, the place would be packed with horny guys," she explained in a matter-of-fact tone, as if it was all perfectly routine. "So Sara and I came up with our own system."

I may not be the sharpest knife in the drawer, but I can usually hold my own and so I quickly picked up where she was leading. Sure enough, she explained how periodically they would play a game where guys dropped off their names in the can and then one of them would select the names and order. It was then required that the other had to let the guys fuck her in that order. Usually there were more guys than time (or stamina) so they would go on until the one getting fucked called it quits. Sometimes this might be after just a couple guys while typically it would go on for most of the night. Kristen said there had only been one time they ran out of names and that was back at the start before many people knew about it.

"And just how often do you two play your so-called 'game", eh Kristen?" I asked her quietly, not too sure how to respond yet so I stalled for time.

Frankly, had anyone else tried to tell me about such a "game", I would never have believed them, thinking they were exaggerating or simply pulling my leg. With Kristen, though, such thoughts never even came to my mind. I didn't doubt for one moment she was completely serious about this - or her claims that she had done it many times in the past. What can I say? As innocent as she may look, my cousin's a complete slut in every sense of the word and loves it. So when it came to my younger cousin, you never knew what she was going to do next which I guess is part of why I found it exciting to hang around with her..

"Ohhhhhh, I think this will be the sixth or seventh time," she said, thinking for a minute as she counted silently on her fingers, trying to pretend she didn't quite remember. "We didn't start it until this year so it's still sort of new. It keeps getting more popular - I wonder why?"

Yeah right, she had no idea why it was popular. And I was the Queen of the Nile! I didn't buy all that crap for one second but I didn't try to refute her.

The more I thought of it, the more it sounded like a college boy fantasy than reality or something you would read about in some porn letter. I wondered who had thought of it? It wouldn't have surprised me to find out one of her boyfriends planted the idea in her pretty blonde head but at this point even she probably didn't know for sure.

"So what's with the names you threw away?" I asked.

"Oh, those," she said flippantly, "Well, when you have as many guys signing up as we do these days, no sense in messing around with the jerks, fat guys, and such. By now I know most of guys around here - if you know what I mean."

Well, how considerate of her, I thought to myself a bit sarcastically.

Kristen then frowned and shook her head in mock disgust. "Well, I just don't let ANYONE fuck me, you know." She saw the sly grin appear on my face and feigned disappointment in me.

"C'mon, Kelly, you know I really do have SOME standards, even if they're not as rigid as yours," she insisted.

I guess that was true but until now I just assumed it meant he had two legs and a dick. Well, at least she weeded them out ahead of time.

"So... how does this game of yours work?" I asked.

"Well, tonight you're here so I did the picking," she informed me. "So I guess you know what role you'll playing tonight."

Well, duh. As if I hadn't seen THAT coming! Anyway, she continued on with her explanation.

"OK, it's really pretty simple. You see, now that I've chosen the names, we start with the guy at the top of the pile, call him, and then he has fifteen minutes to get his ass in here and do his thing with you. Then we kick him out and move on to the next name. Game's over when you've had enough or we run out of names." Well, I couldn't see using up all those names in the pile so it was going to be interesting to see how long this "game" went on tonight. I was curious about one thing though.

"What about the other girls on your floor. Do they know what's going on in here?"

"Oh sure," Kristen said, waving it off like it was nothing, "Heck, nobody cares what anyone else does so long as it doesn't get too loud or anything."

Damn! If a boy even tried to set foot in my dorm back home there would have been half a dozen do-gooders turning him in before you could blink. Here, the only concern seemed to be whether the music got too loud. God bless the public school system!

"You ready?" she asked.

"I don't know," I shrugged, "Don't I have to get ready or anything?"

"Nahhhhh, the first guy will take care of that, trust me!"

Kristen took the top name from the list and smiled. "Mmmmmmm, Neil was one of the first guys I did when I started here last year ...Damn nice cock too! I think you'll like him, he's your type."

There was something surreal about listening to my cousin talk about some guy I had never met this way. And what was "my type" anyway? Heck, even I didn't wasn't always sure what "my type" was so how did she know?

Unsure of what else to do, I just sat back and watched as she picked up her phone and called Neil to inform he that he was lucky enough to be the first one tonight. It all seemed to be happening in slow motion, almost like in a haze. Teasing about all of this with Kristen before was one thing, but now that it was apparently really going to happen, well that was another story to be sure.

5. Neil is First

Neil must have literally flown down the steps and hallway as it seemed to be only seconds after Kristen hung up that there was a rapid series of knocks on the door. Kristen grinned at me and then walked over to unlock the door and opened it just a crack. Seeing that it was Neil, she opened the door wide enough to let him in. My first impression of Neil was that her description was pretty accurate. Handsome, tall and judging by with bulge already growing in his pants, probably well hung as well. Hmmm, maybe we WAS my type! Neal was wearing some well-worn jeans and a school T-shirt which showed off his muscular physique quite well. He looked a little older and I was guessing that he was a senior or maybe even a grad student.

Neil noticed me sitting on the bed and after taking a good look at me, he turned back to Kristen with a hint of puzzlement in his face.

"Ok, so where's Sara?" he asked. "And who's this?"

Kristen quickly explained who I was and that it was me he would be fucking tonight. My thoughts were a bit jumbled and confused as I struggled between my natural attraction for a guy like Neil and an unexplainable shyness. Under normal circumstances I would have loved to flirt with him and tease but there wasn't anything "normal" about this. Even when I was escorting I was still under control of the situation but here it was like Kristen was pimping me and that was for some reason causing me some issues.

For better or worse, I wasn't going to have a lot of time dealing with my internal issues. As conflicted as I was, I felt a wave of relief that he didn't look disappointed at the prospect of having me instead of Sara or Kristen. Things began to focus and come into perspective as I realized that he was just another college boy with only one thing on his mind - getting laid. As far as he was concerned, I was sure it didn't matter who I was so long as I let him fuck me.

Kristen was suddenly being quiet herself, for once, so Neil took the initiative. I had a strong feeling this wasn't his first time playing Kristen's little game. He moved over closer to me and grinned broadly, showing off a perfect set of white teeth.

"Damn, wish I had a cousin that looked like you!" he whispered under his breath just loud enough for me to hear. He started to undo his pants and then seemed to finally realize that I was still just sitting there quietly, "Well, you just gonna sit there or what?"

I may not have been quite sure what to expect when Kristen had invited me to her dorm room for the night, but this entire affair was certainly NOT even remotely anything I had considered. My initial instinct was to just get up and leave. After all, what right did Kristen have farming me out like some piece of meat for something could only at best be called a "quickie" with a bunch of horny college boys?

In case you're wondering why someone like me would be having the issues I was having, you need to understand that for me, sex is 80-90% mental. The same guy that bores me fucking me in the bedroom can drive me insane if he does me at the beach in the water surrounded by people. When my father fucks me it isn't his overwhelming technique or cock size that makes it so special, it's that he is my father. Being fucked by a married guy if his wife is watching doesn't make me cum nearly as hard as if he is doing me while talking to his wife on the phone - and she has not idea is he is cheating on her at the same time. Looking at porn doesn't do much for me but seeing a pic of me with a guy's cum on it and his cock gets me instantly wet. So you need to understand - for me It's all mental.

The mental thing was main reason I was as perturbed as I was over Kristen's plan. She hadn't forewarned me about it to allow me to absorb it and prepare for it. Over the years I have found that there are many things I don't mind trying IF I have time to think about it first and prepare myself mentally. Most of the "bad" times I've had weren't necessarily all that "bad". "Unexpected" would be the more correct way to describe them.

Well, this situation certainly qualified as one of these times! My point is that if Kristen had told me about all of this back at her house, maybe even with her mom there to egg us on, by now I probably would have been practically dripping with anticipation. I mean, it's not like I hadn't been fucked by a string of strangers before! Unfortunately, thanks to the unexpected turn of events, I was feeling like some freshman at her first high school dance, unsure of herself and hoping to be wanted by the guys yet wary of the lewd boys were circling her like vultures.

Feeling a hint of panic, I looked over at Kristen who was now motioning for me to get going and strip. When she saw the way I was looking at her, she faked a big huff and stood there with her hands on her hips, probably wondering what was wrong with me. Seeing my cousin disappointed in me wasn't helping matters, that was for sure, but feeling guilty wasn't the same as feeling horny and my pussy certainly wasn't responding yet either.

Neil, obviously, didn't have a clue as to the dynamics in the room and had already stripped off all of his clothes. Before I knew it he was standing in front of me, totally nude except for his watch which he kept looking at with all the patience of someone late for work waiting for a bus. It was pretty obvious what he must have been thinking; his fifteen minutes of fame was flying by and when was he going to get his share of my pussy? The more I looked at him the more I saw what a hunk he was. Hmm, maybe this wasn't such a bad thing after all.

You know how it feels when suddenly your entire mindset suddenly shifts, when it's like a spell has been cast over you and suddenly you "see the light"? It was like that now for me as my eyes locked in on his horny cock and my pussy suddenly ached so hard it was like I was having a menstrual cramp. Who cared what led up to this? Who cared what he thought of me? In that moment my logical mind suddenly checked out and my physical needs and emotions took over. You could say I went from running under full control to letting myself just respond by instinct. It's not something that can be explained, it just happens!

Neil wasn't exactly a master at reading people so he missed whatever signs there might be in my posture and expression that would have told him I wanted him like a bitch in heat. Most of the change was in my head and inside of me, notably my pussy, so it wasn't like a neon sign was suddenly flashing over me announcing "Fuck Me". Kristen knew me well enough to recognize what was happening and she was smiling now as she knew what was going on inside her cousin's head.

"Here, I'll help you," Neil said with a definite note of exasperation in his voice. He put his hands on my shoulders and pushed me onto my back leaving my legs hanging over the edge of the bed.

You had to say one thing, the boy was certainly ready to go! His cock was now hard as a rock, one of those that had a bit of an upward curve to it such that when he was standing it pointed up at the ceiling like a heat-seeking missile ready for launch. Kristen had been right, he DID have a nice cock! Other than my dad's, I hadn't had a hard dick in ages and this one was looking better the more I saw of it. In the end, while this may not have been exactly the type of situation I had been expecting, I HAD expected to get fucked one way or another. After all, THAT was pretty much a given if you hung around with Kristen for more than a few hours.

Neil roughly undid my jeans and quickly pulled them down and off of my legs, leaving me bare-ass on the bed. Evidently he wasn't a big tit-guy as he didn't appear to be too concerned with my sweatshirt. He just pushed it up and out of his way as he kneeled on the floor between my legs and immediately started to lick my pussy with his outstretched tongue. If I had anything to say about it, he could have started with some light touches and some attention to my thighs but under the circumstances I guess his actions were understandable. Besides, what guy really likes foreplay anyway? Most I have known just want to get right down to it and only act "sensitive" to appease me.

"Mmmmmmm, not bad," he murmured, his voice barely recognizable with his face pushed up against my crotch.

To be perfectly honest, I would have preferred Kristen to be eating me out while I sucked him or something like that as my cousin was a million times better at licking my pussy than this guy. That said, he wasn't much different than most guys I've been with. For whatever reason, men just don't get it when it comes to licking pussy, no matter how many times I've tried to teach them and even demonstrate for them on another girl. Well, that's not a really fair thing to say. There ARE a small number of them out there that have mastered the art so girls, if you find one of these rare treats, hang on to him like a blood diamond because they come few and far between (no pun intended)!

Kristen actually had a kitchen timer going on the desk across from me so I could see from the time remaining that Neil had already used up half his time. Seeing the timer for the first time, I couldn't help but think that this was the first time I had sex with an actual timer running! Neil was looking at his watch periodically, keeping track of the time remaining as well. Realizing how much time had already gone by, he must have decided it was more important to fuck me than eat me. Without any warning he suddenly just pulled his head out from between my thighs and then stood between my legs, stroking his wonderful hard cock slowly with his right hand. There's just something about seeing a guy getting horny because of me, to the point where he is rubbing his own cock right in front of me, that has always been a turn-on.

So far I had yet to say a word or even really make a move for that matter. But then, did it really matter? Neil certainly didn't seem to need my help; he was all but using me as a sex toy to masturbate with for all the care and concern he had for me personally. Granted, he only had fifteen minutes to "git er done" so it wasn't like we had time for formal introductions and tender foreplay, but we hadn't even said one word to each other up to this point.

Neil started to move his cock closer to my pussy when he looked back at Kristen and grinned, "Well, I guess it's safe to say that she's no virgin."

Kristen laughed like it was the funniest thing she had heard all day and responded with a nasty smirk, "I guess you could say that."

Damn, I wanted to yell at both of them and say, "Hey, I'm here you know so you can stop talking like I'm not." At the same time, it was a bit my fault as so far I was just going along with things and besides, I may have been horny but that didn't mean I was in some great conversational mood. It didn't help things that his pussy licking skills were so lame it hadn't even really turned me but at least he had gotten me wet with his spit so even though I wasn't exactly flowing with pussy juices it wasn't like I was dry either.

Neil turned back to me and with one hand he held his cock to take aim at my pussy while he used the other to spread apart my pussy lips, revealing my pussy hole for him. I felt the pressure of his cock as he pressed it up against my pussy and then the sudden mixture of pain and pleasure as he gave a hard push and forced it deep into me.

"Damn, she's fucking tight!" he said to Kristen.

Ummmmm, hello! What was with this anyway? Couldn't he talk to ME? After all, I was the girl he had his dick inside of at the moment. The least he could do it direct his comments to me and not my cousin.

Once he was in me, Neil didn't waste any time, stroking himself hard and fast, in and out of my cunt. Now that I had a cock in my pussy, things were getting better. It didn't matter what mood I was in or what I was doing, there was just something about having a dick in my pussy that made everything else pale in comparison. Sometimes I think I would be happiest if I just had one in me 24 hours a day!

"Ummmmm," I moaned softly as he fucked me non-stop, "Oh yeahhhhhhh."

"Ahhhhhh, she can speak!" Neil exclaimed, "You like my dick in you, don't you?"

At least he was talking to ME now. And yes, I DID like his dick in me so it wasn't hard to respond softly to him with the words I was sure he wanted hear.

"Oh yeah, you feel so good in me."

"Shit, how come your pussy's still so tight," he groaned as he pushed himself deeper in me, "Hell, even Kristen's isn't this tight."

Well, NOW he had my attention. It was the first time anyone had told me my pussy was tighter than Kristen's and I could see her frowning now behind him. If looks could kill!!!!!

"Two minutes," Kristen announced, still sounding a bit miffed at his last comment on her pussy. He hadn't earned any extra time for himself, that was for sure.

"Don't worry," he said between panting, "Almost there... god DAMN it feels good!"

I felt him thrust himself extra hard against me, driving me back on the bed with the force of it as he buried his cock as deep inside of me as he could. I lifted my head to look down but all I could see was the base of his crotch butted up against my pussy, his thick pubic hair pressed tightly in between. His cock was nowhere to be seen but I knew from the feeling inside of me where it was!

"Ahhhhhh, here it cums," he groaned, "Take my cum bitch."

Sure enough, a sudden feeling of warmth blossomed deep inside of me as his cock released its first load of sperm into me. It was quickly followed by another and then yet another with a number of small "aftershocks" after that. Each time he shot a load he would press tighter against me as if trying to deposit each one even deeper inside of me.

"Time's up!" Kristen announced.

Neil started stroking me anyway, ignoring Kristen.

"HEY!" she said, stepping up and spanking him on his bare butt, "I said time was up. Get your damn cock out of my cousin... NOW dammit."

Reluctantly, Neil withdrew and I could see his cock was still hard but now it was glistening in the dim light, covered with a mixture of my pussy juices and his cum. He took a deep breath and stared at my pussy as I pushed his cum from me for him to watch. Then he quickly dressed and as he started to leave, Kristen stopped him at the door.

"Hey, forget something buster?" she said sternly with her hand outstretched.

Neil sighed and then reached in his pocket, pulling out his wallet. He opened it up and pulled out some bills which he gave to Kristen who took it eagerly.

"Well, thanks and hope you had a good time!" Kristen said to him as he left.

Once she had closed the door and locked it again, I sat up in the bed letting my oversized sweatshirt fall back down again to my bare hips.

"OK, what the hell was THAT all about?" I demanded.

Kristen looked at me with her classic doe eyes, as if she had no idea what she was talking about.

"Don't give me that look... You know damn well what I'm talking about girl. So what's with the money?" I said, insisting on an answer, "You know, I'm no fucking whore."

"Hey, a girl's got to make ends meet," she said with a serious look, "Not everyone has a rich lawyer for a daddy you know."

Unconvinced, I just folded my arms and remained there on the edge of the bed. At this point I had no idea what to say to her. Kristen was my favorite cousin and I loved her dearly, but I never dreamed she would prostitute herself! Then I remembered how when I tried out the escort business and my mom had asked me back what I thought the men who hired me thought of me, whether they thought I was just an extra slutty date or a prostitute. At the time, I had insisted that since I wasn't doing it for the money it meant I wasn't a whore. If I was to be honest with myself though, how much different was that from what Kristen was doing?

Kristen sat down next to me and I felt her hand on my bare bottom, rubbing me slowly.

"So anyway, did Neil fuck you good?" she asked in an transparent attempt to change the subject. "From what I saw, you wanted it pretty bad yourself."

Even though she was asking me about it, oddly enough, it was almost as if it had never happened. Things had gone so quickly, and to be brutally honest he was so forgettable, that if wasn't for the cum still oozing from my pussy, I could almost convince myself it had never even happened. Of course I LOVE to be fucked and it HAD felt good to feel a hard dick in me again, even if it wasn't something I would go home and brag to my mom about.

6. Contestant Number 2, Come on Down!

When I didn't say anything in return, she got up and looked at her list of names. Kristen picked up the phone and called the next guy, a conversation that lasted all of about ten seconds.

"Well, here comes number two!" she announced.

As much as I was starting to accept all of this, I still couldn't help but frown. Technically I hadn't agreed to do another guy. Since I hadn't protested, she took it as acquiescence on my part. That's just how I was thinking about it now, doing it for HER, not me.

My thoughts were interrupted by a timid knock at the door and Kristen opened it to let the next guy in. First impressions this time were polar opposites of the first, leading me to wonder about the criteria for weeding-out process. Crap, if this guy made the cut, I could only imagine what the guys she tossed out must have been like! He looked like the classic geek; short and skinny, bad haircut, thick black rimmed glasses, clothes that looked like his mother had picked out for him this morning. Probably the one thing that stuck out the most, though, was the expression on his face. "Deer in the headlights" was never a more appropriate description for what he looked like.

With the bitchy mood I was in, had your typical macho guy come in and started ordering me about just so he could fuck me any way he wanted, I might had just crossed my legs and told him to go to hell. For some reason, this guy (Kristen hadn't even told me his name yet) caught me off guard and my instincts kicked in. If there was one thing that turned me on, it was to tease some poor guy who wasn't sure of himself.

Scooting back on the bed, I put my feet on the edge and opened my legs like some shameless stripper flashing the guys in the front row. My sweatshirt was still hanging down onto my lap, covering up most of my crotch but I was sure he could see enough to know I wasn't wearing anything else underneath, at least not so far as my bottom was concerned. Once again the light switch in my head flipped and suddenly I was feeling incredibly horny and my pussy was tingling like crazy. Had I been alone I would've been masturbating like mad. As it was, here was this dorky guy, wanting to fuck me, standing just a few feet away so why not take advantage of the situation?

"C'mon, David, can't you see she wants it?" Kristen teased the poor boy. Then she lowered her voice and whispered to him, "By the way, you DO know you're paying whether you fuck her or not, don't you?"

David, at least I knew his name now, hesitated again so I figured he needed some more "incentive". Unlike his predecessor, it was sort of cute to watch the geek's reactions. Obviously he must have wanted to have sex with a girl at some point or why put his name in Kristen's can? Maybe he had done it on a dare, figuring the odds that his name would actually be pulled to be impossible. How many times had he masturbated dreaming of being called to come to Kristen's room and fucking her or Sara - or both? Undoubtedly, in his dreams he had been in charge and a great lover, making the two sluts cum again and again until finally he came all over their faces. Only problem was now he facing a real girl, not just some imaginary dream, and he was back to being his usual geeky self.

I pulled myself to the edge of the bed and stood up. The sweatshirt dropped down to cover my bare bottom but that didn't matter at the moment. All I had on my mind was getting my hands on this shy boy's dick, to do everything he had ever dreamed a girl could do to him. By the time I was done, he would be jerking off three times a day remembering me!

Since he wasn't helping out by moving forward, I stepped up to him and then dropped to my knees in front of him. Quickly, I grabbing his belt and undid it and then unsnapped his jeans. When I drew down the zipper it sounded incredibly loud in the stillness of the room. Kristen wasn't making a sound and David was just staring down at me as I pulled his jeans down to his ankle. I couldn't help but smile when I saw he was wearing classic Haines jockey shorts but my attention quickly turned to other things as I saw his dick was threatening to pop out the top of the elastic waistband.

"Mmmmmmm, let's see what we've got under here," I murmured softly, speaking for the first time as my fingers grabbed each side of his shorts and started to pull them down. I had to pull them out and away from his body to keep his hardening dick from catching which then flopped out when it was freed from the confines of his restrictive underwear.

I heard Kristen draw in a breath as we both stared at the dick that was now just inches in front of my face. Damn, shy little David was hung like a horse! I glanced over at her with a nasty grin on my face. From the hungry look on her face, it was obvious she was wishing she had taken on this one. It was probably meant to be a joke on her part, bringing in the geeky David, but now it was looking more like the joke was on her!

"Back off cuz, it's all mine," I teased her as I reached for his fat cock and grabbed it in my hand.

He had what I like to refer to as a "two-hander plus", meaning that I could use two hands on him and still leave his head sticking out like the knob at the end of a baseball bat. Unfortunately, our time was limited so I wasn't going to be able to fool around playing with it as much as I would have liked. Oh well! Taking a deep breath, I just went for it and opened my mouth wide to take him in.

To my delight, David started to moaned softly as I took about half of him comfortably into my mouth and started to do a head bob on his dick. As much as I would have normally loved to have sucked him for a while, what I REALLY wanted was to be fucked by this wonderful dick so the blowjob was more just to get him nice and hard than anything else. That was certainly not going to take a lot of effort judging from the rate at which his cock was blowing up like a balloon at a fair booth.

Actually, when a guy is this big I prefer being fucked over a BJ anyway. Most of the time, the age-old adage, "size doesn't matter" was actually true as far as I was concerned when it came to sex. It was only when the extremes were reached that I cared. A small cock was easy to suck but if it was TOO small, then there was a lack of sensation in my cunt.

On the other hand, an extremely large cock was difficult to blow. About the only reason I liked to suck big cocks was to show off as over the years I've gotten the deep-throat technique down pretty well. As much as it turned guys on though, it is a pain and honestly, a cock down your throat isn't the most comfortable thing in the world as you can't breathe! When an extra big cock was fucking me, though, then it WAS better. It had to be pretty large to make much difference but in David's case, I couldn't wait to feel that dick deep inside of me.

Knowing Kristen, I had no doubt that she was making a mental note of David's cock and I had a feeling she would be calling him back for an encore performance before long. She loved big cocks as a rule, and now that she knew what David was packing there was no way she would be letting this one run around without getting a piece of it for herself. Knowing she would be sucking him, I wanted to be sure to set the bar high for her so I dropped his dick from my lips and looked up at David.

"Get ready David... watch this!" I forewarned him.

After taking a few deep breaths to hyperventilate, I went down on his cock but this time I didn't stop when my mouth felt full but instead I dropped down even further onto his cock. About three-quarters of the way down, I felt the tip of head pushing against the back of my throat. Despite my anticipation, for just a second I thought I was going to gag but then I relaxed my throat as best I could and pushed my head down on him further. His cock forced its way down into my throat and once it went in a little, the gag reflex went away. I felt him filling my throat as my face went down to meet the base of his dick. A sense of thrill and accomplishment filled me as I took his entire cock in my mouth with my lips tight around the base of it in his crotch.

One thing I had noticed earlier was that David had a decent covering of pubic hair and from the faint odor of soap, he must have washed himself before making his entrance. Even so, as I sucked him more his male muskiness started to overpower everything else as he got more worked up and I could taste the distinct flavor of his swollen dick.

"Oh my god," he groaned, "That's incredible."

It wasn't clear whether he was talking about the way it felt or the sight of his cock disappearing inside my mouth. Different guys tell me different things about how it feels to get their cocks sucked. Some claim to love the feeling, especially the 3way I use my tongue on them. Others tell me it is watching a girl take their cock in their mouth that really turns them on. Personally, I think the latter guys are more into the domination aspect more than anything. Somehow they think that a girl is being submissive when she sucks his dick. Frankly, I look at it just the opposite - who is controlling who when I have his most tender body part between my teeth?

From his reaction, I wondered if any girl had ever taken David's cock all the way down before? For that matter, had he even HAD a BJ before? With a monster dick like his, surely word had to have gotten around so I doubted that he was a virgin. Even if he had been sucked before, I would be willing to bet hard cash that none of them were able to do to him what I was doing at this moment.

Since it's physically impossible to breath with a dick down your throat, I couldn't stay this way very long. Twisting my head around his shaft, I slowly raised my head and then let his cock pop from my mouth, then quickly drawing in a deep breath of air. Looking over at Kristen, I winked at her and from the grin on her face, I knew she understood the challenge I had just thrown at her. She wasn't a bad cocksucker herself from what I had seen in the past.

David was as hard as an iron rod by now and time was flying by so if I was going to be fucked by this great cock then I knew I had to move things along. In one swift motion I pulled the sweatshirt up and over my head, dropping it on the end of the bed and then stood back a little from David. My pussy tingled as his eyes roamed over my bare body, staring at my boobs and pussy the most. No girl in the world could ever say she didn't like a guy looking at her the way David was looking at me now. He wanted me... he wanted me bad and I loved it.

"You ready to fuck me now, David?" I asked him softly, with just a little flirting in my voice.

"Uhhhhh, sure!" he said after a moment's hesitation. Like he was going to say no. I would have bet good money that this was the first time in David's life that a decent looking girl had ever stood naked in front of him and invited him to fuck her in such direct words.

"Then do it," I said seductively as I turned him around and steered him backwards to the bed.

It was all just a little silly in that he still had his pants down around his ankle so he had to shuffle his way; but then it was only a few feet until we were there. I put my hands on his shoulders and shoved him such that he fell back on the bed. Reaching down, I lifted his feet, sneakers and all, until he got the hint and twisted his hips so he was now laying the full length of the bed on his back with his head on the pillow.

Kristen was still watching intently and unknown to David, she had quietly brought out her phone and was starting to take some pics. We had never discussed doing any photos but I figured I didn't have anything worry about since I wasn't the one who went to school here. Somehow I didn't think David would be too thrilled about it, though.

Time was still passing quickly so I jumped up on the bed and straddled his legs, holding his cock with one hand while I brushed my hair out of the way with the other. My pussy was still pretty wet from my last fucking, not to mention the remains of Neil's cum which I doubted David had any idea was waiting inside of me to lubricate his cock along with my pussy juices.

"I'm gonna ride your cock now David, is that what you want?" I said with a naughty grin, "You want me to ride your nice, big cock David? C'mon, tell me."

David's arms were at his sides with his hands were flat on the bed as if he didn't know what to do with them. Fortunately, I knew what to do with mine as I scooted up on him until I was positioned over his throbbing dick. God, it felt so damn big in my hand! My pussy was really craving this big cock by now and so I hurried as fast as I could to get him in me. Holding him with my right hand, I dropped down until I felt his cock head just start to push up against my anxious pussy. Wiggling my hips, I felt it move under me until the tip was just trying to push its way inside of me and at that point, I literally just sat down on him.

David's cock was now stiff as a steel pole and with my pussy being so wet together with the full weight of my body pressing down on him, his cock had no place to go other than straight up inside of me. I couldn't help but cry out as it felt like I was being ripped apart momentarily as his fat dick opened me up and drilled its way into me like a railroad spike being nailed into the ground with a sledge hammer. Just as quickly, an incredible surge of pleasure consumed me as I felt him filling me up inside with my bare ass pressed against his coarse pubic hair. One quick lift and another drop, just as quick as the first and I was there.

"Oh fuck, I'm cumming," I gasped to the delight of Kristen and the astonishment of David.

His cock had to feel like it was in some medieval vise as my pussy clamped down on his cock and squeezed it tightly as my muscles convulsed involuntarily around his dick. I had one hand on each of my boobs and I gripped them like a climber making her way up a mountain wall, my fingers pressed deeply into them.

"Go girl!" Kristen cheered me on. With my eyes shut tight I didn't see her but I could imagine what she was doing. Either she was taking more pics with her phone or she was playing with herself. Knowing Kristen, it was probably both.

It was a relatively short orgasm, as orgasms typically go for me, but extremely intense. Beyond the incredible sensation of a cock this size inside of me, there was something about David that just got me turned on. Not that I would ever want him as a boyfriend, not in a million years. He claimed he wasn't a virgin yet I had a suspicion either he was flat out lying or whatever experience he had, it wasn't much – and certainly not with a real slut like me. That was probably why he had signed up for Kristen's little house of prostitution, to get fucked really good for the first time in his life. Well, he would remember this time, that was for sure!

"C'mon Kelly, make him cum," Kristen urged me, "We don't have all night, you know."

It would have suited me fine to have just turned off the kitchen timer but at the same time, it WAS nice to know there was a cutoff point already established. It made it less awkward to tell a guy that I was done what I wanted with him and that he needed to go. Looking over at the desk, I saw I had less than five minutes so it was time to kick things up a notch.

"Your turn now," I told David as I started to hump his cock like I was riding some kind of mechanical bull. Leaning forward, I put my hand on the back of the bed behind his head and rocked on my knees forward and back, causing his dick to slide in and out of me without him having to do a thing - which was good because up until now, he had just been laying there like a corpse.

"You can touch me, you know," I encouraged him, "You can suck my tits, too."

My boobs were handing right over his face as I fucked his cock and that little encouragement was all he needed as he lifted his head up and grabbed one of my boobs like a calf going for its first taste of its mother's milk. At the same time I felt his hands on my bare bottom and his fingers moving over my bare ass. I loved my ass to be touched and played with, especially by someone like David, who had probably never felt a girl's ass like mine before, if he had ever felt one at all.

There wasn't any time for theatrics, multiple positions, etc. so I just humped his cock the same as if he had been masturbating. Of course, I would like to think my warm and wet pussy felt a lot better around his dick than his hand! There was no doubt in my mind that it wouldn't be long before this kid was cumming and sure enough, I felt him begin to squirm under me and I knew the time was near.

David looked up at me and I saw panic in his eyes.

"Oh my God! You gotta get off, I don't have a rubber on!" he gasped, as if THAT was going to make me give up this glorious dick in me. Fat chance.

"It's OK, you can cum in me," I assured him, "I'm on the pill."

I didn't bother adding that at this point, it really didn't matter. Once the male launch sequence was engaged, there was no extinguishing the fuse and David's countdown was well underway. Personally, I find it intriguing that guys can't stop themselves from cumming. If I don't feel like cumming, nothing on earth can FORCE me to. David couldn't stop what was about to happen if you held a gun to his head, which was just fine with me!

Feeling him tensing under me, I leaned back and sat up straight on his dick, letting my full weight bear down on his crotch to drive him in me as far as he would go. From the way it felt, that was quite a ways!

"C'mon, you can do it!" I encouraged him, wiggling my ass around him causing his cock to move around in me.

He was looking down at where my pussy was joined up to him, where his nice thick cock completely disappeared inside of me. My hand instinctively went to my pussy where I rubbed my clit in front of him as I waited for the inevitable results of my efforts.

"Ahhhhhh," was all he said as I felt his hips push up against me.

As much as I love KNOWING a guy is cumming in me, how much I actually FEEL can vary quite a bit. Some guys either don't cum a lot or it's a weak ejaculation and although I can tell from his reactions that he is doing it, I can't really feel his cum when it emerges from his cock and shoots into me. At the opposite end of the spectrum were guys who came in me like a garden hose had been pushed up inside of me and faucet was suddenly turned ON except it felt warm and the feeling faded away quickly after a few moments. The vast majority of guys fall somewhere in between but when you were lucky enough to have one of the latter ones, you just want him to never stop cumming!

David was one of those, one of the ones that could make me scream out with happiness when he came in me. God, when he came in me it was like my whole lower abdomen was suddenly flooded with warmth and I felt his cock jerk into me just a little bit more as his primal instinct to mate me took over, overwhelming any concerns he might still have about getting me pregnant. I like it best when a man shoots his sperm as deep as he can into me and fortunately, it seems most guys like that as well.

"Damn that feel so good," I moaned softly, throwing my head back and rubbing my clit even faster.

I was just on the verge of cumming again when the damn kitchen timer went off.

"That's it David," Kristen announced, "Time's up."

"Fuck that," I told her in a hoarse voice as my pussy was about to explode. There was no way I going to stop when I was this close to cumming, no matter what her silly timer said.

Just then my orgasm struck me and again I groaned loudly and my pussy gripped his cock tightly as if trying to make sure he couldn't pull it out, as if that thought would ever cross his mind.

"Oh God... YES!" I moaned, "That's it... that's what I wanted!"

It was a good thing I was sitting on his lap as my legs felt like butter under me and I feel forward onto his chest. His cock stayed inside of me and I felt him moving in and out of me ever so slightly. As sensitive as my pussy was at that moment, it might have been only a fraction of an inch but it felt incredible. Even had I wanted to, I couldn't move or speak. I just me laying on top of him like a dead weight, my entire body tingling was my orgasm kept throbbing in my pussy and emanating throughout my body. My head was buried in the pillow next to his head and it was all I could do to breath let alone say anything.

"Now THAT"S what I call a good fuck," Kristen announced.

I didn't have the energy to lift my head to look at her so I could only imagine what she was doing. Even though the primary shock of my orgasm was waning, it was like a multitude of aftershocks keep bursting as his cock throbbed in me. Each time he would shift his weight or squirm a little bit under my weight, it would rub his cock against the inner walls of my pussy and deliver yet another pulse of pleasure for me to enjoy.

"C'mon Kelly, we need to get things moving girl," my cousin urged me, sounding a bit impatient now..

Personally, I could have laid there another hour with his cock still in me and his cum draining slowly out of me. It just felt so damn GOOD and I tried to imagine how it must look to Kristen, seeing his dick from behind me and between my legs, pushing its way inside of me and disappearing from view. She probably wanted it for herself more than anything else.

Reluctantly, I rolled over on my side, allowing his dick to slide out from inside of me. Suddenly my pussy felt so cold and empty and for an instant I toyed with the idea of remounting him. Better judgment took over, though, and I allowed him to escape from under me and he got out of bed. As for me, I rolled back over onto my stomach and laid there like I was dead. Somehow I found the willpower move on my side just in time to watch David pull up his pants and tuck in his shirt. God, seeing his dick, still hard and wet from my pussy, disappear from view as his shorts were pulled up and over it, I wanted so bad to just jump out of bed and have him fuck me again and again.

David started to leave but it wasn't going to be that easy for him. Kristen met him at the door on his way out, little can in hand.

"Well David, looks like you fucked my cousin pretty damn good," she giggled, "Now don't forget something for me."

David sighed and pulled out his wallet, dropping some bills into Kristen's can. I couldn't see how much it was but then did it really matter? Too bad he didn't know that any guy with a cock like his could fuck me for free anytime he wanted to - and I meant just about any time.

7. Kristen Cleans Me Off

"Damn Kristen, he was a LOT better than the first guy," I said to her as soon as the door was shut and we were alone once again.

"Yeah, it looked like you were enjoying it, that's for sure," Kristen agreed, "Made me want to jump in for a little of it myself!"

"Well?" I said slowly and drawn out, "Why not girl?"

Kristen laughed and flung her blonde hair back and forth. "Maybe some other time," she agreed, "But tonight, someone was to keep track of things."

Then I saw the look in her eyes and the way she was licking her lips and I had a feeling the next name wasn't going to be drawn out right away. Boy, I sure can call 'em!

"Of course, that doesn't mean we can't take an intermission break," she giggled, moving in closer to me.

I knew exactly what my horny little cousin wanted and it was the same as what I wanted to do as well so I certainly didn't resist. If anything, I encouraged her by rolling back over on my back and spreading my legs apart for her to see my wet pussy with David's cum still dripping from me.

"Hmmm, looks like somebody needs to be cleaned up before the next guy anyway," she rationalized.

I had a pretty good idea how Kristen intended to "clean" me and what she would be using to do it with - her incredibly talented tongue.

Kristen never even bothered to undress, not that she was wearing all that much to start with. She just maneuvered herself quickly between my legs and without another word or even a sound, stuck her blonde head straight down into my crotch and began to lick the cum from my pussy. I almost jumped off the bed when her tongue flicked over my hypersensitive clit.

"Oh god Kristen," I moaned, "That feels so damn good!"

As Kristen licked me, my pussy would contracted, forcing more of the cum out of me which she would then lap up like a cat with a bowl of milk. Her tongue made long, sweeping runs up and down my pussy slit, starting from the top edge and going down just past my pussy hole and then slowly back up again.

"Oh yeah, that's it Kristen, right there," I groaned as she worked her incredible tongue around my clit, driving me practically insane with pleasure.

"Oh my god YESSSSSS," I cried out, louder than I probably should have, as yet another orgasm hit me. This time it was different from the previous two, which is only obvious when you consider the others were with a guy and this one was with my cousin.

My pussy was already soaked but I could still feel the wetness of my orgasm draining from me and onto her face. Kristen looked so incredibly cute down there between my legs, her blonde hair contrasting against my light olive skin and her deep blue eyes staring up at my brown ones. Other than her mother and mine, Kristen was the best when it came to licking my pussy and I never turned down an opportunity when she was available.

When my orgasm finally waned, Kristen got up and stood up next to me, her mouth a grin from ear to ear and her face was covered with my pussy cum.

"Hmmmmmm, you know, he tasted pretty good in you," she declared, like a wine connoisseur after tasting a freshly opened bottle of the finest wine. "Damn, I'm gonna have to get a piece of that for my own sometime."

After what she had done to me, I was exhausted and left panting heavily on the bed. Even so, Kristen was relentless, calling up the third guy she pulled from the can. I looked at her with almost desperation. Damn, I really needed a break!

It didn't matter, I wasn't about to get one as someone knocked on the door once again. For the rest of the evening, it pretty much went on like that. In all Kristen claims that ten guys in all did me. I have to take her word for it because after the fifth or sixth, I simply lost count. It was almost like I was covered by a dense fog, except this was a fog filled with sensual pleasures. If you were to base everything only on my memories, one guy just blends into the next, none of the rest really standing out on their own.

A few facts about the night, some of which I have to take Kristen's word for it.

As I said earlier, a total of ten guys fucked me in all although I only remember the names of the first two. For some reason it seems like it was more but I don't think she would have lied to me about that. It's not like my total was threatening her by any means!

ALL of them came just once and ALL of them came in my pussy which was sort of a statistical anomaly. Usually, when I get gangbanged at least ONE guy will want to cum on me somewhere where he can see it. For whatever reason, that never happened this time around although I can attest that I wasn't disappointed - I HATE getting dried cum off of me and out of my hair afterwards.

Kristen claimed to bring in a total of $250. She charged different guys different rates but she wouldn't let me in on what her pay scale was. Personally, I think she should at least double her rates!

We quit early, around ten o'clock, because she claimed I fell asleep and wouldn't wake up. Obviously I disagree with her testimony but I don't even remember the last guy so who knows, maybe she is right.

We spent the night in bed together and in the morning took showers such that I was ready to head back home when she went to her first class. More than a few of the girls on her floor gave me some pretty strange looks but nobody said anything to either of us. Even so, I doubted it was any secret what Kristen was doing in her room with a constant parade of men going and out at regular intervals. I would have loved to hear what the other girls had to say about her little business adventure!

When I got home my mother immediately cornered me and demanded to know all the details. She was a little shocked at the turn of events at first but then considering who I was with, it really didn't surprise her all that much. I sort of "forgot" to tell her about the money side of things as I wasn't sure how my mom would react knowing her sweet little niece was a college prostitute. It wasn't like she was hooking on street corners so I didn't feel bad about keeping it as Kristen and my little secret.

(Mar 21) Chapter 134: Youth Pastor, My Revenge

Me (22)
Cheri - Pastor Ken's wife (26)

During summer break, just before my junior year, I had my eye on our Youth Pastor. Although he was married, I could tell he still had an eye for the girls so when I thought an opportunity had arose, I went for it. What happened next was completely opposite of what I expected. It was almost two years before I finally got my revenge.

1. Why I Hated My Youth Pastor

All my life my parents have attended the same Presbyterian church which means as long as I lived at home, so did I. It is fairly typical of the old large protestant churches with about two thousand members on the roles and maybe five to six hundred who attended regularly. Pastor Ken became the youth pastor at my parent's church while I was at college. Not quite six feet tall, he is lean and muscular with a warm face that made me melt whenever he smiled. He and his wife Cheri were the stereotypical youth leaders, young and good looking, full of energy with bubbling personalities. They got along great with the kids and from what I have seen whenever I'm home, they have developed the best youth program the church has ever had.

When I was home from school during summer break between my sophomore and junior years, I helped out with the church youth so I got to know Pastor Ken and Cheri pretty well. It was a little weird for me in that Pastor Ken is only five years older than me. Early on there was one thing I have noticed that I doubted most people did - Pastor Ken had a wandering eye for young girls!

As for me, other than a wandering look, he never made any move towards me or gave any indication he would ever be unfaithful to Cheri. Of course, that didn't stop me from fantasizing! Finally, I was about to head back to school again so after discussing it with my mom, I decided to go for it (don't blame her, she wasn't thrilled nor did she endorse my idea).

The details of what happened are in my diary entry for 2005 (Aug 24) Chapter 97: Sex With My Youth Pastor. In short, I did my best to come on to him but what happened was totally different from what I expected. First, he accused me of being a slut and a bad influence on the younger girls in church. He even questioned whether I should be involved with the youth at all given my reputation for promiscuity.

Then, just when I thought I might be in real trouble, he started feeling me up. He accused me of being a "predator", consuming whatever "game" I wanted, accustomed to the whole world bowing at my feet doing my bidding. He said he knew what I was trying to do with him and that he recognized me for what I was. It started getting scary then, as he told me that HE was now the one in charge and that I had to do exactly as he said. I was helpless to do anything other than let him fuck me. The funny thing is, that is exactly what I had wanted him to do from the start except now it was more like being raped. Just as I was about to cum he would stop and frustrate me, laughing that he was teasing me the way I teased other men.

When it was all over, he claimed that the only reason he had fucked me to teach me a lesson. He told me that he wanted me to learn that not every man was put on earth for my pleasure and that I couldn't just go after anyone I pleased without there being consequences. Then he warned me to never to talk what happened or he would have to give me another "lesson". I will never forget his final words to me as I left his office, my pussy sore from the hard fucking he had just given me.

"If there's ever a day Kelly you decide you need to talk about your life; if you ever reach a point where you question whether what you are doing is really what God wants for you; if you just need someone who can talk to you and be totally honest and frank about how the lifestyle you have chosen is truly affecting you; just know that I am here. Don't ever make the mistake though of thinking you can seduce me or control me – I recognize the beast in you and you can't hide it or disguise it from me. Good night Kelly."

That was over a year and a half ago. Although we never did discuss it again, I remembered what he did to me every time I saw him or even thought about him.

Someday I would find a way to make him pay for what he did to me.

2. Revenge Feels Good!

Almost two years later I was a senior, home for Easter Break with just a couple of months left before I graduated. When I attended church with my parents, I saw Pastor Ken with his wife, Cheri, and for what must have been the thousandth time, remembered what the bastard had done to me. Sitting in the pews, all sorts of nasty ideas came to mind as to what I could do to him but none of them were something I would ever actually do. Besides, almost anything I had in mind would put myself in jeopardy as well.

As much as I hated him, I had to admit that he was looking hotter than ever. A couple more years had given him a more mature appearance and his wife Cheri looked sexier as well. Just a year older than me, Cheri was the kind of girl most women secretly hated and even I couldn't help but feel a bit jealous. She looked good no matter what she wore or how she did her hair. No doubt she would have looked sexy wearing bib overalls and work boots! Looking at her petite figure, I could only imagine her in a thong bikini. She normally dressed pretty conservatively, as was expected for a pastor's wife, but I couldn't imagine a girl with her looks and personality being quite the goody two-shoes that people thought she was.

The more I looked at her, the more a thought kept coming to mind. Hmmm, maybe the way to seek my revenge wasn't a frontal assault but something a little more subtle...

It was a Wednesday night and as usual, the church was packed with multiple activities. Most of it was centered around the youth groups although a few adult Bible studies and such went on as well. When I was younger I always looked forward to Wednesday nights as they were the most fun, especially compared to your typical boring Sunday service. At school I was very involved with the youth ministry at a church next door to my school and now when I was home I liked to drop in and lend a hand when I could.

While walking down one of the hallways in the classroom wing of the church, I almost bumped into Cheri when she stepped out of a classroom without looking to see if anyone was coming first.

"Sorry Kelly, my mind just isn't where it should be!"

I couldn't help but laugh as she had this "blonde: expression on her face. In all fairness, Cheri may be a blonde but she is actually quite intelligent and there have been times when we have debated issues and she was way ahead of me. Even so, it was almost reassuring to see she could be just as ditzy as any other blonde at times.

"Everything OK?" I asked. I wasn't laughing now as it seemed she was more than little distracted.

"Oh sure, you know how it is sometimes with these kids though."

"Yeah, they can be quite a handful at times," I agreed.

"It's just sometimes you want to just run into a room, lock the door and scream," she said softly.

"Anything I can do?"

"No, I just needed to blow off some steam. Sorry, I didn't mean to dump on you."

She gave me a quick hug and started to head down the hallway away from me. After a couple of steps she turned with an odd expression on her face.

"Hey, would you like to get a cup of coffee or something later?"

"Sure!" I replied, not even thinking about it before answering.

"Great, I'll see you later then."

With that we each went our ways, leaving me to wonder just what THAT was all about. I had spent dinners and evenings at her house before, but it was always something related to the youth and it was always with other people there, including Pastor Ken. Cheri had always been nice to me, but it felt more like she was just being nice because that was what she was supposed to do, not because we had anything personal between us. Put it this way - I would never have called her a "friend".

The rest of the evening went uneventfully although I found my thoughts wandering constantly about why Cheri would have asked me to meet her afterwards. Of course in my fantasies we would go straight to her house and have a wild evening of lesbian sex but in reality, I figured maybe it was nothing more than it appeared; she was flustered and just needed someone to talk to and relax for a few minutes before heading home and I happened to be in the right place at the right time.

After most everyone had left and I had finished putting things away, I looked around for Cheri and realized we hadn't laid out our plans very well. Our church was pretty big and I had no idea where to meet her so I just made my way to the parking lot and fortunately, she must have had the same idea as we both arrived at the same time. She asked if I could drive and the two of us got in my car and I drove to a nearby Eat-n-Park restaurant. It took only a few minutes to get there and neither of us said much as I weaved my way through traffic.

At the restaurant, we were seated in a both along the wall. Cheri ordered coffee while I just asked for a Diet Coke. We chatted about general stuff, church, weather, school, etc. until our drinks arrived.

After the waitress had left, Cheri took a deep breath and sighed, her eyes had this faraway look in them.

"Something you want to talk about?" I quietly probed.

"Oh, I don't know," she said softly, "Sometimes it just seems so overwhelming."

"What do you mean?"

"Well, like tonight. Everyone expects me to be Miss Perfect, like they can say anything to me because I'm not a real person. I'm 'the Pastor's wife", otherwise known as superwoman."

"What happened?"

"You know how those kids in the Junior High group can be sometimes. I about lost it and you should have seen the look on some of the mother's faces. It was like Billy Graham had cursed or something. They didn't help at all; it was like they expected me to be able to handle their little monsters all by myself."

She seemed genuinely upset which is the only reason I could see as to why she would open up like this with me. Even though we were almost the same age, she was married and to the youth pastor at that. I knew she hadn't finished college but quit when Ken had finished and wanted to move to Pittsburgh to take his current position. They were married shortly afterwards. Personally, I couldn't imagine being I her shoes. Heck, I couldn't even keep a steady boyfriend and here she was all married and facing tons of responsibilities.

"Sorry," she murmured, barely loud enough for me to hear, "I shouldn't be saying all this to you. It's just there aren't many girls our age in church and I wouldn't trust most of the ones there anyway. Just a bunch of gossip whores."

"Hey, that's OK" I reassured her, "I would never say anything to anyone else."

Suddenly she lifted her head and looked at me. She still looked a bit distressed but a little bit of confidence was back in her face.

"I hate to ask but would you mind stopping over at our place for a while?" She looked around at the crowd surrounding us and leaned forward to whisper to me, "Too many listening ears, you know?"

I agreed although I had to admit the first thought to come to mind was whether or not her husband was home. I didn't ask, figuring it really didn't matter one way or the other. If he was then he was and it was as simple as that.

She paid the bill and I left a tip as we got up and I drove the short trip to their apartment. She didn't say a word the entire way but just sat in the passenger seat with her hands clasped on her lap like she was praying. Well, maybe she was!

I notice their car wasn't in the lot when I drove up and when we walked in the lights were out and nobody was home.

"Ken's at some Elder's meeting they're having tonight," she explained, turning on the lights and closing the door behind us. "It'll probably go on for a few more hours if I know THAT group."

She walked to a cabinet and turned to me.

"Wine?"

THAT took me by surprise as I had never seen her drink before and I didn't even know she did, period. Although our church is not one of those that forbids alcohol, it is still heavily discouraged and I had never seen or heard of any of the pastors indulging.

"Something white or a blush?"

Normally I don't drink a lot of anything other than Diet Coke although at times I have had a glass of wine at dinner with my parents. It's not that I have anything moral or whatever against it, I just don't like the taste of most alcoholic beverages, especially beer. One thing I can say that I doubt many girls my age can, I have never been drunk in my life! A good glass of white wine, though, can be alright at the right time.

I have no idea what she poured me but I sipped and it and it was pretty good. She poured a glass for herself - about twice as much as mine I noticed, and the two of us sat down on the couch together. My eyes couldn't help but widen a bit as she drank about half her glass with the first swig!

"Wow, I needed that!" she said, looking at me with a sly grin on her face. "So, how's school been going for you?"

For the next fifteen minutes or so we just talked about school matters. She had gone to Liberty Baptist in Virginia, best known for its founder - the Rev. Jerry Falwell and I had gone to a religious college in Ohio so we had quite a bit in common when it came to how our schools were run and such.

"So tell me, can you dance with boys at your school?" she asked, "They couldn't at my school for the first few years but they've toned it down a bit recently."

I noted that we weren't nearly as strict in that department but when it came to booze and sex, it was pure prohibition. She laughed as she filled her glass - for the second time by this time while I was barely a third of the way through mine and it was only half-filled to start with.

"Yeah, it was so stupid - like girls dancing with other girls wasn't just as much a turn-on as doing it with boys," she giggled.

She took a big swallow and almost dropped her glass as she slumped back in the couch and put her bare feet up on the coffee table. She was wearing jeans which were just tight enough to show off her slim legs without being TOO tight as to call attention to them. When we started she was wearing a sweatshirt but that was lost about halfway through the second glass of wine as her body temperature rose from the alcohol leaving her wearing a thin cami underneath. It was sheer enough to show off her white bra and tight enough to provide a tempting outline of her perky breasts which I would judge to be in the middle of the B range. In many ways she reminded me of my cousin Kristen with her petite figure, blonde hair, firm breasts and giggle.

"All those stupid rules... how was anyone supposed to have any fun?" she went on, slurring her words just slightly.

I just sat there and looked at her, letting her go on. She was on a roll and I was curious as to where things were going.

"You know, I almost got kicked out once," she giggle, "I bet nobody here know THAT, not even Ken."

We were about two feet apart on the couch so I slid over a little bit closer to close the gap to a few inches and perched my feet up along hers on the table. I was dressed in jeans as well with a light blue blouse. Unlike her, though, I hadn't bothered with a bra, something I knew drew the attention of some of the moms but even more so that of the dads. I looked at her and waited for her to continue.

"Would you believe it? My roomie and I were masturbating when our stupid RA barged in and caught us. The bitch turned us in for 'promiscuous behavior' but we got off with a warning." She paused and looked at me with conspiratorial eyes and grinned mischievously, "I guess it's a good thing came in when she did. I can just imagine what she would've said then!"

I felt myself getting warmer between my legs and I would've loved to put my hand there and start touching myself but I didn't think we were ready for that - yet. God, I couldn't believe she was telling me all this! I twisted myself so I was sitting sideways on the couch, facing her with one leg under me and the other over the edge of the couch. I put my arm up on the couch behind her but didn't touch her in any way.

"So Cheri, I take it you like girls," I said softly. It wasn't an accusation or really even a question but more a confirmation of what I suspected as well as sending a signal that I didn't mind that she was.

"Well, my roomie was the only one I've ever been with. So much for my raging sex life. Did you know Ken is the only man I've ever had? I wasn't a virgin when we got married or anything but he was my first... Yep... a one guy, one girl woman... that's me."

She downed the last of her glass and leaned forward set it on the table rather precariously but somehow it didn't fall over. She flopped back against the couch again, her body almost limp as she let out another big sigh. Then she turned to me with a twinkle in her eye.

"From what I hear, though, you're quite the slut, aren't you Kelly?"

I couldn't help but look a little shocked. It wasn't so much the words but who was saying them. Despite all the wine and the comments to this point, I couldn't believe Cheri had said such a thing!

"Oh don't pretend," she said, laughing at herself, "Everybody knows it you know. Shit, don't you think I see Ken looking at you?"

That was the first time I had ever heard her use a swear word which surprised me more than anything else. Then what she said sunk in and for just a second I thought she was going to tell me she knew what happened between me and her husband. Fortunately, that didn't appear to be the case as she never made any mention of it.

She turned her head towards me and licked her lips subconsciously as our eyes met.

"I bet you've been with lots of girls, haven't you?"

"Well... a few," I confessed although I wasn't about to tell her I was related to most of them!

"I bet you've even been with some of the husbands here at church, haven't you?"

I hesitated at this one since one of those husbands was hers! Somehow I had a feeling she didn't know anything about THAT though or else I think she would have already mentioned it in the state she was in.

"Well... a few," I repeated myself and we both giggled as if we were teenagers talking about our first dates.

"Do you want mine?" she asked, her eyes boring into mine. Actually, I wasn't sure if this was a question or an offer so I punted.

"Well, he IS pretty cute but there's someone else I would rather have."

"Ohhhhhh? And just who would THAT be?" she asked, her eyes not even blinking now as she stared into mine.

I took a deep breath and decided it was now or never. I leaned over until our faces were barely an inch apart and whispered, "His wife."

Without waiting for a response, I allowed my arm behind her to drop over her shoulders and leaned forward just a little more until our lips touched. With my other arm, I took her by the hand and held it tight as my upper arm wrapped around her neck and cupped her breast through her cami and bra.

If she was going to resist, now would be the time and for a brief couple of seconds I braced myself for her reaction. I half expected that she would suddenly pull back and slap me or something but at the same time was hoping for the best. Thankfully, I wasn't disappointed.

Our lips met and she pushed back against mine, her eyes closed and her breathing quick as our tongues met and we kissed like lovers separated and now rejoined. She smelled so good - I was simply going to HAVE to find out what perfume she was wearing, we both scooted ourselves towards the other at the same time such that our bodies were firmly in touch with the other.

"I can't believe we're doing this," she whispered hoarsely as she took a breath. She may not have believed it but she certainly wasn't resisting!

I put my upper leg over hers and pressed our bodies closer together until my boobs were pushing against hers. I felt like some teenage boy groping and throwing himself at his date as she just laid back in the couch and let me do whatever I wanted without a single word or sign of protest.

I dropped her hand and put my hand between her legs, pressing my fingers between her thighs. She opened her legs for me, just as I like to do when a man starts to fondle me and I want to signal him that he's doing what I want. She was so warm I could feel it through her jeans and I could only imagine how wet she must be getting already.

"Mmmmmmm, you're so warm," I whispered as I cupped her pussy in the palm of my hand.

"Oh Kelly, what are you doing to me?" she said, not so much a question but a statement.

"Whatever you want Cheri... just tell me what you want," I whispered seductively in her ear.

"Ahhhhhh, you know what I want," she moaned as her hips wiggled under my hand as I increased the pressure against her crotch.

"I want you to tell me," I responded gently, "Tell me what you want me to do."

"Oh God, I need to be touched... it's been so long since someone touched me like Rachel did... Make love to me Kelly... please," she moaned.

It didn't take a rocket scientist to figure out that 'Rachel" must have been her old roomie so I didn't ruin the moment by asking. In fact, saying anything at this point would have been a bit pointless so I let my actions speak for me. First order of business was that cami and bra so I started to pull up on it but she wasn't wasting any time and helped me lift it up and over her head, leaving her sitting up with just her pretty white bra. She leaned forward and I unhooked the two clasps in the back and she slid it off her shoulders and then laid back again.

God her boobs were fantastic! For their size, they looked better than even my cousin's as they were virtually flawless in the way they held their shape and refused to sag even the slightest. Her nipples, perfectly centered and dark brown, were already hard as rock and sticking out from her boobs like bullets. Classic tear-drop in shape, I could have just stare at them all night! Instead, Cheri took my hand and put it on her breast.

"Touch me Kelly... touch me like only a woman can."

Her boobs fit perfectly in my hand as I cupped it and gently squeezed it - not TOO hard but enough to make her feel it. She moaned as my fingertips traced little circles around her nipples, lightly touching them and teasing them. Gripping the hard nipple between my thumb and forefinger, I pulled on it and twisted it slightly, rolling it between my fingers.

"Oh yeah, that's it... Oh god Kelly that feels SO good!"

I lowered my head and took her breast in my mouth, first on the nipple and then licking and sucking all over her magnificent breast. It was surely not the largest I had ever sucked on but it was certainly the most perfect in terms of shape and feel.

"Lick my nipples... oh yes, just like that!" she moaned as I felt her body squirming underneath me.

Looking down, I saw her hand had replaced mine between her legs as I squeezed and suck on her breasts. Cheri was rubbing herself between her thighs at a rate I was surprised wasn't wearing a hole in the denim. Well, now sense in making her work so hard so I stood up and looked down at her as she stared at me, trying to focus and weaving just a bit.

"Lay down," I told her, taking her by the bare shoulders and twisting her to the side.

She turned and I help her get her legs up on the couch and quickly undid her jeans and slid them down her legs. I couldn't help but smile at the sight of her standard white cotton panties. Well, it's not like I was really expecting a black lace thong or anything. She just laid there with her hands to her side as she waited for me to do whatever I was going to do next. Taking her panties by the sides, I pulled them down as she lifted her hips just enough to make it easier for me. My fingers traced along her gorgeous legs as I pulled the panties down and off her feet, tossing them into them middle of the living room.

"You look so beautiful, Cheri," I said gently as I stared at her incredible figure.

God what I would have given to have a body like hers! Her perfect boobs, flat stomach and softly rounded hips gave way to a hairy pussy - much hairier than I expected in this day. I guess with winter and such she hadn't the need to worry about a bathing suit so she had let it grow and it seemed such a contrast to see the wild bush of hair between her legs. She wasn't a natural blonde, though, to my disappointment, but rather more a light brown in tone and still quite a bit lighter than my cousin's (although you wouldn't know ninety percent of the time as she usually shaved it all off).

I wanted to jump on her that instant but I was still dressed but that was rectified quickly as I dropped my clothes to the floor next to the couch. With the both us of us now nude, it was time to get down to business. I couldn't wait to get a taste of that sweet little pussy below me! Climbing up on the couch, I nestled in between her legs, laying on my stomach with my legs against the arm of the couch behind me as she had her head resting on the opposite arm so she could look down and watch me. I pushed her inner leg up and had her rest it on the top of the couch while her outer leg fell over the edge and dangled, not quite touching the floor,

"Mmmmmmm, your pussy smells so sweet," I murmured, just loud enough for her to hear me in the stillness of their living room.

Indeed, I could see the wetness of her pussy as the hair around it was already damp and the odor of her sex filled my nostrils. My tongue reached out and I let just the tip of it touch the top of her pussy slit. Slowly I worked myself down, teasing her clit just a moment as I went by, until my mouth was at the entrance to her pussy.

Using my hand to pull her apart, I could see her wet pussy hole as I plunged my face into her. My face felt wet from her pussy juices and my noise rubbed up against her clit as my tongue tried to push its way into her tiny pussy. Her hips lifted reflexively and I put my hands under her ass to help hold her up to make it easier to lick her pussy.

"Oh Kelly, that feel so good!" she moaned as she squirmed under me.

I used the flat of my tongue against her clit, applying pressure to it and then lapping it up like a cat at a bowl of milk. God she tasted so good! For a moment I imagined Ken's dick in her, how he must cum in her and how it would taste to lick his cum as it drained from her pussy. I licked at her pussy, trying to taste the cum I was imagining coating it as she started to hump under me as if she was being fucked.

"Don't stop... oh my god don't stop now Kelly," she pleaded, her hands suddenly on top of my head, pushing my face into her crotch as she raised her hips up into it from the other direction.

She started to moan and even squeal a little as her passion began to overtake her. I loved the feel of her tight little ass in my hands. Even with my small hands I was able to get a good grip on her and she felt so incredible soft yet firm.

"Cumming... oh I'm cumming!" she moaned, practically pulling my hair out as she gripped my head and shoved it down into her crotch.

Her hips lifted upwards and stayed there as her body went rigid and she started to cry out from the pleasure and lust that was overwhelming her. I could feel her pussy pulsing under me, squeezing down and contracting as if there was a cock in it to hold onto. I stuck my finger in quickly to help her and her pussy grabbed onto me as if it had been offered a sacrifice.

"Fuck me Kelly, fuck me, fuck me, fuck me," she went on and on.

I added a second finger to the first and stroked them in and out of her pussy, literally fucking her with my fingers as I kept licking her pussy. Her pubic hair tickled my cheeks as I rubbed my face into her, using my nose to rub against her clit.

It seemed like hours but was probably more like five or ten minutes before she finally relaxed and collapsed on the couch, dropping her leg from the top of the couch onto the cushions. I wasn't quite done with her yet - not by a long shot!

"Oh I can't move," she said as she laid there, panting from her orgasm.

Nonetheless, I got up and put my right knee on the couch between her legs and straddle her cute leg while I lifted up her inner leg. Pushing forward, I advanced until my pussy was rubbing up against her and I ground my bare pussy against her hairy one, feeling the coarseness of her pubic hair against my smooth pussy. I only wished I had my double dildo with me! Normally not a big dildo fan, I LOVE my double dildo as it lets me get involved with other girls. Nonetheless, it still felt good to grind our crotches together and I could feel the wetness of her cunt against me.

"You like this?" I asked, not really expecting an answer so much as making a statement of sorts.

"I've never done this before," she finally answered, her eyes starting to glaze over. "It feels good though."

Sucking a guy while he sleeps is one thing but I wasn't into rubbing pussies with a girl after she had passed out so I was against the clock now if I wanted to get off myself. As I started to fondle myself, I knew it wasn't going to take much when I had such a beautiful woman under me, rubbing herself against my own pussy. With one hand keeping her leg from falling back down and the other fondling my pussy, I slowly ground myself against her in slow, deliberate circles.

Sure enough, it didn't take long and it was my turn to cum. I happened to look across the room and on one of the end tables I say a large photo of her and Ken on the beach, probably from their honeymoon. They made a beautiful couple and I imagined what it would be like to have him join about now. God I would love to feel a cock in me, alternating between me and Cheri and finally cumming on both of our pussies as we presented ourselves to him. The thought of Ken fucking the two of us was the final straw as I started to cum.

I didn't bother trying to talk as she was about out of it anyway and I doubt she had much of a clue as to what was happening by now anyway. That was just a well since I wasn't sure vet even if I COULD say anything intelligible in the state of mind I was in. I could myself beginning to release my cum as it gushed from me and covered her pussy hair before I ground it in with my pussy.

Finally it was my turn to be exhausted and I laid down beside her on the couch.

Fortunately neither of us was that big so we fit together nicely so long as we were tight together and I wasn't about to complain about THAT. I reached my head up to kiss her but she was out of it, her eyes closed and her breathing heavy. It was OK, though, as just the feel of her smooth naked body against me was enough to keep me horny all night! My pussy was throbbing still from my orgasm and although the primary fireworks had ended, there was still plenty of aftershocks to keep me happy. Now and then one would be particularly strong and I would tense and press against her until lit passed.

3. Revenge is Sweet

Who knows how long we would have stayed together on the couch, two nude young women just enjoying the feel of our naked bodies (well, at least I was as I doubted that Cheri was feeling ANYTHING at this moment). As Fate would have it, I was never to know the answer to that question. Somewhere in the back of my mind I heard a door opening and footsteps.

"Cheri?" someone called out and I immediately recognized it as Pastor Ken. Well, who else would it have been anyway?

"Hey baby, where are you?"

Before I could react he had made it into the living room where he came upon a scene I doubted had never imagined he would ever see in his lifetime - his nude wife in the arms of another WOMAN.

"What the HELL?"

I turned my head and grinned at him.

"Hey Pastor Ken, how ya doing?" I asked in a sweet voice, as if nothing was out of the ordinary. "So, do you want to join in or what?

"Shit, it would be you," he grumbled, his face turning darker and darker shades of red. It wasn't embarrassment but rage as the veins began to stick out from his forehead. "What the hell do you think you're doing with my wife?"

I stood up and faced him, gathering my clothes and slipping in my jeans quickly as I did.

"Well, THAT should be obvious, even to you," I taunted him. "Oh by the way, she's a GREAT fuck."

I had my jeans on and my blouse but it wasn't buttoned. Searching about desperately with my eyes, I remembered my shoes were by the door and thankfully I had left my keys in the car.

"You little bitch, you'll pay for this!" he growled as he approached the couch. I moved towards the door while he grabbed a blanket to throw over Cheri. The few seconds it took him to cover her were all I needed to make it to the door and grab my shoes. It's amazing how fast you can move when you are fearing for your life! Well, he may not have killed me but anything else was probably fair game.

"Well, if you ever touch me or threaten me again, I'll tell everyone what I did her tonight with your wife... AND what you did to me."

It wasn't an empty threat as I had a lot less to lose than he did in the deal. Before he could answer I was out the door and down the sidewalk to my car. As late as it was, there was nobody around, thankfully, to catch me half-dressed and I quickly slipped into my car and locked the doors. I didn't see him pursuing me but you couldn't be too careful! Buttoning my blouse, I slipped on my shoes and then headed for home.

4. Back Home Again

On the way home I realized I had never called to tell my parents where I was. God, they must be worried sick about me! Looking in the rearview mirror, I realized I looked pretty much like you would expect a girl to look after an evening of sex - disheveled and flushed. Oh well, they were probably asleep anyone by now, laying back in their LazyBoys as they watched some TV movie.

Once I got home and entered the basement, I saw my forecast had been correct as they both were sound asleep, my dad snoring loudly as usual when he was on his back. I used the opportunity to sneak by and head to my room without waking them. I cringed as the stairs squeaked but then they always did. Usually this worked in my favor as it signaled when someone was coming but tonight it served the other side as a wakeup call for my mom.

"That you Kelly?" she called out.

Busted! I turned back and headed down the stairs once again. Seeing my blouse hanging out and the shape my hair was in, she rubbed her eyes as if she must have been seeing me out of focus.

"What the heck happened to you?" she asked. Then she looked at the clock and her eyes widened. "And where have you been? Wasn't church over hours ago?"

All my life I've always told my mother everything about my sex life. She was even the first to learn I'd lost my virginity. I've never kept secrets from her and she even knew about my earlier problems with Pastor Ken so her ears perked up as soon as she heard who I had been with this evening. My dad must have finally realized I was home as well as he shook his head, making me have to repeat the first part of my story over again.

"You're kidding?" he said with a big grin on his face, "You really fucked her? Sweet! Damn, what I would give for a piece of that ass!"

"John!" my mom chided him, "Now behave yourself!"

"Just speaking figuratively dear," he said apologetically. Yeah right, he might never actually DO anything with Cheri but I didn't doubt he had lusted for her more than a few times at church - like probably every other man. My dad is a wonderful man, a loving husband and an incredible father but he's still a male and has the same instincts and desires that any normal man has. Next time he masturbated I knew who he would be thinking about!

Speaking of masturbating, my pussy had started back up again as I told my parents about my evening and I needed to get upstairs to my bedroom to take care of it. Of course, I'm sure my dad wouldn't have minded if I had just done it then and there but I was tired and there was no need to get him TOO aroused to where it would end up being another hour or so before I got to bed! I kissed them both goodnight and headed up to my bedroom.

Laying in my bed as I played with myself, a broad grin broke out on my face as I imagined the conversation Pastor Ken and Cheri would be having whenever she regained consciousness. Hopefully she would remember everything! God, he was furious!

Best of all, I finally felt vindicated with regards to Pastor Ken. I may not have done anything physical to him, like he did to me, but I knew I had hit him where it really hurts and where the pain doesn't go away as quickly - his ego. Based on how she talked it, he probably didn't know about Cheri's college fling with her roomie and so having taken her virginity, he undoubtedly felt assured that he was her only lover. Well, now he would always have to remember this evening, the night she had sex with ME.

What made me feel even better was that I knew that Cheri would always remember the way I had licked her pussy and made her come. Ken could never do to her what I had done, no man could, and it made me feel warm inside knowing I would always hold a special place in her heart - well at least in her pussy, that he could never regain.

Moral of the story - Don't fuck with Kelly!

(May 19) Chapter 135: Graduation

Story codes: MF oral inc father daughter uncle niece cousins
Me (22)
John - my dad (42)
Uncle Jim (40)
Rick - cousin (18)

It's almost impossible to believe that four years could pass so quickly. I was graduating from college today! It was a special weekend in my life, one my dad was all too happy to make even more special for me.

1. Pre-Graduation Gift From My Dad

When I sat down to write this, I tried to imagine what people would say when it was posted. There was a definite temptation to write out some hot fantasy story and publish it as if it really happened. Honestly, I have a feeling many of the people who read my diary would probably prefer such as story.

It was easy to imagine what people would write me later to say what they liked about it. In such a story, my parents would have driven to my school for graduation the night before. My dad would have fucked my brains out in the hotel all night while my mom watched and masturbated. Then in the school parking lot before graduation, I would have blown my dad and wore some of his cum proudly on my graduation gown. After graduation they would help me get my last things from my apartment and my dad would had fucked me yet again as sort of a going away present. All the way home, my cousin Kristen and I would be making out in the back seat until finally my dad would pull over and fuck us both at a truck stop.

Well, what do you think? Do I have it right?

I guess by now you've figured out that this is NOT what happened. To be totally honest, it was actually quite the opposite. Most of my family drove up packed in a couple of cars early Saturday morning. Both my uncles and their families, as well as my Aunt Linda and cousin Kristen, were there. I was totally surprised to see Tammy, my mom's best friend (not to be confused with my fourteen year-old cousin) step out of my parent's SUV. She lives in Oregon and to make such a trip spoke volumes of her ties to our family.

Thanks to my mom's forewarning from her cell phone, I was standing by to greet everyone in the parking lot. From there we all went in town to have breakfast together at Bob Evans. Given our class photo was scheduled for 9:00 AM, I didn't have a lot of time. The ceremony started at 10:00 AM and was over before noon so afterwards we celebrated by going out to lunch.

Finally, I packed up the last of my things in my dad's SUV as my car was full. I drove my old car (150,000 miles and counting) home with my cousin Kristen, following my parents as best as I could given my dad drives like a maniac! We got home just before supper time, went out for yet another meal, and then returned home to get all the last minute things prepared for my graduation party the next day. We were all so exhausted by the time we were done, everyone just fell into bed. I think that I was asleep before my head hit the pillow.

Soooooo, believe it or not, it was a "normal" day for me, at least normal by most people's standards. There was so much to do and I was so busy that there was NO sex whatsoever other than me quickly masturbating in the morning when I first woke up, something I do almost every morning anyway, like brushing my teeth.

It's funny, but I almost feel like I have to apologize for not getting laid on my graduation day! Everyone I have chatted with and exchanged e-mails was expecting that after months of me not getting any dick, this to be a wild day of unabated sex, especially between my dad and me. Maybe I'm getting old or whatever, but I have to say that I enjoyed the day just the way it happened! I guess it just goes to show that not everything has to involve sex to be good and/or fun.

Before you start thinking maybe the girl's lost it, that was Saturday. College graduation is something that occurs only once in your life so making it the center of my day isn't something I'll ever regret. That said, don't think I wasn't horny! Even so, who knows how long I might have slept the following morning hadn't it been for something persistently rubbing up against my face. I was only barely conscious and when I reached up to scratch where my cheek was tickling my fingers touched something warm and smooth. I knew instantly what it was - my dad's dick!

"Morning baby," he said softly to me as he held his dick in his hand and traced the tip of it around my face.

Oh my god, how I had missed this! My eyes were still barely open but I didn't have to see to do what comes natural when any girl has a hard cock put in front of her face - I took it in my mouth and sucked on it. As my mouth surrounded his dick, I heard him take in a deep breath.

"Oh yeah... that's it Kelly... suck your daddy's cock," he whispered to me. "God I missed your mouth on me."

It felt so good to hear him say that. As much as he may have missed my mouth on his dick, I missed having it IN my mouth even more! Sure, while I was away at school he still had plenty of opportunities with my mom, not to mention her sister and his niece, my Aunt Linda and Kristen. Even so, I knew that as his daughter it was extra special for him to have me suck his dick and I loved nothing more than to please him and satisfy his hunger.

I only had maybe a couple of inches of him in my mouth as I sucked on him like a pacifier had been placed in my mouth. Actually, that's not a bad analogy as I could have laid there half asleep all morning just sucking gently on his cock no different than a baby in a crib with a binky. As his only daughter, it just felt so natural, so "right", to do this for him. I felt as if I was being totally submissive to him, giving myself completely to him for his own pleasure and fulfillment of his lust for me. Just as the Bible commands, I wanted to honor my father and what better way to do so than in the most intimate way I knew how.

I felt his large hands roaming over my nude body, his fingertips tracing gently over my sensitive boobs and flat stomach as he made his way slowly down my body. It wasn't like he was fondling or groping me; more like he was taking me as his possession, demonstrating his control over me, proving to himself that he could do anything he wanted to me.

"Oh daddy!" I gasped as he touched my bare pussy, running his finger over my sensitive clit and teasing it just the way he knew I liked it.

My dad rolled me onto my back and climbed on top of me, straddling me on all fours. I still hadn't opened my eyes completely but I could feel his dick rubbing against my smooth stomach as he stroked it up and down against my body.

"Fuck me daddy," I whispered hoarsely to him, "Please fuck me. Take me. I want your love... I want your love IN me."

It was so hard to just lay there and wait for him to enter me. I wanted to reach out and grab his cock, then pull it inside of me. Damn, I wanted him to stuff his cock in me NOW. More than anything else I wanted my dad to literally mate me, to bond with me by joining our bodies together in the most intimate act a man and woman can perform with one another.

More than anything else at that moment I wanted my dad to take me as his prize, to be his possession. I wanted to be the perfect daughter for him, submissive to him in every way. I wanted my dad to show me how he felt about me, to prove to me how sexy he thought I was, to demonstrate how much I turned him on, how much he desired me and wanted to fuck me.

"Yeah... you want it, don't you?" he said gently to me, dragging his cock head over my pussy, driving me crazy with desire as it passed over my clit. "Tell me how bad you want your daddy's big cock in you."

God, what does a girl say at such a time? My whole body was screaming for his dick to be in me. More than anything in the world I wanted to be one with him, to have our bodies joined together, to feel him in me and then release his sperm inside of me as a symbol of his love and respect for me. When I feel my dad him cum in me, it shows me just how much he loves me as his daughter to give me something so personal and intimate.

At the same time, it also proves to me just how much he respects me by staying in me and not pulling out like I was some cheap whore he wanted to spray cum all over. My dad would only give his sperm to someone who deserved it, someone he respected and loved, so to feel it bursting from his dick and filling my pussy was the most incredible thing he could do for me.

"YES daddy! I want your cock in me," I begged, "I want it more than anything... I want YOUR cock in me... I want my daddy's cock in me... Please give it to me... Please love me... PLEASE!"

OK, it wasn't Shakespeare but he got the idea. I felt him line up his dick with my moist pussy hole and then there was the pressure of his cock head as he started to push himself into me.

"Oh yeah baby, here it comes... Daddy's gonna fuck you now."

I lifted my hips up against him, trying to get him in me faster but he didn't need the help. With a grunt and a hard push he drove his stiff dick into me, forcing me apart like a wedge between my legs; filling my hungry pussy as he quickly drove himself in to as far as he could. Once he had it all the way in, he held it there for a moment and I could feel it throbbing with his heartbeat as we laid there motionless, taking in the moment. God, my dad was finally in me again... my father was fucking me! Really, what more could a daughter ask for?

Slowly he pulled it back out until just the head was in me. He let it sit there and then moved it in and out just enough to let me feel it. What felt like millions of nerve me down into the bed. Then he would pull out slowly, letting me feel every glorious inch of his wonderful dick as it glided over the interior of my pussy until his cock was barely in me and then start all over again by pushing it back in. Finally he had it all the way in and pushed himself even harder against me, like I was a butterfly being pinned to the bed with his dick.

"Here it comes baby," he groaned almost like he was in pain. I knew it wasn't pain he was feeling but rather the pleasure his daughter was giving him. I felt so proud!

No sooner had the words left his mouth than I felt him jerk like a spasm had hit him. A bloom of warmth emerged deep inside of me as his dick began to spew his incestuous sperm into my full pussy. His dick swelled and exploded again, followed by another and then another, Each time I felt it I knew what it meant - my dad was cumming inside of me! I tried to imagine how it must look inside of me, his dick surrounded by my pussy as it erupted, each time sending a stream of milky cum deep inside of me, every bit of it hoping in vain to perform it's biological function - to mate a female. Of course I didn't want to actually bear a child, especially my own father's, but I LOVED the process of mating.

"Oh Kelly, my little Kelly," he sighed as the last of his sperm was given to me.

He collapsed to his elbows, barely keeping his full body weight off of me. We laid like that for several minutes, father and daughter savoring the experience, just enjoying the feel of being coupled together for a few more minutes.

By now I was awake enough to notice that someone was at the door of my bedroom.

"Morning Mom!" I called out. Although I couldn't see who it was, who else would it be? "Did you see him cum in me? I think daddy likes me being home again!"

"Well, that's obvious," a voice replied, a voice that did NOT belong to my mom!

In my excitement I had forgotten that Tammy, my mom's best friend, was staying in the guest room down the hall. Evidently all the commotion had either wakened her or at least drawn her attention which wasn't a surprise given my dad had left my bedroom door wide open and we hadn't exactly been quiet!

Fortunately, it wasn't like Tammy didn't already know my dad fucked me. Tammy was actually a fairly typical housewife, the classic "soccer mom". Happily married with two teenage boys, she never cheated on her husband and was fairly conservative in most of her views - including incest and lesbianism. As good of friends as they were, my mom and Tammy hadn't had sex together when they were growing up although I knew they had shared a few guys.

It was sorta cool to me that I was her first lesbian experience back a number of years ago during one of her visits to Pittsburgh. Of course she knew I was sexually active and over time she eventually learned about me and my dad. It definitely shocked her at first but once she saw the type of relationship we shared and realized that it wasn't some bizarre sexual abuse of a daughter by her dad, she accepted it for what it was. At the same time, I knew there was no way her sons would ever be fucking her!

I had no idea how long Tammy had been watching but obviously she'd been there for at least the finale. I moved my head to the side and saw her standing at the doorway, robe drawn around her with a silly grin on her face.

"Morning Tammy," I corrected myself.

"Well, I see you two didn't waste any time getting back together again," she said, shaking her head in mock disbelief. I just smiled at her and laid my head back down against the pillow. The creaking of the floors told me she had left.

"Daddy, I need to get ready for church you know," I reminded my father, who seemed perfectly content to just lay there with his now withered cock barely in me.

He kissed me on the forehead and then I felt that funny feeling I get whenever a cock slips out from my pussy after being fucked, leaving it empty once again. He didn't say a word but just patted my now messy pussy with his hand as he left the room, leaving me there with his cum inside of me.

There wasn't much time before church so I rushed to the bathroom and showered quickly, not even taking time to masturbate with the shower massager (yet another thing I missed while at school). It was looking like a gorgeous day outside so I threw on a light sundress that barely covered my boobs and came about halfway to my knees down my legs - something I wouldn't have dared wear back at school. Some heels and bling and I was on my way.

2. Cousin Rick Fucks Me Before the Party

The rest of our family arrived at church at almost the same time so we congregated in the parking lot and gabbed for a few minutes as we usual did on Sunday mornings. It was so nice to be back home and back together with my family again!

As usual, my cousin Rick was eyeing me with barely concealed lust. He hadn't fucked me in months so it wasn't hard to figure out what was on HIS mind. Well, he was quite a hunk and I knew he didn't have much trouble getting laid, not to mention the fact he had his younger sister Tammy available as well!

Speaking of lustful looks, I noticed my dad was all but staring at my cousin Tammy who was wearing the cutest little dress that showed off her skinny legs and tiny boobs to their best advantage. God, I couldn't believe her bitchy mother had let her wear such an outfit period, much less to church! Even though my dad was the one to have taken her virginity the previous summer, my mom had confided in me that he hadn't fucked her in ages and it was all he talked any time they had been with his brother's family. My mom poked him in the ribs when he started becoming TOO obvious and he looked at her sheepishly. Geeze, he had just fucked me so you would have thought he wouldn't be so horny already! Well, that's my dad for you.

I also noticed that my Uncle Jim was keeping a close eye on me as well. He was a fat jerk and I only let him fuck me as a favor to my dad. He didn't seem to realize that and so he was always trying to get in my pants. I supposed that now that I was back home again he was expecting to get his piece of me sooner than later. Unfortunately, I knew my dad would want me to let him so I smiled at him as best I could, trying not to imagine his hairy body over me.

Church was actually rather uneventful. The best part was sitting there and feeling the wetness between my legs, knowing it was my dad's cum that was trying to drain from me. I finally had to excuse myself and take a quick break to the little girl's room to wipe myself off before I made a mess of my skirt and maybe even the pew!

After church everyone returned to our house for lunch and my graduation party. I wasn't about to stay in a church dress so I left everyone to go to my room to change. I guess that I shouldn't have been as surprised as I was when Rick jumped out from behind the door as I entered.

"Dang it Rick, you scared the crap out of me!" I scolded him as my heartbeat raced.

"Well I've got something down here that will scare you even more," he teased me with a devilish grin as he patted his bulging crotch.

Glancing out my window which overlooked our deck, I could see everyone milling about, socializing as my mom was working frantically to get lunch ready. I should be helping her, not teasing my cousin!

"Don't worry, they won't miss us," he huffed impatiently, "They're all clueless anyway."

Well, I don't know if "clueless" was really a fair description, but I had to agree that the majority of our family, on my dad's side at least, would have been shocked, to say the least, to know about the amount of incest that occurred regularly in our family. Even if they DID notice Rick and I weren't around, I had no doubt that none of them would even think that he was standing in my room with the intention of fucking me.

"Hey, you just gonna stand there or are we gonna fuck?" he huffed again.

Rick was your typical teenage boy with just one thing on his mind - sex. Only thing was, he WAS good looking and he DID have a pretty nice dick so I was ready to overlook his impatience and lack of couth if it meant getting a good fucking from him. Actually, he preferred my mom even though she just treated him like some sort of sex pet. I guess the "Mrs. Robinson" complex is just as alive and well today as ever before.

"Let me get out of this dress, I don't want to ruin it when you can't control yourself," I told him.

I had learned through bad experiences that Rick had a bad tendency to spray his cum all around like some demented firefighter. I knew that if I was wearing anything when he came that it was pretty much a dead certainty it would be stained. I took my time taking off my dress and then hanging it back up in my closet. In the meantime, Rick had slipped his pants off, leaving his shirt on such that his hard dick poked out like some snake from its lair. Yep, he was horny alright! From the way my pussy suddenly throbbed, I had to admit that the sight of his young stiff dick was making me feel a bit anxious as well!

"Geeze, you gonna take all day?" he complained, stroking himself now in apparent desperation.

"Shit, Uncle Paul and Aunt Julie are here," he chuckled. "Imagine if they knew what I screwing the guest of honor right above them!"

I couldn't help but grin at the thought myself. Uncle Paul, my dad's older brother, was eight years older than my dad. Unlike my Uncle Jim, Rick's dad, my dad and him had never been involved with girls together growing up and even today, their relationship was more distant than that shared by the two younger brothers. Needless to say, Uncle Paul and his wife had NO idea who my dad was fucking at home! They had two daughters, Ginny and Laura, both married. I had attended Laura's bachelorette party a few years back and that was about the only time we'd done anything even remotely wild together.

"God, there she is," Rick sighed.

I leaned over to see who he was talking about and there was Laura herself with her hubby, talking to some neighbors. A buxom blonde, she looked hot in a tight dress that showed off her figure nicely. Her husband wasn't too bad either. Hell, I'd let him fuck me!

"You know I would give anything to fuck that cunt," he sighed again. Maybe so, but that was a hell of a thing for him to say when he was fucking me!

"Hey, somebody forget where his dick is now?" I griped, a little miffed.

"Shit Kelly, you know what I mean. Can't blame me for wanting a piece of her."

Actually, I wouldn't have minded a piece of her myself! Her older sister Ginny looked hotter but she had fake boobs whereas Laura was all real. Unfortunately, so far as I knew she didn't even like girls, let alone her own cousin, at least when it came to sex.

"Too bad you weren't at her bachelorette party," I teased Rick. He looked at me with questioning eyes and I grinned as I continued saying, "She even fucked one of the male strippers right in front of all of us!"

"No shit!" Rick exclaimed, startled enough to pause fucking me, "Laura? Damn, I never heard about THAT!"

"Well if you don't keep fucking me you'll have more to worry about than that!" I scolded him.

A chastised Rick resumed but in a few minutes he brightened up yet again

"Hey, I got an idea," he said, pulling himself out of me and stepping back, "You lean up against the window sill so we can watch them while I fuck you."

Enough was enough.

"Hey, you gonna fuck ME or just stand back there talking about your sisters and cousins?"

"Sheesh, what's with you?" he whined, "You know, my dick IS in your pussy at the moment in case you haven't noticed."

God, talk about setting himself up for a small dick joke! I let it go though, refusing to take advantage of his lack of wit.

"Well, it would be nice if you at least ACTED like it was as well."

"Ahhhhhh, Kelly's jealous I think," he taunted me.

"Huh? Why should I be jealous?" I challenged him, "As you said, I AM the one with your dick in me. I just think it would be polite to pay some attention to me at the same time!"

"Women!" he sighed, "Never happy. Fuck 'em and they still bitch."

Well whatever. At least he stopped yakking about the women below us although I suspected he was still looking.

"Kelly, you up here?"

Damn, my mom was calling me! What did she want now? Can't a girl get fucked without someone always breaking in on her? Sure enough, she poked her head in my room and saw Rick fucking me by the window.

"Oh for heaven's sake Kelly, what are you doing? You know, you should at least close the door if you're going to fool around with people here. Really, did you think about what might happen if someone came up here to use the bathroom?" she sighed in mock despair - or maybe not so "mock".

"Sorry mom, you know how it is," I replied with a grin, nodding my head towards Rick. Indeed, she knew all too well what it was like to be fucked by Rick. After all, she'd had him a lot more than me!

"Well, you kids hurry up and get finished. People have been asking where the graduate went off to. I can't exactly tell them she's getting fucked by her cousin!" she said as she closed the door to my room and returned downstairs.

Rick started banging me faster and I looked around at him to see what was going on.

"Hey, you heard her, I'm trying to hurry up," he said with a naughty grin on his face.

To be perfectly honest, between his musing over my cousins and now my mom's interruption, some of the wind was out of my sail so far as being fucked by Rick and all I really wanted was to get it over with. I knew it wouldn't be long before Rick came and if anything, it took less time than I had even expected.

"Cumming!" he announced as if the Pope were making an entrance.

Just as I had been worried about when I took off my dress, Rick pulled out of me and started to spray cum all over my ass and back. I could feel each load land on me like raindrops. THIS was something my dad would never do to me as he respected me far too much to treat me this way.

"Damn, sorry to make such a mess but my balls were about to explode!" he said, gasping to catch his breath.

I reached over and grabbed a towel from an earlier shower and handed it to him.

"Well, the least you could do is wipe it off me then."

"Demanding today, aren't we?" he teased, "Just because you're a big college graduate now doesn't mean you can order me around. Be careful or you won't get any more of THIS."

As if I was worried. Regardless of what he said, he did try to clean his cum off of me. When he was done I looked at the towel and was surprised by how much cum was on it. I knew he had done a big load on me, but not THAT big!

"Well, you'd better join in the party first," I told him, "It might be better if we didn't both go down at the same time."

Rick pulled his pants up and tucked his still hard cock in. I wondered if he realized just how much he was bulging out? No doubt a few of the women would notice and who knows, maybe it would work out for him for the best! Either that or he would get slapped.

With him gone I raced to the bathroom to wash off my face and hands. Looking at myself in the mirror, I didn't see any cum on me so I returned to the bedroom and got dressed in some denim shorts and a tank top. They weren't TOO revealing but still showed off my "assets" well enough to make me happy – and hopefully some of my guests as well.

3. Uncle Jim Gets His

When I finally showed up on the deck, everyone turned to look and then they clapped and cheered for me, the new college graduate. It felt awesome to finally be done with school! The next couple of hours were just your typical family party. My mom served lunch and we all eat more than we should so afterwards most everyone was a bit slow and sleepy.

"Hey Jim, would you go down to the garage and bring up some more ice?" my mom called out to my uncle.

"Sure - where is it?" he answered back.

"I'll show him!" I volunteered before I thought it through. As I passed by my mom to follow my uncle she pulled me aside and whispered in my ear.

"Now don't take TOO long this time, you hear?"

I looked at her with a puzzled expression until it finally sunk in. Evidently she thought I had volunteered so my uncle could fuck me. To be perfectly honest, until that moment I hadn't even thought about it but now that she mentioned it, I knew my dad would want me to let him do me sooner or later so why not get it over with now? At least then I wouldn't have worry about it later when I wasn't as horny and ready to let him do me.

"I wouldn't worry mom; you know Uncle Jim," I sighed softly, "He never lasts very long."

"Tell me about it!" my mom giggled, trying not to be TOO obvious about it.

Obviously it had all been a setup between my uncle and mom as no sooner did I step out into the garage than my Uncle grabbed me and started groping me, running his hands over my boobs especially . Oh well, I knew that he was a serious tit man from past experience!

"Good to have you home again Kelly," he greeted me. He ran his hand between my legs and pulled up with his palm against my crotch, almost lifting me off my feet.

"So did I beat Rick?" he asked. My silence told him the answer and he swore under his breath, "Damn, I told the little shit to leave you for me first. So when did he get you, at church? I saw you slip out."

I giggled and teased him saying, "Nope, just a few minutes ago. Didn't you see him looking out my bedroom window as he fucked me?"

"Shit, should have known," he fussed. "Oh well, sloppy seconds is better than nothing."

My, how caring and romantic - NOT!

He started to unzip his pants and pull out his cock for me.

"C'mon, we don't have a lot of time. Take those shorts off!:

Unlike him, who could just pen up his zipper and pull out his cock, I had to let my panties drop to the concrete floor to let him gain access to my pussy.

"Where do you want me?" I asked, resigned that he would be calling the shots one way or the other so I may as well ask now.

"Shit, not so fast. How about a little BJ action first?" he answered. "Tammy's getting better all the time but she's still not in your league."

Considering I was the one to help Tammy with her first blowjob, that wasn't a huge surprise. Tammy was more than willing to learn but most guys are just concerned with getting off, not teaching a young girl to properly suck a dick. Now THAT'S what they should be teaching in sex ed, instead of all the other crap about abstinence that nobody listens to. Besides, I doubt there would be a problem finding volunteers for the girls to practice on!

My uncle's dick was sticking out from his unzipped crotch. Although I'd never dared to tease him about it, I knew he was conscious of that fact that his teenage son had a bigger cock and that his was somewhat on the small size. In all fairness, he knew pretty well how to use what he had and had he not been such a jerk, he would've been a pretty good fuck. As it was, he was far too demanding and overbearing for my tastes. Bending my knees, I squatted on front of him rather than getting my knees dirty and took his dick in my mouth without even using my hands - a maneuver he seemed to appreciate for some reason. Oh well, I aim to please!

"Shit, that's so hot the way you suck it without touching it," he sighed. "You've GOT to teach Tammy to do that more often."

One nice thing about a small dick, it's easier to suck and take all the way in your mouth without having to go through the effort of deep-throating the guy. Needless to say, it didn't take long to get rock hard.

"Shit, now THAT'S the Kelly I remember," he groaned, "God you're such a fucking slut."

I just ignored him even though I knew when he called me a slut it wasn't in the loving manner that my dad intended when he sued the word. It was sort of funny in a way I guess. My Aunt Shari was always accusing my mom of having a slut for a daughter but it was only something she suspected. What would she say if she found out why her husband KNEW I was a slut?

I took his stiff cock completely in my mouth and then twisted my head around it, letting my tongue run all over it in the process. One thing I try to emphasize anytime I teach a girl about sucking cock - you HAVE to use your tongue. Otherwise you may as well use a plastic toy on him. Anyone can just bob their head up and down a dick but to REALLY satisfy a guy you have to do more. It amazes me how many guys say their girlfriends can't make them cum and they have to finish themselves off with their hand. If that ever happened to me when I was with a guy I would be highly insulted!

"Shit, that's fucking incredible the way you suck it!" he groaned again as I sucked on his musky smelling dick as hard as I could, my cheeks drawn in tight around his cock as I bobbed on him.

"You know, you probably should fuck me before my mom comes down and gets after us," I reminded him.

He didn't say anything, not that I expected him to, so I stood up and held onto his hard dick with my hand, feeling the warmth of his shaft in my palm. He may have been a jerk but he DID have this cute little cock so I guess he wasn't ALL that bad! I backed up to the hood of my car and slid back up into it. The metal hood felt cool against my bare ass as my legs hung over the side. Spreading my legs apart, I looked at my overweight uncle, standing there with his wet dick sticking out and this nasty look in his eyes as he stared at my pussy that was waiting for him.

I wondered what he was thinking, what thoughts were going through his head knowing his niece was basically offering herself to him like some street whore in a cheap hotel room - except I was free. Not exactly one of my prouder moments but I managed to grin, trying to be as seductive as possible. The last thing I needed was to have him going off telling my dad I hadn't done my best for him!

"See anything you want Uncle Jim?"

"Shit, I love the way you shave your pussy," he said, "Shari's looks like a fucking fur coat."

"Well, if you like my pussy so much, why isn't your dick in it yet?" I kidded him.

"Shit, give me a chance you fucking slut. You can wait just a little longer for it."

He moved up closer to me and grabbed me by the ankles, lifting my legs up and then over his shoulders. My ass was halfway off the hood as I leaned back on my elbows and watched as he got ready to fuck me. His dick was standing almost straight up so he had to hold it down as he moved his hips in tighter against my bare thighs. Between his protruding stomach and not being very long (MAYBE five inches if I was being generous), he had to get in pretty close before he could penetrate me but as slick as my pussy was from his son's recent fucking he slid easily inside of me.

"Shit Kelly, not so tight anymore, are you?"

Bastard. Now THAT remark was uncalled for. For crying out loud, what girl's pussy wouldn't be a little more "flexible" after being fucked twice already that day? It took all my willpower but I managed to ignore him and let him continue to do his thing with me. My dad owed me big time for this!

"There you go slut, now you're being fucked by a REAL man," he grunted as his cock entered me.

My guess was that he was trying to compare himself to his son and as much as I wanted to tell him he wasn't even in Rick's league, I held my tongue yet again. After all, what was there to gain by pointing out what a little dick he had, especially when compared to his hunk of a teenage son? Besides, I knew once he had come that would be it whereas his son could go all night it seemed!

"Fuck me Uncle Jim, "I panted, trying my best to sound like he had the best cock I'd had in ages. Gee whiz, the things a girl did for her dad!

"Too bad Aunt Shari can't see us now," I teased him wickedly. Truth of it was, if she ever DID find out what he did to me, let alone actually see it, she would probably go berserk. Even then, that was nothing compared to what she might do if she ever found out he and her son were fucking their youngest daughter as well - AND her uncle was doing her as well!

"Shit, sometimes I almost wish she did," he panted as he fucked me a little faster. "Serve the bitch right."

He was about to say something else when he groaned louder and his head tilted back as he thrust himself deep inside of me and held himself there. Just as I thought he was about to cum in me, he pulled out and began shooting cum all over my pussy and tank top. Jerk! Like son, like father.

"Oh Uncle Jim, why did you have to cum on my top?" I complained as he rubbed his dick in the sperm on my pussy, spreading it all over me.

"Sorry babe, a man's gotta do what a man's gotta do you know," he said with a smirk, "Just shut up. You don't want me telling your dad you didn't make me happy now, do you?"

What an asshole, a phrase I reserve for only the worst men. He knew I would do literally anything my dad asked me to do, even let a slob of an uncle like him fuck me. He also knew the last thing I ever wanted to do was displease my father and he took full advantage of it.

"Sorry Uncle Rick," I apologized, trying to make it sound from the heart.

He laughed at me and patted his now soft cock against my pussy. "Don't worry about it, you're always a great fuck you know."

With that he put his dick back in his pants and zipped them up. One last wink and he left the garage with me sitting on the hood with his cum all over me. Before anyone surprised me, I hurried up and grabbed some rags and wiped his cum from my pussy. Pulling up my shorts, I raced to my room before anyone saw the cum stains on my top and slipped on a different tank top.

4. Dad Gives Me a Car... and More

Back on the deck, my uncle was already mingling and my mom pulled me aside as soon as I stepped out.

"What happened? And why are you wearing a different top?"

"Shit mom...," I said with a grin. We both laughed at my little reference to my uncle's favorite way to start every sentence it seemed.

"OK, I think I understand," she sighed, "He really IS a jerk, isn't he? I need to talk to your dad sometime about you and him. He shouldn't be asking you to keep putting out for that asshole. It's not like he gets Tammy hardly any more."

"It's OK mom," I replied, "At least he doesn't take forever to cum and if it makes dad happy, I really don't mind. Well... just so long as he doesn't ask me TOO often."

My mom hugged me and whispered in my ear, "You're such a wonderful daughter. Just wait until you see your dad's graduation present!"

I looked at her in hopes she would spill the beans but she pursed her lips and shook her head to indicate she wouldn't tell me anymore. All afternoon I thought about what my mom had mentioned about my present. What gift had my dad gotten me? He bought most of his gifts for me from Victoria's Secret or some porn shop, usually something for me to model for him and the strip out of so I could "thank" him properly. For my graduation I could only imagine what his vivid imagination had dreamed up this time!

Most of the guests left in the mid afternoon with the remainder out by supper as my mom hadn't provided anything for a second meal. Tammy and my mom were cleaning up and I tried to help but they shooed me away, saying it was my party and I shouldn't have to clean up afterwards. Things were eventually picked up and put away. In the meantime, I was practically bouncing with anticipation. My mom and dad couldn't help but notice and so they teased me mercilessly which didn't help either. Even Tammy was in on it, winking at me and smiling like a Cheshire Cat whenever I tried to pump her for information.

Finally it was time and my parents sat me down in the family room. They brought in some cards and boxes that people had brought to the party which I dutifully opened. Most of them had money in the cards - the perfect present for a new graduate to be honest. The rest were mostly gag gifts for a graduate that were cute, but I knew they would soon be on the curb. Finally it was time for my parent's gift - at least so I assumed since there was nothing left to open and they hadn't given me anything yet. I guess you could say a four year degree for free was quite a present already but I knew they would have something extra special for me - they always did!

"We have to go get your present now," my dad said with an air of mystery. Hmm, what could it be that we had to drive somewhere for it? We all piled in the SUV and drove to the south side of town where he turned into a car dealership. Oh my god, I was getting a car!!! I squealed like a little girl as my mom and Tammy grinned at me.

"What's going on? You think you're getting something here?" my dad called back from the front seat. I just sat up straight and grinned like a kid at Christmas.

He stopped the SUV by the door and we went in to where a salesman was waiting, Being it was a Sunday evening I was surprised to see they were open but then it became apparent we were the only ones there so my dad must have arranged something special with the guy.

"So you're the new grad. Congratulations!" he said as he offered to shake my hand. I was practically shivering now with excitement, wondering what was coming next. I had a pretty good guess going but I couldn't believe it could possibly come true.

"Follow me, it's all ready for you."

Nervously we followed him back to the service area. There in front of me was the most perfect car in the world - MINE! It was a bright red Saturn Ion, just the right size for me, with a big red bow in the roof and a sign that read, "Congratulations Kelly!". The salesman handed me the keys with a grin.

"I think these are yours young lady."

I grabbed them and then turned to hug my dad! I kissed him on the cheek and hugged him again. God, what an incredible father!

"Check out your new car before you break my neck," he chuckled.

The salesman tried to point out the features but I don't remember a word he said. It smelled so new and all I could think about was that it was MINE! Apparently my dad had already signed all the papers the day before so I was free to drive it home. My mom and Tammy rode back with me as my dad had to bring the SUV. I don't ever remember being so excited driving a car before!

Back home I pulled it into the garage and waited for my dad to join us. Once again I hugged him and this time, since there wasn't a nosey salesman around, I kissed him the way a daughter should kiss her father - a full kiss on the mouth, tongue and all!

"Mmmmmmm, now that's better!" he chuckled as I finally let go of him.

The four of us looked it over again in the garage. It was a lot smaller than the Avalon I'd been driving but then it was my mom's hand-me-down and I always felt it was for an older woman like her, not a college girl. This car was perfect!

"Hmmm, back seat's pretty small," my dad mused. I knew what he was thinking about!

"Oh daddy, I'm not in high school anymore. I don't need a big back seat."

"Still, I was sort of hoping we might break it in right," he said, scratching his chin.

"Now?" I asked, a little surprised actually. I figured I would be thanking him later upstairs or in the hot tub, not in the backseat of my new car!

My dad looked at mom who just rolled her eyes and shrugged her shoulders. She knew him pretty good after being married to him almost 25 years so it wasn't like she was surprised. Then he looked over at Tammy who help up her hands and shrugged her shoulders as well.

"Hey, don't look at me... you guys do whatever you want, it's OK with me," she said with a big grin.

My dad turned back to me and opened the back door.

"Well, what are we waiting for then?"

It was a bit surreal actually, climbing in backwards and seeing my mom and her best friend standing back watching, like we were putting on a show for them or something. Well I guess in a way we were!

I sat on the seat sideways with my feet on the garage floor. My dad kneeled down and pulled off my shoes and then reached for my shorts. I laid back on the seat, smelling the strong new car smell of the leather upholstery. He undid my shorts and pulled them down my legs and then off my feet and handed them back to my mom who took them and held them against her with her crossed arms. The leather seat felt cold at first under my ass but quickly warmed.

"Now that's what I call a nice back seat view," my dad laughed as he stood back and looked at me with my bottom exposed. "Where's the camera Mary?"

My mom reached into her purse and pulled out our digital camera and handed it back to my dad who snapped a couple of shots of me with my legs spread part showing off my pussy.

"That top has to go," he said to me so I pulled it up and over my head and tossed it to him. He just handed it back to my mom where it joined my shorts. Well, for the first time I was nude in my new car. Not bad considering I'd had it less than an hour!

A few more shots with the camera and my dad cursed silently.

"Dammit Mary, I thought we had more room than this left."

"Hey, you're the one that had to take all the ones at her graduation and then didn't download them so don't blame me!" my mom protested.

My dad handed her the camera with a frown but then he smiled as he turned back to me.

"Oh well, the real thing's always better anyway."

My dad quickly undid his belt, unzipped his pants and then pulled them down together with his underwear. He still had his shoes on so rather than slip everything off he just let them gather around his ankles. God he was hard! It seemed like ages since he had fucked me this morning and even then, I had only been half awake so this was the first time I got a real good look at my wonderful dad's cock. I loved the way it was so hard because of me. Knowing I turned my own father on was one of the best feelings a daughter can have.

"Well, I guess it's time to initiate my new car," I said with a huge smile on my face. I didn't what was better - getting a new car or having my dad fuck me in the back seat of it for the first time!

My dad shuffled up to the door and leaned inside. I put my legs up and rested my feat against the sides of the door, opening up myself for him. It was like I was offered an offering to the gods except I was certainly no virgin!

And so my dad fucked me in the car. It was the fourth time I'd been fucked so far today and after going without it for so long at school, you can imagine my pussy was starting to feel the effects. Even so, I would never had said anything at all to my dad. I didn't know if he knew about Rick and Uncle Jim fucking me earlier and I didn't see any reason to raise the question unless he did - which he never did.

As cramped as things were in the back seat, it was just a quick fuck but it was the thought that counts as they say. It was all a blur to me really, I couldn't believe it was happening. The LAST thing I had expected today was to be laying in the back seat of my new car with my dad's dick in me!

"Well, how do you like your new car?" my dad said with a grin as he slowly slid himself in and out of me.

"Oh daddy... I LOVE it. And I love thanking for you for it this way as well!"

It didn't take long for him to cum in me. I think it helped to have my mom and her friend watching. My dad was the type that loved to "perform" and even though he didn't fuck Tammy, I think he secretly wished he could so having her watch him fuck me must have really turned him on. Feeling his warm cum drain out of my pussy and down my ass, I loved the thought that my new seats were getting their first taste of cum. It wouldn't be the last time if I had to bet on it.

When we finally emerged from the car, my mom and Tammy were still in the same spots they had been when I started so I assumed they had seen everything. Good assumption!

"Well, what do you think?" I asked them.

My mom just grinned and said, "If you had ANY idea of how many times I've had to listen to him fantasize about screwing you in the back seat, you'd understand what a relief it is to finally get it over with!"

We all laughed and then Tammy said softly, as if a little shy to say anything, "Well, I don't think I'll EVER quite get over your dad fucking you in the first place, but I have to say it was pretty hot."

That was probably about as far as Tammy was going to go and I appreciated her candor. I could only imagine what she must have been thinking watching us with my mom at her side. I wondered if my mom said it was OK if she would let my dad fuck her? Of course THAT would never happen as Tammy was not part of our family, there HAD been that exception she made for my best friend Beth, even if it was just for a short while. Who knows? Of course, there was the fact Tammy had often said she would never cheat on her husband, but something in her eyes when she looked at my dad's cock glistening with our cum made me wonder.

By now it was getting late and so we all went into the family room to watch TV. As messy as I was I didn't bother to put my shorts on but I did grab a t-shirt from the laundry my mom had just finished which I pulled over me like a nightshirt. It didn't exactly cover my ass but then I didn't think anyone in the room really cared anyway.

Well, I was now an official college graduate, with my own car and I'd already been fucked in it!

(May 21) Chapter 136: Mom's Gift to Her Best Friend

Story codes: MF MFF oral inc father daughter aunt nephew cousins

John - my dad (42)
Mary - my mom (40)
Tammy - my mom's BFF (42)
Rick - cousin (18)

Tammy was in town for my graduation party. Before she left, my mom had a special gift for her - my cousin Rick. As amazing as that was, it wasn't the biggest surprise waiting for Tammy.

Note: This Tammy has nothing to do with my cousin Tammy. Sorry for any confusion but it's not my fault they have the same first names! This story has nothing to do with my youngest cousin.

1. My Mom and Tammy

Tammy is my mom's best friend. They'd been BFFs in high school long - long before "BFF" was an acronym. Once they graduated, their paths diverged and neither of them ended up living anywhere their original childhood homes in the suburbs south of Chicago. My mom, along with her sister, ended up in the Pittsburgh area while Tammy married a guy with roots out west in the high desert of Oregon.

Through it all they've stayed in touch with each other and now, almost twenty five years later, they still talk on the phone almost daily. At least once a year one of them travels to visit the other. Last summer I had the opportunity to go to Oregon to Tammy's house and visit with her family. At home, Tammy is pretty "straight" although I know back in high school she and my mom use to have some "interesting" adventures but those are the teenage experiences that bond girlfriends for life.

Even in their heyday though, she and my mom never did anything sexually with each other. That it made it all the more special for me when during her more recent visits, Tammy and I have gotten pretty "close", if you know what I mean. Personally, I think that has more to do with her letting herself be a little "wild" while away from home than anything else. It all started between us about five years ago rather innocently, just a little fun between us girls (OK, she's twenty some years older than me but who's counting).

Then last summer Tammy caught my dad fucking me which sort of blew her mind at first as you might imagine. Fortunately, by the time she left for home she seemed to have accepted it and even sucked my dad's cock briefly with me one time in the hot tub. It was the first time she'd sucked another man's cock since getting married and actually it was my dad's first time a woman not in his family had blown him since he pledged himself to my mother (putting aside that time with my friend Beth).

Now before you think badly of either of them, I firmly believe that oral sex is not "sex" in the biblical definition. No, I'm not trying to be like a past President who was trying to rationalize his bad behavior. What I AM trying to do is differentiate between sex that is classified as adultery and just having fun.

To commit adultery (which is a sin), my dad would have had to penetrate her pussy with his cock, something that definitely did NOT happen! Same goes for Tammy. Although her husband may have had a different opinion if he knew about it, in my eyes she technically wasn't cheating on him just because she sucked another man's dick.

Unless it's adultery, which is forbidden by the Bible, what's important to me is the INTENT. If my dad ever had oral sex with a woman because he was dissatisfied with my mother and was seeking relief outside his marriage, that would wrong. By the same token, if it's OK with my mom and just for fun, then why not? Seems pretty simple and straightforward to me.

Tammy had made a special trip to Pittsburgh just for my graduation party. Given the distance and time to get there, she decided to stay on for a few days to visit as well. Graduation had been on Saturday with a party for me on Sunday. After the party my dad had taken us all to get my graduation present - a new car! I was thrilled as you might imagine. What made it even better was when we got back home and my dad "initiated" the back seat with me while my mom and Tammy watched. Even though she had seemed rather reserved about it afterwards, I couldn't help but notice that when we climbed out of the back seat and my dad's cock was glistening without cum in the soft light of the garage, that Tammy's eyes were glued to his dick. Interesting...?

2. Daddy Does Me in the Morning

Monday morning was sort of a milestone for me. It was the first weekday of my life that I wasn't either in school or waiting to go back to school. It was still hard to believe I had finally graduated! I wasn't the only one to be glad that I was back home. My dad had obviously missed his mornings with me while I was away at school and he didn't waste any time reestablishing our little "tradition". Of course, he had done me Sunday morning before church but that seemed different somehow – good, but different.

Ever wake up in the morning with a cock in your pussy? If you haven't let me tell you that every girl should have it done to her at least once. Of course, if she had it once I doubt she would want to stop there. Sort of like once you eat that first potato chip and then suddenly the entire bag is gone!

It's been my good fortune to have woken many a time that way and this morning was one more to add to my "count". It's hard to explain what it feel like to suddenly find yourself awake with your eyes half closed and your mouth feeling yucky, yet at the same time aware that there is SOMETHING between your legs. For the first few seconds it doesn't quite register for what it is. It's like when you wake up and for a moment not know where you are. That's the way it felt, like I KNEW something was down there but whatever it was just wouldn't come into focus.

Of course "whatever it was" wasn't just sitting there still, it was moving in and out of me and then, as if the proverbial light bulb went off over my head, it became clear what was happening to me – I was being fucked! Of course, there was only one person who could have been doing that to me in the sanctity of my own bedroom – my loving dad.

"Morning sunshine," I heard him murmur in my ear from behind.

He was spooning me, evidently sliding in bed behind me as I slept on my side and lifting my leg over his to spread open my pussy for him. God, I must have really been tired to stay asleep as his dick forced its way into me the first time!

"Morning daddy," I mumbled, trying to make my mouth work again as I slowly came back to life.

"Mmmmmmm, I missed this baby. Did you?"

What a silly question! My god, of course I missed waking up this way, what girl wouldn't be thrilled to wake up in the morning with her dad's stiff cock in her pussy? So many mornings I would wake up in my college apartment and feel my heart sink as I realized once again my dad wasn't going to be there for me. No matter how hard I masturbated, it just wasn't the same.

"Oh yes daddy, I missed this SOOOO much!" I sighed softly, feeling like I didn't even come close to expressing my true feelings.

I just laid there on my side, motionless as I felt the security of his strong arms around me, his hands cupping my boobs and fondling me. His hot breath brushed against my neck as he worked to pump his rigid warm cock in and out of me using slow, long strokes that maximized the sensations of his shaft as it glided over my pussy nerve endings. In a way it was almost surreal, like it was just a wonderful dream and any moment now I would wake up with that all-too familiar ache between my legs.

"God your skin feels so soft," he whispered to me as he ran his hands all over me.

I could feel the goose bumps rising as his fingernails lightly traced their way over my stomach and hips. He kept whispering into my ear, telling me how much he loved to hold my boobs, fondle me all over, touch my legs and thighs. Of course all the while there was the steady rhythm of his wonderful dick as it moved non-stop in and out of my wet pussy like a piston on a steam locomotive. He wasn't doing anything particularly special as he fucked me. If anything, what made it erotic was how NOT special it was - the relentless rhythm, never speeding up or slowing down, just in and out... in and out... in and out.

The floor boards squeaked and I looked to my door where my mom and Tammy were standing, watching us without saying a word. My mom, of course, was nude having just got out of bed. Just as my mom was "dressed" exactly as I would've predicted, so was Tammy as she had a long terry robe that came down to her knees and up to her neck. To fit in the doorway my mom had her arm around Tammy but she didn't act as if she even noticed my mom's nude body pressed up against her. No, her attention seemed to be focused entirely on me and my dad.

Of course Tammy had seen my dad doing me quite a while ago during a previous visit. Not only that, but this was actually the second time in the last twelve hours or so that my mom and Tammy had watched my dad fuck me, the first being last night's "initiation" of my new car's back seat. Even so, from the expression on

3. Tammy Meets My Cousin Rick

I must have fallen asleep at some point because the next thing I knew the sun was shining through my windows and I looked at my alarm clock and it was after ten in the morning! God, had it really been four hours since my dad had fucked me? For matter, had it been just a dream - an incredibly intense and erotic one at that? A quick touch between my legs told me otherwise, as if the wet stain on my sheets wasn't enough. Of course my dad was long gone to work by now and who knows where my mom and her friend had gone off to.

I somehow managed to get out of bed and I thought I heard something outside the window. Looking out the back onto our deck, lo and behold who was down there but my cousin Rick! It wasn't just Rick either, as my mom and Tammy were sitting in the patio chairs apparently having coffee while Rick was cleaning around the hot tub.

It only took me about ten minutes to get myself cleaned up and dressed with dressing probably taking the least amount of time since I just threw on a long T-shirt and nothing else. It wasn't like I was dressing to go out or anything, just something comfortable to wear around the house. Soon I was out on the deck joining in with my mom and Tammy except I was having a glass of water instead of coffee.

"Morning Kelly, I see you finally got up," Tammy was the first to speak.

"Well, she did get OFF earlier don't forget," my mom reminded her, patting her on the arm with a twinkle in her eye.

Tammy laughed, "Like I would forget about THAT!"

I took a seat between them and looked at Tammy.

"Do you mind if I ask you a question?... What did you think this morning when you watched my dad fuck me?"

Tammy blushed. I don't think she was expecting me to come right out and ask her such a question first thing in the morning. I waited silently for her to compose herself.

"Well... Ummmmm... it was nice."

"NICE???"

"You know what I mean... sexy," she said hesitantly.

"Oh? So did it turn you on?"

Tammy glanced over at my mom who was doing her best imitation of a Cheshire Cat. She looked back at me and her face was practically crimson.

"Well... of course it did. I mean, how could it NOT?"

"Cool, so you want to watch him do me again tonight? I'm sure he would if you asked him."

Poor Tammy looked so flustered. My mom mercifully stepped in to save her by diverting our attention to something different, although as it turned out, as equally difficult for Tammy.

"Kelly, be nice," she playfully chastised me, "Besides, why talk about all that when we have our own private hunk of a pool boy to ogle.

Tammy's eyes widened as she realized my mom was referring to Rick.

"Stop it Mary," she protested, "You're not going to pull that one on me. I already know he's your nephew so don't pretend he's some hunk to play around with."

"Nephew or not, he's still gorgeous, don't you think?" my mom teased her.

"Well...," Tammy hesitated, "From a totally impersonal perspective, of course he is. How old is he anyway?"

"He's eighteen but he'll be nineteen in August," I cut in.

Tammy laughed at me, "Ahhhhhh, that was quick. I suppose you're going to try and help your mom with this one. Sorry, not falling for it."

She sat back with her arms crossed. She was wearing white shorts and a blue tank top that was pretty low cut for her - she must have borrowed one of my mom's. With her arms folded they supported her boobs and gave her cleavage a boost as if she was wearing a WonderBra.

Rick was trying to pretend he wasn't listening or looking but I caught him glancing at Tammy now and then. With her legs crossed she was showing a lot of thigh and for an older woman, she wasn't all that bad. My mom kept herself in better shape but Tammy could still turn some heads - including Rick's, but then he was into older women anyways thanks to my mom's influence on him. Besides, Tammy was "fresh meat" I his mind if I knew his thinking at all!

"So you think I'm just trying to pull your leg, eh?" my mom said mischievously

"No, I don't THINK you are, I KNOW you are," Tammy insisted, "Don't forget Mary, I've known you for thirty years."

My mom looked at me and winked. Now I have to say that in general my mom is the family "conscience", keeping me and my dad under control when we tend to start to go overboard with something. My dad refers to her as that family "wet blanket" at times, but in the end he knows she's just doing what's right. The circumstances were different now, though, as it was HER idea that was fermenting. Needless to say, I wasn't about to be the one to put the brakes on this runaway train!

"Ohhhhhhhhh Rick!" she called out to him, "Would you might coming over here for a minute?"

I almost burst out laughing at the speed at which Rick dropped his cleaning rag and was standing next to my mom. It was almost like he had been waiting for her call - and maybe he had.

"How old are you Rick?" she asked him, as if we all didn't know already.

"Eighteen Aunt Mary, but I'll be nineteen in July."

"I bet all the girls are after you, aren't they?"

Rick looked at Tammy and to my surprise, he actually blushed and just shook his head.

"Ahhhhhh, don't be all shy now. When was the last time you fucked a girl?"

Rick looked at Tammy again and then at me. Well, I knew the answer to that question - it was ME, just yesterday in my bedroom during my graduation party.

"That's OK, you don't have to answer if it embarrasses you," my mom assured him, "Why don't you show Tammy here that nice ass of yours?"

"Mary!" Tammy exclaimed softly, "Really!"

"Oh shush Tammy! Go on, look at it. Tell me, when was the last time you saw such a gorgeous young ass?"

My thoughts immediately went to my memories of her two teenage boys I had met last year at her house when my mom and I had visited. Both of them were hot as hell - more than Rick ever dreamed of being. Unfortunately I had promised my mom beforehand to behave myself with them; otherwise I would've been hopping in bed with both of them before the week was over, not to mention her hot husband David! Knowing Tammy though, the thought of her own sons' firm asses never even entered into consideration.

"Here, get a better look at it. These damn shorts hide all the best parts. I hate them!"

Rick was just wearing a pair of baggy swim trunks. Whatever happened to Speedos and bulging crotches? Anyway, my mom grabbed them by each side and yanked them down to his ankles in one swift movement, leaving him essentially nude. All of us, even Tammy, couldn't help but stare at his dick. At the moment it was flaccid but it still hung down a good six inches or more. OK, maybe not porn star material but certainly better than your average housewife sees every day!

"Why Mary! What do you think you're doing," Tammy gasped.

It was a study in contradictions. One the one hand I could tell she was genuinely embarrassed yet at the same time her eyes didn't look away from his crotch either. Meanwhile, poor Rick was just standing there with this look of bewilderment, not sure whether he should be covering himself up or showing off for the ladies.

"So what do you think Tammy? Is my nephew hung or what?"

Tammy was in a state of shock still, never believing for a moment my mom would pull such a stunt. What didn't seem to register yet, though, was why she thought she could do it with Rick in the first place. After all, how many boys would just stand there after their aunt had pulled down their swim trunks, showing off their dick?

My mom reached out and grabbed Rick's soft dick in her hand and held it out towards Tammy.

"Now don't tell me you wouldn't like a nice big teenage dick like his."

"Mary, you shouldn't be touching him like that," Tammy finally was able to say when she found her voice. I almost laughed. It was an interesting comment to a woman who let her husband fuck her own daughter in front of her.

"Yeah, you're right," my mom said. Her tone made me instantly suspicious, and for good reason as it turned out. "I shouldn't be holding it, this cock needs to be sucked."

With that she leaned over and took Rick's dick in her mouth and slid the entire thing in until her face was pressed up against his hairy crotch. She sucked on it for a few seconds before slowly letting it out and then looked up at Tammy while she continued to stroke his now wetted shaft with her hand.

"Yep, THAT was MUCH better, don't you think Rick?" she said with a naughty grin. It was obvious she was having a great time needling them both. "C'mon, Tammy, wouldn't you like to try it?"

Tammy tightened her arms even tighter in front of her and just shook her head like a kid trying to keep from having to swallow her medicine.

"Well, if you don't then I bet Kelly would."

Well duh! I certainly didn't have to be asked twice. Rick's dick was already responding to my mom's caresses and was started to stiffen more every moment. I squatted down in front of him and took his semi-flaccid dick in my mouth. Mmmmmmm, I loved the way it felt to suck his dick as it was growing.

Dicks are the only thing about a guy that is ALWAYS honest - they never lie. When a guy is turned on, his dick gets hard and when he isn't, it stays soft, simple as that. Feeling Rick's cock getting bigger every second, filling my mouth more the longer I sucked him, told me that I was indeed turning him on.

"Now Tammy, don't tell me you wouldn't like to take a turn," my mom pressed her, "You'll just be sucking his dick, not like you're having sex with him or anything."

"Oh yeah? Try telling that to my David," she countered.

Well, duh, of course her husband wouldn't appreciate it if she started sucking another man's cocks since he would never know, who cares? My mom's point was that it was no different than going out and spending money on an expensive new outfit. Sure, her husband may not like it but it's not like she would be cheating on him.

I let them discuss it as my focus was more on Rick's cock at the moment. Rick wasn't exactly the kind of guy I would want as a boyfriend, but he DID have the biggest dick in our family and I enjoyed giving him blowjobs, even if he didn't fuck me with it.

Looking out the corner of my eye, I could see that Tammy was watching me intently. She may be SAYING she didn't want Rick's cock, but the look in her eyes betrayed her true feelings. Well why not? What older women with an ounce of hormones wouldn't want a young stud's dick once more in her mouth?

"Your turn," I said to Tammy, holding Rick's slippery dick in my hand as I turned my head towards her.

The three of us all looked at Tammy who was obviously having a hard time with her decision. Finally I don't know if it was the peer pressure or her horniness that won out but she heaved a heavy sigh and got up and out of her chair. Walking over towards me, she motioned me to move back with her hand.

"Alright, if for nothing else than to shut you all up I'll do it," she said with a smile. Yeah right, as if she wasn't hot for Rick's hard cock!

"You know Mary, it's been a long time since I held a teenager's dick," she said with a grin towards my mom as she squatted down in front of Rick. At first she just stroked him with her hand, spitting on him to keep him slippery.

"Gee whiz Tammy, :you can do better than a hand job if I remember back when," my mom teased her. "Or has it been too long since you sucked cock - need some help?"

I knew from my mom that Tammy's husband didn't like oral sex - saying it was dirty. Such attitudes always amazed me but then what can you do about it? Until she mentioned it I had forgotten about it so it made it all the more hot to watch her gaze at Rick's dick with her mouth now just inches away from it. It must be close to 25 years since she'd tasted a cock (not counting my dad's that one brief time a few years back)! God, I couldn't imagine going 25 DAYS without sucking one, let alone 25 years.

"Well, here goes nothing,' she sighed, perhaps more for her own benefit than ours.

Tammy leaned forward and took the head of Rick's dick in her mouth. He groaned as she sucked on it and appeared to be playing with it with her tongue. Then without warning she apparently decided enough was enough and plunged her head down on his dick, taking about two-thirds of it in her mouth holding onto the base of it with her right hand. She head-bobbed him for a while and then dropped him from her mouth, continuing to stroke him with her hand.

"Damn Mary, I have to say you were right - it DOES feel nice to suck a dick again," she said with a smile towards my mom. Then she looked up at Rick.

"No wonder you have all the ladies around you wanting it so bad,: she said softly to him, "You have one incredible dick!"

With that she went back to work on him. Obviously she was a little rusty after more than two decades but at that same time, some things are just instinctive. I get a kick out of the porn movies where a girl has to be "taught" to suck dick. Sure there are a few techniques that can be learned but the basic instinct for sucking cock seems to be inborn for every girl I've ever known - no different than licking pussy.

My mom and I played with ourselves as we watched. It was more just something to keep my hands busy than to get off as my attention was riveted on Tammy. There was just something about seeing her sucking my cousin that was so erotic. Maybe it was her "typical housewife and soccer mom" lifestyle that made what she was doing all the more "naughty". I would be willing to give long odds that not a single one of her friends back home would believe it if she tried to tell them what she had done - although of course she never would tell!

Rick must have been getting close to cumming from the way he was groaning. Soon her took his shaft I his hand while Tammy held the head of his cock in her mouth, licking the tip of it while he stroked his dick with one hand and held her head in place with the other hand.

"I'm gonna cum in your mouth," he declared.

Tammy's eyes widened. Apparently she wasn't expecting to have to taste his cum. Well, she didn't know Rick!

"Oh yeah!" he moaned as his hips jerked forward and the first load shot from his dick into her mouth. The feeling of his orgasm must have distracted him as his grip on her head loosened enough to allow her to pull her head back and off his dick. The next shot hit her on the forehead, right between the eyes and the rest sprayed over her neck and boobs. She quickly pushed the cum from her mouth, not spitting it out but just letting it drip from her lips over her chin, forming like a stalactite of cum hanging down from her chin. From the expression on her face, I could tell she wasn't thrilled about the taste it left in her mouth.

"Sorry, it's just that think it's so gross to have it in my mouth," she apologized, not to anyone in particular.

"Hey, not bad after a couple of decades," my mom consoled her.

"You know, you don't have to make me feel THAT old!" Tammy whined playfully, trying to keep the cum out of her eyes. "OK, somebody got a towel or something?"

I handed her a bath towel and she wiped the cum from her face and then looked down at her chest and then at Rick.

"Dang it, you can really cum you naughty boy, can't you?" she said with a smile.

"Well, I aim to please," Rick finally said.

"Sorry, from what I see, you can't aim at all!" Tammy teased him, wiping his cum from her boobs.

"Well Mary, I have to say, THAT was certainly not what I expected to be doing today," Tammy said to my mom.

"It's been a while since you've have a teenage dick, hasn't it?" my mom said. I could see it was a leading question but Tammy took it differently.

"Well of course, like, what other kid would I have been doing?"

"That's not what I meant, Tammy. Look at his dick."

We all looked at Rick's cock which was still standing at attention, ready for action without any sign of going soft after just one orgasm.

"One nice thing about teenage boys, they're like the Energizer Bunny; they keep going and going," my mom said with a wicked smile.

"Sheesh, now what? You two gonna blow him again?"

My mom just giggled and pointed at me and then motioned towards Rick. I knew exactly what she meant, even if Tammy was clueless. You couldn't blame her though. After all, she didn't know what my mom and I had been doing with Rick.

I got up and walked seductively over to Rick. Grabbing his cock, I gave it a few tugs and then turned away from him and leaned over the table. Spreading my legs apart, I wiggled my butt a little and grinned.

"God, I should have known," Tammy sighed as she watched Rick move in behind me and position his dick under my ass. "Well, I guess if your dad's doing you, what the hell, why not your cousin?"

I didn't respond as Rick was pushing his dick into me and my attention was being drawn to my pussy. God it felt good to be fucked again by him. As I keep saying, he's not boyfriend material but he certainly can fuck!

"So what do you think of my daughter and nephew doing it?" my mom asked Tammy.

"Well, other than it feels a little strange to be sitting her watching like it's some sort of foreign sex show, I guess I'm OK with it."

Then she smiled and leaned over the table to my mom to say, "After all, after the trip to my house last summer, it's not like I don't know your daughter's a slut - in a good way."

"I don't blame her for doing him,: my mom replied, as if I wasn't there and they were talking about me over morning coffee. "He's not a bad fuck for his age."

It was weird trying to concentrate on Rick fucking me while at the same time it was intriguing to listen to this conversation between my mom and her best friend. Tammy was starting to understand more and more and this time, my mom's subtle hint didn't pass by unnoticed.

"And you know this because?" she started to ask, and then answered herself, "Oh God Mary, don't tell me... YOU?"

My mom just grinned back at her.

"Hey, a BJ is one thing but letting him FUCK you? How could you Mary?" She asked with a high voice, obviously a little stressed out now. Then she laughed and sat back in her chair.

"OK, got me... this time you HAVE to be teasing."

My mom sighed and shook her head as if she was getting frustrated at Tammy's insistence on denial. She got up and took a position next to me, leaning over the table and pressing her nude body against mine as I bounced back and forth with each thrust from Rick.

"OK Rick, show her," she commanded.

Tammy watched, her eyes even wider than any time before, as Rick pulled out of my pussy and started fucking my mom. I sat down next to Tammy and put my hand on her arm.

"There's nothing wrong with it, he IS her nephew so it's not like she's cheating on dad or anything."

"Not cheating? Earth to Kelly - your mom's fucking someone besides your dad!"

"Yeah but Rick's family. It's just like when dad fucks me - it doesn't mean he is cheating on mom."

"Well, maybe if he was her son I could buy that argument... but a nephew?"

"It's OK, that's as far as it goes," I told her, "Mom would NEVER cheat with anyone not in the family."

With that we all went silent for a few minutes to watch Rick do my mom. I knew there was nothing emotional about this for her - it was all about pleasure, the kind of please a forty year-old woman can only get from a boy twenty years younger - or more.

"Wouldn't you like to try him on for size?" I asked her finally.

Tammy looked showed that I would even mention it.

"Oh no, don't EVEN go there," she warned me. "I would NEVER cheat on my husband.

"I bet he doesn't fuck you as good as Rick would," I said, trying to change her mind.

"That's not the point," she countered, "There are just some lines I can't cross Kelly."

We were interrupted from anything further when Rick announced he was ready to cum again. Sure enough, he grabbed my mom's bare hips and started thrusting his dick into her as deep as he could, holding it for a moment as he ejaculated each time he was in her all the way.

"You're letting him cum inside of you Mary?" Tammy said, apparently not believing my mom would do that.

"Well, he cums in my daughter so why not me?" she countered.

"Yeah but...," Tammy started to say and then got quiet after rethinking her opposition.

Rick pulled out from my mom and she turned to show us her ass and freshly fucked pussy. She squeezed down and pushed some of his cum out of her, forming a virtual cum river that flowed from there pussy and down her ass and leg.

"Unbelievable," Tammy sighed, trying to take this all in at once.

"Back to work Rick," my mom said, shooing him off. "Be a good boy and maybe Aunt Mary will let her fuck her again tomorrow.

I wanted to burst out laughing as obviously the entire thing was being staged for Tammy's sake. I'd never heard my mom say anything like that before.

"And put some shorts on before somebody see you," she called out to him as he reached for his cleaning equipment.

"Well! Now THAT was fun!" my mom exclaimed. "Anyone up for some lunch out?"

4. My Dad Finally Fucks Tammy

For the rest of the day we left poor Rick behind, undoubtedly he had been hoping for another shot at my mom and me and who knows, maybe even Tammy. Oh well, it wasn't like the boy couldn't masturbate. My mom often complained about how much time he spent jerking off when he was at our house instead of doing his work.

That night my dad came home and as we sat around the table for dinner, the conversation inevitably drifted to talking about our respective days and how they went. When my dad looked at Tammy and asked her how things were going, she blushed and my dad looked at her with a questioning expression but she wouldn't budge.

After dinner and dishes, we retreated to the family room to watch some TV. One of my dad's favorite shows is StarGate, most likely more because of Amanda Tapping than the sterling plots and acting. As it happened, tonight was an episode that featured her and although she never showed anything sexy, I knew my dad was still turned on by her. For that matter, there were a few guys on there that I wouldn't have minded getting some one-on-one time with either.

With Tammy in the room, my dad was apparently too shy to masturbate. It looked like it was going to be one of the only StarGate episodes we had ever watched where his dick wasn't in his hand before the ending. It wasn't anything "special: to me to see him jerk off as he'd been doing it since I was a little girl and for me, it was just a natural reaction to something that stimulated him on TV. All the same, it was a shame to see him sitting in his recliner knowing he was undoubtedly hard and hurting. Well, what were daughters for if not to help their dads?

At the time, I was wearing one of my dad's dress shirts with the sleeves rolled up. It hung on me like a sack but was comfy as hell. Tammy was laying back on the love seat across from the couch where I was laid out. My parents were in their usual positions - their recliners at the end of the room opposite the large screen TV.

Without trying to make a show of anything, I reached under the shirt tails and started to play with myself as I watched TV. It wasn't anything TOO blatant but if anyone was to look at me, it would have to have been pretty obvious I wasn't scratching an itch - other than one in my pussy. It felt good to feel my fingers playing over my clit. I glanced over at Tammy who was still fixated on the TV and though about this afternoon. God I wish she had let Rick fuck her!

I'm not sure where I was hoping it would lead to, but before my actions could get any attention, my mom announced that she was tied and heading up to bed. My dad exchanged glances with her and said he would go as well, leaving Tammy and me behind.

"It's awful early for them to be going to bed, don't you think?" Tammy asked me after they had gone up the stairs.

"Oh Tammy, give me a break," I said with a grin, my hand still between my legs but covered by the shirt tails.

Tammy suddenly looked as if the light bulb had turned on over her head and blushed.

"Ohhhhhh, I get it now. Sorry, I can be pretty slow now and then."

"Just now and then?" I was about to reply but thought better of it.

"You know, when I was growing up I didn't even think my parents HAD sex anymore, let alone knew when they were doing it," Tammy mused.

I laughed and replied, "Well, I guess that means SEEING them having sex was out of the question."

"Oh god, the very thought of seeing that makes me shiver even now," she giggled, moving her shoulders about. Then she looked at me wither eyebrows down a little as she squinted over at me.

"Oh don't tell me," she sighed with her eyes tolled up in her head, "You watch your parents having sex?"

I explained her to that actually I had not until I was sixteen and even then, the first time was by accident as I came home early from a party and they didn't know I was home. As open as my parents were about sex when I was younger, for instance masturbation was never hidden, the act of sex was something they kept private for themselves. I don't think it was so much that they were ashamed of me watching or even worried that a child was looking in. It was more of a personal thing for them that they reserved for themselves and them alone.

Of course, once you start having sex with your parents, seeing them doing it isn't such a big deal anymore. I mean, don't get me wrong; I LOVE watching my parents doing it but more because of the love it symbolizes between them than for anything else. I guess for most people, including Tammy, seeing your parents fucking isn't something "normal".

"Have you ever seen them fucking?" I asked.

"Well, back in school before we got married, we use to double date and sometimes things got a little carried away. It wasn't like they did it while I watched, it was more like they did it while I was around. Besides, that was a LONG time ago."

"Would you like to watch them now?"

"Huh? You mean, go up to their bedroom and watch them making love?"

Tammy's voice sounded incredulous, as if she couldn't believe I would even ask such a thing, let alone actually do it.

"Why not, they won't care. Besides, I think my mom wants you to."

"Why is that?"

"I think she has a surprise for you?"

Tammy just chuckled at that one.

"I don't think ANYTHING she did at this point would surprise me!"

"So you wanna come up with me and watch them?"

"I guess so - you sure you want to stop what you're doing?"

She was obviously referring to my mild masturbation attempts.

"Who said anything about stopping?"

"My god, does it ever end?" she sighed, getting up from the couch with a look of exasperation. I don't think she meant anything bad, more like she was being overwhelmed by the events of the day.

Tammy was wearing pink cotton panties and a pink sleep shirt that came to her knees (I knew about the panties from when she was up on the couch with her legs pulled up.) She was sexy more into an erotic way than purely physical as her prime days were behind her. I wondered when the last time she ran around her house in such an outfit? Her husband would probably be shocked to see her in something even as discrete as this. I playfully patted her on the butt and she smacked my hand gently away as we giggled like school girls up the two flights of stairs to the bedroom.

Entering my parents room, my mom and dad were in a 69 with my mom on top, sucking my dad's cock which looked to be at full mast. My dad had his face buried in my mom's ass until he heard us entering and then he let his head fall back into the pillow to see us.

"Well, well, looks like we have an audience Mary," he joked.

My mom looked over and winked but she didn't let his cock drop from her mouth. Tammy and I took a seat next to each other on a small love seat they kept in their room. It was barely big enough for the two of us so we were tight together.

"So what do you think?" I whispered to her.

"This is weird... I feel like I'm watching some sex show or something."

"Aren't they amazing together though?"

Tammy didn't respond so I added, "Do you and David fuck a lot."

Wrong question. Tammy's lips all but disappeared as she pursed her lips and tried to ignore me. Obviously I had struck a raw nerve. Well, maybe she NEEDED to talk about it.

"When was the last time your husband fucked you?"

Tammy took a deep breath and was about to answer when our attention was brought back to my parents. My mom had gotten up and positioned herself on my dad's dick, riding him cowgirl style with her butt facing him for him to play with. Tammy sighed as she watched her best friend being drilled by her husband. I was willing to bet it wasn't something she had experienced much lately.

"Well, David has... issues," she finally came out and said.

"Can't get it up?" I put it in more blunt terms.

"Well, I guess you could put it that way. I thought it was me but his doctor said it was due to his blood pressure and diabetes medicines. He IS 49 you know.

"Wow... so when was the last time?"

"Three years ago... plus or minus a few months."

I turned to her with my jaw dropped and eyes like saucers.

"Three YEARS?"

"Yep, it just doesn't work anymore."

By "it" I assumed she meant her husband's dick. God, that was horrible. I would think that such a thing was grounds for divorce - or at least rationalize a little extracurricular sex.

"Don't get me wrong, I still love him as much as I ever did. A woman can still take care of herself when she needs to," she said with a wink.

With that, my mom suddenly dismounted from my dad and got off the bed to come over by us. It wasn't like her to stop in mid action so I wondered what she was doing or up to. She looked at me and smiled.

"Tammy's told me all about this a long time ago Kelly. That's why I wanted her up her for a little surprise so thanks for taking care of your part.

My part? I knew that earlier in the day she had mentioned she had a surprise in store for Tammy but I had no idea what she had in mind beyond just watching her being fucked by my dad. Obviously, Tammy was just as clueless as I was.

"Listen Tammy, and stop interrupting me," my mom said firmly, "John and I have talked about this and we both agree on it."

Tammy listened together with me. She was probably wondering what "it" was. Knowing my parents, it could be about anything.

My mom took Tammy's hand and leaned over to kiss her on the cheek. Then she pulled her up to her feet and hugged her. I could barely hear as she whispered in her ear.

"I want you to let John fuck you."

Tammy pulled away and her face looked if not terrified, then at least a bit in shock.

"Oh Mary, I'm so sorry. I could never do that to my David.

"Why not? This isn't going out and pulling in anyone from the street," my mom retorted.

"No, the BJ was enough for one day, I just can't do this... sorry, I know you meant well."

She started to walk out from the room but my dad had gotten up and was sitting on the side of the bed as she walked by, nude with his dick nice and hard. He reached out and grabbed her, putting his arms around he and pulling her down to the bed beside him. His dick, still wet from my mom's pussy, was standing up like a rocket ready for launch from the thick bush of pubic hair that sprouted from his crotch. He reached under her shirt and pulled her panties down to her knees.

Tammy was so surprised by his sudden actions that she didn't even try to fight back - at first. "What the hell are you doing John?" she finally got out. He quickly pulled her panties off her legs and reached under to cup her now exposed crotch with his hand.

"My god, what ARE you doing... stop it John!" she fought back, although not as hard as I would have thought she could have if her heart was fully into it.

"Why don't you just shut up and do it, you know you want it," he grunted, forcing her legs apart so he could mount her missionary style.

Tammy looked over at me and my mom as we just sat and watched. "Damn Mary, are you just going to watch while your husband rapes me?" she pleaded.

"Well, I TOLD you I had as surprise for you," my mom teased her, "Like he said, you know you want it so quit pretending and enjoy yourself."

"I'm serious, stop it John!" she said, louder this time as she tried to push her legs back together to no avail.

My dad just grinned and chuckled. "If you want me to stop so bad, why are you so damn wet?"

Tammy seemed to collapse as she quit fighting him. "What the hell, why not?" she sighed, pulling her night shirt up and over her head to leave her nude in bed under my dad.

"That's better," my dad murmured as I could tell he wanted to fuck her - BAD,

My mom was watching every move and I couldn't help but wonder what we going through her mind. Other my best friend Beth, my dad had never "cheated" on her. I guess she was using the same rationale as with Beth. Beth was like one of the family and in her own way, so was Tammy. It was a little bit of s stretch but if it made her happy, I was OK with it.

"Damn, pretty tight for an old broad," my dad teased as he tried to penetrate her.

"Yeah, any longer and I might have qualified as a virgin again!" she laughed. Spreading her legs further as she tried to help my dad get in her.

"There we go!" my dad announced as he pulled his hand from between their legs and leaned over her, supporting himself on his arms on each side. "God your pussy feels good!"

Tammy had her eyes shut as my dad started to stroke his dick in and out of her. What was she thinking about? Was she just enjoying my dad's dick in her or was she trying to pretend it was her husband's cock in her instead?

"Fuck me!" she gasped.

Again, I wasn't sure who she was really talking to - my dad or her husband. In a way, I hoped that it WAS her hubby in her mind. Tammy was an incredibly devoted mother and wife. It wasn't her fault nature had taken her husband's sex drive from him. That said, EVERY woman needs sex, just as much if not more than guys do. Women just don't make such a big deal out of it publicly as men do. Tammy was no nun - she need sex just as much as my mom did and for her to go THIS long without a dick in her must have been excruciating!

My dad seemed to be enjoying it as well. It wasn't too often he got a fresh pussy to fuck - or at least a different one. Once he had fucked Tammy, my youngest cousin, he had sort of hit the end of the road so far as available pussy went in our family. The only women he hadn't fucked were those he wasn't ever going to. I could only imagine how excited he must have been when my mom proposed this idea to him.

"Fuck her John, fuck her for me," my mom said loudly to be heard over Tammy's moans. I noticed she was masturbating pretty hard herself which only caused me to touch myself all the more.

"Ohhhhhhhhh!" my dad cried out as he started to cum. His hips plunged downward as he thrust his hard dick deep inside of her, pushing the tip of it as far up inside of her as he could when he released his sperm.

When he had finished he pulled out and threw himself on his back next to Tammy so the two of them were lying motionless on their backs.

"Oh my god, I can't believe I just did that," Tammy sighed. It sounded more like contentment than concern.

My mom moved over to lay on the opposite side of her as my dad. She was on her side and wrapped one leg and arm around Tammy, drawing their naked bodies tight together.

"I wanted him to do that for you, I love you so much!" my mom whispered to her as they kissed. It wasn't sexual but more two friends just enjoying themselves and kissing.

"Oh Mary, thank you... I needed that SO bad."

"Well, I TRIED earlier!" my mom teased her.

"No, this was better," Tammy replied, "It means so much more to me for you to share your husband."

"Tried WHAT earlier?" my dad asked out of curiosity. Then he shook his head as he realized what she meant. "Oh, of course, I forgot our horny little nephew was over today."

"Dad, he's not so little you know!" I protested.

"Well, maybe in THAT department, but I could care less about that - although I know you certainly enjoy it," he teased me.

"Daddy!" I whined, trying to sound upset, "You know I love it when you fuck me!"

We turned the TV on in the bedroom and I fell asleep before long. When I woke up it was morning and my dad was gone to work and my mom and aunt were having their usual coffee. I wondered if Rick would be coming over again? Tammy still had another day before she left so now that the barn door was open, what other new things would she let herself succumb to before she left?

(May 26) Chapter 137: Closing the Deal

Story codes: MF FF adultery inc father daughter mother daughter cousins
Me (22)
John - my dad (42)
Aunt Linda (39)
Kristen - cousin (20)

Realtors use all sorts of gimmicks to sell homes and my Aunt Linda is no exception. In her case, however, she offers a special "deal" most buyers can't refuse (especially the men). When that's not enough to close the deal, her daughter Kristen is there to help out. This time she was facing a critical deal with a difficult client. With her job on the line, she asked me if I wouldn't mind helping out. Of course I agreed!

1. Aunt Linda the Realtor

My Aunt Linda is a couple of years younger than my mom. Unlike my mom, who has been happily married for over twenty years, my aunt divorced her husband after just a few years. She had told her future husband everything about her incestuous relationship with her dad and sister so once they were married, she continued to have sex with them. Apparently her husband didn't deal with it as well as he had promised. Fortunately, my father is much more secure and understanding. Knowing how close my mom and her dad were, he never interfered although he never got involved either.

Now a single mother and unemployed, in order to support herself my Aunt Linda became a licensed realtor and over the years has done pretty well for herself. Granted, with only one income and it being unpredictable given the cutthroat competition, she wasn't rich by any means but it was usually enough to keep her and my Cousin Kristen under a roof and fed. I knew my parents occasionally helped out but it wasn't something we made a big deal out of or even discussed. It was just something families did for each other and I was brought up that your family is the most important thing in the world.

As a single woman, Aunt Linda dated and I always knew she was a bit of a flirt, to put it nicely. She has always had a great figure which she doesn't hesitate to show off with the shortest skirts and tightest tops although she knew the limits. She dressed her age, maybe pushing the boundaries a little, and wasn't into this weird thing where mom's try to dress like their teenage daughters.

Like all realtors, Aunt Linda was looking for an edge. Some used corny slogans and ad campaigns, others discounted their pricing, you name it. As for my aunt, my mom waited until she thought I was old enough to understand so it wasn't until I was twelve that I learned the real reason she wore provocative clothing to work.

After the divorce, Kristen and her mom shared a bedroom - and a bed. As Kristen got older, she continued to sleep with her mom. As I got older and started noticing more things, I wondered where Kristen slept when her mom brought home one of her boyfriends. Of course, I never even dreamed that maybe Kristen didn't have to worry about where to go.

Although my cousin I masturbated together which was no big deal really, as like most girls I did the same with my friends at sleepovers and such. Other than maybe sharing a boyfriend we never did anything seriously together until I was nineteen. It wasn't until I was nineteen and found out that my dad was fucking Kristen while I was away at school that Kristen and I "got physical" with one another. It wasn't until then that I learned "the rest of the story" about Kristen's relationship with her mom. It was one of those things that seemed so obvious once you knew about it, but the truth is that until then, I never thought for one second that they were doing it.

It wasn't long afterwards that Kristen confided in me how over the last couple of years she had been "helping" her mom with some of her house sales. Apparently having a sexy middle age woman wasn't enough to "sweeten" the deal for some guys; but throw in her teenage daughter and well, when it was a close decision between two homes and two realtors, you can guess which one landed the deal!

So now I was officially a college graduate, coming home with my degree in hand, ready to conquer the world. Other than some tests I had to take to qualify to teach in Pennsylvania, my summer was looking to be pretty much free. Once the local schools let out I figured I might do some tutoring so I would have some spending money of my own; but for the first couple of weeks all I had planned was to rest and relax without the pressure of knowing I had to return to school in the fall.

2. Fun With Kristen

One afternoon shortly after getting home, I was over at my cousin's, just to visit and catch up on the local gossip. We were sitting at the kitchen table, her with one of her strange tea mixtures and me with my usual Diet Coke, when her mom rushed in through the front door. She passed by the kitchen and seeing me there, waved hello, but then hurried up the stairs to their bedroom. Kristen and I looked at each other, puzzled at what was going on, but neither of us had a clue.

About fifteen minutes later, my aunt came back downstairs and stopped by the kitchen, taking a few moments to chat with us this time.

"Sorry girls, I have to meet client for a last minute appointment. They're interested in that executive home over behind the industrial park and I think I've almost got the deal."

"Wow mom," Kristen smiled, "You've been trying to sell that one for months! Congratulations!"

"Well, it's not a done deal yet! But I think with just a little more 'persuasion' I can get the husband to sign the papers."

Kristen and I looked at each other and grinned. We both knew what she meant when she said "persuasion". She had obviously rushed home to change clothes. Looking at her, I held my breath at how hot she looked. Damn, her usual outfits were pretty risque but this one was over the top. She had changed into a skirt that was little more than a hemline (her legs were one of her best assets, even at 39) and a blouse that looked like she took it from Kristen's rack and somehow shoehorned herself into it. The top buttons were undone, including the one in her cleavage.

As tight as the blouse was, she couldn't have buttoned them even if she had wanted to and the remaining ones looked like they would pop any second under the strain. She had a boob lift about a year ago and so even without a bra, her bobs looked almost as perky as mine and her nipples were clearly visible through the thin white fabric. A black thong (the skirt was so short that it was easy to see, even when she was walking) barely covered her trimmed pussy. A pair of four inch shiny black heels finished it off.

"Whoa!," I said admiringly, "Wow Aunt Linda, you look really incredible! So how old is the guy? Is it with just him or his wife too?"

I had a thousand more questions but those would do for a start. Actually I was feeling a little jealous. It had been quite a while since I had a man cheat on his wife to have me and now my aunt was going out to have all the fun - and make a commission on it as well!

"Well, he's 38 and yes he's married although his wife's back in Philly for the weekend. She was out here all last week but had something to take care of back home with one of their kids so she left it up to him to make a final decision."

From what my aunt had told me in the past, I knew it was quite unusual for a wife to leave such a major decision up to her husband. This, although my aunt didn't directly say so, I assumed that their decision must be down to two homes, either of which his wife was willing to accept. That meant that the big question was now whether or not my aunt could persuade this guy to buy her house over the other one. As the asking price was over a million dollars, it was easy to see why she didn't want to leave anything up to chance so if there was any way she could get an advantage over her competition, I knew she would do it (so long as it was legal).

"Hey, I'll tell you all about it when I get back but I need to run," she said, sounding a little panicky as she looked at her watch. "He's got an appointment with another realtor this evening and I'd love to have him make up his mind before then."

She reached over and kissed us both on the lips. Mmmmmmm, she smelled good! I couldn't help but envy the guy. It was rare that I did anything with my Aunt but that had didn't mean I wasn't attracted to her. My Aunt was hot, even at her age, and she could be a lot of fun during those rare times when we did get together. It was times like this I was jealous of Kristen!

After she left, Kristen and I joked about the odds that this poor guy could resists her mother's charms. She then told me about the last guy her mom had to "persuade" to ink a deal and how she had helped out. As it turned out, the guy had this fantasy to have a mother-daughter thing and my mom had just the deal for him! Kristen was rubbing herself before she was done telling me the story as she recalled how she and her mom had fucked the guy together.

As I watched Kristen rubbing herself through her denim shorts, I found myself getting that familiar twinge between my legs that I get I am feeling even hornier than usual. Once again I found myself feeling a bit jealous of my younger cousin. Being married, my mother would never do anything with another guy and me so anything regarding such a mother-daughter thing would always remain a fantasy for me.

Kristen must have noticed my own hand going to work on me as she grinned at me and giggled.

"Hmmmmmm, I think somebody's a little hornier than usual today!"

"Me?" I exclaimed, pretending to protest, "I think YOU were the one who started touching herself first."

Kristen laughed more than giggled this time.

"Yeah, guilty as charged. So why are we just sitting at the table talking about it? C'mon, let's go upstairs."

When Kristen said she wanted to "go upstairs", I knew what she was really saying was, "Let's go upstairs and fuck each other's lights out." For Kristen, sex was never a casual affair; she always brought her "A" game.

Both of us were giggling like little school girls as we raced up the stairs, shedding our clothes on the steps as we went up. Arriving naked in their bedroom, we flopped onto the queen-sized bed and immediately turned to one another and hugged each other tight. Her body felt so smooth and warm against mine as we pressed tightly together while we kissed like two lovers back together again after a long separation. Her lips were full and soft and I could smell the natural scent of her body as we kissed. Our tongues met and toyed with each other's as our breasts pressed tightly together. Her boobs are barely a B cup while mine have developed slowly (God, how slowly!) into a full C but her nipples were big and rigid as mine.

"God I missed you," I whispered in her ear as we broke apart to catch our breath.

"Mmmmmmm, you know it," she replied and then kissed me again before I could say anything. She certainly wasn't wasting any time as I felt her hands roaming over my bare body, quickly zeroing in on my ass. It felt good when she grabbed my butt in her hand and squeezed it tightly.

"Mmmmmmm, you know, I've always thought you had the best ass in the family," she said with a smile on her face.

In response, I reached down and grabbed her petite butt in my hand and gave her a squeeze of my own in response. It felt so smooth and firm!

"Yeah, tell that to all the guys staring at yours when we're together!"

"Oh sure, like they're not staring at yours too! Do you know why I like yours the best?"

I just looked at her and she giggled out loud as her hand worked its way around until she was cupping my pussy in her hand.

"Because your pussy is on the other side!"

We both laughed at her silliness but then I couldn't help but moan softly as her exploring hand reached my tender clit. She traced her finger around it in small circles teasing me mercilessly.

"God Kristen... that feels soooooo good!"

From plenty of past experience, I knew what was to come but even so, it still made my heart beat faster as she slid down the bed, licking my neck, boobs, and then my stomach as she worked her way down my body. More than any other girl I knew (even me), Kristen LOVED to eat pussy and she was damn good at it. Other than my mom (OK, I admit I'm biased), nobody in the world has ever even come close to making me feel the way she does when settles down between my legs. Knowing her intent, I rolled onto my back and spread my legs for her, waiting for her brilliant tongue to reach in between my thighs.

"God, you don't know how many mornings I did myself dreaming of you licking me," I sighed as she put her face in my crotch and her tongue started to lick my pussy.

She was actually laying opposite to me, such that her own pussy was close to my shoulder but I knew she wanted just to lick me, at least to start with, so I concentrated on how good it felt to have her mouth working on me. After a few minutes of bliss, her head twisted until she could look me in the eyes and her wet face smiled up at me.

"I LOVE your pussy Kelly," she whispered softly, licking her lips slowly for me to see. "You taste so fucking sweet!"

Well, I know exactly how my pussy tastes and while I love it too, "sweet" isn't exactly how I would describe it but I knew what she meant. She turned her attention back to my pussy and grabbed my clit between her lips, softly tugging on it while she used the tip of her tongue to run over it inside of her mouth. My back arch instinctively as my pussy responded, sending a rapid series of intense pleasurable impulses coursing out through my body. Her upper arm reached around and again she gripped my ass firmly with her hand, pulling on me, hinting at me to twist over on my side.

Rolling over onto my side, I kept my upper leg up so it would be easy for her to keep her face between my legs. At the same time, she took her upper leg and lifted it up and over such that she was straddling my head. I took a deep breath and stared at her damp pussy which was now less than an inch from my face. The natural odor of her crotch was overwhelming as I turned my head to bring my tongue even closer to the source. While sometimes she experimented with different looks, today her pussy was shaved completely bare, looking as smooth and clean as a ten year-old girl's. My tongue touched her gingerly at first and then glided over her silky skin as I worked my way to her pussy slit.

I was just about to kiss her clit when she put her arm further around my butt and pushed a finger into my pussy as she kept sucking on my clit. The intense pleasure I felt as she wiggled her finger in me while at the same time using her tongue like a magic wand on my clit caused me to gasp loudly. It was so intense I couldn't concentrate on keeping my mouth on her until the initial sensations had finally subsided.

"Oh Kristen!" was all I could get out as she gently tugged on my clit.

Damn, I wanted so badly to lick her! With her mouth on me, though, it was all but impossible to concentrate on anything else. Finally, I parted her pussy lips with my tongue and tasted her pretty pussy, taking in deep breaths as I smelled her wonderful little cunt which seemed to only enhance the pleasant flavor of her pussy. Just as I was about to make it to her pussy hole, I was forced to pull back as my entire body suddenly went rigid, automatically reacting to whatever she was doing to me now.

"Oh... my... god! What are you doing Kristen?" I barely managed to gasp.

Indeed, what the hell WAS she doing? Well, I mean, I knew what she was up to but at the same time, I couldn't believe she was doing it. My petite slut of a cousin had pushed a finger up my asshole such that now she had one in my pussy and another in my ass.

Now anyone who knows me has to know that I am NOT a fan of anal sex. If someone wants to lick my asshole or run their finger around the outside of it, feel free and I admit to enjoying it (just don't touch me or kiss me with whatever touched my asshole). However, when it comes to penetration with anything larger, including a dick, my answer has always been a definitive and consistent "NO!" Lord only knows how many guys have tried to convince me otherwise but I have always stuck to my principles. Oh sure, like just about everybody else I know I've experimented a little in the shower with my finger. But at those times it was MY finger and it was all under MY control, not to mention I could wash myself off immediately afterwards. Just something about playing where I poop just grosses me out!

Kristen was either ignoring me or she didn't hear me. In either case, she wasn't responding or giving any indication she intended to so I knew it was up to me to do something to stop her. Funny thing though - I didn't really WANT her to stop! Kristen's hands are really small and thus her fingers are considerably smaller than mine so it wasn't like some guy as trying to ram a hard cock up my butt or anything. In fact, after the initial shock I was actually enjoying it! I could feel both her fingers in me and I could even feel them touching against one another. As much as I wanted to scream out and tell her how good it felt, there was the matter of her beautiful pussy right in front of my face.

It was no use, as selfish as it sounds, I couldn't lick her while she was doing what she was doing to me. The moment my tongue would reach out, either her tongue would wrap around my clit or one of her fingers would sip in or out of my asshole or pussy. Either way, it was impossible to give her crotch the attention it so richly deserved and so I just let my head roll back and closed my eyes as she continued to do wonders on my pussy.

"Oh Kristen... don't stop... PLEASE don't stop... you're making me cum!."

Well, that probably ranked up there as one of the more obvious things I could say under the circumstances. Kristen had more than enough experience to gauge how close I was to an orgasm since after all, she was responsible for quite a few of them. Still, it just made me feel better somehow to say it out loud, to let her know who much I loved what she was doing to me. It's like when my dad fucks me in that he doesn't have to say he loves me but it still makes me feel good when he does.

"OH MY GOD!" I cried out as suddenly my orgasm nailed me like I'd been hit with a monstrous baseball bat. The difference was that instead of feeling pain all over my body, I was inundated with the most incredible sensations any girl can possibly experience.

I moaned loudly, almost at the top of my lungs, crying out for Kristen to keep licking my clit, to keep playing with my pussy and even my asshole. I don't know if I was making any sense to her as it seemed I was just babbling but I just couldn't shut my mouth as she continued to suck on my pussy, driving me even harder into the outer realms of my orgasm. Wrapping my arms around her tight little bottom, I pulled her tight into me so her pussy was pressing hard into my face. It felt good to have my face pressed tightly against her.

As my orgasm peaked my pussy literally let loose a torrent of cum as my orgasm continued on unabated. Kristen was relentless to the point of being merciless, driving me even deeper into some sexual universe where nothing existed except my throbbing pussy and her tenacious mouth. God, did she ever knew how to lick a pussy! I have absolutely no idea how long this went on but eventually I returned to earth, determined more than ever to please her in kind. She may be the ultimate pro when it comes to pussy licking, but I'm no amateur myself. Now it was MY turn to drive HER nuts. Pay-back time! Suffice to say we traded back and forth this way for what seemed like forever. Each of us had cum several times by now and finally we were both simply so exhausted we were simply sprawled on our backs, side by side on the bed. We both were panting so hard that someone coming in right now might think we had just finished a marathon.

"I love you Kristen!" I said softly, my eyes closed as our sweaty bodies rubbed up against each other.

"I love you too Kelly," she whispered back in a low voice..

It was a sweet and heartfelt exchange, just two cousins relaxing after an incredible girl-on-girl action. It was great to be home again!

3. More Fun With Aunt Linda and Kristen

We must have fallen asleep or something because suddenly her mom was standing at the end of the bed and I had no idea when she had come in.

"Well, glad to see the two of you have been having a good time. At least SOMEBODY did!"

Now that didn't sound like something she would be saying right after closing a million dollar sale. As it turned out, she hadn't. Kristen and I listened quietly as she fumed.

"God damn bastard. He said if I let him fuck me he'd sign the deal. Well, guess where the dickhead is now?"

Somehow I didn't think she really wanted an answer to that and so I just stayed quiet. Sure enough, she was answering herself before long.

"Asshole's looking at the other place, probably screwing that little whore from ERA, what's her name anyway - Allison?"

She was pacing back and forth now. Her hair was a bit out of place but that was the only thing that hinted at any special "deals" she may have been working out with the guy earlier.

"Well, was he a good fuck at least?" Kristen blurted out, trying to defuse the situation a little but unfortunately, her attempts at humor were a little mistimed and served only to set her mom off on another tirade.

"Was he good? Crap, bastard could barely get it up. Blamed it on his blood pressure pills. Bullshit."

"But Aunt Linda, what makes you so sure he's going to buy the other place," I asked. "Maybe he's just trying to get another free piece of ass?"

"Who knows? It's just I wanted to close this one quick. Crap, I REALLY need the numbers. The month of May has been a real bitch and my boss has been on my case about it big time."

"Well, can I help?" Kristen offered. From the way she licked her lips unconsciously I knew what kind of "help" my nympho cousin was offering. God, what a slut she was. I bet she was already thinking about what kind of BJ she would be giving him.

To be fair, it really was a bigger deal for Kristen than you might think as she really wasn't into older guys (older defined as anyone older than her). Sure, she lets my dad fuck her but that's because he's her uncle, not because she would do him otherwise. So far as I know, she hasn't even fucked my Uncle Jim. Yep, Kristen was WAY more into younger guys. College boys were the limit normally and I knew she was REALLY turned on by the younger ones.

Sometimes it truly concerned me when she told me about some of her exploits. She was over eighteen now and if she was caught with some fourteen or fifteen year old boy things could prove a bit interesting. For some reason, though, she didn't seem to care. She wasn't concerned about her "reputation" in the same way I was as she never was going to have to apply for a job teaching kids. My mom's guess is that she will marry some rich guy and be his trophy wife but sometimes I wondered if she wasn't going to be some awesome porn star.

"Hey, how about me instead?" I heard myself say, as if I was detached from my body and listening in on myself. It wasn't even something I thought about before blurting it out. Yet once it was out there, it seemed like the right thing to do. After all, I was the one who was into older guys - especially the married ones.

After the initial shock of my outburst, I realized that this was perfect for me in that it would be just a one-time thing. The primary reason I enjoyed being with married men wasn't that they were such great fucks. It was more about the thrill I got from them cheating on their wives, committing adultery to have me. I'm not talking about swingers or "open marriages". After all, if the wife consents then what's the big deal? No, what gets me off is driving a guy over the edge to where he abandons his wedding vows because I am so sexy and desirable.

"Really? Would you really be in interested in that sort of thing, Kelly?" my aunt asked, looking at me with a bit if surprise, "I mean, you DO know what kind of help I need, don't you?"

I couldn't help but giggle a little at that. Where did she come up with THAT one? My aunt knew all about me and the things I've done so there shouldn't be any question in her mind that I would be interested. Meanwhile, Kristen was looking a little miffed.

"You OK with that Kristen?" I asked.

"Yeah, I guess so. He's a little ancient for me anyway. I've never figured out why you like the old farts."

Turning back to my aunt, I took a deep breath, lifted my shoulders and let them drop dramatically as I exhaled slowly and forcefully. "OK then, it's settled. So what exactly do you want me to do?"

My aunt grinned at me and sat in the edge of the bed next to me. She reached out and started to run her hand over my cool naked body, letting her fingers drag along lightly behind, raising goose bumps on my smooth skin.

"Hmmmmmm, I know what I'd LIKE you to do right now," she purred, running her index finger in circles around my hardening nipples. She pinched my nipple gently between her fingers, pulling on it a bit and then releasing it, letting it snap back into place.

There's just something about having an older woman touch me and caress me that makes me want to melt. It's the same when I feel my mom or her best friend against me. Not that I don't enjoy being with younger girls like Kristen, not at all. It's just "different" is the only way I can describe it. There is more a sense of intimacy versus sexuality, perhaps more of a nurturing feel to it by having an older woman attend to me that brings back memories of my childhood when my mom would hold me or caress me when I was feeling down and lonely. When Kristen touched me, I knew it was really more for her own enjoyment and pleasure. With Aunt Linda, I sensed it was more about her concern and love for me as it was for her own self-fulfillment.

I laid back with my eyes closed, forgetting all about whatever tasks she had for me with her client and just concentrated on her light touch. Her fingers ran up and down me, over my boobs, down my stomach, passing quickly over my pussy and then down one inner thigh to return up the other. Indeed, it did take me back to when I was just a little girl. Someone would tease me or make me feel bad and when I got home my mom would run her hands over me in much the same way as my aunt was now, soothing me and relaxing me, helping me to forget whatever it was that was bothering me. One little difference between then and now was that back then there wasn't anything sexual about it, at least not for me. Well, that certainly wasn't the same tonight!

Aunt Linda's hand settled on one of my boobs and then stopped moving for a moment. I cracked open an eye and couldn't help but smile at the stunning sight in front of me. Kristen had gotten off the bed while I was distracted and was now standing between my aunt's legs, leaning over and kissing her mom. Even if I hadn't known their long incestuous history, it would have been obvious to anyone seeing this that this wasn't their first rodeo. What made it so erotic was that it wasn't exaggerated or put on, just two women demonstrating their intense love for one another in a gentle, sexual exchange.

I didn't dare say anything that might break the mood of the moment. The room was completely silent except for the light sounds of their lips touching. I watched as Kristen's mom put her free arm around her daughter's gorgeous nude body, pulling her in closer until Kristen was sitting on her mom's lap. It may not have been as innocent as back in the days when Kristen was a little girl (well, if they were EVER innocent to start with), but the same feelings and emotions that only a mother and her daughter can feel for one another were there. Kristen had one arm around her mom's neck while the other hand was fumbling with her mom's blouse, unbuttoning it and pulling it open.

Aunt Linda wasn't wearing a bra, no surprise given the semi-transparent nature of her blouse, and her exposed boobs looked fantastic. Any signs of her lift from last year were gone as if evaporated and her boobs once again had the perkiness of a woman half her age. It wasn't like she needed a boob job THAT bad but as she approached her late thirties she became more aware of the growing impact of age on her body and longed for her lost youth. My mom had confided in me that she had declined implants, happy with being a solid C cup naturally. Anything larger would have looked odd anyway and I have never understood why small women go for the big boob look that just screams "fake".

Kristen bent over and took her one of her mom's boob in her mouth. I bit my lip as I heard my aunt sigh and put her head back, eyes closed as she enjoyed the touch of her daughter's tongue. After what Kristen had done to me just a little while ago, I knew exactly what she was experiencing and I didn't blame her one bit for expressing her feelings.

"Oh Kristen baby," I barely heard her murmur as Kristen took her nipple lightly between her teeth and pulled gently but firmly on it, letting it snap back after she had tugged.

Well, who would blame me for touching myself while I watched this incredible scene? While I knew (today at least) that Kristen and her mom had been doing it together since she was a little girl, I didn't actually get to see them like this all that often so it was a treat for me to watch. It reminded me in a way of when my mom and I got together. As I played with my pussy I imagined my mom joining us and it was her mouth on my pussy rather than my hand.

Aunt Linda still had her arm around Kristen still but now she was cupping her daughter's perky little boob instead of her ass. Kristen was going from one boob to the other with her mouth. At times she just sucked on the nipples and then at others she would suck and lick all over her mom's breast.

I wiggled over more to the center of the bed to give them more room which allowed my aunt to lean back and turn so she was lying next to me. Her blouse was completely unbuttoned now which let it lay open such that her beautiful new boobs pointed up to the ceiling. Kristen was grinning from ear to ear as she reached under her mom's short skirt and pulled her black thong down and over her feet, taking her heels off in the process (why do the porn whores keep their shoes on in bed anyway?). The next thing to slide down her sexy legs was the skirt, leaving her nude except for the open blouse which nobody seemed to care about.

Kristen settled in between her mom's legs, her mouth planted on my aunt's hairy pussy. When I say hairy, I don't mean a heavy bush like my mom sometimes lets her grow into, but a full covering of black hair she keeps trimmed to maybe an inch or so at most. Frankly, I liked it better that way. Something about a woman who is almost forty having a clean pussy is a bit creepy for me.

Determined not to just lay there and masturbate while they had all the fun, I turned my attention to my aunt's lovely boobs now that Kristen had deserted them. Feeling the soft but firm flesh in my mouth, I was glad she didn't go the implant route. Her nipples were rock hard and poking out like a baby's bottle for me to suck

I couldn't help but grin as she reminded me of her sister - my mom. My mom had a drawer in her night stand that was practically filled with dildo's of all shapes and sizes. She had offered it to me to use when I started masturbating but for whatever reason, the gene wasn't passed on to me and I rarely took her up on her offer. Watching Aunt Linda, I could only imagine what I had been like in their bedroom at times when they were growing up!

"Oh fuck me!" she cried out, to no one in particular but rather just a general cry for more.

It had to be hard to be her age, her sex drive still as strong as ever, and not have a husband to fuck her every day. I remembered when I was growing up that there were times when she would stop by our house for no apparent reason and just look at my dad. He seemed to know what she wanted and they would disappear for a while. When I got older I learned that those were the times when she just HAD to have it and all she wanted was for my dad to do her, no foreplay or anything.

It wasn't until I left for college and had to go long periods without a guy that I truly understood how she just had a NEED for a real dick. It's hard to explain - how would you explain hunger to someone? According to my mom and Kristen, she dated quite a bit but with today's club scene a woman had to be careful.

"Oh... My... God!!" she practically screamed as her orgasm finally took hold.

Again, I found myself comparing her to her sister, AKA my mom. When my mom cums, I can tell more because of how quiet she gets than anything else. My mom loves to talk dirty when she is being fucked but when she cums, it's like all distractions have to be eliminated, even talking, while she concentrates on her intense orgasm. My aunt's orgasm are just the opposite. She really doesn't say all that much when she is being fucked, but when she cums... THAT was a different story. No wonder my dad loves fucking both of them, there was definitely an element of diversity there.

When she started cumming she grabbed the dildo from her daughter and started fucking herself with it. God she slammed it into herself hard! I would never have dared beaten up on any woman's pussy, let alone my own, the way she was treating hers now. God, I wouldn't be able to walk afterwards!

When she was finally done, she laid on her back panting while her daughter and niece snuggled up beside her. We traded kisses and just lightly touched one another for what seemed like hours before I realized how late it was. I hadn't brought over anything to stay the night, plus I hadn't told me mom that I would, so I wanted to get home before it got any later. I gathered my stuff and kissed them good night, leaving them in each other's arms in the soft light from the street. Wow, talk about a loving mother-daughter relationship!

4. Making Up to Daddy

When I got home, my parents were in the basement family room watching TV. My mom was the first to react to my entrance.

"Oh, you're home. I was about to call and see if you were staying the night."

I knew she was just giving me a hard time so I grinned and sat down at my usual place on the end of the couch. I explained quickly how my Aunt's sale had gone south and my mom nodded.

"Yeah, I knew she was worried about that one. You know, she could lose her job if it doesn't sell soon."

Damn! All Aunt Linda had said was that her boss was upset, nothing about getting fired. No wonder she was so worked up over the deal. My mom took a closer look at me and grinned.

"So let me guess, the two of you made her feel better?"

A sly grin from me told her all she needed to know, as if any confirmation was really needed. The I spoke up and told her about how she had asked me to help her with the deal tomorrow. My parents reactions were exactly as I would have predicted they would be. My dad perked up and was smiling, saying something about getting it tape, while my mom didn't appear to be nearly as thrilled with the idea. My dad just sat there with this big grin on his face while my mom was the first to respond.

"Well, if you DO get involved in anything like that, you had better be careful young lady. You of all people should know what can happen when you go out with strangers on business."

"Oh mom!" I whined. I knew exactly what she was referring to - my brief foray into the world of escorting a few years ago. The first few guys were fun but then I was technically raped (long story), by the last guy after which I quit while I was ahead. So far as I was concerned, the whole thing had taught me a valuable lesson.

"Well, I'm not saying you shouldn't do it, just be careful, that's all,' she said, determined to have the last word.

One thing you could say for my mom, as conservative as she may seem at first, she still allowed me to learn things for myself most of the time. Although she might thing - and mean it. My dad is the only man that I trust enough to give myself to completely without reservation. Of course I have said those same words to many men but that was just to turn them on. So far, my dad is the ONLY man whom I have ever truly trusted in this way. There isn't a doubt in my mind that when I get married my husband will join the list - if not I'm shouldn't be marrying him!

What makes me feel safe and secure is knowing that even though I tell my dad he can do anything he wanted, I know without a doubt in my mind that he would NEVER take advantage of my offer to do anything he knew I didn't want to. For example, take anal sex. While I know my dad wouldn't mind doing it, he also knows that I want no part of it and so he would never ask me to do it, even though technically I had told him he could do whatever he wanted to me. It means a LOT to me to trust my dad that much which probably is one of the biggest reasons it means so much to me when he fucks me.

My dad must have been turned on even more than I had realized as he was so horny he didn't even bother groping me before he had his cock positioned at my pussy's doorstep, ready to push it into me whether I was ready or not. Of course, knowing me as well as he did, I am sure he wasn't worried that somehow I would NOT be ready for him!

"Oh yeah," he groaned as he leaned into me, driving his rigid dick deep into my waiting pussy, "Here it comes baby."

"Oh daddy!" I moaned in response as I felt his swollen cock head split me apart, forcing its way into my tight wet pussy.

All thoughts of being tired were swept from my mind at the instant he violated my innermost privacy. No matter how often he did it, this moment, when my father first entered me, was always special to me. He was pushing especially hard and before I knew it, he had slipped the length of his hard shaft into my tight pussy and was grinding the hairy base of his cock against the smoothness of my shaved pussy.

"God it feels so good to be in you, you're so damn tight" he sighed as he rested on his elbows and held himself just above me with his dick buried inside of me.

I could only imagine how it felt for him to feel my pussy gripping his dick as it pulsed inside of me. What was going through his mind as his daughter's pussy held him tight and her hips pressed up against him?

We simply stayed coupled like this for a while, just enjoying the feeling of being joined together as one. I could have stayed like this all night, just enjoying the feel of his cock throbbing me with him over me, in total control of me. Eventually, it was extra special with my dad and if I had my way he would never cum anyplace else.

"Yeah, you want it, don't you?" he growled as his orgasm drew near. The closer he came the more animal-like he would become. I could tell by the tone of his voice he was to the point of no-return, that he couldn't stop now even he wanted to, even if I asked him to. There was something about this moment that always made my heart flutter, just something about how it was now beyond our control and that what was going to happen couldn't be stopped.

"Oh yeah! Fuck... take it!" he all but yelled as he violently slammed himself deep inside of me and dumped his first load of his incestuous sperm into me.

He must have been masturbating before, or maybe even taking care of my mom, because I could barely feel the hint of warmth in me where he way cumming. It's not like it's ever the strongest feeling in the world when any man cums in me, but today I honestly wasn't sure if it a really him or my overactive imagination. It didn't really matter as I knew no matter how small the amount may be, he was still giving it to me, he was still giving me something no other man in the world could - my own father's sperm.

"Daddy... oh daddy, I love you so much," I said, starting to cry from how I was feeling so close to him at that moment.

Although mostly tears of joy, there was perhaps a little bit of sadness my thoughts suddenly shifted to my cousin and how she would never experience this for herself. Sure, Kristen has fucked twice as many guys as I have, but she will never know this feeling, this sense of total submission and unconditional love as her father's dick lays throbbing inside of her pussy after he has cum in her.

"Thank you baby... I really needed that," he whispered as he kissed me and held me tightly against him. His cock was still in me but when we parted lips he pulled it out and left me lying all alone on my bed. My pussy continued to throb, as if he was still in me even though I knew from the empty feeling that he wasn't.

Well, if I wasn't exhausted before, I certainly was now. As good as it felt while he fucked me, once he left my room I couldn't hold my eyes open and the next thing I knew it was bright daylight outside. One look at the clock on my night stand and I was hopping out of bed. God, it was almost noon and my aunt was supposed to pick me up at 1:00! Although we had worked out a quick schedule as I was leaving the night before, it wasn't much more than, "I'll pick you up at one," and so I had no idea what to expect after that.

Another reason for choosing a "costume" over just a regular outfit was the situation I knew I would be in later today. My aunt's client hadn't asked for Kelly, he wanted a young slut and I was just playing a role. If I dressed "normal", that would make it personal and he would have to deal with the fact I was a real girl with feelings and emotions of my own. However, if he was anything like my dad, I had a feeling whoever this guy was today wouldn't care one bit who the girl in the costume was. He wanted a fantasy girl, a schoolgirl slut, not Kelly. In a way, it was a lot like back when I was doing my escorting gig. Back then I knew the guys were lusting for the "whore" they considered me to be, not the sweet little daddy's girl that I prefer to think of myself as being.

Wearing the outfit around town wasn't really an option, though, as it was a little over the top in terms of how revealing it was. No sense risking getting myself arrested for street walking so I packed it in a small overnight bag along with some makeup and other essentials. It really didn't matter what I wore to the house so I just threw on a pair of denim shorts, a tank top and sneakers. I left my hair tied back in a ponytail as I assumed I could change it around when I get to the house if need be. I looked younger in a ponytail and something told me youth would be at a premium today if my past experiences in similar situations were any indication.

One last look in the mirror and I was bouncing down the stairs (quite literally in fact if you consider I wasn't wearing a bra) and I took up a seat in the kitchen to wait for my Aunt Linda to arrive. My mom was fixing lunch for herself; evidently my dad was spending Saturday at the office, as usual.

"So, you really sure you know what you're getting yourself into?"

"Oh mom, it's not like I've never done anything like this before."

"Well, Linda has a history of understating things at times. God, you wouldn't believe some of the things she got me into when we were back in school."

"Kristen didn't seem worried about it, Mom... and she's done it before so she should know.

"Yeah but I talked to Linda this morning and she's really worried about this one. I haven't seen her this frazzled for a long time. I'm just a little concerned about what she may have promised this guy. I know my sister and she doesn't always think things like this through."

Typical mom, always the one to keep things under control and in line. She was always there when my dad and I would start goofing around, policing us from doing anything we might regret later. I suppose she must have done the same thing with her sister. It's interesting for me to compare the relationship between me and my cousin Kristen to that between my mom and her sister when they were our age or younger. I'm not exactly the most conservative girl, in case you haven't figured that out, but Kristen sometimes makes me look like a prude. She's the type that will do most anything on a dare and I mean ANYTHING. I guess it makes sense when you take into account what her mom's like.

Like me, my mom was no prude growing up while her younger sister was the one always pushing the line - and crossing it most of the time from what I hear. All-in- all, I guess it should come as no surprise that my mom was the one worried about me this morning. It was sort of sweet of her but I really did feel confident I could handle myself. Besides, I assumed my aunt would be around if I needed anything.

There was no sense debating it with her any further so I just shrugged and smiled at her, which I think actually irritated her more than anything I could say. She gave me 'the eye" but let it pass without making it into an issue. We spent the next few minutes talking about the male species in general and how bad they could be, especially jerks like the one I was getting ready to see this afternoon. Frankly, I thought it was pretty rotten of any guy to make a decision on which house to buy based on how well he got laid. Especially when he was married with kids! What would his family say if they knew he had committing adultery in the house with a girl about half his age?

Speaking of adultery, some people accuse me of being a little hypocritical about adultery in that I claim I would never do it yet when I am married yet I love it when married men do it to have sex with me. Personally, I think that's because they don't understand my position on it correctly. It's really quite simple in my eyes. So far as I am concerned, adultery makes a mockery of marriage, a betrayal of your spouse, and most of all, a sin against one of God's Ten Commandments. Clear enough? That said, that's how I feel about adultery with regards to me and my family. There is no doubt in my mind that when I am married, I will never have sex with anyone outside my family - period. I will also expect, no I will DEMAND the same of my husband.

For those who have asked me about oral sex, I define sex with regards to adultery as the penetration of a man's penis into a woman's vagina (clinical enough for you?). Thus I can give a BJ to one of my husband's friends so long as I don't let him fuck me. The same principle would apply to my husband in that he could lick another girl or get a BJ from her so long as he only sticks his cock in me (well, me or an immediate relative in my family).

Note: Before I get letters from people pointing out the fact my dad has two situations over a 20 plus year marriage (my best friend Beth and my mom's best friend Tammy), let me say that nobody is without sin and people sometimes make mistakes which they regret later. Beth was something I knew he wishes today he hadn't done and as for Tammy, she presents such a unique situation that I can't ever see it applying to anyone else, As I said, my feelings about adultery only apply to me as I would never impose my morals and belief systems on anyone. What someone else does is between them and GOD. If a husband fucks me, then HE is the one who has sinned, not me, and he is the one who will have to eventually deal with the consequences. Personally, I don't feel any responsibility for his actions.

What is probably the most difficult for people to understand is that it is my rigid stand on adultery that makes it so erotic and hot for me to be fucked by a married guy. This is especially true when the wife doesn't know about it because then I know odds are she wouldn't approve or he would tell her. Put yourself in my place and I'm sure you'll agree with me. A husband is willing to betray his wife by abandoning his wedding vows to do something he can never take back or forget, just because he finds me so irresistibly sexy and attractive. Well that has to be about as big an ego booster and compliment any man can give me. After all, wouldn't most guys get turned on if someone's wife wanted him to fuck her more than her own husband and he knew he was doing it behind his back? Think about it before you condemn me for feeling the same way.

The caveat to all this is that because of what he is doing I have little respect for an adulterer as a person and would never want anything to do with him personally. This is probably the biggest reason I never fuck a married guy twice as the thrill is in the first time, not the repeats. Another reason I never do married guys twice is that I have no desire to get emotionally involved with a married man. Despite what you may think, I have absolutely no desire to and ruin or even harm his marriage in any way so sticking to my "one time" rule hopefully it keeps that from happening.

So to sum it all up, even though in my heart I despised the man I was about to have sex with, even though I knew nothing about him other than he was unfaithful to his family, at the same time it turned me on to think of having him do me. Make sense? Oh well, it makes perfect sense to me and I guess that's what counts in the end.

My aunt was running late and I peeked out the front window thought the curtains but didn't see her car anywhere in sight. Returning to the kitchen, I sat at the table and fidgeted. My cell phone was in my purse so I tried calling my aunt but she didn't answer. Small wonder as no sooner had I put it back in my purse than the door opened and in she came.

"Damn girl, hold your horses!" she called out as she came down the hall, her phone ringing in her purse, "Didn't you get my message about the change in time?"

Oops, guess I should have checked my voice mail. As she drew closer I forgot about the phone and my eyes widened as I got a better view as she emerged from the darkened hallway. Damn, she looked hot! My aunt had what looked at first to be a black business jacket except it was longer than usual, enough to cover what had to be one hell of a short skirt because the entire thing was hidden underneath the jacket. The jacket itself had four buttons but only the bottom two were done with the upper two allowing the jacket to open to reveal her ample cleavage. Like her skirt, her blouse must have been pretty risque as almost half her boobs were exposed by the jacket without the blouse even poking out a bit. Her hair, always on the short side, had been highlighted and was darker than usual. A pair of unbelievably high black strap-on heels (they had to be at least six inches) finished the look. Long sleeved and elegant, at first glance the jacket would have been quite appropriate in any business setting although a longer skirt and a less revealing blouse would have been required.

"Well for crying out loud, look at you girl!"

My mom had a dish towel in her hands, drying them off as she approached her younger sister. She was giving Aunt Linda a once-over, shaking her head slowly.

"So what the hell do you think you're doing with my daughter this afternoon?" she asked, as if she didn't already know the answer.

"Well, nothing worse than your husband's done with mine!" she replied back, a grin on her face.

We all laughed as I knew exactly what she was referring to. A while back my dad had to entertain some clients and rather than hiring some hookers, he asked me and my cousin to help out. It turned out to be quite an evening as they had no idea who we really were. What made it special for me was my dad fucked me for the first time in front of them, the first time anyone outside my family had ever seen us having sex. Of course, he didn't tell them I was his daughter but still, it was exciting for me just the same.

"Well anyway, aren't you a little bit underdressed today?"

I looked at my mom and then back at my aunt. I couldn't figure out what she was talking about. Sure the outfit was a bit on the slutty side, but it looked sharp and I really didn't see anything truly indecent about it, especially considering what our plans for the day were.

My mom looked at me and laughed. "I think you're making an assumption."

My aunt was grinning, apparently she understood what my mom was referring to but I was still totally in the dark as to what this little secret was between them.

"Go on Linda, show her."

My aunt shook her head slowly but she seemed to be willing to go along with my mom said, whatever THAT meant. She unbuttoned the two remaining two buttons and let the jacket front fall open. Well, duh, NOW I understood what my mom was referring to. Obviously she knew her sister a lot better than me because I never would have suspected the true story. It wasn't that her skirt was too short or her blouse was too low cut. The truth was she didn't even have them on! Not even the sheerest of panties or stringiest of thongs. All she was wearing was her heels, jacket and a ton of attitude.

My mom was watching me while I had my eyes remained fixed on her sister.

"Going for the kill today, I see," my mom ribbed her sister.

"Well, a girl's got to do what a girl's got to do," my aunt replied, buttoning herself back up again. Strange as it may seem, somehow I saw her differently now. For whatever reason, knowing that she was nude underneath the jacket cast her in a totally different light.

"C'mon, Kelly," she called out to me, waving me towards the door,. "We don't want to be late!"

I turned to my mom and hugged her. She gave me a kiss and looked me straight in the eyes.

"Now you be careful, you hear me?"

"Oh mom!" I said, feeling like I was fourteen again and going out on my first singles date.

"I know, I know," I barely heard her mumbling as she waved goodbye. My aunt led the way to her car and soon we were off.

Looking over at her behind the wheel, it was hard not to notice that he jacket wasn't long enough to cover her crotch when she was seated and as a result, her hairy but trimmed pussy was in plain sight as she drove. She turned her head towards me and caught me staring at her crotch and grinned broadly.

"Imagine if a cop pulled us over now!" she giggled. Yes indeed, boy could I ever imagine!

Weaving through the typical hills and turns, we eventually made it to the interstate and drove south to the exit where the home was at. On our way there, we drove by a Hilton to which my aunt pointed her finger.

"That's where he's staying," she told me, like some kind of tour director. "Bastard's probably jerking off about now. Well, he had quite the day yesterday so I can only envision what he thinks he'll get today."

Once past the hotel, we had to drive through the middle of an industrial park to get back where the estate homes were located. Looking at the luxurious homes, I doubted any of them were under a million dollars and it wouldn't have surprised me if a number of them were well beyond that. A few blocks down we turned into one of the older sections where she pulled into the driveway of this massive home. She reached down to the cup holder where a remote control was located which opened the gates and then drove around a circular drive until we arrived at the front entrance.

"Quite the place, eh?" she said, looking around us. Yes indeed it was! Actually, I couldn't remember ever being in a home this large before other than at some museum.

There was no lock box at this house; obviously showings were by appointment only and then only by selling Realtor - my aunt in this case. She opened the door with a key in her purse and bowed as she held the door open for me like some doorman. The entranceway was larger than the living room in most homes, soaring a couple of stories up with a brilliant chandelier hung in the center. Once inside, she grabbed my hand to stop me from gawking about and led me straight up a circular staircase to the master bedroom.

"Suite" would have been perhaps a better term. It was HUGE, larger than our entire second floor. The owner's furniture was still there which included a large king-sized four-post bed which dominated the room with its presence. It was draped in beautiful linens with what had to be an incredibly expensive quilt covering it. The door to a huge walk-in closet was open but the clothes had been removed. I followed my aunt to another doorway which led to the master bath, complete with a Jacuzzi tub, shower, and multiple sinks. It alone was bigger than my bedroom back home!

"Wow!" was all I could say as I looked around the room.

"Well, I guess you know what to do from here," my aunt said, heading back for the door. "I have to pick up Byron now. Don't want the poor guy to rub his dick raw before he even gets a chance at you!"

With that she disappeared, leaving me alone in this massive home. Contrary to what she had said, I didn't really know quite what to do. We had artfully avoided discussing anything specific about my "duties". Each time I started to mention it she would change the subject, dismissing my concerns with the wave of her hand.

Judging by our trip here, I figured it would take her at least twenty minutes to reverse course and get back to the hotel and then back here again. That gave me plenty of time to change but certainly not enough to just lounge around and goof off. I emptied my bag, laying out my outfit on the bed. My first instinct was to strip off my clothes so they quickly came off and next thing O knew I was standing there in the middle of the bedroom absolutely nude. It was all I could do to resist the temptation to run around the house stark naked. Imagine what the owners would say if they knew what I was doing in their precious home. What would they think if they knew that I was standing in their bedroom without an ounce of clothing on? Even better, what I would give to see the look on their face when they found out WHY I was there.

Enough of the daydreaming, I had work to do. I quickly put my outfit on and looked at myself in this huge mirror residing the corner of the room. Between having my hair pulled back in a ponytail and the naughty schoolgirl outfit, I looked more like I was just out of high school, perhaps seventeen or eighteen instead of twenty-two. My secret hope was that he would think I had just graduated from high school rather than college.

Until now I had been so busy I hadn't thought much more about what was about to happen in just a few minutes. Looking in the mirror, I started to ask myself who I was looking at. What was I about to allow myself to become? It had been a long time since I had done anything even remotely like this and suddenly I wondered if it was the right thing to do. It was the sort of the same feeling of remorse that I usually got before one of my escorting gigs and I knew back then it quickly faded once things got going. Even so, it still didn't make me feel any better about myself for the moment.

My reverie was interrupted when I heard a sharp sound coming from downstairs. Turning away from the mirror, I hurried as quietly as possible down the hallway to sneak a look. Any further doubt or questions about what I was doing were quickly put aside as my curiosity grew. Sure enough, my aunt and some guy were downstairs talking in the foyer. He was turned away from me so I couldn't see his face but between the ghostly silence and the marble floors that seemed to magnify every sound, it was easy to listen in on them.

"So Byron, now that you've see the place again, why don't you just sign the papers and get to... let's just say more important things?"

My aunt was pressed up tight against him and it was obvious that he had discovered the "benefits" of her outfit as he had his arm around her waist and his naughty hand was up under the jacket with what looked to be a firm grip on her tight ass.

"I just don't know Linda," he waffled, obviously stalling to allow for more the time to fondle her ass, "I mean, you made a really great offer last night but I', afraid I have to say, so did your competition."

My aunt reached down to his crotch and took a handful as she pushed up even closer to him.

"Well, is there anything I can do to convince you that my offer's the best?""

"Well, you DID offer some sort of bonus if I remember correctly from last night."

"Oh Byron, you naughty boy," my aunt teased, "And what would Jessica say if she knew what the bonus was?"

"Screw the bitch," he practically spit out, "She's the one that wants the expensive mansion to show-off to all her bitch friends. Well, then I can get what I want too."

"And just what is it that YOU want?"

"Oh I think you know damn well what I want," he chuckled, practically lifting her off her feet as he grabbed her ass even harder and pulled her up against him.

"Mmmmmmm, you want more of last night then?" she teased him.

"Sorry," he shook his head, "Not that it wasn't that much different than your competition."

That had to really piss off my aunt but she was a trooper and took it all in stride without any hint of how she felt inside. I bet she wanted to haul off and kick him in the balls for being such a jerk but in the end, she was all business. She swallowed her pride and played the game with him.

"Well then, what can I do to make my offer better than hers?"

He chuckled and I felt a little disgusted at the way he was making her all but beg him.

"I believe you had someone else in mind to sweeten the deal," he said, licking his lips like some dog in heat.

"Soooooo, I take it then you still want to screw my daughter?" my aunt replied softly as she rubbed his crotch some more. Her voice was so low and husky that I could barely make it out, even in the deathly silence of the room. God, she was so good at this. If I hadn't known better, I would have thought she was feeling bad that she had to use her daughter in this way and would have preferred not to have her involved.

"That depends... do you want to sell this house or not?" he replied arrogantly. The bastard knew he had all the bargaining power and he wasn't afraid to rub her face in it.

"Kelly!" she called out, evidently finished with this weird banter.

We hadn't rehearsed what would happen when she got back but I had assumed she would just lead him to the bedroom and turn him loose with me. Well, after watching her little performance, I threw out THAT idea. I stepped out into view as he turned to look up in my direction. My first impression of him was the funny way his mouth opened when he first saw me. It was obvious from his expression that he hadn't really believed that I would be there. No doubt he had assumed it was all just my aunt teasing him or otherwise trying to convince him to sign the papers for the house.

He recovered his composure quickly and from what I could see at this distance he didn't look all that bad. He was balding a bit and perhaps could afford to lose twenty pounds or so, but otherwise he looked rather handsome. I felt a little sense of relief as I had feared I would have to take care of some fat guy that smelled like he hadn't showered in a week - or even worse.

"Well, so tell me. What do you think of my daughter, Byron?"

"Damn, THAT'S your daughter," he said slowly, "Ummmmm, just how old is she?"

"Oh don't worry about that Byron, does it really matter how old she is?"

Something told me between the outfit and hair that Byron was thinking I wasn't even eighteen yet. Well, I can't say I minded THAT! It's funny how even at just twenty-two I was already starting to feel old at times, especially when I see those sixteen year-old high school girls running around the mall.

"Would it make you feel better if I told you that she was eighteen?" my aunt said, obviously implying that I was younger without actually saying so.

Byron was obviously your typical middle age guy with fantasies of reliving his teens years and having a young girl again. He probably jerked off watching Fast Times at Ridgemont High or some other teen tease movie.

"Come on down and meet Byron, honey," my aunt called to me, waving me down the stairs.

I slowly descended the stairs, feeling almost like I was in some scene from Gone With the Wind or something except instead of wearing a beautiful flowing gown I was dressed like some street whore. Byron's eyes were fixed on me, well at least on my body. We never really made eye contact as he looked me up and down, evaluating me like I was some side of beef in a market. When I got to the bottom, I stood by the two of them and waited silently for my aunt to take the next move. "Well Byron, you still haven't told me what you think of my little girl."

"Damn, she certainly looks like her mom, I'll say that."

It took all the willpower I could muster not to laugh. My to my mom's chagrin, people often say I have a close resemblance to my aunt. Even so, it was still sort of funny to see how quickly he was willing to accept the whole line of crap as being true. It just goes to show how important your inner desires can be when making a judgment call. He WANTED to believe I was her daughter so it was easy for him to accept whatever my aunt told him. Byron started to reach out for me but my aunt kept him at bay.

"Now, now, Byron, we had a deal" she scolded him lightly, "You know what you have to do before you can touch her."

"Shit, how do I know she'll put out after I sign the papers?" he questioned, suddenly back to business again.

It was like I was being negotiated as some sort of signing bonus. Well, I guess when you think about it, that's exactly what WAS being done.

"Come on Byron, look at her," my aunt replied, not giving in an inch. "Isn't she exactly the type of girl you dream about being with? So, do you want her or not?"

Clearly the negotiating strength had shifted to my aunt at this point. Byron obviously wanted me – he couldn't take his eyes off my boobs. As the blood drained from his big head to fill his little one, his lust overcame any other worries or concerns he might be having.

"OK... shit, where's the papers?" he croaked. My aunt, of course, had them standing by and in a matter of minutes, whatever she needed signed was done. Byron slammed the pen down and turned to my aunt.

"There, happy now?"

My aunt nodded and looked at me and then back to him again. Byron was back in control again - at least as far as he knew it.

"Well mom, why don't you go on and file your precious paperwork while I fuck your daughter," he said, practically throwing it in her face as if he was seeing if he could somehow embarrass or maybe even make her feel guilty. For whatever reason, he seemed to take pleasure in trying to humiliate her. Once again, I had to give it to my aunt. She is pretty sharp and picked up on his little fetish and went along with it brilliantly.

"You know Byron, you don't have to say it that way," she murmured, as if she was upset by his tone of voice and words.

At first I didn't understand why she was saying this but it seemed to be exactly the response he was hoping for as a nasty grin appeared on his face. For a moment I felt an intense hatred towards hated him; not because he was actually hurting my aunt, as I knew she was just playing along, but because I realized he was really a nasty little man. Little wonder he was cheating on his wife!

"Hey, how about if I stay? Wouldn't you like a mother-daughter 3-some?" she offered.

Actually, I wasn't sure if she was being serious or not. Was she truly concerned about me such that she was trying to hang around to protect me, or was she just paying along more to his ego? As it turned out, it didn't matter.

"Noooooo, we had a deal and now it's your turn to hold up to your end of it - or should I say it's your daughter's turn."

With that he put his hands on my waist and spun me around, spanking me sharply as he pushed me towards the stairs - and the bedroom at the top of them.

The last words I heard him say to my aunt were, "Damn, your daughter's sure got one sweet ass. I am SO looking forward to fucking her. Say bye-bye to your little girl!"

I turned on my way up the stairs to see my aunt closing the front door behind her as she left and with that I was on my own. Not far behind me was Byron, working his way heavily up the stairs. I was well ahead of him by the time I made it to the bedroom so I sat down on the bed, scooting back, and crossed my legs under me

Indian style. A couple of minutes later, Byron was at the doorway, huffing a little from the climb. He took a good long look at me from the door, then slowly walked into the bedroom until he was a few feet away from me.

"Well, well," he said gently, his eyes undressing me, "You're just a chip off the old block, aren't you. I suppose you know I fucked your mom last night. How's that make you feel?

I just shrugged my shoulder and replied, "I don't know. I mean, she fucks a lot of guys."

"Oh really," he chuckled, "So, do the two of you get it on too?"

I didn't answer that one, knowing my sly grin and faked shyness told him everything he wanted to know - and probably more.

"Yeah, I figured as much," he mumbled, nodding his head. "Ever do this before?"

"Do what?" I asked.

"You know... whore yourself for her."

"Well, first let's get one thing straight. I am NOT a whore for your information," I protested indignantly.

He laughed at me and responded saying, "Now don't go off getting your knickers in a snit. You're right. It's your mom whose making the money."

With that he got a more serious look on his face and said, "Enough of this though, why don't you just get on your knees and suck my dick."

Well, THAT was certainly one way to get things started. I was getting tired of our banter anyway, it was just making him out to be more of an ass each time he opened his mouth. Unfolding my legs, I hopped off the bed and quickly dropped to my knees in front of where he was standing. His crotch was right in front of my face and he was already unzipping his pants for me. He reached inside and pulled out his dick, which was already well on its way to a full erection.

"Well, what do you think?" he asked, "Can you suck this better than your mom?"

I reached out and took his cock from his hand and pulled out on it gently.

"Anything she can do, I can do better," I teased him, stroking his cock gently in my hand.

Without waiting for a response, I took the head in my mouth and ran my tongue all around it. My hand still held it by the base, pushing his pants down and away from it as it struck out through his zipper opening. Actually, he wasn't bad, plenty long enough to be able to keep his pants on (for now at least) and getting hard enough that I had a nice shaft to hang onto while I sucked the end of his dick.

"That's it, suck it," he groaned as my mouth and lips caressed him.

Another good thing I could say about him - he was clean. His crotch smelled like motel room soap; evidently he had at least showered before my aunt picked him up. So many guys didn't have the common courtesy to clean up before a date, somehow thinking their sweat and general stink would be attractive to me (in case you're interested - it's NOT). I DO enjoy the musky smell a man generates when he is horny but that's a lot different from general stinky body odor.

I had only sucked on him for a few minutes when he pulled my head away from him and I looked up at him to see what he wanted.

"Stand up," he said to me. I did and he ran his hands through my hair, over my shoulders, and down my arms.

"God, you really are pretty," he whispered, "And so damn young. Are you REALLY eighteen?"

I started to smile as he said the latter but held myself in check. While it wasn't the same as when I was fifteen or sixteen and older guys did me while I was legitimately jail bait, it did give me a thrill to think he thought I was so much younger than I actually was. I suppose it was a similar thrill to what my mom gets when we go out and people mistake her for my older sister. "Well, not really," I said in my best "shy little girl" voice. I left it for him to decide whether that meant older or younger. I had a funny feeling that I knew what his dirty mind would decide upon.

His fingers went to work open my blouse buttons and soon they were undone and he spread my blouse open, exposing my bare breasts for him to see.

"Damn, look at those," he whispered, more to himself than to me as he reached out with one hand and gently squeezed my boob. "All real and perky as hell!"

Then he put both hands on my chest, one on each boob as he massaged them and felt them with his fingers and hands. It felt quite good, actually, and I closed my eyes to concentrate on the effect he was having on me. My nipples were becoming rock hard and it felt wonderful the way he was massaging me.

"Mmmmmmm, that feels so good," I whispered to him, only to be rewarded by an even firmer grip on my breasts. He leaned over and took my right nipple in his mouth, sucking on it and then gripping it tenderly with his teeth, pulling on it gently.

"Yeah, that's it," I moaned, "Suck my breast."

He didn't actually spend a lot of time with his mouth as he seemed to have other things on his mind. Standing up straight again, he maneuvered me backwards to the bed until my legs were against it and then he pushed me back so I laid on the bed with my legs hanging down to the floor. Lifting up my short plaid skirt, he pulled the thong down my legs and over my heels, tossing them aside somewhere in the room. Hopefully I could find them later!

"Damn, look at that pussy, all nice and shaved like a good little girl."

I reached over and pulled a pillow down from the head of the bed and put it under my head so I could get a better view of what he was doing without straining my neck. His dick was still sticking out of his pants but he wasn't paying any attention to it for the moment. Instead, he seemed mesmerized by my pussy, freshly shaven and smooth as a newborn baby's bottom. His hands laid on my upper legs as he spread them apart while getting down on his knees this time.

"God, it's been so long time since I tasted some teen pussy," he said to me, grinning as he lowered his mouth to my crotch. "You like having your pussy eaten?"

Now if I was going to be truthful, I would have told him to skip the licking and get to fucking me. To be perfectly honest, 90% of guys don't have a clue how to properly eat pussy. It's like they just slobber all over me with no thought as to what they were doing or what needs to be stimulated. Some guys don't even seem to be aware I even HAVE a clitoris while other seem to think that's the only place a girl wants to be licked. Most guys seem to think that faster is better and have no idea how timing and variety should be applied. Most of all, when I cum almost all of them think their job is done and they quit, not realizing that was just the START of their work and if they really want me to appreciate them, to keep going and keep my cumming for as long as possible. Bottom line, I prefer to be licked by girls as they know what to do.

Of course, I wasn't about to tell this idiot the truth so I just nodded at him and grinned as if I couldn't wait for his expert skills to send me into a world of ecstasy. Watching his head descend to my pussy and his tongue extended as he prepared to lick me, I couldn't help but jump just a little when his tongue first touched me, wet and slippery along my pussy slit. At first he just licked along the outside of my pussy lips, soaking in the smell of my pussy and getting a close-up view of me. Then his head dropped another inch or so and I felt his tongue running between my lips up to my clit where it lingered. At first he used just the tip of it to tease me and then as I started to react and squirm he let the flatness of his tongue rub along me.

Speaking of girls licking pussy, I have never understood why guys don't want a guy to suck them. After all, who would know better how to suck dick than another guy? All I have to go on is based on the feedback I get from guys as I have no idea what it feels like to have your dick sucked. Granted, I've gotten a LOT of such feedback but still, I have sometimes wondered what it must feel like to have a part of yourself grow that much and then have it sucked by someone.

"Ohhhhhh, just like that!" I moaned softly.

The best part was I wasn't faking it. He really wasn't too bad at all! Then I shuddered as his finger pushed its way into my wet pussy, like a tiny dick was penetrating me. It was soon followed by a second one and my hips rose up as he fucked me with his fingers while his mouth played with my rapidly hardening clit. He wasn't saying a word, keeping his mouth on me and lapping up my pussy like a dog at a water dish. His hand reached up and grabbed my boobs, squeezing them and pulling on my nipples until they snapped back again

"Oh god, that feels so damn good," I moaned as I tried to catch my breath. "Keep licking me!"

He kept his fingers in me while he raised his head to look down my outstretched body towards my face.

"You gonna cum for me?" he said, making it more of a statement than a question.

"Don't stop," I begged him, "Make me cum!"

I had to give him credit, not many men could make me cum just by licking my pussy. A LOT of them probably THINK they did but that just goes to show what great acting skills I have. He was doing a great job on my pussy and for once I wasn't going to have to fake it. My hands were gripping the quilt under me tightly as my hips bounced on the bed like he was fucking me. Somehow he managed to keep his lips locked on my clit and his tongue was teasing me mercilessly.

"Oh god, I'm cumming!" I moaned loudly.

Fortunately, there was nobody else in the house so I didn't have to worry about keeping quiet. I took full advantage of the situation as I groaned and moaned like I was screaming in pain as my orgasm racked my body and made my toes curl from the intensity of the pleasure it gave me. My pussy was gushing by this time, covering his face and hand with my pussy cum. He never faltered, keeping his face tight up against my pussy, driving me higher and higher as it went on.

Finally I fell back onto the bed, arms outstretched and panting like a dog as he took his mouth off of me and stood up at the edge of the bed. I couldn't believe how good I was feeling right now, so much better than I had ever dreamed I would this afternoon. Damn, this guy was good!

I opened my eyes and saw him standing between my legs, his dick still poking out as he stroked himself slowly. It was almost too much to be lying there almost nude, my pussy soaked and still throbbing from my first orgasm of the afternoon, only to see a strange man with a hard dick waiting for me.

"Fuck me," I said softly, barely audible even to myself.

"Ahhhhhh, so now you want it, don't you?" he teased me.

"Just shut up and fuck me," I growled at him.

He laughed softly at my need and dropped his pants, leaving his shirt on. His hard dick stuck out between the shirt tails, pointing skyward towards the ceiling.

"Well, only because you asked so nicely," he said with a naughty grin on his face.

My pussy was about the height of his dick as I laid there so all he had to do was lean over until his weight was supported by one arm on the bed while his rigid dick was just inches away from hungry pussy. With the other hand he took his cock and aimed for my pussy with it. First he rubbed the head up and down my pussy slit, wetting his cock and rubbing my needful clit as well. Then he separated the lips of my pussy, sticking the tip of his cock right at the entrance to my pussy hole.

"Mmmmmmm, this one's for your mommy," he said as he pushed himself into me. I moaned as the head of his dick slipped inside of me while at the same time I watched it disappear out of sight. I sighed as I felt entering me, filling my pussy with its warmth.

"That's it, put it in me deeper," I groaned, lifting my hips up towards him as I tried in vain to pull him into me. "I want all of it in me."

He didn't say anything but instead groaned as he pressed himself harder into me, driving his adulterous cock ever deeper inside of me. Finally he bottomed out, his thick bushy pubic hair pressed against my bare pussy as he pressed his crotch into me.

"Oh god you're tight," he groaned.

"Mmmmmmm, tighter than your wife I bet," I teased him, rotating my hips under him to move his dick around inside of me.

"Her?!" he spat out, "Shit, haven't fucked the loose bitch in years."

"Tighter than your daughter?" I threw out, curious to see his response.

"Don't I wish," he grumbled as he started to stroke himself in and out of me, "Little cunt's just like her mother... couldn't part her legs with a Jaws of Life"

It made me wonder if he had tried but I wasn't going to pursue THAT. Then, just to get his response, I asked, "Tighter than my mom?"

He pounded his dick into me when I asked him that one, as if to make a point. "Fuck, you know better than to ask that, Of course you are!"

"Did you cum in my mom?"

"Oh yeah, I filled your mommy alright."

"You gonna cum in me?"

"Like mother, like daughter, eh?"

We both laughed together as he continued to fuck me, rocking the bed with his motions as he lifted my legs up and held them around his hips. My boobs were even bouncing back and forth as he shoved me forward and pulled me back in rhythm with his strokes, driving himself ever deeper into me with every stroked it seemed.

He pulled out of me suddenly and my pussy felt suddenly empty b the surprise move on his part. I figured he as horny and would just cum after a little fucking but evidently he was ready for more. I wondered if he had masturbated before my aunt had picked him up so he would last longer with me?

"OK, now stand up," he commanded.

I slipped down off the bed, a little weak-kneed at first but he quickly spun me around and had me fall forward until I was on my elbows on the bed. My ass was sticking up on the air and finally he pulled my skirt down and off of me, leaving me with just the blouse and heels on. At first I was afraid he was going to try and get some anal action but then he pushed his dick back into my pussy and we were back at it again. His hands were on my hips as he rocked me back and forth in time with his fucking of me.

"You like this, don't you?" he asked, spanking me on the butt just hard enough to smart a little bit but not enough to bruise me. "I think you like teasing older men, don't you, fucking them for fun like some little whore."

What was I supposed to say to that? I just kept silent, letting him go on with his little speech.

"Yeah, you're just like your mother, willing to do anything for a buck. Mother and daughter, just two fucking whores. Shit, I bet you even do each other."

If he only knew...

After fucking me a while, talking this way the entire time, I was ready for him to cum and get it over with but he wasn't it seemed. He pulled out of me again and this time motioned for me to get on the bed and he got into a spoon position behind me. I lifted my leg up and placed it back over him, exposing my pussy for him to more easily put his dick in it. Once again he entered me and once again I felt the wonderful sensation of his dick filling my pussy. Each time it was a little bit easier as my pussy stretched itself out a little more to accommodate him. He reached around and cupped my breast, squeezing it as he once again fucked me.

I looked down to watch his dick sliding in and out of me, like a wet piece of thick sausage violating me. I truly love to see a cock as it moves in and out of me, feeling it inside of me at the same time. It's almost hard to believe sometimes that the same dick that I am seeing disappear from sight is the very thing that I feel filling me up deep inside of me. Reaching down, I began to play with my clit, rubbing it with my fingertips as he fucked me. Now and then I would slide my fingers down and feel his shaft as it slid in and out of me, wondering what it looked like inside of me.

Once again I started to feel that familiar twinge between my legs as another orgasm began to well up inside of me. Evidently, he could feel my pussy begin to grip him tighter and he recognized what was about to happen.

"Yeah baby, you like my dick in you don't you?" he said, "You like a hard cock in that nasty little cunt of yours, don't you?

"Oh my god, YES!" I cried, "Keep fucking me dammit, don't stop fucking me!"

Once again I came, even harder than the first time. My pussy clamped down on his dick like a vise, holding it in me like it never wanted it to leave. I could feel myself cumming over his cock, pouring my cum over his dick and down onto my leg.

"Oh my god!," was all I could say, repeating it over and over as I focused on his dick in me and the way it made my pussy feel as I came.

For the moment, I forgot what I was doing, how I was prostituting myself for the sake of my aunt's job, how much I hated this guy who was fucking me, even the fact that he was married. The only thing I could think about was the incredible surges of unbelievable pleasure that were driving me all but insane as he screwed me.

I could make myself cum hard any day of the week just by masturbating but to cum THIS hard I had to have a dick in me. There was just something about being fucked that brings me so much higher when I cum. Having his hard dick in me told me he wanted me, that he desired me, that he wanted to literally mate me and shoot his seed in me. I knew he saw me as being sexy, desirable, something he wanted more than anything else at this moment. When he came in me, releasing his sperm inside of my pussy, it just made me feel somehow like I was complete, fulfilled in some almost spiritual way.

At a time like this, it didn't really matter to me who "he" was, just the fact "he" was real. It's the reality that drives me over the edge, the knowledge that a real man CHOSE to fuck me, that he WANTED to ram his dick in me and cum in me, that he DESIRED me. I couldn't force a man to do any of these things, it was something he decided.

All of which meant I needed just one more thing to really get off. There was one thing that would complete the act, seal the deal, put it to bed.

"Oh god cum in me!" I pleaded with him, my pussy practically cramping from gripping him so tightly. "Give it to me... Oh please give it to me!"

He was just grunting now, trying to move his dick in and out of me like a piston, trying to overcome the death grip my cunt had on his dick.

"OK shit, here it comes!" he gasped finally, as we both stopped moving and the room went suddenly quiet as he pushed himself into me as far as he could and we both waited as he held himself there.

It seemed like hours but of course it was only a second or two when suddenly he groaned and I felt his hips thrust his dick into me even deeper as he started to ejaculate in me. He held himself deep in me, driving each load into me as far inside of me as his dick could reach. Each time he thrust I could feel a faint sensation of warmth as his sperm ejected from his dick and was set free in my pussy.

"Oh god," I gasped softly, feeling totally exhausted as he held me tight to him, his dick throbbing in my pussy as we both just laid there without moving a muscle. He started to pull out but I wasn't ready for that yet.

"Stay in me," I whispered, "I want you to stay in me for a while."

He didn't say anything but he stopped pulling out and pushed himself back in me again until his crotch was pressed against my ass. I could feel his dick dwindling in me, pulling out by default as it shrank. Now and then it would throb or twitch and my sensitive pussy would spasm in response. Finally he was pretty well soft and this time he did pull the remaining bit of him out of me, leaving his load of sperm behind. I tried to imagine it in me, filling my pussy with his creamy cum, his sperm swimming in me, vainly searching for their prize.

He flopped over on his back and groaned, shutting his eyes with his arms to his side. I could have done the same but his dick was flopped over, glistening with a coating of our cum and I couldn't resist. Summoning the last of my strength, I turned around until I was laying over his side and leg, my head next to his dick. I took his wet dick in my mouth and suck gently on it.

Mmmmmmm, I could taste his cum on it together with the unmistakable flavor of my pussy. I licked it off and he shook a couple of times like he was shaking from cold as my tongue touched just the right spot on his sensitive dick.

Then, unbelievably, he started to snore! The fucking bastard had fallen asleep! Oh well, he must have really enjoyed himself. I got off the bed and went into the bathroom. Looking in the mirror, I saw that looked a wreck. My makeup was ruined but fortunately my hair was still up in the ponytail and there wasn't much you could do to it when it was tied up that way. I felt this sudden need to pee and when I squatted down on the toiled, his sperm drained out me like a slimy discharge. I quickly used my finger to scoop some up and took a taste. Not bad! Of course, being flavored with my pussy didn't hurt.

I was tempted to take a shower but I didn't know how long he would be sleeping and I wasn't really into taking a shower WITH him (which I was afraid he might want to do if he woke up and found me in there). Back in the room, I found my clothes scattered about and decided to put my original outfit back on rather than the schoolgirl one. Gathering up my stuff, I took out my cell phone and called my aunt. She didn't answer and for a moment I was worried she might not have it turned on or something.

Just as I hung up my phone and was about to panic, who should walk in the room but my Aunt Linda! That was only half the surprise as in her hand she was holding a video camera.

"Uhhhhh, Aunt Linda, what's that?" I asked, pointing to the camera. Of course I knew WHAT it was. What I meant to ask was what she was doing with it but she got the idea. She laughed, still not having said a word, but turned the camera around so I could look in the viewfinder. In the tiny window I saw me kneeling in front of Byron, sucking his cock like a pro!

"Well, I had to do something to make sure the jerk doesn't back out on me," my aunt explained. "Once he sees this there's no way he'll cancel anything. He may talk big but he's really scared shitless of his wife."

We both laughed. My aunt figured he would be sleeping for a while so she decided to quickly drive me home so she could take care of the final paperwork with Byron. It was still about a fifteen minute drive back home but then he had nowhere to go anyway even if he did wake up. I wondered what my aunt would do if he wanted seconds? To be honest, Byron was a good fuck and I knew Linda wasn't about to turn much down these days so it wouldn't surprise me if she had plans of her own for Byron!

I couldn't wait to get home and tell my mom about my latest adventure. If my dad thought my little thing with Kristen and my aunt was hot, wait until he heard about THIS one! Somehow I had a feeling I was going to be fucked again before the night was over.

(Jun 02) Chapter 138: Nephew's Birthday Present

Story codes: MF oral inc aunt nephew cousins
Me (22)
Mary - my mom (40)
Kristen - cousin (20)
Rick - cousin (18)

My mom was turning 41. While not nearly as traumatic as her 40th birthday, it's still hard to "age" another year. Leave it to my cousin Rick to make her feel young again.

1. My Mom and Cousin Rick

I started fucking my cousin Rick almost a year ago. His dad, my Uncle Jim, did me first and after that door was opened it seemed only natural to let Rick have me as well, especially after the way he'd been looking at me as we grew up. To my surprise, my Mom decided to get in on the action and had Rick for herself a couple of weeks later. Like me, she was taken by his teenage enthusiasm - not to mention he has the biggest dick in the family, at least of those I've seen.

To be honest, I was a little perturbed at Rick's response to my mom's desires. Maybe it was what I like to call the "Mrs. Robinson" syndrome, I don't know. Whatever the reason, he seemed to be a lot more interested in doing my mom than me, to put it mildly. Once he started fucking my mom, we hardly ever did it after that. Not that Rick was all that wonderful - if anything he is a chip off the block and can be as much a jerk as his father. I guess it's more I'm use to men wanting ME more than other women, even their wives, so having to play second fiddle, even to my own mother, was disconcerting if nothing else.

As for my mom, she behaved like a kid when it came to Rick. She loved to tease him at church and at their house when his mom wasn't looking. I suppose it made her feel young again to be fucked by a young stud like Rick. My dad didn't care one way or the other. As far as he was concerned, Rick was a walking dildo his wife used when she was horny. He knew it was nothing personal. If anything, I think he liked it because she stopped complaining about his outspoken lust for Rick's sister, Tammy.

Once the "new toy" luster wore off, my mom settled down a bit. Back home after graduation, I didn't see them together hardly at all and so I assumed it was history, or at least one of those things she did when she was especially horny but otherwise something she could keep in her dreams and memories.

So now it was my mom's 41st birthday. The last one had been rather traumatic. My mom has never lied about her age but at the same time, she is sensitive about it as most women are. Although she didn't actually come out and SAY anything, I knew adding on another year was weighing on her and so I tried to think of something that might cheer her up. What I would have loved to do was call up my best friend Beth and get my mom invited to one of her parties. Even though I'd never seen a woman there her age, I doubted that the guys at the party would have minded as my mom keeps herself in pretty good shape. Maybe even some of the girls might like her as well for that matter.

Only problem was, my mom believes STRONGLY in the sanctity of marriage and believes that adultery is a cardinal sin. As a result, she has never cheated on my dad. For her, it is the act that is the sin so no matter what the reason or "permission" she might have from my dad, being fucked by a man outside her family is taboo. Bottom line - no parties for my mom as I doubted she would be able to get away with just blow jobs all night (which are NOT sex, by the way).

2. Kristen Gets Horny About Rick

I was talking about my dilemma with my cousin Kristen one afternoon while I was over at her house. Her mom was out showing a house to a client so we had the place to ourselves.

"So what did you get YOUR mom for her last birthday?" I asked, perplexed with everything.

"Well, she doesn't hit the big 4-0 until next year so we celebrated her 'first' 39th birthday." Kristen replied with a grin.

"So what did you do?"

"I set her up with a date."

Kristen said it in such a matter of fact tone that I had a hard time reading her. Then she started to grin and couldn't hold back anymore.

"Of course, he was only seventeen."

Now why didn't THAT surprise me? Heck, I should have guessed it immediately knowing my cousin. She was twenty now, having finished her sophomore year in college, so you would think she would be losing her interest in the high school boys. Not Kristen. I'd lectured her enough in that past about the dangers of screwing around with underage boys but she just brushed it off, claiming nobody ever prosecuted a girl for doing it, just guys.

It didn't help her mother encouraged her as well. THAT had probably more to do with the fact her mom liked it when she brought her young studs home where they learned they were getting a two for one deal, and a mom-daughter one at that. So far as I knew, none of them turned THAT wet dream fantasy down! But this was the first time, at least that I knew of, that my Aunt Linda had DATED one of her boy toys.

"You're kidding! Who was it?"

"Well, you know Jonathan, the kid next door to us?"

Well duh, how could I NOT? I remembered him from a few years back when his parents had moved in. From the start he was just a little perverted peeping tom, always staring at me when I came and went and lord only knows what else. Of course he had grown up since then, well obviously so from the way Kristen was describing him.

"God, I remember the first time I blew him," Kristen was going on, "Poor kid didn't know whether to shit or go blind! And then when I told him he could fuck me... oh my god, I thought he was going to faint."

"OK, OK, so he was another toy, I get the picture," I interrupted, "So how did you get him with your mom."

Kristen pouted for a second, evidently peeved I had stopped her from giving me more details, but she sighed and changed the subject to what I was interested in.

"Well, I convinced my mom to take him to the mall and pretend he was her son - you know she's always wished she had one."

I grinned at that. For a woman who had slept in the same bed with her daughter since her divorce almost eighteen years ago, I could only imagine how it would have been to add a boy into the mix!

"Of course, it didn't take anything to get Jonathan to go along with my plans," she continued with a wink.

"So what happened?"

"Basically, you could say she had a chance to relive her teenage years, " Kristen explained. "You know my mom, she's always up for something new. Once she realized what my 'present' was, she took the ball and ran with it."

"As in?'

"Well, you of anyone should know how it goes - aren't malls sort of your specialty?" Kristen asked teasingly.

"Well, back in high school maybe," I mused. Thoughts of teasing clerks, fucking in bathrooms and dressing rooms, and just general flirting quickly came to mind but those days were years ago for me.

"THAT'S the whole point," Kristen exclaimed, "She got to pretend she was back in high school and just made a fun day of it."

"She let him fuck her I assume?"

"Duh, earth to Kelly, what do you think?"

"Well, that's all well and good but I can't do that for MY mom's birthday and you know it," I said with a frown. "She would never do anything like that with a neighbor boy. You've heard her anti-adultery lectures enough I'm sure!"

Kristen looked at me with an expression of exasperation, as if I was missing something obvious.

"What?" I sighed?

"THINK girl, do I have to spell EVERYTHING out for you all the time?"

Well, I wasn't as crazy as Kristen, that was for sure, but I wasn't stupid either - or so I like to think. After all, SHE is the blonde in the family! This time, though, she had me stumped.

"Geeze Kelly, I can't believe you sometimes," Kristen sighed a little melodramatically, "Do the initials R-I-C-K mean anything?

Well why hadn't she just come and said it instead of making me feel as stupid as I did now. Of course there was the perfect option - her horny teenage nephew. He was nineteen now so a little older than Kristen preferred, but for my mom he was still a "boy", albeit a boy with one heck of a cock

"So what do you think?" she asked with a big grin on her face, obviously quite proud of herself for coming up with the idea.

There were tons of logistical problems to work out but I had to hand it to her, the concept was perfect. My mom and I sometimes went out and teased the guys in the malls and such but we WERE mother and daughter so there wasn't any element of fantasy from that perspective. My mom had always said she wished she could have had a son so why not let her have one for a day? Of course, his mother, my Aunt Shari, might have something to say about it if she ever found out but then this was nothing compared to what her husband and son were doing with her youngest daughter behind her back!

I looked over at Kristen and noticed she was playing with herself under the skirt she was wearing. Actually, it would have been surprising NOT to see her as I think sometimes her hand is permanently attached to her crotch but she wasn't just doing her usual absent-minded fingering, this looked to be more serious.

"I take it someone's horny today?" I giggled, pointing at her crotch. "What's the matter, been longer than 24 hours since you've been fucked?"

Although I meant to tease her, the reality was it wasn't much of a stretch. My cousin was probably the biggest slut to ever fuck her way through my high school and in college she has majored more in prostitution than anything else. I knew this summer she was "working" for her mom, helping her to sell real estate, mostly on her back. She had confided in me she didn't want to go back to school so who knew what she would be doing in the future but one thing was for sure, it would be something kinky if I knew her. I swear the girl DID get laid every day so the 24 hour joke was more on the mark than you might think!

"I was just imagining Rick and your mom together," she sighed, pausing for a moment to talk to me. "You know, she's never done him with me there. Why do you think that is?"

Well, I knew the reason but it wasn't something I wanted to tell her. Whenever Kristen got involved in something she tended to hog the spotlight. My mom viewed her times with Rick as HER time to just enjoy herself and be pampered by a horny young guy wanting to do anything to please her. Why would she want Kristen there vying for his attention, not to mention his dick?

"She doesn't do him all that often, you know, so maybe you just haven't been there at the right time," I lied.

Normally I never lied to my cousin about anything but there's a time and place for everything. Kristen pouted but it was more put-on than anything.

"God, can you imagine him doing her in some store?" she asked with a slutty grin. "I've never heard of your mom doing anything like that."

"From what she's told me, her teen years were a little wild," I answered.

"Yeah but can you imagine your mom doing it NOW? God, she is so conservative sometimes I wonder know how you ever got fucked by your dad the first time!"

For whatever reason, I hadn't told her about my mom's dealings with Rick a little before when her best friend Tammy was visiting after my graduation. There was no particular reason, I guess I just had never got around to it. Well, no time like the present!

"Oh my god, you're kidding!" Kristen exclaimed as I started telling her about how my mom and I had sucked Rick right in front of her best friend. That was nothing to her response when it got to where Rick was fucking us for her to watch.

"Wow, I guess Rick's been a bad influence on your mom - in a good way," she giggled, "I would have never thought she would ever do anything like that."

"Soooooo, what do you think about Rick these days?" I asked her.

Kristen looked thoughtful for a moment, as if trying to figure out how to put her thoughts and feelings into words.

"He IS a jerk, just like his dad, isn't he?" she finally came out with. I nodded in full agreement and then she added, "But he has a hell of a tool down there!"

We both laughed at that but at the same time, my pussy was tingling as I recalled how good it felt to have him fuck me. Why not? I started to rub myself through my shorts and as soon as my finger passed over my clit, I small gasp erupted involuntarily.

"Ha, got you horny thinking about him, didn't it?" Kristen teased although she was playing with herself just as much as ever.

"Screw it," I sighed, resigning myself to my own impulses.

Why fight Mother Nature? It's not like I needed to worry about being shy with my slutty cousin around. I pulled off my shorts and dropped them to the floor, leaving me bare ass on the kitchen chair.

For the next ten minutes or so, the two of us didn't say another word but just sat opposite each other, playing with ourselves as we watched the other. God, Kristen looked so damn sexy when she masturbated! She looked several years younger than her twenty years and it was like watching a high school girl getting herself off before a hot date. Finally she looked at me and paused.

mouth and nose. I could smell her sex, strong and wet from her masturbation efforts earlier. Now I wanted to taste it!

As Kristen's mouth clamped down on my clit, I couldn't help but jump as if I had touched an electric fence. Although I have never ACTUALLY touched one, I could imagine the way I felt when her tongue ran circles around my clit that what I was feeling had to be similar. I could have just laid there like this all day, letting her work on my clit with her incredibly talented tongue. God the girl knows how to lick a pussy! Kristen wasn't about to go for tat, though, as she dropped her pussy lower as a not too subtle hint.

I pulled her ass into my face, my nose pressed against her wet pussy hole as my tongue worked its way between the fold of her pussy to find her hardened clit. I was rewarded by a stiffening of her body as I flicked the tip of my tongue over the tip of it, teasing her at first and then pushing harder against it with my tongue. It had been a while since we had done this and I have to say, when it comes to pussy licking, nobody beats a girl, and no girl beats Kristen! As much as I love it when my mom licks me, she has the emotional advantage whereas with Kristen, it was based on the incredible pleasure she knew how to give me. Lord only knew how many pussies she had pushed her face into - she didn't keep a diary like I did growing up. Bottom line, she was a pro! (Technically, I guess you could say that too since I had no doubt part of college entrepreneurial efforts must have included a few female clients as well.)

Kristen pushed a finger into my pussy and then a second one while she never let her tongue off my clit for a moment. She was relentless, despite the way I was squirming under her. She fucked my pussy with her fingers as she licked and sucked on my clit like it was a nipple - a VERY sensitive one at that.

It didn't take long under the circumstance for me to cum. Many times over the years, since we were barely teenagers, Kristen an I masturbated together even though we didn't actually have sex until she was seventeen. One of the games we use to play was to see who could get themselves off the fastest. It was a rare day when I didn't win and today was not to be an exception to the rule.

My orgasm began to rise, warming my entire body like I was placed in an oven. Pulses of what I can only describe as "pleasure" emanated from my pussy like the sun shining and spreading warmth to the universe of my body. Usually my orgasms hit me hard, like I stepped out in the street and got smacked by a Mack truck - a very good feeling truck. Now and then they were like today's more like a fire building from a small match flame into a blazing inferno, a little bit at a time until it consumed me totally.

"Oh god," I gasped as I couldn't keep my mouth on her pussy any longer.

I pushed my head back into the pillow and held my breath as Kristen recognized what was happening and if anything, redoubled her efforts on me. There was none of this "drive her to the edge and keep her there" today. She was going to push me until I went over the edge!

"Cum for me," she whispered quickly as she took her mouth off of me for just a moment before returning to my pussy.

She didn't have to invite me - I was already there! My eyes were shut so tight it was like stars were exploding inside my eyelids as my legs straightened out and I went rigid, unable to move a muscle as her mouth and fingers continued to play with me. My head started to feel light as I realized I wasn't breathing and so somehow I managed to take a breath or two before holding it once again in order to fully concentrate on her mouth. Oh my god, it was so incredible!

Lord only knows how long she kept me cumming. It seemed like hours but I knew later it must have been only a few minutes. Her face must have been covered with my pussy cum as the world slowly returned to focus and I was able to start to work on her again. One good deed deserved another after all.

We ended up spending most of the afternoon in bed and I can't really say how many times each of us came but by the time it was over, I was exhausted. The most physically taxing part was when we used her double dildo, trying a variety of positions as we "fucked" each other at the same time. For the last hour or so, all we did was lay in each other's arms, pressing our sweaty nude bodies up tight against each other, intertwining our legs so our pussies pressed against the other's thighs.

3. My Present to My Mom

We must have fallen asleep at some point as when I woke up, her mother was standing next to the bed with a smirk on her face.

"Looks like the two of you have been having a good time this afternoon," she teased us, "Couldn't wait for your mom to get home girl?"

She was obviously just teasing but I wouldn't have been surprised if I could read her mind if she hadn't wished she had taken the afternoon off from work! Personally, I wouldn't have minded either!

We just smiled at her and kissed one last time before getting out of bed. I dressed and couldn't help but notice Kristen was making no efforts to do the same. Hmmm, I wonder what she had planned after her cousin had gone home?

Back home I got in just in time for dinner. My parents were just sitting down when I walked in and kissed my dad hello. He wrinkled his nose and smiled.

"Ahhhhhh, I think I know why you are late getting home from Kristen's," he teased me.

I hadn't had time to wash up so obviously the scent of Kristen's cute little wet pussy was all over me, especially my face. My mom's ears perked up so I want over and kissed her as well, leaving her with a smile. Neither of them said another word - none was necessary in this case!

After supper I filled in my dad with Kristen and my plan for my mom's birthday. Surprisingly, he wasn't as enthused about it as I would have thought he would be. Although he never said anything, there were times I wondered just how comfortable my dad was with my mom getting fucked by Rick all the time. Of course he knew Rick's dick was significantly bigger than his own so maybe he suffered from a little male "size envy" but there was no reason for that from my perspective.

My mom didn't make love with my dad because of the size of his dick, she did it because she loved him! Rick was just a toy for her, no more than Tammy and Kristen were for my dad. If anything, I often wondered why she was never jealous of my Aunt Linda as she went back to his teen dating days. It just went to show how mature and understanding my mom was to let her husband fuck an old high school flame, even if she WAS her sister.

On any case, he gave me the green light, if reluctantly. Now I just had to break the news to Rick. Somehow I didn't think he would object and so it turned out. God, I thought his dick was going to push through his jeans when I described to him what I wanted him to do for my present to my mom.

Finally the big day arrived - my mom's birthday. Fortunately it fell on a Saturday which made it all the easier. My dad and I served her breakfast in bed - and I mean eggs and sausage, not dick and pussy as some people might start thinking. Then we gave her out gifts - both of which were nothing more than two envelopes. I told her to open my dad's first in which she found an invitation not dinner that night at one of the classier restaurants in Pittsburgh. God, it was going to cost him a fortune by the time he bought wine and dessert!

It was time for my card and she opened it with a quizzical eye. I had never done anything like this before, previously it was always some form of gift, usually clothes. She opened the card and out fell a photograph. Holding it up, she couldn't help but smile wryly when she recognized what it was. Holding it out to my dad, he grinned a wide one.

"I guess we know who THAT belongs to," he said, handing it back.

Of course, it was a classic cock shot of an erect dick - unmistakably Rick's as anyone who had spent hours sucking on it would know right away. Then she read the invitation and her eyes widened like saucers. Turning to me, she looked at me like I was crazy or at least a little touched.

"You've GOT to be teasing me," she said, "This is just a birthday joke, right?"

"Don't you like my present mom?" I pouted, "I worked HARD for it."

My mom chuckled at that and responded saying, "Somehow or another, I don't think you weren't the one that as hard." She was obviously implying that I had fucked Rick to get him to do this for me.

"No, he didn't fuck me," I huffed back.

She turned to my dad and held out the card, "I take it you've seen this John? You sure you're OK with it?"

My dad was a good sport about it all and smiled back at him, even if he didn't really want to which I had to wonder about.

"I think it would be fun for you, don't you dear?"

"Hey, didn't Kristen do something like for my sister once before?" my mom asked me.

I just shrugged my shoulders and pretended not to know. Sometimes a little white lie can be justified and this was one of those times.

"Well... I guess since you went through so much trouble, how can I not accept this," she said with a smile.

"Yeah right, like you're going to turn down an afternoon with HIM screwing you the whole time," my dad huffed. I looked at him sharply, wondering what he really meant by it but he didn't say another word.

"Oh, one more thing," my mom added, just as I was all about to leave the bedroom to get dressed, "I assume you'll be coming with to chaperone?"

I looked at her, a bit surprised and confused. THAT idea had never come to my mind. My assumption had been she would just pick up Rick and take the afternoon off to misbehave. Now that she mentioned it, though, the idea made me tingle a bit to consider.

"Well, so long as it's YOUR day and I just get to watch out for you," I compromised.

Actually, the idea was as practical as it was erotic. I knew from my own experiences that it never hurts to have a "lookout" at times when you're fooling around in public. As hot as it makes me to be naughty, it's a fine line between getting away with something and getting caught. All the fun in the world can be screwed up with just one public indecency arrest!

Way back when Kristen and I were younger we use to go to grocery stores and masturbate in the vegetable area and then putting the cucumber or carrot back to see who would buy it later, not knowing it had a coating of pussy on it. Such a thing would have been impossible by yourself as while one of us was playing, the other would keep an eye out for anyone who got too close for comfort. Well, looked like I was going to be watching out for my mom this afternoon!

I left their room as my dad was climbing in bed with my mom. I think he had his own "private" birthday gift to give her, one she would be keeping after he got out of bed! I am always amazed at people who say they are grossed out thinking of their parents having sex. For me, I love knowing they do it as it shows me what a great marriage they have and how vibrant and healthy they both continue to be. What's there to be ashamed or embarrassed about?

Back in my room, I debated what to wear on our little adventure this afternoon. Should I dress conservatively and blend into the crowd, being more of a spy sending them intelligence on "enemy " movements? Or should I dress like a hooker on the prowl, acting as a decoy to lure potential threats away from them? Anyone who knows me shouldn't have any problem figuring out which option I chose! Besides, since I had graduated I had put all my "Nancy Drew" clothes from school in the back recesses of my closet in favor of wearing things I was a lot more comfortable in.

When it comes to drawing attention, there are two things that are paramount to consider - boobs and legs. Whatever I chose had to highlight my boobs and show as much leg as possible. On top that meant a skin-tight pink camisole that exposed most of my stomach. Further down the only real decision was which skirt to wear as pants, or even shorts, weren't enough for today - no matter how tight or short.

After considerable debate (do guys have ANY idea how long it takes us to just DECIDE what to wear? Do they think sluttiness comes easy? LOL), I picked out a tight white skirt that was about as short as it could be and not be look like I had just left an ice rink. "No panties" would have been crossing that line into the public indecency area so I picked out a matching pink thong. Rather than strings in back, it actually had a little material so that it covered me enough not to expose my asshole when I leaned over - but still highly suggestive without requiring a lot of imagination. White heels to match my skirt and I had an outfit ready.

As I went across the hall to get to the bathroom, I glanced over to see how my parents were coming (cumming?) along. My mom was riding my dad's dick, facing away from him so he could see her ass which also meant she was facing away from the door so neither of them noticed me taking a look. Out of respect for their privacy I went on to the bathroom although I would have loved to have watched a while longer.

After brushing my teeth I jumped in the shower. Glancing at the shower massager, I thought about my parents fucking across the hall and thought, what the hell? It wasn't like anyone would be asking me to hurry up in the bathroom any time soon if I knew them. I took it from the holder and adjusted the spray to a pulsing flow. Leaning against the side of the stall to keep my balance, I spread my legs wide apart and directed the stream at my pussy. All I can say after that the guy who invented this baby hopefully got well rewarded. There must be millions of women indebted to him!

Between the flow of the water against me and my fingers, it didn't take long to work myself to a decent, if not spectacular, orgasm. Afterwards I stood under the shower stream as I let my heartbeat calm down and the flushness evaporate before stepping out. I dried myself off and tossed the towel into the dirty clothes chute that led to the basement. It felt good to stand there in the humidity of the bathroom, nude and fresh feeling with a bit of a tingle between my legs left over from my shower friend. Poking my head out, I could hear my mom saying something about what she wanted my dad to do to her so I knew they were a ways from finishing up.

Pulling my hair back into a single ponytail, I returned to my bedroom for my makeup and to check my mail. I must check it a hundred times a day it seems and I always love it when certain names appear as I know they have something nice to say - or even sometimes show me. Nobody was on IM so I go up from my desk and dressed. Checking myself out in the mirror, I didn't hear anyone approaching.

"Damn, who's getting laid this afternoon, you or your mom?" my dad chuckled from the doorway. His dick was still pretty hard and I noted how wet it and the surrounding pubic hair looked. Mom must have really gushed this time when she came!

"You think this will draw people away from them that get too close?" I asked him teasingly, walking over to him to grab his dick. I loved the feel of wetness on him and I leaned over to quickly take in my mouth for a taste. Yep, there was no mistaking my mom!

"Only the ones who aren't blind," he laughed.

"Mmmmmmm, you taste good," I said, standing up and licking my lips like my dog after it licks off my plate.

"Sorry, he's had about all he can take for now," my dad laughed, flipping his dwindling cock with his hand. "Maybe tonight when you get back all horny?"

We both laughed. He knew me all too well!

"So what's the story anyway" Do we have to pick him up or what?" my mom asked, stepping up behind him. God, her hair was a disaster and she looked like she had been in the sun all day from the redness in her chest and face. Dad must have fucked her good!

I explained that Rick was picking her up at 1:00 (it WAS supposed to be a date after all) and that meant she only had a couple of hours to get ready. From the way she looked, she was going to need every minute.

I went downstairs, leaving them to tend to their morning needs and whatever. So long as my dad didn't "recover" faster than usual and get things started again, she would be ready well ahead of time. Fortunately she wasn't one of those women who take forever to get herself ready, a trait I must have inherited from her.

4. My Mom and Rick in a Mall Restroom

Promptly at 1:00 the front doorbell rang and my mom answered it. She pretended to be surprised when Rick was standing there, holding a bouquet of roses for my mom.

"Happy birthday Aunt Mary," he said politely, handing her the roses.

"Rick, I think for today you should just call me Mary, what do you say?" she corrected him.

"OK Aunt... I mean Mary," he stuttered. It was funny - he actually seemed nervous. Here he'd been fucking mom for ages and now suddenly he was acting like a freshman on his first date.

"Well, I guess we should be going," mom said, handing the roses to my dad for safe keeping. "Oh, you don't mind if Kelly tags along, do you?

Rick took one look at me and grinned, "Not at all! Will she...?"

"No, I won't," I cut him off, knowing where he was going and not even wanting the question asked. "Just going with to play lookout and decoy."

Rick shrugged and turned back to my mom. Holding out his arm like a perfect gentleman, he led my mom out to his waiting car with me a few steps behind. Looking ahead of me, I had to give my mom credit - she was playing this to the hilt. She had picked out a short black skirt (not nearly as short as mine but quite "inappropriate" for a woman her age) and a floral peasant blouse that covered her full bosom but would provide easy access later when it counted. Her black heels were higher than any I'd seen her wear in ages and her hair looked remarkable, even more so given the way I knew it looked just a couple of hours before. I had no idea yet what was under the skirt, but I had no doubt I would be seeing for myself sooner than later.

Rick held the passenger door of his car open for her as she climbed in, not bothering to hold her skirt down I noticed. I thought for a moment I would be seeing what was under the skirt but it heroically worked to cover her ass somehow, although her long bare legs were on full display. God, it was hard to believe she was my own mother!

We had planned on going to a mall that was past the airport and almost an hour from my house to minimize any risk of someone we knew seeing us. The drive over was rather uneventful although I noticed my mom had her hand resting on Rick's crotch the entire way. I was half expecting her to lean over the center console and suck him off at some point but she managed to contain herself and hold off until we got to the mall. God, she had a lot more willpower than I would ever!

The parking lot was crammed for some reason and then I noticed the signs announcing some large mall-wide clearance sale. That was good and bad. Good in that there would be a lot of people to watch them, bad from the standpoint that it would be more difficult to find a public place that wasn't already occupied.

No sooner had my mom stepped out of the car and started walking towards the mall, holding with her nephew's hand as if they were on a date (which technically they were), than the "looks" started. Which "look" they got depended on the source. From most of the guys, it was like a lamb being paraded by a pack of wolves. From the mothers and wives, just say that if looks could kill, my mom would be dead umpteen times over!

The door we entered led to the Food Court and we decided a little lunch would be the best way to start. My cousin looked like he was about to make a suggestion for her to eat something NOT on an of the kiosk menus but then he thought better about it under the circumstances. Well, well, maybe turning nineteen had finally instilled some common sense into him!

We picked a sandwich for Rick and some salads for me and my mom and finally found a place to sit. Between my mother and I, there was a LOT of leg being exposed at our table, something that was NOT being missed by most of the male population in the area. My pussy tingled as I could only imagine what thoughts were going through their heads - especially the little ones down lower.

Leaning forward so she could talk in a lower tone, my mom looked at the two of us and asked, "Well, what do we do to get started?"

Rick looked at me, evidently figuring I was the more experienced one at these type of things so I should have all the answers. Well, had it been just me and him, maybe so, but this was my MOM after all. Finally it hit me though, she should do just what I would under the circumstances.

"Why don't you show her the men's restroom Rick?" I hinted.

My mom grinned as she picked up that I was referring to one of my early teen episodes with my boyfriend in a mall men's room. At the time she was masturbating pretty heavily before I even finished telling her about my date so I could only imagine how it must feel to be on the brink of doing it for herself.

"Well, what do you think Rick? You 'up' for it?" my mom teased the poor guy.

Glancing at the crotch of Rick's jeans, he certainly was "up", THAT was for sure! Something told me that if I could read his thoughts about then they would have been something like, "Damn, the old broad's really going to do it! Shit, I'm gonna get to fuck her here!" I couldn't help but think that all along he thought this was all just some tease, that my mom would never go through with nay of this. Well, he didn't know my mom. As conservative as she may be, when she sets her mind to something there's not much that can get in her way to stop her (just ask my poor dad).

I followed them as they went off to find the restrooms. I hadn't been to this mall in ages and had no idea where things were but as always, there were signs. Immediately I knew this was going to be a little more "interesting" than when I had first done this years ago. In my case, the mall was laid out such that the restrooms were down a long hallway away from the general public area. This made it easier to slip in and out unnoticed. Well, not here! The doors were squarely out in front of the entire food court! I hung back to watch, curious to see what they would do.

Rick went in first to check out the "availability". He quickly came back out, shaking his head. Shortly afterwards, two guys emerged which is why Rick had made the gesture. He looked at me and I realized what he wanted - a distraction. Well, I could handle THAT.

I dropped my purse and when I went to reach for it, I "slipped" and went crashing to the floor. With my skirt around my hips, the thong made a valiant effort to keep my pussy covered but it was barely up to the job. Every make pair of eyes in the food court was locked on me, not to mention a few female ones. I slowly got up, pretending to be embarrassed at "exposing" myself but actually I could feel the warmth between my legs signaling that I was getting wet seeing the looks I was getting.

Once I was back on my feet and the crowd had dispersed, I looked around to and my mom and Rick were nowhere to be seen. Well, hopefully they were where I thought they were! I had no idea how they were going to get out undetected so I took a seat and waited.

5. Phone Sex With My Mom

Suddenly my cell phone went off and I knew who it had to be. Sure enough, it was my mom!

"That was GREAT Kelly, you deserve an Oscar for that one," my mom congratulated me.

"Soooooo?" I asked.

I heard my mom laugh and then she said, "Well, we are in the stall and your cousin's dick is right in front of me. Pardon me, I have something to take care of."

The line went dead just as I watched several guys and a few boys all step into the restroom at practically the same time. A number thoughts flashed through my mind. I wondered how crowded things were getting in there. How private were the stalls - could anyone see through the door enough to notice there were two people in there - and one of them didn't have a dick?

About twenty minutes passed and I was starting to wonder what the hell was going on in there! Meanwhile I had fended off at least six guys trying to pick me up (maybe any other day, but not today). There seemed to be a constant parade of guys going in and out so I didn't know if they were still going at it or if they were done but couldn't get a chance to leave undetected.

The door opened and a guy walked out who hurriedly rushed over to his friend and started talking animatedly, pointing back to the restroom, Just as my heartbeat started to rise, the door opened again and my mom and Rick filed out, another guy behind them as well who clearly was interested in my mom's ass.

"Let's go dear," my mom said in a tight voice, looking around as if she thought Security might be coming any second.

As we left the Food Court, the two of them starting laughing and I looked at them, expecting an explanation.

"Sorry we took so long," my mom apologized, "But after I sucked Rick here off and then he fucked me (it felt great by the way Rick) it seemed the place would NEVER clear out. Finally I said the hell with it and just walked out, ignoring the guys standing there."

They started laughing again as Rick continued, "Shit Kelly, you should have seen the looks on their faces when you mom stepped out and adjusted her skirt and top in the mirror. You would've thought they were frozen in place!"

The chattered on about it some more and I just listened, a little jealous to be honest. Here I was turning down dicks while they were having a great time fucking away. Oh well, it WAS her birthday after all so I tried my best to push those feelings aside and look forward to the next opportunity. My mom was beaming!

Next stop was Macy's. On nice thing about most of them, they have great dressing rooms. My mom picked out some sexy bras and after looking around, she and Ryan slipped inside, undetected from what I could tell. I stood guard nearby, cell phone in hand in case something went awry. I was just getting settled in when the phone rang - my mom again.

"How's this for phone sex Kelly?"

Damn, what had gotten into my mom today (besides my dad and Rick)? Whatever it was, it certainly wasn't what I had expected. I sat there and listened as she handed the phone to Rick who proceeded to give me a blow by blow (no pun intended) description of how my other was sucking his cock! I started to reach for my pussy when I remembered where I was and I looked around for a restroom to disappear into. Finally I had to ask one of the clerks who showed me the way and as fast as I could I was locked in a stall listening to my own private sex phone call.

"Oh yes, Aunt Mary, suck it deeper," he groaned. It was like a non-stop commentary of her tongue and lips on his shaft. Compared to his sister Tammy, my mom's BJ must have been off the scale so far as he was concerned!

"So what do you want me to do next, Kelly?" my mom broke in.

She knew perfectly well what I wanted Rick to do to her but I could tell where my sexuality genes had come from, that's for sure. I often did the same thing - ask a guy to tell me something I knew already, but just wanted him to hear him say it.

"Make him lick your pussy, mom," I whispered to her, not wanting to be heard by anyone in this echo cavern masquerading as a bathroom.

She must have held the phone away as I could hear her faintly passing along my instructions and then some sounds of clothes rustling. What position were they getting into? A phone was nice but a web cam would have been greater!

"Oh god Kelly, that feel so good," she moaned in to the phone.

In my mind I pictured Rick's face buried in her pubic hair, his nose pressed against her clit as he snaked his tongue into her pussy. God how wonderful she must smell now, especially after having been fucked just a little while ago. My tongue worked its way over my lips as I imagined the strong odor of my mother's crotch blending in and complimenting the taste of her wet pussy. What I would have given to be in Rick's place right now!

"Oh god Kelly, I'm cumming," she gasped into the phone.

Damn, that was fast, even for a woman in my family! It amazed me how horny my mom was after having made a fuss earlier in the day about whether she wanted to go or not.

How many girls have had the chance to listen to their mom having an orgasm over the phone? And how many of THOSE got to listen to it as a result of her nephew licking her? Not many, I would bet.

"I want his dick in me, Kelly... tell him to fuck me," she moaned into the phone. God, what if someone was in the room next door?

My own pussy was crying out to be fucked itself! I was talking and listening using one hand while my other was playing full time with my wet pussy. Rick came back on the phone.

"Well?" was all he said, sounding impatient.

"Fuck my mom Rick," I said firmly but in a low voice.

"What? I can't hear you," he complained, sounding even more impatient with me. "Speak up!"

"I said... Fuck my mother!" I repeated myself, my voice a little louder then I cared for it to be.

"Ahhhhhh, that's what I THOUGHT you said," he laughed on the other end. Jerk! He heard me the first time, I was sure of that.

"You touching yourself Kelly?" my mom said, taking back the cell phone.

Well duh, what did she THINK I was doing, knitting?

"Oh shit, he's about to fuck me again," my mom said without waiting for my answer. "Oh god his cock is so big!"

On my mind I could imagine his thick stiff shaft sliding into my mom's hairy pussy. Was she getting it doggy style? How much room was there in the dressing room? Had she stripped or just pulled her panties to the side? It was frustrating to sit her on the toilet, nothing to do but masturbate as I wished I could be in the dressing room with them.

"Faster Rick, pump it faster," she gasped, "Now deeper, all the way in me"

"Tell him to cum in me this time Kelly," my mother pleaded between gasps and moans.

I could hear the background noise change as when handed the phone to her nephew. When I heard his panting loud and clear, I knew he must have the phone at least close to his ear.

"Cum in her Rick... shoot it inside my mom."

No response other than more animal-like groans and grunting. It sounded like the phone was being passed again and my mom was back.

"Oh god Kelly, I think he's close!" my mom gasped.

My own pussy would have given most anything to have his dick in me right at this moment. I was so jealous of my mom. If I was in there we could at least share it, swap him between our pussies in a sexual form of musical chairs - who would get his cum in her pussy?

"He's cumming Kelly... God he's cumming hard this time!"

He wasn't the only one. My own pussy was throbbing like a horror movie heartbeat and listening to my mom moaning as my cousin pumped his teenage dick deep into her pussy and release his cum into her was more than I was ready to take any longer. I heard someone entering the restroom but I didn't care. All I knew was I was having an orgasm and nobody was going to stop me from enjoying it to the fullest - NOBODY.

"Someone in there?" a voice called through the door.

I tried to answer but with my finger now in my pussy it was like it went up to my mouth, stopping me responding in any literal sense.

"You OK in there sweetie?" the voice asked.

"Oh yes, don't worry," I did my best to try and get out but it still sounded like I was constipated as at the same time my orgasm was constricting my voice.

"OK, you take care then," the voice replied as she left the room - finally!

Between my own orgasm and listening to my mom taking Rick's incestuous cum in her, I certainly was taking care of myself!

Finally it as over and I cleaned myself up as best I could before pulling my thing back in place. Looking in the mirror there was no mistaking the "I just came" look based on the flushness of my face and chest, the look I my eyes, and the disheveled hair. I tried to straighten up a bit and then went out to try and track the two horny toads down.

6. Mom and Rick Get WAY Too Public

I arrived at the dressing rooms just as my mom walked out. Where was Rick? THAT became obvious in a moment as some woman yelled for somebody to get out of the dressing rooms. Rick came hustling out with s shit-eating grin on his face and a voice was calling out "Pervert, I'll call security!"

My mom just shook her head in semi0disbelief and suggested we all get moving before Security DID make an appearance. Rick still had that ridiculous grin on his face so I couldn't help but ask him what had happened.

"Your mom thought it would be better not to walk out together so I hung back. No sooner did I start mom leave when the door next to our opened and some woman stuck her head out. Well, that was what started all the commotion you heard."

Back out in the mall community area, we took a seat on a bench to rest for second and plan our next move.

"Well, what's the naughtiest thing you've ever done with a boy in the mall, Kelly" my mom asked.

As if she didn't know. My mom knew EVERYTHING about me and with her memory, probably MORE about me in the past.

I thought for a few minutes, trying to determine what I should tell her since it was obvious it was her intent to recreate that event but substituting herself for me.

The it hit me, why should she simply repeat what I had done? Why not create her own experiences, as unique as she was?

"I have an idea... Why don't you make out with Rick?"

My mom's mouth momentarily dropped until she quickly regained her composure.

"You mean HERE?" she responded disbelievingly, "Out in front of everyone?"

"Why not? Nobody here knows you."

My mom may have been a little disconcerted but Rick was obviously not as worried. He put his hand on my mom's leg, moving it up until his fingers were just under the hem of her skirt. She put her hand over his, not pushing him away but at the same time keeping him from going any further.

"So just what do you think we should do Kelly?"

Actually, I hadn't thought this through before blurting out my idea. NOW what was I supposed to say? It was a great idea but as they say, the devil is I the details.

"Well, for someone who just turned 41, you're still pretty hot mom. What do you think people will say if they see you making out with an eighteen year old boy?"

My mom couldn't help but smile. "Well, if it was ME, I would say she was robbing the cradle, trying to relive her teenage years, a Britney Spears concert mom."

"So you don't want to do it?"

"Well, I never said THAT," she replied with a naughty grin, "I'm just saying what I would think if I saw a woman my age making out with Rick."

Standing up from the bench, I look back down at her and grinned.

"Well, I have shopping to do. I'll leave you two to do... well, to do whatever it is you want to do."

Of course I had nothing to shop for, so I just headed over to the other side of the room and found a seat where I could watch them and the people as they came and went. Looking back across the way, this time it was my turn for my mouth to drop open just a bit. Frankly, I had expected my mom and Rick to maybe steal a kiss and snuggle up tight to one another, but not act like two teens with raging hormones making out in the back seat!

My mom had her legs crossed, causing her skirt to ride up and expose her upper thighs. I could only hope that I inherited whatever genes kept her legs looking that trim and sexy twenty years from now! Any "decent" woman her age would have pulled it down to cover more of her legs but then, a "decent" woman wouldn't be wearing skirt like hers in the first place. Rick had his arm around her, his hand firmly planted on her bared leg, holding on like he was trying to pull her inside of him. His other arm was around her shoulder, his hand holding her upper arm, just an inch or so away from her swelling breasts.

Not only was Rick wrapper around my mom like she was some young girlfriend, they were kissing like two lovers reunited after a long separation. Damn, even I didn't make out like that in a place like this when I was a teenager!

Watching the crowd, it was fascinating to see the widely varying reactions. Of course, there were the older men who tried not to look but you could tell their attention was riveted on the hottest bench in the mall. More than a couple had their wives with them whom when they saw what their husbands were looking at, either smacked them or pulled them away with the most disgusted looks imaginable. The teenage boys were the best, unabashedly staring, undoubtedly wishing they were in Rick's place. Probably the least affected were the teenage girls who seemed to just ignore what was going on under their noses. Well, for that matter, they seemed to ignore just about everything else too!

No matter how horny my mom might have been, to say the least of Rick, there WERE limits to what they could do without getting tossed out, or maybe even arrested for public indecency. I decided that enough was enough, and that I had better "rescue" them from themselves before something DID go too far. As I walked back towards them, I realized I was none too soon as Rick's hand started to work its way up my mom's skirt, obviously getting a feel of her ass.

"Ahem!" I coughed, pretending to be unintentionally interrupting them, "Maybe you two should get a room?"

Rick wasn't paying any attention to me. Damn, he didn't seem to care a whit that he was in the center of mall feeling up a woman twice his age. My mom, on the other hand, realized that enough was enough and started to push Rick away. Not soon enough, though, as it turned out.

"Excuse me, would you mind explaining what's going on here?" a strong voice said from behind me.

I looked and my face must have turned white as a uniformed security guard was standing there, arms folded as he tried to look as menacing as possible. Well, he was doing a damn good job of it!

Well, THAT got Rick's attention and he bolted upright as my mom belatedly pulled her skirt down and adjusted her top.

"How old are you kid?" the guard asked Rick.

"Eighteen."

"Got something to prove that?"

Rick pulled out his wallet and showed him his driver's license.

"And how about you lady, how old are you?"

My mom pursed her lips and answered defiantly, "None of your business."

"What you were doing here made it my business," the security guy rebuffed her.

My mom reached for her purse and took out her license. The guard looked at both IDs and then his eyes narrowed.

"What the... Rick Wells and Mary Wells?" he said, his voice raising up the scale a little higher, "You two related?"

"I'm his aunt," my mom said, taking the role of the adult.

"You gotta be kidding?" the guard replied shaking his head, "What are you, some sort of perverts?"

My mom had enough by then. She stood up and held out her hand for her license.

"Is that all you wanted?" she spoke firmly.

The guard handed back the licenses and pointed to the exit.

"I think it's best the two of you leave... now!" he said a little too loudly if you asked me. Then he looked at me.

"You with them I suppose?" he asked me. I nodded and he pointed to the exit again.

"Should have known. You people are fucked up."

We left without looking back. A crowd had gathered by now and I could feel the stares drilling into my back - or maybe my ass when it came to the guys. Once out the door, we couldn't hold back anymore and we all burst out laughing.

"Oh my god, can you believe it?" Rick said, looking as if he couldn't himself.

My mom was muttering something about a "fucking rent-a-cop" but then she brightened up.

"Well, I guess that puts me one up on you girl. You've never been thrown out of a mall before I bet."

Actually I HAD but I wasn't about to tell her about that embarrassing moment. Besides, it was over six years ago, almost seven.

"So now what?" I asked, "Was that enough for a birthday present?"

My mom laughed and hugged me.

"Oh Kelly, you know better than that. It was a GREAT present."

We went back to the car and when we got there, my mom took the keys from Rick and handed them to me.

"Why don't you drive home Kelly, Rick and I have some unfinished business to get to in the back seat."

At that point, I was more surprised that I was surprised than anything else. Well, it WAS her birthday and why not end it with a bang - literally.

We weren't out of the parking lot before my mom was sucking on Rick's dick. To was pretty cramped back there so all she did was blow him in the way home and we were only about ten minutes from the mall when he came. It wasn't easy driving with one hand between your legs as you listened to your own mom sucking off your cousin behind you!

Rick dropped us off and when we went in the house, my dad was waiting for us.

"Well?" was all he had to say when we came into the family room.

My mom kissed him and after a long, passionate kiss my dad leaned back and grimaced a little.

"Damn, did the kid just cum in your mouth or what?"

My mom looked a little embarrassed as she knew my dad was about as straight as it came and eating his OWN sperm wasn't a thrill so tasting his nephew's was undoubtedly a turn-off for him.

"Sorry dear, let me go up and clean up a bit," she apologized.

My dad kissed her again, which I thought was incredibly unselfish of him. I knew the thought of Rick's cum had to be in his mind but he loved my mother enough to take it if that's what it took to make her happy.

"Love you babe," I heard him whisper to her.

"Love you too," she replied.

She blew me a kiss and headed upstairs. My dad took my hand and had me sit by him on the couch.

"OK girl, spill it," he laughed, "What happened? I want details."

I started to try and tell him but I knew it was a waste of time. There was no way I would get even half-way through this tale before he started fucking me. Oh well, the things a girl does for her mom and dad!

their nephew fuck HER anytime he wanted. Rick was only seventeen the first time they did it but I guess in her mind that was a lot older than fourteen and so it was OK. Rick was almost nineteen now so legal age wasn't an issue but even so, the same problem was there if his mom ever found out he was fucking his aunt!

So anyway, they dropped the subject and we finished our meal without any further discussion about Tammy.

2. Tuesday Evening - Me and Dad in the Hot Tub

After dinner I retreated upstairs to my bedroom where I started to change into a t-shirt but changed my mind and went into my dad's closet to pick out a shirt. I chose a white dress shirt with long sleeves that hung on me like a sack but felt quite comfy. It always felt good to dress down for the evening. Running around the house nude wasn't my thing and I knew my dad enjoyed seeing me in his shirts, even if he pretended to complain about it. I thought he could use some cheering up after the Tammy discussion and hopefully seeing me wearing it would do something for him - in more ways than one.

Heading back downstairs, my mom was alone in the kitchen, putting away the dishes.

"Hey mom, where did dad go?"

"Out back, I can hear the tub running," she answered. She looked at me and shook her head.

"You know that shirt's new, don't you?"

"So?"

"Well, keep it away from the hot tub. The chemicals yellowed the last one you wore."

Whatever. I just shrugged and headed for the door at the back of the kitchen. Our house was situated like most homes in the Pittsburgh area - on the side of a steep hill. Our driveway dropped an entire story in the length of the house making the garage level with the basement. Rather than just roof the garage, my dad built a deck over it so it was huge - the size of a two car garage. The kitchen was at the back of the house so the back door led out to the deck. With the trees and sloping hills, plus the railings on the deck, it was surprisingly private given we lived in the middle of town.

I held his shaft at the base with my hand to steady it and then took his dick in my mouth and bobbed on it a few times before dropping it from my mouth and looking back up at him again.

"You're thinking about HER, aren't you?" I accused him playfully.

My dad didn't rise to the bait and just groaned as I worked on his cock. After six years I'd sucked his dick hundreds of times so I was pretty "familiar" with it. I knew just how to make him feel good, just where to touch him, where he preferred to be licked, when he wanted to be stroked or when he wanted to be sucked. He had told me once, VERY privately, that I blew him even better than my mom which thrilled me to no end. Of course, neither of us would EVER say that to my mom who prided herself on her cocksucking prowess.

His dick tasted like hot tub water, the smell of bromine heavy in my nose. Holding his balls in one hand, I gently rolled them in my hand, being careful not to get TOO rough with them. Given his "warm up" before my arrival, it wasn't long before he was ready to cum.

"Cum in my mouth daddy," I begged, "Let me taste your love for me."

Again, it was a totally unnecessary request as nine out of ten times when I sucked him off, that's where he did it. There were those times when he seemed to enjoy spraying it on me but fortunately those were pretty far and few between. Even then, it wasn't so bad when I did him in the hot tub as I could wash it off right away but when we were in the SUV or watching TV, I either had to go to the bathroom or stay with him and have it dry on me.

My dad grabbed my head with both hands and held it down on his dick, signifying to me his intent to release himself in my mouth. Sure enough, he soon started to ejaculate.

"Oh fuck, that feels so DAMN good!" he exclaimed, his hips humping up against my mouth as one load after another of his cum .

I was pretty happy myself at that moment, knowing I'd been successful at making my dad cum. Actually, I loved it when any guy came when I sucked him. I guess you could say it is sort of a validation for me in way. A guy can't fake an orgasm like a girl can so when he cums, it means I was the one that made him do it. With my dad it was extra special. After all. how many fathers cum as a result of their daughter actually sucking them instead of just having to imagine it?

My dad's warm cum flooded into my mouth, as if I was holding a bottle of water with a squirt top to my mouth and squeezing it, except his sperm was warm and sort of slimy. Damn, he was horny tight! He released at least five or six decent loads before he jerked a few more times and then called it quits. I let his dick drop from my mouth and looked up at him with a big grin on my face. Opening my mouth, I stuck out my tongue so he could see his cum that was pooled on top of it.

"Damn, you really do love that stuff, don't you?" he teased me as I swallowed it down. It took me a few gulps to get it all down before I could answer him.

"You know I love your cum daddy!"

"Yeah, I know. But I also know you love any guy's cum, period, don't you?" he corrected me.

It was more a statement than a question, he knew the answer. Now that his lust and tension released, my dad slipped back into the hot water and sat down next to me, putting his arm around me and holding me tight to him.

"Thanks baby, I REALLY needed that," he sighed.

For a few minutes we just sat there and I enjoyed the secure feeling of being close to my dad. I imagine it would have been a tender sight to anyone who might have seen us, a father and his daughter being so close and intimate. Suddenly my dad sat up straight and pulled his arm out from behind me.

"God I'm so selfish!" he exclaimed. "I bet you need to get off too, don't you?"

Well duh! Of course I would have liked it but that wasn't why I'd come out to the deck. Not that I was ready to turn anything down that he might be offering.

He maneuvered me such that he had his arms under my back and shoulders with my feet up on the corner of the tub. Holding me up so I wouldn't fall back and sink, he helped me get closer until the jets in the corner were striking my pussy. The warmth and force of the water pulsing against my pussy and clit felt wonderful! At first I just rested in his arms, letting my head fall back against him as his strong hands held me up.

"Hey, you're not falling asleep on me, are you?" he teased.

Sleep was about the LAST thing on my mind as my clit responded to the attention. My mouth still had an aftertaste of my dad's cum and as I let the water massage my pussy, I imagined how it would taste if I licked it from Tammy's pussy instead after he had just fucked her. The more I thought about him and her together, the hornier I got and soon my hand was helping the jets get me off.

"That's it, get yourself off for me," my dad said, just barely loud enough for me to hear. "Tell me what you're dreaming about baby."

My dad had always liked it when I talked to him about sex. It could be about my latest date, what I did with my boyfriend, or even just a fantasy. It didn't really matter, it seemed, so long as I was the one telling the story.

"Oh daddy, I'm thinking about you fucking Tammy... about your big cock in her little pussy, seeing her take the cum from your cock."

"Oh god yes," he groaned, "I want her again so damn bad!"

"I want to see you cum in her daddy... see your cock jerk as your cum fills her little cunt and then let me lick it all out of her."

"That's my girl. But you want her for yourself too, don't you? Don't you want to lick her pussy for me to watch?"

"Anything for you daddy... you know I'd do anything for you."

Indeed I would. There was little I enjoyed more than pleasing my father. To see him smile and be happy was the greatest gift he could give me. He loved me so much it made me cry sometimes to think about it. I knew I didn't HAVE to let him fuck me. He would love me just the same no matter what. No, I let him fuck me BECAUSE he loved me. Somehow it seemed to satisfy some primal need deep inside of him. I could see it in his eyes when we was lusting for me, that almost animal-like look of deep lust and sexual desire that I knew could only be fulfilled by me. It wasn't that I was his lover or anything kinky like THAT. No, it was that only I could claim to be his daughter and there must have been something special for him to do his daughter.

As I dreamed of my dad fucking Tammy, my pussy erupted and even with the surrounding water of the tub I could feel my pussy gush as I came. My dad could tell from my reaction what was happening.

"That's my girl, cum for me, cum for your daddy."

I loved it when he urged me on, encouraging me to cum harder. Even before we started having sex he use to watch me masturbate and encourage me to satisfy myself all the better.

"Oh daddy, I love you!" I cried out as my orgasm peaked. Yes, I loved my daddy but it was the deep love of a daughter for her father. It was a love born of respect, a love that went beyond just a feeling of duty to yield myself to him. It seemed my orgasm would never end. The beating of the jets against my crotch was relentless as my hand worked its way over my pussy and clit. Finally it began to die down and I slumped into his arms as he pulled me back and took a seat back in the corner again, his arms around me as I let him hold me up.

"You know, it's silly for the two of us to sit here masturbating when she's only a few miles away," my dad lamented.

He was right, of course, but I was perplexed as to what to do about it. It didn't help that my mom wasn't all that in favor of it. Maybe next year when she turned sixteen my mom would quit griping but for now, I wasn't sure what to say to her. Then it was like the cartoons where a light bulb appeared over my head. I knew exactly what to do!

"Daddy, I have an idea..."

I told my dad about my brilliant idea and he agreed that it might work. Sometimes a little honey worked better when it came to getting someone's buy-in and I knew how to push my mom's "hot button" when I really wanted something from her. Of course, it had always been easier to talk my dad into things as all I had to do was show some ass and grab his cock. For my mom, it took a little more effort but I had just the idea - and the bait.

My dad and I got out of the tub, put some towels around our waists and headed back into the house. As I grabbed the shirt he grinned and poked me.

"I bet you didn't think I would notice what shirt you picked out tonight, did ya?"

I grinned at him and gave him a kiss, pushing my hand against his cock through the wet towel. It never failed to divert his attention! He kissed me for a few minutes, sharing his tongue with me as I rubbed his dick. By the time we started heading back in again, not another word was spoken about his shirt!

3. Wednesday Morning - Convincing Mom

The next morning after my dad had gone to work, instead of going back to sleep as I usually did when he was done with me, I went to the bathroom to wash myself off and then slipped into bed besides my mom. She was working the evening shift this week and so she was still so tired she didn't even seem to notice me. As she was laying on her side facing the edge of the bed, I nestled in behind her and put my arm around her. The warm softness of her bare skin felt good against mine and my boobs pressed in against her back as my hand cupped one of hers. The arrangement made me feel more secure than erotic actually. It was like when I had a teddy bear growing up except now it was my mom that I was holding onto for her strength and love.

"What's with you this morning?"

Apparently I'd fallen asleep as I awoke to my mother looking over me, holding herself on one elbow while she had her other arm around my waist as I lay on my back.

"Morning mom," I whispered, trying to get my voice to start working. "I just wanted to be with your this morning."

"Hmmmmmm, what's the matter baby, didn't your dad see you this morning?"

"Yeah, he was running late though so he just fucked me quick and had to go."

"Well, THAT wasn't very considerate of him, was it," she chuckled.

Sometimes I wondered what my mom really thought of my dad's "wake-up" calls in the morning that he liked to give me. On the one hand, she was NOT a morning person and I think it took a load off of her not having to worry about dealing with my dad's morning "needs". Although I wouldn't claim to be a morning person either, I DID wake up horny more times than not and it seemed my biological sex clock was timed to alarm first thing in the morning.

That said, now and then she would make funny little comments like she just had, leaving me to wonder what she REALLY thought about it. She had never expressed any jealousy of me and for good reason. She and my dad were as deeply in love as the day they were married almost 25 years ago and she knew that he considered her his soul mate and lover. There was something else, though, something more associated with the "tradition" itself. Once she started to say something about things her dad had done to her and I wondered if that wasn't the issue. Oh well, if there was anything she wanted to tell, then she would when she was good and ready and there was nothing I could do to change her agenda.

"Oh well, at least he got off and I guess that's what counts, isn't it?" I countered, trying to provoke her a little into opening up more with me.

"I guess so," she murmured. Then she turned to me and said, "You know Kelly, you don't HAVE to let him do that EVERY morning."

"I know mom, but I could never say no to him even if I wanted to."

"Kelly, a girl can ALWAYS say no," she said with emphasis. Again, I caught that tone and look in her eye that told me she wasn't saying everything but I couldn't quite put my finger on it. Oh well, did it really matter?

"Mom, why do you give dad such a hard time about Tammy? You know, it's not like she's some innocent virgin or anything."

My mom looked at me sharply, obviously not expecting that line of questioning at this moment. Then she seemed to be suspicious of me.

"Did HE put you up to this?" she asked in an accusing tone like I was being questioned on a witness stand.

I gave me my best "who me?" look but she wasn't buying it.

"Sorry girl, I know your father and don't forget, I know YOU. So what's the REAL story here anyway?"

"Well, I guess I don't understand why it's OK for Rick to fuck you but it's not OK for Dad to fuck his sister."

"Well for starters, Rick's eighteen and Tammy's fourteen. So as your father would say, case closed."

This was going nowhere. Time to change strategy.

"So mom, when was the last time Rick fucked you?"

My mom seemed relieved to get off the Tammy topic as she relaxed just a bit and fell on her back with her head on the pillow, letting out a long sigh.

"Oh god, it's been quite a while now."

I laughed at her pitiful attempt to discount what I knew was a hunger for Rick's young cock. My mom may be a mother and a wife, but she's still a woman and what older woman wouldn't love to have an eighteen year old stud again? Rick may not have had the best technique in the world but I swear the guy never goes soft! My poor dad needs more time every year before he's ready to reload but Rick's like a sexual machine gun, ready to fire over and over again without stopping.

"Oh come on mom, you don't have him over here mow the lawn every week whether it needs it or not just to make the house look nice!"

My mom couldn't help but smile at that one.

"OK, so you got me there. But do you know what gets me really hot when he's here?"

I had probably a dozen guesses of which eleven had something to do with his incredibly hard dick, but I didn't interrupt her to try and guess.

"It's knowing that bitch mother of his is sitting at home thinking her precious son is over here mowing the lawn without a clue what he's really up to. I mean, if that sanctimonious prude knew how many loads of cum her son had given me, she'd faint dead away on the spot!"

I knew how she felt. I had the same feeling when I let married guys fuck me. It wasn't just the sex that turned me on, it was the emotions that went with it that made it something special. When they cum in me, I love imagining their wives back at home with their kids, thinking their poor husband is out working so hard! They had no idea that their so-called faithful husband and loving father was out breaking his sacred wedding vows just for a shot at having me for a few hours!

"So what do you say if I get Rick over here along with Tammy? Rick could do you while Dad did his thing with her."

My mom huffed loudly and looked a bit frustrated with me.

"I take it that I can assume you're not going to let that drop, are you?"

I grinned at her and said, "Well, I DID sort of promise Dad that I would find a way to convince you."

"Ha! I knew it!" she exclaimed with a smug look on her face. "So you thought by getting me all wet thinking about Rick that I'd go along with anything you asked?"

I grinned sheepishly and lifted my shoulders.

"Well, it DID seem like a good idea at the time."

My mom bent over me and we kissed long and soft. Her lips and mouth felt so warm and gentle compared to my dad's. Her breast pressed against mine as she leaned over me, her nipple teasing mine as we moved tighter together. Finally she picked herself back up and got out of bed. I watched her walk around the bed and head for the door, wondering what the story was. Then she stopped at the doorway and looked back at me, leaning against the opening.

"Well, I guess it wouldn't hurt - but ONLY so long as they came over here. None of this basement of their house while their mom's upstairs crap you seem to like for some reason."

I smiled broadly as I watched her turn around again and head for the bathroom. Now all I had to do was talk Rick and Tammy into it. Rick certainly wouldn't be a problem; his only issue was trying to keep his dick down when my mom was over at their house. My fear was about Tammy, whether she would do my dad again. I guess there was no reason for her NOT to, but what excuse could I use for her to WANT to do it?

4. Sunday at Church - Planning With Rick (and He Fucks Me)

This wasn't the type of thing you used the phone or e-mail for so I waited until the following Sunday when I knew I'd be seeing the two of them again. My dad pulled into the church parking lot just ahead of my Uncle Jim's van so we waited for them to park before we made our way into the church. As we walked I grabbed Rick's arm and pulled him to the side.

"What's with you?" he asked, looking a bit surprised.

"We need to talk - privately," I whispered to him in a conspiratorial tone. Rick grinned at me.

"Ohhhhhh, I see. Somebody horny this morning?"

"No, I just wanted to ask you something you little perv!" I whispered back. Actually, he was several inches taller than me now days so "little" didn't really apply but it made my point. He looked at me with a disbelieving face as I answered.

"OK, OK, so what if I AM horny. But that's not why I need to talk to you."

We agreed on a place to meet and walked into the sanctuary with our parents. After the first hymn I excused myself to go to the bathroom. Rick was also excusing himself as well and my dad didn't miss the fact that we both needed to go to the bathroom at the same time.

"Couldn't you guys wait until after church?" my dad teased me, whispering in my ear as the next hymn almost drowned his voice out.

"Daddy!" I pretended to protest, acting as if I was aggrieved. He knew better, of course. Well, I guess there was no reason we couldn't do more than just talk while we were at it.

We didn't meet at the bathrooms but instead in a large utility room located next door to them. The room was full of various tools and cleaning equipment that the custodians used to maintain the church. Nobody ever came in here during church - lucky for me in the past!

"OK, so what's so important?" Rick said as soon as he shut the door behind us. I explained things to him as quickly as I could, not wanting him to have that much time to think things over. In the short run I knew that his lust and horniness always won over his sense of responsibility and ethics. However, given enough time to think about it he might decide against it so I hurried through my prepared speech. When I was done he was looking at me like I was some Martian freshly arrived on Earth.

"So let me get this straight... YOU promised YOUR mom I would fuck HE all afternoon if Tammy came along for your dad. Is that right?"

"Sounds good to me," I replied. "So what do you think?"

"But what do YOU get out of this?"

That was a good question actually. Here I was doing all the arranging yet it looked like everyone would be getting fucked except me. Oh well, the things a girl will do for her father! Rick would never understand even if I tried to explain it to him. He may be almost nineteen but his level of maturity was more like that of someone several years younger. His little head did most of the thinking these days so unless the answer had something to do with cocks and pussies, he would never comprehend. I just shrugged and smiled, waiting for his answer.

"OK Kelly, I tell you what. I'll do it but on one condition."

Oh great, here it comes. God only knew what conditions he was going to demand but I had a pretty good idea. Like I just said, he only thought in terms of sex so the possibilities were limited. I kept silent and waited for him to continue.

"Well, what are you waiting for?" he huffed, "You know what to do."

It wasn't like it was such a terrible thing. It was his attitude that I didn't care for, as if he controlled me somehow and that I would automatically respond to his demands without him even having to ask me. Only one problem, he was right, at least in this case. Rick held all the cards in this little game and I knew what I had to do if he was going to play them.

This morning I was wearing peasant style pink sundress, the type with the spaghetti shoulder straps and bunched up bosom that didn't require a bra - even if I'd been inclined to wear one. It wasn't nearly as short as I would have preferred but it WAS church and so a little decorum was required. Underneath I was wearing pink cotton panties, again in deference to church as a black thong would have been a lot sexier but just a bit too risque as the dress was a bit sheer. My first action was to drop the shoulder straps off my shoulder and lower the top to release my boobs. My nipples were already getting hard and when the material dragged over them it sent a tingle through me like a small electric shock.

"Well, you gonna help or make me do all the work?" I whined, pointing at his pants.

"OK, OK, hold your horses," he laughed as he unzipped his pants and opened them to reveal his white Hanes underwear.

Rick grabbed the waist and dropped his pants along with his underwear down to his ankles. His dick was already nice and hard, no surprise there. I squatted down in front of him and unceremoniously started to suck his cock. I wasn't trying to impress anyone, just working to get him off as quickly as possible. I could tell from the sounds coming from upstairs about where the service was and I knew we didn't have all day to do this.

"Oh yeah, that's great," he moaned as my mouth and tongue moved up and down his cock, sometimes circling it, sometimes just licking it and down like a popsicle.

Rick put his hands on my head and ran his fingers through my hair as he allowed me to continue to suck him off. Actually, I had pretty much expected that this would happen. It would have been a lot stranger to be in a room alone with Rick and NOT suck his dick!

My free hand worked its way down to my crotch where it pulled the panties over to the side and I began fingering myself. I was already soaking wet so my finger easily slid up into me as I sucked his incredibly hard cock.

"You like me sucking your dick, don't you?" I asked him, stroking his dick with my hand as I looked up at him and waited for an answer.

"You know it!" he responded between groaning and repeating himself over and over as to how much he loved it.

"Well, you better not get any cum on my dress," I warned him, trying to act seriously but undoubtedly failing in the attempt.

"I want to fuck you," he broke in, "God I want to fuck you so bad right now."

Well, THAT hadn't been on my agenda but I wasn't going to complain. It had actually been quite a while since he'd fucked me. There had been several blow jobs in his bedroom when we visited their house but we didn't dare fuck with his mom not all that far away.

Rick's dick slipped from my mouth as I stood up and wiped my mouth. There was a tall stool available so I reached under my dress and pulled my panties down and slipped them off, setting them on the work bench next to us. Lifting up my skirt to my waist to explore my pussy for him, I sat back on the stool and flirted with Rick.

"Well then, are you gonna fuck me or what?"

Imagine the scene now... Me sitting on a stool bare-ass, my dress pulled down to reveal my 34C boobs. My mouth tasted like cock as he shuffled over towards me with his pants still gathered around his ankles. Rick's hard dick was pointing at me like some erotic cock compass, pointing the direction to the nearest pussy - in this case mine. Had anyone walked in about now, I don't think there would be much interpretation required to figure out what we were up to - or what Rick intended to do to me.

"Like mother, like daughter," Rick mumbled. He surely wasn't referring to our pussies as I kept mine shaved and bare while my mother kept hers trimmed but covered. It probably had more to do with our mutual desire for his cock than anything else.

Rick reached down and grabbed my ankles, lifting my legs up and over his shoulders. The stool had a back on it, thankfully, or I would have fallen on my head behind me. With my legs spread shoulder width apart, he had unrestricted access to my hungry pussy and I knew that he was going to make use of it.

"Put it in me... hurry up RICK, I want your cock in me NOW."

Rick rubbed the head of his cock up and down my pussy slit, wetting it and tickling my pussy in the process.

"We don't have all day for goodness sake," I urged him on, "Hurry up and fuck me."

Rick grinned and laughed a little, obviously his ego enjoyed being stroked almost as much as his cock.

"You asked for it," he warned me as he lined up his swollen cock head with my wet pussy hole and then without further warning, thrust himself quickly into me. I gasped as my pussy hole suddenly expanded forcefully as it stretched out to accommodate him.

"More... I want it ALL in me, push it in," I encouraged him.

When I looked down I could see his thick dick as it slid into me. It always amazed me when I tried to relate the feelings inside of me as a cock filled my pussy with the sight of that same dick as it entered me, knowing that it was the thing that was creating those wonderful feelings in me. Rick's dick felt good in me and that's what was important now. It's not like I loved my cousin or anything strange. Except for the sex, he was just your typical teenage dork. But what the heck, if a girl's got a cousin like him to fuck her now and then, why not take advantage of it?

My mom seemed to enjoy the fact that a young guy like Rick just wanted to fuck her in the first place. I think it made her feel young again in some erotic way. Since her marriage vows precluded her from fucking anyone that was not in her immediate family, it didn't leave her many options either which I'm sure had some impact as well. Probably the most satisfying element was as she had said before, getting fucked by her nephew when his mom would have crucified them both if she knew about it.

As I said, Rick hadn't fucked me in some time, getting just a BJ now and then when I was over at their house. It felt a little weird knowing he seemed to enjoy fucking my mom more than me to be honest. Oh well, I knew my mom was upstairs now in her pew and she HAD to know why the two of us had been MIA for so long. I could only imagine how her pussy was tingling now, knowing her daughter was getting fucked instead of her! Oh well, a little healthy competition between a mother and daughter never hurt.

By now, Rick was consumed with his lust and was banging away at my pussy without much regard for me. How typical for a guy his age! To think people question me as to why I prefer being fucked by older men! Oh well, it felt good so I could love with it.

"That's it Rick, fuck me harder," I moaned, "Give it to me."

He was about to cum and I just hoped he remembered his promise to keep it I me and not get it on my dress. First, it was pain to wash out (ask Monica) and second, I still had to get home and I didn't want people seeing cum stains on my dress, even if they didn't know what they really were...

Fortunately, I didn't need to worry as Rick loved cumming in me. Evidently, most of the girls he fucked weren't on any protection so either he had to pull out or wear a rubber. He had told me once that I was the first girl to ever let him stay in and shoot his load directly into my pussy without having it caught by a condom. Personally, I have no idea if that makes any difference to a guy other than emotionally, but it make a world of difference to me. First, I can FEEL him cumming in me and then I can SEE his cum dripping from my pussy. That's a whole lot better than having some cum-filled condom tossed in the garbage!

"Oh fuck, here goes," he groaned.

Talk about a straight, simple fucking. A little bit of a BJ and now just five minutes or so in just one position and the boy was already getting off. I guess with him that was all that counted anyway and as for me, I was just going along for the ride - literally.

"Oh yeah!" he gasped as his hips thrust into me, driving his stiff pole into me all the way until his crotch met with mine and his cock disappeared completely inside of me.

A bloom of warmth emerged in my lower stomach as his dick began to unleash its loads of fresh warm sperm into me. Each time he shot one, the feeling dissipated rapidly, only to be followed by another and yet another. My cousin was horny this morning, that was for sure!

No sooner than he had cum than he pulled out of me, mission accomplished. Personally, I was just getting started and ready for round two but in typical teenage boy fashion, it was all about him. He'd gotten off so who cared about me?

"We'd better get back before my mom goes on some rampage and comes looking for me," he said, pulling his pants up.

I looked around and found what looked to be a clean rag and wiped up his cum that was started to seep from my freshly fucked pussy. I tried to squeeze out what I could so it wouldn't soak into my panties while I was sitting in what was left of the church service. At first I panicked as I couldn't find my panties but then I remembered where I'd tossed them and pulled them up quickly. After adjusting my top and pulling down the hem, I was ready to go.

"Uh Rick, is THAT going to calm down any time soon?" I teased him.

Rick looked down to where I was pointing and wrinkled his eyebrows at the sight of the bulge in his pants. HE may have been finished but his cock certainly wasn't! I licked my lips, thinking that if we had more time I would have gladly taken care of his "problem"; but for now I think he was just going to have to carry something in front of him. Anyway, he was a guy so he and didn't seem to care. We just headed back upstairs to the sanctuary where the sermon was just ending. That meant a hymn, the perfect time to sneak back into the pews.

Back in the pews, I stood between my parents. Both of them were looking at me with a mixture of curiosity and concern. Curious because I knew they would want to hear all about what Rick and I had been doing. Concern because they didn't want us to get caught and as long as we had been gone, the odds were somebody could have heard or found us.

The service finally ended. Now I love church for the most part, but Sunday morning services were just boring and that was that. As we walked away from the church to our parking spots, I moved over to Rick and poked him in the side.

"Saturday afternoon, 1:00 - OK?"

Rick just grinned at me and nodded. I couldn't wait for the week to go by!

On the way home my parents grilled me about missing the service.

"So what was so important you had to miss the entire service?" my mom inquired.

Before I could answer my dad responded for me.

"C'mon Mary. Let's see... Kelly leaves, Rick leaves, they're both gone for 45 minutes, they both return at the same time, Rick's wearing a shit-eating grin and sometimes my dad gets off having me with my mom or cousin Kristen, but those times are more for his benefit than mine.

Saturday morning arrived bright and early - too early. My "alarm clock" went off promptly at 7:00 AM and I struggled to open my eyes as I felt my dad's cock rubbing up against my lips and cheek. This alarm clock didn't have a snooze button!

"Mornin' baby," my dad greeted me.

I just squinted as my eyes adjusted to being awake and tried to bring the world in focus. God, I was SO tired! It would've been great to just close my eyes again and drop back asleep but my dad obviously needed me. His needs weren't the only thing in my mind though. As tired as the rest of my body was, there was no denying the "need" between my legs that had to be satisfied as well. Whatever it was I'd been dreaming about before my dad woke me, it must've been really hot because my pussy was already wet and ready to go, even if the rest of me was still numb.

"My, tired this morning, aren't we," my dad observed. "Well, just lay back then."

Gratefully, I did as he said. Of course, that didn't mean he was leaving me. As much as my dad loved me sucking his dick, I knew what his top priority was - fucking me. If I was asleep, that was OK with him. It was my pussy he wanted, not my inspiring conversation. Not that I minded!

My dad climbed in bed with me and spread my legs apart so he could lay between them. I felt his warm breath against my face as he lowered himself down to his elbows, keeping most of his weight off of me but pressing down enough to feel my boobs against his chest. The hair on his chest tickled me and my nipples responded. Then I felt the unmistakable feeling of his hard cock rubbing against my bare pussy and stomach. Even with my eyes closed I could imagine seeing it drawing down along my pussy and then pushing back up against, working its way between my wet pussy lips and then the shaft of it sliding over my clit, like a bow drawn over a taut violin string. It may not have created any music for my ears but it was music to my soul nonetheless.

"Oh daddy, I love you so much," I whispered in his ear as he buried his face against the side of my neck above my shoulder and started to kiss and lick me. He hadn't shaved yet and the rough feel of his morning beard scraped against me but yet somehow it felt good.

I felt his shift his weight to position his dick lower such that the head was now pushing up between my legs, desperately seeking the entrance to my pussy. Without using his hands, he rubbed it up and down until it worked its way through my pussy lips and nestled in up against my pussy hole. Another push and he would be in me but he held himself there for a while, as if savoring the moment like a diver at the edge of a cliff before committing himself.

"Fuck me daddy," I whispered to him, "I want to show you how much I love you."

Of course he would have done it whether I asked him to or not but I knew he liked hearing me ask and it made me feel good inside to offer myself to him in that way. He had fucked me a half dozen times in the last week and over the years I would not even begin to guess how many times we'd had sex yet every time I felt the same way at this moment. It was at this moment when a decision was made by both of us as to whether or not my father would fuck his daughter. No matter how many times he did me, there was always this little feeling I would get at this moment when I wondered if he would really do it again, if the dream would continue. I dreaded to think that there might be a day when he did NOT choose to fuck me.

"Oh baby, yes," he groaned softly in my ear as I felt his hips thrust downward, driving his cock into my pussy.

There was that initial feeling of resistance, when it seemed impossible that my tight pussy would ever absorb such an invader, then quickly followed by the most intense pleasure as my pussy filled with his cock.

"Oh daddy, that feel so good! I love feeling you inside of me... DEEP inside of me."

I still had my eyes close with my arms raised over my head. My legs were just sprawled out on my bed, spread-eagled for my dad. In effect, I was just lying there letting him violate me and fuck me however he wanted. It felt wonderful to submit to him and be controlled by him, something I could never do with any other man as I couldn't trust anyone else the same way I trusted my father, at least not yet.

I never knew when we would start out like this exactly how my dad would fuck me. Sometimes he went hard and fast, going for his orgasm as quickly as possible, like chugging a beer. Then there were times like now when he could be slow and gentle, taking his time before he came, like savoring a fine wine. Usually that also meant multiple positions but not today as he just stayed on top of me. Sometimes instead of stroking in and out he would push himself deep in me and then rotate his hips, causing his dick to move around in me to stimulate my pussy in a different way.

It really didn't matter to me so much HOW my dad fucked me, but just that he DID. As tired as I was this morning, feeling my dad in me, being joined together with him, was something I would never turn down.

My dad started stroking faster and groaning louder which obviously meant one thing - he was getting ready to cum. Soon my intuition was proven correct.

"Oh god, this feels so damn good!" he groaned as the last of his incestuous sperm was left in me.

Once he had cum we just laid there for a while with his spent cock in me. It felt so natural, so perfect. Neither of us moved other than the periodic throbbing of his dwindling cock inside my pussy. Personally, I could have stayed like this all morning. What a better way to start the day than to have my dad on top of me with his cock up inside my pussy, joined together with him all morning as a father can experience only with his daughter.

6. Saturday Morning - Masturbating After My Dad Fucks Me

Suddenly I opened my eyes and was startled to find myself all alone in bed. I knew that I hadn't been dreaming and so I must have fallen back asleep. I wondered how long he had remained in me once he realized I was sleeping? Usually it was the other way around in that he was trying to fuck me while I was asleep without waking me. It just went to show how considerate my dad was of me that he had been so careful not to wake me up when he left my bed.

My pussy was throbbing and when I put my hand between my legs I knew for sure it hadn't been a dream from the messy mixture of his cum and my pussy juices that had been draining from me. I could only imagine what the sheet looked like under me. As I pressed my fingers against me I recalled how good his incestuous cock had felt in me just a little bit before. Then I remembered what today was! My goodness, assuming everything went off as planned, in just a matter of hours my cousin Tammy was going to feel that same cock in her!

One good thing about incest, at least for me, is that there is never a problem with jealousy. Oh sure there are times when I wish my dad would fuck me instead of my cousins or even my mom, but that was just me wanting my dad's attention more than being jealous per se. I think it helped being his only daughter as well since there was sister to "compete" with me for his fatherly attention. No matter how he

7. Saturday Afternoon - My Dad Finally Gets Tammy

The three of us eventually made our way to the basement family room where my dad turned on some golfing show on the TV while my mom read her latest romance novel. As for me, I curled up on the couch and fell back asleep again until I was awakened by the doorbell.

"Kelly, why don't you go let them in?" my mom asked me.

Instantly awake and fully alert, I nodded and ran upstairs to open the front door where I saw Tammy and Rick standing. My heart skipped a beat as I realized they'd actually made it! For some reason all week there had been this nagging doubt in the back of my mind that something was going to happen where they wouldn't make it but such doubts were now laid to rest.

"Hey guys, come on in!" I greeted them.

Tammy was dressed in a cute pair of denim cutoffs and a tight pink plain cami. Her little boobs were clearly outlined underneath and her ass was half hanging out from the tight shorts that barely concealed anything. I wondered if she had left the house that way or changed on the way over. I couldn't imagine her mother letting her wear anything close to it. Rick was also wearing shorts but his came down past his knees. He had a dark blue tank top on as well but it was baggy and hung on him like it was several sizes too big. It was interesting to see how similar types of clothing could be worn so differently by a boy and a girl.

"Hi Kelly," Tammy said softly as she entered the house and went by me as I held open the door. It was almost like she was being shy but then shy girls don't show up at their relative's home dressed like a slut with the intention of fucking their uncle!

"Hey Kelly," my cousin Rick greeted me, grabbing my ass under my t-shirt. Well, HE certainly wasn't being shy about anything as his hand squeezed my bare ass.

"Ahhhhhh, someone forgot her panties again I see," he teased me.

I swatted his hand away playfully. He looked good, hot actually. For a moment I felt like taking him to my room and letting him do me instead of my mom. Better judgment kept me from doing so but it WAS tempting.

Turning to Tammy, I reached down and gave her a hug. Even though she was almost fifteen, she was still barely five feet tall and some people might have mistaken her for being closer to twelve or thirteen. It seemed to run in my family. My cousin Kristen was always complaining that people thought she was still in high school instead of having already finished two years of college. Although I wasn't as youthful looking, my body development certainly lagged behind most girls. Anyone who says girls mature earlier than boys should have seen me stuffing a bra when I was seventeen!

"Mmmmmmm, I'm so glad you made it today," I told her, feeling her hug me in return.

Tammy looked at Rick with a frown and the way his eyes narrowed I had a feeling there was something going on between the two of them that I didn't want to know about. Having never had a brother or sister, I lacked experience in such sibling interactions but even so, something told me that it hadn't been as easy as Rick just inviting his sister to come along.

Hoping to avoid getting off the on the wrong foot, I quickly led Tammy and Rick downstairs to where my parents were still planted in their chairs. Based on the discussions I'd had with my mom earlier in the week, it surprised me to find them exactly where I'd left them instead of upstairs in the bedrooms.

"Hi, how you guys doing?" my dad greeted them, breaking what was starting to be an awkward silence.

It wasn't like this was a normal thing for us to do. Typically, whenever we had sex it was usually the outcome of something else that led up to it rather than making it a stated intention from the outset. Of course Rick's "yard work" visits were pretty obvious that was something unique between him and my mom. I couldn't think of a single time that my cousin Kristen had come over JUST to be fucked by my dad. Now with her mom... well that was a different story but things were different there. As for me, I had never gone over to my cousin's house just for sex and the few times my uncle had fucked me had been as much a surprise to me as anything else.

"Hi Uncle John, Aunt Mary," Rick replied. Tammy just nodded along with him, not having said a word yet since she'd arrived.

At this moment I wasn't sure WHAT to do. It was completely ad lib from this point forward as I'd never been in this sort of predicament before. It all started with the intent of getting my dad an opportunity to fuck his little niece but now it seemed to have morphed into something entirely different - exactly what, I still wasn't sure at this point.

"Why don't you come over here and sit on my lap, Tammy," my dad offered, waving her over like a Santa Claus at the mall. The only difference was Santa didn't sport a hard-on under his suit - or at least not so anybody noticed.

Once again she looked at her brother but it was so fast that if I hadn't been looking for it I would have missed it. Whatever it was she put on a smile and walked over to my dad's chair and climbed on board. My dad was wearing a pair of shorts and a t-shirt and probably little else if I knew him. Normally he wore underwear but when he was pretty sure he would be getting some he left them off to make things easier. Tammy sat sideways in his lap, her thin, coltish legs draped over the arm of the chair, leaning back against her uncle's strong arm that he easily wrapped around her tiny body.

With Tammy in place I took my usual spot on the couch, feeling pretty useless and not just a little bit out of place. For a moment I considered leaving the room and letting them get on with it without me acting as a spectator but my own horniness vetoed the idea. I hadn't seen my dad fuck Tammy since that fateful weekend last summer when he took her virginity and I would be dang if I was going to miss it now!

That left Rick standing alone in the middle of the room. Rick was almost nineteen and he did what most any nineteen year-old horny boy would do in this situation - he walked over to my mom's chair and took a position to one side of her and promptly started to undo his pants.

"Whoa young man, you in a hurry or something?" my mom exclaimed, pretending to be surprised at her nephew's boldness. With Rick, it would have been more surprising had he done anything else. It wasn't like he needed to seduce my mom or work for it - he KNEW what he was there for and he KNEW what my mom wanted him to do to her so why bother playing around pretending otherwise?

"Here, get on the other side then," she instructed him. I realized she was positioning him on the other side so that my dad could see what was going on from his chair. My dad must have appreciated it as seeing his wife suck his nephew's hard cock would have to be a lot better than looking at the boy's bare ass.

Rick shuffled around, trying to hold up his pants as he went around her chair and leaned up against the arm. He let go of his shorts and they dropped to the floor, leaving him standing in his white Hanes underwear. The tight jockey shorts were having a hard time constraining the erection hiding beneath them and his cock head was starting to peek out over the elastic waist band.

her hands so she wouldn't fall backwards but letting her lay almost parallel to the floor. Her feet slipped up and went up over his shoulders such that she was practically laying on top of him with my dad's cock bent forward, still imbedded in her. Tammy humped her hips, providing the motion to move his cock around in her pussy.

It was interesting to me as he had never done that with me. In all fairness, I would have been a lot heavier to hold up like he was doing to her but still, he hadn't even tried. Oh well, I guess it was like anal. My dad knew I never wanted to do it and like a good father, he respected my wishes and didn't even try to convince me otherwise. One chance at my best friend Beth, though, and he was up her ass in a heartbeat!

Even Tammy, as little as she was, must have been tough on his arm muscles as after a few minutes he pulled her up and had he lift her legs higher. Then he twisted her around and she spun on his cock like a nut on a screw until she had turned completely in the opposite direction. Not a bad move! Then he was able to let her lay back against his chest, her legs having to the side of his as his dick naturally curved to fit into her little pussy.

Seeing her outstretched over my dad, laying still at first savoring the feel of him in her, the thought came to my mind that it was a wonderful opportunity to lick her pussy while he was fucking her. It was the perfect position, her clit was exposed and his dick glistened in the low light of the family room as he thrust his hips upward to drive himself in her, and then relaxed to let it pull out about halfway.

"Where do you want it Aunt Mary?"

My eyes went back to my mom and Rick, who was evidently about to cum again. I knew what MY answer would have been but then with my mom, you never knew. Just as she had taken his first load on her boobs, something I would have preferred NOT to have done, maybe she wanted his next to be somewhere else. So far as I was concerned, though, if a guy's fucking my pussy then he damn well better cum in my pussy!

"All over me... cover me with cum!"

Sure enough, dear old mom was playing the part of a cum slut tonight. Her boobs already had one load of cum dried on them so I guess she figured what did it hurt to have a little more?

"Almost there!"

"John! What the hell?"

Don't worry, I'll cum in just a second," he interrupted her, deflecting her questioning tone.

Again, I thought to myself that my dad had never fucked ME while I sat on my mom's lap! I recalled how some of my friends use to complain that their younger sister got to do so many things they never did. Was this sort of the same situation?

Tammy leaned back against my mom, her eyes closed and her mouth open as she seemed to be in like a dreamlike state. Her head rolled from side to side as my dad's cock plunged into his niece's little pussy time after time. My mom put her arms around her as if she was hugging her to keep her from falling to one side or the other.

"Now is THAT hot or what?" Rick said to me, having worked his way over to me without me even noticing.

Rick was standing to the side of me, stroking his cock which, of course, was nice and hard. Did the guy EVER go soft after sex? It was like he was some sort of machine - a fucking machine.

"God, I wish MY mom would get into this. Could you imagine my dad fucking Tammy like that while she sat on my mom's lap?"

I glanced up at Rick, not sure if he was joking or being serious. From the way he was staring at my parents and his sister, jerking away on his cock, I had to conclude he was horny as hell and speaking what was really on his mind. I had to admit, it would have been pretty hot but then again, we may as well wish to win the lottery as we had a better chance at that than my Aunt Shari ever even thinking about such a thing. I think she would rather die than ever take part in something like this. It was a shame. It's not that she was all that great looking but that wasn't what mattered. She was their mom and in an incestual relationship, THAT was what counted.

"I bet you'd like to fuck your mom, wouldn't you?" I asked Rick.

It was a shot in the dark, something we'd never discussed before, not even jokingly. It was a sign of how horny he was that he answered without even seeming to think about it.

"Fuck yeah, I'd love to screw her."

Well, not exactly a romantic reply but undoubtedly more truthful than some flowery statement. Then again, I doubt there were too many women I could've named at that moment who he WOULDN'T have wanted to fuck!

"Give it to me," was all I said.

I opened my mouth and Rick grabbed me by the back of my head and pulled my face towards his engorged dick. My hands were at my side, keeping my balance on the couch as he stroked himself a couple more times with his cock just inside of my mouth.

"Shit!" he cried out as I felt the first load hit the back of my mouth.

Another load followed almost immediately which a few more close behind. Mmmmmmm, it tasted incredible! When he finished I opened my mouth for him in the classic porn movie style, showing him his cum that was now pooled on my tongue and trying to drip back into my throat.

"Swallow it," he insisted.

I was going to do it anyway so I gulped it all down in two swallows and opened my mouth again, like a child showing her mother she had swallowed her medicine.

As I finished I turned in time to see my dad pulling out of Tammy, leaving her with her legs spread wide open on my mom's lap. Her well-fucked pussy LOOKED like it had just been fucked, especially with his cum starting to drip out of her. My mom used one finger to get a sample which she promptly tasted and smiled, like it was a good vintage wince.

"God I want to fuck her,: Rick groaned. His cock had diminished a LITTLE but I had no doubt a few strokes or licks and it would be ready for action again.

"Who?" I asked, not really sure who we was referring to.

"My sister... shit, look at her," he said with a voice filled with lust. He started to move towards my mom and Tammy while my dad collapsed in his chair, exhausted from his recent efforts.

"No Rick," Tammy said firmly, not even opening her eyes but knowing what was on his mind.

"Oh c'mon sis," he begged.

"You promised...," she started to say, and then stopped in mid-sentence as if she didn't want to say any more. Yet again I had this feeling I didn't know everything that was going on but then that was between them and she hadn't asked for my opinion.

"Besides, we better get home before Mom wonders what we're doing," she reminded him.

She seemed all business now which was totally incongruous with the image in front of me. If I had taken a photo of her now and shown it to someone, they would didn't turn down my pussy when it was offered and when he was horny, it wasn't hard to manipulate him.

I laid back on the couch and thought about what Rick had said about his mom. Too bad there wasn't some way she couldn't get involved. It was so hard having to always hide things from her and I was afraid that someday she was going to find out anyway. Oh well, THAT was never going to happen but it didn't make it any less fun to fantasize about.

The water in the pipes got noisy meaning the shower must have running. I could imagine my parents having fun together and I smiled. Even as a child it made me feel secure knowing my parents loved each other so much. With so many divorces and dysfunctional marriages today, I felt lucky to have the family I was blessed with.

Were they talking about Tammy? When would my dad get to fuck her again. In some ways I wondered IF he would fuck her again the way she had acted today. Oh well, it gave me something to think about as finally I succumbed and started masturbating.

John - my dad (42)
Kristen - cousin (20)

What do you do on Father's Day for the greatest dad in the world (besides a "Greatest Dad" coffee mug)? Every year I struggle with this but this year things worked themselves out on their own.

1. A Day on the Lake

When I was ten or so, Father's Day was easy. A silly tie, a hand-made card, Greatest Dad coffee mug, and everything was taken care of. Now that I'm twenty-two and a recent college graduate, it's not so easy. The past few years I've tried to come up with something new and original but like Christmas presents, it gets harder every year. Of course he says I don't need to get him anything, that he's happy just being my dad; but I see the look in his eyes when I do something special for him and that makes it all worth it.

Now that I've graduated, I'm living at home for the time being, at least until I get a job that pays enough for my own place although from the looks of things, that may take a while. The good news, at least so far as my dad is concerned, is that he can have me just about any time he wants me. The bad news, at least when it comes to doing something special Father's Day, is that he can have me just about any time he wants me. I mean, your basic wake-up blowjob just doesn't make the grade as a "surprise" when it's something he can have any other day as well.

So here I was, just a day before Father's Day, and all I had was a silly card for him and not even a new coffee mug. Since we were planning to go to the lake for the day, it didn't look like I was going to have any opportunity to get out and shop for anything else leaving me in quandary.

The lake I referred to is at a state park in West Virginia where we go to boat and ski. I suck at most athletic endeavors, to put it bluntly, but I CAN water ski pretty damn good. My parents started me out when I was only six so I've been doing it for quite a while now. These days, it seems most people aren't willing to put in the time and effort to learn and so instead they just ride a tube. Not me. I love getting up on my slalom ski and showing off. If course, a sport where you can wear a thong and nothing on top but a life jacket can't be all that bad no matter how good you are!

We were supposed to have left for the lake before lunch since it takes over an hour to get there. Unfortunately, my favorite cousin was late as usual. Kristen, who was twenty and soon to be a college junior, was like the sister I never had. We did everything together and it wasn't unusual for her to tag along wherever we went. It certainly didn't hurt that her petite figure was stunning - and she knew it. Kristen was the biggest slut in school with an insatiable sex drive. I guess it goes without saying that those qualities have made her my dad's favorite niece. As such, he usually looks the other way when it comes to putting up with her quirks, one of which was a tendency to ALWAYS be late.

So here we were, noon time now past, and still no Kristen. I finally called her to see what the hold-up was only to be reassured that she was on her way. Eventually she showed up, wearing just her small bikini top and a pair of ridiculously short denim cutoffs. She ran down the driveway to greet my dad, jumping in his arms and wrapping her already tanned legs tightly around him. His hands immediately grabbed her little ass and he held her up as she kissed him hello.

"Sorry I'm late Uncle John," she giggled, "Can you forgive me?"

I couldn't help but grin at the way she worked him - typical Kristen. She was every older man's dream or should I say wet dream. Having turned twenty a month ago, she was plenty old enough to legally fuck but she looked more like she was sixteen or seventeen. Kristen was well aware of her "assets" and she exploited them to the fullest, just as she was now doing with my dad. His hands clenched her cute little butt, which was half exposed given the cut of her shorts, and what could he do but grin at her?

"C'mon you two, plenty of time for that later!" my mom called out from the deck above the driveway. "Let's get going before the whole day is shot."

The rest of the day went pretty much as I would've expected. The weather was incredible and the water was already warming up for the summer. Evidently a lot of other people had the same idea for the weekend as we did as the entire state park was jammed with people everywhere. It took over an hour of waiting in line just to get our boat launched!

By the time we finally got out of the water at the end of the day, it was getting late and everyone was tired from the hot sun and skiing. My mom suggested we get something to eat and spend the night instead of trying to drive home. We could then hit the lake again in the morning before going home for the Father's Day party my aunt and uncle were having in the afternoon. My dad looked relieved as I don't think he was looking forward to driving home.

Eating wasn't an issue but we hadn't realized just how hard it would be to find a place to stay. In the past, we had booked one of the cabins in the park. On such short notice, none were available so we drove around looking for a hotel with a vacancy and found it surprisingly hard to find one. Eventually we came across a Holiday Inn which advertised a vacancy. We all went in to check in and I listened as my dad asked for one room with a king-size bed. The clerk, an older woman that I would have guessed to be on her forties, looked at the four of us and suggested a roll-away. The look on her face when my dad told her that one wouldn't be necessary was priceless! It probably didn't help that Kristen was rubbing herself up against me, knowing full well she was watching us. When we left I looked back and saw her staring at us and whispering to the other clerk. I can just imagine what was going through her mind!

Fortunately, my mom is the type that is ALWAYS prepared so she had packed some minimum toiletries and stuff just in case something like this happened. That one small bag was the sum of our luggage so we just headed straight to our room for the night. My dad closed and locked the door and then flopped on the bed with a big sigh.

"Too much today dad?" I asked, concerned that he looked so tired.

"I'm OK," he replied, "You girls just wore me out!"

I laughed and snuggled up next to him and put my hand in his lap.

"Well... you know we can always do it again," I said seductively.

"God Almighty, didn't you get enough today? I'm only one man!" he moaned. My cousin jumped on the bed on the other side of him and added her hand to mine.

"Oh Uncle John, you know better than THAT!" she giggled, "A girl can NEVER get enough."

"OK you two, I think you wore him out plenty already today out on the boat so leave my man alone," my mom chimed in as she walked out of the bathroom and saw what was happening.

We both pretended to pout although I can't say I was pretending ALL that much. Sure my dad had fucked the two of us a couple of times today, cumming in me the first time and then spraying it all over Kristen the next. That said, I could've easily done with another good fucking and I had no daughter Kristen wouldn't say no (is that word even in her vocabulary?).

Ever since the first time he did me way back when I was sixteen, I've loved giving myself to my dad. Even though I'd been with a number of boys already since my first time back when I was fourteen, I knew from our very first time that there was something quite special about having sex with your father. Whatever it was, it was something that no boy have ever given me or has since.

My thoughts drifted to when my dad came in me earlier today out on the lake. Just like every time he does me, I recalled having the most incredible physical and emotional response but with a distinct sense of love and security that was unique to having sex with him. It didn't matter at the time that my mom and Kristen were watching; he was mine at that moment and he was giving all of himself to me - literally as well as emotionally.

"It's time for the old folks to get some sleep. You two can watch TV or whatever," my mom said, helping my dad undress. He must have gotten more sun than he thought as his shoulders seemed pretty red and he looked really tired.

2. Watching Porn With Kristen

My parents stripped and crawled in bed together while Kristen and I fought over the remote. She wanted to check out the adult channels but that really didn't interest me. We debated heading over to the pool until we found out that for some ridiculous reason, it had closed at 8PM. I finally relented and handed her the remote. She promptly switched to the sex movie selection and I was amazed at the number of movies available in your hotel room. God, what if parents fell asleep and their young kids started to check things out! It wasn't just soft porn either - it had full penetration and all!

It's not that I've never seen the stuff before. My dad has a rather fine collection himself and he enjoys watching it. Sometimes I will be around but generally I just ignore it although I will admit to having picked up a few pointers from the whores in them! I can't ever recall a time, though, when I was home alone and chose to delve into his stash and get myself off from it. To me, watching porn is boring. The actors are being paid to have sex and there is no sense of emotion or connection between the people. All the scenarios are staged with whores - c'mon, you don't REALLY believe they just go out and pick up girls from the street? Really, what's the point of it all?

Kristen, on the other hand, seemed to really get off from it. We started with one where this guy with an enormous cock was drilling a so-called "first time amateur" (yeah, first time today maybe). I had to admit, it WAS one hell of a dick. Yet for me, it was just "interesting", not erotic. It makes me feel a lot hornier to have an average guy cam for me and jerk off to a picture of me or someone in my family than to watch this freak of nature fuck a girl who was pretending to be shy and naive.

Kristen was masturbating from the moment the first cock got on the screen and she encouraged me to join in but it just wasn't doing it for me. After a while, she huffed and changed to another movie that featured girl-girl action. My same complaint about staged scenes applied, though, and I was getting restless.

"C'mon Kelly, doesn't this turn you on at least a LITTLE bit?" Kristen pressed.

I just shrugged my shoulders and laid back on the opposite arm of the couch we were sitting on. Regardless of the movie, I WAS horny and so I started to masturbate but thinking more about what we had done this afternoon than the scene on the TV screen.

"I know... let's try doing what they're doing!" Kristen offered. I looked at her with my eyes narrowed, not quite catching her drift.

"God, do I have to explain everything?" she huffed. "Look, I'll be the blonde and you be the brunette. See how the blonde's eating the brunette's pussy?"

I nodded, THAT much was pretty obvious. Kristen grinned and kneeled on the couch, looking at me on all fours.

"Well?" she quizzed me, "Are you going to spread them or what?"

Call me dense or whatever, but I finally got what she was talking about. Sure enough, the brunette was perched against the headboard with the blonde's face planted in her pussy. Well, this may not be so bad after all!

We watched the entire movie, mimicking as many of the moves as we could. Of course it felt good, that would be hard NOT to do with Kristen's tongue all over me. At the same time, it didn't really satisfy my "needs" as it seemed we were always under pressure to keep an eye on the TV and then switch to what they were doing whether I really wanted to or not. I guess a career in porn movies is not in my future!

When the movie was finally over we each took a position on opposite ends of the couch and with the TV and the lights off, we masturbated in the dark. There was just enough light from the edges of the curtains to let me see her outline across from me but I didn't need to see her to know what was happening. Kristen was a definite "moaner" when it came to masturbating and she must have been especially horny tonight from the sounds of things. My parents must have been super tired as they never even stirred the whole time.

It was past midnight before we joined my parents in bed. In the dark I could barely make out my dad with his arms wrapped around my mom and her head buried in his chest. Kristen and I took up residence on the remaining portion of the bed. She laid down on her side on the inside portion, facing my parents, while I snuggled up behind her in a spooning position with my arms around her nude little body. God her naked body felt so good against mine! We fell asleep almost immediately with my boobs pressed against her back as my pussy tingled with the memory of her incredible tongue.

3. Getting the Morning Off to a Good Start

It was just an illusion but morning seemed to arrive earlier than usual with me being the first to wake up. Apparently Kristen and I hadn't moved the entire night as we were in the same position I last remembered. My mom was laying curled up I a fetal position next to my dad who was flat on his back, snoring loudly. How she could sleep right next to him when he was doing that never ceased to astonish me. I guess when you get to be 42 those things happen to you and my mom had just grown accustomed to it over the years, like people who live next to railroad tracks learn to ignore the trains. By the way, the way he was snoring, that's a pretty good analogy!

I had no option but to get up to pee. Must have been all the Diet Coke I drank the night before. When I came back, even while I was rubbing the sleep from my eyes I couldn't help but take a look at my nude father as he laid stretched out in front of me with nothing to cover him. As usual, my mom had hogged all the covers. Naturally he's not in the same shape as he was twenty years ago, but he still looks pretty good for an old guy!

Needless to say, what caught my eye was his limp dick laying over to the side on top of the thick bush of pubic hair that covered his crotch. So far as I knew, he had never trimmed it and I licked my lips as I recalled how I loved to run my fingers through it and curl it around my fingertips.

Kristen was started to stir but for the moment, I was more interested in my dad. The thought occurred to me that it was now officially Father's Day and even though a wakeup BJ was a little cliche, I didn't see what harm it could do. Kristen turned over to see what I was doing, yawning and stretching as she tried to wake up. Her blonde hair was disheveled and her eyes were puffy with sleep but she still looked positively yummy. I put my finger to my lips, signaling her to keep quiet and she grinned as she instantly caught on to my intentions.

I carefully moved to the side of the bed and reached over to grab my dad's soft dick with my hand. Truth be known, it wasn't that often I got to touch him when he was this flaccid! Usually by the time I got my hand in his pants he was already ahead of me and getting hard. As much as I LOVE a nice hard dick, there's just something fascinating about them when they are soft and limp. It's hard to imagine that they can grow into such wonderful erections! My dad's seemed so small when it was like this but I knew the promise that it held.

Kristen was up on her elbow now, peering over my sleeping mom to keep an eye on what I was doing. She caught my eye and grinned; for once having the common sense to stay out of what I was doing, at least for the time being. There would be plenty for her later but for now, it was all mine.

I bent over him further until I was able to take his wonderful cock in my mouth. It felt strange to have such a limp dick in my mouth as usually most guys I sucked were getting hard long before I got it between my lips. I pulled on it gently to stretch it out, then let it sink back down again while I sucked on it gently. My heart fluttered as I felt it begin to react to my mouth, the first pulse of his heartbeat as his cock began to fill and harden. At first it was hardly noticeable but after a few minutes there was an unmistakable increase, particularly in the thickness of his dick. At this point I could easily take it all in my mouth, burying my face into the thick growth of smelly pubic hair that surrounded it.

Under the circumstances, it took all my willpower not to really suck on it hard but at the same time I was trying to not wake him. My goal in this type of situation is to see how far I can get him before he wakes up and discovers what I have been doing to him. After all, turnabout is fair play. There have been plenty of mornings when I was sound asleep in my bed and he would slip behind me, trying to fuck me without waking me. Almost every time I would wake before he penetrated me but there have been a few times over the years when he was able to get himself all the way in me, a couple of times even fucking me for a while before I returned to the living. For whatever reason it's incredibly erotic for me to wake up and discover a guy inside of me. It makes me feel sexy to think about what he might have been doing to me while I'm essentially unconscious and totally at his mercy!

Kristen was starting to get going herself as she watched my dad's dick harden in my mouth. I took it out for a moment and stroked it with my hand as I watched her starting to play with herself, her eyes fixed on my dad's ever enlarging dick. My hand slowly rotated on it as I moved it up and down, like his dick was threaded and my hand was a nut being turned around it. It was so warm and I could feel it pulsing in my palm as my fingertips played over the tip of his head. I couldn't help but feel a little pride inside of me as I knew it must have been killing her to have to watch me play with it and suck it!

With the show for Kristen over, I leaned back over again and took him back in my mouth, losing sight of Kristen with my mom between us. My mom hadn't moved a muscle since I started on my dad but with he being completely covered I couldn't really see to tell for sure. However, since I knew she would want to be watching if she knew what I was doing, I figured it was pretty good odds that she was still sound asleep.

As I continued to suck my dad's dick I felt the bed move and turned my head towards the foot of the bed to see my cousin had gotten up and was trying to get on the bed next to me without making too much of a fuss. I couldn't help but smile (well, as best as I could with a dick in my mouth) as I had figured it wouldn't be too long before she couldn't hold back anymore. Put Kristen within eyeshot of a hard dick and it was a safe bet where she would be soon. The way things turned out, apparently sucking him was NOT what she had in mind as she straddled my dad's hips, pushing me not so subtletly out of her way.

Despite her aggression, I managed to keep his cock in my mouth and I looked up at her as she settled into place. Her bare pussy was just inches from my face and I could smell the muskiness of my father's crotch below it. God, she had to be horny as hell to be as wet as she was already! Her small breasts dangled above me and I could see her nipples were pointing out, already hard as pencil erasers. I knew what she wanted, though, and since my dad would probably be waking up any second now, I also knew I had better get on with it if we were to do it while he was still asleep.

Taking my dad's now rigid cock in my hand once again, I pointed it up towards Kristen's little cunt. She expertly used her hands to spread herself open as I guided him into her wet little pussy hole. This wasn't her first time doing this by any means so she knew exactly what to do as she wiggled her hips around just enough to settle him in place and then lowered herself onto him. It is always an incredible sight to see my dad's cock disappear inside of her and even more so now as he continued to snore away! I couldn't help but wonder what he was dreaming about. Did he have any idea, at even the subconscious level, of what was being done to him?

Kristen didn't stop lowering herself down until my dad's cock was completely buried inside of her. It looked a little odd to see all of his thick pubic hair around her bald pussy, as if she had suddenly sprouted a wealth of black curly crotch hair. As my cousin settled in on top of him, she couldn't help but moan and I saw the covers over my mother start to stir. Sure enough, they soon were pulled back and the sleepy face of my mom poked out.

"What the hell?" she groaned sleepily, "Dear god, don't tell me you girls are at it already!"

If there's one thing I can say about my mom, it's that she is definitely NOT a morning person, especially when it comes to sex. On the other hand, while I'm not exactly what you would call a morning person when it comes to getting up and going to class or whatever, for some reason as a rule I am always the horniest when I first wake up. Maybe it has something to do with my dreams, I don't know.

All I DO know is that unless I have to REALLY pee, the first thing I do every morning before getting out of bed it to masturbate. Many times, even if I get fucked first thing in the morning, I STILL masturbate. It may be all in my head but if I don't, then for the rest of the morning I can't concentrate or focus on much of anything else other than the "need" between my legs. Once I get myself off I have no problem going back and spending the rest of the morning in bed as I would classify myself much more as a "night person" when it comes to my overall lifestyle.

Actually, this difference between my mom and me works out pretty well for us. When my dad makes a morning visit to my bedroom before he leaves for work, she just sleeps in and enjoys the quiet. Don't get me wrong, it doesn't mean she just ignores whatever is happening to her husband, especially when it's going on right next to her. Like now, she just gets this "I can't believe this" look on her face.

With all the commotion, my dad would've had to be unconscious not to recognize something was going on and sure enough, after a couple of loud snorts, his eyes opened to little slits. He started to move but soon realized that with his niece planted on his cock he wasn't going anywhere too easily, even if she did weigh less than half he did. I reached up and kissed him on the cheek (give me a break - this isn't the movies where morning breath doesn't exist!).

"Happy Father's Day daddy!" I whispered to him, "Like your present?"

From the look in his eyes I could see he was still mostly out of it. That didn't deter Kristen, who must have figured since he was awake there was no sense being subtle anymore and so she started to rapidly rise and fall on his stiff dick. Obviously, it got a reaction from him!

"God damn, now THIS is a wakeup call!" he whispered in a voice hoarse from sleep.

We all laughed, even my mom. Then, out of the corner of my eye, I was a bit surprised to see some movement under the covers that looked suspiciously like she was playing with herself. It was pretty unusual to see her masturbate before noon, no matter what was going on around her, so this was one for the record books (or at least my diary). I didn't say anything to her and pretended not to notice but it made me feel good to know she was getting turned on seeing her niece cousin riding her husband like she was in some sort of rodeo.

Taking a breather, Kristen leaned down and kissed my dad on the other cheek. As she did, her perky boobs grazed the hair covering his chest and I saw her wiggle to run it over her sensitive boobs and nipples. I couldn't blame her as I enjoyed doing exactly the same thing when I rode my dad. His abundant chest hair was soft and fuzzy, unlike the more stiff pubic hair that covered his crotch. It was like running a feather duster over your boobs! As she leaned forward, his cock drew out of her pussy and I moved behind her to get a better view.

With my front row seat I watching as my dad's dick slid in and out of her sweet little pussy as she humped her ass up and down while at the same time leaning over him to allow him to suck her boobs. It wasn't long before it got to me and my hand began to rub my own pussy wishing he was in me instead. Well, for the moment she could have him but I knew it wasn't going to be long before a finger up my pussy just wasn't going to be enough. Damn, my pussy was practically wetting the bed as I gazed at his cock which was now coated with my cousin's pussy juices as it slid in and out of her tight little cunt.

My dad's hands gripped Kristen's tight ass cheeks and pulled them apart as he squeezed them. Her asshole was in plain view and I watched him play with it with his fingers as she humped him. Normally, anal sex is NOT a turn-on for me but Kristen's ass was so incredibly cute and smooth for once I couldn't take my eyes off of it. Her asshole was pink and tight, without any sign of stain or even darkness in skin tone around it.

Suddenly I had an idea - a positively naughty one at that! Crawling up on the bed between his legs, I licked my fingers and then reached out and pressed my index finger to the entrance of her asshole. Slowly but surely I started to put pressure on it but she was so incredibly tight it wouldn't go in! Damn, how did she even take a shit with an asshole this tight? Finally I found the right method and my finger slid in up to the first knuckle.

"Oh wow Uncle John!" I heard her groan, obviously thinking my dad was doing it to her. I pushed a little harder, this time getting my finger in until it was up to the next knuckle. She pushed back and my finger finally went in all the way. Good lord, I had my finger up my cousin's butt!

Despite my trepidations about playing with my cousin's ass, Kristen seemed to be enjoying it. She stayed bent over and just used her hips to lift up and down on my dad's cock while my finger just stuck in her asshole like it was a cork.

"Ummmmm, Kelly?" she questioned as she looked back and realized who's finger was in her, "Oh Kelly, you naughty girl!" she teased me as she turned her head away again. She wiggled her ass a little extra, obviously for my benefit (and hers as it turned out as well).

A few minutes of this was more than enough for me as the whole thing was starting to freak me out. I pulled my finger out and even though it looked clean, I immediately ran to the bathroom to wash my hands - with LOTS of soap and water. Well, I tried but there is just something about the whole anal thing that makes me shiver - and not with delight.

When I came back, Kristen was rocking slowly on him but now sitting upright once again with his hands on her boobs. They were small enough he could cup them in his hands and cover them like a human bra, which would be about as close to any bra those boobs ever saw. Well, enough was enough. He was MY dad. This was Father's Day, not Uncle's Day, and thus he should be fucking ME!

"OK cuz, my turn," I said gently, trying not to be too pushy but the tone in my voice should have been unmistakable.

"Ahhhhhh, c'mon Kelly, just a little longer," she whined, about the exact response I get when I baby-sit and the kid is being told it was bedtime.

"Kristen!" I said, a little more sternly this time. Again, it was like when I babysat and had to tell the kid yet again it was time for bed. I used the same tone of voice and Kristen just looked at me and stuck her tongue out. Dang it, she was being such an annoying little tramp!

"Mom!"

It was my turn to do the whining and who better to complain to but my mom. Fortunately, she took my side this morning.

"Kristen baby, why don't you let him fuck Kelly for a while now.. it IS Father's Day you know."

I looked at her with triumph in my face and she just frowned but she did lift off his dick and it flopped all wet to his stomach where it laid there waiting for my pussy. I wasn't going to let it stay cold for long as my pussy was hot and ready to warm it back up again. My cousin had been riding him for a while now so I figured it was time for something different. I turned my back to him and then laid down in bed alongside of him, pressing my bare ass against his hips. He quickly got the hint and twisted himself over to get in behind me and I felt his hard dick pressing against the small of my back as he put his arm around me and cupped my breasts in his hand.

"Couldn't wait any longer, eh?" he whispered in my ear, "My little slut just had to have her daddy's cock, didn't she?"

It was all part of a game the two of us liked to play. The primary reason we even HAD sex was for HIS pleasure and for me to satisfy him (as any daughter should for her father). As part of that, I knew he loved it when I made it seem like it was me that wanted it more than anything rather than him. He loved to hear me beg him to fuck me and to tell him how much I loved having sex with him.

Now don't get me wrong, it's not that I don't enjoy him fucking me, it's just that when it comes to sex with my dad, it's all about him so far as I am concerned. I mean face it, as a half-way decent looking girl I can get laid in a heartbeat if I'm really horny so I don't NEED my dad to fuck me so far as just sex goes. Think about it... how many men over forty will ever get the chance to fuck a girl half his age? Sure he did me mostly because he loved me but even though he's foremost my dad, he is STILL a man and as such has all the lusts and desires any man would have for a girl like me. The fact that I can satisfy those desires such that he is not tempted by adultery is what makes incest with him so special.

"Oh daddy, I want your hard dick in me so bad," I moaned softly, playing directly to his fragile male ego, "Oh yes daddy, fuck me daddy!" "Hey, why don't you two turn over so we can watch?"

My dad was just reaching down for his cock when my mom cut in and we both let out of groan at the interruption. Rather than debate and waste more time, I jumped out of bed and then climbed back in from the middle as my dad turned over.

On the other side of the bed I noticed my mom and Kristen were laying together, my mom behind Kristen as they nestled their nude bodies together. What I would have given for a camera just then as this was not something I got to see very often. Although my mom grew up playing with her sister from the time they were barely teenagers, she was not exactly what I would call bisexual. Indeed, she was my first woman but then I am her daughter, which put a whole different perspective on the issue compared to making out with one of my friends.

So far as I knew, my mom hadn't into other girls before she got married and even after marriage, although technically oral sex is not an act of adultery, she still never got it on with any of her friends or even a stranger woman. Knowing this, you can understand why seeing her own nude body cuddle up to Kristen, her hand reach over her niece's silky smooth body and down to her wet pussy, was indeed a sight to remember!

I twisted and squirmed until I was on my side, facing my cousin with my mom behind her, looking over her shoulder to see me. I grinned at them both as my dad worked his way back into position again, lifting my upper leg up and over his to expose my hungry pussy to them. He reached around me and grabbed his cock, rubbing it against my pussy slit and clit. A soft main escaped from me as his hard dick head rubbed up against my swollen clit.

"Oh daddy, that feels so good!" I whispered huskily.

"C'mon John, you gonna to fuck her or what?" my mom teased him from the opposite side of the bed. Kristen was squirming a bit now as I saw my mom had one finger bent and in her pussy, slowly stroking it in and out of her.

"Just hold your horses Mary, I'm working on it!" he retorted in the same her he does when she is nagging at him to take out the garbage.

My thoughts about her were interrupted when I gasped as his swollen dick found the mark and his cock head pierced me just enough to get the tip inside of me and maybe half the head. That was followed by another push and then another as he lunged his hips forward, each time driving his dick into me like a pile driver, forcing bad deal when you looked at it - being able to please your dad while at the same time getting laid!

My dad's arm reached under my knee and lifted my leg up in the air, leaving my other leg flat on the bed. This had the combined effect of letting him push just a little bit deeper in me while the improved angle also gave my mom and cousin a better view as well - and they were both watching intently. Kristen was fondling her breasts while my mom was still slowly working her pussy, not enough to distract her from me and my dad, but enough I was sure Kristen was well aware of what she was doing.

My mom's not exactly what you would call tall but Kristen is so petite she looked like a little girl against my mom's nude body. Every now and then she would jerk just a little as my mom would touch her clit or some other sensitive spot. When it comes to making your pussy feel good, either with her mouth or hand, not many women are in my mom's league!

Between my BJ, Kristen playing cowgirl, and now me, my dad was about ready to explode. Actually, I was hoping he would as he was breathing hard and his face was turning red to the point I was starting to worry about him.

"Cum all over her tits!" Kristen encouraged him, "C'mon Uncle Jim, shoot it all over her."

That dang little slut! I turned my head towards her and glared. She grinned mischievously at me and I knew exactly what she was up to. Kristen knew as well as anyone that I'm no fan of being sprayed with cum. In fact, if I had my way the only place a guy would ever cum would be in my pussy or my mouth. Kristen, on the other hand, was a regular little cum slut who seemed to get off on seeing how much of her body she could get coated in cum at any one time. To me, it was just a mess and waste of perfectly good sperm.

"No... cum in my pussy daddy," I said to him, resisting the urge to say something nasty to Kristen. "You know I love it when you give it to me there."

"Ahhhhhh, almost there," he groaned as he began to pump me fast and hard with his dick. I gave Kristen a look of defiance. I knew my dad better than she did, even if he did fuck her all the time when I was at school. Once his dick was planted in me and ready to cum, he wouldn't pull out of me no matter what happened.

"You can do it daddy," I whispered, humping my hips under him. I was starting to feel my own orgasm beginning to gain strength and I knew it just need a match to light it, like a room full of gas needing a spark to explode.

"Give me your cum daddy... mate me... pump your sperm deep in me," I begged, pleading with him no-stop.

"Oh yeah!" he groaned as his back arched and he threw his head back. Then he thrust himself forward in me as hard as he could, driving me backwards into the pillows at the head of the bed as his cock buried itself as deep in me as he could force it. Then he lowered his head and leaned forward, grimacing as he held back as long as he could. Finally, he let out a deep breath and I gasped as I felt his ass thrust even harder into me and the first load of incestuous cum spurted from his cock into his daughter's waiting womb.

As I felt his cum being released in me, fulfilling his innate desire to mate me, it set off my own orgasm and my pussy clamped down on his cock, trying to hold it deep inside of me, trying to keep his sperm as deep in me as possible. The thought of my father taking me, thrusting himself into me, releasing his cum into me in the most intimate form possible, set me off like a bomb had exploded in my pussy.

"OH MY GOD!" I cried out, not caring if the people in the adjoining rooms could hear.

All I cared about at that instant was my dad's dick in me as it pumped one load after another into me. Each time he thrust I felt a warm release deep inside of me and then, just as it was fading away, the next would explode in me. It felt like every fiber of my body was screaming out of control with pure sexual lust. A flood of tears poured down my cheeks as my emotions went completely out of control, confusing the love and happiness that stemmed from his display of love for me with the sadness of it being over already.

"Oh daddy... oh daddy, I love you so much!" I cried out to him, wrapping my legs around him as he completed his delivery and held himself in me, my pussy convulsing around his spent dick as my orgasm raged on.

My world had shrunk down to just me and him as the hotel room and even my mom and cousin faded into the dim background. The only thing that existed, the only thing that I cared about, was being joined with my father, his still hard cock inside of me making us one. My body's thermostat went out of whack as one moment I was burning up and sweating; then the next it felt like I was freezing with goose bumps raising all over me only to be replaced by the sweats again.

His hot breath brushed against my face as he struggle to catch his breath. Finally he just groaned and rolled over on his side, his arms too weak to continue holding himself off of me. I felt his dick slip out of me and my hand immediately cupped my crotch as it felt suddenly cold and empty.

Like a blur, Kristen was up and bent over him, hurrying to suck the cum off her uncle's cock. It was like when a dog has been waiting at your side when you're eating and then gets offered a bone. From the way she was licking and sucking his slowly dwindling cock, I could only imagine how good his dick must taste now that it was covered with a mixture of my pussy juices and his sperm. I poked a finger in my pussy and then put it to my mouth, taking a taste of it for myself. God it tasted so good. I had learned when I started masturbating how good my pussy tasted, especially after an orgasm, and with my dad's sperm as seasoning, it was all the better.

I turned to my mom and she just smiled at me and then she winked, which I took as a sign that I had done good by her. Her approval was a perfect example of what was so wonderful about my mom and dad's marriage. They both loved each other unequivocally and trusted each other so implicitly that she could watch her husband fuck her daughter and be totally comfortable with it. She knew who his true love really was and was confident that no matter how much Kristen and I may address his more base male needs, he would always come back to her for her love.

4. Heading to My Uncle Jim's House

My dad eventually got up to take a shower, leaving the three of us to rest on the bed together. We were all a bit exhausted, even my mom seemed to be tired although I suspected that was as much a holdover from yesterday's activities as anything. Maybe it was a good thing Rick hadn't been able to make it over after all. With my eighteen year-old hunk of a cousin around she would have been a LOT busier yesterday than just driving the boat and watching her husband screw his daughter and niece!

It wasn't until then I noticed the clock and saw it already almost 10AM! Gee whiz, not only we need to check out in an hour, but most of the morning was already shot. My mom and dad debated our options and finally decided we would just have to put off going to the lake again and head home. At least everyone was in better shape than we were last night after a day of sun and boating. Personally, I wouldn't have minded just hanging around the marina for a while, flirting with the boys that today anyway, most likely just our two families. It seemed that since their girls had gotten married and moved away that my Uncle Paul and Aunt Julie didn't come around as often. They only lived a little bit south of us so I didn't know what their real problem was. Dad had never been as close to his older brother as he was to Uncle Jim, probably due to the greater age difference.

My mom's father had died quite a while ago but my dad's parents were both still alive and kicking. Had they been home we probably would have been gathering up at their house which was north quite a ways in Grove City. Thankfully they were off this year on some Alaskan cruise for a few weeks so we were spared the trip. After our trip to West Virginia I would have hated another two hour drive to get to their place.

Being family, we just walked in the front door but it seemed nobody was home until we got back to the kitchen. The kitchen dining area opened out to the back yard where the in-ground pool was and it was there we found them all. My Uncle Jim was fooling with the propane tank on the grill, giving some sort of series of instructions to my cousin Rick.

Rick was eighteen but was soon to be nineteen in about another month. Mmmmmmm, he just got better by the day and I realized it had been a while since he and I had been together. I looked at my mom and caught her eyeballing Rick and I knew she must have been thinking the same thing as me. She looked my way and our eyes met and we both grinned a bit at each other's antics My cousins Kate and Tammy were splashing about in the pool. I suspected that Kate, now sixteen, was really a secret experimental clone of her mom. Of course, she was in an ultra-conservative one-piece suit but it wouldn't have surprised she to see her in one of those 1900 era swim suits that covered your arms and legs as well. It was a shame, really, as she was quite a pretty girl and I knew she has to be fending off every perverted boy in school but she was determined to keep herself "pure" for marriage and I had no doubt that included kissing and masturbation.

Tammy, on the other hand, was at fourteen the exact opposite of her sister. With just two weeks to go before her fifteenth birthday, she was well on her way to taking up our family tradition of being the class slut. I couldn't help but feel a bit of pride in my role towards that achievement although truth be told, she was a born flirt. In many ways, she reminded me of a younger Kristen with her slim body and pre-teen look.

It was hard to believe she was any older than eleven or twelve, let alone fifteen!

Tammy had virtually unlimited potential as a slut - just ask her brother and his friends! I noticed she wasn't in her usual two piece suit but instead was actually wearing a legitimate bikini. Damn, how had she ever talked her mom into THAT? I had to poke my dad in the ribs as he was staring at her, probably wondering the same thing.

Aunt Shari was getting the picnic table ready under the deck awning. She really wasn't all that bad looking, maybe a few extra pounds here and there, but unfortunately was a complete and utter prude. My uncle had confided in my dad, who then confided in me, that she was pretty wild in the bed when they had first gotten married but three kids seemed to have taken it out of her and these days he was lucky to get laid period. No wonder he loved fucking me and my mom so much! Too bad he was such a pain in the ass sometimes!

5. Dad Does Me in the Kitchen

After the initial formalities and greetings, I jumped in the pool with the rest of my cousins and we played around while the parents got lunch ready. It wasn't anything special, steaks for the dads with hamburgers and hotdogs for the rest of us. After all the exercise I'd had this weekend already, a hotdog or two wasn't going to hurt the hips too badly so I dug in and had my fill. My Aunt Shari couldn't help but use my appetite as an excuse to needle my mom.

"Hmmmmmm, you better keep an eye on Kelly over there Mary. With all she's eating, it won't take much and that that bikini may just pop right off her."

My mom just rolled her eyes at the poorly disguised dig at my bikini. Personally, I didn't care as I had seen how Rick and my uncle had looked at me when I took the wrap off and as long as they liked it, then I didn't really care what my bitchy aunt had to say about it.

For the next hour or so, we just played in the pool or got some sun while our parents talked about whatever it is people their age do. Finally, all the Diet Coke I had been drinking began to take its toll and I headed to the house to use the bathroom. I didn't think anyone had noticed other than my mom who never missed ANYTHING.

It didn't take long to pee and on my way back I looked out the kitchen window over the sink from where I could survey the entire pool area. My mom, aunt and uncle were under the umbrella to the side, facing away from the house to keep one eye on the pool. My cousins were busy in the pool and didn't seem to be missing me, which was fine by me. Rick was standing up at the edge, tossing a Frisbee back and forth to Kate who was in the middle of the pool, trying to tread water and catch the Frisbee at the same time. God he looked good in his swim shorts. His stomach was flat as a board and it as easy to see why her was one of the top wrestlers in the county.

I should have been getting back to the poll but my pussy ached and I thought once again how long it had been since my sexy cousin had fucked me. with his impressive cock He may not be the greatest when it comes to technique, but in the stamina department he was the gold medal winner. God, he had come in me at least three times in the past and STILL been hard as a rock, ready to go again.

My hand somehow magically found itself between my legs and I pulled the bikini bottom to the side so I could play with myself. God I wished it was Rick feeling me up about now! I moaned softly as I watched him by the pool, dreaming of his dick sliding in me from behind, his crotch slapping up against my bare ass.

Then, like in a dream, it actually DID feel like he was pushing his dick against my pussy and it took me a few seconds to realize what was really happening. It dawned on me that the one person missing from the back yard was my dad. Well, duh, now I knew where he was! I started to turn around to face him but he held me by the hips and pushed me against the sink counter top.

"Don't turn around, keep watching," he whispered in my ear, his hands moving off my hips and around to my ass instead. "He turns you on, doesn't he?"

"Oh daddy!" I protested in vain.

"That's OK, I understand. What I wouldn't give to be his age again." Then he laughed and continued, "What your mother wouldn't give for me to be his age again. From what she tells me, he never goes soft."

That would be my mom. It felt a little odd to have a boy like Rick prefer my mother over me. Frankly, I didn't like it for a boy to prefer ANY woman over me but in this case I guess I could understand. My mom refers to it as her "Mrs. Robinson thing" from some old movie where a college kid was seduced by an older woman but in this case I think it was more mutual. Rick still fucked me now and then but I felt like it was more like I was his backup plan for when he couldn't have my mom. Oh well, so long as he could fuck as long and hard as he did, I could live with second place, especially if it was my mom who was ahead of me.

me, not to mention a little that had dripped down my leg and even a few spots on the floor under me. Wow, he must have cum in me a lot more than I had thought!

In the meantime, my dad had tucked his softening dick back in his swim shorts. He was still semi-erect - a fact that was clearly noticeable still. As for me, I rearranged my bikini bottom which was still wet from the pool so I figured any additional cum from inside of me wouldn't be noticed. We hadn't finished a moment too soon as I saw my Aunt suddenly get up and practically bolt for the kitchen door!

"Dad!" I whispered sharply, "Red alert - Aunt Shari!"

My dad, clearly aware of the state of the union below his belt, hustled out of the kitchen towards the bathroom. No sooner had he left the kitchen than the sliding door opened and in walked Aunt Shari, heading like an arrow straight for the oven.

"Darn, I hope these didn't burn!" she mused, ignoring me for the moment which wasn't all that unusual when you came down to it. She must have been upset as "darn" was as close to a swear word as she would come. Then she seemed to notice me for the first time and looked around at me.

"What are you still doing in here Kelly?", she asked with an accusing eye as if I was out to steal the family silver or something. "Ah... I just came in for something to drink," I stammered, lamely hunting for any excuse.

"Well, there's plenty outside, just ask next time and I'll get it for you."

6. The End of Father's Day

Fortunately given how fast she had rushed in, together with the burnt odor arising from the oven, I knew there was no way she could smell my dad's sex on me. Still, I knew better than to push it so I quickly made my way outside and went straight to the pool and jumped in. The water was warm but it still felt like ice water had been poured on my hot pussy! God, talk about a cure for horniness. Too bad my dad couldn't jump in now; his cock would be down to nothing in seconds! In any case, the chlorine would mask any residue of sex so at least now I didn't have to worry about that.

My dad emerged from the house about five minutes later. I tried to watch without being too obvious as my mom got up and met him before he even got to the table where my Aunt had brought a tray of burnt cookies. She said something to my dad and then looked over at me and I could tell from the expression on her face we were busted! Well, that just goes to show one reason I've always been open and honest with my mom. No matter how hard I try I've never been able to lie or hide anything from her. Besides, she undoubtedly had it all figured out anyway when she realized that my dad and I were alone in the house for so long. Even so, I was curious if she knew WHERE we had done it. Now THAT would have probably pissed her off as she didn't like it when we took such risks.

It was another couple of hours before we finally returned home. We had been snacking all afternoon so dinner wasn't necessary. Once my parents retired to the family room to watch TV, I walked into my dad's closet and picked out a nice light blue dress shirt for me to wear. It looked almost new which meant my mom wouldn't be thrilled I was wearing it but it was Father's Day and so I wanted to look good for him.

Dropping the rest of my clothes to the floor and kicking them under the bed to be dealt with later, I put the shirt on and checked myself out in the mirror. I debated whether to button it or not and finally compromised by fastening two the lower half. The shirt hung down practically to my knees but the sides were cut such that most of my thighs were visible. Yep, this was the look I was hoping for. On the one hand it appeared at first to be a little conservative yet with a hint of naughty when you considered it was all I was wearing.

I started to head downstairs and then remembered I had forgotten something important. I hurried back to my room and grabbed the card I had bought for my dad a few days earlier. Back I went downstairs where my parents had assumed their standard positions in their designated LazyBoy recliners.

"Happy Father's Day!" I announced as I ran down the stairs and handed him the card. I stood next to the chair as he opened it and listened to him read it aloud. It was some sappy Hallmark card and I really hadn't even worried about the words. What was important were the ones I added to the end.

"Daddy, Thanks you so much for everything you do for me. I love so very much! Your little girl forever, Kelly"

"Ahhhhhh baby, this is sweet," my dad said, reaching around me and pulling me in closer with his hand blatantly planted on my ass but still on the outside of the shirt.

"I know you've already had me twice today daddy, but I just wanted you to know your little girl's still available."

I reached down and kissed him, reaching my hand out to steady myself as I lost my balance. Of course it was pure coincidence that my hand landed squarely on his crotch (and if you believe that, let's talk real estate!). He couldn't help but laugh as he took my hand away.

"Tell me something Kelly," he started out, sounding ever so solemn.

"Yes daddy?" I answered, wondering what could be so serious at a time like this

"Don't you EVER get enough?" he finished, followed by a burst of laughter and even my mom couldn't help but add a smile.

"Well... you know I would never say no to you daddy," I purred, wiggling my ass slightly under his hand.

With that he pulled me onto his lap and we watched TV for a while. I could feel his dick beginning to harden under me and my mouth rose into a sly smile. Something told me this Father's Day wasn't over yet!

(Jun 21) Chapter 141: Vacation Bible School Mom

Story codes: FF oral first
Jill (32)

Every year since I can remember, June has meant Vacation Bible School. This year's session proved to be a little more interesting than any in the past when one of the mom's started asking some questions about me. Curiosity may kill the cat but it can also lead to some new experiences with people you least expect.

1. VBS and Me

For about as long as I can remember, I've been involved in a variety of church youth group activities. Sunday School, Pioneer Clubs, church camp, mission trips, Wednesday nights, you name it. As I got older and my interests turned more towards the boys, I quickly learned that church was also a great place to meet guys - and not just boys my age. Although most of the time it was just flirting and teasing, I knew a lot of the fathers kept a close eye on me as well although most were too scared to do anything, even though the opportunity was there whether they realized it or not.

Since losing my virginity the summer before I started high school, I've had sex with quite a few people. Depending on your point of view, I guess that makes me either "sexually active" or a slut - or worse in some people's view. Yet when you average it out, I've only had sex with about five new guys a year if I only count those guys I was with on a one-to-one basis. Personally, I don't think that's exactly is a HUGE number when you look at it that way. Actually, the total number of dicks that have entered me is well over 150. I deliberately put it in those terms as when I'm being fucked by half a dozen guys at a party, I really don't count that the same as being with six guys individually on different nights.

While I check off the "bi" box in sexual questionnaires, my preference is for guys (they have the something special down under). Thus when it comes to girls, it's a bit of a different story. In comparison to the number of men I've been with, the girls are not even half that and even then, most of those are either in my family or my close circle of friends. Rarely do I do anything with a woman I don't already know. If you take into account my mom, her sister and daughter, and another cousin of mine; then put them together with a couple of roomies and a few best friends, that leaves only about ten girls in comparison to well over a hundred guys that show up in my official "history " of people I've had sex with.

The only reason I mention all this is to help explain why when people ask me if I'm bisexual, my response is typically something like, "I like girls but I prefer guys." For whatever reason, I find sex with other girls to be much more intimate when compared to men with whom I sometimes just enjoy going out with to release some "tension". Thus I don't typically flirt with other women or even actively pursue a "relationship" with them. Usually what happens just happens and I leave it up to God's will to decide when.

I have always loved Vacation Bible School (VBS) - both as a kid and now as a leader. To be sure, it has never been a "turn-on" for me as it deals with the younger kids in church. Despite the naughty fantasies I've had at times babysitting and teaching school, those always dealt with older kids than those at VBS. Virtually all of the leaders and helpers are women, most of them mothers, and the majority don't exactly dress to the nines when it comes to VBS. Bottom line, VBS is personally and spiritually fulfilling and can be a lot of fun - but NOT "that" kind of fun. When I volunteered, sex was the furthest thing from my mind!

Now that I've graduated from college and looking to start a teaching career, I've noticed that people treat me different, especially the women. For instance, at VBS I'm no longer one of "the kids" helping out, they actually treat me as a peer and talk TO me instead of AT me. Having attended the same church all my life, it seemed a little surreal even at first, but it made me feel good to be accepted in this way.

As with anything, there were a few exceptions. One of the things about attending the same church all your life is that people get to know you pretty well having watched you grow up. Although I didn't flaunt myself as badly as some of the girls did, my "reputation" with the boys was certainly not a secret from most of the women and there were a few who still raised their noses when I was around. Although I didn't wear anything TOO revealing, I do like to wear short denims shorts in the summer and camis or tank tops.

The first day I saw a few of the older women looking at me and when I passed by I overheard little sniping comments like "slut" being whispered as if they didn't realize that I could hear them. Oh well, what they didn't know was I was proud of my reputation and had worked hard to get it so what they said dint bother me in the least!

2. Jill Confides in Me

This summer I was teamed up with Jill, a 32 year-old housewife who had two kids, both in VBS, two boys ages five and six. I don't know how much we actually "taught" this age group. It seemed more like we were a week-long babysitting service than anything else. Jill's boys were little terrors and I wasn't sure if it helped or hurt more to have her in the same class with them. Sometimes I've found that kids actually behave a lot better when their parents are NOT around. Jill didn't seem to have much control over her two brats and at times I could see the look of frustration and embarrassment in her face.

It was Wednesday, half way through VBS, and Jill and I were having a conversation as the kids worked on a project, coloring some picture or another. There were a couple of high school girls helping out so it didn't leave much for us to do for the next half hour or so but to make sure nobody ran off or got hurt. For some reason she seemed a bit more frazzled than usual today and I notice her temper seemed even shorter than usual. It seemed as if there was something bothering her but she didn't want to bring it up so finally I thought maybe I could help out a bit.

"Something bothering you today Jill?" I asked gingerly, trying to sound supportive but not aggressive.

"Oh nothing," she sighed, shaking her head. I just sat there quietly to see if she would follow that up with anything and eventually she sighed again.

"Just be glad you're young and single Kelly," she admonished me, "Don't rush out and do something you might regret later."

I couldn't help but smile and replied, "Don't worry, I have NO intention of getting tied down any time soon."

"Yeah, so I hear," Jill said off-handedly and then, apparently realizing what she'd said, she covered her mouth and then tried to apologize. "Sorry, I didn't mean to say that."

I knew what she meant but as I said, such comments never bothered me much so long as they didn't get out of hand. Then she sat up straight and looked at me in the eyes.

"Tell me Kelly, how do I look?"

"What do you mean?"

"You know, as a woman, how do you think I look?"

I was a little surprised at her question and unsure of how I should respond. Jill was only about ten years older than me and still looked pretty good if you asked me although she had put on quite a few pounds having her kids that she never lost. She had curly brown hair that she usually let just hang without much adornment. She was pretty in her own way, much more so than many of the women at church, and typically dressed sharp and carried herself with confidence. Her boobs looked to be maybe 40DD and always seemed in the verge of bursting out of her bra. The pink tank top she was wearing today didn't help matters as it was tight and showed off the outline of her bra as it tried to contain her massive boobs.

Besides her big boobs Jill's main attraction was her legs and she obviously knew it. Some women are just born with the gene that gives them proportionality longer legs and Jill had that gene in spades. Long and nicely shaped, I could only imagine how they must have looked in her teen years. Even with her considerable weight gain, they still didn't look too bad and she seemed to enjoy showing them off as I couldn't ever remember her wearing pants – always a dress, skirt, or shorts like she was today. The white shorts she was wearing today showed off her legs without being TOO short such that they would draw attention as being inappropriate for church, but shorted than most women of her proportions would wear.

Some women gain weight and just look fat. There are a few, though, like Jill that seem to manage to carry the extra weight and still somehow look sexy. Perhaps the tight tank top was a little over the top as it hugged her stomach a little more than it should have, and maybe the shorts could have hidden a little more of her heavy thighs, but somehow it all seemed to work for her. I would have classified her as a MILF if I were a guy in church.

Indeed, I noticed that more than a few of the husbands often took a second look when she walked by and even some of the younger teenagers seemed to enjoy sneaking a peak at her big boobs when she leaned over to help out with something. As heavy as she was, the shorts did a nice job of showcasing her ass, much to the apparent enjoyment of the men and judging from some of the whispering I overheard, not entirely appreciated by the women, especially the married ones.

"You look great Jill!" I eventually answered. OK, it was a copout answer but what else was I supposed to say?

Jill stretched out her heavy tanned legs in front of her and cupped her large boobs in her hands, giving them a hefty bounce as if she was comparing two water melons in the store. (I started to write cantaloupes but in her case, water melon seemed more apt!)

"I mean, I think these are pretty good, don't' you?" she asked, almost as if she was seeking my approval. I looked around and saw that none of the kids were paying any attention, thankfully.

"Well, to be honest, I think your boobs and legs look great," I responded, trying to be supportive. God help me if I ever gained that much weight but if I did, I would hope that I looked like Jill and not some of the other fat moms I worked with.

"Yeah, well tell that to my bastard husband," she suddenly pouted. Whoa, not THAT wasn't exactly where I'd expected the conversation to go. After all, we were in Bible School, not a confessional.

"What do you mean?" I couldn't help but ask, my curiosity building.

"I know I shouldn't be telling you this, but I think he's cheating on me." she burst out, tears suddenly welling from her eyes.

Wow, talk about coming at you out of the blue! What do you say when someone tells you something like this? Jill's husband didn't have to carry two kids and he still looked as fit as he probably was in high school. It wouldn't be the first time I'd heard of a husband becoming disenchanted with his wife for being "twice the woman he married". Sure Jill was overweight but not incredibly so - she wasn't going to be on The Biggest Loser anytime soon or anything like that. Still, men are such visual beasts that I could believe, if not approve of, that her husband might find her less attractive. But to go out and cheat on her?

"Why do you say that?" I asked softly, trying to comfort her before anyone noticed what she was doing.

"He doesn't know it, but I found his chat logs on Yahoo - he uses a different name but the Focus on the Family internet site told me where to look to find the logs. Then I used the name to check his email -the bastard is so cocky he didn't even bother changing from our usual password. Oh my god Kelly, the things they were telling each other! It was nasty!"

For just a moment my heart skipped as I wondered if her husband had been one of the guys I'd been chatting with recently! Then I got a hold of myself, confident that the odds of such a coincidence were so astronomical as to be insignificant.

"Maybe it was just chatting and nothing else," I said, trying to offer an alternative scenario, "Lots of men chat and fantasize but that doesn't mean they go out and cheat on their wives."

Jill sobbed even more at that and I knew I must have said something wrong, although I had no idea what.

"Noooooo, one of the e-mails was for a hotel reservation confirmation and some of the messages talked about how wonderful it had been when they were together."

Well, as my dad would have said, I rest my case. If all that was true, it looked like her husband was indeed cheating on her. Still, when you got down to it, why was she telling me? Sure we worked together but it wasn't like we were close friends or anything.

"Sorry, I shouldn't be saying this to you but I had to tell SOMEONE." she said, trying to wipe the tears from her face.

Jill's eyes were red and her face flushed. Anyone looking at her would know she'd been balling her eyes out recently.

"Here, why don't we go to the restroom and get you looking better," I offered, looking around to make sure nobody as watching.

3. Helping Jill to Feel Better

Jill nodded and I held her hand as we went to the restrooms. I decided to go for the one down the hall even though it was the furthest away. I didn't want any of the youth girls to walk in on us with Jill this way. Fortunately it was meant for just one person, having only one stall, and so it had a lock on the door which I made sure to turn after I closed it. Once in the restroom, Jill looked into the mirror and frowned.

"God, I look a wreck!" she mumbled, wiping the tears from her face.

Jill started to turn the knobs to run some water to wash her face. The faucets were old and didn't work all that well. I knew from past experience they splashed badly so I stepped up to warn her.

"Be careful, these tend to splash and you don't want that top to get wet."

Indeed, as tight as it was, any wetness would have REALLY shown off her big boobs. As it was there was enough evidence to know she had large nipples. Jill reach down and grabbed the bottom of her tank top and started to pull it over her head.

"Can you give me a hand Kelly, I'd better take this off until I get done then."

As she pulled it off and over her head, I saw her huge boobs straining for release from the confines of her large white bra. It was interesting to see the number of hooks in the back. There must have been six of them to keep it together whereas my own bras, when I chose to wear them, usually had two or three at most. I guess that's a difference between 40DD and 34C I hadn't considered before. God, what a pain it had to be to clip them together every morning and undoing them had to be a trial as well.

As she leaned over the sink, her bare belly hung over her shorts but I tried not to notice. It did, however, remind me that I'd put on a couple of pounds since graduation and maybe I needed to start working out. No way was I ever going to let myself look like THAT!

"God it feels so good to get that damn thing off," she sighed, "I must be allergic to the material or something, felt like I've needed to scratch all day. Maybe it was that new laundry soap. That's what I get for buying the bargain junk."

She shook her shoulders as if trying to rid herself of the itching. I reached for her back and started to scratch the top of her back above her bra with my fingernails.

"Oh god Kelly, that feels good," she sighed.

I kept scratching as she leaned over the sink, resting with her hands on the sink edge.

"Kelly, I hate to ask you this, but would you do under my bra strap? God, it's killing me!"

No wonder, it must have been three inches wide! I tried to fit my fingers underneath it but it was too tight to allow me to effectively scratch.

"Dang it, that's not working," she sighed. "Oh well, just undo it."

Undoing a bra strap from behind was NOT something I have a great deal of experience with other than helping out a roomie or my mom, especially since I rarely wore one myself. It's different undoing them from the opposite direction, like trying to button someone's shirt for them. I fumbled with the snaps but eventually undid the last one and her bra strap snapped to her sides like a rubber band that had been freed. It was then I noticed she wasn't showing any tan lines. Hmmm, was Jill sunbathing without her top in her back yard? Did the neighbors notice? Jokes about whale watching ran though my head until I told myself to behave!

"Oh yes, not THAT feels so much better," she sighed as I worked her back with both hands. Unlike my mom's back, which was firm and tight, Jill's rolled under my hands but still felt smooth and soft. If nothing else, it beat doing some hairy man's back, that was for sure.

As I scratched and rubbed her back, I saw her bra straps had slipped off her shoulders and down to where they caught on her elbows, in the process allowing her boobs to free themselves from their confinement. Again, I couldn't help but compare her breast to my mom's. My mother's may not be as perky as they had been twenty years ago, and her days of not wearing a bra were long past her (except when she was teasing my dad or going out with me), but they still were fairly firm to the touch. In contrast, Jill's sagged and if they hadn't been so large, might have looked positively droopy but with the additional mass from her weight gain they somehow managed to look pretty good.

Had anyone described the circumstance, it would have been inconceivable to me that I would have any sexual feelings towards Jill. She was ten years older than me, probably weighed a hundred pounds more, was married with two brats, and now she had just dumped this huge sob story on me to deal with. OK, then why was I unable to take my eyes off her boobs? Was it really her boobs that drew my attention or were they just something to focus on? Was it that her husband was cheating on her and I felt sorry for her, enough to want to offer her something to console her? Something a little more intimate than a back rub?

In the mirror I could see Jill had her eyes closed, a look of peace on her face as she seemed to be enjoying the attention I was giving her. Slowly, like a teenage boy making his first moves on his virgin girlfriend, I let my fingers wander more to her sides, working their way around until I lightly brushed against the side of her boobs. Eventually, instead of scratching her back, I was scratching her sides, letting my fingers run up further along the side of her boobs as I did.

The silence in the room was ear-shattering. Not a sound could be heard except the faint sound of the exhaust fan and her deep breaths as she leaned motionless over the desk. How she didn't hear my heart pounding in my chest, I'll never know! It was strange role reversal for me. Normally it would have been me sitting still, waiting anxiously for a boy to work up the nerve to fondle and grope me. God, how many times had I just wanted to grab his hand and pull it to my boobs and tell him to get on with it! I didn't want to scare them off though, or have them think I was THAT kind of girl so I let them think they were getting away with something and in some way seducing me. Hey, whatever works.

Now it was my turn to be the shy aggressor. It had become a little game for me; how far could I get before she said something? I didn't want to rush and then have her lose her nerve and stop me. At the same time, we didn't exactly have all day either. Sooner or later someone would wonder where we were and come looking for us.

Taking in a deep breath, I worked my fingers further around her until my hands were solidly on her breasts and I could feel her nipples between my fingers. God, they were already rock hard and pointing out like missiles! I took each between two fingers and gently pulled on them and then held her big boobs in my hands. I couldn't get half of them in my palms!

"What are you doing Kelly?" she whispered softly.

My heart skipped a but until I realized she wasn't making any effort to stop me.

"Do you like it?" I replied, avoiding the question.

"It feels... strange," she answered back, "but a GOOD kind of strange."

I started to massage her monster boobs in my hands, feeling the largeness of them as I pulled them upwards and then slowly let them drop. Again I played with her nipples, making her gasp as I t twisted them and then pulled them out and let them snap back. I'd never touched breasts this large before. God, how much did they weigh?

"Ever had a girl do this to you before?" I said softly in her ear from behind.

"Noooooo," she sighed, "never."

"Do you want me to stop?"

"Oh no!" she came back quickly, "I like it."

"I bet your husband likes to play with these," I said, trying to make her feel better about him. Oops, wrong assumption!

"No, he doesn't," she said a little more louder than before. "He says I'm fat and my tits are too big."

I could feel her body tense under my hands. I kept my hands on her and brushed her hair in back with my face until I could kiss her neck softly. My tongue played along the back of her hairline softly and my lips kissed her gently. The tension seemed to evaporate from her until she was almost limp.

"You're beautiful Jill," I murmured softly, "He has no right to say that to you."

"Ohhhhhh... I wish he would touch me again like this," she said, her voice starting to crack with emotion, "I dream all the time of him kissing me just like you are, like he used to."

"Then just imagine it's him again Jill... Imagine it's his hands on you, exploring you, touching you gently."

"God I want that so bad," she sobbed softly. "It's been so long since he touched me like this."

My hands started to work their way further down her plump body. He stomach was hanging over her shorts so I had to reach under it to get to unbutton them. It certainly wasn't the easiest task, that was for sure. The shorts were at least a size too small which made her ass look good but when it came to undressing her, it was a nightmare! All the while she stayed in the same position, as if afraid that if she moved the spell might be broken.

With her shorts finally undone, I unzipped them and spread open the flaps. She was wearing standard yellow nylon panties and so I reached my hand in between her lower stomach and the panties, sliding it down inside until I could feel the first signs of her pubic hair.

"Noooooo, you shouldn't touch me there," she said, barely audible her voice was so low.

As with her boobs earlier though, she wasn't making any effort to stop me. Again I felt the role reversal effect. This must be how the boys felt when they made a move on me and I just let them do it without responding, assuming they would take my silence for approval. All I could hope for was that Jill was acting the same as I had in those situations, using her silence to tell me it was really OK without having to actually come out and say so.

My hand moved down further, her long pubic hair, slipping between my fingers until I felt the top of her pussy slit. Emboldened by her continued silence, I moved my hand down further until I was at her crotch. I tried to slip my hand between her thighs but they were too tight together. Just as I thought she was at her limit of what she was willing to do, she moved her legs apart but maintained her grip on the sink edge with her hands. My hand quickly took advantage of the situation and slipped between her heavy thighs. I cupped her hairy pussy with the palm of my hand and pulled up gently against her pussy.

"Oh god, I can't believe this is happening," she moaned, moving her hips involuntarily at the firm touch of my hand.

Personally, I couldn't believe it either! Here I was, still fully dressed, with Jill in front of me half naked with my hand down her panties! My own pussy could have used someone's hand on it about now as well!

I pressed one finger up against her and felt it slip between her pussy lips. Damn, she was soaking wet! It easily slipped in against her pussy hole and with one more bit of pressure, I slipped my finger up into her wet and warm pussy.

"Oh god," she moaned, "That feels so good."

My finger was wet with her pussy juices and so I pulled it out and spread the wetness along her pussy slit, going back for more and after a few times she was wet all over. When my finger first touched her clit, I thought she was going to drop to her knees for a moment until she regained her balance. "That's it... right there," she gasped, as if I hadn't figured THAT out.

It wasn't the easiest to do this with her shorts still up but I made the best of it. I would have loved to have dropped them to the floor but under the circumstances it seemed best to just reach inside. Then again, what was I worried about? Even of someone DID manage to come in despite the door lock, would it make any difference seeing her shorts on the floor given what was happening now?

I pulled my hand out and tried to pull her shorts down. They were so tight it was difficult and for the first time she lifted herself up and stood as she helped me to drop her shorts to the floor along with her panties. She stepped out of them and left them lying on the tile floor. Then, for the first time since we entered, she turned to face me. Her face was positively glowing, all signs of tears disappeared.

"Are you sure about this?" she asked.

Actually, I think what she really meant was whether or not SHE sure about it. Jill seemed to be almost in another world, like in a daze. I didn't say a word but instead I leaned over and took one of her large nipples in my mouth. It was by far the biggest nipple I'd ever sucked on, almost like that on a baby bottle. It felt good between my lips as my tongue ran little circles around it.

"Oh my god, what are you doing to me Kelly?" she sighed.

I glanced up and her eyes were closed as she leaned back against the sink using her hands on it to steady herself. My hands were on her large waist, holding the soft flesh in my fingers as I sucked on her breasts like a newborn baby. I bent my knees and slowly worked my way down her stomach, running my tongue over her gently.

Finally I was squatting in front of her, her hairy pussy in front of my face. She must not ever shave because the pubic hair was shaggy and full without any lines or definition where she might have trimmed it to keep from poking out of her bathing suit or panties. My face was so close I could smell her sex, the strong odor of her pussy that was so wet after my playing with it earlier.

Looking back up again, I saw her eyes were still closed, as if she was afraid to look down and see what I was about to do. She wasn't moving a muscle, like a virgin laying stiffly on a bed as she wait for her boyfriend to fuck her the first time. Oh well, why not?

"Oh Kelly... oh my god," she whispered hoarsely as my tongue stretched out to touch the tip to her sensitive clit.

God, she smelled like she'd just been fucked! My tongue touched her clit and I ran it up and down her pussy, pausing at her pussy hole to push it in just a little. With my face that low my nose and forehead were pressed against her hairy pussy, rubbing up against her clit once again. She tasted wonderful, almost exactly like my own mother. As I moved back to her clit, I inserted a finger up her pussy, stroking it in and out as if I was fucking her. Her hips involuntarily thrust forward, as if she was trying to draw me further inside of her. The longer I licked her, the louder and more prolonged her moans became. Damn, I just hoped nobody had their ear to the door!

I must have hit just the right spot with my tongue because she jumped and then put her right hand against the back of my head, pulling my face in tight against her hairy crotch.

"Oh god, that's it... lick it right there... oh shit I'm gonna cum!"

Her hips were gyrating to where it was hard for me to keep my face between her legs, let alone nail a specific point on her pussy but I did my best. Finally she pushed my face down to her pussy hole while with her other hand she started to masturbate, fingering her clit with her hand.

"I'm cumming...,"she moaned again, long and drawn out as if she was howling at the moon.

Her pussy flooded my face with her cum as she fingered herself furiously. Mmmmmmm, it tasted so good! OK, I like MY pussy the best but Jill wasn't bad herself. I tried to lick it all up as she came, savoring the strong scent and even stronger flavor.

4. Jill Has Second Thoughts

When she was done she took both hands and just pulled my face inn against her and held it there. Her pubic hair filled my face until finally I had to pull back to breathe. Standing up, I looked her in the eyes - at least towards them as I waited for her to open them. Finally she did and an anxious look replaced the smile.

"Oh god, what did we do?" she gasped, holding her arms to cover her bare breasts as she looked around for her shorts and top. It was sort of funny seeing how she wasn't wearing anything on her bottom either but I guess her natural instinct was to hide her boobs. I held her by the shoulders, trying to calm her.

"It's OK Jill... Didn't you enjoy it?"

"THAT'S the problem," she whined, "I LOVED it... But I can't believe we did it."

"We?" I giggled, "Seems to me YOU were the one having the orgasm."

Jill looked at me with horror in her face. She was breathing so fast and hard I was afraid she might pass out. She kept mumbling to herself about how she couldn't believe it and how embarrassed she was. Frankly, it reminded me of the girl who screams rape when her dad catches her fucking a guy, even though she'd been enjoying it up to that moment.

"You can't tell ANYONE about this... EVER!" she gasped. "Oh my god, what if anyone finds out? What if my husband hears about it?"

Then she suddenly stood still and stared at me, just as calm as she was crazy only a moment before.

"It's true, isn't it, about you," she said, more an accusing statement than a question, "I always figured it was just jealous girl talk, couldn't believe a girl like you could really be that bad."

She started to straighten out her outfit, zipping and buttoning her shorts with a look of determination.

"It's your fault, you took advantage of me, fucking whore," she practically hissed at me, "How could you do that? What kind of person are you?"

Wow, now THAT was about the last thing I expected to hear. OK, the odds were we would never do it again anyway, but I hadn't expected this outburst of rationalization and self-righteousness, let alone the accusations. "You just stay away from my kids, got it?" she said, pointing her finger in my face.

Now THAT was going too far. I was getting so pissed off I couldn't hold myself back. Knowing I would regret it even before I said it, I held up my finger that I had fucked her pussy with and grinned nastily at her.

"So I take it you don't want to lick your cum off my finger then?"

OK, so it was a bad thing to say but I felt better. Her eyes opened wide and her mouth pursed so tight her lips were slivers. Her face was beet red, but not from her orgasm any longer.

"Lesbian whore!" she hissed at me as she unlocked the door and stormed out.

Fortunately the wasn't anyone out in the hallway to see her leave the restroom which avoided any questions as to why the two of us had been in there when it had accommodations for just one person.

I was feeling a mixture of emotions. Licking her pussy had been fun and making her cum for the first time by a girl was certainly one for the diary. At the same time, I was concerned as to what was going to happen now. In my heart I had a feeling it was just her conscience making the noise and that once she settled down that she would get over it. I mean come on, she DID have an orgasm so it couldn't have been THAT bad! It wasn't like I'd tied her up and forced her to do anything.

For the rest of the day Jill studiously managed to avoid me. On the good side, the look of anger she had when we left the restroom was replaced with more of an anxious one. Maybe she was worried that she had pissed me off and now I might tell someone about us just to get back at her. After all, apparently I didn't have to worry about MY reputation! She was the one that all the talk would be about should anything ever get out. Even so, why would I be the one to say anything? There was no payback in that for me, that's for sure.

The day finally ended and as luck would have it, when I went out to my car I found myself parked next to Jill's car where she was fumbling in her purse, trying to find her keys. When she noticed my approach, at first she looked away as if trying to pretend she hadn't seen me. My instinct was to just get in my car quickly and leave but then I couldn't leave things the way they were.

"Everything OK Jill?" I called across my car to her.

She fumbled in her purse some more and then drew out her keys before she turned to me with a blank expression on her face.

"Couldn't find the damn keys," she huffed.

I thought that was going to be the extent of our dialogue when she walked around the car and stood next to me.

"I don't know what to say Kelly," she said softly, her voice shaking slightly, "I should never have said those things to you."

"That's OK, Jill, I understand," I said, trying to console her.

"No, it was my fault... all my fault... everything," she said, her voice cracking as if she was about to cry, "It's my damn husband's fault, not yours."

She started crying, burying her head in her hands as I put my arm around her and hugged her.

"It's OK Jill, sometimes people just need to let things out."

"But what we DID Kelly... it was so... so nasty!"

"But didn't you like it?"

"Yes but that's not the point... it was wrong."

I hugged her again for a moment before continuing.

"It wasn't wrong, it was something you needed."

"You won't tell anyone, will you?"

Thoughts of my diary and my expectations that this was going to become the next Chapter came to my head. Well, I wouldn't tell anyone at church about it but at the same time, who knew how many people around the world would soon be reading about it! There was no need for her to know THAT though.

"No, that was something special just between us, Jill," I assured her.

"Promise me that we won't do it again," she asked me.

"Not unless you want to," I promised, if you can call that a promise.

Jill was wiping her eyes with a tissue from her purse. She seemed to be regaining her composure. Gathering herself up, she hugged me back finally and then started to leave. After just a step she spun around and smiled at me.

"You know, I've never had my pussy licked like that before! You're pretty good."

With a naughty smile she quickly moved around the car back to hers and got inside after which she drove off without another word or look. As I settled down in my car, my pussy tingled as I recalled what we had done earlier. Hmmmmmm, it would take me only a few minutes to get home but why wait? Driving one-handed can be dangerous but it was worth it!

(Jun 24) Chapter 142: Casino Trip

Story codes: MF FF oral inc father daughter
Me (22)
John - my dad (42)
Nancy - girlfriend (22)
Joe (23)
MJ (24)

It was practically a high school reunion, Nancy was an old girlfriend while Joe was one of my earliest boyfriends. Add in Nancy's fiance MJ and you had all the makings for a quickie road trip to the nearest casino.

1. Nancy Shares a Secret

Back when I was in high school and the girls were catty and bitchy to the point I would sometimes come home in tears, my mom would to try to console me by telling me that it wouldn't matter in a few years, that most of the girls I knew in high school would be nothing more than bad memories after I graduated.

While at the time the advice didn't help, like most of my mother's predictions it turned out to be true. Once I left for college the majority of my friends went off to their own schools, moved away, got married, or any of a number of things that swept them out of my life. There have been a few, though, that I have kept in touch with.

Beth is my BFF and I don't think anything will ever split us up, no matter where we may end up. We've even both been fucked by the other's father - talk about sharing! The circumstances in each case were entirely different but results are what count. Beth was also the one responsible for introducing me to the sex party scene. That all said, our relationship is primarily based on mutual support and respect. We never even kissed (for real) until a few years ago.

Nancy is another girlfriend that I spent a lot of time with as well. My relationship with her was much different that with Beth. Beth and I shared everything, and I don't mean just sexually. Nancy was what you would call a "good friend", something who was there for you when you needed to talk, someone to go out and have a good time with, but not in the same category that someone like Beth was in my life. Of course, nobody else was other than Beth so it was no reflection on Nancy.

Nancy is my age, twenty two. Actually, she is five days older than me but close enough. We have gone out on dates together but never did anything even remotely sexual together. Oh sure we use to masturbate together along with the other girls during sleepovers and such back when we were younger, but then who doesn't? It's one thing to get a bit horny and feeling naughty talking about our favorite hunks and playing a little with ourselves as we did. It's quite another, though, to actually touch another girl intimately. Maybe the closest we came during a game of Truth or Dare where she had to kiss me once but that was all in fun and nobody took it seriously.

With summer now in full swing, I was enjoying being a newly minted college graduate. Nancy and I were sharing lunch at a local deli, comparing notes about our college days, already referring to them as "those days" as if college was a distant memory. Nancy had graduated from Grove City college, north of Pittsburgh, so her experiences were similar to mine in many ways. I had actually be accepted to Grove City and was seriously considering it until I went to the orientation and discovered the school seemed hell-bent on marrying off as many of their students as possible before graduation! Obviously that had failed when it came to Nancy as she was still single and dating. Or so I thought.

"Can you keep a secret?" Nancy whispered across the table to me, looking around to make sure nobody was listening.

"Sure." I replied. What else do you say when someone asks you that?

Nancy reached into her purse and pulled out a small box. She opened it up to reveal a ring box and within that, a diamond engagement ring. I gasped and smiled at her.

"You've GOT to be kidding! You?"

Nancy quickly shut the box and put it back in her purse.

"I'm not supposed to tell anyone until he tells his parents," she whispered again.

"WHO?" I said, perhaps a little too loudly but then I was consumed with curiosity. Here was one of my best friends and I didn't even know she had been dating seriously, let alone accept a proposal.

"Remember MJ?"

I nodded. Well, duh, of COURSE I did. MJ (he was very careful NEVER to tell anyone what it stood for) was a couple of years older and a star on the football team back in high school. All the girls, and I mean ALL of them, wanted him more than their favorite bar of chocolate and he took full advantage of them. Rumor had it that his cock was one of the biggest in school but I always put THAT down to bragging by the few lucky girls that got to go out with him. I actually got to date him once and had my chance to appraise his assets (hey, my aunt's a realtor so give me a break). True to my suspicions, he was well hung but NOT the biggest in school and if anyone should know, it was me. After he graduated I hadn't heard any more about MJ, there were other boys to chase after and flirt with to worry about him.

"Did you know he went to GC?"

Now THAT I definitely didn't know and it surprised me. MJ hadn't seemed the type to pick a religious school, let alone one like hers.

"We started dating before he graduated and since then we've kept in touch and this past semester he was there almost every weekend," Nancy went on to explain, "Then yesterday he gave me THIS!"

Wow, you never know about anything, or anyone, it seems. I would never have imagined in a thousand years that MJ and Nancy would be getting married but there were stranger matches made in heaven I guess.

We giggled like two grade school girls sharing their first blow job experiences. She said he was traveling to his parent's home down south to tell them and tomorrow she should be able to let the cat out of the bag.

"So when's the wedding?" I asked.

"We haven't set a date probably this fall sometime. You know I've always wanted a simple church wedding so it shouldn't take much to plan."

We talked about wedding dresses and she asked me to be her maid of honor! I felt touched that she asked me and we both ended up crying before it was over but they were tears of happiness.

"You know, he'll be back this weekend, would you like to go out and get to know him?"

I had to think about that one before I answered. I couldn't remember if I had told Nancy about my date with MJ. Heck, it was like six years ago and I couldn't remember half the guys I blew, let alone which ones I told my friends about. Something told me that Nancy didn't know that I already "knew" MJ a lot more intimately than she may realize. Sure, he hadn't fucked me but some girls don't like to hear their fiance has his dick sucked by her maid of honor, even if it was like a lifetime ago.

"Sure, what would you like to do?" I answered diplomatically.

"You know, we've been talking about going to Wheeling forever, why not invite someone with and we can make it a double date?"

In their ultimate wisdom, my state legislature had fought off the horrors of casino gambling until recently so most of us went to West Virginia if we wanted to gamble with Wheeling being one of the closer casinos. I really didn't enjoy the gambling so much as the atmosphere. All the people, the noise and excitement was thrilling if you're a people watcher like me.

We left it at that and now all I had to do was come up with my half of the bargain. A few names went through my head until I thought of Joe, an old friend I'd known since I was a freshman in high school. He and I were an item for a while, doing it on the beach and even a BJ in a restroom once but nothing TOO wild. Eventually we split up but we remained friends and we went out now and then. Most of the time it was just platonic but when one of us was in "need", the other usually didn't mind helping out. Joe seemed the perfect choice for such an outing as no matter what happened – or didn't, I knew we would still have a good time. Not to mention, he was one heck of a blackjack player!

For the rest of the week, I kept in contact with Nancy and we made our plans. MJ wasn't flying back until Saturday evening so we were left with Sunday afternoon and evening. So long as I made it to church, that was fine with me. Maybe a few extra prayers would come in handy anyway!

Joe, of course, was more than willing to accept my invitation. Not only that, he had something of his own to offer. Apparently he gambled there more than I knew and he had some "comps" due to expire soon if he didn't use them. From the sounds of things, we would be eating free and could even stay the night free if it got too late. That last part surprised me – what was Joe thinking? Well, even if we didn't stay the night, it wouldn't hurt to have someplace we could go to relax of needed – or who knows what else? Just in case, I warned Nancy to pack a small bag for the night. She didn't bat an eyelash at the offer. This was one marriage, I knew, where the bride certainly wasn't going to be a virgin!

Sunday turned out to be a nice sunny day and after church my family and I went out to lunch before returning home. While I had told my mom of my plans, we really hadn't discussed them all that much so this was an opportunity for me to explain that I might not be home until the next day. My dad raised his eyebrows just a bit at that.

"Dad! It's just Joe you know," I teased him.

"Yeah, I DO know and that's what I'm thinking about," he responded, trying not to smile but failing miserably.

"You're just jealous!" I teased some more, rubbing my hand on his leg.

My dad just rolled his eyes but I knew I was right! My mom, as was typical for her when we got into these exchanges, just looked away as we continued our harmless little banter. She had told me before that sometimes it was more like she had to put up with a brother and sister squabbling than a mature husband and daughter.

Back home, I slipped out of my church dress and debated what to wear. I figured I had two options - the shorts or a skirt. The shorts were easier to run around in as they fit tight and I could let half my ass hang out without getting thrown out. On the other hand, shorts were a pain for any fooling around as they WERW so tight and hard to get out of the way when compared to a short skirt. The only problem with a skirt was that I had to wear a thong (even casinos had SOME sort of dress code against bare asses showing) and you had to be at least a LITTLE discreet on when and where you let it ride up.

In the end, I picked out a pair of denim shorts. They were hemmed rather than cut off which made them a little more presentable but they still were so short it was like my crotch had a continuous massage going and my butt threatened to poke out at any moment. Together with a pair of medium height heels, they showed my legs off quite nicely.

That address the bottom half, now for the top. I rummaged through my closet for the new cami my mom had bought me. It was perfect for today - about a size too small but stretchy enough not to feel like I had a strait jacket on. It was the type that was too short which meant about an inch or two of my midriff was always exposed. On top, it plunged to show off my cleavage with a lace edging that made it look classy. There was no way I was even going to think about wearing a bra under it - after all wasn't that the whole point in wearing one of these anyone, so you didn't have to? Looking in the mirror, my nipples were already sticking out like pencil erasers and I wasn't even cold!

Rather than mess any more with my hair than I already had for church earlier, I pulled it back into a pony tail and then found a Steelers baseball cap through which I threaded my ponytail so it stuck out the back of the cap. I left it more on the back of my head so the brim was sticking up, giving it a more casual appearance on my head.

I was ready. For what, well that was the question, wasn't it? There were at least a dozen permutations or more for what could happen today, ranging from us all just gambling and coming home broke to spending the day fucking in the hotel room and never even making it to the casino floor. No doubt neither extreme would be what actually happened but where in between it would fall, who knew?

The "wild card", if I could call it that, was MJ. He may have been the alpha male in high school, but how was he now after four years of Christian university and a couple more working in the ministry (Nancy had mentioned to me that he was looking to be a youth pastor)? Had the tiger been tamed?

Then there was Nancy. Despite hanging around girls like Beth and me, Nancy had been one of the "sluts" in high school. Oh, she was no virgin but she was still considered by most to be one of the "nice" girls. I knew Beth had tried getting her to go to one of her sex parties but she had always refused. So far as I knew, she had never done anything with a girl either.

Joe, well I knew all about Joe and I was confident he would go with the flow, as would I. It was really up to Nancy and MJ to set the tone and it would be interesting, if nothing else, to see where they set the bar.

2. Dad Demands a Quickie

"I take it that outfit is supposed to distract the dealer?" my dad chuckled from my bedroom doorway.

I turned and grinned to him, hands on my hips as I did a slow turn for him to get an eyeful of me.

"Well, it would work if I was dealing!" he laughed. Then he looked more serious and asked, "So any expectations?"

I knew my dad well enough to know he wasn't asking which craps table I would be playing. The problem was, I really did NOT know what to expect so I just shrugged.

"Well, looks like you're ready for anything," he chuckled again, "Damn, you look HOT in that outfit!"

My dad had changed into a pair of sweat shorts and t-shirt after church. As baggy as the shorts were, they did little to hide the growing erection inside. I walked slowly over to him and placed my hand squarely on top of his dick and grabbed it through the shorts.

"Hmmmmmm, looks like someone likes my outfit," I teased him as I stroked his cock slowly through his shorts.

"Well, then quit teasing and suck it you little cock teaser," he said, sounding a little exasperated.

I looked up at him and laughed gently.

"But daddy, they'll be here any minute!"

"So? You wouldn't leave your dear old dad all frustrated, now would you?"

"Oh daddy!" I sighed, "What am I going to do with you?"

"Suck my dick, that's what!" he exclaimed as I squatted down on the backs of my heels.

My shorts were so tight I thought they were going to split but they held in there for me. Hurriedly I reached for his cock and pulled it up and over the elastic waistband of his shorts, pushing the shorts down and under his balls to keep them out of the way. There was no time to play with it so I just took him in my mouth and started to go to work on him without a lot of foreplay.

"Oh god, now THAT'S what I'm talking about," he groaned, holding my head in tight to his crotch.

"Kelly, your ride's here!" my mom called up from downstairs. I started to sit up but my dad pushed down hard on my shoulder and pulled my head even tighter into his hairy crotch.

"Where you going slut? Not 'til you're finished."

I stroked his shaft with one hand while I sucked his dick and licked his shaft with my tongue. My free hand grabbed his ass to keep my balance as I bobbed my head on his cock as fast as I could.

"That's it... that's how I like it... don't stop... almost there!"

I could feel his hairy ass clench and his hips thrust outward, a clear signal that he was about to cum so I took his dick such that just the smooth head was in my mouth and held it there as I stroked the shaft.

"Here is come baby... take it all in your mouth," he gasped as the first shot of warm sperm erupted from the tip of his cock and splashed against the back of my throat.

I sucked on his dick, like I was milking a cow but instead of milk I was getting cream - the creamy cum of my dad's dick. He jerked over and over, each time sending another shot of cum into my mouth as it began to pool on my tongue. Finally, the eruption as over and the sperm volcano came to a rest as I continued to suck on the tip of his cock.

"Oh god Kelly, I can't take any more of that!" he gasped, pushing my face back from his sensitive dick.

I stood up and opened my mouth, showing him the results of his labors on my tongue before closing it again and swallowing it down. Again I opened my mouth, like a kid showing her mother she had taken her yucky cough medicine but in this case, I wanted seconds.

"Kelly, they're waiting!" my mom informed me yet again, except this time she sounded a lot closer. Then I saw her coming up the stairs to see what was going on. Well, THAT was perfectly clear judging by the sight of my dad's dick sticking out from his shorts and me swallowing the final remnant of his cum.

"Oh for God's sakes, I don't believe it," she sighed heavily, "You know they're waiting for you outside."

"Don't yell at her, it was my fault," my dad stepped in, valiantly trying to take the blame.

"I don't buy THAT for a minute," she said with a grin, looking at me as I licked my lips like a cat that had just had a canary snack, "You forget I know my daughter."

She smacked me on the bottom and I grabbed my bag, but not before kissing her and slipping a little of the cum that remained in my mouth into hers. She swallowed it and grinned but then got serious again.

"Now don't go off thinking I'm THAT easy to buy off," she warned me.

3. Getting Started With A BJ For Joe

Before she could say anymore, I waved to them both and hustled down the creaky stairs and out the door to where there were two impatient people waiting for me - Nancy and MJ.

"Sorry, I had to finish something," I panted from the exertion of hustling so fast outside.

"It's OK, Joe just called to say he was late so it probably works out for the best anyway," Nancy answered. "What did you have to finish?"

Nancy was NOT aware in any way, shape or form of what me and my family did sexually. For that matter, Beth was the only one who did and even she didn't find out until a couple years ago. I could still taste my dad's cum in my mouth and I almost found myself laughing at the thought of what she would say if I told her the truth? Well, I didn't, needless to say.

"Just a project my dad was working on," I said vaguely. In a way, it wasn't exactly a lie, even if a few details were missing.

"One of your airplanes?" Nancy came back.

God, she as a chatterbox this afternoon. My dad and I flew model airplanes -the kind with four to six foot wingspans. I was the only girl into the local club which meant I was never hurting for anyone to help me out!

"Yeah, he was having a hard time getting something off," I replied. I had to turn away so she wouldn't see my trying not to smile. Well, I had better be careful before I got TOO clever with my answers and gave something away.

By then we were getting close to Joe's house and I saw his car parked on the street. MJ honked briefly and surprisingly, Joe came out the front door almost immediately. Wow, the boy was finally starting to learn to be on-time. I use to tease him that the only thing he ever did early was cum in my mouth!

With the four of us packed in MJ's car, it was about an hour's drive to Wheeling during which we talked about their engagement and upcoming wedding plans. It had been years since I had seen MJ and to be honest, I was more interested in the honeymoon plans after getting an eyeful of him. The guy was still a hunk! Unfortunately, it seemed all he had eyes for was Nancy - to the point Nancy had to yell at him to watch the road more than a few times when he would start to drift over into the other lane.

In the meantime, Joe was in the backseat with me but during the trip we just talked and didn't even sit up against each other. I would say it was familiarity breeding contempt, but more like we knew each other so well, that any thrill from paying in the backseat had disappeared years ago. Typically, when we went out it was either for a pleasant evening of perhaps dinner and a movie, or we just skipped the pleasantries simply went straight to bed at his house or mine. It worked for both of us so I didn't complain.

By the time we got there, the weekend crowd had already begun together and it took a while to wind around the parking garage until we found a spot. Once settled in, we left our stuff in the trunk and hiked our way in. MJ and Nancy had their arms around each other, looking like a three-legged race more than anything while Joe simply took me by the hand.

"You'd never know they just got engaged," Joe joked quietly to me as we followed a few step behind. Then he looked down at me (he was about six inches taller than me - WITH heels). "Damn, have I told you that you really look hot today?"

I smiled, not wanting to tell he was not only late telling me, but he wasn't even the first. Joe dropped my hand and reached for my ass. I didn't try to escape him, instead allowing him to palm my tight butt with his hand like a basketball.

"God, I LOVE your ass, you know that?"

I smiled even more this time. If there was one thing I knew, it was Joe loved my ass. He was always touching it, squeezing it, and when he could, kissing it and rubbing his hard dick against it. He had long given up trying to get me to do anal but I knew if I ever so much as breathed that I was interested he would have his dick up in me so fast I wouldn't know what was happening. Well, actually I was sure I WOULD know exactly what was happening which is why I wouldn't let him do it!

"Better than Nancy's?"

He squeezed my ass again, as if he was testing it to be sure, like my mother checking out a melon in the grocery store. Then he looked ahead at Nancy, as if he could tell how her ass looked through the loose shirt she was wearing.

"Yeah, I think so."

"You THINK so!"

Joe laughed, obviously quite pleased with himself for supposedly teasing me. Then he leaned over so he could whisper in my ear.

"Wait until later and I'll show you just how much I REALLY admire it!"

By now we were inside and after showing our ID's (why do they always look at mine like it's a fake?) we entered the casino. The nose of the slot machines hit me like a physical blow and the flashing lights an bright signs drew me like a moth to a flame.

It seemed every sort of person imaginable was there; young, old, pretty, ugly, rich, poor. Some people were dressed like bums while others wore diamonds and fancy dresses. Most people just looked like typical town folk in jean or pants. The majority were older while those our age were a clear minority.

If there is one thing I love, it's to walk into a crowded bar, or in this case a casino, and have every guy there stare at me when they notice me entering. God, it makes me feel so incredible hot and sexy! Joe seemed to sense it as well as he subconsciously drew me closer to him, like he was keeping for his own like he was shepherding a lamb through a pack of wolves. Only difference was this lamb enjoyed the wolves. It was like their eyes were boring through my clothes, as if I wasn't already showing enough ass to get me thrown out of many places and my nipples were popping out like headlights from the rush I was feeling. I wondered how many of them were wishing they could take me to a room and fuck me!

As many times as I've been to a casino, I still have no idea how to play most of the games - or at least how to play them with any sense of trying to win. Sure, everyone knows how to play blackjack but I never win. The roulette tables LOOK easy but obviously not based on how money is lost whenever I watch. Then there's craps, which totally befuddles me. Slot machines are fun but there's a reason they are called "one-arm bandits", even if their "arms" have been replaced with buttons. For me, the fun isn't the gambling, it's being with someone and watching the other people. Of course, there's always the extra fun and flirting and teasing.

It was sort of fun to watch Joe and MJ. Each of them considered themselves "pros" with their own "systems". To be fair, neither of them seemed to be working very well but it was their money. Nancy and I played the roles of supportive girlfriends, cheering them on when they won and consoling them when they lost (which was most of the time). Eventually we decided to get something to eat so Joe took us to the buffet where his comps got us in for free - cool!

After dinner, Nancy and MJ announced their intentions to try out the roulette games. As they walked off, arm-in-arm like they were engaged, Joe looked at me, waiting for me to decide what to do next. Well, the roulette table was about the last thing on my mind.

"You know, I could use some dessert," I said seductively.

"Oh? Why don't you get some then. I don't mind waiting."

Men! Sometimes you have to hit them over the head with a sledge hammer it seems. Did I have to spell it out for him? Apparently so.

"I was thinking of something not on the menu," I said softly, reaching for his crotch as we sat in the booth.

"Ahhhhhh, THAT dessert," he said with a grin, although he was looking around to make sure nobody saw me massaging his dick through his jeans.

Well duh, what other dessert would I want? I remembered when we entered the casino that after we got off the escalators there were a number of conference rooms off to the side near the restrooms. They hadn't looked busy and so an idea came to mind.

"C'mon, I have someplace in mind."

Joe followed me out of the buffet area, shaking his head at my eagerness. Yeah, as if he didn't want it as bad as I did. After spending a couple of hours getting stared at and groped, I was hungry in a way no buffet would satisfy. It seemed the closer we got, the more all I could think about was his dick hiding behind the jeans like some snake waiting to emerge from its den. Only this snake got bigger and fatter when it was excited!

Joe didn't seem to understand where I was going but once we got to the conference room area he finally seemed to catch on. I peeked into one of the rooms and saw it was empty with just a couple of overhead lights on. The chairs were stacked to one side while the tables were on the other. There really wasn't any place to hide behind but the place was deserted and who would be coming in on a Sunday evening anymore? Even so, Joe didn't seem all too sure about it.

"Hey, why don't I check in and we go to a room instead of here?"

"Ahhhhhh, where's your sense of adventure?" I taunted him.

"Well, what if someone comes in?"

I giggled and put my finger to my mouth saying, "And so what if they do?"

We closed the door behind us and Joe looked at me with a smile on his face.

"God, you haven't changed a bit, have you?" he chuckled, "Still out to be naughty all the time, eh?"

I pointed at his obvious erection in his jeans and grinned saying, "Well, it doesn't look like you're too upset about it."

Joe looked down at his crotch where his dick was struggling to be released. Then he pulled me over to the side so that if someone SHOULD come in, they might not notice us right away, if at all with the lights as dim as they were.

"OK, so have it your way," he said, "What are you waiting for?"

A huge grin popped on my face that I couldn't have wiped away if I tried. Yeah, like I was waiting to suck his dick. I'd show him!

"Here, let's get that bad boy out of there," I murmured, undoing his buckle and snap, then unzipping his pants and spreading the top open to reveal his white Jockey underwear.

"Mmmmmmm, I've been waiting all day for this," I said softly as I pulled his dick out from his underwear, pushing his jeans down along with them to reveal his wonderfully hairy crotch.

Joe had a decent enough dick, more than enough for me. I loved the thick black pubic hair that surrounded it, making it look like a fleshy tree emerging from the forest. He was already rock hard and his dick curved upwards on its own. Oh yeah, he was a horny boy alright and I was just the horny girl to take care of him. Reaching down, I took his hard dick in my hand, loving the feel of his warm shaft in the palm of my hand.

"I love your dick, you know that?" I purred to him as I started to stroke it with my hand.

"Never would have guessed that," he laughed.

"Do you want me to suck it?" I teased him.

"Oh god," he groaned as my hand worked its magic on his wonderful dick, "You know I do."

"Tell me then," I urged him, "I want you to tell me what you want me to do."

"Damn Kelly, you know what I want," he sighed. I stood there patiently, slowly stroking his cock waiting for him to continue. He let out a deep breath finally and said, "OK, Ok, I want you to suck my cock... I want you to blow me."

"Well, why didn't you just say that to start with?" I said teasingly as I squatted down to put my face at the level of his crotch. "Was that so hard - I mean saying it, not your dick."

Joe didn't respond but instead took my head with both hands and pulled me gently towards his incredibly hard dick, making it obvious what he wanted. Well, I wanted the same thing so it wasn't like he had to convince me. Reaching out with my tongue, I let it touch the tip of his head and then ran it around the head in little circles. The scent of his crotch was strong, a thick musky smell combined with his sweat that threatened to overwhelm me as I took in a deep breath of it.

"Put it in your mouth!" he urged me on.

I looked upward at him, our eyes meeting as I continued to lick his dick. Then I smiled at him and without looking away I took his cock in my mouth just a little and sucked on the head, still letting my tongue tease it inside my mouth.

"Oh god, that feels incredible," he groaned, never taking his eyes off of me for a second.

Slowly I took more and more of his shaft into my mouth, twisting my head from side to side as I descended onto it. My lips hugged his shaft like I was trying to from an airtight seal as I was careful not to let my teeth hurt him. About three quarters of the way down I felt it pushing against the back of my mouth and I held him there for a moment, savoring the feel of his throbbing cock in my mouth. God, I had wanted to feel this since the first time I saw him get in the car!

"All of it... I know you can do it," he encouraged me, pulling my head more firmly into his crotch as he tried to drive his cock down my throat.

His cock started to press against my throat and immediately I felt the automatic reflex to gag but I fought it back and tried to relax my throat as much as possible. It wasn't helping that he was pulling me in even harder now. This was something I needed to do at my own pace to keep from gagging! Once his cock head made it into my throat the rest was easy after that and my head slipped down his shaft until my face and nose were buried in his pubic hair.

"Oh yeah, that's it, take it all," I could hear him groaning, more to himself than to me it seemed.

I needed to breath so I pulled back against his hands and let his cock slip from my mouth as I continued to stroke the wet shaft with my hand.

"You like that?" I asked softly, knowing full well what the answer was but wanting to hear him say it anyway. "Oh my god yes," he sighed, "I love it."

I smiled and went down on him again, twisting and turning my head around his stiff shaft like I was screwing my head down on him like a nut on a bolt. My tongue never left his shaft, running along it all the way down as once again I took him all and my face was tickle by his coarse pubic hair.

Meanwhile, my pussy was screaming for attention. As I reached down between my legs, I was reminded of why I had debated between shorts and a skirt. A skirt would have made things a lot easier right about now! Squatting down as I was, the crotch of my shorts was pulled up so tight against my pussy it worked its way between my pussy lips. Fortunately I was shaved or my pubic hair would have been poking out. As it was, there was no way I could slip my fingers inside to reach my pussy so all I could do was run myself through the denim. Even so, I was so sensitive already that just that was enough to send shivers through me from head to toe.

"God, that's it, just like that!" he groaned as my tongue played around the underside of his cock head. Now and then I would run it up and down the length of his shaft, letting the tip of my tongue lightly graze the underside of his dick, eliciting a deep moan every time so I knew he must really like it when I did that.

All the time I was rubbing myself as well, trying to scratch that "itch" I get whenever I want to be fucked badly. It was tempting to stop and just pull my shorts down but if I did that then it wouldn't stop there and we'd be fucking before it was over. Not that such a thing would be so bad, it just was something better done later when people weren't right outside the door. After all, there are risks which make sex fun and then there are stupid risks which just land you in trouble. If there was one thing I DID know, it was that I didn't want to wait much longer to head for that free hotel room!

"Oh god, I'm cumming," Joe groaned in a deep guttural voice. "Open your mouth."

Joe reached down and held his cock while I dutifully opened my mouth like some trained seal waiting for its reward after a stunt. Actually, the analogy was a little more applicable than I sometimes care to admit. After all, I HAD done what I was "trained" to do and I WAS waiting for my reward. In truth, I would have much preferred to keep sucking him and let him cum with my lips wrapped around his shaft, trying to keep it all in my mouth.

I loved the feeling of a dick when it swells and fires it's loads into my mouth like a fire hose, not to mention it's a lot less messy. Guys can't seem to be able to aim their shots cum any better than when the pee in the toilet! Plus, the whole thing of me squatting in front of him while he stroked himself that last little bit until he came just seemed so... pornographic I guess you could say. It reminded me of those girls my dad watched from his porn DVDs.

It was only a few stroked before he started to cum. Sure enough, he missed the target entirely on his first shot, landing it on my forehead and leaving a trail between my eyes and on my nose. The next one was a little lower and struck my open mouth such that I could feel the bitter salty taste of his warm cum on my outstretched tongue. After that, it seemed to go everywhere - my cheeks, hair, and a little in my mouth. I could only imagine the mess I was going to have to clean up - all because he wanted to watch himself cum on me.

When he was finished I grabbed his hard cock and pulled it into my hungry mouth once again, sucking on it like a baby on a nipples as I drained the last bit of sperm from his dick. Joe's dick was ultra-sensitive after his orgasm and he practically shook as I sucked his messy cock. Finally he was empty but I still kept him in my mouth, not yet willing to give it back to him.

"Damn, that was something else," he sighed to me as he lifted me up by my shoulders. Then he looked at me and couldn't help but grin saying, "Ummmmm, hate to say this but you are one hell of a mess. Sorry."

Oh sure he was! What is it that makes men want to spray their cum all over a girl? Frankly, I don't understand the attraction. After all, I have a hungry mouth and pussy standing by, waiting to take very drop. It took a few gulps to swallow down what had made it into my mouth but the aftertaste lingered, as I knew it would for a long time unless I got something to drink or eat to cover it up. I wouldn't have minded kissing him but from the way he was pulling back, I knew he never would so long as his cum was on my face and tongue. Boys are so homophobic in general. It's just cum after all, the same stuff they expect me to eat by the load.

There were some tablecloths folded up on a table near us so I went over and took one to use as a towel to wipe the cum off my face. It should have gotten the majority of it at least, but it was hard to tell without a mirror. Indeed, I had learned my lesson about the range of a man's cum long before when I found people giving me strange looks after emerging from having given my boyfriend a BJ in a public place.

"I have to use the restroom," I apologized to him, although I'm not really sure why I was the one making the apology. It was HIS fault after all. Had it been up to me, every drop would have been inside my mouth! Oh well, not like I was complaining all that much at the time.

I peeked out the door and didn't see anyone looking out way so we quickly exited the conference room. No sooner than Joe had shut the door behind us than a casino worker stepped out of the one next to us and saw us. He looked at us a little oddly and then grinned. I don't know if it was because he knew what he had been doing or maybe I had missed something on my face, but in any case he just turned around and went back in the room without saying a word to us.

The restrooms were just down the hall so I quickly made my way there and looked in the mirror. Sure enough, there was a big lump of sperm in my hair to the side I'd missed so I took a paper towel, wetted it, and tried to get it out before it got any harder. A comb would have been nice except I didn't bring my purse in - one less thing to worry about losing in a crowded casino. I did the best I could and then rinsed my face off as best I could without removing all my makeup. Fortunately I've never been a big one for a ton of makeup so it wasn't like I had that much to worry about in the first place.

Back out in the hallway, Joe was waiting impatiently for me. I playfully punched him in the shoulder.

"You jerk, you could have told me there was cum in my hair!" I playfully chastised him.

"There was?" he pretended to be surprised. He couldn't pull off the fake clueless look for long before he burst out laughing. "I thought you might like showing it off."

He deserved to be smacked - so I hit him again, a little harder this time, but he didn't seem to mind. Instead, he led me over to the check-in desk where he presented his room comp and got a room card. It only took a few minutes before we were headed back to the casino with him flashing the card like it was some magical pass.

4. Getting Started in the Hotel Room

It took a while to track down Nancy and MJ but we finally found them at a blackjack table where, no surprise, he appeared to be losing. Of course, if he had paid half as much attention to his cards as he as to Nancy he might have had better luck. Talk about two love-birds!

Joe took a seat next to MJ but waved off the dealer, explaining he would be leaving in a moment. Nancy turned to me and asked how it had been going with Joe and me. When I whispered to her (as softly as the loud background noise permitted) about what I had just done to Joe, her eyes widened.

"No way, you didn't do him already?"

"Just a BJ, not like we fucked or anything," I responded, acting as though it was nothing.

To my complete surprise, I saw the dealer including Joe in the next round. Apparently he had changed his mind about not playing. Men! He just HAD to show MJ he was better, didn't he. Here I was, my mouth still tasting of his cum, ready to go to his room and let him fuck my brains out, and he wanted to play cards! Who would believe me if I told them?

Disgusted with him, I turned to Nancy and asked her if she wanted to play some slots with me. She seemed surprised at first and then, seeing the two guys totally ignoring us as they concentrated on who could do better than the other, agreed.

My goal was NOT to play for a lot of money but just to occupy myself until our two card sharks had their fill so we headed over to the nickel slots where all the high rollers were gathered. Most of the players seemed to be fresh off the bus from the nursing home so you can imagine the looks Nancy and I got from the old perverts when we walked through the aisles hunting for a machine to play on. I really didn't know one from the other so we finally picked two that looked interesting and took a seat.

Nancy was wearing her engagement ring and I was obviously her friend but do you think that would deter the men? Ha! We hadn't been playing five minutes before the vultures began to circle. At first it was just a couple of guy looking our way - much too often to be a coincidence. Then the "flyovers" started - guys that seemed to need to pace back and forth in the same area we were playing, looking down at us as they passed, probably hoping for a peek down our tops. Of course we ignored them all and to be honest, not one of them seemed the slightest bit interesting.

Then the marines landed. Two guys approached us, looking to be in their late thirties or forties, each taking a seat next to us and thus boxing us in between them. I didn't pay any attention to them until the one next to me tried to strike up a conversation. I was polite until he put his hand on my bare leg.

"Look, don't touch," I admonished him. I almost laughed at the sound of it, like some stripper doing a lap dance for a guy.

"Ah baby, you know you want it," the perv replied, keeping his hand on my leg and if anything, moving it up a little higher.

"Take your hand off my leg - NOW!" I said forcefully, loud enough to get the attention of the people around us, including a security guard who came over to see if everything was OK. I just looked at the perv who took his hand off me and got up to leave, muttering something about a "bitch" under his breath.

That scene sort of scared off the vultures for a while, leaving Nancy and me to play without being pestered constantly. If it had just been me alone, maybe I would have toyed with the guy a little more before calling in for an air strike. He didn't have a chance in hell of getting me but he didn't have to know that, at least not for a while until I was tired of him.

Just then Nancy's machine started to make all sorts of noises and lights flashing. She had won something big apparently. As it turned out, she had won 10,000 of something or another which she explained to me were nickels since we were playing on a nickel machine. Since the machines no longer use tokens, all she got was the sound and light show without the tokens falling from the machine forever. Still, $500 was a lot of money from playing just a nickel!

Thanks to Nancy's winnings, we played for a while after that and before I knew it, a couple of hours had passed and I was wondering what the boys were up to. We cashed out and held onto the cash slips from the machines as we tried to track down the guys. Not surprisingly, they were still at the same table although neither of them seemed nearly as happy as Nancy and me. Nancy waved her cash slip in front of MJ who seemed shocked that she could have done that much better than him - playing slots at that.

Putting my hands on Joe's shoulders, I leaned down to whisper in his ear.

"You know, I hear the VIP room is open if you're interested."

Joe looked puzzled at first and then he caught on to what I was referring to and smiled. He reached around and grabbed my ass - a few too many drinks I think.

"Yeah, I've had enough of this... let's go."

Joe said something to MJ who just nodded and gathered his chips. Apparently they had been talking while we were gone since he didn't seem at all surprised, assuming Joe had told him what I think he did. I turned to Nancy and grinned.

"Hey girl, looks like it's time to go for the jackpot."

Both guys seemed a bit tipsy when they stood up, not a good sign but at least they didn't fall down. Neither of them had a lot of chips so we passed by the cashiers and headed straight to the hotel. Once in the elevator, I turned to Joe and kissed him, letting my hand drift quickly to his crotch once again.

"Gee whiz Kelly," Nancy sighed, "Can't you wait two more minutes?"

I just ignored her as MJ didn't seem to mind watching us until Nancy grabbed his chin and turned his head towards her again. Just then the elevator chimed and the door opened to our floor. Our room was only a few doors down and before you knew it, we were in. It was a standard hotel room with two double beds and a bolted down TV on the dresser. Well, what do you want for free - a suite?

Joe had apparently had more to drink than even I had thought as he flopped backwards on the bed, arms out to his sides as he groaned.

"Someone make the room stop spinning," he said in a slurred voice. Great! We finally get to the room and he's drunk.

Then, unbelievably, he passed out. I don't mean he fell asleep, the jerk literally passed out - unconscious to the world. Never would I have expected THIS. Now what?

"Looks like Joe had a little too much to drink," Nancy murmured, her grasp of the obvious brilliant.

I felt like the wind had been taken from my sales. My hopes were to get in the room, strip as fast as possible, and have his dick in me before he could catch his breath. Instead, I was the infamous "third wheel" with MJ and Nancy, freshly engaged, in the room with me. Well, if I'm nothing else, I'm flexible. Since my original plans weren't coming to fruition, it was time for Plan B, whatever THAT was.

My mind raced and seeing Nancy and MJ, there was only one logical thing to do. Only problem was, would Nancy go along with it? After all, MJ wasn't just her boyfriend, he was her fiance. Obviously this was going to take a little finesse, not exactly my strong suit, especially when I was as horny as I was at that moment.

It became readily apparent that Nancy and MJ weren't concerned about my issues with Joe, especially MJ. He grabbed Nancy and held on to her as they dropped to their bed and started going at it like two teenagers in heat. They started stripping each other's clothes off, totally oblivious to me as I sat on my own bed next to Joe and watched. Who needed to turn on the TV and watch a porn channel when I had my own private show right in front of me?

This was the first time I'd seen MJ naked. For that matter, it was the first time I'd seen Nancy naked other than dressing or some other non-sexual circumstance. There was one time when on a dare she posed for some nudes but that was several years ago and so far as I know, it was a one-time event. MJ was ready to go with his dick already hard and sticking out from his crotch like a branch from a tree. In my opinion, I would rate his dick maybe a 6 or 7 on a 1-10 scale. I like it when a guy's dick gets so hard that it stick out and even better if it hold itself and points to the sky. Some guys never get that "steel rod" hardness and while their dicks get firm and big, the just hang there.

I guess you could compare my dick preference as similar to the way some guys rate boobs. Some like the perky ones, not so big but standing up on their own with nipples pointing straight out. Then there are those that prefer the big ones, even if they do hand down and need support to look good when dressed.

Nancy was just a pretty as ever. She was a blonde, but not a "natural" one as the dark small patch of pubic hair she kept as a "landing strip" over her pussy. She has GREAT boobs, though, boobs I would have killed for, looking like maybe 36D or even DD. Not only did she have great boobs, but her legs were long and trim and her overall figure made me incredibly envious - and horny. Too bad she had never expressed even the slightest interest in girls!

Laying together naked on a hotel bed, an engaged couple totally in love and consumed with deep lust for one another, it was the stuff porn movies only wish they could capture. There was no acting going on here. No fake moans or ridiculously staged orgasms, just two people making love - and doing it just a few feet away from me. Who would blame me for feeling as horny as a girl on her first date with the school stud?

Joe was out so I just crawled up on the bed and bunched up the pillows so I could lean back on them. Stripping off my clothes (hey, if MJ and Nancy could be nude, why not me?) I took a position such that with my legs spreads apart I could see the show being conducted next to me. My hands immediately reached for my boobs and pussy and I slowly began to masturbate, more subconsciously than anything else as I was mesmerized by the site of the two lovers.
